Operation 40 (a CIA assassination squad most of whom were Cubans). Larry Hancock in his 2006 book, Someone Would Have Talked reveals “Sanjenis, the individual in charge of Operation 40, was actually the number one exile in the AMOT organization trained and prepared by David Sánchez Morales. Jose Perdomo was a member of Brigade 2506 during the Bay of Pigs Invasion. Jose Perdomo was the control officer that CIA assigned to Frank Sturgis when Sturgis joined CIA in 1958. The presence of Jose Perdomo at the crime scene is the unequivocal proof that CIA murdered John Lennon. Jose (Sanjenis) Perdomo, Chief of the Secret Service at the Presidential Palace in Havana during President Carlos Prio Socarras, a CIA veteran, worked for CIA/Miami station in the early 1960s, and recruited most of the members of Operation 40 (a CIA assassination squad most of whom were Cubans). Larry Hancock in his 2006 book, Someone Would Have Talked reveals “Sanjenis, the individual in charge of Operation 40, was actually the number one exile in the AMOT organization trained and prepared by David Sánchez Morales. Jose Perdomo was a member of Brigade 2506 during the Bay of Pigs Invasion. Jose Perdomo was the control officer that CIA assigned to Frank Sturgis when Sturgis joined CIA in 1958. Jose Perdomo is also known as Jose Joaquin Sanjenis Perdomo, who sometimes uses the aliases Joaquin Sanjenis and Sam Jenis. - Jose Perdomo was the doorman at the Dakota on Dec. 8, 1980, the night Lennon was killed; Jose Perdomo was at the crime scene when the murder occurred. - Jose Perdomo told police Chapman was Lennon’s assailant. One of the arresting officers, Peter Cullen, did not believe Chapman shot Lennon. Cullen believed the shooter was a handyman at the Dakota, but Perdomo convinced Cullen it was Chapman. Cullen thought Chapman “looked like a guy who worked in a bank.” Posted 10 December 2019 Sam Halper, who has been the Times correspondent in Havana and more recently in Miami, came to see me last week. He has excellent contracts among the Cuban exiles. One of Miro's comments this morning reminded me that I have been meaning to pass on the following story as told me by Halper. Halper says that CIA set up something called Operation 40 under the direction of a man named (as he recalled) Captain Luis Sanjenis, who was also chief of intelligence. (Could this be the man to whom Miro referred this morning?) It was called Operation 40 because originally only 40 men were involved: later the group was enlarged to 70. The ostensible purpose of Operation 40 was to administer liberated territories in Cuba. But the CIA agent in charge, a man known as Felix, trained the members of the group in methods of third degree interrogation, torture and general terrorism. The liberal Cuban exiles believe that the real purpose of Operation 40 was to "kill Communists" and, after eliminating hard-core Fidelistas, to go on to eliminate first the followers of Ray, then the followers of Varona and finally to set up a right wing dictatorship, presumably under Artime. Varona fired Sanjenis as chief of intelligence after the landings and appointed a man named Despaign in his place. Sanjenis removed 40 files and set up his own office; the exiles believe that he continues to have CIA support. As for the intelligence operation, the CIA is alleged to have said that, if Varona fired Sanjenis, let Varona pay the bills. Subsequently Sanjenis's hoods beat up Despaign's chief aide; and Despaign himself was arrested on a charge of trespassing brought by Sanjenis. The exiles believe that all these things had CIA approval. Halper says that Lt Col Vireia Castro (1820 SW 6th Street, Miami; FR 4 3684) can supply further details. Halper also quotes Bender as having said at one point when someone talked about the Cuban revolution against Castro: "The Cuban Revolution? The Cuban Revolution is something I carry around in my checkbook."

November 4 2008 "is Obama the secret son of Malcom X?" published

Isreali Insider

"There are said to be photos of Ann Dunham on Waikiki Beach taken in or about July 1961, when she is supposed to have been in her third trimester, in a bikini, taken by a fellow female student. AD is clearly not pregnant. Media have not yet talked to fellow students, but it can't be long. There are bound to be other photos of AD in existence taken during the alleged 2nd and 3rd trimesters. Obama campaign are terrified some one will press for her medical records, which have been accessed by CIA."

"Moving to Indonesia the Obama campaign are also suppressing the Indonesian immigration and passport records, which I believe show him as a Kenyan citizen, and the naturalisation records. They have not denied Internet claims he was naturalised in Indonesia. If he was a US citizen there should be a visa record to back that up."

"Obama Senior was murdered in Kenya in 1982 to silence him. Interesting story re his sister Auma as well - she appears to be a full sister, not a halfsister as he is claiming, i.e. they share the same mother. She was ordered back to Kenya in 2007 to prevent DNA testing …. CIA did a DNA test on the grandparents, using saliva from glasses, which conclusively rules out any relationship between Obama and the Dunhams."

"The source said that the Dunham family became involved because Stanley Dunham, Sr. was suspected of espionage. Boeing, he said, has “a 1944 security file on Stanley Dunham in connection with suspected sabotage of B17G aircraft at their Wichita Kansas plant and the theft of B-29 blueprints, afull set of which were passed to the German Abwehr via Lisbon by June 1944. Ann Dunham appears to have been chosen as the surrogate mother in 1963 because of the family connection to German Intelligence.

German assets in the US, including Rezko, who is connected to the Syrian Mukhabarat and the German DVD, sponsored his career.

Well, this is a lot to take in, and on first reading it struck me that the source had been reading too many Le Carre novels or Bond movies. I mean, really: “The Manchurian Candidate” meets “The Boy from Mombassa Kenya”?

It seemed completely preposterous, and indeed I initially dismissed it as preposterous. Obama a “German sleeper agent”? Of course, in those days the East Germans were a Soviet satellite, and the DDR was perhaps the most feared and ideological of the communist states, with more than a sprinkling of rehabilitated Nazis uncured of their genetic fantasies andexperiments. 1961-1963 were the peak years of the Cold War, with Berlin playing a central role in East-West hostilities.

2008 Barrack OBama Jr elected POTUS and Ed Attacked

II watched the swearing in of Obama in a NC mental hospital, placed there believing i was radiolically attacked. Now there will be intense scrutiny of him and his family line and origins. A danger to hin and the Barr family, Mueller family, Bush family, and others.

18 U.S. Code Chapter 113B - TERRORISM including Radiological Dispersal on Karen Silwood and Ed Donegan who are connected

Ed Donegann asserts as Barrack Obaam Jr was being elected and sworn in I Edward Paul Donegan was in a railroad on a misdemeanor charge already trying to cope with stalking and illegal acts I claimed in place for 20 years before that matching Ted Gunderson allegations including that in 2008 I was radiologically poised. Why would someone do so, the true background of Donegan' and Obama's are in question, and the GOP Nixon Rockefeller Republican role in CIA activities. At that time and now my claims are not believed but D-E_W attacks are recognized now though attributed to Russia.

Attacks including Poisoning and Weapons Fire on Ted Gunderson and his family

The CIA and FBI "are behind most, if not all terrorism." - Ted Gunderson, former FBI Chief

GANG STALKING VIGILANTISM RUN BY U.S. GOVERNMENT, SAYS EX-FBI OFFICIAL

Rudy2's Multilingual Blog Just another WordPress.com weblog http://www.nowpublic.com/world/u-s-govt-runs-gang-stalking-vigilantism-says-ex-fbi-official

Official confirms what thousands of victims have long known: an evil U.S. shadow government is conducting a covert, taxpayer-funded genocidal purge of American society - while Congress and an apparently entrained Obama administration sleep.

Author's note: Former FBI official Ted Gunderson died of cancer on July 31, 2011. Was his illness induced by silent electromagnetic assault or by other nefarious means? We will never know - and that's just the way certain entities want it.

A former senior official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation says "rogue" military intelligence and law enforcement units of the federal government oversee a nationwide network of community-based "gang stalking" harassment, intimidation and domestic terrorism directed at thousands of U.S. citizens who have been extrajudicially targeted as "dissidents" or undesirables.

Ted Gunderson, 82, who has served as the special agent in charge of the FBI's Los Angeles, Memphis and Dallas field offices, has stated in a series of public speaking appearances that he is now targeted by these same elements, and fears for his life and for the safety of his family. He reports that the windows of his home have been shot out, and he believes he has been poisoned and physically sickened by those seeking to silence him.

Since his retirement from the FBI in the 1979, Gunderson has been a Southern California- based private investigator. He is most noted for his defense work on the murder case involving former Army physician Dr. Jeffrey MacDonald.

The ex-FBI official's comments represent the most compelling testimony to date indicating that "black operations" of the federal government are dedicated to waging a covert war of terror and persecution targeting American citizens.

> “Based on my thirty years’ experience and research, I have determined there are thousands of victims who have been targeted by an illegal U.S. government rogue criminal enterprise - military intelligence, probably, tied into CIA and FBI and so forth - that is active 24 hours a day throughout the United States,” Gunderson stated in an October 2008 speech posted last fall on YouTube.

Ted Gunderson and William Colby were likely assasited by the CIA. Both were part of Roman Catholic JFK era activities. Ted Gundesron asserted Colby was killed by the CIA and FBI bullets into the skull. in 2023 Targted Justice files one billion dollar lawsuit against CIA FBI DOJ for illegal acts inside the USA and quote Colby and Gunderson extensively on the Deep State acts in the USA. TargetedJustice.com asserts it is the number one site for people like Ed Donegan and Ted Gunderson who were victims of poinsing including D-E-W attacks on US soil.

2010 “The Story of Obama: All in the Company”

The Family of Obama and the CIA There are volumes of written material on the CIA backgrounds of George H. W. Bush and CIA-related activities by his father and children, including former President George W. Bush. Barack Obama, on the other hand, cleverly masked his own CIA connections as well as those of his mother, father, step-father, and grandmother (there is very little known about Obama’s grandfather, Stanley Armour Dunham, who was supposedly in the furniture business in Hawaii after serving in Europe during World War II). Presidents and vice presidents do not require security background checks, unlike other members of the federal government, to hold office. That job is left up to the press. In 2008, the press failed miserably in its duty to vet the man who would win the White House. With the ties of Obama's parents to the University of Hawaii and its links to MKULTRA and ARTICHOKE, a nagging question remains: Is Barack Obama a real-life "Manchurian Candidate?" https://www.voltairenet.org/article166759.html

November 2, 2010 - The Official CIA Manual of Trickery and Deception

Once a top-secret training manual for CIA field agents in the early Cold War Era of the 1950s, The Official CIA Manual of Trickery and Deception is now available to the general public.

An amazing historical artifact, this eye-opening handbook offered step-by-step instructions to covert intelligence operatives in all manner of sleight of hand and trickery designed to thwart the Communist enemy. Part of the Company's infamous MK-ULTRA-a secret mind-control and chemical interrogation research program-this legendarydocument, the brainchild of John Mulholland, then America's most famous magician, was believed lost forever. But thanks to former CIA gadgeteer Bob Wallace and renowned spycraft historian H. Keith Melton, The Official CIA Manual of Trickery and Deception is now available to everyone, spy and civilian alike.

While I Edward Paul Donegan have not read this book on Subversiion I have experienced it and it has been talked about before me and done around me and is the GangStalk of linking people to things they are not in control of by combinations created by Forced Teaming and an act of Tresspass. The Forced Teaming is they the CIA or FBI or NSA control a public space next to or surrounding a person. The Tresspass is an inculpatory statedment will be made to the stalked person impliating them in the surrounding activity, linking them to it. A forged confession from the Stalk Victim might also be used.

On my Genoreacketeerig archive once the name of my book I use Tara Moore's later regarding her landlord because it mirrors my experiences and is part of a pattern. They take over a landlord office, change out the surroudings including neigbors, then stage evnts and perhaps also use breakins will being the landlord to connect you are your aprtment the the public spacae out of your control, linking you to those acts in some fraudulent way.

It is the science of a Smear Campaign, mobs of undecover people as false witness to events staged and not in the control of the person surrounded by bizzare ani inculpating scenarios. The mob of convert actors also talks up the phoney allegations as though the situation was real, not acted out by under cover actors.

March 1, 2012,

Andrew James Breitbart was an American conservative journalist and political commentator who was the founder of Breitbart News and a co-founder of HuffPost.

Though gay he was hostile to sociology and thought he had evidence on the Obama family. He and his coroner or someone thought to be his coroner died under suspicious circumstances.

2011 Glorian Donegan dies chaos insues

I assert Jude Roll death and trust funds, Seal Team Six crash, Hastings death, part of Deep State cover-up and have a profile I developed that Roman Catholics including Justice Scalia are deeply predisposed against assisting British assassination or tampering with life or Mafia groups.

Michael Mahon Hastings (January 28, 1980 - June 18, 2013

Was researching Barrack Obama origins, passport, birth certifate with Virginia Brein Windsor, Post-Mail picture of Mombassa Obama alleged birth certificate likely placed by CIA for Kenyan eventualities needing Obama as Agent of Influence inside Kenya.

Jen Moore is murdered after threating to reveal identities of big name elites who are tied to MKULTRA

2018 Jen Moore is posting on Youtube about hidden identities of MKULTRA, the OSS and CIA, and Glorian and Donegan showing the exterior of our Arlington Virginia home as she narrates the Von Trapp and Windsors story. The hints are Barrack Obama Jr. she names Hillary Clinton, I don't know of that is correct, http://www.patriotortraitor.com/jen-moore/ blames Prescott Sheldon Bush, the rest of the bush family, Mark Zuckenberg (as I also do) and many others and Jen Moore is found dead.

Tom Clancy died Died: October 1, 2013, The Johns

Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD

Assertions the Irish Roman Catholic had inside information on a Manchurian Candidate story line and was assassinated as he researched it. Assertion was made by Jim Garrow a long time CIA insider, 40 years as a CIA employee.

November 3 2019

Corpus Christi Police respond to break in of my home stealing DVD, Flatscreen TV, and computer I am writing my book on. I had rented from the library The King's Speech about the speech of Prince Albert of York, younger brother of Prince Edward of Windsor who would abdicate as King because of close ties with Nazis I think the Kutscheras of Austria included. The responding officer believed D'Andra Travino a neighbor across the hall was in on the heist as I did, and Mac Lamar evicted her, but she acted like a Confidential Informant of police for some time and had reported her odd behavior to Mac Lamar Property Management who was complicit in her behavior and placed her in that apartment.

Princess Margaret: What Really Happened on Her 1965 Tour of the United States retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

On her coast-to-coast visit of the United States, Queen Elizabeth II's younger sister made an impression with Hollywood elites and Washington D.C. leaders like Lyndon B. Johnson. RACHEL CHANGUPDATED:JUL 15,

2021ORIGINAL:NOV 19, 2019

Princess Margaret wasn't born to be like the other royals. In fact, she was the first member of the British royal family to be born in Scotland in 300 years.

As the younger sister of Queen Elizabeth II, the siblings were born as nieces to King Edward VIII - until their uncle abdicated the throne to marry his lover and their father became King George VI.

Just six years old at the time, Margaret, who died in 2002, was thrust even more into the spotlight. Whether in spite of her royal status - or because of it - as she grew up, she became known for her romances and her wayward behavior at parties, even as her sister took the crown in 1953. Her behavior led her to be dubbed with such nicknames as a "Royal Lightning Rod" as Time called her in 2002.

Despite the negative attention she often received, as part of Margaret's royal duties and in lieu of her sister, she embarked on a three-week trip to the United States in 1965.

Margaret's trip was at the 'request of Her Majesty's Government'

At the time in the sixties, the relationship between the United States and Britain were tense. After all, the United Kingdom had an £800 million deficit on payments in 1964 - and in order to get a loan from the International Monetary Fund, the U.S. had to approve it.

In addition to the weakening power of the U.K., which was also going through decolonization, the nation didn't support the United States' involvement in the Vietnam War. Many attribute this to the personal tensions between the nation's then-leaders: Prime Minister Harold Wilson and President Lyndon B. Johnson. In fact, Johnson is the only U.S. President out of 11 to not meet Elizabeth.

While the reason for Margaret's tour have been debated, the year after it happened, Britain's Minister of State for Foreign Affairs explained that it started as a private visit.

Wikipedia

Kennedy's upcoming trip to Dallas was first announced to the public in September 1963. The exact motorcade route was finalized on November 18 and announced to the public a few days before November 22. (date of assassination)

February 22, 1963 Ruth Paine meets the Oswalds at a party given at Everett Glover's house.. She holds a gun. Nov 18 the parade rout is chosen.

According to a declassified CIA document, Ruth's sister, Sylvia Hyde Hoke, was listed as an employee of the agency in the Falls Church, VA local directory in 1961. Ruth visited and stayed with her sister in September 1963. Ruth admits that her sister may have worked for "an outfit."[31]

Ruth's father, William Avery Hyde, was an insurance executive who went to work for USAID (United States Agency for International Development), which was and is a well known cover for CIA personnel. Declassified documents show that Hyde had contacts with the CIA, which at least considered him for use in an operation in Vietnam.[31]

Ruth's husband Michael Paine was the son of Ruth Forbes Paine and George Lyman Paine Jr.. Ruth Forbes Paine was a close friend of Mary Bancroft, an OSS agent and at times a mistress of CIA director Allen Dulles and Henry Luce.[32] Forbes Paine was also a student of Carl Jung.[33] Ruth Forbes Paine later married Arthur M. Young, who was a member of Andrija Puharich's Roundtable Foundation.[34]

D State Analytics *

Ferdinand Kuhn at the Secret Service. As Job Bluth would say "Come on!" - Update *

We run into Kuhn Loeb partners, or members of the partners extended families almost every time we pick a Deep State topic to research. There is Margaret Kuhn, the second wife of Godfrey A. Rockefeller, the Bell Helicopter Chief test pilot, who worked out of the same facilities as Michael Paine in Dallas (see: JFK Assassination if you do not know who the Paines were.)

There is Louis Lichtenstein Strauss, former Kuhn Loeb partner and two-time Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy's wife has some Loebs in her family tree, which we are still trying to figure out. Names like Schiff, Belmonte, Slidell, and Erlanger, tend to show up whenever there is historical Deep State skull-duggery in progress.

Ferdinand Kuhn was a former NY Times journalist, OSS director, Maria DeBlasio's boss at the Office of War Information during WWII, and free lance author. In 1957 Ferdinand talked his way into the Secret Service Agency and wrote a book for middle-school aged students about what the Secret Service does. In our first post about Ferdinand we considered the implications of giving him access to the Secret Service, given his intelligence agency experience (OSS) and his associates, such as Maria DeBlasio, and her family (OSS, CIA.)

In this case, as Job Bluth would say, "You are telling me that Ferdinand Kuhn did not infiltrate the Secret Service to collect information about agency procedures under the guise of a kid's book author for a future presidential assassination?"[He was researching a kids book?]

Although Ferdinand does not show up much in the JFK files, a few of the Secret Service men he met with, circa 1957, do. Only a few Secret Service agents are mentioned by name specifically in the book. A few were retired agents with tales to tell about chasing down counterfeit rings. The two agents who were working in the Secret Service when the book was written and published in 1957 were Secret Service Chief U.E. Baughman (the top guy), and James J. Rowley, head of the White House detail from 1946 to 1961.

Michael Paines mother was Ruth Forbes Young financial backer of International Peace Academy and daughter of Elise Cabot Forbes, a scion of the (Boston Brahmins) Cabot family. He had one sibling: Cameron

Paine

In 1959 Michael Paine got a job with Bell Helicopter in Fort Worth, Texas[6] and the Paines moved into a house in the suburb of Irving (Michael Paine's step-father, Arthur M. Young, invented the Bell Helicopter). As liberals in Dallas, the Paines were isolated, and Ruth Paine was quite lonely.

Ruth Paine had been studying Russian since 1957. In the late 1950s she participated in Quaker pen pal programs and the East-West Contact Committee, which sponsored visits by three Soviets to the US. In 1963 she signed up to teach a summer class in Russian at St. Mark's School in Dallas, but only one student signed up

The Boston Brahmins or Boston elite are members of Boston's traditiona class.[1] They are often associated with Harvard University; Anglicanis class clubs such as the Somerset in Boston, the Knickerbocker in New Y the Metropolitan in Washington, D.C., and the Pacific-Union Club in Sa Francisco; and traditional Anglo-American customs and clothing. Desce the earliest English colonists are typically considered to be the most re of the Boston Brahmins.[2][3] They are considered White Anglo-Saxon Protestants.

George Cabot was an American merchant, seaman, and politician fro Massachusetts. He represented Massachusetts in the U.S. Senate and wa presiding officer of the infamous Hartford Convention. Wikipedia Born 16, 1751, Salem, MA

1620-11-19 Mayflower pgrims reach Cape Cod, 1919-11-19 Treaty of Versaille & League of Nations rejected by US Senate, 1977-11-19 Egyptian Pres Anwar Sadat arrives in Israel, 1978-11-19 Rev Jim Jones leads 911 people in suicide in Jonestown Guyana

The Missile crisis with both Russia and China, the spread of communism generally, led to the need for Barack Obama as a test birth of futurism and IQ gains in black Windsor DNA with the speech defect FOXP2 was tried through GLorian Donegan with a Malcom X fertilization. An orator non white would be planted in the Pacific as a CIA Peace Corps USAID MKULTRA Sleeper Agent to lead in Indonesia.

A future leader needed in Indonesia, Polynesia, Malaysia to help fight communism and the growing Intercontinental Missile Threat

Using Boeing Corporation and the Seattle Missile Defense area the Pacific Northwest Futurist of MKULTRA and Sidney Gottlieb and Warner Von Braun, MKULTRA and JFK decided a test baby for Indonesia. US relatives of King Edward VIII, with FOXP2 gene, tried out on Barack Obama, btw a great orator, who could be planted in Indonesia for peace between the East and West.

Boeing Corporation, the Minuteman and other TRIAD connections

In 1955, the Soviet Union successfully tested a hydrogen bomb, and in 1957 it launched the Sputnik satellite, surpassing the United States in rocket technology. Fearing that the Soviet Union had the ability to attack the United States with intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBM), the United States made development of a reliable, rapid-response ballistic missile the highest priority.

On Feb. 27, 1958, the U.S. Air Force received approval from the Department of Defense to begin research and development on the new missile designated Weapon

System 133-A, called the “Minuteman.” The design called for a three-stage, solid-fueled missile that was to be extremely reliable, quick to launch, have maximum simplicity and a high capability for survival, and be able to remain on alert in its silo 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for many years

On Oct. 9, 1958, the Air Force announced its selection of Boeing as assembly and test contractor for the Minuteman missile, beginning one of the most complex, largest and longest running programs in Boeing history. At its peak, it would employ 39,700 people located at Boeing sites in Seattle and at the missile final assembly site at Plant 77 in Ogden, Utah.

After his parole in August 1952 Malcolm X visited Elijah Muhammad in Chicago.[59] In June 1953 he was named assistant minister of the Nation’s Temple Number One in Detroit.[60] [D] Later that year he established Boston’s Temple Number 11; [Under Malcom X in 1957 to 1964] in March 1954, he expanded Temple Number 12 in Philadelphia;[63] and two months later he was selected to lead Temple Number 7 in Harlem,[64] where he rapidly expanded its membership.[65]

Mosque No. 11, also known as Masjid Al-Quran, was a mosque in Boston, Massachusetts. The building came to prominence in the late 1950s when it was leased by the Nation of Islam and placed under the direction of Malcolm X, who was a minister there and at Mosques No. 7 and No. 12 until he left the religion for Sunni Islam in 1964

In Cape Cod: Malcom X, Barrack Obama Sr. JFK, Glorian Donegan, James Donegan, Kennedy's, Bush Family

CIA asset, Don Bohning (AMCARBON-3) argues in his book, The Castro Obsession (2005), that Operation 40 was not actually established until March 1961. Bohning quotes one of his sources as saying that the group's initial objective was to take over the administration of "the towns and cities liberated by the invasion force, roundup government officials and sympathizers and secure the files of the government's different intelligence services" after the Bay of Pigs operation. (12) *

NASA Langely on the list of suspect organizations for program and program coverups including aviation disasters

Most likely much of this genome and IQ and evolution run out of NASA Langley Research Facility and search for intelligence life, its meanings in science, and its origins and existence in the universe.

A test baby

The test fertilization, a new IVF procedure, resulted in a Daniel Freeman Hospital, Manhattan Beach California birth with JFK present.

To hide the covert operation and facilitate Barack Obama's implant into Indonesia a Hawaii birth was a cover story by the CIA, the parents of Barack Obama on the white side tied to the CIA from Witchita Kansas and Settle.

Ballistic Missile history reported on Wikipedia

The earliest form of ballistic missiles dates from the 13th century with its use derived from the history of rockets. In the 14th century, the Ming Chinese navy used an early form of a ballistic cruise missile weapon called the Huo long chu shui in naval battles against enemy ships.[1]

A modern pioneer ballistic missile was the A-4,[2] commonly known as the V-2 developed by Nazi Germany in the 1930s and 1940s under the direction of Wernher von Braun. The first successful launch of a V-2 was on October 3, 1942, and it began operation on September 6, 1944, against Paris, followed by an attack on London two days later.

By the end of World War II in Europe in May 1945, more than 3,000 V-2s had been launched.[3]

AElfwine

CC BY-SA 3.0 Link

The R-7 (Russian: Р-7 “Семёрка”) was a Soviet missile developed during the Cold War, and the world’s first intercontinental ballistic missile.[1] The R-7 made 28 launches between 1957 and 1961, but was never deployed operationally.

The first strategic-missile unit became operational on 9 February 1959 at Plesetsk in the north-west of the USSR. On 15 December 1959 the R-7 missile was tested at Plesetsk for the first time. The missiles were fully deployed by 1962

The R-7 Semyorka was the first intercontinental ballistic missile.

> The limitations of the R-7 pushed the Soviet Union into rapidly developing second-generation missiles which would be more viable weapons systems. The R-7 was phased out of military service by 1968.
>
> While the R-7 turned out to be impractical as a weapon, it became the basis for a series of Soviet expendable space launch vehicles, the Soyuz family of launchers. As of 2018, in modified versions (Soyuz-U, Soyuz-FG, and the Soyuz-2 (including the boosterless 2.1v variant), the vehicle is still in service, having launched over 1840 times.

A total of 30 nations have deployed operational ballistic missiles. Development continues with around 100 ballistic missile flight tests in 2007 (not including those of the US), mostly by China, Iran, and the Russian Federation.[citation needed] In 2010, the U.S. and Russian governments signed a treaty to reduce their inventory of intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBMs) over a seven-year period (to 2017) to 1550 units each.[4]

Sarah Cruddas
14.1K Tweets
THE SPACE RACE
The first British children's book to ever travel to space!
Follow
Sarah Cruddas
@sarahcruddas
Host of CONTACT on @Discovery and @ScienceChannel | Space Journalist, TV Presenter, Adventurer & Author. Background in astrophysics. info@sarahcruddas.com
Lost in Space
sarahcruddas.com
Joined January 2009
1,439 Following
26.2K Followers
Not followed by anyone you're following

You Retweeted

Sarah Cruddas
@sarahcruddas

59 years ago today, Yuri Gagarin became the first human to leave Earth and travel to space.

After an eternity confined to Earth, we took our first small steps into the vastness of the Cosmo.

Today, we are still only just beginning to scratch the surface of what is out there.

5:17 AM · Apr 12, 2020 · Twitter for iPhone

King Edward VIII, Philanderer, abdicates, marries in U.S., playboy with socialites, Speech

Defect, Sidney Gottlieb and WWII. Spanish Illuminati
Pre 1963 Race, Economy, and Spread of Communism Sidney Gottlieb
Nu Rad Joh	Glorian Donegan FOXP2 ovum fertilized by Malcom	With Windsor family leadersship, perhaps some speech or other defect not understood, resolved through Malcom X, a groomed leader for CIA to manuever the missle situation 40 years from 1960	mes Donegan sting and Hawaii area
Families	Donegan Kennedy	JFK CIA Sidney	Glorian DNA

	Gottlieb Shrivers Peace Corps Windsors (via Glorian US Prince Edward)	Gottlieb Malcom X and Obama	Ovum and MalcomX create Barack Obama
Timelin	Manhatta Beach Californi Home To Lawford Shrivers	Cape Co Home to Donegans and Kennedy's	DC or JFK	Seattle Polar route of missiles, missile defense, Pacific rim and Russia	Chicago
Feb 20 1961	Donegans in above ground Triad atomic testing, radiation affects at Catholic St Joseph Daniel Freeman Hospital, Sidney Gottlieb, “Catholics In Action”		Thorkill, George Ball, JFK IVF CIA OECD, DIA created, MKULTR DARPA China	Indonesia plans for Obama, tied to Antrhopolgist Dunham cover story. CIA Peace Corps East-West Center University of Hawaii Suharto Crane Sidney Gottlieb	This cell seems black
Nov 18 1961	Nov 18 me born, Nov19	Although Donegan temporar	Barack Obama and		Trinity United Church of

	Birth Certificat Los Angles County Californi	in LA Californi still Massachu Cape Coc Social Security Number for me at Nov 18 1961 delivery	Edward Donegan born via Evan Ban Nov 18 1961 Birth Cert Nov 19 1961		Christ South Side of Chicago. December 3, 1961
	JFK at birth and I think Obama birth as well via Evan Ban		Experimental Monkey in White House		Nov 19 Newsweek Illuminati Obama Portrait
Feb 20 1962 1 year eval	Ed Donegan getting Electroencephalogr Borderline Personality and ADD, Dyslexia testing		Feb 21 JFK President Negro Colleges, Plan for Seattle	CIA Hawaii Plan	Chicago Convention Future of So Called Negroes
					East West Center Muhumad Speaks page 19 Feb 1962 East Is West West Is East Negros around the world https://issuu.com/muhammadspeaks/docs/feb-1962
April 1962 Eval of feb 20				21st Century Expo	Muhammad SPeaks Malcom X

1961 1 year IVF procedure result				Windsors Camelot, Missles	magazine Malcom X admires Dunham, Obama, waiting for judgement on “procedure, Dunham enters University of Washington Seatte Anthropology
Novembe 19 1962 Dick Chaney i police secret service CIA custody as he decides on a new religious course fo his life	Likely Dick Chenney is working with George H.W. Bush, CIA, Operation 40, MENA Airport Sidny Gottleib, James Donegan, Secret Service, Colin Powell, Alma

	Powell, Dulles Brothers, Donald Barr, MKULTRA Columbia University MKULTRA
Dec 13 1962			14 December 1962 Description: Sound recording of President John F. Kennedy's address to the Economic Club of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City
Nov 18 1963	Donegan: return to Cape Code from Manhatta Beach	Thomas Crane Wales (June 23, 1952 - October 11, 2001 was an American federal	JFK meets MKULTR Weherne Von BRaun, etc.,	Dunhams Obama live in Seattle, then hea to Indonesia JFK is dead Nov	Barack Obama is 2 years old, normal prosecutor … Wales was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy

22, had warned of secret org, maybe Freemasons

Feb20 info on Thomas Wales murder seek of information

Thomas Crane Wales (June 23, 1952 - October 11, 2001) was an American FEDERAL PROSECUTOR (cop) Seattle Washington. Wales was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick

Malcolm X, American minister, Cause of death: Assassination Date of assassination: February 21, 1965

	Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy and lived in area of Dunhams, Obama, Seattle Futurism

Leslianne Shedd Suspicious

- 1996 upcoming Obama IVF Children
- Nov 23 Diagraph
- Ethiopa (Famine, Race and IQ, Recently claimed place of origins of Human genes
- Other CIA death in CIA backe coupe
- Spanish Language (Griffith Experiment)
- Germany and Windsors of Germany
- University of Washington Seatle
- Same Locality of RFK Thomas C Wales Murder
- Seatle Dunham School

- JFK Windsor convention and RFK related murder coverup location

- Futurism

issuu.com/muhammadspeaks/docs/april-1962

Mail | Social Networking | News | Dropbox | tucc | Complain | WETWORKS

MORE THAN 12,000 peopl on Fe 23 gathered in Chicago's International Amphitheatet to hear Messenger Elijah Muhummad speak on "The Future of the American So-Called Negroes. Over 1100 people stood up and accepted Messenger Muhammad's divine solution to the so-called Negroes' problem.

--Picture catpion above Ed Donegan comments below --

I believe the Opus Dei Lay Miracles and also a test baby of Barrack OBama mixed Windsor Malcom X Test Tube baby. Introducing white DNA by Masons. Little Rock, Ehtiopia, Australia

MUHAMMAD SPEAKS

Messenger Muhammad Repeats:

LAND OF OUR OWN THE ONLY JUSTICE!

See Pages 3, 6, 8, 16 And 17

White Press, TV Tried To Fool 'Negroes' Truth About Convention In This Issue

See Page 2

Feb 20 1962
1 year IVF

See More Pictures On Center Page

SHARE SAVE LIKE 1 DOWNLOAD

/April-1962

Published on Feb 10, 2011

Page 2 MUHAMMAD SPEAKS April 1962

INDEPENDENCE Awakens Jamaica

Convention Sidelights . .

Jewish Philosopher Condems Israel

So-Called Negroes Get Heads Beaten Trying To Integrate White "Twisting"

Attorney Miller Tell:

No Group Served American Faith As "Negro"

MUHAMMAD SPEAKS April 1962

SEE MORE

"We Must Have Some Of This Earth!"

By DAN BURLEY

Full Text Of Messenger Muhammad's Speech

"Future Of American So-Called Negroes . . ."

ROCKWELL G CO. – THEY SPEAK FOR ALL WHITE

46 RURAL POWER PLANTS FINISHED

MUHAMMAD SPEAKS

1962 February 21 — Meeting with presidents of Negro Colleges, 12:17PM

1962 February 21 — Meeting regarding the Seattle World's Fair, 12:57PM

Captain Raymond Sharrieff, instructor of Fruit of Islam, gets instructions from Messenger Muhammad.
Messenger Elijah Muhammad the so-called Negro. Messenger is being hailed through the Muhammad at convention re-world as the only leader who pegged demand "so-called Negro seeks something of benefit for must have home of his own".
Minister Malcolm Shabazz seeks a judgement from Messenger Muhammad on procedure.
Malcom X Comments on "Procedure" Barrack Obama
Dunham
THE YOUNG LISTENED
THE OLD HEARD

MUHAMMAD DELIVERS HISTORIC MESSAGE TO AMERICA: Record Attendance Set Page 18
Center Page
MalcomX
Obama
Dunham
EVERYONE WAS INVITED
ALL HAD THEIR CHANCE TO SPEAK

WAR-BREEDING CHRISTIANITY)

"East Is East, West Is West"

The white author, Rudyard Kipling, wrote: "East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet." Whatever your interpretation of these lines may be, we insert that the East, today, has indeed met the West. Our brothers in the East have wondered over the captivity of their brother, so-called Negro, in this Western Hemisphere, but they did not have the power or the ability to free us from the prison-houses of North America. As Allah's Messenger informs us, it was only until approximately 70 years ago when some of our people of Asia became aware of our plight and voyage to this country.

Almighty God, now, is shaking the nations with truth. We are quite sure that it has been the hope of the Westren white man that the long-awaited Mahdi of the world would not come, for with His coming comes the death of their entire civilization. After the hour of his execution, not a trace or remembrance of his kingdom would remain.

They had hoped that Western Imperialism, Colonialism and all such aggressive "isms" would not be challenged and utterly stripped bare to reveal their evil roots. The white man would desire for the West to advocate supreme governing power in the capitals of the

Colgan Air Flight 3407 (9L/CJC 3407) was marketed as Continental Connection Flight 3407. It was delayed two hours, departing at 9:18 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (EST; 02:18 UTC), en route from Newark Liberty International Airport to Buffalo Niagara International Airport.[3]

The twin-engine turboprop Bombardier Dash 8 Q400, FAA registry N200WQ, was manufactured in 2008 for delivery to Colgan.[3]:15-21[7]

This was the first fatal accident for a Colgan Air passenger flight since the company was founded in 1991. One previous repositioning flight, with no passengers, crashed offshore of Cape Cod, Massachusetts, in August 2003, killing both of the crew on board. The only prior accident involving a Colgan Air passenger flight occurred at LaGuardia Airport, when another plane collided with the Colgan aircraft while taxiing, resulting in minor injuries to a flight attendant.[8]

Victims

Then U.S. President Barack Obama shaking hands with Beverly Eckert six days before the accident

Crash: February 12, 2009.

After the captain reacted inappropriately to the stick shaker stall warning, the stick pusher activated. As designed, it pushed the nose down when it sensed a stall was imminent, but the captain again reacted improperly and overrode that additional safety device by pulling back again on the control column, causing the plane to stall and crash.[55] Bill Voss, president of Flight Safety Foundation, told USA Today that it sounded like the plane was in “a deep stall situation”.[56]

A total of 50 people died, including the 49 passengers and crew on board when the aircraft was destroyed, and one resident of the house that was struck. There were four injuries on the ground, including two other people inside the home at the time of the crash. Among the dead were:

- Alison Des Forges, a human rights investigator and an expert on the Rwandan genocide.[13][31]

- Beverly Eckert, who became co-chair of the 9/11 Family Steering Committee and a leader of Voices of September 11 after her husband Sean Rooney was killed in the September 11 attacks. She was en route to Buffalo to celebrate her husband's 58th birthday and award a scholarship in his memory at Canisius High School.[13][32][33]

- Gerry Niewood and Coleman Mellett, jazz musicians who were en route to a concert with Chuck Mangione and the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra.[13]

- Susan Wehle, the first American female Jewish Renewal cantor.[34]

Robert H. Goddard retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Goddard was born in Worcester, Massachusetts, to Nahum Danford Goddard (1859-1928) and Fannie Louise Hoyt (1864-1920). Robert was their only child to survive; a younger son, Richard Henry, was born with a spinal deformity and died before his first birthday. Nahum was employed by manufacturers, and he invented several useful tools.

Goddard had English paternal family roots in New England with William Goddard (1628-91) a London grocer who settled in Watertown, Massachusetts in 1666. On his maternal side he was descended from John Hoyt and other settlers of Massachusetts in the late 1600s.

Shortly after his birth, the family moved to Boston. With a curiosity about nature, he studied the heavens using a telescope from his father and observed the birds flying. Essentially a country boy, he loved the outdoors and hiking with his father on trips to Worcester and became an excellent marksman with a rifle.[19]:63, 64 In 1898, his mother contracted tuberculosis and they moved back to Worcester for the clear air. On Sundays, the family attended the Episcopal church, and Robert sang in the choir.

He wrote in 1927, “I imagine an innate interest in mechanical things was inherited from a number of ancestors who were machinists.”

General Jimmy Doolittle

Jimmy Doolittle was introduced to the field of space science at an early point in its history. He recalls in his autobiography, “I became interested in rocket development in the 1930s when I met Robert H. Goddard, who laid the foundation. … While with Shell Oil I worked with him on the development of a type of fuel … “

[image]

James Harold Doolittle (December 14, 1896 - September 27, 1993) was an American military general and aviation pioneer who received the Medal of Honor for his daring raids on Japan during World War II. He also made early coast-to-coast flights, won many flying races, and helped develop instrument flying.

Doolittle studied as an undergraduate at University of California, Berkeley, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in 1922. He also earned a doctorate in aeronautics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1925.[1][2] He was a flying instructor during World War I and a reserve officer in the United States Army Air Corps, but he was recalled to active duty during World War II.

Escort fighter tactics

Doolittle's major influence on the European air war occurred late in 1943 when he changed the policy of requiring escorting fighters to remain with their bombers at all times. Innstead, he permitted escort fighters to fly far ahead of the bombers' combat box formations, allowing them to freely engage the German fighters laying in wait for the bombers.

Throughout most of 1944, this tactic negated the effectiveness of the twin-engined Zerstörergeschwader heavy fighter wings and single-engined Sturmgruppen of heavily armed Fw 190As by clearing the Luftwaffe's bomber destroyers from ahead of the bomber formations. After the bombers had hit their targets, the American fighters were free to strafe German airfields, transportation, and other "targets of opportunity" on their return flight to base.

These tasks were initially performed with Lockheed P-38 Lightnings and Republic P-47 Thunderbolts through the end of 1943. They were progressively replaced with the long-ranged North American P-51 Mustangs as the spring of 1944 wore on.

Harry Guggenheim and Charles Lindbergh arranged for (then Major) Doolittle to discuss with Goddard a special blend of gasoline. Doolittle flew himself to Roswell in October 1938 and was given a tour of Goddard's shop and a "short course" in rocketry. He then wrote a memo, including a rather detailed description of Goddard's rocket.

In closing he said, "interplanetary transportation is probably a dream of the very distant future, but with the moon only a quarter of a million miles away-who knows!" In July 1941, he wrote Goddard that he was still interested in his rocket propulsion research. The Army was interested only in JATO at this point. However, Doolittle and Lindbergh were concerned about the state of rocketry in the US, and Doolittle remained in touch with Goddard.

Aerodynamics and motion

Goddard's interest in aerodynamics led him to study some of Samuel Langley's scientific papers in the periodical Smithsonian. In these papers, Langley wrote that birds flap their wings with different force on each side to turn in the air. Inspired by these articles, the teenage Goddard watched swallows and chimney swifts from the porch of his home, noting how subtly the birds moved their wings to control their flight. He noted how remarkably the birds controlled their flight with their tail feathers, which he called the birds' equivalent of ailerons. He took exception to some of Langley's conclusions and in 1901 wrote a letter to St. Nicholas magazine[21]:5 with his own ideas.

The editor of St. Nicholas declined to publish Goddard's letter, remarking that birds fly with a certain amount of intelligence and that "machines will not act with such intelligence."[16]:31 Goddard disagreed, believing that a man could control a flying machine with his own intelligence.

Around this time, Goddard read Newton's Principia Mathematica, and found that Newton's Third Law of Motion applied to motion in space. He wrote later about his own tests of the Law:

I began to realize that there might be something after all to Newton's Laws. The Third Law was accordingly tested, both with devices suspended by rubber bands and by devices on floats, in the little brook back of the barn, and the said law was verified conclusively. It made me realize that if a way to navigate space were to be discovered, or invented, it would be the result of a knowledge of physics and mathematics.

First scientific writings

The high school student summed up his ideas on space travel in a proposed article, "The Navigation of Space," which he submitted to the Popular Science News. The journal's editor returned it, saying that they could not use it "in the near future."

While still an undergraduate, Goddard wrote a paper proposing a method for balancing airplanes using gyro-stabilization. He submitted the idea to Scientific American, which published the paper in 1907. Goddard later wrote in his diaries that he believed his paper was the first proposal of a way to automatically stabilize aircraft in flight.[16]:50 His proposal came around the same time as other scientists were making breakthroughs in developing functional gyroscopes.

While studying physics at WPI, ideas came to Goddard's mind that sometimes seemed impossible, but he was compelled to record them for future investigation. He wrote that “there was something inside which simply would not stop working.” He purchased some cloth-covered notebooks and began filling them with a variety of thoughts, mostly concerning his dream of space travel.

He considered centrifugal force, radio waves, magnetic reaction, solar energy, atomic energy, ion or electrostatic propulsion and other methods to reach space. After experimenting with solid fuel rockets he was convinced by 1909 that chemical-propellant engines were the answer.[10]:11-12 A particularly complex concept was set down in June 1908: Sending a camera around distant planets, guided by measurements of gravity along the trajectory, and returning to earth.

His first writing on the possibility of a liquid-fueled rocket came on February 2, 1909. Goddard had begun to study ways of increasing a rocket’s efficiency using methods differing from conventional solid-fuel rockets. He wrote in his notebook about using liquid hydrogen as a fuel with liquid oxygen as the oxidizer. He believed that 50 percent efficiency could be achieved with these liquid propellants (i.e., half of the heat energy of combustion converted to the kinetic energy of the exhaust gases).

First patents

In the decades around 1910, radio was a new technology, fertile for innovation. In 1912, while working at Princeton University, Goddard investigated the effects of radio waves on insulators.[26] In order to generate radio-frequency power, he invented a vacuum tube with a beam deflection[27] that operated like a cathode-ray oscillator tube. His patent on this tube, which predated that of Lee De Forest, became central in the suit between Arthur A. Collins, whose small company made radio transmitter tubes, and AT&T and RCA over his use of vacuum tube technology. Goddard accepted only a consultant's fee from Collins when the suit was dropped. Eventually the two big companies allowed the country's growing electronics industry to use the De Forest patents freely

Rocket math

By 1912 he had in his spare time, using calculus, developed the mathematics which allowed him to calculate the position and velocity of a rocket in vertical flight, given the weight of the rocket and weight of the propellant and the velocity (with respect to the rocket frame) of the exhaust gases. In effect he had independently developed the Tsiolkovsky rocket equation published a decade earlier in Russia. Tsiolkovsky, however, did not account for gravity nor drag. For vertical flight from the surface of Earth Goddard included in his differential equation the effects of gravity and aerodynamic drag.

He wrote: "An approximate method was found necessary … in order to avoid an unsolved problem in the calculus of variations. The solution that was obtained revealed the fact that surprisingly small initial masses would be necessary … provided the gases were ejected from the rocket at a high velocity, and also provided that most of the rocket consisted of propellant material."

This book

The premise of this book is the need to route the Illuminati in an all capabilities all fronts war

Wet Divisions are Dirty Wars of Leverage Troops that assassinate,, use psychological warfare, dirty tricks, KOMPROMAT, Infiltrators, Propaganda, and other acts of subverting, confusing, disrupting, or altering the Government or even social operations of a State which is targeted to be Subverted. Subversion is used to shape a country through plausibly deniable acts such as paying off, blackmailing, intimidating, or planting compromised officials or finding or funding the compromisable public or media officials, or merely killing (with plausible deniability) non co-operative ones. Often considered Shadow Government in that less officials can plausibly deniably “frag” higher ups and get away with it, if the collusion of the lower officials in entrenched enough or can garner participation on the Shadow Government by offering positions, cash, profits, or other benefits to the Conspiracy.

[image]

The Rothschild's and the Rockefeller. Bush family and Clinton Family. Obama and Kamala Harris and Biden. Many celebrities and Hollywood and Jack of Twitter. Those who call Global Conspiracy Theory a right wing conspiracy theory.

In my researching of this I theories this conspiracy. The Queen of England, Mossad, Vatican of Liberation Theology, Anglicans, Presbyterians Baptists, and the Red State CIA types created Obama, killed JFK to keep the Illuminati Free Mason tied plan in place, and continue mercenary dirty war of irregular army hits of those who know of the NWO conspiracy, me being one of those people trying to fend of a plausibly deniable accident for me waiting to happen.

In Videorome language of a cartel, MKULTRA has motive. It has a need. It needs to cover up many crimes around the world as it seeks profits for itself and denies, covers up, its wrongdoing and identity and motives.

Lael Brainard is an American economist who has served on the Federal Reserve Board of Governors since 2014. She previously served as the United States Under Secretary of the Treasury for International Affairs from 2010 to 2013. Born: January 1, 1962 (age 59 years), Hamburg, Germany Parents: Al Brainard, Joanne Brainard Education: George School (1979), Wesleyan University, Harvard University Wikipedia

A Suggestion I have made to the US Congress is an Authorization for Use of Military Force (AUMF) recognize criminal and non criminal, civilly liable or non criminal intent, and war like acts in a mix of sovereignty violations of US citizens and government and a full sweep of authority to address the wide ranging sovereignty issues of Illuminati infiltration of government and government operations be crafted.

> Working with OECD Data: Information Session for Journalists
>
> 10:30-11:30am, Tuesday, February 20, 2018
>
> LOCATION: OECD Washington Center, 1776 Eye St, NW, Washington, DC 20006
>
> Need data for a story? Want to compare US performance to other OECD countries? Not sure what exists or where to find it? Don't know where to start?
>
> The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), with over 50 years of shared economic knowledge and policy insights, can help.

The OECD will host an off-the-record information session for journalists to give an overview of the information that is available to help cover economic and domestic policy news, and tips on accessing comparative data for the OECD's 35 member countries, and other partner countries.

This event is open to accredited media. To register, please contact Miguel Gorman miguel.gorman©oecd.org

---

Miguel Gorman on Twitter ©DCMig Your friendly purveyor of data Bar chart ©OECD's Sr. Manager for Public Affairs & Media in U.S. and Canada. Tenerife-born, raised in Derry.

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and DevelopmentGoogle knowledge panel retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development is an intergovernmental economic organisation with 37 member countries, founded in 1961 to stimulate economic progress and world trade. Wikipedia

Ethiopia and IQ and GDP

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Mole (Espionage)

> In espionage jargon, a mole is a long-term spy who is recruited before having access to secret intelligence, subsequently managing to get into the target organization. However, it is popularly used to mean any long-term clandestine spy or informant within an organization, government or private. Wikipedia
>
> In espionage jargon, a mole (also called a "penetration agent", "deep cover agent", or "sleeper agent") is a long-term spy (espionage agent) who is recruited before having access to secret intelligence, subsequently managing to get into the target organization. Wikipedia

In The Concealment of the State also the Deep State

> Professor Jason Royce Lindsey argues that even without a conspiratorial agenda, the term deep state is useful for understanding aspects of the national security establishment in developed countries, with emphasis on the United States. Lindsey writes that the deep state draws power from the national security and intelligence communities, a realm where secrecy is a source of power.[15]:35-36 Alfred W. McCoy states that the increase in the power of the U.S. intelligence community since the September 11 attacks "has built a fourth branch of the U.S. government" that is "in many ways autonomous from the executive, and increasingly so." From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia[16] *

I consider this the Continuing Criminal Enterprise State. Continuing Criminal Enterprises usually refers criminals in custody after their racketeering convictions continuing to call shots in their criminal enterprises while in custody.

Y defenition of crimaal rackets in control of the USA including in the Color of Law and prisoner Confidential Informants within the prisons and prison release systems is the CCE State, the Criminal Enterprise transcedning the prisoner class and event actually descending from the high ranking Moles in the top of government rolling crime downhill.

> 21 U.S. Code § 848 - Continuing criminal enterprise Google Knowledge Panel
>
> The Continuing Criminal Enterprise Statute (commonly referred to as CCE Statute or The Kingpin Statute) is a United States federal law that targets large-scale drug traffickers who are responsible for long-term and elaborate drug conspiracies.
>
> Continuing Criminal Enetrprse State (Definition From Edward Donegan
>
> long-term and elaborate drug conspiracies run by Illuminati Profiteers and Abusing Powers of State facilitating racketeering activities

Overview Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

A mole may be recruited early in life, and take decades to get a job in government service and reach a position of access to secret information before becoming active as a spy. Perhaps the most famous examples of moles were the Cambridge Five, five upper-class British men recruited by the KGB as communist students at Cambridge University in the 1930s who later rose to high levels in various parts of the British government.[3] By contrast, most espionage agents, such as CIA Director of Counterintelligence Aldrich Ames and FBI agent Robert Hanssen, who spied on the US government for the KGB, were either recruited or offer their services as spies after they were in place as members of the target organization.

Because their recruitment occurred in the remote past, moles are difficult for a nation's security services to detect. The possibility that a top politician, corporate executive, government minister, or officer in an intelligence service could be a mole working for a foreign government is the worst nightmare of counterintelligence services. [citation needed] For example, James Angleton, director of counterintelligence for the CIA between 1954 and 1975, was reportedly obsessed with suspicions that the top levels of Western governments were riddled with long-term communist agents[1] and accused numerous politicians such as former U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, former Canadian Prime Ministers Lester Pearson and Pierre Trudeau, former British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and many members of Congress before he was removed in 1975. Fears of such moles in prominent positions in American life led to overreactions such as McCarthyism.[citation needed]

> The Intercept Jefferson Morley January 1 2018, 8:15 a.m.
>
> In December 1974, CIA Director William Colby fired Angleton after the New York Times revealed the then-unknown counterintelligence chief had overseen a massive program to spy on Americans involved in anti-war and black nationalist movements, a violation of the CIA's charter. Coming four months after the > resignation of Richard Nixon, Angleton's fall was the denouement of the Watergate scandal, propelling Congress to probe the CIA for the first time. A Senate investigation, headed by Sen. Frank Church, exposed a series of other abuses: assassination conspiracies, unauthorized mail opening, collaboration with human rights abusers, infiltration of news organizations, and the MKULTRA mind-control experiments to develop drugs for use in espionage.

The Man Nobody Knew (2011) CIA Documentary Trailer HD retrieved from William Colby's son and copied or modified to here

William Colby has been missing since April 27th.

His canoe was found washed up on the banks of the Wicomico River April 28th.

My father was a soldier he jumped out of airplanes he lived to serve people would turn to me and say you know your dad was a murderer my immediate reaction used to be you don't know what you're talking about then I'd find myself thinking was he who was he really.

> " I am against assassination I think it's counterproductive and I have issued directives against it by the time I got there in 1969 it felt much more like an assassination program current investigations could uncover several assassinations of which the CIA was involved yes there were abuses there was no doubt about it they really got out of hand as one person to make the > determination that you do not trust 435 members each of whom want an open election in ostensibly a Democratic Society.

>
> I will say to you sir you don't have the right to play God how many files of this character do you maintain on other members of Congress do you know what documents he destroyed the CIA the CIA and its director was always caught between doing the wish of the president in the law and when the president said do this do that the law got set aside?

Normally he was really a tortured soul the family wasn't always left into this world of his he never had to really tell me anything my father lived in a world of secrets always watching listening his eye on the door by the time I turned thirty I came to understand the man that nobody knew or at least I thought I did .

Seamless 1 Degree + 359 Degrees Meld

1 Degree, Me

Bizarre. Blacks have assaulted me all my life,, non police blacks threating to kill me or white women if I were near them, and seeming to have a record of carrying that out as women near me die of accidents, my mother and my own DNA of some odd interest to the US Government, my DNA out of the Manhattan Project Manhattan Beach Vatican hospital I was born under and in, born after the radiation exposure of my father i Manhattan Project DARPA atomic bomb MKULTRA program testing.

I have always noticed a headline news around the world seeming to follow events, thoughts, writings, and circumstances of my life, though not told to me connected

Most recetnly from the past I have found the JFK assasination, but many major headlines follow the people, places, and events or things in my life around the world.

Again, recently, the Deadpool Files of Clinton Body County and other NWO malfeasance of 359 degrees, the rest of the world, now seem to meld with that one degree of activity of me and the events surrounding me.

359 Degrees, the World and "Deadpool' of odd Arkansas Illuminati Murders

The Illuminati murders tied to MKULTRA, not the Clintons or Obamas, the second level of current operations, but tying into the first level conspiracy of the 1920s, 40s, and 60 CIA history including Donal Barr, William Barr, the Prescott and George H.W. Bush families, the Schartzeneggers, most connected politicians since tied to the Illuminati and MKULTRA around the world.

Presidents like JFK though he changed his mind or was not conviced the Illuminati program should proceed.

In the next chapter I introduce a bizarre wildly insane and covertly operating fraudulent and undisclosed racket interest in my genome that people can not or will no justify in the open and fake behind the scenes and my mother's DNA was a huge issue through her life too and it never seemed to made any rational sense to me.

While trying to find the answer I found it tied to the Manhattan Project atomic bomb development with stuttering CIA Biologist speech scientist Sidney Gottlieb, MKULTRA and in that then the likely Free Mason Deep State Conspiracy of disasters and murders around the world tied to Speech Spasmodia LONDON FOXP2 gene.

Mysteries no longer await explanation, I now explain them as Illuminati Muscle trying to correct and profit from illegal genomic secret operations long underway in Illuminati families and bad earlier involuntary scientific practices.

Acts around the world called the “Deadpool” and “Clinton Body Count”* and other poorly explained seeming #WETWORKS this books are are Illuminati DARPA Area 51 genomic malfeasance coverup including the JFK assassinations, and all this is seamlessly join and melded together through my life story and this book.

In short there is 359 Degree NWO acts of terror and Espionage about my human genome, 1.

> February 20 November 18 December 13 Divinci Codes

The AUMF I suggested was that some actors are not criminally involved by intent or role, but are cogs in the machine and free of guilt, some have criminal roles and criminal or perhaps civil culpability, and there needs to be a wide range of categories used in taking apart the Illuminati machine.

This book

A Genome-claims Felony pretexts based Racket and Why It Exists

I have been, my Genome, has been Targeted driving me, steering me by events out of opportunities

Economic or industrial espionage commonly occurs in one of two ways. Firstly, a dissatisfied employee appropriates information to advance interests or to damage the company. Secondly, a competitor or foreign government seeks information to advance its own technological or financial interest.[7] “Moles”, or trusted insiders, are generally considered the best sources for economic or industrial espionage.[8] Historically known as a “patsy”, an insider can be induced, willingly or under duress, to provide information. A patsy may be initially asked to hand over inconsequential information and, once compromised by committing a crime, blackmailed into handing over more sensitive material.[9] Wikipedia

Industrial espionage, economic espionage, corporate spying or corporate espionage is a form of espionage conducted for commercial purposes instead of purely national security. [1]

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

While economic espionage is conducted or orchestrated by governments and is international in scope, industrial or corporate espionage is more often national and occurs between companies or corporations.[2]

The Internet

The rise of the internet and computer networks has expanded the range and detail of information available and the ease of access for the purpose of industrial espionage.[16] This type of operation is generally identified as state backed or sponsored, because the "access to personal, financial or analytic resources" identified exceed that which could be accessed by cybercriminals or individual hackers. Sensitive military or defense engineering or other industrial information may not have immediate monetary value to criminals, compared with, say, bank details. Analysis of cyberattacks suggests deep knowledge of networks, with targeted attacks, obtained by numerous individuals operating in a sustained organized way.[16]

Opportunities for sabotage

The rising use of the internet has also extended opportunities for industrial espionage with the aim of sabotage. In the early 2000s, it was noticed that energy companies were increasingly coming under attack from hackers. Energy power systems, doing jobs like monitoring power grids or water flow, once isolated from the other computer networks, were now being connected to the internet, leaving them more vulnerable, having historically few built-in security features.[17] The use of these methods of industrial espionage have increasingly become a concern for governments, due to potential attacks by terrorist groups or hostile foreign governments

Malware

One of the means of perpetrators conducting industrial espionage is by exploiting vulnerabilities in computer software. Malware and spyware as “a tool for industrial espionage”, in “transmitting digital copies of trade secrets, customer plans, future plans and contacts”. Newer forms of malware include devices which surreptitiously switch on mobile phones camera and recording devices. In attempts to tackle such attacks on their intellectual property, companies are increasingly keeping important information off network, leaving an “air gap”, with some companies building “Faraday cages” to shield from electromagnetic or cellphone transmissions.[18]

In Prison Psychology often in prisons one prisoner or a group of prisoners will try to “bring down” an inmate or person set for release out of jealously of that release, and wish that other prisoner with the better outcome to have no better an outcome than the others and can become the subject of false claims.

Those prisoners who fear ill fates for themselves such as long sentences for serious crimes those perpetrators near those with lesser allegations or who are going to be cleared and set to go free may already be or become the targets of jealous or angry prisoner others who will start a fight with the prison victim, the prisoners initiating the fight (“I was sitting in that chair, get out of it) blaming the fight victim to the guards, planting evidence for the guards to find, etc.,

This has been the chip on the shoulder resentments I encountered by a “FTP” (Fuck the Police) prosecutor and general public of a town injured in a long history of poverty and disappear now trying to take it out an a poor white man who has moved into the area.

COINTELLPRO trying to get me to snap with gang prisoner assaults “Now you know what it is liked to be ruled by the Black Man PsyOps fight picking Non verbal race baiting that I am inferior to non whites and I am a threat to THEIR families.

Conflict engagement experts know I despise prison culture and crime and keeping me fighting off crime which is racially abusive is something designed to provoke me as well as give Blacks claim in public perception my work product in life is their own as they shout at me and skid cars near me or honk horns at me that we “are doing things together” or under non verbal assault instruction.

The public perception is the non verbal acts have real meaning, that I am being commanded by them or taught by them of what I am normally doing, but appearances matter and I am supposed to fight their delusions by arguing with them, and their denials, in escalating street fights I am said to be the delusional because they said nothing and I can not prove what they were claiming by behavior only.

Part of Genetics For Justice scheme seems to be framing a white supremacist for victimizing an empathetic non white child victim.

It is easier on the ego to seek genomic treatments on this basis.

I have called this Conflict Entanglement, them by acts surrounding me in public, showing what I already normally do, as they claim I first obtained instruction (prior art) from them thus eliminating my intellectual normal property rights and claim.

Espionage Terms on Framing an Activist and Conspiracy Against Rights, other crimes

Espionage activities sabotage my normal life in the United States of America across a period of 45 years and an Espionage Legend of a retarded (not true) pedophile (not true) peeper (not true) “Ed Donegan” and “Tom Duhmas Dunham”child porn ring “pay up” (to exploited sexualized victims] with Glorian Donegan Ed Donegan DNA.

This scheme creates seeming authorization for use my DNA never given and failing that tries to hide my real DNA and its origins.

But why would the CIA, DARPA, Elite Illuminati families want that, ahem, in an all of a sudden way after family databases came to exist?

This espionage Midnight Climax and Pizzagate CIA system goes deep into WWI and brain injury research, Spanish Illuminati and Griffith experiments, the rise of 1920s Nazim, and unique genes tied to Austria Germany, FOXP2.

Espionage agency blunders in this area described by Jen Moore and myself show espionage murders to coverup that history and big political family names and agencies involved, involved through Free Masonry.

#Books and being raped by the religions, races, and nations, and moral worthlessness

(fraudulence) I have always hated from my Epistemic Naturalism beliefs

Books refer to my family's library in Moraga California which I will get to later in this section, but the move reference to Rumor Has it is that in my five book series the core part of the story is who I am, who my family is, and if my father's departure from the Catholic Church was because his friend who was betrayed by the Church was John F. Kennedy, and further, if part of that story is also the story of Sidney Gottlieb, CIA and Genomic experiments, and if my mothers storty, a FOXP2 descendent if King Edward VIII, is tied into that story as well and part of what I now call MKULTRA Birtherism, that these Sidney Gottlieb activities included genomic IVF surrogacy of Midnight Climax adult entertainers and others carrying CIA modified embryos.

Feb 20 1961 with Thorkil Kristensen, OECD Secretary-General from 1961-1969 and Goerge Ball of State Dept.

The reason these people come into the picture is because of of nucelar rocketry and German scientists like Wehrner Von Braun from Germany into the US in MKLULTRA and DARPA, trying to get radiation and other testing from above ground test blasts my father was a part of, and my mother too. In Los Angles where Kennedy was who may have been that person my father was referring to.

With the the Peoples Republic of China starting in 1949 and starting Pacific Missle THreat in 1950s a plan was made to create a non white plant for Polynesia Malasia Indonesia who would lead Wester Peace Corps USAID efforts out of Madyelyn Dunham, CIA asset of Bank of Hawaii BBW.

This would be done in Los Angles though a fake patenral story for Obama would exist in Kenya and a cover story made for later use and that one tied to Hawaii.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FRfZz6HaA6o and https://dailyjfk.com/days/february-20-1961/

The theory they operate under is improved economy around the world will decrease interest in Socialism. THey meet at "about 11."

Nov 19, 9 months later in Los Angles/Santa Moncia, there is a birth of myself Nov 18 1961 and I think Barack Obama, the child of Malcom X and Glorian Donegan, Eva Ban (medically operable3) in Santa Monica as the IVF Surrogate mother.

https://images.app.goo.gl/naw3hLLms6SFzByF7

http://www.laobserved.com/archive/2012/12/story_behind_the_photo_jf.php

Glorian, daughter of King Edward VIII who carried, as I do, the FOXP2 London KE Dysgraphia gene also of Borderline Personality Disorder of polarizing under stress, actually a German heritage KE VIII worked with Hitler on the the anger of England, marred to my father James Paul Dongan who's genome was being studies by Sidney Gottlieb under radiation testing of the nuclear bombing team Johnson Atol Las Vegas nuclear testing he was a test subject of.

The 9 Months in between t the dates of these photos, after February 20 1961 would be about Nov, about 11, later in Manhattan Beach California

One modified February 20 1961 as an IVF date and with a birth of Nov 18, 19 1961 in Santa Monica area, recorded in Los Angles St Josephs for me, and Hawaii for my half brother, my mothers other ovum use, Barack Obama who would get a cover story for him to be planted in Indonesia later.

The World

An Atlantic Missile Crisis exist with Cuba and Russia. A Pafic Missile Crisis is forming with Mao Zedong, Chairman Mao of the Chines Communist Party who overthrow China in 1949 and is now developing One Satellite Two Bombs (Atomic and Hydrogen(the the 1950s Pacific Rim of Korea, Vietnam, the Malaysian, Indonesia, and Polynesian path between California and China.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Great_Leap_Forward

The Great Leap Forward of the People's Republic of China (PRC) was an economic and social campaign by the Communist Party of China (CPC) from 1958 to 1962. Chairman Mao Zedong launched the campaign to transform the country from an agrarian economy into a communist society through the formation of people's communes. Mao decreed increased effort to multiply grain yields and industry should be brought to the countryside.

Local officials were fearful of Anti-Rightist Campaigns and competed to fulfill or over-fulfill quotas based on Mao's exaggerated claims. They collected "surpluses" that in fact did not exist, leaving farmers to starve. Higher officials did not dare to report the economic disaster caused by these policies, and national officials blamed bad weather for the decline in food output and took little or no action.

The Great Leap resulted in tens of millions of deaths.[1] A lower-end estimate is 18 million and upper estimates find that some 45 million people died.[2] About the same number of births were lost or postponed, making the Great Chinese Famine the largest in human history.[3]

The Nuclear Rocketeers

OPERATION PAPERCLIP

THE NAZIS DIDN'T LOSE...

...THEY MOVED TO AMERICA

WERNER VON BRAUN
NASA ADMINISTRATOR

ARTHUR RUDOLPH
NASA SCIENTIST

SIDNEY GOTTLIEB
CIA / TSS / MKULTRA

From 1945 to 1955, Operation Paperclip granted nearly 1,000 German scientists American citizenship. Many had been longtime members of the Nazi party and the Gestapo and had conducted experiments on humans at concentration camps and commited other war crimes. The scientists ended up in the U.S. military industrial complex, worked with the CIA, NASA & more. One of the Nazi experiments that continued in America was mind control... known as the CIA's Project MK-ULTRA.

JFK at Cape Canaveral – November 16, 1963 (photo courtesy John F. Kennedy Library)

During the five years of being entrapped in Texas and researching criminology, cons, and protection rackets I have discovered the word Etiology,

Google knowledge panel quoted here

> Etiology is the study of causation, or origination. The word is derived from the Greek αἰτιολογία, aitiología, “giving a reason for”. More completely, etiology is the study of the causes, origins, or reasons behind the way that things are, or the way they function, or it can refer to the causes themselves. Wikipedia

The CIA and CIA Protected families, DARPA tied, already have my DNA and won’t admit they have it illegally, without permission, and want to coverup the February 20 November 18 December 13 DNA.

In the foreground has been planted females assaulted by blacks or non whites and Marshalls or others creating innuendo around me that I did it. As people were telling me my DNA was owed to the planted female and other things related to my DNA became apparent, I realized that the foreground was inexplicable, and was not explained to me.

It was all done under mediated (proxy and incomplete identification of parties or information) Gangstalk which if I attempted to pine down for meaning was denied to exist.

The unprovoked attacks on me and my mother are sold as fighting white supremacism, but in at least me, caused my white supremacism I have hunted for the reason for racial attacks on my family.

My father's father immigrated from Ireland in extreme poverty, a victim of English policies towards Ireland considered one of the worst genocides in history and my father grew up very poor in Boston joining the Air Force as a youth and being subject to nuclear blasts to see the effects, then fighting in WWII and the Korean war in Reconnaissance Missions including in modified P-51

He and my mother divorced in the 1980s. Her lineage seems to be an unwanted child of Prince of Wales Edward, a German family with FOXP2 and Maria Kutschera, in (1926 marrying Captain Von Trapp) themselves with the genetic and throat defect and undergoing vocal training but fleeing the Nazis with Vatican help.

Les Miserables

Though my mother I loyal USA citizens including loyal to the equal rights and protections of all she and I have been the victims of Espionage hatred of the Austrian Nazi Kutchshera lineage, it seems, and our Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 DNA subjected to constant violence, sexual, and physical assaults, and death threats and stalking keeping us housebound, the victim of street people Mercenaries aka Agent Provocateurs hired by espionage agencies to assault us.

The police write it off assaults on me as just more homeless people, mental health patients acting erratically, etc., and say no organized stalk underway, though the police RECRUIT the assailants for their acts.

The Fantine Miseralble Tooth For Sale Strategy

To block my DNA in a potential family of me own making, and to block the recognition of my high IQ cognitive assets the Fantine Strategy is used.

A Miserable squalor based Edward Paul Donegan lives out his life without normal city life in a skid row instead.

An unwanted unneeded trust fund is the net dragging me into the toilet where the toilet will claim to be my victim and thus have “my baby” from “my family grow fund” since I owe my DNA.

Teens and Tots are trained literaly to jump into my bed when I am not there or next to my bed just outside the windows, and afterward sue my trust fund for a pound of flesh for us having been in each others vicinity.

Fantine pays with a tooth or two for money for her child in Les Miseables as if I am asked to. She dies from an infection resulting for lack of hygiene in the tooth removal, I think the conflicts related to suing me for a pound of flesh the same plan.

Louis Pasteur matter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

Louis Pasteur ForMemRS (/ˈluːi pæˈstɜːr/, French: [lwi pastœʁ]; 27 December 1822 - 28 September 1895) was a French chemist and microbiologist renowned for his discoveries of the principles of vaccination, microbial fermentation, and pasteurization. His research in chemistry led to remarkable breakthroughs in the understanding of the causes and preventions of diseases, which laid down the foundations of hygiene, public health and much of modern medicine. His works are credited to saving millions of lives through the developments of vaccines for rabies and anthrax. He is regarded as one of the founders of modern bacteriology and has been honoured as the “father of bacteriology” and as the “father of microbiology (together with Robert Koch, and the latter epithet also attributed to Antonie van Leeuwenhoek).

Pasteur was responsible for disproving the doctrine of spontaneous generation. Under the auspices of the French Academy of Sciences, his experiment demonstrated that in sterilized and sealed flasks, nothing ever developed; and, conversely, in sterilized but open flasks, microorganisms could grow. For this experiment, the academy awarded him the Alhumbert Prize carrying 2,500 francs in 1862.

Pasteur is also regarded as one of the fathers of germ theory of diseases, which was a minor medical concept at the time. His many experiments showed that diseases could be prevented by killing or stopping germs, thereby directly supporting the germ theory and its application in clinical medicine. He is best known to the general public for his invention of the technique of treating milk and wine to stop bacterial contamination, a process now called pasteurization. Pasteur also made significant discoveries in chemistry, most notably on the molecular basis for the asymmetry of certain crystals and racemization. Early in his career, his investigation of tartaric acid resulted in the first resolution of what is now called optical isomers. His work led the way to the current understanding of a fundamental principle in the structure of organic compounds.

He was the director of the Pasteur Institute, established in 1887, until his death, and his body was interred in a vault beneath the institute. Although Pasteur made groundbreaking experiments, his reputation became associated with various controversies. Historical reassessment of his notebook revealed that he practiced deception to overcome his rivals.

The term “penicillin” is defined as the natural product of Penicillium mould with antimicrobial activity.[6] It was coined by Alexander Fleming on 7 March 1929 when he discovered the antibacterial property of Penicillium rubens. Fleming explained in his 1929 paper in the British Journal of Experimental Pathology that “to avoid the repetition of the rather cumbersome phrase ‘Mould broth filtrate’, the name ‘penicillin’ will be used.”[8] The name thus refers to the scientific name of the mould, as described by Fleming in his Nobel lecture in 1945:

> I have been frequently asked why I invented the name “Penicillin”. I simply followed perfectly orthodox lines and coined a word which explained that the substance penicillin was derived from a plant of the genus Penicillium just as many years ago the word “Digitalin” was invented for a substance derived from the plant Digitalis.

Austin, Monterrey, Capitola

Skid Row Nueces Texas

A squalid living man real Edward Donegan of no APPARENT mental faculties and no material assets lives out his life on skid row.

Agent Provocateur in (Edward's identity) has Animus Nocendi (bad intent toward Ed/Whites who have historically excluded him) is confronted (for Agent Provocateur;s peeping at females, the reputation of which bans real Edward from normal life) and uses Ed Donegan's identity for the cover story of his own illicit acts acts towards females which also conform to non white ethnic interest in buttocks.

The Agent Provocateur as Ed hires a sex worker, because Ed is said to be an in-sophisticate looser, the the sex worker is going to catch fake Ed because fake Ed has passed out from too much drink or drugs and has child or peeping porn, now found.

The cops called, fake Ed will have to Pay Up Or BE Arrested, that is to say the Doppelgänger who did peep will say "I am Edward Donegan, a filthy worthless loser with no way to pay the victim. (while in apartment “46-46.” (47 not 46 per the labeling of the doors.)(Mac Lamar Property Management operated apartments 1001. N Water St CC Nueces TX)

I was zerod out from 1001 N. Water Street 1/17/2021

Can my DNA be used?” the Doppelgänger will ask, with no other way to pay, and in fact that is how my DNA is introduced into the black market by identity theft authorization backed by the CIA.

> Anne Hathaway as Fantine, the mother of Cosette and a struggling factory worker, who [Doppelgänger] resorts to prostitution and selling of her teeth

Feudalism is a Disease. These are the sayings of Victor Hugo.

May the Odds be in Cossettes Favor.

Les Misérables has several shades of meaning in French. Translators say that Victor Hugo’s novel, published in 1862, could just as well be titled The Miserable Ones, The Outcasts, The Wretched Poor, The Victims [of Royalty] or The Dispossessed [by exploitive royals]
.

Castle on a Cloud retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Cosette is a fictional character in the 1862 novel Les Misérables by Victor Hugo and in the many adaptations

of the story for stage, film, and television. Her birth name, Euphrasie, is only mentioned briefly. As the orphaned child of an unmarried mother deserted by her father, Hugo never gives her a surname. In the course of the novel, she is mistakenly identified as Ursule, Lark, or Mademoiselle Lanoire.

She is the daughter of Fantine, who leaves her to be looked after by the Thénardiers, who exploit and victimise her. Rescued by Jean Valjean, who raises Cosette as if she were his own, she grows up in a convent school. She falls in love with Marius Pontmercy, a young lawyer. Valjean's struggle to protect her while disguising his past drives much of the plot until he recognizes "that this child had a right to know life before renouncing it"[1]-and must yield to her romantic attachment to Marius.

[image]

The House of Bonaparte (originally Buonaparte) is a forme European dynasty of Italian (Genoese) origin. It was founde
I, the son of Genoese nobleman Carlo Buonaparte and Letizi

Napoleon was a French military leader who rose to power Revolution and who, in 1804, transformed the First French
French Empire, five years after his coup d'état of November Napoleon and the Grande Armée had to fight against every and dominated continental Europe through a series of milita Napoleonic Wars.

Lucien Napoleon returned to France following his brother'
1814. Lucien continued to Rome, where on 18 August 1814
Canino, Count of Apollino, and Lord of Nemori by Pope Piu Musignano on 21 March 1824 by Pope Leo XII.

France has a king again.

Founded 18 May 1804, Founder Carlo Bonaparte Current l
Charles, Prince Napoléon Jean-Christophe, Prince Napoléon
III ousted 4 September 1870

Castle on a cloud - Les Miserables

There is a castle on a cloud
I like to go there in my sleep
Aren't any floors for me to sweep
Not in my castle on a cloud
There is a lady all in white
Holds me and sings a lullaby
She's nice to see and she's soft to touch
She says Cosette I love you very much
I know a place where no ones lost
I know a place where no one cries
Crying at all is not allowed
Not in my castle on a cloud

["Castle On A Cloud" (performed by Isabelle Allen) (from "Les Misérables: Highlights From The Motion Picture Soundtrack" soundtrack)

There is a castle on a cloud
I like to go there in my sleep
Aren't any floors for me to sweep
Not in my castle on a cloud

[Verse from original Broadway Cast recording:]

(There is a room that's full of toys
There are a hundred boys and girls
Nobody shouts or talks too loud
Not in my castle on a cloud)

> There is a lady all in white
> Holds me and sings a lullaby
> She's nice to see and she's soft to touch
> She says, "Cosette, I love you very much"
>
> I know a place where no one's lost
> I know a place where no one cries
> Crying at all is not allowed
> Not in my castle on a cloud

[YOUNG COSETTE]

There is a castle on a cloud,
I like to go there in my sleep,
Aren't any floors for me to sweep,
Not in my castle on a cloud.
There is a room that's full of toys,
There are a hundred boys and girls,
Nobody shouts or talks too loud,
Not in my castle on a cloud.
There is a lady all in white,
Holds me and sings a lullaby,
She's nice to see and she's soft to touch,
She says "Cosette, I love you very much."
I know a place where no one's lost,
I know a place where no one cries,
Crying at all is not allowed,
Not in my castle on a cloud.
Oh help! I think I hear them now, and I'm nowhere near finished sweeping and scrubbing and polishing the floor.
Oh, it's her! It's Madame!

[MME. THENARDIER]

Now look who's here
The little madam herself!

Pretending once again she's been `so awfully good,'
Better not let me catch you slacking
Better not catch my eye!
Ten rotten francs your mother sends me
What is that going to buy?
Now take that pail
My little `Mademoiselle'
And go and draw some water from the well!
We should never have taken you in in the first place
How stupid the things that we do!
Like mother like daughter, the scum of the street.
Eponine, come my dear, Eponine, let me see you
You look very well in that new little blue hat
There's some little girls who know how to behave
And they know what to wear
And I'm saying thank heaven for that.
Still there Cosette?
Your tears will do you no good!
I told you fetch some water from the well in the wood!
[YOUNG COSETTE]
Please do not send me out alone
Not in the darkness on my own!
[MME. THENARDIER]
Now shut your face, or I'll forget to be nice!
You heard me ask for something,
And I never ask twice!
[Young Eponine pushes Cosette out. Thénardier says good night to his daughter as the inn fills up for the evening]

Victor Hugo retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Victor Hugo Victor-Marie Hugo (French: [viktɔʁ maʁi ɣɡo] (About this soundlisten); 26 February 1802 - 22 May 1885) was a French poet, novelist, essayist, playwright, and dramatist of the Romantic movement.

During a literary career that spanned more than sixty years, he wrote abundantly in an exceptional variety of genres: lyrics, satires, epics, philosophical poems, epigrams, novels, history, critical essays, political speeches, funeral orations, diaries, letters public and private, as well as dramas in verse and prose.

Hugo is considered to be one of the greatest and best-known French writers. Outside France, his most famous works are the novels Les Misérables, 1862, and The Hunchback of Notre-Dame (French: Notre-Dame de Paris), 1831. In France, Hugo is renowned for his poetry collections, such as Les Contemplations (The Contemplations) and La Légende des siècles (The Legend of the Ages). Hugo was at the forefront of the Romantic literary movement with his play Cromwell and drama Hernani. Many of his works have inspired music, both during his lifetime and after his death, including the musicals Les Misérables and Notre-Dame de Paris. He produced more than 4,000 drawings in his lifetime, and campaigned for social causes such as the abolition of capital punishment.

Though a committed royalist when he was young, Hugo's views changed as the decades passed, and he became a passionate supporter of republicanism serving in politics as both deputy and senator. His work touched upon most of the political and social issues and the artistic trends of his time. His opposition to absolutism and his colossal literary achievement established him as a national hero. He was honoured by interment in the Panthéon.

Hugo's religious views changed radically over the course of his life. In his youth and under the influence of his mother, he identified as a Catholic and professed respect for Church hierarchy and authority. From there he became a non-practising Catholic and increasingly expressed anti-Catholic and anti-clerical views. He frequented spiritism during his exile (where he participated also in many séances conducted by Madame Delphine de Girardin)[38][39] and in later years settled into a rationalist deism similar to that espoused by Voltaire. A census-taker asked Hugo in 1872 if he was a Catholic, and he replied, “No. A Freethinker”.

After 1872, Hugo never lost his antipathy towards the Catholic Church. He felt the Church was indifferent to the plight of the working class under the oppression of the monarchy. Perhaps he also was upset by the frequency with which his work appeared on the Church’s list of banned books. Hugo counted 740 attacks on Les Misérables in the Catholic press.[41] When Hugo’s sons Charles and François-Victor died, he insisted that they be buried without a crucifix or priest. In his will, he made the same stipulation about his own death and funeral.

Yet he believed in life after death and prayed every single morning and night, convinced as he wrote in The Man Who Laughs that “Thanksgiving has wings and flies to its right destination. Your prayer knows its way better than you do”.

Hugo’s rationalism can be found in poems such as Torquemada (1869, about religious fanaticism), The Pope (1878, anti-clerical), Religions and Religion (1880, denying the usefulness of churches) and, published posthumously, The End of Satan and God (1886 and 1891 respectively, in which he represents Christianity as a griffin and rationalism as an angel). Vincent van Gogh ascribed the saying “Religions pass away, but God remains”, actually by Jules Michelet, to Hugo.

Romanticism the school of philosophical artistry praticed by Victor Hugo also known as the Romantic era) was an artistic, literary, musical, and intellectual movement that originated in Europe towards the end of the 18th century, and in most areas was at its peak in the approximate period from 1800 to 1850. Romanticism was characterized by its emphasis on emotion and individualism as well as glorification of all the past and nature, preferring the medieval rather than the classical. It was partly a reaction to the Industrial Revolution,[1] the aristocratic social and political norms of the Age of Enlightenment, and the scientific rationalization of nature-all components of modernity.[2] It was embodied most strongly in the visual arts, music, and literature, but had a major impact on historiography,[3] education,[4] chess, social sciences, and the natural sciences.[5] It had a significant and complex effect on politics, with romantic thinkers influencing liberalism, radicalism, conservatism, and nationalism.[6]

The movement emphasized intense emotion as an authentic source of aesthetic experience, placing new emphasis on such emotions as fear, horror and terror, and awe - especially that experienced in confronting the new aesthetic categories of the sublime and beauty of nature.[7][8] It elevated folk art and ancient custom to something noble, but also spontaneity as a desirable characteristic (as in the musical impromptu). In contrast to the Rationalism and Classicism of the Enlightenment, Romanticism revived medievalism[9] and elements of art and narrative perceived as authentically medieval in an attempt to escape population growth, early urban sprawl, and industrialism.

Although the movement was rooted in the German Sturm und Drang movement, which preferred intuition and emotion to the rationalism of the Enlightenment,[10] the events and ideologies of the French Revolution were also proximate factors since many of the early Romantics were cultural revolutionaries and sympathetic to the revolution.

The story arcs of the characters of Les Meserables are interesting in the concept of Class Mobility.

Though Hugo is a fading faith Catholic he writes of Prisoner 26401 Jean Valijean who upon release from long term hard labor imprisonment of forced French Fleet and Merchant Marine port working struggles in poverty only saved by the Bishop of Digne, France, the Bishop offering a meal, wine, and prayer, and a night of rest to the near death ex prisoner branded as too dangerous for civil life.

When Jean steals the sivler from the dining set the Bishop encourages it and Jean is lifted out of poverty to become a leading and ethical business man of France, hiding his prison brand of shame.

This class mobility is offset by the story of one of his female employees, a single mother, who in Jeans textile plant has to whore herself sexually and sell her hair and teeth on the prosthetic market finally dyeing of infection.

If there is a core story line in Les Meserables another is missed. In the complex La Encyclopedia engineering marvel of Paris the revolution of the Scientific Revolution and Modernity are coming into full bloom and the economic boom post agricultural city life promise, more than merely a Mill on the Hill.

It is in this life his new charge, Cosset, grows into a mature woman and begins to mix socially with the French aristocracy.

While the Church is inflexible and insensitive at times to the suffering of the French, the State is worse, mired in Genetic Legacies and enforcing perpetual poverty.

The fight of the revolution is holding down the French people as the economic miracles of Modernity unfold in Paris.

This strikes a cord with me and reminds me of my father and mother talking up the GI Bill and how much educational opportunities in the military and after the military contributed to the boob economies of the 1950s.

In fact I think the issue of the survival of Feudalism in Modernity is at the core of this book and the story which infolds in it, both on micro and macro levels.

For the Fantine strategy to work the Social Justice workers representing the victim female must also represent Squalid Filth Ed and arbitrate it all.

To make it more juicy Agent Provocateur Ed, the skid row mercenary pretending to be Ed will be caught with child porn, Ed's dna, Eds clothes or cell phone, by a Sex Worker who was sent on a mission of mercy to Skid Row Ed.

These high power espionage agencies have radiologically attacked me while in mental health custody, incited other prisoners to assault me, etc., and I fear even being in a Department of Motor Vehicles in the US because of their complicity in identity theft and actual assaults on those, like other, State properties where the State backed acts occur.

Huguenots retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

Preamble and Rules for the Government of the French Protestant Church of Charleston: Adopted at Meetings of the Corporation Held on the 12th and the 19th of November, 1843

Hardcover - Import, 4 May 2016 by S C French Protestant Churc Charleston (Creator)

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work.This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work.As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

The Huguenots are believed to have been concentrated among the population in the southern and western parts of the Kingdom of France. As Huguenots gained influence and more openly displayed their faith, Catholic hostility grew. A series of religious conflicts followed, known as the French Wars of Religion, fought intermittently from 1562 to 1598. The Huguenots were led by Jeanne d'Albret; her son, the future Henry IV (who would later convert to Catholicism in order to become king); and the princes of Condé. The wars ended with the Edict of Nantes, which granted the Huguenots substantial religious, political and military autonomy.

Huguenot rebellions in the 1620s resulted in the abolition of their political and military privileges. They retained the religious provisions of the Edict of Nantes until the rule of Louis XIV, who gradually increased persecution of Protestantism until he issued the Edict of Fontainebleau (1685). This ended legal recognition of Protestantism in France and the Huguenots were forced to either convert to Catholicism (possibly as Nicodemites) or flee as refugees; they were subject to violent dragonnades. Louis XIV claimed that the French Huguenot population was reduced from about 900,000 or 800,000 adherents to just 1,000 or 1,500. He exaggerated the decline, but the dragonnades were devastating for the French Protestant community.

The remaining Huguenots faced continued persecution under Louis XV. By the time of his death in 1774, Calvinism had been nearly eliminated from France. Persecution of Protestants officially ended with the Edict of Versailles, signed by Louis XVI in 1787. Two years later, with the Revolutionary Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen of 1789, Protestants gained equal rights as citizens.[1]

Huguenot rebellions in the 1620s resulted in the abolition of their political and military privileges. They retained the religious provisions of the Edict of Nantes until the rule of Louis XIV, who gradually increased persecution of Protestantism until he issued the Edict of Fontainebleau (1685). This ended legal recognition of Protestantism in France and the Huguenots were forced to either convert to Catholicism (possibly as Nicodemites) or flee as refugees; they were subject to violent dragonnades. Louis XIV claimed that the French Huguenot population was reduced from about 900,000 or 800,000 adherents to just 1,000 or 1,500. He exaggerated the decline, but the dragonnades were devastating for the French Protestant community.

The remaining Huguenots faced continued persecution under Louis XV. By the time of his death in 1774, Calvinism had been nearly eliminated from France. Persecution of Protestants officially ended with the Edict of Versailles, signed by Louis XVI in 1787. Two years later, with the Revolutionary Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen of 1789, Protestants gained equal rights as citizens.

https://www.hmoob.in/wiki/Huguenot

An agent provocateur (French for “inciting agent”)

In the case of me a black committing an offense against white females to introduce a need for the protection of females in the gym, apartment, elsewhere, from seeming attacks from Ed.

> is a person who commits or who acts to entice another person to commit an illegal or rash act or falsely implicate them in partaking in an illegal act, so as to ruin the reputation or entice legal action against the target or a group they belong to. They may target any group, such as a peaceful protest or demonstration, a union, a political party or a company.
>
> Prevention of infiltration by agents provocateurs is part of the duty of demonstration marshals, also called stewards, deployed by organizers of large or controversial assemblies.[1][2]
>
> History and etymology
>
> While the practice is worldwide anciently, modern undercover operations were scaled up in France by Eugène François Vidocq in the early 19th century, and already included use of unlawful tactics against opponents. Later in the same century the police targets included union activists who came to fear plain-clothed policemen (agent de police in French). Hence, the French agent provocateur spread, just as is, to English and German. In accordance with French grammar, the plural form of the term is agents provocateurs.

Common usage

An agent provocateur may be a police officer or a secret agent of police who encourages suspects to carry out a crime under conditions where evidence can be obtained; or who suggests the commission of a crime to another, in hopes they will go along with the suggestion and be convicted of the crime.

A political organization or government may use agents provocateurs against political opponents. The provocateurs try to incite the opponent to do counter-productive or ineffective acts to foster public disdain or provide a pretext for aggression against the opponent.

Historically, labor spies, hired to infiltrate, monitor, disrupt, or subvert union activities, have used agent provocateur tactics.

Agent provocateur activities raise ethical and legal issues. In common law jurisdictions, the legal concept of entrapment may apply if the main impetus for the crime was the provocateur.

The Victim of the Copl or Doppelgänger, will bully me by several means. Though victimized by the Copl she will vaguely cheap shot me, also allow the Copo who “caught me” to be punished for my DNA secretly.

The scheme permits and even incentives cops to victimize women, using the identity of a White Supremacist, disparage the white supremacist, and be punished by a Dominatrix in his place.

Conspirators	Victim
Female victim/ Honey Trap in front of me and cop behind me	Me vaguely bullied, not the culprits and me and my property the real abusive shakedown victim
Female victim shown photo by cop
Female victim vaguely takes it out on me in public with attitude towards me, no articulated specifics
Cop is punished as me by leggy HoneyPot, signs away my DNA as though me among adult entertainers
The victims are sympathetic	the white guy stigmatized and ostracized

Alternative Justice

The operation will frame me as unfit for normal life, and ostracized from it, but on flimsy excuses of those who don't want to be around me, not protective of my rights.

I become the cover story of others acts, and their vague assaults upon me, vigilantist, is the persecution Gangstalk the "poison pill" acts of others is tied to me, my property, or rights

> Heuristic Expert Bullying (computer talk)
>
> A heuristic technique (/hjʊəˈrɪstɪk/; Ancient Greek: εὑρίσκω, "find" or "discover"), or a heuristic, is any approach to problem solving or self-discovery that employs a practical method that is not guaranteed to be optimal, perfect or rational, but which is nevertheless > sufficient for reaching an immediate, short-term goal.

Short or long term True goal is Conspiracy Againt My Rights and doing so outside of Due Process which would have protected my rights.

The Excuse under the Pretext, is the temporary protection of the public or myself.

If someone thought to be a pervert or peeper is in the area and you choose not to do the rational thing in the prescribed way (make the case against him in a formal face to face, face the accuser in court way) then do something else instead, seeming a short term solution, warn others with some rumor mongering.

In fact Heuristic Expert Bullying, bullying acts by anonymous people, containing no explicit accusation towards me, anonymously done, by people who refuse to identify themselves to me.

Hide their accusation from me

Hide their identity from me, thus hide their probable motives from me (but use Stalk techniques, hyper-intimacy, and death threats other threats to their dogs, cell phone other parties, while right next to me.

They protect their accountability to me by using vague non explicit stalk while denying me they are in any way connected to me or anything about me as they stalk me never the less.

In the 45 year course of my life Copl or Doppelgänger, especially Doppelgänger, tend to be sex offender minded or recruited, very dirty scum with a history of sex offenses, and recruited but the State and backed by police explicitly and it seems in a Top Secret program in which the US DOD manufactures child porn, often with their own children, and using churches making victims of their own children, though this happens with State backing in jail and psych ward facilities, and for decades.

The use of Heuristics avoids the correct Due Process (mathematical logical outcome)

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Heuristic

The study of heuristics in human decision-making was developed in the 1970s and 80s by psychologists Amos Tversky and Daniel Kahneman,[8] although the concept was originally introduced by Nobel laureate Herbert A. Simon. Simon's original, primary object of research was problem solving which showed that we operate within what he calls bounded rationality. He coined the term "satisficing", which denotes the situation where people seek solutions or accept choices or judgments that are "good enough" for their purposes, but which could be optimized.[9]

Rudolf Groner analyzed the history of heuristics from its roots in ancient Greece up to contemporary work in cognitive psychology and artificial intelligence,[10] and proposed a cognitive style "heuristic versus algorithmic thinking" which can be assessed by means of a validated questionnaire.[11]

Gerd Gigerenzer and his research group argued that models of heuristics need to be formal to allow for predictions of behavior that can be tested.[12] They study the fast and frugal heuristics in the "adaptive toolbox" of individuals or institutions, and the ecological rationality of these heuristics, that is, the conditions under which a given heuristic is likely to be successful.[13]

The descriptive study of the “adaptive toolbox” is done by observation and experiment, the prescriptive study of the ecological rationality requires mathematical analysis and computer simulation. Heuristics - such as the recognition heuristic, the take-the-best heuristic, and fast-and-frugal trees - have been shown to be effective in predictions, particularly in situations of uncertainty. It is often said that heuristics trade accuracy for effort but this is only the case in situations of risk. Risk refers to situations where all possible actions, their outcomes and probabilities are known. In the absence of this information, that is under uncertainty, heuristics can achieve higher accuracy with lower effort.[14]

This finding, known as a less-is-more effect, would not have been found without formal models. The valuable insight of this program is that heuristics are effective not despite of their simplicity - but because of it. Furthermore, Gigerenzer and Wolfgang Gaissmaier found that both individuals and organizations rely on heuristics in an adaptive way.[15]

Heuristics, through greater refinement and research, have begun to be applied to other theories, or be explained by them. For example: the cognitive-experiential self-theory (CEST) also is an adaptive view of heuristic processing. CEST breaks down two systems that process information. At some times, roughly speaking, individuals consider issues rationally, systematically, logically, deliberately, effortfully, and verbally. On other occasions, individuals consider issues intuitively, effortlessly, globally, and emotionally.[16] From this perspective, heuristics are part of a larger experiential processing system that is often adaptive, but vulnerable to error in situations that require logical analysis.[17]

In short, keep Ed away from females and normal life. It would be real trouble again for (the Doppelgänger of) him to be around females.

But if there was an acceptable substitute for Edward Paul Donegan in the community that should not risk Edward Paul Donegan use that person.

DopL

Logically

Dop Cop or Doppelgänger and Cop
	Witting or Unwitting Female Victim
Me

The Doppelgänger or Cop catches themselves with a camera alleged to me, and because it seems I took the photo, they rather than I should be punished for it, owing the female victim DNA

To sell this I am verbally or otherwise assaulted at the scene by cheap shot innuendo, the cop roaring their engine and skidding their car or motorcycle, etc.., to “intimidate me harming the female victim.”

Never any explicit spoken allegation, etc., against me, but that same Copl or Doppelgänger will skid their car or motorcycle, or call me a peice of shit, or tell someone else to do so, etc., but never and ACCUSATION regarding me.

Mostly the COple or Doppelgänger are non whites or gays, will say they work for ANti White Hate or Trinistas Nasimbari (ARC of Nova) or something like that, and also say they “are going to have my baby” as they get caught, as me, with peeping photos of the witting or unwitting victim.

With Tx's evidence in hand FAV is a pedophile, etc., Tx and Rx will Gangstalk FAV together. Rx could be a cop, a domina, etc., Tx a homeless person, the retarded, etc., Social Justice IN, White Male victim OUT.

I will later call Tx Mr Hyde, and myself Dr Jekyll. Mr Hyde and Dr Jekyll are not the same but fused to be.

In Practice

Dop Cop or Dop and Cop with zoom camera
	Me with normal smartphone	Witting or Unwitting Female Victim	Normal non exploitative photographic interest, aka museum placard information

Roaring engines fuse the Dop with me since the engine noise is near me

Dop Cop or Dop and Cop with zoom camera and skidding muscle car
	Me with normal smart-phone	Witting or Unwitting Femal Victim

I am told there is nothing, nothing going on, and there is no explanation of normal sounds of engines near me, there is nothing going on.

Shell Game

Using confusion of who has the pea, which shell, is the shell game and handle by shell corporations who confuse who did what and which accounts or apartments or hotel rooms are which or who is running what kind of operation, aka a retardation firm or a money laundering operation.

Cognizance OF Guilt and Criminal Intent

For decades several different things have been happening.

- Element A, oddly out of place females, etc.,
- Doppelgänger or con artists either having a masturbation disorder, or by activity towards me, planting an impression I do

Element A occurs where I am. Element B where the Doppelgänger, the zoom photographer is confronted, happens one apartment over from me, in a similar apartment, different floor, etc.,

Wide angle	My Eyesight Field of View
	Subject of photo or my normal activities normal life view
Zoom/Scam Photographer →	Female Photo Victim
Me using my camera	Me with natural eyesight ↑

Scam Artists	Does Misrepresentation of me Does represent alleged victim

Element A

I could not figure out why teens or tots where in my field of view near me. I now call this element “A” of a con artist move.

I also could not figure out why people either masturbated themselves dressed as me or pushed mops around me.

This latter part sets up Element B of the con. The Doppelgänger of me uses the victim of Element A as “porn” and thus “owes” DNA.

Only after taking a cross country trip on my motorcycle and taking pictures did I FINALLY find the zoom photographer using my cheap cameras, though cheap, had wider field of view than my natural eyesight.

As I confronted the zoom photographers though they attack me with death threats, seemingly, according to them, for photographing the female victims. In reality the planted the victims as it is the ZOOM photographers hiding their zoom photography.

Sexual Abuse

The central element of the racket is tied to sexual abuse and sexual ostracism of me at the same time undisclosed parties of great clout have some undisclosed in my reproductivity.

I am first exposed to disgusting imagery then assaulted in every way for it as if I was to blame.

Mr Marshall's

- Assaults of my property when starting self-seized tots, out porn, tots after that outside by window disgusting me back will be alleg
- Tots and teens in public attempting to create the appearance of me having an interest in them or them as my paid Models. I can police stop them or those who “paid them” from from being near me DNA will be asses
- Normal acts like normal photography or photographing, ac watching news stigmatized by shouting supremacist is fra into apartment from outside, engine roars, but the law enforc etc.,
- In affect sound and fury to my normal acts with external engine roars as thought his ties me to the Marshalls acts. The DNA from the law Marshalls do not catch themselves for the perpetrator of me guilt, they only roar engines at me stigmatizing normalcy and even assaulting
- The alleged sexual relief in my own apartment, will engine roaring to normal other misuse my apartment accusing proximity and phn normal anti socially and addictive, not true about me. Manufacturing the allegation by treating what are non symptoms publicly.
- Marshalls or othe create sound and and protect others, behind my back from me, and roar engines stigmatizing my normal conduct as if it ties me to abnormal conduct.

Mr Marshall's

- Assaults of my property when starting self-seized tots, out porn, tots after that outside by window disgusting me back will be alleg
- Tots and teens in public attempting to create the appearance of me having an interest in them or them as my paid Models. I can police stop them or those who “paid them” from from being near me DNA will be asses
- Normal acts like normal photography or photographing, ac watching news stigmatized by shouting supremacist is fra into apartment from outside, engine roars, but the law enforc etc.,
- The female seeki
- In affect sound and fury to my normal acts with external engine roars as thought me in the cold and his ties me to the Marshalls acts. The DNA from the law Marshalls do not catch themselves for the perpetrator of me guilt, they only roar engines at me stigmatizing normalcy and even assaulting
- The alleged sexual relief in my own apartment, will engine roaring to normal other misuse my apartment accusing proximity and phn normal anti socially and addictive, not true about me. Manufacturing the allegation by treating what are non symptoms publicly.
- Marshalls or othe create sound and and protect others, behind my back from me, and roar engines stigmatizing my normal conduct as if it ties me to abnormal conduct.

All of this is sexually abusive to me. Planting vulnerable females near me, eroticized, disgusting to me and others. Using their, not my, peeping photos of those females to criminally harass my access to adult women. Sexually stigmatizing my non erotic acts by sound and fury to try and humiliate me with public assaults on me normal days in public.

Religious or Other Abuse

The medical consequences of this sexual abuse has been harassed and unusable gym conditions leading to untreated terminal disease.

It appear religious “victims” are making false claims upon me, aggrandizing their churches or causes and attempting to sexually humiliate me on a falsified factual theory of disgusting sexuality in me.

Sea Men

Their pornography, female victims, my photography

When I photo I tend to ask. I choose better subjects than exploited or vulnerable, have older women tastes, and don’t need to engage in fraud or other acts to meet my needs.

The whole point of all these books I have researched and written is why is there a Doppelgänger of me, why is he subject to blackmail, and what is it with my DNA they are secretly interested in?

Sound and Fury of roar of engines seems to create a cloud of suspicion on my normal clear text acts as they covertly engage in antisocial acts, assert me in the vicinity to others, ask others to blackball me in favor of them.

Roaring Engines, anonymous over-taching engines, surround, subsume, My Normal Acts into a per in the area, btw NOT ME

Cypher-text anonymous undisclosed to me	Clear Text in the open

A critical point in this is that the Doppelgänger deny the acts to me. They are in a money laundering ring, in my identity, as morally superior to me as they allege, they, rather than I, will be punished for my DNA due the victim. They will be punished by an adult entertainer, but hide that from me, and hide hey paid with my dna.

Roles

- 1 Me in clear text with only clear text meaning and only clear text simple poverty limited transactions books.

- 2B The Operators of a Second Set Of Books using Doppelgangers (not me) in human trafficking and adult entertainers at set locations to be confused with my locations, which sometimes I can catch the activity and sometimes I cannot.

- 2A Shills who are in the VPN who have the code words and make plans with other shills who are also in my proximity (or unauthorized access to my apartment) who will traffic in my DNA as

- 2A An alleged provider of a call girl to my apartment (but really to a set location I know nothing about.)

- The the 2A Doppelgänger of Me who will confess as though me to anti social peeping conduct and pay with my DNA as requested by a Domina or other

- 2A A clerk or cashier who will attempt to fuse 1 economic authorized transactions with activity not in explicit text or meaning withe me, and if were, or even intoned, I disavow. The fusion of what I am aware of 1, and what I do not approve of or know about or authorize, the second set of books transactions by impersonators and money launderers.

- FV_{WU} A victim of photography, the photographs will later be attributed to me. Could also be someone who jumps in front of me or places themselves or herself in my path and verbally assaults me as “bear,” etc.,

- 2A U.S. Marshall Most likely U.S. Marhsalls roaring engines, parking vehicles, etc., creating the intonation that a predator is in the area and I (not them) is/are the predator(s.) Probably justifying their acts on the gains which they wish from wrongful asset seizures, lurid activities, and excuses about the need to take the image of a White Nationalist down a rung.

- 2A retardation Coaches who will make gestures of statements in public part of the VPN, the retardation coaching of a retarded Doppelgänger of me, though fuses with my daily intelligent life. Sets up retardation VPN operators to control, money launder, my IQ and other genes in the racket

Relevant Legal Terms

Some Terms In Law relating to Protection Racket

ad quod damnum

> (according to the harm) the penalty will be assessed.

If it was Edward Donegan who made a female his pornography by photographing her and masturbating to it, it stands to reason HIS DNA should “pay the bill” to his pornography he cant control himself over, female buttocks.

Lying in wait

> In criminal law, lying in wait refers to the act of hiding and waiting for an individual with the intent to kill that person or inflict serious bodily harm to that person.[1] Because lying in wait involves premeditation, some jurisdictions have established that lying in wait is considered an aggravating circumstance that allows for the imposition of harsher criminal penalties.

Shills are premeditating false claims to my genome and but for their prediction in my path and placing themselves there with Criminal Intent they would not be there laying in wait and photographed by their friends.

animus nocendi

> intention to harm The subjective state of mind of the author of a crime, with reference to the exact knowledge of illegal content of his behavior, and of its possible consequences.

A form of MEns REa, a plant to damage my Life, Liberty, and Property interests by fraudulent acts.

actus reus

> the act which creates the criminal outcome is performed by a criminal, the criminal in this matter the Zoom Photographer dressed as me who will pretend to be me my and victimize someone by peep photo.

Cui Bono

> It can also be rendered as cui prodest? ("whom does it profit?") and ad cuius bonum? ("for whose good?"). *

Those seeking to benefit gays, blacks, the retarded, etc., or they themselves, have an industry of false claims to my DNA and seizing rather than protecting my assets and rights.

At the coincident locations who placed themselves there and photographed themselves their for what reasons?

ad colligenda bona > collect the goods. With the false pretext against me the claim to my DNA through false claim against me.

The use of criminal impersonations, money laundering, and conspiracy against my own rights by conspiracy makeup the human rights crime against me the United States needs to protect is serious mistakes in history.

ad hominem

> at the person Attacking an opponent's character rather > than answering his argument.

I am treated as though a sex offender, peeper, pedophile, etc., without any allegation of that for me to refute, no way to clear my name.

At the Dallas Stadium or other locations blacks or others will take cheap shots “You are dirt” without the basis to justify the statement. In fact the facts warranting the character attack were done by the verbal assaulter of me, not me, though suspicion is cast towards me by the Ad Hominen attack upon me.

ad litem

> for the case. Describes those designated to represent parties deemed incapable of representing themselves, such as a child or incapacitated adult.

As a matter of a Protection Racket illegally claimig I am a group of retarded so retarded people can launch casea against me by the SJW group that works for retarded people.

animus nocendi

> intention to harm The subjective state of mind of the author of a crime, with reference to the exact knowledge of illegal content of his behavior, and of its possible consequences.

A form of MEns REa, a plant to damage my Life, LIberty, and Property interests by fraudulent acts.

compos mentis

> having command of mind Of sound mind. Also used in the negative “Non compos mentis”, meaning “Not of sound mind”

To create the Protection Racket shills, con artists in a Long Con, stage the appearance of my mental incompetence including road-bloacking success covertly and attention blocking me acts.

I am sound of mind but faking that I am not sound of mind hides the motive that is my brain genes sought by them rather than protected by them, protected because my brain genes they allege are inferior and in need of protection.

contradictio in adjecto

> Contradictio in adjecto. Contradictio in adiecto is Latin for “a contradiction between parts of an argument” (adiectum “brought about, brought forward”). It differs from a “contradiction in terms”, which refers to two contradictory words normally appearing together

It does not cohese adult women removed from me, I object to the teens or innuendo, Tom Dunham and report and do not want any ties to rings or teen planted keys, etc.,

That I am forced into kiddy pools makes any sense at all unless it is those kiddies wishing a claim against me for the antisocial conduct of me alleged to victimize them.

If fit their interests as a victim of dna claims made against me, they disgust me and I can not get rid of them around me.

Unjust Enrichment

> What is the doctrine of unjust enrichment?

> Unjust enrichment. In contract law, unjust enrichment occurs when one person is enriched at the expense of another in circumstances that the law sees as unjust. Where an individual is unjustly enriched, the law imposes an obligation upon the recipient to make restitution, subject to defenses such as change of position.

Who does it benefit others, not me, will seize rather than protect any of my property, philosophy, genetics, or work product including editorial selections of research areas and learnings from research?

My epistemology attempts to prove SJW process and substantive weakness including the failures of Religion to produce good and Religion as bringing harm through fraud and harm to others.

a man's home is his castle

> quid enim sanctius, quid omni religione munitius, quam domus unusquisque civium?
> What more sacred, what more strongly guarded by every holy feeling, than a man's own home? -Cicero

Fabricated Evidence is fictitious testimony or documents offered to a court or jury in order to mislead them.

> Fabricating evidence involves arranging or manufacturing circumstances or indica, after the act is committed with the intention to use them as evidence and make it appear accidental.

An investigation revealed the suspect vehicle was previously stolen from Los Altos and the suspect driver was in possession of Methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia and indicia of identity theft.

Consipracy Against Rights 18 USC 241 and under Color of Law 242

If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or

If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured

They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

Consciousness of Guilt

> Law and Legal Definition. Evidentiary rules allow a prosecutor to introduce testimony that tends to show that the defendants actions prove he knew he was guilty (at least of something). This is sometimes referred to as "consciousness of guilt".

The term "guilt" connotes many different phenomena: theology, philosophy, ethics, psychology and law all contributed to the variety of connotations. It is not my purpose, nor do I pretend to engage in etymological or anthropological research into the evolution of the various aspects and concepts of guilt: I shall try to describe and distinguish only those phenomena of guilt of which judges may have to take cognizance for the proper exercise of punitive discretion.

First and foremost, there is "guilt" within the meaning of criminal law. On the one hand, guilt is spoken of as denoting the mental element in crime: the guilt of one who committed a criminal act actus reus - presupposes the criminal mind mens rea; or, an actus reus is transformed into guilt by the supervenience of mens rea. Whether the mens rea is intent or wilfulness, or only negligence or recklessness, does not affect the incidence of guilt, but may well raise the question of degree of guilt. On the other hand, "guilt" is the result of a verdict to the effect that the accused is criminally responsible ("finding of guilty"), and it is in this sense that the accused may "plead guilty".

Criminal Intent in fraud is to create fraudelent pretext or pretense to achieve unjust enrichment through fraud.

The desire to achieve a state, to reach the stat of unjust enrichment via fraud is Mens Rea, the rational plan to achieve, to carry out, the unjust gain and is the formation of Conspiracy.

The acts carried out in the Conspiracy is Actus Reas, the reasoned acts which though wrongful will achieve the unjust reslut planned under Mens Rea.

It considered evidentiaraliy probative that the criminals in Conspiracy realized the Actus Rea involved the commission of unjust or fraudulent acts and to preserve the acts from scrutiny hid the acts from scrutiny.

It is true people acting justly will sometimes act in error and without criminal intest. Those whose additional action preserve rather than reverse or stop the error give evidence their Fraudulent acts of deciet were the display of Criminal Intent, often not otherwise exposed to those outside the process of the criminal's mind, but are displayed by the criminals actions as the best explanation of the criminals actions.

My Theory of 40 or so years of Conspiracy against My Own and Mother's Rights

Etiology, a need existed for the Gottlieb Deep State to justify claims to me DNA through fraud since it was never authorized for Illuminati family experiments.

Legend, the creation of the fraudulent appearance I have anti social and destructive sexual interests which I am humiliated over and must pay blackmail debts because of.

That this alleged humiliating and wrongful sexuality supposed to be my own created the stigma the claims against me are filed under.

That A racket benefiting those in need, the criminals, help the racket at their unjust enrichment rather the defense of me.

That this stigmatization of me Breaks My White Eggs and creates a Brown Egg Omelet.

And that this is MKULTRA Birtherism from the DIA, CIA, DOD, CIA, Secret Service, NASA, the Illuminati, and others.

That a role I call 2A carries this out.

Those operating on behalf of 2B are 2A.

Operatives 2A make statement or acts towards me I receive (Rx) creating a circuit I have disgusting sexuality.

Operatives 2A take over my identity and as me Tx, transmit, the that defamatory information about me I am also being bombed with inbound by 2B Rx.

Over time, much time, I have proven Tx, what he does, who he confesses to, including “Mistress Rozz”

It is Pizzagate. A Code Word, in a pizzashop is spoken aloud. Seemingly tied to a clear text purchase of Rx, Tx , a Doppelgänger, takes off to confess as Rx to what Rx, me, would not confess to and is not true.

And in the forged confession of Tx, a defaming claim about Rx. But it was all Tx all along, the preTxT for false claims and illegal acts.

Moving others away, Blind Conervator creates isolation

"the enemy of security: repetition leads to patterns, and cryptanalysts thrive on patterns."

— Simon Singh, The Code Book: The Science of Secrecy from Ancient Egypt to Quantum Cryptography

Within this VPN corrupt cops and their prison recruits function as both the victimize of women and the retarded person confessing. The confession is btw to a Dominatrix interested in helping charities. They will allege the evidence they plant or fake as tied to real Edward Paul Donegan is his interest in tots, or exploitation. The opposite is true, but they sell the defamation of me after the fact by roaring muscle cars around me, making me appear the culprit of their acts. Because they takeover my identity in stores in a ring I am not connected to it took years to prove this. I was arrested and committed numerous times reporting the cops Doppling me.

Assault of me, inexplicable from my perspective, have been concomitant with the perverse acts and confessions of the person away from my presence (at what I call Element b) of peeping or exploitation of vulnerable.

Element A is what I call the actual perp, police backed, using high power photography to take pictures of females near me, though me closer and with a smart phone.

Other terms on Long Cons, Black Markets, Repugnant Markets, Black Money, Money Laundering, and Protection Rackets follow in this book

A racket does exist, it uses both plain clothes police, assets of police (and by police I also include covert programs agencies such as CIA, Secret Service, tactical groups like US Marhsalls Service and FBI tactical groups) and the covert operations and covert operators are ever present, but not showing cause and disavowing their very acts in front of me, even when I caption their acts with the description of the acts, they dismiss the acts as some mere con-incidence and not the acts of the state or not acts tied to my presence.

I call it - Officer Hyde Mr. Hyde ROW 2 level conspiracy)

Dr Jekyll. ROW 1 level citizen, me, fighting legal position of power ROW 2 susbsumption of me.

Working with Officer or Gangstalking Law Enforcement Mr Hyde, pure scum, commits a crime against the public. The crime is attributed to Dr Jekyll, Edward Donegan, behind his back in a secret conservator or secret court, and Mr Hydes acts entitle the victim of Mr. Hyde to Dr. Jekyll's DNA.

Row Two, 2, claims I am in their "kinder garden" being run alleging I am mentally and sexually retarded but really envious of who I am and by claiming my biological and intellectual property and aesthetics using it to bolster their own in redistributing from me to them, doing so when their Mr. Hydes dresses as me harm their others and make claims against my identity.

The racket uses an impersonator of me to confess to what I have no interest in, peeping tom photos of females; then, the impersonator of me who DID the scumbag deed owes DNA to be donated to a retardation firm who claims the right to assign custom genes to others creating designer babies.

Outlandish and ahead of statutes on designer babies, but having enough clout to avoid racketeering charges of design babies genes reselling.

I know this Deep State conspiracy uses the U.S. Marshalls who fight white supremacism, formally under the Force Acts during reconstruction, and since under Rod Rosenstein, his CIA DOJ connected wife, and Public Health Service sister, all long term attackers upon my life.

The timing of one of my lawsuits indicates to me James Comey was fired by Rosenstein when Comey objected to the secret and illegal conservancy of my genome and that Jen Moore objected to that as well, probably knowing even more than Comey or maybe even General Flynn knew about it, though Flynn objected to. In the scheme the impersonator, Mr Hyde, as me confesses to teen or tot honey traps to Victoria Secrets models who demand rights to DNA for the community and others.

The Marshals Service supports communities by transferring certain types of forfeited assets to state, local and nonprofit organizations. Through the Operation Goodwill program, forfeited real or personal property of marginal value can be transferred to state or local governments in support of drug abuse treatment, drug crime prevention and education, housing, job skills and other community-based public health and safety programs.

South Texas District Attorney under fire for writing 'ftp' on social media

The post included the hashtag "ftp," which is most known to stand for "F--- the police."

"Self funding" assets seizing Black Marshalls, Black Corpus Christi PD, Black FBI.

Three Pack of Ploys

Three Pack of Ploys (3POP.)

- RxTx Ploy
- Chemia Fury Alchemia Ploy
- Hyperspacing Ploy

RxTx Ploy

I receive a comment. Rx. A fraudster will make a statement towards me which creates the Legend the crime ring needs to be true. For instance a woman will say to me “I am sorry.” Her cover story is she is blocking my shopping cart which she just stepped into the path of but she will before the public claim an alternate meaning that it is not advantageous for women to be near me.

A Doppelgänger of me makes a statement. Tx. The Doppelgänger is obsessed with women, especially their buttocks, and can not stand to be in their presence without a bipolar fit of trying to steal the soul of women’s buttocks with the use of a camera. Caught with the “pornography” of Buttphelia on the Dopple’s smart phone, the Doppelgänger owes his dna as fitting punishment for the anti social photographing of buttocks.

Chemia Fury Alchemia Ploy

Annoying and furious sounds towards me take my Chemia, smart phone, metal shopping cart, and with an annoying noise, it as alchemia now a camera.

One of perhaps one thousand examples. I hold my smart phone up with the UBER recognition color scheme and the driver responds back in kind.

Meanwhile tots run in front of the moving cab who is looking 7 feet above me shoes at the screen on my smart phone.

A bystander states that is a solar panel I am holding.

No it is not a solar panel. When I am near my solar panel for my solar lights motorcycles roar their engines. THat does not turn my solar panels into a peeping device.

Hyperspacig Ploy

With the public appearances now I am an an antisocial buttocks photographer and the double entender made about some normal property in my possession, the public stage is now set for a double entender I will be somewhere else some other time, and though out of place in the conversation, vague enough that I am not privy to or able to refute some rendezvous which in fact, in a secret I am not included in, the Doppelgänger will be in and the Doppelgänger next to me does understand the vague “have a good time tonight” comment made to me during the day in the course of regular clear text communications I am using and only mean.

Summary affect of the three ploys

Little bits of out of place though vauge things are planted like women near me in odd ass flashing conduct, Doppelgänger dressed similar to me who are touching themselves or taking photos of females, and odd statements of later meet ups of people. At that rendezvous I am not privy to the Doppelgänger will conceded, rather than reject, accusations against me. In fact it was the Doppelgänger who in my identity was the photographer/masturbater, and the the Doppelgänger as me will confess to the act in activity behind my back with a blind conservator of me assisting, and that blind conservator who work for retarded children will accept from the Doppelgänger of me my high iq genes.

In-congruent with who I am and what I eroticize but what fits with “Legend” (manufacture of public appearances of me before the public.)

Their own police reports and suspicious treatment of me as a sex offender or despicable person will create the cloud of suspicion I was the perpetrator, and= Representative for the victim will without proper accounting or notice to me utilize my genome as compensation to the victim or even compensation to the victim who “allowed me the [jail] bait” which I never had any interest in.

This was in CCPD Case Number 1911030057 11/20/2019 and on the CDROM is an example. As I was about to watch The Kings Speech on my TV DVD a black male cased the apartment and broke in the next day stealing the TV and laptop. The police report denied the thief came in the hall doorway and failed to mention the black female in 45 was the likely perpetrator. The report implied my sliding door was open for some suspicious reason.

The real reason for the theft was to slow my history research on the topic I was writing my book about, the time when in the FOXP2 LONDON KE Family, London King Edward family, his younger brother Prince Phillip of York replaced Prince Edward Prince of Windsor (despite a speech defect) as King because King Edward VIII as Prince Edward of Windsor has been “too close” to the Nazis, Hitler, Franz Kutcherea, Maria Kutschera included, and likely had out of wedlock children with Maria Kutchere when she went to London in 196 and in that year married Captain Von Trapp of Austria who fled to England with Maria Von Trapp (after his first England tied wife, Agatha Whitehead), the death of his first wife leaving him in need of Maria Kutschera as house nanny for his soon to be singing Kutchera family, singing pro Nazi anti England monarchy songs.

This was tied to the Windsors in 1925 withe the OSS creating clones through the world for long term Imperial rule in long term planning dating back to the 1800s but the speech defect had to be studied and worked out.

Mohammad Reza Pahlav retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Reza Pahlavi (Persian: رضا پهلوی; born 31 October 1960) is the eldest son of Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, the last Shah of Iran, and his wife Farah Diba. Prior to the Iranian Revolution in 1979, he was the crown prince and the last heir apparent to the throne of the Imperial

State of Iran.

[image]

[image]

His legacy remains controversial to this day. His defenders assert that he was an essential reunification modernization force for Iran (whose international prominence had sharply declined during Qajar rule), while his detractors assert that his reign was often despotic, with his failure to modernize Iran's large peasant population eventually sowing the seeds for the Iranian Revolution nearly four decades later, which ended 2,500 years of Persian monarchy.[

Mohammad Reza Shah took the title Shahanshah ("King of Kings")[2] on 26 October 1967. He was the second and last monarch of the House of Pahlavi. Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi held several other titles, including that of Aryamehr ("Light of the Aryans") and Bozorg Arteshtaran ("Commander-in-Chief"). His dream of what he referred to as a "Great Civilization" (Persian: تمدن بزرگ, romanized: tama

The incident,the theft was falsified by the police and made it seem the computer and tv stolen were part of some peeping ring, but the real reason the TV and laptop were stolen was to prevent my home screening of The Kings Speech in the course of researching my book, this book.

That SJWs will blame me for their own acts will incite vigilantism towards me including gender hostile environments were the treatment of me, never substantiated to me, is as though my behaviors or lifestyle was exploitative of females.

Detla Hex is using blame to me of the incident to incite others to assault me, though in carefully crafted vigilantism, under a theory my secret is kept, and WHY they are assaulting me will not be spoken aloud. Thus I have no recourse in clearing my name, there is only groundless attacks upon me which seem to identify me as the perpetrator of unnamed activities.

As I state in another part of the book series these assailants of me, trying to stigmatize and humiliate me as an old disgusting “bear” stalking them is the insult they use to blame me for for what is not to blame.

They as fraudsters predicted my normal path and created an incident that was the fake claim against me while announcing out loud I caused the incident.

Nice to live in the United States, huh? It is not that I haven’t tried to get out.

I am walking down the street in normal business as they assault me for what I have not done. There interested in me, not disgusted by me, but their cry of whiplash or bumping into me as though I bumped into them makes me seem vulnerable to their assets demands from me.

The more I am corralled into the SJW clientel living the more SJW beneficiaries can mount claims against me and “warn the (outside) world” about me, keeping me under controlled circumstances I call in South TExas Federal District Court Kidnap by Enveigal.

In retrospect this goes back to probably about 2003 or so except I did not recognize it as such. While walking to the San Francisco Public Library on Market Street downtown a woman from NA/AA more or less ass flashed me and I remember making a SFS 49ers center joke. I did not recognize even who she was until she had jumped in front of me and bent over and then I had thought “oh yeah the woman from NA. I recognize her now.” And I told her that joking about it. She had a sort of globular ass.

Back then I did not get that for years, decades to follow, that would be a bizarre inexplicable pattern. Later I would learn both the ass fetishism and teens and tots were a Shill operation. They weren't alleging I was following them down the street they were alleging I was following their asses down the street. In 2019 I figured out that is what the planted females were laying in wait to assert.

It is congruent that this disgusting use of tots defames a white supremacist and the black and non white who ARE making white buttocks "their visual porn" had the motives of using me as a cover story for their ass photography, and in using me as that cover story creating legal and social antagonism towards me, if it LOOKED like I was the smart phone zoom photographer and "fapper."

The International RICO Racket in control of Constitutional Offices of the United States

Modus

As late as my trip to new york, even mid 2019 I could not figure out why teens, tots, others planted near me. Alleged motivation of me? NOW i've found "victim" or "provider" of victim claims my DNA.

3rd parties wishing to claim my DNA under false pretexts, SJWs, set themselves in position (I never authorized it) to settle claims for their "victims" against my DNA by CLAIMING they manage my DNA

The "peeper" is next to me, not me, and part of the false claims system. The SJWs "protecting" my DNA by claiming management of it and faking claims is a racket Cheap shot of anger without intellect make a public show of anger towards me, but hide from MY scrutiny the false claims the anger towards me SEEMS TO accuse me with. One finger → three fingers ←

Certainly part of this has been non whites and gays defaming me (by manufacturing their own victim-hood, and by them peeping at white women while dressed as me) and Anti White hate political and religious espionage or if you will just “dirty tricks” against someone (me.)

Operandi

In what in Cons is called the Grandparents con, a mother of a child will find a phone, not my phone but at the table near me, and it will have her daughter pictured. Fortunately a Jesus Freak nearby is there to hear all about it. They tell me nothing is out of the ordinary (it all is I want nothing to do with any of this.)

Bird-Doggers

Criminal Operative working on behalf of secret police fake claims. Here, I photographed the entire scene as a Doppelgänger of me in front of me photographs a planted tot and the gang surrounding me physically assaults me for the dopple's act. In fact at CCRTA the same thing or HEB Foods. I want nothing to do with it but I am the assault victim.

If I object to the Doppelgänger I am accused of being a psychotic delusional and threatened with arrest. Nevertheless the Doppelgänger will concede to blackmail as though me and pay the black cops with my DNA.

I am told by these same police I am not being ass flashed, it is all coincidence and I am crazy if I think otherwise. Well, the cover story for staging the photo where I look like a peeping tom stalker of the teen is that it was only coincidence or the US Marshalls daughter so why am I complaining?

I report in MKULTRA TNGin the Wetworks section the following

Utilizing Psychiatry to dismiss the reports of the Doppelgänger made by the Doppled person

Heautoscopy is a term used in psychiatry and neurology for the hallucination of “seeing one’s own body at a distance”.[24] It can occur as a symptom in schizophrenia[25] and epilepsy, and is considered a possible explanation for doppelgänger phenomena.[26] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Doppelg%C3%A4nger

It sounds much like this.

https://www.projectveritas.com/2018/03/01/james-okeefe-sits-down-with-rush-limbaugh/ O’KEEFE: Yes, Bob Creamer and Scott Foval. That was extraordinary, because Bob Creamer was one of Barack Obama’s closest allies and community organizers. This young woman, Allison Maass, is mentioned in the book, and it reads like a John Grisham novel, following her along as she pretends to be the niece of a donor. She gets into his office, and they’re describing how the money is funneled from Hillary to the DNC to Democracy Partners to the Foval Group to execute the expletive [shit] on the ground.

That's to say, to foment violence at Trump rallies. She even meets with the "bird-doggers," as they're called, who incite this violence.

https://isthmus.com/news/news/democratic-operative-scott-foval-says-sting-that-brought-him-down-was-a-fraud/
Throughout the videos, Foval discusses what he calls "conflict engagement," saying "We have mentally ill people we pay to do shit" and describing "bird-dogging," which he explains as planting people at events of his political opponents to get the attention of the media or to disrupt candidates. A couple days after the videos were released, Foval was "summarily dismissed from both" jobs, he says.

As I document the ENTIRE SCENE with these photos I am violently threatened by the entire Shill group who surounded me.

This latter element of the crime is effectively the witches test. If I don't document manufacture of KOMPROMAT to be used behind my back by evidence, a photo, I can't prove it. If I do document the entire scene I create the claimed pretext of the criminals to assault me for "taking the bait and photographing the child."

These people will also "get the word out (to others) about the White Supremacist, (me) and skid their cars while in my vicinity to show how they feel about me.

- The planted teen or tot who is about to be exploited by a scum bag

- The Gull sitting at the next table, a gullible, a pervert who photographed the child but is working with the other con artists and will "confess" he is actually ME and that child is his "pornography." In cons a Gull falls for a trap and then will give into the blackmail resulting from the trap.

- The Marshall/Protector of the Shill teen, tot, or female who the mother will report the found photo to.

- The “Grandparent” who claims to be my grandparent and also is the grandparent of the planted teen or tot, and will settle the claim against me behind my back.

Reports to the police fail because the police are shaking down my “grandparent” for my genome and other finances which will be used for reparations against their own community’s victim hood.

But over the course of trying to understand the clout this massively illegal international RICO scheme operates with lead me to believe this ties into reverse justifying claims to my DNA already in the OBama family and other locations by religious work tied to the Illuminati.

It is insane for so much effort to claim rights to my genome so outrageously in a decades long MKULTRA Targeted Individual Gangstalk of me.

How is this happened and why does Obama always seem tied to it?

Why do people make the false case I am retarded when I am not so my “grandparents” can settle false claims against me and for their “injured” parties?

1961 to 1965 Creation of Obama out of Malcom Little (X) and Glorian Donegan (Y) after leadership of Windsors could be matched with Malcolm X insurgency building capabilities in non white countries planted from Hawaii and assassinations of those who could compromise the Illuminati plot of MKULTRA world plans 1970s and 80s Probably at some time, maybe the 1990s, Ethiopia Genomic Relief, IQ, GDP, and The Brain. Perhaps disease fighting as well.

1992 to 1999 Clintons in Arkansas, Huckabee governor, James Woosely CIA. Plans formed in 1992 probably called Foundation X at University Y create a plan for the Obama children, using Donegan DNA again for consistency between BHO and children.

2006 to 2007 World plans for DNA around the world and mass genetic engineering research. Feb 20 2007 is the Second "Annuki Convention" in which the testing is reviewd and the go no go decision completed. White water will flow. RUSSELL MCDOUGAL and Lous Freeh not pleased. Likly to roll out in Iraq under Prescott HW and W Bush. Hasting and his Fiance deaths. My imprisonment.

2011 Extortion17 is the name for genomic world genes base building for world populations and the plan is underway. At the same time comes RFLP and family databases and worry that the Obama family lineage should come out of Ethiopia, not Glorian Donegan.

2015 to 2020 MKULTRA continues, false claims to my genome rights used to genetically seed and economically redevelop 3rd world laboratory environment of Feces Neuces which is actually in the USA and the God's Missionary work can test out world religous orphanages plans.

Again, speculating, and doing so on the basis of what I have found out on the web and from some of the parties directly, I continue to think ties to the Obama family and genome racketeering.

With family history problems on the maternal side of the Obama family tree in 1997 Linda Newkirk became the test surrogate mother for the Obama children again using Donegan DNA, and Michelle Obama was not only never pregnant but Micheal Lavon Robinson, a male that Andrew Breitbart had discovered in the background of an Obama rally.

If Donegan DNA was usurped into a non white family tree of the Obamas and planted around the world it had to not be found in me as the source of it.

In Arlington Virginia females were being planted around me, then openly said to be working for the Obamas in Sport and Health Gym making me look like a stalker and I assumed it was because of my politically connected brother who was part of Arlington County Social Services and the city town hall activities and my left wing nut job counseling staff I wanted nothing to do with.

Thus I left for red state Texas hoping to get away from that. The story of my arrival in Texas though is of being setup for con jobs by Gods Missionary work to the Homeless and Non Whites.

It is in this context, a racially, religiously, and internationally hostile blind conservators' motives that I had to research and in this book series is my Etiology conclusion.

My long standing deep hatred of religion as a waste of time, of pretentious incompetence and self entitlement, and of confused backward people has been further inflamed.

The bizarre racketeering and stigmatizing interest in my genome kept secret by a racketeering Social Justice government backed operation

Client Group 1 exists (CG1.) CG1 has retarded,low IQ, and autistic clients.

Social Justice Reps 1 (SJR1) exists or is created to serve as representatives for CG1

SJR1 can now settle claims of CG1 victims as they victimize each other. This includes when a victimizer is on one dressed as me, IF the claim to represent me. SJR1 now in the Judiciary of the school yard effectively.

This is similar to a realtor with a listing also finding the buyer or a market maker in a financial product.

This is similar to a realtor with a listing also finding the buyer or a market maker in a financial product.

Moving my DNA rights and other property into the SJR1 group is easy since CG1 groups surrounds my life for evidence plants.

Failed and fraudulent accounting occur claiming every day non code words actually are a secret accounting when in fact they are not.

Money laundering is made to look legal in asset seizures within the total trust fund. In fact it mimics a single trust fund of a single group, (CG1 + Me) which is another form a trust may have rather than equity share in the total pool based on original contribution.

I have no interest in SJR1 or need for them but they put themselves in place claiming rights to manage my assets on my behalf.

They create a protection racket placing a playground around me, faking accusations on the playground and declaring me too dangerous to leave the playground.

Their statement of that to Jim Volcelka, William Ruiz, and others follows in the 200 Wintesses chapter.

Extortion (17) Protection and Exaction Rackets,

Robbery

Under manufactured and concealed pretexts women are forcibly or incited to withdraw from my vicinity then by the acts of Doppelgangers ascribed to me I seemingly become dependent on exploitative acts towards females who the Racket will compensate from my assets they conceal from me they are using for alleged victims.

Extortion (also called shakedown, and, in a legal sense incorrectly, exaction) is obtaining benefit through coercion. In most jurisdictions it is likely to constitute a criminal offense, the bulk of this article deals with such cases.

Extortion is sometimes called the “protection racket” since the racketeers often phrase their demands as payment for “protection” from (real or hypothetical) threats from unspecified other parties; though often, and almost always, such “protection” is simply abstinence of harm from the same party, and such is implied in the “protection” offer. Extortion is commonly practiced by organized crime. In some jurisdictions, actually obtaining the benefit is not required to commit the offense, and making a threat of violence which refers to a requirement of a payment of money or property to halt future violence is sufficient to commit the offense.[1] Exaction refers not only to extortion or the demanding and obtaining of something through force,[2] but additionally, in its formal definition, means the infliction of something such as pain and suffering or making somebody endure something unpleasant.[3]

The term extortion is often used metaphorically to refer to usury or to price-gouging, though neither is legally considered extortion. It is also often used loosely to refer to everyday situations where one person feels indebted against their will, to another, in order to receive an essential service or avoid legal consequences. Neither extortion nor blackmail requires a threat of a criminal act, such as violence, merely a threat used to elicit actions, money, or property from the object of the extortion.

Such threats include the filing of reports (true or not) of criminal behavior to the police, revelation of damaging facts (such as pictures of the object of the extortion in a compromising position), etc.[1]

In law extortion can refer to political corruption, such as selling one's office or influence peddling,[citation needed] but in general vocabulary the word usually first brings to mind blackmail or protection rackets. The logical connection between the corruption sense of the word and the other senses is that to demand bribes in one's official capacity is blackmail or racketeering in essence (that is, "you need access to this resource, the government restricts access to it through my office, and I will charge you unfairly and unlawfully for such access").[citation needed]

Legal Terms and Taxonomy

Racketeering and RICO

A Racket is an organized crime ring often using Money Laundering techniques to commit crime under the guise of legitimacy. A Racketeering Influenced Crime Organization is likely to have several features.

It is a racket in that unneeded services are involuntary imposed on a person and creates the condition (such as broken windows of a shop along a sidewalk or other vandalism, or peeping at women) then propose to protect the victim against the crimes they themselves comit, in my case offering to settle the false claims they create as fraud with my own DNA to their victims)

Money Laundering is often a feature of RICO in that the assets being fraudulently moved around are done in dummy accounts where it is out of direct view of tracing.

Vague statement which are retracted or denied upon pin down are part of the accounting fraud.

Shills are Con Artists who in Long Cons can do things like fall down in front of you allegedly tangled feet or a push, and perhaps another shill at the scene will bear false witness to what occurred. These are Grifter teams.

Misrepresentation or corrupt officials. Those who claim to represent me by have hidden objectives and use their positions to manufacture wrongful outcomes.

Etiology is understanding why the Illuminati or those who want designer babies or have political connections want to fake evidence, commit fraud, etc., because of their motive to do so.

The basic problem I have in this is that I have been mortally wounded by plain clothes police assaults across many years I never new the motive for, but was institutionalized over fights I had with them, on occasion, multiple occasions, I voluntarily entered into (or involuntarily) entered into drug treatment centers, tracing beliefs of plain clothes police harassment to paranoia.

Since then I have found National Institute of Health Police and others have a medical-genes interest in my genome and that a series of RICO schemes allowing embezzlement of it benefits those police officers.

The perceptions of me and life course affects of my arrests as I confronted illegal evidence manufacture has been the Psych Ward stifle my attempting defense against the evidence being manufactured in my vicinity and also Psych Ward claim my delusions assertions of facts required National Institute fo Health management of my assets rather than me, since I allegedly was delusional as to what was going on.

In order for the National Institute of Health to succeed in this embezzlement of genes value they must succeed in certain “bunko” or “grifters” techniques of planting evidence or staging photos of the actually physical me, unavoidably with my noticing they are doing so, and following this, the embezzlement scheme by the NIH police to have an impersonator of me or National Institute of Health backed conservancy of me doing the accounting over the stage evidence.

Thus not only do women plant themselves in front of me, parties other than me, and never me, shout “he’s bough her [as a paid for model , and in exchange for his [[my]] DNA.]”

This is not me making any deals or executing those deals, but others in place of me are doing so.

In short, the National Institute of Health Police claim I am being paid for my DNA with models who I seem to be learning at (thought they jump in front of me,) then an impersonator of me will agree to give the National Institute of Health my DNA for my being modeled to.

In fact this scheme creates the public perception I am being paid for my DNA, but in reality NIH police in others are merely partying it up on their own on the value of my DNA to the models they have really bought for themselves and use an impersonator of me along with them to pay the tab.

In fact not only do I not want the modeling of women who jump in front of me in public, those very models planted in public are designed to stigmatize me as having interests I do not have and are part of social sabotage of me to women who otherwise I would be in relationships with, but I am socially sabotaged to.

Because it is an embezzlement scheme harassing me but without accounting to me I need to get my foot inside the door of any embassy to make case on this, and that has not happened yet.

Veronica Hoffman

I had met Veronica Hoffman at a party. Nothing “pool peeper” about it, High Goth BDSM Couture.

My agreement with her was this.

She was a very elite dominatrix and I was poor. We agreed that rather than I pay her for a the BDSM Eros lap-dance like erotic scene with a dominatrix, not prostitution, that , I would compensate the erotic lap dance by allowing it to be filmed which then she could market commercially.

The impersonator who behind the scenes took over my contacts with her.

Veronica Hoffman created pool picks on her web site, likely the impersonator of me who took over her contacts with forged a deal for my DNA after the impersonator of me was blackmailed for pool peaking.

Kiva Lender Veronica Hoffman

Apr 1, 2007

Shaking down an unamed fool, Fools Day, for his peeping at a pool Kiva and foreign immigres benefit

Location:	Studio City, CA, United States
Occupation:	trainer
I loan because:	I can :)
About me:	I operate a small correctional facility where I teach men the virtues of treating women with the respect and adoration they deserve.
Check out:	http://www.myspace.com/mistressveronica
Member Since:	Apr 1, 2007

Send message | Send a Kiva Card

This is NOT the inchoate deal I and her initiated nor any confession I ever made to her.

Because in hundreds of scenes I have talked about as possible includes this very rare one for me, it is easy to, behind me back, “pin” this impersonator’s forgery to my actual identity and it gives black African Nationalists a peek at white women.

This fits a years long embezzlement scheme with foreign ties and interests which include others such as Frua Stein, Rozzolinda, DejaVu, and others.

Bolstering the Impersonations

Theft of my clothes and use of architectural analogs of where I really live or break-ins to where I live bolster the identity theft the forger of agreements makes use of.

Tell-tales Indications

- People: People I have initially met or contacted leave online traces they have had contact with impersonators of me. This is only detectable over time because the purpose of defaming me is also served by public innuendo references to alleged acts of mine.

- Impersonators of me: I often cross paths with those who will later take over my identity to the People above.

- Financial: Accounting information tied to my email address in electronic systems such as Asset Campus Housing/Ballpark West Apartments, Home Depot, TSA flight system ticketing, AOL/Time Warner Payrolls, St Lois Property Records, etc., show mismatches of what is alleged of actual information as forgeries, much like in the detection forged rather than separate paintings.

- Manufactured Compatriots: As I was at St Timons, and other locations, reference was made to a “high school ring” being found in the “soup.” I was socially sabotage to the “soup” in the soup kitchen.

  In fact Tom Duhamm was also impersonated. While we were were real life friends not interested in 17 year olds, we were both impersonated by symmetric sock-puppets in a teen exploitation ring. Neither of our impersonators contested the alleged ring but the must surely have been me hanging out with Tom Dunham https://www.blogger.com/profile/07704024690967658160 and from there http://tenofswords.blogspot.com/2007_07_01_archive.html.

Tom Dunham and I refute these mentally and sexually incompetent impersonatorswho are part of both Pizzagate and Genentech outflow from Pizzagate..

- Acts of those in my vicinity: Statements by others towards me which try to implicate me as a partner in the information publicly directed towards me out of my control.

- Locations: The Sound-stages impersonators of me use to stage me making agreements when I am not the one doing so are clearly detectable.

Placement	Displacement	Replacement
Extended Stay Springfield VA I	My Card Key paper folder list	My card key does not work at check, card key likely set to room 300	room 400, though exactly as I checkin scuzsy black and white female leave for elevators a minute ahead of me to 300 and scream in horror at what they find	400. I go to lobby and my card key is fixed to 400. Likely I have my impersonators room and vice versa.

I book a flight to Canada	I can not board, no passport,and modification to NYC is denied	I have to pay for and book an entirely new flight on an impersonators name, not my own

Dislocations
The same happened in Casa Linda Apartments and everywhere I go and everything I do.

- Motive: The parties involved in the RICO have multiple things to gain from carrying it out.

Illustrated, Dislocation of Bedroom Leased

I an “assigned” to one room, a corner room, to a Salinas house. The story goes back and forth. First I am to move into the room with lots of shoes, mirror pictured. I am shown the room and agree to it.

The plan is changed and I lease the room at the end of the hall in a corner of the house. The room with the shoes has a my photo tucked into its mirror and several times they fake my being in the shoes and teddy bear room as a child peeping pervert while am in a different room, master bating, prior to leaving and having no privacy later on the road.

Means, Motive, and Opportunity are met.

Those needing IVF of Donegan semen or DNA,j in particular blacks, gays, foreign nations, politically connected people already having it, need authorization it, thus fake my agreement to it.

International Scheme

The scheme is international in nature and criminal in nature and fit definitions of the Rome Statute and other law regarding criminal acts as well.

My father, mother, and I were natural born white life long patriots, educated, and loyal to Democrat, GOP, and Libertarian party politics, obeying laws and always in continuing education.

The form of the hostility visible to me has been non-whites and gays often from abroad and likely have both genetic and political interests in contradiction to my own, or least competing.

This has had a polarizing effect on me as the sense of injustice my mother, father, and I, have experienced so that these RICO elements can prosper criminally and politically.

This book

Shadow 360 World Espionage

Name For This Book Section

The Illuminati talk about “360 Degrees DNA” and world operations, and espionage agencies operate from around the world all over the world.

Entangled activities much like with the beginning of WWI now makeup what I consider the basis for WW III and British Royals, MI5 and MI6, the CIA,Secret Service, the Vatican, Masons, the Defense Intelligence Agency of the USA, and many families (Dulles, Obamas, Gottlieb, Woosley, Bushes, Clintons, Cruzs, Powell) and perhaps others contiue secret operations not for the good of the world but preserving the cash, ruling, political, and financial fortunes of these people with coverup espionage, shadow governments, shadow wetowrks, shadow profiteering, and shadow acts they have nor desire any way out of as they continue their secret rule of the world and genofarming

Why would I think Espionage is behind the harassment I have experienced for decades, at three, 45 years by another account?

Guerilla Warfare has harassed and destoryed the life of Glorian and Edward Donegan. Those who should have been our allies and partners in normal life are pulled away as they find it it is more profitable to betray us.

The system of destroying lives is called #Ganstalk or #PsyOps and uses things like faked appearances to defame and harrass.

This is a large scale situation with large scale wet division around the world tied to Eugenics era race studies.

Paternal Edward Prince of Wales 1926 (German biologically)

The Von Trapps in London, marr

Prince Edward an affair with Ma

Maternal Maria Kutschera niece of Austrian Nazi Franz Kutschera

Ultra Secret FOXP2 Borderline Personality Disorder/ language defect LONDON KE FAMILY Gene

With James Donegan

- Edward Donegan IVF Feb 20 1 birth Nov 18, her birthday D
- Eva Ban

Marcum Xand Glorian Donegan

- Barack OBama Jr. (via IVF of Surrogate Illuminati Diagraph
- Thoma

… and continuing into the Obama and other children, Donegan DNA given up by impersonators of Edward Donegan, thus bailing the CIA and Vatican out of a jam, since it was authorized.

- Edward Paul Donegan

Edward named after his grandfat royal on one side of the family or told in youth.

The CIA destroyed records it was all unauthorized. The CIA is manufacturing records this is authorized. It is not.

Let me wrap the above table from earlier to the right and to the bottom with an Espionage theory backed totally by publiclyl available facts, verifiable facts, and a confirmable Espionage hypothesis.

Glorian With Espionage

Espionage Problem

Glorian Donegan the mother of Barack Obama, Ed Donegan the brother of Barack Obama

- Barack OBama Jr. (via IVF of Su Eva Ban) aka King Hussien Obam Black Wet Sands of Iran (and also Jerret genetic family) or elsewhere

Edward [illegible] n royal on told in y

and continuing into the Obama and other children, Donegan DNA given up by impersonators of Edward Donegan, thus bailing the CIA and Vatican out of a jam, since it was authorized

The CIA destroyed records it was all unauthorized. The CIA is manufacturing records this is authorized. It is not.

Edward Donegan IVF Feb 20 1961, Edward birth Nov 18, her birthday Dec 13. The Illuminati Diagraphs

Espionage Solution 1) Coverup family RFLP, brain, mito similarity, murders tied to the situation

Matter of Record and Obama Birth and Obama Family as QEII Sleeper Agent

I track Jim Garrow as correct that Andrew Breitbart was killed by the Obama military establishment, MI

I track that Jim Garrow was correct that Tom Clancey was murdered by the CIA and that Jim Garrow was a CIA casualty, driven from the CIA for loyalty to the rule of law and loyalty to the CIA.

Andew Breitbart and Tom Clancey had MKULTRA “birther” information about the Obama family geneology. That is why they were killed, Tom Clancy was working on

Google knowledge panel retrieved from what does clancy mean and copied or modified to here

Clancy is an Irish name coming from the Gaelic Mac Fhlannchaidh/Mac Fhlannchadha, meaning “Son of the red/ruddy warrior” (Mac being for sons, Ní Fhlannchaidh/Ní Fhlannchadha would be for daughters), or as a hypocorism for Clarence.

Meaning: “(son of the) red warrior”
Language(s): Irish
Variant form(s): Mac Fhlannchaidh Region of origin: Ireland

Dec 13 2013

bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/sociopol_obama162.htm

Signed Off on Obama's Birth Certificate

...Dies in Plane Crash

Loretta Fuddy, director of the Hawaii Department of Health, reportedly died due to injuries she received in the crash of a small commuter plane shortly before 4:00 p.m. local time Wednesday, December 11, 2013.

"Fuddy was at the center of controversy in the birth certificate controversy as she was the person who reportedly granted 'an exception' to Barack Obama,

Add Loretta Fuddy to the long list of suspicious deaths and "Ex-CIA agent said Obama had Andrew Breitbart an

East-West Center in Washington share VISITING FELLOWS SEMINAR - DEC. 13, 2007

Quote retrieved from Events "DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS IN THAILAND" AND "NUCLEAR POLITICS IN INDONESIA" and copied or modified to here

Events "DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS IN THAILAND" AND "NUCLEAR POLITICS IN INDONESIA"

Southeast Asia Visiting Fellows Seminar When: Dec 13 2007 (All day) Where: East-West Center in Washington What: Democratic Institutions and Political Corruption in Emerging Democracies: The Case of Thailand

Ex-CIA Agent Jim Garrow Claims Obama Had Breitbart and Clancy Killed; Brandon Walker interviews Doctor Jim Garrow, philanthropist and worker for one of the largest non-profit organizations on the planet to save female children from slaughter in China.. states he knows that President Obama ordered the murders of Tom Clancy and Andrew Breitbart (Audio)

EWC groundbreaking ceremony, May 1961. Left to right: University of Hawai‘i President Laurence Snyder, UH Board of Regents Chairman Herbert Cornuelle, first Center chief executive Murray Turnbull, future Hawaii Gov. John A. Burns, then-Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. Photo courtesy of The Honolulu Advertiser.

The East-West Center was established by the United States Congress in 1960 as a national educational institution to foster better relations and understanding among the peoples of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific islands through programs of cooperative study, training, and research.

The Center was established in Hawaii based on the conclusions reached by Congress and the U.S. Department of State that Hawaii offered special advantages for a national institution with an Asia Pacific focus that could not be duplicated anywhere else in the country. In early 1959, as Hawaii's statehood was approaching, John A. Burns, Hawaii's Territorial Delegate to Congress, and the then- Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, both agreed that the East-West Center was an idea whose time had come. Senator Johnson first publicly suggested the concept of an international center during a speech at the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington, D.C. on April 16, 1959.

Tom Clancy was working on a novel very "Manchurian Candidate-ish". But it was replete with fact and exposed the Saudi Muslim plant in the White House and the direct funding that went into it. Birth Certificate? Want the real one? Tom had it. Search Tom Clancy: Western Journalism | Informing Americans Who Love Freedom Clancy was killed because he was getting too close to a secret they don't want the world to know. Dr. Garrow, executive director of The Bethune Institute, states Obama had Tom Clancy killed, noting that it takes 5 days for plant toxins and most poisons to break down and leave no traces in the human body. Strangely (or not), doctors did not perform an autopsy on Clancy's body for 5 days.

Read more: https://www.city-data.com/forum/true-crime/1967065-tom-clancy-why-has-death-certificate-5.html

Tom Clancy's Ex-Wife Tries To Take Over Book Series
retrieved from The Washington Post and copied or modified to here

By Michael Amon July 9, 2003

Tom Clancy's former wife is trying to take over management of a lucrative paperback book series they own together, claiming that the best-selling author wants to derail the side project and dilute her considerable profits, according to a lawsuit filed in Calvert County Circuit Court.

Wanda T. King, Clancy's wife of almost 30 years before their 1999 divorce, alleges that the Calvert-based writer wants to stop publication of "Tom Clancy's Op-Center," a popular set of books stamped with his imprimatur but written by others.

King, 53, also alleges that Clancy has not hired an agent for the books, has refused to promote them and has blocked potential television spinoffs and a hardcover book deal for the series. In court papers filed last week, she asked a judge to remove her ex-husband as managing partner of the Op-Center series and install her in his place.

King owns a 25 percent stake in the series and alleges that as part of the divorce settlement, Clancy must work to "maximize" its profits.

Sound familiar in DiVinci Code dates of July 4 and also like Rianna gettign re-written songs from Brittany Spears, and what might be sung or written about in the works like the song Umbrella?

Court battle rages over the estate of a prominent military novelist Tom Clancy retrieved from Lexology and copied or modified to here

It was never an issue that the Marital Trust qualified for the marital deduction and should be spared of all tax. Alexandra's Petition argued that the Family Trust also qualified for the marital deduction and likewise should not pay any tax due. Alexandra maintained that the language in the Second Codicil is clear and unambiguous in its assertion that the Family Trust qualifies for the marital deduction.

The dispute regarding the estate tax liability of the Family Trust arises from the changes made by the Second Codicil in 2013 and its relationship with the tax clause found in Item Third (A) and Sixth of Mr. Clancy's original Will, executed in 2007 ("Tax Clause"). Alexandra and the children disagreed whether the amendment to Item Twelfth (D) of the Second Codicil ("Savings Clause") exempts the Family Trust from estate tax liability; this clause reads, in part, as follows:

> D. No asset or proceeds of any asset shall be included in the Marital Share or the Non-Exempt Family Residuary Trust as to which a marital deduction would not be allowed if included."

They married in November and divorced in December, I am not sure of the years

- In the United States of America

  Clancy, Andrew Breitbart, Micheal Hastings, Leslie Ann Shedd, Thomas C Wales, and others knew GLorian was the real mother of Barack Obama, the Manchurian Candidate, and that Fuddy faked the Hawaii birth certificate, placing Obama Nov 18 Manhattan Beach MKULTRA birth of a few months and off shore too.

- Around the world, Malcom Shabaz, Mexico, Obama Sr., Kenya. Not the biological family of Obama.

I can explain all of these deaths.

You can not.

Michelle Obama is not the source of Obama children mitochondria though the CIA may now fake biological information about Micheal La Vaugh Robbinson, as Breitbart had evidence of.

Model of Cover Ops in public and in state offices and using surveillance of me for which no basis and no basis has been shown to me or presented to me.

NOW THE END BEGINS EXCLUSIVE STORY: Listen to our original 10/06/13 interview with Dr. Jim Garrow: How Obamacare Will Be Used To Destroy The US Constitution

On tonight's The Wise Shall Understand Radio Broadcast, our guest was Dr. Jim Garrow whom you may remember shocked the world by saying this back on January 21, 2013:

HAVE JUST BEEN INFORMED BY A FORMER SENIOR MILITARY LEADER THAT OBAMA IS USING A NEW "LITMUS TEST" IN DETERMINING WHO WILL STAY AND WHO MUST GO IN HIS MILITARY LEADERS. GET READY TO EXPLODE FOLKS. "THE NEW LITMUS TEST OF LEADERSHIP IN THE MILITARY IS IF THEY WILL FIRE ON US CITIZENS OR NOT". THOSE WHO WILL NOT ARE BEING REMOVED," - SOURCE.

jim-garrow-litmus-test-cia-covert-operative-obama-valerie-jarrett

Dr. Jim Garrow reveals himself to be covert government agent.

As a long-time friend and guest on NTEB Radio, we know Dr. Garrow to be a previous Nobel Peace Prize nominee and executive director of the Bethune Institute's Pink Pagoda Girls school and rescue outreach in China.

> Doctor Jim Garrow is a man that works for ending genocide in China. He has a PhD, taught college classes in the United States, and throughout the world. He is also the founder of the Bethune Institute, which operates hundreds of schools throughout China. He was even given a secondary honorary doctorate from the North Carolina Collage of Theology and is one of the few Christian teachers in China. In fact many of the Chinese elite business members and military personnel send their kids to Doctor Garrow's school.

But on this night, Dr. Garrow made the amazing revelation - on our show for the first time anywhere - that he had, in fact, right up until this past Wednesday night at midnight, spent 45 years as a covert CIA operative.

Garrow said that as a result of his “litmus test” statement in January, he was outed from the agency by Obama, and forced to accept early retirement.

But the revelations didn’t stop there.

In addition to revealing that Andrew Breitbart had been killed under orders from Obama administration officials, he also said that spy thriller novelist Tom Clancy had also be killed in much the same way, and for the same reasons. Garrow said that Clancy had been spoon fed inside information for years from covert operatives for his novels, and he knew too much. Interestingly, when asked about where he got his ideas for his novels, Clancy had said this before he died:

““I HANG MY HAT ON GETTING AS MANY THINGS RIGHT AS I CAN,” MR. CLANCY ONCE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW. “I’VE MADE UP STUFF THAT’S TURNED OUT TO BE REAL - THAT’S THE SPOOKY PART.” NY TIMES

A little too real, as it turns out, Dr. Garrow said the reason no autopsy was performed for the first 5 days is that it ‘takes that long for the chemicals he was poisoned with to work their way out of his body’.

Lastly, he revealed that Obama’s administration was made up of Marxist Muslims who all take their orders from Senior Adviser to the President, Iranian-born Valerie Jarrett. Dr. Garrow said that it is well known to intelligence agencies all over the world that Obama is a foreign plant who was placed on the path to the presidency by ultra-rich Saudi nationals This is why, Garrow said, that all of Obama's education records have been permanently sealed.

The Optics I have on Dr Garrow's Comments and how I see them applying to my world and view

I was insanely and illegally placed in some mental hospitals as I fought Pizzagate the the fake appearance created by a neighbor Thea Smith that I was a participant in it.

At a private mental hospital (prior to being moved to a Dept of Defense facility with a black Mason asking me questions about my view of the Age of Reason, Enlightenment, etc.,) I met a recruited and or planted mental health patient, black, who told me the Dept of Defense had hired him as an "AI INT" expert in "civil rights" and part of that was fighting white supremacists and even logging in as a white supremacists with provided usernames and passwords and pretending to be a white supremacist.

He told me Barracck OBama had built into the US Military (because the military was permenant but Obama could only serve two terms) a secret program that would outlast Obama and it would continue even after Obama stepped down.

I now believe this program was MKULTRA, the DARPA program to defeat White Supremacism and Genocide by repairing the genomic gaps that formed from unequal evolutionary experiences across the globe.

I believe DARPA found black masons and others tied to the original MKULTRA affecting my family and now these same world masons tied interests will kill people like Judge Roll, Justice Scalia, Thomas C. Wales, and others in the dual goal to

- Conceal the genomic evidence of the original MKULTRA

- Continue MKULTRA around the world and forever erode racism by elimination of racial gaps.

Italian Mafia, the Vatican and La Cosa Nostra

FBI.GOV History of La Cosa Nostra

Giuseppe Esposito was the first known Sicilian Mafia member to emigrate to the U.S. He and six other Sicilians fled to New York after murdering the chancellor and a vice chancellor of a Sicilian province and 11 wealthy landowners. He was arrested in New Orleans in 1881 and extradited to Italy.

New Orleans was also the site of the first major Mafia incident in this country. On October 15, 1890, New Orleans Police Superintendent David Hennessey was murdered execution-style. Hundreds of Sicilians were arrested, and 19 were eventually indicted for the murder. An acquittal generated rumors of widespread bribery and intimidated witnesses. Outraged citizens of New Orleans organized a lynch mob and killed 11 of the 19 defendants. Two were hanged, nine were shot, and the remaining eight escaped.

> Jean Paul Ludwig, who was born in France in 1890, emigrated to the United States in 1924, and was assigned SSN 042-68-4425 in or about March, 1977

The American Mafia has evolved over the years as various gangs assumed, and lost, dominance over the years-for example, the Black Hand gangs around 1900, the Five Points Gang in the 1910s and '20s in New York City, and Al Capone's Syndicate in Chicago in the 1920s. It was not until 1951 that a U.S. Senate committee led by Democrat Estes Kefauver of Tennessee determined that a "sinister criminal organization," later known as La Cosa Nostra, operated in this nation. Six years later, The New York State Police uncovered a meeting of major La Cosa Nostra figures from around the country in the small upstate New York town of Apalachin. Many of the attendees were arrested. The event was the catalyst that changed the way law enforcement battles organized crime.

Later in this book I deal with the issue of Catholics, Opus Dei, and an Italian far right wing Mason connected anti commumist anti Hitler group called P2.

Propaganda Due

Propaganda Due was a Masonic lodge under the Grand Orient of Italy, founded in 1877. Its Masonic charter was withdrawn in 1976, and it transformed into a clandestine, pseudo-Masonic, ultraright organization operating in contravention of Article 18 of the Constitution of Italy that banned secret associations. Wikipedia

Founded: 1945

Ceased operations: 1981

I assert the following ongoing WWI WWII History

Constitutio If not now when?	Mass Murder
Chauncey Gardners (Tail) Can be moved by SJW winds	Crimal Elements	Ketracel White (Honey Po Control)	WWII Allies (Dog) Weighty Mistakes	Defeat Axis of Central Europe
Figurehead including Trump 2.0	La Cosa Nostra	Ketracel White including hookders, drugs, cars, parties	Mossad, Vatican, Bushes, Bushes, Free Masons P2, CIA OSS WIndsors, anti communists	Nazis
	Street People Agent Provocatuers out to get the white guy	Orgasm Island, Billy Bush tapes,
	SJW clients beneficiari	Pizzagate, drugs, cars, women, music	H-E-B. Golds TRT and Schwartzenegger, etc
Governor Greg Abbott Anonymou - Jade Helm 15 Brain	Cashiers, retarded, parolees, homeless shelter occupants	Jade Helm 15 aka Pizzagate	God's Missile Commanders Texas

Hacking Project MK Ultra	recieving Salvation
Mark Gonzales, anti white Hispanic Black motorcycle gang SJW Nueces County prosecutor collects debts to county programs and churches from offenders	US Marshalls tasked with dispossessi white supremacis and sex offender networks which appear to exist	Seized assets secretly shaken down from unwanted unneeded Trust Conservato ship	555 Shadow Gov 7th Floor Group, Catholic Charities, etc., Colin Powell, Bankruptcy Court, Woosley CIA
	Motorcycle Gangs or skid row who want new cars as US Marshalls

The “Allies,” the good guys, more specifically their DARPA greatest minds of all (and richest minds of all) have a secret society of the inner secret of genomics, and they will kill to keep their Speakeasy’s of world genomics unknown to the rest.

And the CIA DIagraph February 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 is the Divinci Code, though it is actually El Geco’s fingers in the paintings that is most likely the Masonic Recognition Symbol.

Continents → Race → IQ Conditions → Economic Conditions → Political Conditions → War Conditions → ICBMs

This is what the Illuminati see and are trying to engineer and now are caught in their mistakes and lies.

The battle for Sub Saharan Africa by the Vatican is part of this major struggle now, and on CIA leak sites there is information about the US preparing super soldier (populations) for WWIII against the Russians.

I think though this ongoing DARPA activity including COINTELPRO hit on me and my family is in fact CIA contractor coverup.

I think even the Bush elder family members (Prescott, Herbert Walker) and that the hit on Reagan fits that. Mentally ill used as hit people, then three hots and a cot.

In fact with me I see the same activity. Recruited homeless people assailants provoking me get me onto psych wards, in deadly fights, etc.,

Chauncey Gardners (Tail) Can be moved by SJW winds	Crimal Elements	Ketracel White (Honey Po Raven Swallow Control) control of lumpenproletariat	WWII Allies (Dog) Weighty Mistakes	Defeat Axis of Central Europe
Figurehead including Trump 2.0	La Cosa Nostra	Ketracel White including hookders, drugs, cars, parties	Mossad, Vatican, Bushes, Bushes, Free Masons P2, CIA OSS WIndsors, anti communists	Nazis
Governor	Cashiers,	Jade Helm	God's

Greg Abbott Anonymou - Jade Heln 15 Brain Hacking Project MK Ultra retarded, parolees, homeless shelter occupants recieving Salvation

15 aka Pizzagate

Missile Commanders Texas

Mark Gonzales, anti white Hispanic Black motorcycle gang SJW Nueces County prosecutor collects debts to county programs and churches from offenders

US Marshalls tasked with dispossessi white supremacis and sex offender networks which appear to exist

Seized assets secretly shaken down from unwanted unneeded Trust Conservato

555 Shadow Gov 7th Floor Group, Catholic Charities, etc., Colin Powell, Bankruptcy Court, Woosley CIA

Motorcycle Gangs or skid row who want new cars as US Marshalls

The Ultimate Betrayal as Jen Moore put it. Sexually abusive mass sexua assault and public humiliatior of me for People like Rod Rosenstein, Eric Holder gays, and others targeting me which frames me to coverup DOD mistakes of

Those my father fought, getting too close to DARPA, CENTCOM, CIA as part of the fight

what are staged fetishims o mine to dispossess everthing Jim Donegn and Glorian dedicated their lives to, my success in the United States, and the defense of those same minorities from the Nazis

Sidney Gottlieb, CIA, DARAP, others

Returning to a chart and using it for the COINTELPRO Assaults (state backed) on me

Political OFfice Holders State Sanction attacks on me

Scott Mike Foval recruiters find disgusting assailants, launch them at me ↓

Assailants of me are bought cars, etc., a a taunt

If they can get me in prison, psych wards, if I throw the punch, more attacks on me by prisoners, radiation, etc., out of view of public

My father and mother co-operated with Espionage agencies to defeat Hitler, and Espionage agencies launch non white assailants against me.

Chauncey Gardners (Tail) Can be moved by SJW winds	Crimal Elements	Ketracel White (Honey Po Control) o Agent Provocatue	DARPA WWII Allies (Dog) Weighty Mistakes	Defeat Axis of Central Europe
Corrupt politician saving thei asses by betraying Donegan family	Me helpless against State backed criminal assaults, unable to get political asylum from the USA ← calls to here get me in psych ward too

The unity of government which constitutes you one people is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence, the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad; of your safety; of your prosperity; of that very liberty which you so highly prize. But as it is easy to foresee that, from different causes and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth; as this is the point in your political fortress against which the batteries of internal and external enemies will be most constantly and actively (though often covertly and insidiously) directed, it is of infinite moment that you should properly estimate the immense value of your national union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual, and immovable attachment to it; accustoming yourselves to think and speak of it as of the palladium of your political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts.

48 hours	Community	‘Tang	Yang Dupes Tang about me. Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law to normal communities
24 hours	public	Me	Yang makes public spectacle skit out non explicit

			coaching or acting out normal acts at zero hours in private, but skit in public later, vauge unstated ways by those not identifying motives or identity but setup trust fund need 0 hours live event	Private home	Me Ying in normal living and intellectual acts	Yang with no cause to surveil sees normal living or normal intellectual acts in home.

State Offices

The hacking of my electronics, surveilance used against me despite my socially and legal upstanding life interests and acts make me question why people so badly, as State Acts, need an espionage scheme targeting me even thought the State actors know better than the facts they pretend to in public and behind my back.

MKULTRA and Foreign Genoforming, Ethiopia and Australia

A Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that the top US Federal Judge for the State of Arizona was assassinated barely 72-hours after he made a critical ruling against the Obama administrations plan to begin the confiscation of their citizen's private retirement and banking accounts in order to stave off their nations imminent economic collapse, and after having the US Marshals protecting him removed.

Dec 13 1927 IQ Econmic DNA?

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a "preliminary ruling" in a case titled "United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al" [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama's power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

The Foreign Intelligence Service of the Russian Federation (Russian: Слу́жба вне́шней разве́дки Росси́йской Федера́ции, tr. Sluzhba vneshney razvedki Rossiyskoy Federatsii, IPA: [ˈsluʐbə ˈvnʲɛʂnʲɪj rɐˈzvʲɛtkʲɪ]) or SVR RF (Russian: СВР РФ) is Russia's external intelligence agency, focusing mainly on civilian affairs. The SVR RF succeeded the First Chief Directorate (PGU) of the KGB in December 1991.[1] The SVR has its headquarters in the Yasenevo District of Moscow.

Unlike the Russian Federal Security Service (FSB), the SVR is tasked with intelligence and espionage activities outside the Russian Federation. It works together with the Russian Main Intelligence Directorate (Russian: Гла́вное разве́дывательное управле́ние, tr. Glavnoye razvedyvatel'noye upravleniye, IPA: [ˈglavnəjə rɐzˈvʲɛdɨvətʲɪlʲnəjə ʊprɐˈvlʲenʲɪjə], GRU), its military-affairs espionage counterpart, which reportedly deployed six times as many spies in foreign countries as the SVR in 1997.[2]

The SVR is also authorized to negotiate anti-terrorist cooperation and intelligence-sharing arrangements with foreign intelligence agencies, and provides analysis and dissemination of intelligence to the Russian president.[3]

Any information pertaining to specific identities of staff employees (officers) of the SVR is legally classified as a state secret; since September 2018, the same applies to non-staff personnel, i.e. informers and recruited agents.[4]

Espionage and my February 20 November 18 December 13 Family Fertilization History

Drawing upon both Jenniefer Moore aka Task Force and my own life with my mother Glorian, adopted into the Dew family of South Carolina, I believe she carried the FOXP2 gene obtained from Maria Von Trapp and LONDON KE [VIII] Speech impaired King Edward VIII and the descendents of King George, when Prince Edward was in Londong in 1927 he impregnated Maria Von Trapp about 1926 and he had a reputation for that kind of activity.

I am named after “my grandfather” “Edward” and carry the FOXP2 gene and all it symptoms as described by many including the Illuminati test subject Linda Newkirk, Borderline Personality Disorder and high sexual energy.

On my father’s side he worked in MKULTRA I believe, the Manhattan Project a longitudinal line across Hawaii to New Mexican and Arizona where the first atomic bombs were built and tested, including ration affects on DNA and I would later in life end up in a dispuate between the Department of Energy and National INstitute of Health Human Genome program as odd DNA issues and racially motivated reproductive harassment surrounded my life.

The CIA, Mossad, and Russians all seem to have some theories about Obama family ties to this, and earlier CIA OSS Vatican and Windsor ties to all this, including close ties between King Edward VIII, Nazi Germany, Spanish Illuminati Opus Dei, and others, and now possible ties to MI5 and MI6.

The CIA an Secret Service may have trouble solving the Kennedy assasinations because they were a part of it.

I even suspect former Joint Chiefs chair Colin Powell because of his wifes Boston work in hearing and speech possibly tied to this and possible tied to a CENTCOM Deep State of “brain berries” and the Clintons, Free Masons based out of Little Rock Arkansas and the State Department.

Trump’s Situation Room shouting match retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Gen. Mark Milley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, repeatedly blew up at President Trump over how to handle last summer’s racial-justice protests, The Wall Street Journal’s Michael Bender writes in his forthcoming book, “Frankly, We Did Win This Election.”

The backdrop: Trump wanted to invoke the Insurrection Act and put Milley in charge of a scorched-earth military campaign to suppress protests that had spiraled into riots in several cities.

Milley - now a GOP villain for his testimony last week on critical race theory - pushed back, Bender writes in a passage Axios is reporting for the first time:

Born in Winchester, Massachusetts, Milley attended Belmont Hill School.[3] Milley graduated from Princeton University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in politics in 1980 after completing a 185-page-long senior thesis titled “A Critical Analysis of Revolutionary Guerrilla Organization in Theory and Practice".[4] Milley also holds a Master of Arts degree in international relations from Columbia University and another Master of Arts degree in national security and strategic studies from the Naval War College.[5] He is also an attendee of the MIT Center for International Studies Seminar XXI National Security Studies Program.[6]

In June 2021 a report from an Associated Press investigation found that at least 1,900 U.S. military firearms were lost or stolen.[67][68] Most of the stolen firearms came from the Army; some of the stolen firearms were found in the possession of a gang member, believed to have been sold by the firearms thieves.[69] Reports say that when Milley learned of this scandal, he was shocked, and said that he will consider a more systematic fix on how the military keeps track of its firearms, while many claim that Milley is actually downplays the report of 1,900 lost or stolen military firearms.[70]

On June 23, 2021, Milley attracted notice for telling Congressman Matt Gaetz that he found it "offensive" that the U.S. military was being characterized as "woke" for including "critical race theory" in its West Point curriculum; "I want to understand white rage - and I'm white. What is it that caused thousands of people to assault this building and try to overturn the Constitution of the United States of America?" he added.[71][72][73][74]

On June 30, 2021, former President Trump, who appointed Milley as Chair, called on him to resign, implying that he was unwilling "to defend [the US military] from the Leftist Radicals who hate [the United States] and [its flag]." This came after Milley's defense of studying a broad range of ideas including the politically-controversial critical race theory and news reports that Milley and Trump engaged in a shouting match over military involvement in the 2020-2021 US race protests. Trump previously denied the incident and accused Milley of falsifying it.[75]

CIA and Other Espionage Acts I Assert

Quis custodiet ipsos custodes

FBI recruitment of Malcom X

CIA use of Sidney Gottlieb

DOD CENCTCOM DAPRA Activities

Secret Service tied to Catholic Mafia

Colin Powell, married 1962 to Alma Powell, hearing and speech worker, like Sydney Gottlieb,living and working in Boston Ma at that time. Colin Powell also tied to Brain Berry deep state of shadow government 555 building and Arkancide Hillary CLinton. Like with Barack Obama or Michell Obama, it would be a PR disaster for blacks if this role model was in a scandal.

Most of these can be found in Obama Dead Pool in Appendices

Fake birth certificate for Barack Obama, of uncertian legal ramifications.

Murder of Malcom X Feb 21 1965, Nation of Islam leader, possible relative of Barack Obama.

Malcolm Shabazz: Malcolm X's Grandson dies in Mexico. Was 'thrown off a building', or 'shot'. Two men arrested in Malcolm Shabazz murder in Mexico, more sought; Obama was in Mexico on May 2nd. Shabazz is murdered on May 9th. Is Obama thesecret son of Malcolm X? ; Rumors that Obama was a child of Malcom X?

CIA Murder of Barack Obama Sr in Kenya and burning of Kenyan town suspected by the Mossad based fake Kenya birth certificate

Murder of Mama Lois" Anderson: 79, and her 52 year old daughter Zelda White: Two US women aid workers were shot dead in Nairobi in Kenya (2008)

> There is speculation that they possibly had knowledge of the birth and care for Barack Obama in Kenya and were later murdered to cover the trail. When murdered, the Husband had his full wallet which the thieves/car jacker didn't take, and there was never a connection made to the said attackers the police later shot dead, but blamed for the double homicide/car jacking. Their church was burned in 2008, possibly to destroy any possible birth records there. Then police chief Mohammed Hussein Ali was later removed from office by Obama supported Kenyan strongman Odinga. All possible witnesses ended up dead, all possible records of the care of infant Obama burned in the church fire, and the public official responsible out of office.

Larry Bland and Nate Spencer: Two other black members of Trinity Church Murdered at the same time - Report: Mother Of Obama's Murdered Gay Lover Speaks Up

Micheal Obama not the Mito parents of Obama children, and murder of those with knowlege of marriage of Micheal Lavaungh Robinson and Barack Obama Jr.

Andew Breitbart, journalist, with evidence of Michelle Obama as a man.

Michael Cormier - respected forensic technician for the Los Angles County Coroner died under suspicious circumstances at his North Hollywood home April 20, the same day Andrew Breitbart's cause of death was finally made public. Medical examiners in Los Angles

CIA Agent and NOT mito line of Obamas. Madelyn Payne Dunham: Obama's grandmother, died 2 days before the general election. Flew up to see her for one hour - alone. No records. Cremated immediately, ashes dispersed.

Loretta Fuddy: -Hawaii Health Director Loretta Fuddy dies in small plane crash ; 'Fuddy was at the center of controversy in the birth certificate controversy as she was the person who reportedly granted "an exception" to Barack Obama, allegedly witnessing the copying of Obama's birth certificate and attested to its authenticity'

Micheal Hastings, Victoria Windsor, researching CIA history of Obama's and Birtherism

Victoria Windsor: Blogger, researcher into ancestry: .. .reported that she had "found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been "tampered with." Cause of death not yet revealed. Said to have died from a "sudden illness".

Donald Young Openly gay friend of Obama's at Murdered at Trinity Church in Chicago- …Key Witness In Obama Passport Fraud Case - Video report: Obama-Donald Young murder (December 24, 2007) … … ….All 3 Homosexual Members Of Obama's Trinity Church Murdered Within 6 Weeks. …. -Jeff Kuhner interview with Larry Sinclair. Choir Director Murdered To Conceal Obama's Homosexuality/Drug Use? ;

Renee L Abena Obama: baby girl Born on October 31, 2004. The infant died less than two months later on December 25, 2004. "..the death was not reported by any hospital in the State of Maryland, but by a funeral home (indicated by the SSDI code “72”). BHO’s biographies do not report the death of an infant in 2004, yet here was a baby girl who bore his last name-and the initial of his grandmother’s middle name-Madelyn “Lee” Dunham. A search of the Social Security Death Index produced “No Results,” though a genealogical index at WorldVitalRecords.com produced a Social Security number: “215-71-0752.” From: “Who was Renee L. Abena Obama?”

Judge Roll and Scalia and CIA backed racial research at Jonestwon Guayana and other locations and with other families in the USA and worldwide

This book

Ed Donegan additional markup from original in scissor snip

357 Sea and Deaths connected to the Obama White House

> viictim #2: You must understand the central fact about the Whitewater Development Corporation: It was not the main crime. Whitewater was only a pretext set up by Jim McDougal and the Clintons to milk millions of dollars from the SBA [Small Business Administration], banks, Arkansas Development Finance Authority, and Madison Guaranty Savings & Loan (which was later bailed out by us taxpayers to the tune of $65 million).
>
> The Resolution Trust Corporation [RTC] people eventually figured out that their investigation of Madison wasn't getting anywhere because it was based in Kansas City, where Clinton's people stymied it. So Jon Parnell Walker, a Senior Investigation Specialist in the RTC's Washington office, began a campaign to get the case moved to DC.
>
> Soon after, Jon was looking over a possible new apartment in Lincoln Towers in Arlington, Virginia, when reportedly he suddenly decided to climb over the balcony railing and jump. https://www.beyondweird.com/conspiracies/victims2.html

Mama Lois" Anderson: 79, and her 52 year old daughter Zelda White: Two US women aid workers were shot dead in Nairobi in Kenya (2008) were the retired Presbyterian Church missionaries of Pennsylvania

(USA), known to thousands of Africans. The suspected killers of the US women, who were traveling in a car with diplomatic license plates, allegedly shot dead by police later. They were well known for their work

There is speculation that they possibly had knowledge of the birth and care for Barack Obama in Kenya and were later murdered to cover the trail. When murdered, the Husband had his full wallet which the thieves/car jacker didn't take, and there was never a connection made to the said attackers the police later shot dead, but blamed for the double homicide/car jacking.

Their church was burned in 2008, possibly to destroy any possible birth records there. Then police chief Mohammed Hussein Ali was later removed from office by Obama supported Kenyan strongman Odinga. All possible witnesses ended up dead, all possible records of the care of infant Obama burned in the church fire, and the public official responsible out of office.

> Dozens Killed In Kenya Church Fire
>
> Red Cross rescue workers said so far some 50 bodies had been recovered in the Kenya Assemblies of God Church in the town of Eldoret, some 300 kilometers (185 miles) from the capital Nairobi. It was unclear how many people had escaped Tuesday's inferno as about 200 Kenyans were reportedly in the church when an angry mob torched it, local residents and security sources said.

This below CAN be true and Barrack Obama be born to Glorian Donegan ovum and MalcomX DNA via surrogate Eva Ban in Manhattan Beach California

[image]

> Is This Obama's Kenyan Birth Video?
> vice.com
>
> Yesterday afternoon, an anonymous source known only as "Peter R." reached out to VICE with claims that he had in his possession a video of President Barack Obama's birth. Peter said that the footage was shot at a hospital in Mombasa, Kenya, on August 4, 1961, by his father, Barack Obama Sr. He sent us the password to a private video on Vimeo, a short clip that appears to depict a white woman who resembles Ann Dunham, Obama's mother, giving birth to a ginormous black baby. Peter also told us that he has the entire roughly 15-minute video in his possession and has been attempting to reach out to Donald Trump and other prominent birther theorists. *

Was the background of the video Kenya Church video OR peple in the video destroyed in the fire? Notice the Stay and Play background to this card from Obama dissappears somehow, sidebar blocked out and I did not do it.

Jen Moore saw it before the side bars blocked the planter at Stay and Play

The Mysterious death of Dr. Bradstreet and also other science researchers including Cancer researchers in 2015.*

https://www.salon.com/2009/08/03/birthers_kenya/
To hear the Birthers tell it, their Holy Grail has been found: Over the weekend, de facto movement leader Orly Taitz released a photo of what is supposedly a certified copy of a Kenyan birth certificate for President Obama, which shows that he was born in Mombasa, Kenya, and not in Hawaii.

The movement is, naturally, all abuzz. But even people who might normally be inclined to support it, like the founder of conservative forum FreeRepublic.com and the Birthers' favorite self-proclaimed document expert, who declared Obama's Hawaiian certification of live birth a forgery, are calling foul. The document is just another in an increasingly long line of fakes intended to prove Obama wasn't born in the U.S.

Deafening Silence About the Camp Bastion Attack
MICHELLE MALKIN • SEPTEMBER 28, 2012

Three days after the bloody siege on our consulate in Benghazi, the Taliban waged an intricately coordinated, brutal attack on Camp Bastion in Afghanistan. The Taliban animals released video earlier this week showing their jihadi training prep.

Two hero U.S. Marines were killed in the battle. Their names Lt. Col. Christopher Raible and Sgt. Bradley Atwell - have not been uttered publicly by the commander-in-chief. Their arrival back in the U.S. was not broadcast on network TV. But their brothers-in-arms did not and will not forget.

And neither must we.

They are not anonymous “bumps in the road:”

Lt. Col. Christopher Raible and Sgt. Bradley Atwell: Died in the Camp Bastion attack 3 days after the Benghazi attack

> Forces News 367K subscribers
>
> It was once the largest British overseas military base on the planet, with around 114,000 personnel living and working at Camp Bastion in Afghanistan since April 2007. Now Forces News has been given special access to see what remains of a place that so many once called home.
>
> ---
>
> 02:19 the damages for the bones or how badly 02:23 is done so this is actually telling us 02:24 this is wrong with someone someone and 02:27 how it needs to get fixed and it’s been 02:29 a quite busy - haven’t seen something 02:32 alive before I've been to tell it and 02:35 this is something different 02:38 in the operating theater this is a 02:40 mock-up of how staff would deal with a 02:42 triple amputee but only a few hours 02:45 earlier they were doing it for real 02:47 the surgeons here depend on the teams on 02:49 the ground the medics and the soldiers 02:51 themselves it's their work keeping 02:54 people alive that makes the surgery here 02:56 a success so what we're actually in here 02:59 in the operating theatre you've got to 03:00 be focused 03:02 after a number of big injuries you do 03:05 you are aware of it if you're in the 03:08 county in lunch time and there's people 03:10 from the regiment of soldiers been 03:12 working on then it don't you kind of 03:14 feel uncomfortable and I'm always aware 03:16 about all the soldiers here our 03:19 potential casualties as well that we may 03:20 end up having to look after the most 03:23 serious patients are taken back to the 03:25 UK in about 24 hours 03:27 one in three trauma surgery patients 03:30 face some kind of infection but the 03:32 staff here are fighting it because of 03:34 the environment here actually there's a 03:36 lot of microorganisms that live in the 03:38 soil and in the dirt out here we

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

The September 2012 raid on Camp Bastion was a Taliban raid on Camp Bastion in Afghanistan's Helmand province on the night of 14 September 2012.[1] The base hosted British, American, Danish and Tongan military personnel at the time of the attack. The Taliban fighters killed two U.S. Marines and destroyed or severely damaged eight U.S. Marine Corps AV-8B Harriers and a United States Air Force C-130 before the entire raiding force was killed or captured. The Taliban claimed that the raid was in response to the film, Innocence of Muslims, and have also stated that Prince Harry, who was stationed at the base at the time, was the target of the attack.[2] To replace the aircraft lost in > the attack, the USMC deployed 14 Harriers to Afghanistan 36 hours after the raid.[3]

> Camp Bastion Field Hospital and Medical Treatment Facility ...https://www.qaranc.co.uk › afghanistan Nov 20, 2011 - The tri service medical group are collectively called the Joint Force Med Group (JFMG). During this time units posted to the Camp Bastion Field

.

Marco McMillian: Mississippi's first gay mayoral candidate, 34, 'was beaten and burned' before his body was found dumped on a riverbank. Victim of a hate crime? Pictured with Obama. Another black and gay associate of Obama murdered. (see Nachumlist file Is Obama Gay?)

> Marco McMillian (April 23, 1979 - February 26, 2013) was a businessman and candidate for mayor of Clarksdale, Mississippi in 2013. He was "the first openly gay man to be a viable candidate for public office in Mississippi".[1]

Mohammed Bakhti : A prominent figure in Tunisia's Salafist movement has died nearly two months after launching a hunger strike following his arrest for an attack on the US embassy, his lawyer and the justice ministry have said.

> 17 Nov 2012
>
> A prominent figure in Tunisia's Salafist movement has died nearly two months after launching a hunger strike following his arrest for an attack on the US embassy, his > lawyer and the justice ministry have said.

>
> Mohammed Bakhti died in hospital on Saturday, two days after the death of another suspect, the 26-year-old student Bechir Gholli. They were among dozens of Salafists, hardline Muslims, on hunger strike over prison conditions.

Jeff Joe Black: Found dead on a hiking trail from "blunt force trauma to the head": Chicago activist who claimed that Emmanuel was put into place in Chicago to oversee a coming false flag event.

Larry Bland and Nate Spencer: Two other black members of Trinity Church Murdered at the same time - Report: Mother Of Obama's Murdered Gay Lover Speaks Up - With Video

Jeff Fort (born February 20, 1947),[2][12] also known as Abdul Malik Ka'bah, is an American former gang leader from Chicago, Illinois.[13]

Fort co-founded the Black P. Stones gang and founder of its El Rukn faction. Fort is currently serving a 168-year prison sentence after being convicted of conspiracy and weapons charges in 1987 for plotting to commit attacks inside the U.S. in exchange for weapons and $2.5 million from Libya,[14] ordering a murder in 1981 and a conviction for drug trafficking in 1983.[citation needed]

> Further, Sinclair claims that Obama was friendly with at least two of these deceased parishioners, and that choir director Donald had contacted him [Barrack Obama Jr.] shortly before being murdered from multiple gunshot wounds on December 23, 2007 *

Andrew Breitbart Died of a massive heart attack, walking outside late at night, alone, in the dark approximately one week before he was to produce tapes of Obama's extremist activities in college. More speculation: Breitbart: "Wait 'Til They See What Happens March 1st", Breitbart's Footage Shows Obama 'Palling Around' With Terrorists ….. Sheriff Joe Arpaio: I Spoke with Andrew Breitbart Shortly Before he Died … …An Eyewitness Speaks Out About Andrew Breitbart's Death Scene … Breitbart's skin color described as bright red. … Was Andrew Breitbart assassinated? …More murder speculation: Was Andrew Breitbart Murdered? … … ….Coroner: Breitbart Died of Heart Failure …* Christopher Lasseter, Dissapears …..witness to Breitbart's death vanishes -Follows suspicious demise of member of coroner's team (possibly in hiding to avoid reporters), …. Breitbart witness: He dropped like sack of bricks Describes 'thick white band' around forehead at death ; Ex-CIA Agent Claims Obama Killed Breitbart and Clancy (story also linked here) ; Ex-CIA Agent Claims Obama Had Breitbart and Clancy Killed ; Brandon Walker interviews Doctor Jim Garrow, philanthropist and worker for one of the largest non-profit organizations on the planet to save female children from slaughter in China.. states he knows that President Obama ordered the murders of Tom Clancy and Andrew Breitbart (Audio)

Steve Bridges Dies At 48 - Impersonator Who Offended 0bama …Steve Bridges as President Obama - August 2011 ….It appeared that he died of natural causes...: On the Steve Bridges website, they are now calling his death 'an accident"...that the probable cause of death was due to "upper airway anaphylaxis", caused by a severe allergic reaction.. - CSI Show: Murder by anaphalaxis? … A real life example of possible murder by anaphalaxis

---

[image]

Was that really Barack Obama at Barbara

Bush's literacy benefit?

This "Obama" sighting was the surprise finale that has added a note of intrigue to each "Celebration of Reading" through the years, sometimes upstaging the line-up of leading authors who are hand-selected by Barbara Bush and former President George H.W. Bush.

Apr 22, 2010 - The Barbara Bush Foundation for Family Literacy has pulled together an all-star line-up of best-selling authors for the 16th Annual Celebration

Tom Clancy Dies at 66; actual list of cause of death on his autopsy, cause of death unknown.; Ex-CIA Agent Claims Obama Killed Breitbart and Clancy- Dr. Garrow states President Obama had Tom Clancy killed as well and noted that it takes 5 days for plant toxins and most poisons to break down and leave no traces in the human body. Amazingly enough, or coincidentally, the doctors did not perform an autopsy on Tom Clancy's body for 5 days. (story also linked here)

Fiction writers are sometimes asked to write orientation fictiion exposing concepts for discussion groups. Clancy was working on a Manchurian Candidate story using real life hidden identitites stories

Robin Copeland, 46, 11/4/2011: former Energy Department official who took part in several significant disarmament programs, died suddenly professional footballer who played as a forward. He is England's fourth-highest international goalscorer.

James Peter Greaves MBE (20 February 1940 - 19 September 2021) [and Robin Williams look alike] was an English

On 20 November 1963, he scored four goals in an 8-3 win over Northern Ireland who coincidentaly gave up those goals.

Greaves was announced as a Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) in the 2021 New Year Honours list, along with fellow 1966 World Cup squad winner, Ron Flowers, for their services to football. The two men were the last surviving England players from the 1966 Tournament to be honoured by Queen Elizabeth II.

DOE Human Genome, biological weapons and PsyOps Eugenics possible

Michael Cormier - respected forensic technician for the Los Angles County Coroner died under suspicious circumstances at his North Hollywood home April 20, the same day Andrew Breitbart's cause of death was finally made public. Medical examiners in Los Angles are investigating the possible poisoning death … …Conspiracy theorists cry foul after Andrew Breitbart's 'coroner' dies of arsenic poisoning- ….Police Debunk Theories Linking Breitbart, L.A. Coroner Tech Deaths ; No Answers in Death of Technician Linked to Andrew Breitbart: Killed by high amounts of arsinic in his system ; Breitbart's Coroner Murdered. News From LA Madelyn Payne Dunham: Obama's grandmother, died 2 days before the general election. Flew up to see her for one hour - alone. No records. Cremated immediately, ashes dispersed.

Mitochondrial problems with Obama female side, many fires, many fires.

BEVERLY ECKERT, Continental Flight Victim, Was 9/11 Widow (VIDEO, SLIDESHOW), was at the White House with Barack Obama, part of a meeting the president had with relatives of those killed in the 2001 attacks. Died: February 12, 2009, Clarence Center, NY Cause of death: Plane crash Colgan Air Flight 3407

Alison Des Forges

The Schenectady, N.Y. native was returning home to Buffalo after a trip to Europe where she briefed diplomats on the situation in Rwanda and Africa's Great Lakes region https://usatoday30.usatoday.com/news/nation/2009-02-13-victims_N.htm
In 1964, she married Roger Des Forges, a University of Buffalo historian specializing in China. She is survived by a daughter, a son and three grandchildren.

Extortion 17: On 6 August 2011, a U.S. Boeing CH-47 Chinook military helicopter, call sign Extortion 17, was shot down while transporting a quick reaction force attempting to reinforce an engaged unit of Army Rangers in Wardak province, west of Kabul, Afghanistan The resulting crash killed all 38 people on board-25 American special operations personnel, five United States Army National Guard and Army Reserve crewmen, seven Afghan commandos, and one Afghan interpreter-as well as a U.S. military working dog. It is considered the worst loss of U.S Military life in the Afghanistan campaign, surpassing Operation Red Wings in 2005. There were 15 Navy SEAL's killed. ; Afghanistan's Benghazi: The Shoot-Down of Extortion 17 ; TrentoVision 5.9.13 - Navy SEAL Extortion 17 EXPOSED - Obama Failures ; Obama increased special op's missions from an average of 56 a month to 334 per month (statement begins at 26 minute mark of video) ; Afghan Benghazi: Extortion 17, Betraying Seal Team 6 ; ; Navy SEAL's father: Obama sent my son to his death Tells Michael Savage

‘they knew something was up’ ; Extortion 17! Mother of slain SEAL on Biden: “He should be in prison for high crimes and treason.” ; Families suspect SEAL Team 6 crash was inside job on worst day in Afghanistan ; Navy warrior’s quick cremation deepens mystery of Chinook disaster in Afghanistan ; The Shocking True Story of Extortion 17 as Told by a Navy SEAL’s Father ; Extortion 17, The Deadliest Day in the War on Terror ; SEAL’s Parents: Obama’s Rules Of Engagement Killing Our Troops

Spreading Extorted DNA in Africa, alleged extorted from Edward Donegan for non white brain development use and other medical use. CIA DOD Ellington labs

Loretta Fuddy: -Hawaii Health Director Loretta Fuddy dies in small plane crash ; ‘Fuddy was at the center of controversy in the birth certificate controversy as she was the person who reportedly granted “an exception” to Barack Obama, allegedly witnessing the copying of Obama’s birth certificate and attested to its authenticity’ ; Health director who approved Obama birth certificate dies in plane crash ; Fuddy only one to die in plane crash ; Video.. Hawaii DOH Director Who “Certified” Obamas BC As Legit Dies In Plane Crash!! ; Engine Failure Blamed In Molokai Crash ; Kalaupapa Aircraft Wreckage to be Recovered, Under Investigation ; NTSB: Officials still trying to determine Fuddy’s cause of death ; Obama’s land in Hawaii as the NTSB investigates the cause of death; NTSB Chairman Deborah Hersmanis Obama appointee that only reports to Obama. NTSB Chair Hersman has been been accused of conflict of interest., compromsing her independence at the NTSB.-> Speculations: 1. NTSB allowed the evidence in both this Cessna engine failure and the one on Oct 21 very close to Molokai to be contaminated 2. The NTSB had found Cessna 208 engine failure in 2 cases in the previous 34 years, within 50 days and 25 miles there were another 2, and those 2 were not properly treated by Obama’s NTSB as a crime scene as mandated. 3. Engine failure itself actually occurred 9 miles north of where the plane landed in the Oct 21 incident, which puts it probably 10-15 miles away from Molokai. 4. Pilot Clyde Kawasaki has never been listed as a pilot of Makani Kai AIr on their staff webpage, even though he has supposedly flown for them for the past 1-2 years (depending on the article). There are 2 staff web pages, and both have been updated within the last half a year - one in June, the other earlier this month. 5. Rchard Schuman, Makani Kai Air owner/CEO says the plane (which was photographed sinking while nearly fully-intact) fell apart in a week's time 60-70 feet underwater because of the movement of the water banging the plane against the rocks but waves would have to have been much greater to affect the engine at that depth. If the engine had come apart from the plane during the salvage operations Schuman would certainly have said that. The fact that he tried to blame the engine's removal on water says that the witnesses on the salvage team knew it hadn't come apart during the lifting of the plane. ; Globe Magazine: Fuddy murdered for knowing where Obama was born ; NTSB: Hawaii plane floated 25 mins, then sank.; WasFuddy involved with the SUBUD Cult? Obama a secret Subud sect member ; Founder of Subud cult: Muhammad Subuh Sumohadiwidjojo; Alice Dewey, the great Indonesianist, as she liked to call herself, who spent something like 15 years on and off in Java as an anthropologist, researching javanese arts and crafts, and peasant marketing … Alice, the mentor of Stanley Ann Dunham who wrote her thesis (?) on the subject of Javanese blacksmithing …now lives permanently in Indonesia. ; Revealed: Inilah Wanita di Balik Bintang Mahaputera untuk Ibu Obama ; Subud, Obama and Laurel Canyon rock hits - a connection? ; As posted at little bit later in that thread, an earlier article at http://www.kitv.com/news/hawaii/makani-kai-plane-crashes-off-molokai/-/8905354/23442094/-/139fxot/-/index.html - with an original posting time of 8:25PM CST, which is 4:25pm HST - was titled "Breaking: Small Aircraft Crashed off Kalaupapa" with Twitterfeed as the source. That article says that the plane went down at about 3:45 ….within 40 minutes of the plane going down it was reported on the news, and within 55 minutes it was reported that there was one casualty. According to the timeline the NTSB is giving now (see http://www.freerepublic.com/focus/f-news/3107346/posts), help crews didn't even ARRIVE to check out the condition of the victims until 80 minutes after the crash - or 5:05pm …. 40 minutes after the crash was reported in the news and 25 minutes after it was reported in the news that there was one casualty. If the NTSB timeline is believed the rescue workers still had to pass Fuddy by, check out others, go back to Fuddy and determine her to be dead, and report it to the news reporter. If that whole process took 30 minutes, then the NTSB timeline would have the news reporting one dead almost an hour before anybody would have determined and reported that. If the NTSB timeline is believed, a death from that plane crash was reported in the news before ANYBODY know that it had happened. IOW, if the NTSB timeline is believed there was SUPPOSED to be one person dead from that plane crash, and that outcome was reported before anybody was sure that had really happened.; New Footage Shows Plane Crash That Killed Woman Who Released Obama's Birth Certificate ; What are the chances? The mysterious death of Loretta Fuddy ; Maui Police release cause of Loretta Fuddy's death: cardiac arrhythmia as a result of stress ; Lawyer Files Request For Fuddy Autopsy (back on 12/18/13)

Bechir Gholli. Student also arrested for attack on embassy

Bill Gwatney, Born: August 26, 1959, Little Rock, ARa close friend of Bill and Hillary Clinton and a Clinton super delegate at an upcoming convention in Denver and was fatally shot in 2008. Shooter had a post-it note with a mystery phone number. Did Obama Assassinate Clinton delegates? Bill Gwatney and Stephanie Tubbs Jones? Video: Bill Gwatney Murder Linked to Obama Lieutenant Quarles Harris Jr. A key witness in a federal probe into passport information stolen from the State Department was fatally shot in front of a District church. Obama's Passport Breach: Unanswered Questions, and an Unsolved Murder : Harris worked for a security firm run by John Brennan, later to be a terrorism advisor to Obama. Listed as a detail in YouTube video "Shocking Secrets and Verifiable Facts about Barack Obama the MSM Refuses to Report" (at approx. 22 minutes in the video); Wasan employee of John Brennan when murdered. John Brennan confirmed to head CIA.

Andy P. Hart: Guantanamo attorney dead in apparent suicide ….Hart was assigned to defend Mohammed Rahim al-Afghani, one of 16 detainees at Guantanamo which the US government has designated as "high-value."

Michael Hastings: Rolling Stone Journalist, Author Believed to be Dead in Hollywood Crash … known for his interview of Gen. Stanley McCrystal: Michael Hastings death: Coroner still hasn't ID'd badly burned victim: Picture of the burned out car ; autopsy results will take weeks; Video report .. was covering a story about the defense dept. and Hollyood … nervous wreck ; Michael Hastings, journalist who helped bring down US general, dies at 33 ; WikiLeaks Claims Michael Hastings Told Them FBI Was Investigating Him Hours Before He Died ; Hastings' death in fiery car crash is just the latest in a growing list of dead investigative journos ; Michael Hastings' Chilling Final Story. …->"Why Democrats Love to Spy on Americans" ; Michael Hastings researching Jill Kelley case before death ; Hastings "Boston Brakes" Killing a Warning? ; FBI says journalist Michael Hastings was not under investigation ; Michael Hastings "CAUGHT ON TAPE" Running Red-Light Seconds Before Crash ; Journalist Michael Hastings Dies in Fiery Crash / Hollywood RAW FOOTAGE ; Hastings Sent Colleagues Email Hours Before Crash ; Was Michael Hastings' Car Hacked? Richard Clarke Says It's Possible ; Journalist Michael Hastings' Body Cremated by Authorities Against Family's Wishes (Video) ; Hackers Reveal Nasty New Car Attacks-With Me Behind The Wheel (Video) ; MICHAEL HASTINGS CRASH CAUGHT ON SURVEILLANCE CAMERA ; Bush advisor: Hastings crash 'consistent with a car cyberattack' ; Group sues FBI for records after Michael Hastings' mysterious death ; Report: Michael Hastings Was Investigating CIA Director John Brennan ; CIA Director Brennan Confirmed as Reporter Michael Hastings Next Target ; Coroner Classifies Michael Hastings' Death As Accidental ; Coronor: Drugs in Hastings' system. Was Bipolar ; Rolling Stone journalist feared prior to crash his car was tampered with: Report ; Mystery grows: Journalist died prepping Obama exposé Major probe tied to agent suspected of sanitizing president's passport records ; Who Killed Michael Hastings?

Working with Victoria Windsor on ancestry issues and Obama origins

Hazem: 'Benghazi attack suspect' dies in Cairo shootout

Barnaby Jack*:* Hacker found dead days before he was to demonstrate how to hack a pacemaker

CIA capability to bring about heart attacks

Stephanie Tubbs Jones: found brain dead in 2008. Democratic Rep. Stephanie Tubbs Jones of Cleveland, a super delegate and one of Hillary Clinton's most prominent black supporters, was found in her car unconscious Also: Did Obama Assassinate Clinton Delegates? Additional: Hollywood Producer Bettina Viviano: Bill Clinton Directly Told Me Barack Obama Not Eligible - ….Caucus death threats (audio) … also reported by Jerome Corsi at WND: Hillary supporter's untold Obama horror stories Allegations of intimidation, manipulation, sudden death

Christopher Kelly - Committed suicide,under pressure to testify against former Gov. Rod Blagojevich ; Christopher Kelly Case Round-Up

David Koschman, Murdered in a Chicago Rush Street brawl by Richard J. "R.J." Vanecko, a nephew of Mayor Daley and White House Chief of Staff Bill Daley- Homicide case involving Daley nephew closed without charges , Witness to Killing Involving Daley Nephew: Deceased Didn't Start It

The Krim Children: CNBC Exec's Children Murdered, 1 Day After CNBC Reports $43 Trillion Bankster Lawsuit ; Police: Nanny stabbed herse if upon mother's arrival ; Screen Shot of original CNBC Article : Another source for article: …Targets of Spire Law Group; Law Suit Documents ; Book; "Bankster Chronicles”

Kam Kuwata - was found dead inside his Venice home after friend - concerned that they had not heard from him for a few days - alerted police. Political consultant in California. Democratic insider. Possibly the Obama consultant referred to in the*Ulsterman Report*: Alledgedly viewed bizarre drug induced behavior from Obama during the the 2008 campaign.: “The Troubling Timeline” …. The Death of a Political Operative - The Troubling Timeline … (UPDATED)

Chris Kyle: Author of “American Sniper” among the dead at Rough Creek ; Former Navy SEAL & ‘American Sniper’ Author Chris Kyle Reportedly Killed at TX Lodge ; Deadliest sniper in U.S. military history is ‘shot and killed point- blank by veteran suffering from PTSD’ at Texas gun range ; Conspiracy? Chris Kyle The Third High Profile Firearms Business Owner Killed in Past Month, Along With 30 SEALs The Past Four Years ; Suspicions Raised After Deaths of Three Firearms Experts ; Murdered Navy SEAL Was Obama Gun Control Foe ;Revealed: Marine who ‘killed’ famous sniper threatened to ‘blow his brains out and kill his family months before shooting two men at gun range’ ; Obama Has Yet To Acknowledge Death Of Legendary Seal Sniper Chris Kyle (2/13/13) ; Chris Kyle Widow: Former Navy SEAL ‘Died Because Somebody Wanted to Kill Him’

Robert McKeon*:* founder of private-equity firm Veritas Capital, dies Sept. 10, 2012 of suicide; General Dynamics bought company in August 2011 to expand influence into Obamacare IT

Marco McMillian: Mississippi’s first gay mayoral candidate, 34, ‘was beaten and burned‘ before his body was found dumped on a riverbank. Victim of a hate crime? Pictured with Obama. Another black and gay associate of Obama murdered. (see Nachumlist file Is Obama Gay?)

Stefanie Moses: NYPD lesbian sergeant photographed with

Obama at 9/11 ceremony ….found dead in apparent suicide: - Face of the NYPD …commits suicide on Long Island after fighting with her girlfriend; NYPD Sgt. Stephanie Moses On Meeting Pres. Obama

John Noveske; the owner of Noveske Rifleworks. Vehicle run off the road - Two gun makers killed in two days, and no answers (Photos)

Renee L Abena Obama: baby girl Born on October 31, 2004. The infant died less than two months later on December 25, 2004. "..the death was not reported by any hospital in the State of Maryland, but by a funeral home (indicated by the SSDI code "72"). BHO's biographies do not report the death of an infant in 2004, yet here was a baby girl who bore his last name-and the initial of his grandmother's middle name-Madelyn "Lee" Dunham. A search of the Social Security Death Index produced "No Results," though a genealogical index at WorldVitalRecords.com produced a Social Security number: "215-71-0752." From: "Who was Renee L. Abena Obama?"

Alex Okrent: [black markets expert] -Apparently found deat at Obama's campaign headquarters in Chicago. Witnesses say he collapsed, found dead after. Okrent had long been a staffer back the Obama 2004 U.S. senate campaign, on staff for eight years. Parents immediately say the cause of death was "heart attack", but no autopsy was yet performed. Medical examiner said the cause of death was "inconclusive". Internet recornds have been scrubbed. Twitter account timeline also makes no mention of his work for Obama: Okrent Twitter file (on Twitter). - Speculation as to whether he was a witness to an Obama gay connection: Who Is Dead Obama Staffer Alex Okrent? YouTube video: Who is Dead Obama Staffer Alex Okrent? Part 1 … … …-Part 2 ; Autopsy Inconclusive for Obama Campaign Worker Who Collapsed at Chicago Campaign HQ ; Gay opinion piece …-Alex Okrent: Equality is a Moral Equivalent; What Do Colorado Shooter James Holmes And Obama Staffer Alex Okrent Have In Common? ….no *digital footprin*t on the internet; Was Obama Staffer Alex Okrent Murdered Because he was Going to Expose Obama's Anti-Israel

Ties?

Daniel Orkent seems to have written on both Eugenics and also marketing economics of prohibited items

Donald A. Perry: Chick-fil-A's public relations director dead of heart attack : Is Rahm Emanuel bullying Chick-fil-A over gay marriage? : Emanuel goes after Chick-fil-A for boss' anti-gay views ; Rahm: Chick-fil-A Values Are Not Chicago Values ; Rahm backs down: We never said we'd block Chick-fil-A from Chicago, says spokesman

Albert Peterson: Wealthy Defense Contractor commits suicide, kills family; Man Kills His Entire Family, Feared Obama Would Get Re-Elected ; Pictured: 'Beautiful' family slain hours after church by 'mentally ill father who was tormented by the prospect of Obama winning the election'He said he wanted to expose something at work. He also got the impression at work, that if they didn't vote for Obama and get him elected, they would lose their jobs,' " (See Obama and Your Prvacy- Nachumlist file)

Rafael Prieto: Secret service apparent suicide under investigation: D.C., police are investigating the apparent suicide of a U.S. Secret Service supervisory agent assigned to President Obama's security detail. -Was under investigation for going to prostitutes;Secret Service agent kills self amid affair probe ….Prieto's apparent cause of death was carbon monoxide poisoning

Keith Ratliff; ..was well known for a series of videos he produced on YouTube, known as "FPSRussia," in which various high-powered firearms were demonstrated. Found with a single shot in the head - Two gun makers killed in two days, and no answers (Photos) ; Partner YouTube video-maker FPSRussia Home Raided by ATF established. Her husband has been suspected as the killer. Rausing's family says she was at Occidental College at the same time as Obama. "Family of tragic Tetra Pak wife Eva Rausing reveal she began dabbling with 'hard drugs' while at the same college as Barack Obama as husband is arrested for murder" … Suspected cause of death from drug overdose.

Eva Rausing: Found dead with no cause of death yet

Possible DNA issue

John McCarthy Roll: - was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona, murdered by the same gunman attacking Gabrielle Giffords. Theory that Roll's prelimiary ruling on "United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al" (Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010) was cause for the assassination and that the shooter used the mass shooting as a cover for the government. - Claim: Giffords hit a planned assassination: Judge Roll real target ;Judge John Roll - Wake Up Tucson

World medicine and Illuminati use of exported genes from parental legacy

Michael Scott - Although Chicago school board president Michael Scott's death had been ruled a suicide by the Cook County medical examiner's office, Chicago police characterized the case as a death investigation, and have not concluded that Scott's death was a suicide- was subpoenaed to testify before a federal grand jury looking into the admissions practices of Chicago's elite schools. -also was under scrutiny over Olympics-related real estate dealings.

Nueorlogical issue with family member, brain and nuerology

Navy SEAL Commander Job Price, 42: US Navy SEAL commander dies in Afghanistan: suicide -SEAL Team Four commander in Afghanistan 'commits suicide' as body of married father is found shot dead: Rumor?- Clinton Injured, US Navy Seal Killed In Secret US Mission To Iran ; State Department Denies Hillary Clinton Injured in Plane Crash … but- ABC News Report on Emergency Landing of a US Plane in Iran 16 days earlier ; US Navy Seal Commander, Who Killed Osama Bin Laden, Commits 'Apparent Suicide' In Afghanistan

SEAL Team 6: Helicoptor shot down by terrorists. Possibly given location by infiltrators. Obama rules of engagement possibly lead to deaths. Father of fallen SEAL begs for military officer to tell the truth about "criminal" rules of engagement ; The deaths ofSeal Team Six …who never would fly an entire company in one helicopter alone. UNBELIEVABLE: 'More Than 20 Navy SEALS From The Unit That Killed Osama Bin Laden' Die In Helicopter Crash ; 31 US troops, mostly elite Navy SEALs, killed in Afghanistan 7 Afghan commandos also die in attack; SEALs were from same unit but not same team that killed Osama bin Laden ; Navy SEAL Team 6 Families To Reveal Government's Culpability In Death Of Their Sons ; OUTRAGE! Obama Administration Allowed Radical Cleric to Curse US Navy SEAL Heroes at Funeral Services (Video) ; TrentoVision 5.9.13 - Navy SEAL Extortion 17 EXPOSED - Obama Failures ; SEAL Team Six Parents Demand Obama Answer For Funeral Desecration ;UNANSWERED QUESTIONS PLAGUE SEAL TEAM 6 LOSSES Lawsuit claims Navy used for White House effort to 'coddle Islamist fundamentalists' ; Congress to probe lethal SEAL crash ; The unexplained ambush of Navy SEAL Team Six ; A Scandal Bigger Than Benghazi? ; SEAL Team 6 families' suspicions of gov't grow 'I believe someone on their side definitely made a deal with somebody on our side' ; SEAL's Parents: Obama's Rules Of Engagement Killing Our Troops

Malcolm Shabazz: Malcolm X's Grandson dies in Mexico. Was 'thrown off a building', or 'shot'. Two men arrested in Malcolm Shabazz murder in Mexico, more sought; Obama was in Mexico on May 2nd. Shabazz is murdered on May 9th. Is Obama thesecret son of Malcolm X? ; Rumors that Obama was a child of Malcom X?

Brett D. Shadle: SEAL, Special Warfare Operator Chief ; Member of SEAL Team 6 killed, another SEAL injured in parachute accident

Matt Simmons, an investment banker and whistle blower in the British Petroleum oil spill. Died suddenly at home of a heart attack at the age of 67. An autopsy by the state medical examiner's office concludes that Simmons died from accidental drowning "with heart disease as a contributing factor." Speculation of murder: Assassinations by induced heart attack and cancer.; Did The CIA Assassinate Matt Simmons For Blowing The Whistle On The BP Gulf Oil Spill Coverup?

> Simmons believed that the Club of Rome's report, The Limits to Growth, is more accurate than usually acknowledged*.[10

Holiyah Soetoro Sobah, aka Lia Soetoro, Obama's adopted sister: died under mysterious, sudden, and unusual circumstances just as she was getting ready to be reunited with her childhood companion and adopted brother. She spoke of many specific incidences in the household, where she grew up with "Barry" in Indonesia. She saved many items that Barry used during childhood. She was looking forward to seeing him, because she'd seen him on TV and was told that was "Barry", her little brother; however, Lia had reservations about it and so was anticipating seeing the scars he had from falling out of the mango tree and the limp she said he walked with. That was not to be because she up and died. Read about it here and watch video of here … …..PDF document from a web site of the Consulate General of the Republic of Indonesia appears to confirm a relationship between Lia and Barack Hussein Obama. Update On The Sudden Death Of Obama's Sister Lia Soetoro: Information From The Consulate General Of The Republic Of Indonesia.

Dawn Sylvia-Stasiewicz, Obama's First Dog Trainer Dies At 52. Rumored to be salaried at over $102,000 per year at taxpayer expense

Ambassador Chris Stevens: (Also see the Nachumlist: "Benghazi-Gate" file) Killed by a mob in Libya. The Obama administration ignored warnings two days prior to the attacks. Hillary Clinton made the decision not to post Marines. New now comes out that Stevens was gay: meaning that Obama sent a publicly gay man to be an ambassador in a Muslim country. Obama skipped intel meetings for days leading up to the attacks despite credible information of the attacks. Video: Libyan democratic party spokesman: amb christopher stevens was a muslim (Statement that Ambassador Chris Stevens was a Muslim is made between 1:00 & 1:20); Col. David Hunt: "State Department just allowed our guys to get killed" : Glenn Beck video: Stevens was a CIA operative and weapons dealer- Glenn Beck "the Blaze TV" 9-17-12 US arms terrorists in Middle East? ; Report: Terrorist Behind Ambassador Murder 'Ally of Sorts' to Obama Admin ; Report: Murdered Ambassador Knew He Was On Al Qaeda Hit List ;Video of Stevens Murder: What Really Happened Video which some news outlets claimed had showed Libyans trying to save Ambassador Stevens turns out to show the opposite.; Clinton: 'No Info' Amb. Stevens Was on al Qaeda 'Hit List' ; Evidence mounts that al-Qaida group killed US ambassador to Libya ; Obama Politicizes The Sacrifices Of The SEALs - Again ; Did Hillary Clinton send a gay ambassador to Libya as intentional provocation? ; CNN obtains journal of slain ambassador, reportedly goes against his family's wishes ; Anderson Cooper admits that CNN found slain American ambassador's journal inside U.S. consulate in Libya and 'secretly' used it in reporting ; Obama Went to Bed While Consulate was Under Siege ; CNN Hid Knowledge of Libya Ambassador Diary For Days ; Report: State Dept Left Consulate Unsecured Days After Ambassador Murder ; Prior attacks on the embassy …*Flashbac*k: Bomb targets U.S. mission in Libya's Benghazi ; US Consulate in Libya Bombed Twice in Run-Up to 9/11 Attack, Ambassador Known Target (+video) ; Obama to

UN: It's Not My Fault Stevens is Dead ; Obama Administration Knew Libya Attack Was Terrorism Within 24 Hours ; Obama Administration Deleted State Dept. Memo From Internet After Discovering Al-Qaeda Was Behind Benghazi Attack ; Christopher Stevens, U.S. ambassador to Libya, dead body. No bruises on face.; Despite looting of the embassy and the loss of sensitive documents, CNN finds Stevens' diary. ; Benghazi: The Unanswered Question- what lapses on the part of the Obama/ Clinton State Department made his murder sickeningly easy?; In Libya, Security Was Lax Before Attack That Killed U.S. Ambassador, Officials Say ; Did the White House order a cover-up over the murder of Libya's US Ambassador? ; Report: Obama Admin Rejected Military Intervention in Benghazi During Attack ; Benghazigate: Obama Chose Not to Save Ambassador Stevens' Life ; Was Ambassador Stevens' death a hit? ; Mother of Slain State Dept. Official Tired of Being Lied To and Stonewalled by Obama Administration ; Benghazi Attack Was Botched Kidnapping To Trade Blind Sheik … and arranged by Obama? ; Obama Arranged Benghazi Trip That Resulted In Murder Of US AMB Chris Stevens; …Stevens in possession of death certificate of Osama Bin Laden?, - OBL died in 2001? ; CIA operators were denied request for help during Benghazi attack, sources say: …..Denied 3 Times ; John McCain: Obama Administration has Classified Benghazi Surveillance Tapes Top Secret ; Obama avoids question on whether Americans in Libya were denied requests for help ; Why Did CIA Director Petraeus Suddenly Resign … And Why Was the U.S. Ambassador to Libya Murdered? : (Ann Barnhardt) Proof Benghazi was Murder of Stevens: "Hillary (Clinton) began pushing the fake "protests against a video blaspheming the prophet" BEFORE WOODS AND DOHERTY WERE KILLED. Per the story below, the Associated Press first published a story on Hillary's official statement on Benghazi at 10:58pm Eastern, which means that the State Department must have released it BEFORE 10:58 pm EDT. Which means that is was actually written and composed hours before that. State Department press releases in the Secretary of State's name aren't written and released without all kinds of "approvals" and process. And this statement is written in nuanced prose, referencing "religious tolerance" and all kinds of bullshit. It isn't a flash bulletin. It was thought out, long and hard. Doherty and Woods were killed by mortar fire between 11:14 and 11:26 pm EDT. Here is the citation link." ; Lindsey Graham: Hillary Clinton 'got away with murder' ; The secret war behind Benghazi A stealth campaign of assassinations, run by CIA nominee John Brennan, resulted in the death of the US ambassador, a new book claims …- Claim that secret war ran behind the back of Gen. Patreus ; Video: The John Brennan puzzle is slowly being pieced together: Stevens recruited by Hillary Clinton to run guns to Syria from Libya ; Ambassador Chris Stevens didn't have to die in Benghazi - The real story of what led to his death on 9/11: Book Benghazi: The Definitive Report ; More evidence of slain U.S. ambassador's secret activities ; Is Muslim Brotherhood working together with Amb. Chris Stevens' assassin?

Aaron Swartz: 26-year-old genius, computer prodigy, co-creator of RSS and Reddit, commits suicide after Obama DOJ harassment; 'kill list' critic ; Attorney for Aaron Swartz: Prosecutors' Arguments Were "Disingenuous and Contrived" ; Aaron Swartz dead; was this brilliant internet revolutionary 'taken out?' The cause of death is currently unconfirmed. : The father of information activist Aaron Swartz blames US prosecutors for his son's death: Aaron Was Killed By The Gov't ; Aaron Swartz' suicide raises questions for Eric Holder and the Justice Dept. ; Issa, Cummings press Holder for answers about Aaron Swartz trial ; Aaron Swartz files reveal how FBI tracked internet activist ; Daryl Issa (on Twitter): Very concerning allegations about DOJ's handling of Aaron Swartz case on pg. 67-68 of MIT Report ; Documents show Secret Service kept tab of Swartz ; First 100 Pages of Aaron Swartz's Secret Service File Released

Semantics and electronics, MIT, and m false arrest as I studied XML. ALso I could not afford academic JSTOR docs at that time

Shane Todd : found dead in his Singapore apartment last summer; he apparently hanged himself, but his family claims he was murdered: - Was he murdered? Mystery death of American engineer working in Singapore on cutting-edge military technology ´who had deep misgivings about his work' ; WH: Obama will talk to China about hacking our weapons systems ; Flashback: Sudden death of U.S. engineer in Singapore linked to cyber espionage? ; Mystery surrounding American's death in Singapore deepens as parents quit inquest into son's death ; Singapore Says US Scientist Hanged Himself

The Brain and Cyber Brain modeling and interfacing supplementing.

Ashley Turton,burned by fire. Born Elizabeth Ashley Westbrook November 25, 1973 Greensboro, North Carolina Died January 10, 2011 (aged 37) Washington, DC wife of the Obama administration's House of Representatives liaison, Dan Turton, was found dead in a burning car Monday morning, Roll Call and other news outlets are reporting. Fire officials said it appeared the car crashed as it was pulling in or out of the garage behind a rowhouse in the Capitol Hill neighborhood of Washington, D.C., at about 5 a.m. Neighbors dialed 911 after spotting the fire. The body was discovered after fire crews doused the blaze. The fire also charred part of the garage. Nobody in the house was injured, fire officials said. Ashley Turton worked as a lobbyist for the utility giant Progress Energy, according to Politico. She was a former staffer for U.S. Rep. Rosa DeLauro, D-Conn. The Rahm Emanuel Connection to the Deceased Ashley Turton, - The ATF investigates - Ashley Turton Crashed Under the Influence

Jessica Upshaw: Mississippi State Rep. found dead Sunday of an apparent suicide . Ardent opponent of Agenda 21 (see Nachumlist file Obama and Agenda 21). Chaired a committee that stops Agenda 21 legislation in committe: Anti-Agenda 21 Bill Dies in Mississippi House Committee Chaired by Rep. Jessica Upshaw ; Was directing BP oil spill fine money ; 'kills herself' at home of former lawmaker …fifth Mississippi legislator to die in the last few months

> A lawsuit filed Tuesday against Boeing and Southern California Edison alleges that the two companies failed to protect the public from the threat that fire posed at the Santa Susana Field Lab, a former rocket testing facility where the devastating Woolsey fire broke out in November. *

John Wheeler- former presidential and Pentagon aide John Wheeler III was found in a Delaware garbage dump. Wheeler's cell phone discovered - Cause of death released in Wheeler case, blunt force trauma - Wheeler's cell phone found in a taxi - His family wants information - John Wheeler was assassinated by a hitman in a targeted killing, his widow has claimed - Who killed Jack Wheeler? ; John Wheeler III Murdered for Threatening to Expose US Military Test of Poison Gas?

Victoria Windsor: Blogger, researcher into ancestry working with Micheal Hastings: .. .reported that.she had "found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been "tampered with." Cause of death not yet revealed. Said to have died from a "sudden illness".

Windsor DNA being researched along with Hastings

Donald Young -Openly gay friend of Obama's at Murdered at Trinity Church in Chicago- …Key Witness In Obama Passport Fraud Case - Video report: Obama-Donald Young murder (December 24, 2007) … … ….All 3 Homosexual Members Of Obama's Trinity Church Murdered Within 6 Weeks. …. -Jeff Kuhner interview with Larry Sinclair. Choir Director Murdered To Conceal Obama's Homosexuality/Drug Use? ;

Jaime Zapata - Homeland Security Investigations Special

Agent who was murdered in an ambush. Revelation that I.C.E. Report of Investigation on seizure of Fast & Furious weapons in Texas in August 2010 was signed by Zapata. Speculation that he was murdered as part of a coverup the Gunwalker scandal. (Nachumlist Gunrunner-Gate scandal files here)

Ilya Zhitomirskiy: 22-year old a co-founder of the start-up social network Diaspora, which has been described as the "anti-Facebook" for its emphasis on personal privacy and decentralized data collection. Friends and associates of Mr. Zhitomirskiy said there were indications of suicide.

Related Murder/Coverups

Robert Plumlee interview: worked as a pilot for clandestine CIA flights, transporting arms to Cuba before Castro took power. He discussed how scandals from Iran-Contra to the failed presidential bid of Senator Gary Hart all tie-in to breaking international stories in the news today. In a wide ranging interview, linked past murders and coverups in past administrations to current murrders. Linked murders in the Iran/Contra scandal under Reagan to murders in Mena (Arkansas) under Clinton to current murderous scandals such as Chris Stevens and SEALs deaths under 'Extortion 17″ together as part of an ongoing weapons and gun smuggling for profit. Claims that groups inside the intelligence community run guns for huge cash dumps which buys off politicians and news outlets. Murder is used as a means to silence whistle blowers. Full interview which was aired on the Coast to Coast AM all night broadcast on November 2/3 with John B. Wells (host) may be heard HERE (membership required) other page link to interview located HERE

The Clinton Dead Pool File: Former Hillary Associate Claims to Have Been Her Personal Hit Man … Admits to Killing for Money (See Nachumlist Clinton Dead Pool File: Here)

Camp Bastion: Jihad Friday gets bloodier: Attack on Camp

Bastion in Afghanistan, 2 Marines reportedly killed ; Deafening silence about the Camp Bastion attack ; Camp Bastion Families Want Answers About Afghanistan ; Uncovering the Camp Bastion cover-up ; Two Marine generals fired in wake of brazen Taliban attack on Camp Bastion

[image]

> Prince Harry, 27, has been deployed at Camp Bastion as a military helicopter pilot.

> According to Smith, the Taliban also claimed that the prince was a target in Friday's attack.

> Taliban fighters have threatened to kill him, saying earlier this week they had a "high-value plan" to attack the third in line to the British throne. https://www.aljazeera.com/news/

The Boston Marathon Bombing: (See Boston Marathon Massacre file) Did authorities have word before of an attack on the Boston Marathon?: Bomb Sniffing Dogs : Saudi held in Boston terror bombing "smelled of gunpowder" …asked: "Did anyone die?"; Kerry meeting with Saudi Foreign Minister abruptly closed ; Injured Saudi is a witness, not a suspect, in Boston bombing ; no other suspects ; "Innocent" Saudi has ties to several Al-Qaeda Terrorists ; AMERICAN AIRLINES flight grounded after passengers panic over Iraqis shouting to each other in Arabic ; American Airlines grounds flights nationwide due to glitch ; Drastic security changes coming to large-scale public events, experts say ; Numerous other bomb threats to institutions throughout the nation.; Pictures at the Boston Marathon made public after the FBI said they had no suspects ; Michael Savage Interviews Walid Shoebat on Boston Marathon Bombing Incident - 4/16/13 ; Arrest has been made in Boston marathon bombing and suspect will be brought to court after a 'dark-skinned male' ; Authorities change story:- Feds deny reports of Boston suspect in custody ; Boston bomber is caught on camera: FBI reveals store footage shows 'dark-skinned man in backwards hat' planting second explosive moments before blasts tore through marathon crowds ; FBI Cancels Boston

Bombs News Conference ; Obama meets with Saudi foreign minister, discusses Syria; Saudi National & Exchange Student Ali Alharbi Is Being Deported Back to Kingdom ; Saudi National in Boston Bombing being deported on "National Security Grounds" ; Photo of questioned Saudi in Hospital after Boston bombings, and more unanswered questions ; Saudi National Once Considered 'Person of Interest' May Be Deported on 'Security' Grounds - And How It's Supposed to Be Framed ; Boston runners were warned: Squamish man: 'If you run tomorrow, you're going to die' ; 1 of 2 suspects in Boston bombing killed … …"World View: ISLAM" ; Boston Bombing Suspect Posted Video on Al Qaeda Prophecy on YouTube ; Report: Alharbi visited by Michelle Obama in Hospital ; Boston Jihadi Bombers members of Wahhabi cell funded by Saudi Al Qaeda ; FBI Boston Bombing Video Altered To Hide Fact Bomber Was Black Ops Mercenary? ; Authorities change story:- Feds deny reports of Boston suspect in custody ; Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick and the Imam ; Source-Saudi National's Deportation Record Altered ; Boston marathon bombing happened on same day as 'controlled explosion' drill by Boston bomb squad ; Interview With Boston Marathon Eyewitness Confirms Bomb Squad Drill ; Senator: Law Enforcement May Have Had Advance Warning of Boston Bombings (video) ; Did CNN use "Crisis Actors"? ; Report: Federal Judge Compromised Investigation By Prematurely Mirandizing Tsarnaev ; FBI Orders the State of Florida Medical Examiner to Keep Boston Bombing Friend's Autopsy Secret (Ibragim Todashev) '

FBI Special Agents Christopher Lorek and Stephen Shaw: 2 FBI Agents Involved in Dzhokar Tsarnaev's Arrest "FALL" Out of Helicopter and Die ; The 2 FBI Agents Who Arrested Dzhokhar Tsarnaev Did Not Die Mysteriously

Ibragim Todashev: Feds: Man shot after attacking agent was being questioned about Boston bombing suspects and 2011 triple murder

Algerian massacre: Algerian Terrorists Demand Release of Blind Sheik in Exchange for American Hostages: Theory- another false flag

The Sandy Hook school massacre: Also see The Sandy Hook Massacre Page on Nachumlist)27 people shot dead in school shooting. including children. Shooter commits suicide. White House immediately exploits murders for gun control attempts asObama goes to Sandy Hook and speaks. Gun control legislation immediately called for. White House fundraiser using Sandy Hook. Connecticut state police warned that people posting "misinformation" on social media websites would be "investigated and prosecuted." - Initial reports that a "second gunman" arrested in the woods behind the school was involved in the massacre were later dropped without explanation. Facebook Suspends Account For Questioning Official Narrative on Shooting; Adam Lanza's Hard Drive Damaged Beyond Repair? Motive for Shooting Hidden : Adam Lanza Was On Antipsychotic Drug Known To Cause Aggressive Behavior,- Something Strange About Robbie Parker.. Video:.Robbie Parker, the Father of slain child comes to microphone- laughing … Video: then tears up for the camera.. within a day, sets up a fund: Emillie Parker Fund, to raise money; Emilie Parker family plans memorial, fund for fellow victims ; Russian Report (rumor?) on Sandy Hook Massacre: Connecticut Massacre Blamed On Son Of Top CIA Analyst: Russian rumor continued: Hunger Games "Experiment" Said Behind Connecticut Massacre ; Nancy Lanza Not a Teacher? ; Conspiracy Theory: Sandy Hook Massacre a ritual killing ; Hiram Masonic Templenext to Sandy Hook school ; Sandy Hook Shooting: Grieving Parents Hoax..Worked for Home Security as Crisis Actors ; Another pair of actors in Sandy hoax exposed. 100% BUSTED! : Website: crisisactors.org ; Crisis Actors: Are They Being Used To Fake Events? ; Video: The Sandy Hook Actors PART 1 ; Part 2; Part 3 ; Video: Sandy Hook Actors Exposed? Same as Giffords Shooting? Banking connection to murderer's parent Lanza: Peter Lanza's Libor Bid Rigging Connection: -Nancy Lanza aMorgan Stanley Investment Broker ; Police Officer Exposes The Unanswered Questions Of The Sandy Hook Tragedy ; Three Days Before Shooting "United Way Extends Our Most Sincere Condolences To Sandy Hook Families" ; United Way: No, we didn't know about Dec. 14 Sandy Hook shooting in advance …"flawed Google search …" ; Sandy Hook Massacre Linked to DHS Exercise? ; Prominent rifle manufacturer killed in mysterious car crash days after posting psych drug link to school shooters ; Anderson Cooper Goes After ‘Anonymous Internet Trolls’ Pushing Conspiracies About Newtown And Gun Control. ; The Sandy Hook Shooting - Fully Exposed (VIDEO) ; Sandy Hook - The Truth (Controversial Documentary) That DHS spent two years in Sandy Hook running training drills 2005 London Subway Bombing, 9/11 2001Terror Attack, 2012 Sandy Hook Massacre all had a version or versions of the Dept. of Homeland Security running drills or class courses *in the exact same place at the exact same time …..”Planning for the needs of children in disasters” Set at the same exact time and in the exact same location as the Sandy Hook Massacre; What Was DHS Doing In Sandy Hook? False Flag Two Years In The Making Or Department Of Homeland Security Fail? ; Today Show: No assault weapons used in Sandy Hook Massacre ; NBC Admitted: No ‘Assault Rifle’ Used in Newtown Shooting ; Still No Police Report, or Toxicology Results, on Sandy Hook Killer ; Sandy Hook Elementary shooter has no brain deformities, medical examiner says ; Sandy Hook Conspiracy Theories Edge Toward The Mainstream ; CNN video of police charge at Sandy Hook is not Sandy Hook ; Probe of Newtown shooter Adam Lanza focusing on murderer’s ‘psychotic break’ and unlocked guns ; Sandy Hook Panel Set to Begin Review of School Shooting ; Newtown Is Hometown of Sugarmann; His Group Seeks Assault Weapons Ban- Josh Sugermann founded Violence Policy Center (VPC) after leaving The Coalition to Ban Handguns in 1988. He is generally credited with mainstreaming the term ‘assault weapon’ in his 1988 work - “Assault weapons and accessories in America” ; Foreign language heard being spoken in the Sandy Hook raw footage ; We Take You Inside the Mind of a Sandy Hook Truther: CIA Conspiracy? 7 Shooters? An Attempt to ‘Disarm People and Attack the 2nd Amendment’? ; Sandy Hook DA cites ‘potential suspects,’ fears witness safety ; Detectives investigating Newtown massacre find Adam Lanza’s violent video games, ponder the 20-year-old mimicking a gory game scene ; SSDI changed Adam Lanza’s date-of-death from Dec. 13 to Dec. 14, 2012 …according to the original SSDI entry, the man who we are told was the lone gunman who perpetrated the Sandy Hook massacre, had died the day before he killed his 27 victims; Conn. massacre records secret, media seek access ;

Newtown clerk refuses to issue Sandy Hook victims' death certificates ; WATCH - 'Fell Off The Face Of The Earth' - CNN: No Record Of Adam Lanza Existence Since 2009 ; …-Sandy Hook Shooting: Active-Shooter Drill Confirmed by Law Enforcement Raises Suspicion of False Flag Operation ; Beck: Cover-Up of Saudi Link to Boston Bombing 'is so Far Beyond Benghazi' it is Criminal ….. (full audio HERE 13:07) ; Report: Boston Jihadis Were U.S./Saudi Agents Who Turned On Their Masters ; Photos: Private military operatives hired to 'work' the Boston marathon with black backpacks, radiation detectors, tactical gear ; Psyops: Mind Control Marathon and Boston Bombings ; Boston Bombings a 'Gift' to Putin, Says Chechen Opposition Leader ; Report: Federal Judge Compromised Investigation By Prematurely Mirandizing Tsarnaev ; Tamerlan Tsarnaev Triple Murders Were ALL Jews Targeted for Religion on 10th Anniv of 9/11 ….-*Three mourned after brutal Waltham murde*r ; Newtown shooter toxicology results released ; Whistle blower Joseph Ametrano Reveals Sandy Hook as Staged Event ; Secrecy shrouds Sandy Hook shooting investigation ; Psychiatrist who treated Adam Lanza surrendered license and is now living in New Zealand. ; Adam Lanza's Computer Contained Files on Mass Shootings, Pedophilia Advocacy ; Chilling Call from Adam Lanza to Radio Show Year Before Sandy Hook ; FBI officers went to Adam Lanza's home in 2004 to ask him about how he hacked through two layers of government security but his mom told them 'he's a computer whiz who's just testing himself'

US Terror-Storm Lurking as Possible False Flag Averted … …-Roy Antigua, recently arrested with a plethora of fake ID's, and disguises, including medical smocks, and other outfits.

Sikh Temple Massacre: Army Vet Wade Michael Page Identified as Wisconsin Temple Shooter, 'Psychological operations specialist'; "White Supremacist" Who Spent Time In Eastern Carolina And Ft. Bragg; Sikh temple shooter who gunned down sixwas skinhead 'white supremacist' army vet 'with 9/11 tattoo and was part of race hate group' ; Read The Letter Congress Sent To The Attorney General Months Ago Addressing Hate Crimes Against Sikhs ; Conference of Mayors,

...Calls for Stricter Gun Laws Following Sikh Temple Shooting ; FBI Takes Over the Investigation ; India blames the White House for the Wisconsin Massacre ; Obama: America needs "soul searching" on gun violence ; FBI: Sikh temple shooter Wade Page died of *self-inflicted*gunshot; Obama orders flags at half-staff after Wisconsin shooting ; Wisconsin Sikh Temple mass shooting: FOUR shooters, not one as officially reported

Aurora massacre: several links between James Holmes and U.S. government research (Salk Institute involved in neurologically enhancing soldiers' abilities on battlefield … connections to DARPA); Holmes Family Has Deep DARPA Connections ; A growing number of alternative media publications are now claiming that an October 2011 photograph of an Occupy Wall Street (OWS) protester getting carted off by law enforcement officials in New York is of none other than the Colorado Killer, James Holmes. ; More Signs Point to James E. Holmes As Occupy 'Black Bloc' Member- … Plotted to Kill Cops With Firebombs Just Like Black Bloc Chicago; Picture of Holmes arrested in New York Protest ; Fox Reporter Won't Name Sources in Aurora Shooting Story; Faces Jail

More on the Aurora massacre: Colorado Shooting victims: Was Colorado Shooting Staged By The Government? (video link on YouTube here) New York Times openly admits domestic terror plots masterminded by the FBI; FBI 'entrapment' tactics questioned in web of phony terror plots and paid informants ; FBI intercepts its own terrorist plot against US Capitol, Pentagon ; FBI nabs five mastermind 'geniuses' after teaching them how to blow up a bridge in Cleveland ; New York Times...Terrorist Plots, Hatched by the F.B.I. …-Question: How does an unemployed medical student afford $20,000 in weapons gear? Was there an accomplice? - …Holmes had $26,000 Federal grant for studies …. Colorado theater shooting suspect was neuroscience Ph.D. student: Where does an unemployed, introverted medical school student get the training to deploy sophisticated booby traps, tactical body armor, weapons systems, and more..; Staged just in time for the vote on the UN Small Arms Treaty? Was it part of a deliberate plot like the Fast and Furious Scandal? (see file on Gunrunner-Gate), Obama made sure to visit the victims...-More claims that the shooting was a staged event: Colorado Shooting Patsy Was Under Air Force Psychiatrist's Care ; Real life shooting imitates training exercise at Parker medical school ; Obama orders flags flown at half-staff.

Jenny Gallagher, a nurse who treated victims of the "Batman" shooting in Aurora, Colorado is dead at age 46. The reported cause of death: drowning. Said, she "saw everything at Hospital"

Stephen Ivens FBI special agent : Body Found. Worked in counter terrorism. Is the FBI Investigating Obama? Video: What Really Happened To FBI Special Agent Stephen Ivens ? ; FBI Agent Fleeing Massive Manhunt Warns "They're All Insane" : Speculation of a 'False Flag' operation such as Operation Northwoods. Shortly before his death: Donald Sachtleben, former FBI agent, arrested on child pornography charges. Note: Two Hikers happened to find Ivens' body, but over 100 FBI agents could not. [operation Northwood MKULTRA Cuba]

Eric Holder's Two Decades Of Concealing Murder ; Brother of Murder Victim Seeks Details of FBI's 'Sensitive Informant Program' ; Are FBI Informants Working Inside America's Churches?

Interview with Trentadue's brother: Clinton/Obama/Holder connection to Trentadue murder

> Kenneth Trentadue was born to a family of coal miners and raised in Number 7, a coal camp located between Cucumber, West Virginia, and Horsepen, Virginia. In 1961, when the coal business was facing hard times, Kenneth moved with his family to Orange County, California.

Eric Holder and the Strange Case of Kennth Michael Trentadue (PDF) ; Training Ground For Eric Holder's Fast And Furious Cover-up, Part 1 ; Part 2 ; Part 3 ; Part 4

Obama restores funding to the brutal government of Indonesia. - …(2010) …Widow of Murdered Indonesian Human Rights Activist Munir Calls on Indonesia to Hold His Govt. Killers Responsible … Munir fell suddenly ill: Secret Government Squad blamed -"Kopassus" … who has poisoned political dissidents: Obama grew up in Indonesia during the brutal Suharto years

Following Orders: The Death of Vince Foster, Clinton White House Lawyer

The University of Arkansas School of Law is the law school of the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Arkansas, a state university. It has around 445 students enrolled in its Juris Doctor and Master of Law programs and is home to the nation's first LL.M in agricultural and food law program. Wikipedia

After starting at Vanderbilt University Law School, he joined the Arkansas National Guard during the height of the Vietnam War[2] to avoid the military draft.[3] To be closer to his guard responsibilities, he transferred to the University of Arkansas School of Law,[2] where he was managing editor of the law review.[1] He received his Juris Doctor in 1971, graduating first in his class.[2] He scored the highest in his class on the Arkansas bar exam.[2]

Working Theories ….

Menachem "Max" Stark: Slain slumlord's unpaid debt helped sink Obama's bank ; Who Didn't Want Menachem "Max" Stark Dead? ; Brooklyn landlord murder: police find new clue

Dr. Jim Garrow's Claims, refutations by opponants (labled a fraud) Obama Administration Preparing For Civil War While Searching For Generals To Fire on Americans ; .Interview with

Dr. Jim Garrow details support and threats he's received: "Obama does kill people" ; claims that among the recent murders are Tom Clancy, Andrew Breitbart, and journalist Michael Hastings.- Interview with Alex Jones; Forcing military to resign if they 'refuse to fire on American citizens', disarmament of civilians*,* destruction of the American Democracy, inviting Chinese military to disarm the population, Dr. Jim Garrow: Obama Born in Kenya ; ->; Garrow claims of civil war refuted: accused of being a liar and trafficking children ; Garrow called a pedophile and a liar.: Garrow called a "Hoax", Duped! Hysterical Obama Hoax Shows Zionist Trail … Dr. Jim Garrow Obama Hoax Debunk'd Refutations, by Gordon Duff, Senior Editor Veterans Today. (Nachumlist file of military brass removed by Obama) ; Assassination Attempted on Intel Whistle blower Dr. James Garrow

Brittany Murphy: Report claims Brittany Murphy was poisoned

Dr. Perry Inhofe, son of Senator James Inhoff: Jim Inhofe's orthopedic surgeon son dies piloting private aircraft in fireball crash outside Tulsa, Senator Inhofe is known for his conservative stances on issues such as gay rights, global warming and Obamacare; In 1999 Sen. Inhoff makes emergency landing as the propeller came off his plane. FBI was asked to investigate.

SEAL Team 6 Somali Raid Goes Bad: .Official: Navy SEAL team pulled out when it couldn't capture suspect alive ..did Obama deliberately send SEAL Team 6 into a 'meat grinder'? How the SEAL Raid on Somalia Went Bad ; White House confirms Obama ordered African raids Gungrabbing False Flags?

Charts: Half the deadliest shootings in U.S. history happened in past six years ; see: Obama vs. The 2nd Amendment ; The Gunwalker Scandal ; CIA, mind control & mass shootings - Is there a correlation? ; Microwave Frequency Warfare, The Real Cold War ; Navy Yard shooter thought he was controlled by radio waves: FBI ; Reporters to reveal 'US assassination program' ; Journalists to investigate the NSA's role in 'assassinations program' ; Miriam Carey rams car into the White House and is gunned down,Thought that Obama was "Stalking her": Connecticut woman gunned down in DC believed Obama was communicating with her, report says .. Exercise CAPITAL SHIELD 2014 was ongoing at the same time as the woman's shooting, part of which was training for "law enforcement tactical response" ; The Miriam Carey story was originally picked up by Al-Hurra, a US-funded Arabic news organ. and disseminated by the Guardian. - theory: Carey's attack was performed as law enforcement deployed to resond with personnel who were training for the exact incident. The event was then covered by a non-US news news source and disseminated to U.S. and world media to control the exact description of the narrative. (Miriam Carey) Police pulled child from car THEN executed woman ; Dr. Jim Garrow Claims Obama Asked Military Leaders If They Will "Fire On US Citizens" ; Have Barack Obama and Eric Holder Caused an Increase in Mass Murder?

LAX Shooting of TSA Agent:: LAX Gunman Identified After Airport Shooting Spree ; Did TSA know LAX attack coming? Agents trained for shooting at checkpoint, taught to 'save themselves' ; Police hold active shooter drill at L.A./Ontario International Airport ; TSA was training for checkpoint shooting 9 months ago ; LAX Shooting A Set Up? Police Chief: " … … … We practiced to this; not more than 3 weeks ag*o. We took everyone of our officers, ervery one of our patrol officers, and a couple of hundred officers from the Los Angles Police Department; and we practiced the exact scenario that played out today [we played out today]. And, I was talking to the officers … …." ;* Homeland Security chief says mental illness a "major factor" in Ciancia shooting ; TSA union calls for armed guards at every checkpoint ; Arming TSA officers hits resistance on the Hill ; LAX shooting: TSA officer Hernandez bled for 33 minutes at scene -report …-; Claim the bleeding TSA officer was a fake- LAX TSA Cops Totally Busted in the Worst Fake of All

The Navy Yard Massacre: Washington Navy Yard Shooting: 13 People Confirmed Dead, Including Shooter ; CBS Article page on event ; Navy Yard Shooting Gunman Aaron Alexis Created A Website With Name"“Mohammed Salem” : Administration immediately goes after guns citing the massacre: Obama accuses gun control opponents of fighting to allow ‘dangerous people’ to own guns ; Obama urges new gun law push at CBC Foundation dinner ; Was The Navy Yard Shooting Tied To Obama Being Tried For Treason? ; Was the U.S. government planning to detonate a nuke in Washington DC? The FEMA Washington DC nuclear detonation scenario report (2011, pdf)

Other Working Theory Events

Obama’s Syrian Adventure: Theory: The White House manufactures chemical weapons crisis to invade Syria: Daily Mail (UK) Scrubs Jan 2013 Story fr Site: Obama Planned to Stage Chemical Attack, Blame Assad Regime : See Nachumlist Obama and Syria file ; SYRIA: “No boots on the ground” …but 300 Marines on board USS San Antonio “just in case” ; Did the White House Help Plan the Syrian Chemical Attack? ; Flashback September 2012: Panetta: We’ve Lost Track of Some Syrian Chemical Weapons

Lockerbie Arms/ Benghazi/UK/White House Connections: Theory: Arms and murder connections in Libya transcend administations in a long term program with terrorists, international arms dealers, multiple US administrations foreign countries, and murder for hire. Britain: Lockerbie bomber release linked to arms deal, according to secret letter ; Email links Lockerbie bomber’s prison transfer to £400m Libyan arms deal ; The Czech connection In 1991 the Czech weapons factories were “de-centralized” and began business as free market companies. In 1992, Ceská zbrojovka a.s.(PLC), Uherský Brod became private, moving into the free world economy and eventually establishing a small arms presence in over 60 countries. In 1997 CZUB established a permanent presence in the United States with the founding of CZ-USA. CZUB and CZ-USA continue to expand and dominate the small arms market world wide, with military, police, defensive, sporting and recreational firearms. The CZUB factory employs some 2000+ engineers, craftsmen and business personnel, making it one of the largest firearms manufacturers in the world. Czech … ….one of biggest buyers of meth …perhaps 10% of population: Czech Republic leads Europe in meth labs. Czech arms dealer attacked- Czech fugitive survives James Bond-style attack in South Africa ; South Africa connection South Africa … … … ….gold traded for arms … … ….Canadian/Israeli gold mining companies managing many SA mines. Krejcir gets 11 years for fraud

State District Judge Tom Greenwell; Nueces County sheriff: Judge found dead at courthouse: suicide; Nueces County sheriff: 'Strong leads' on Judge Greenwell's suicide motive

Phillip Marshall; Murders Children & Self in CA, 9/11 Conspiracy Author, Each had been shot once in the head with a handgun, as was the family's dog. Phillip Marshall has been identified as a former pilot for Eastern and United airlines. He self-published a number of books, including at least two about his 9/11 conspiracy theories: "The Big Bamboozle" (February 9, 2012) and "False Flag 911: How Bush, Cheney and the Saudis Created the Post-911 World" (July 29, 2008). Additional information: A previous novel published in 2003, "Lakefront Airport, New Orleans," detailed his claimed experience as a pilot for the US during Iran/Contra. claims to have served as a contract pilot for the CIA's Special Activities Division during the Iran-Contra affair, flying shipments to and from Nicaragua.; "100% Certain": 9/11 Author Was Killed in Black Ops Hit ; CIA Killed Phillip Marshall for Leaking 9/11 Secrets: Dr. Kevin Barrett

Trayvon Martin Riots?: Documents Detail the Dept of Justice's Role in Organizing Trayvon Martin Protests; New Black Panther Party alledgedly busing mobs to Sanford, Florida for expected riots ; Sanford Police Prepare for Zimmerman Riots ; Twitter reports of whites killed in N Miami over Zimmerman verdict ; Protests erupt from coast to coast after George Zimmerman goes FREE: Times Square swarmed and Los Angles

freeway mobbed in second day of demonstrations ; Little Rock Police kill possible unarmed suspect, crowd starts yelling "Trayvon Martin" … ; Witness claims youths yelled 'this is for Trayvon' in beating ; Zimmerman's parents in hiding from 'enormous amount of death threats' ; Police say Jogger Attacked in Wake of Zimmerman Verdict ;Teens with Free Zimmerman bumper sticker slaughtered in Jacksonville ; DOJ solicits email tips in Zimmerman civil rights probe ; John Fahy: suicide MSNBC Analyst Found Dead From Self-Inflicted Gunshot Wound

Indiana Fertilizer Plant Explosion Kills 1: UNION MILLS, Ind. - An explosion at a fertilizer plant in northwest Indiana has killed one person.

Waco Fertilizer Plant fire explodes. Theory: Object seen on video coming in and ignigting a great explosion- WATCH - Call To Debunkers For Newest Conspiracy Theory: 'Object' Slams Into Waco Plant, Causing Explosion . Event occurs shortly after Boston Marathon Massacre. ; Texas plant explosion a bombing? Officials open up criminal investigation after man found with 'destructive device'

Boston Brakes: Assassination by car accidents

Does Obama murder people? …Interview with Dr. Jim Garrow details support and threats he's received: "Obama does kill people" (audio) ;Blogger overhears intel officials saying NSA leaker should be 'disappeared' (See Obama and Your Privacy) : Code name 'Verax': Snowden, in exchanges with Post reporter, made clear he knew risks- The U.S. intelligence community, he wrote, "will most certainly kill you if they think you are the single point of failure that could stop this disclosure and make them the sole owner of this information."

U.S. Crew Members: on KC-135 Tanker Dead in crash. 3rd US Military Support Plane Crashes In Afghanistan In Less Than A Week, 3 Crew From Crash Not Yet Found: Bodies Of Two Crew Members Found At Kyrgyz Crash Site

Sunil Tripathi: (Boston Massacre Suspect)Missing student's body possibly located in Providence river Police in Providence fished a body out of the river they believe may belong to missing student …Reddit Thread, speculation on why Tripathi went missing

Anne Smedinghoff, young U.S. diplomat killed in an attack in southern Afghanistan: Shades of Benghazi: State Department changes story on Afghanistan blast that killed diplomat ; Assassination Incorporated 1600 Penn Avenue: The Smedinghoff Murder- author claims that the White House and NSA directed an assassination of Smedinghoff.

ICE Union Boss: Obama Doesn't Care If Immigration Enforcement Officers Die

Tim Russert: Died of a massive heart attack … just before the 2008 presidential debates, that he might have moderated.

Liz Cheney Lied About Her Role in Spreading the Discredited CIA "Russian Bounty" Story retrieved from Glenn Greenwald and copied or modified to here

In an interview on Tuesday with Fox News' Bret Baier, Rep. Liz Cheney (R-WY) denied that she spread the discredited CIA "Russian bounty" story.

That CIA tale, claiming Russia was paying Taliban fighters to kill U.S. troops in Afghanistan, was cooked up by the CIA and then published by The New York Times on June 27 of last year, right as former President Trump announced his plans to withdraw troops from Afghanistan. The Times story, citing anonymous intelligence officials, was then continually invoked by pro-war Republicans and Democrats - led by Cheney - to justify their blocking of that troop withdrawal. The story was discredited when the U.S. intelligence community admitted last month that it had only “low to moderate confidence” that any of this even happened.

When Baier asked Cheney about her role in spreading this debunked CIA story, Cheney blatantly lied to him, claiming “if you go back and look at what I said - every single thing I said: I said if those stories are true, we need to know why the President and Vice President were not briefed on them.” After Baier pressed her on the fact that she vested this story with credibility, Cheney insisted a second time that she never endorsed the claim but merely spoke conditionally, always using the “if these reports are true” formulation. Watch Cheney deny her role in spreading that story.

> MR. RUSSERT: What, specifically, has [Saddam] obtained that you believe would enhance his nuclear development program?
> …..
>
> VICE PRES. CHENEY: Now, in the case of a nuclear weapon, that means either plutonium or highly enriched uranium. And what we’ve seen recently that has raised our level of concern to the current state of unrest, if you will, if I can put it in those terms, is that he now is trying, through his illicit procurement network, to acquire the equipment he needs to be able to enrich uranium to make the bombs.
>
> MR. RUSSERT: Aluminum tubes.
>
> VICE PRES. CHENEY: Specifically aluminum tubes. There’s a story in The New > York Times this morning this is - I don't - and I want to attribute The Times. I don't want to talk about, obviously, specific intelligence sources, but it's now public that, in fact, [Saddam] has been seeking to acquire, and we have been able to intercept and prevent him from acquiring through this particular channel, the kinds of tubes that are necessary to build a centrifuge. And the centrifuge is required to take low-grade uranium and enhance it into highly enriched uranium, which is what you have to have in order to build a bomb.

So having CIA stories leak to the press that fuel the pro-war case, then having pro-war politicians cite those to justify their pro-war position, is a Cheney Family speciality.

On July 1, the House Armed Services Committee, of which Rep. Cheney is a member, debated amendments to the National Defense Authorization Act, the bill that authorized $740.5 billion in military spending. One of Cheney's top priorities was to align with the Committee's pro-war Democrats, funded by weapons manufacturers, to block Trump's plan to withdraw all U.S. troops from Afghanistan by the end of 2020 and to withdraw roughly 1/3 of the 34,000 U.S. troops in Germany.

Sex And Murder In The Land Of Obama?: Unknown gay partner of Obama murdered? Tale of alleged witness

DENNIS PATRICK

Mr. Patrick managed to escape with his life, but only after four documented attempts to murder him. Without his prior knowledge, millions of dollars were laundered through his account at Lasater & Company, the brokerage firm owned by the pardoned cocaine dealer Dan Lasater. Patrick has an extensive paper trail in his possession, but has since gone into hiding. *

Google search

U.S. v. Agofsky, 20 F.3d 866 | Casetext Search + Citatorcasetext.com › … › 8th Cir. › Ct. App. › 1994 › April Apr 1, 1994 The HONORABLE JOHN R. GIBSON was Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit at the time this case was …

Shannon Agofsky Admitted He Killed Banker, Jury Told … tulsaworld.com › archive › shannon-agofsky-admitted-he … Aug 13, 1997 - Wayne Pennington told a Payne County jury hearing the first-degree murder case against Agofsky, 26, and his older brother Joseph, 31, that he …

Jury Told How Killing Occurred | Archive | tulsaworld.comtulsaworld.com › archive › jury-told-how-killing-occurred Feb 26, 2019 - Long said Agofsky told him that he had “confided too much about the case and trusted him (Fitzpatrick) too much.” At Agofsky’s request, Long said …

WSJ Who Is Dan Lasater?

August 7 1995

CHICAGO - Last week, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. issued a report criticizing Little Rock’s Rose Law Firm for conflicts of interest in representing the government. It was harsh on convicted felon Webster

Hubbell in one case, and in another laid much responsibility on the late Vincent Foster. But it minimized the role of a third partner, Hillary Rodham Clinton, on questions about her relationship with drug convict Dan Lasater and Rose's role in suing him on behalf of the government and First American Savings & Loan of Oak Brook, a Chicago suburb.

The FDIC didn't exactly say Mrs. Clinton had no conflict of interest, but it did say that in the First American case she billed for only two hours, reviewing some work in the absence of Mr. Foster, the lead attorney. It said Mrs. Clinton met Mr. Lasater only twice, though he had contributed $16,000 to her husband's gubernatorial campaigns and had a close friendship with Virginia Kelley, Mr. Clinton's mother, and Roger Clinton, Mr. Clinton's half brother. It said that in the end Mr. Foster got a settlement of $200,000 from Mr. Lasater, against a loss to the thrift of $361,000 - not at all bad by the standards of bankrupt thrifts. There seems little reason to doubt that these facts are accurate, as far as they go.

TD Yet some time probing the affairs of First American here in Chicago suggests that the FDIC's bland recitation conceals a much more interesting story. First American of Oak Brook - not to be confused with the First American Bank in Washington illicitly owned by the Bank of Credit and Commerce International - happened to be owned by former Illinois Gov. Dan Walker, like Mr. Lasater now an ex-con. The $361,000 figure was established in a lawsuit by Mr. Walker against Mr. Lasater for unauthorized trading of Treasury bonds. Mr. Lasater's defense was that the trades were authorized and there was no breach of fiduciary relationship. But in a broader sense, given Mr. Lasater's financial relations with First American and Gov. Walker, he may have had reason to believe he owned the bank. Court records relating to Mr. Lasater's curious trades with First American also suggest that he may have taken more than the disputed $361,000 out of the thrift. And, to connect the Illinois affair with the probe of Little Rock's Madison Guaranty, the savings and loan at the heart of the Whitewater scandal being aired in congressional hearings this week, there's reason to wonder whether Mr. Lasater was doing the same thing with Madison, where he also held a trading account.

Other Dead Pool Lists

Crossing Obama Can Be Deadly

Robert Horan on Twitter

AKDart

Sightings

http://scribblguy.50megs.com/clintdead.htm

This book

Vatican Too

DARPA DEFENSE ADVANCED RESEARCH PROJECTS AGENCY ABOUT US

Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency › Program Information

DARPA and the Brain Initiative

[image]

subject matter retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Laura Ann Branigan (July 3, 1952[nb 1] - August 26, 2004)[6] was an American singer, songwriter, and actress. Her signature song, the platinum-certified 1982 single “Gloria”, stayed on the U.S. Billboard Hot 100 for 36 weeks, then a record for a female artist, peaking at No. 2. It also reached number one in Australia and Canada. In 1984, she reached number one in Canada and Germany with the U.S. No. 4 hit “Self Control”. She also had success in the United Kingdom with both “Gloria” and “Self Control” making the Top 10 in the UK Singles Chart.

Branigan and her music saw renewed popularity and public interest in 2019 in the US after “Gloria” was adopted by the NHL’s St. Louis Blues as their unofficial victory song

Tozzi recorded one of his most famous songs, “Gloria”, which became a major hit in Italy in 1979 and 1980. Jonathan King wrote English lyrics for the song, which became popular in the UK as well in 1979, and was sung and recorded by the English singer Elkie Brooks in 1980. A cover version of the song by the American singer Laura Branigan in 1982 caused the song to grow in popularity in the US as well. Branigan worked with the arranger and keyboardist of Tozzi's own version, Greg Mathieson, to give the song what she called "an American kick."[

Jonathan King (born Kenneth George King, 6 December 1944 is an English singer-songwriter, record producer, music entrepreneur, and former television and radio presenter. He first came to prominence in 1965 when "Everyone's Gone to the Moon"

Gloria, you're always on the run now
Running after somebody, you gotta get him somehow
I think you've got to slow down before you start to blow it
I think you're headed for a breakdown, so be careful not to show it
You really don't remember, was it something that he said?
Are the voices in your head calling, Gloria?
Gloria, don't you think you're fallin'?
If everybody wants you, why isn't anybody callin'?
You don't have to answer
Leave them hangin' on the line, oh oh oh, calling Gloria Gloria (Gloria), I think they got your number (Gloria)
I think they got the alias (Gloria) that you've been living under (Gloria)
But you really don't remember, was it something that they said?
Are the voices in your head calling, Gloria?
A ha ha, a ha ha, Gloria, how's it gonna go down?
Will you meet him on the main line, or will you catch him on the rebound?
Will you marry for the money, take a lover in the afternoon?
Feel your innocence slipping away, don't believe it's comin' back soon
And you really don't remember, was it something that he said?

Are the voices in your head calling, Gloria?
Gloria, don't you think you're fallin'?
If everybody wants you, why isn't anybody callin'?
You don't have to answer
Leave them hangin' on the line, oh-oh-oh, calling Gloria Gloria (Gloria), I think they got your number (Gloria)
I think they got the alias (Gloria) that you've been living under (Gloria)
But you really don't remember, was it something that they said?
Are the voices in your head calling, Gloria?

I Edward Paul Donegan only remember once my father trying to track down a pop song, asking me about he heard, this one.

Micheal Jackson Born: August 29, 1958, Gary, IN Died: June 25, 2009, and Jimi Hendrix November 27, 1942 - September 18, 1970)

Kingdom of Sanwi is a traditional kingdom located in the south-east corner of the Republic of Ivory Coast in West Africa. It was established in about 1740 by Anyi migrants from Ghana. In 1843 the kingdom became a protectorate of France. In 1959 it was merged with Ivory Coast and at that time the tribal population was estimated to be around 40,000 people in 119 settlements.

The kingdom received much attention after declaring American singer Michael Jackson to be the King of the Sanwi in 1992. Reciprocal visits by Michael Jackson and King Amon N'Douffou IV were made to Krindjabo and Los Angeles respectively. After Jackson's death in 2009, an elaborate two-day funeral was held in Sanwi. Jesse Jackson (no relation) was declared prince in August of that year when he was crowned Prince Nana by Amon N'Douffou V, Amon N'Douffou IV's successor as king of Sanwi.

Amon N'Douffou V (born Enan Eboua Koutoua Francis) is king of the Kingdom of Sanwi in Ivory Coast, Africa. He was enthroned August 5, 2005, which was reported by AllAfrica.com to result in “popular jubilation”.[1][2][3] The coronation, held in Krinjabo, took three days.[

His Majesty Amon N’Douffou V in 2017 (center, dressed in gold)

In August 2009, Amon N’Douffou V named American pastor Jesse Jackson a prince of the Kingdom of Sanwi. Jackson was the second to receive the title after American singer Michael Jackson received the same honor from Amon N’Douffou IV.

Jackson was born as Kattie B. Screws[1][2] on May 4, 1930 in Barbour County, Clayton, Alabama, the eldest of two daughters to Martha (née Upshaw; December 14, 1902 - April 29, 1990) and Prince Albert Screws (October 16, 1907 - January 21, 1997). Jackson contracted polio at age two, which left her with a noticeable permanent limp. In 1934, her father changed his surname to ‘Scruse’, and renamed his daughter “Katherine Esther”.[2]

1958-1975: Early life and the Jackson 5

The single-story house has white walls, two windows, a central white door with a black door frame, and a black roof. In front of the house there is a walkway and multiple colored flowers and memorabilia.

Jackson’s childhood home in Gary, Indiana, pictured in March 2010 with floral tributes after his death

Michael Joseph Jackson[7][8] was born in Gary, Indiana, near Chicago, on August 29, 1958.He was the eighth of ten children in the Jackson family, a working-class African-American family living in a two-bedroom house on Jackson Street.

His mother, Katherine Esther Jackson (née Scruse), played clarinet and piano, had aspired to be a country-and-western performer, and worked part-time at Sears.[13] She was a Jehovah's Witness.[14] His father, Joseph Walter "Joe" Jackson, a former boxer, was a crane operator at U.S. Steel and played guitar with a local rhythm and blues band, the Falcons, to supplement the family's income.

James Marshall "Jimi" Hendrix was an American musician, singer, and songwriter. Although his mainstream career spanned only four years, he is widely regarded as one of the most influential electric guitarists in the history of popular music, and one of the most celebrated musicians of the 20th century. Wikipedia Born: November 27, 1942, Seattle, WA

Jimi Hendrix's mixed genealogy included African American, Irish, and Cherokee ancestors. His paternal grandmother, Zenora "Nora" Rose Moore, was African American and one-quarter Cherokee.[4][nb 1] Hendrix's paternal grandfather, Bertran Philander Ross Hendrix (born 1866), was born out of an extramarital affair between a woman named Fanny and a grain merchant from Urbana, Ohio, or Illinois, one of the wealthiest men in the area at that time.

In 1979, college students at the campus newspaper of Santa Barbara University (USB) filed for release of FBI files on Hendrix. Six heavily inked-out pages were released to the student reporters. (The deletions nixed information "currently and properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 11652, in the interest of national defense of foreign policy.")

Neil Bush

Foundation for Interreligious and Intercultural Research and Dialogue Bush was a founding director, along with Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger (the future Pope Benedict XVI), of the Foundation for Interreligious and Intercultural Research and Dialogue (FIIRD). The foundation promotes ecumenical understanding and publishes religious texts and was founded in 1999. Bush is no longer on the board of the foundation.[21]

Anti-Ritalin campaign

In 2002, Neil Bush told the New York Post that he "endured his own Ritalin hell seven years ago when educators in a Houston private school diagnosed his son, Pierce, (then) 16, with Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD) and pushed medication."

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

My experience in San Francisco, Arlington VA, and COrpus CHristi Texas, Austin TX too is that the social services including with Religious Services as part of it and creating the gangstalk. This does not seem unusual.

Revealed it Is! Randy Weaver is told to go to court on the wrong day, road-blockings his being at the real February 20 1991 hearing he was NOT told about by likely impersonated or misrepresented at

> WEAVER WAS PRACTICE FOR WACO
>
> Many consider the BATF entrapment of white separatist Randy Weaver, the 1992 federal marshal attack that killed his son, the FBI sniper attack that killed his wife, and the FBI's eleven day siege to have been merely practice for the massive attack against the Davidians. Since the same crew of FBI agents and officials are responsible for the massacre of the Davidians, it is useful to look closely at that case.
>
> White separatist Randy Weaver had retreated to rural

> Idaho with his wife, Vicki, four children and a family friend, Kevin Harris.12/ In 1990 a BATF undercover agent entrapped Weaver into selling him two illegally sawed-off shotguns for $300. Weaver alleges BATF charged him after he refused to inform on other white separatists. The government then gave him the wrong date for a court hearing, March 20 instead of February 20, 1991. Disgusted, Weaver decided to end all contact with the judicial system. *

When I first came out to Corpus Christi TX there were stories in the news of petty thefts, etc., at the Golds on South Staples ST. I said a swwrm of riff raff was following me I suspected from Virginia Social Services and their activity in the area was likely to be attributed to me and make me look bad by my also being in the area.

> Who's murdering all the COVID scientists?
> 12/27/2020 / By Ethan Huff / Comments
> Bypass censorship by sharing this link:
> https://www.hangthecensors.com/485082.html
> Who's murdering all the COVID scientists?
>
> Doctors, scientists and other medical experts involved with research into the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) are mysteriously turning up dead all around the world in what appears to be a mass culling of people who know too much truth about the plandemic.

One of the latest deaths was that of Alexander "Sasha" Kagansky, a Russian scientist who had been working on developing a COVID-19 vaccine when he was brutally stabbed and thrown from the window of his 14th floor apartment in St. Petersburg.

Reports indicate that Kagansky died "under strange circumstances," an understatement considering the nature and timing of his demise.

Kagansky had recently been awarded a grant by the Russian government to investigate new ways of diagnosing and treating brain tumors. He was also a vocal advocate for natural remedies like herbs and mushrooms that are known to help kill cancer cells.

Back in January, we reported on Plummer's connections to a communist Chinese spy ring that appears to have been responsible for stealing coronavirus strains from a Canadian lab and taking them to Wuhan.

Professor Bing Liu from the University of Pittsburgh is another relevant scientist who was murdered this year, in this case right before he could go public with a new breakthrough concerning the nature of COVID-19.

"Bing was on the verge of making very significant findings toward understanding the cellular mechanisms that underlie SARS-CoV-2 infection and the cellular basis of the following complications," reads a statement from his colleagues within the Department of Computational and Systems Biology.

Then we have Gita Ramjee, an HIV scientist who supposedly died from COVID-19 while visiting London to deliver a lecture about HIV treatment and prevention. Upon returning to Durban, she reportedly felt unwell and went to the hospital, where she died not long thereafter.

A World Health Organization (WHO) driver named Pyae Sone Win Maung also died back in May while transporting coronavirus samples for the United Nations. He had been driving a well-marked U.N. vehicle at the time when shots were fired, killing him and injuring another passenger.

Vaccine whistleblower Brandy Vaughan, a former sales executive from Merck & Co. and founder of LearnTheRisk.org, was also found dead in her home earlier this month beside her nine-year-old son. Vaughan had been working hard to educate the public about vaccine safety risks.

An Inmate Claims that James Holmes Confessed that he was "Programmed to Kill" (Vigilant Citizen news *

> In a not-very-publicized article from the Denver Westword, Unruh indeed claims that Holmes told him that he was programmed to kill by an "evil therapist" - a very simple term describing what might have been his trauma-based mind control handler. He also reportedly added that "he felt like he was in a video game" during the shooting (which is somewhat how one feels when an alter persona is triggered) , that "he wasn't on his meds" and "nobody would help him."

U.S. troops among victims of Colorado movie shooting
retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

U.S. troops were among the casualties in the shooting rampage at the Colorado movie theater, including a sailor who was listed as unaccounted for, the Pentagon said Friday.

he Defense Department released a statement that said one sailor was injured and another one, known to have been at the theater, was unaccounted for. Two airmen were wounded in the incident, it said.

Buckley AFB in Aurora, Colorado, is the closest military base to the scene of the shootings. Spokesman Master Sgt. Jill Lavoie said some of the wounded were from Buckley.

About 10,000 troops - including members of the Air Force, Army and Marine Corps - are stationed at Buckley. Soon after the shooting, the base initiated a head count, Lavoie said.

One of the units on base is the 743rd Military Intelligence Battalion.

Colorado's strong space, defense industries continue to act as magnet for companies retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

By JUDITH KOHLER | jkohler©denverpost.com | The Denver Post February 21, 2020 at 12:00 p.m.

When Booz Allen Hamilton was looking to expand its operations in Colorado, Aurora made sense because of its proximity to Buckley Air Force Base.

Colorado's profile as a stronghold for the aerospace and defense industries would be further elevated if U.S. Space Command, temporarily sited at Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado Springs, is permanently located in Colorado. Four of the six bases in the running are in Colorado: Buckley, Peterson, Cheyenne Mountain Air Force Station and Schriever Air Force Base in Colorado.

President Donald Trump launched Space Force in December as the first new military service in more than 70 years. The headquarters will be in the Pentagon. Trump, in his visit to Colorado Springs on Thursday, said he would make a decision on Space Command's location by the end of the year.

The prospect of the location of the Space Command in Colorado adds another layer to Aurora's draw for businesses like Booz Allen and others involved with space and defense, said Andrea Tilliss, marketing manager for the Aurora Economic Development Council.

"We think that it would be a perfect fit for Buckley," Tilliss said.

Jared Loughner seemed to pick up a grudge against Garbriel

Gifford in Aug 2007 about representing secret unconstitutional activities, and later in 2011 opened fire on her. He asserted he was fighting MK Mind Control.

> Christian Karl Gerhartsreiter (born February 21, 1961) is a convicted murderer and impostor. Born in Germany, he is currently serving a prison sentence in California. In his late teens, Gerhartsreiter moved to the US, where he lived under a succession of aliases while variously claiming to be an actor, director, art collector, a physicist, a ship's captain, a negotiator of international debt agreements, and an English aristocrat. *
>
> In 1995 while using the assumed identity "Clark Rockefeller," claiming to be part of the noted Rockefeller family, he married a successful businesswoman, Sandra Boss.
>
> Country United States State(s) Massachusetts, California Location(s) Boston, Massachusetts

Adan Lanza shoots up Sandyhook Dec 14

> Document:MKULTRA Links To The Sandy Hook Assault …wikispooks.com › wiki › Document:MKULTRA_Links … Feb 24, 2020 - 1.1 Mind Control in Connecticut: Catcher in the Rye; 1.2 CIA Partners with Organized … Newtown, like Fairfield and Stamford, is part of the Diocese of … Adam Lanza fits the profile of a pedophile-ring recruit, young enough to …
>
> The Motive: Payback for a Double-Cross If the culprits

had been Adam Lanza and his pals, then their response to grounding would have been something like posting photos and address of naked children. The method of the shooting point-blank execution-style gun shots indicate that the assailants were professional hit men, probably allied with the Winter Hill Gang.

The Sandy Hook assault happened probably because of a split between competing institutions and diverging policies. On one hand, the gangland figures who cooperated with CIA mind-control program that promoted child-sex as a means of ensuring obedience and secrecy were being challenged by politicians playing up parental demands to clean up the scandalous child-sex problem in Connecticut.

The dirty FBI agent John Connelly was more of a double agent and go-between for the Feds and not simply a Winter Hill mole as portrayed at his sentencing. The arrest of Whitey Bulger was a pure-and-simple double-cross by the FBI and CIA, who had used him as an ally in MKULTRA and informant for more than a half-century. In his ambitious drive to win a U.S. senatorial seat, state attorney general and now Senator Blumenthal broke the basic rules of mob cooperation. And now that has led to a war on the streets and in the schools. *

Agency-Spawned Pedophiles

The MKULTRA program that reached into campuses across Connecticut quickly created a human garbage heap of wrecked minds and twisted souls. The child abuse and drugs routinely administered to young trainees led to a permanent social fixture of sadism and sexual abuse throughout New England from the gutter up to the governing class.

In 2011, a Newtown resident named Edwin Wilson > was arrested for having a months-long sexual relationship with a 4-year-old girl and producing child-porn videos of their sexual encounters. The arrest was a part of a wide crackdown order the state attorney general, Richard Blumenthal which boosted his successful campaign in the U.S. Senate race.

The Gangstalk I have experienced getting me "into the system" through violence launched at me through "Bird Dogging mental health patients

The are easy for the Government to recruit and use as assassins since they are difficult to prosecute criminally and wouldn't mind "three hots and a cot" for life either, thus are the main CIA tool for hits.

It especially helps when the mental health inmate is told he going to be a vigilante against a child molester, white supremacist, snitch, or some other way a prison snitch is reflexively controlled to manipulate him or her to attack a fellow prisoner as State backed "social good."

That is the supposed peer level prisoner to prisoner fights. At the layer above that Social Services is staging and provoking the fights and often staging includes planting evidence related to the fight, phony witnesses who claim to be neutral, etc., such that the VICTIM of the fight is regarded as the PROVOKER of the fight and te victim ends up on custody and seems to be paranoid, bipolar, or schizophrenically in fights with ghosts or delusions or delusions about people.

I call that Rigged Rorschach in the Face Ploy. A tot or teen scarf "twerks" near me, I complain about it, and enreaged peole ask me why I was looking!

The insane situation towards a person creates a seemingly insane or paranoid comment from the person seeing the situation.

Thus the operator of social services gets their existing clients to act in odd ways near a new person an the new person describing the odd behavior suddenly is also a client of social services.

Fraud is intentional Deception of protection of fallback explanations of Bunco activities. Various sources copied or modified to here “Street Theater” also known as Gangstalk creates deceitful appearances. The Bunco, the Fraud, uses apparent or seeming inculpatory circumstances surrounding me such as who is present or what is being said which would seem to be suggestive I am involved and a part of activities near me or referred by people near me.

Upon my challenge of the suggestiveness the fallback of those using vague and deceitful acts claim the acts were not suggestive but really something else; for instance, the comment they made was intended for someone else such as the dog they were walking the person they were on the phone with, etc.,.and was not meant to reference or include me after all.

Despite Gangstalk refutation when I challenge them the suggestive statement or acts surrounding me are clearly intended to suggest I am involved in seeking an adult model, or seeking a minor who is going to pose for me, though I am doing neither.

The scheme using and impersonator of me who rather than refute the activities will, as me, later participate in the activities and authenticate and participate in the actives, though forging my identity and agreement to and participation in those activities I refute.

The entirety of the scheme seems to be that Social Services Workers are using their double of me to get caught in disreputable and mentally ill acts, and in doing so, get caught by adult entertainers who will prompt the impersonator of me to sign my assets over to Social Services recipients.

An added element, other than the property rights tranfers, is the defamation to my political, religious, and intellectual worth as the Dopple and the dapples acts are taken for my own.

fraud

In law, fraud is intentional deception to secure unfair or unlawful gain, or to deprive a victim of a legal right. Fraud can violate civil law (i.e., a fraud victim may sue the fraud perpetrator to avoid the fraud or recover monetary compensation), a criminal law (i.e., a fraud perpetrator may be prosecuted and imprisoned by governmental authorities), or it may cause no loss of money, property or legal right but still be an element of another civil or criminal wrong.[1] The purpose of fraud may be monetary gain or other benefits, for example by obtaining a passport, travel document, or driver's license, or mortgage fraud, where the perpetrator may attempt to qualify for a mortgage by way of false statements.[2]

hoax

A hoax is a distinct concept that involves deliberate deception without the intention of gain or of materially damaging or depriving a victim.

inculpate

accuse or blame. "he blamed himself, but also inculpated his fiancée" incriminate. “someone placed the pistol in your room in order to inculpate you”

suggestive (Google Knowledge Panel) tending to suggest an idea. “there were various suggestive pieces of evidence” - Google Knowledge Panel indicative or evocative. “flavors suggestive of coffee and blackberry” making someone think of sex and sexual relationships . “a suggestive remark” fallback (Definitions from Oxford Languages) an alternative plan that may be used in an emergency.

a reduction or retreat.

Bunco and Bunko Squads From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Bunco was re-popularized as a gambling game, often associated with a speakeasy. Law-enforcement groups raiding these parlors came to be known as “Bunco squads”. Bunco as a family game saw a resurgence in popularity in the 1980s

Organized racial crime targeting me in the legal system supported by the Media fits a larger agenda my family story is a part of

Things, teams of people like behavioral health care workers, teams of them, my surroundings and cities, those who happen to be the company reps of companies as CSRs, landlords and neighbors, all shit demographically to black who express envy of me on the one hand but undermine my rights to gain the upper hand in claiming my assets as managers of them or faking claims to my genome via conflicts they initiate and I am blamed for.

This seems to fit that my father and mother had places in history as my parents parents have places in history and now powerful historic figures are using an architected but fraudulent system to claim the distribution rights and substantive rights to my genome and in this scheme of covert actors duplicitously placing themselves in forms of proximity to me are interested in false claim mechanisms to my genome, claim by processor and substance are falsely gained rights to my genome.

The switch-out scheme is that under claims I a retarded savant of abnormal mental function then those who care for those of abnormal mental function should manage my genome.

In fact this allows my normal and beneficial brain genes to then be transferred “transfusion” style from patient to patient on the Behavioral Health Care system of patients.

The entirety of the system is based on fraud but the desperate need for the fraud is motivated by the dark secrets of MKULTRA which need to be covered up, the truth of my genome and how and who can or has used it.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here > rely

> have confidence or faith in
>
> To rely is to have confidence in something. You might rely on staying in bed to make you feel better and rely on your friends to tell you everything you missed when you were sick.

THose who are supposed to be reliable people, reliable social services, helping the retarded are supposed to be worthy of that trust in both the ethics and legitimacy of the operation and that those under their conservatorship are being helped rather than exploited.

My subsumption into the system has been manipulated based on the systems interest in controlling and exploiting my genome, including hampering my own normal life and use of it and receipt of the value of it.

Wayne Madsen Report

(I cite this because Wayne Madison has elements of the story which is that DARPA Brain Eugenics and Foreign Economies work has a secret and influential effect on or connections to various events.) Wayne Madison has disseminated a lot of information on Barrack Omaba origins and the Human Brain DARPA program.

Aurora massacre: several links between James Holmes and U.S. government research (Salk Institute involved in neurologically enhancing soldiers' abilities on battlefield … connections to DARPA)

James Holmes, the 24-year old suspect in the mass shooting of Batman "The Dark Knight Rises" movie goers in Aurora, Colorado that left 12 people dead and 58 injured, has had a number of links to U.S. government-funded research centers. Holmes's past association with government research projects has prompted police and federal law enforcement officials to order laboratories and schools with which Holmes has had a past association not to talk to the press about Holmes.

Holmes was one of six recipients of a National Institutes of Health Neuroscience Training Grant at the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus in Denver. Holme is a graduate of the University of California at Riverside with a Bachelor of Science degree in neuroscience.

Although Holmes dropped out of the PhD neuroscience program at Anschutz in June, police evacuated two buildings at the Anschutz center after the massacre at the Aurora movie theater. Holmes reportedly gave a presentation at the Anschutz campus in May on Micro DNA Biomarkers in a class titled "Biological Basis of Psychiatric and Neurological Disorders."*

Charles Joseph Epstein (September 3, 1933 - February 15, 2011)[1][2][3] of Tiburon, California, was a geneticist who was severely injured in 1993 when he became a victim of a mail bomb attack by the Unabomber. He was a researcher at the University of California, San Francisco and the Buck Institute for Age Research. Fields Medical genetics Institutions University of Washington (Seatle) University of California, San Francisco Buck Institute for Age Research Wikipedia

Epstein was the president of the American Society of Human Genetics in 1996 and the editor-in-chief of the American Journal of Human Genetics from 1986 to 1993.[7] (He became the official editor-in-chief on the 1st of July 1986[8] and was severely injured in June 1993.)

Edwin Dennis Kilbourne (July 10, 1920 - February 21, 2011[1]) was an American research scientist. Born in Buffalo, New York, he received his AB and MD degrees from Cornell University. After completion of service in the Medical Corps of the Army of the United States at the end of World War II, he trained in virus research at The Rockefeller Institute. Subsequently, he has taught successively on the faculties of four medical schools: Tulane, Cornell, Mount Sinai (as Chairman of the Department of Microbiology and Distinguished Service Professor), and New York Medical College. (as Research, then Emeritus, Professor).

As one of the country's leaders in biomedical science during the latter 20th century, Kilbourne was elected to the National Academy of Sciences, the Association of American Physicians and the American Philosophical Society. Kilbourne has served on advisory committees to the National Institutes of Health, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research of the FDA. In the late 1970s he developed and chaired a series of published workshops on influenza for the NIH. He has also worked with the pharmaceutical industry in the development and trials of a new, experimental influenza vaccine.

Kilbourne has also had a lifelong interest in non-scientific writing and has published humorous verses and essays in magazines for the general public. These have been inspired by whimsical news items gleaned from the press - most of them dealing with the often bizarre mating habits of sub-human species.[3] They all meet together in Strategies of Sex, a work of humorous poetry published in 2005.[citation needed]

Charles Epstein (geneticist) From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia Epstein began his work in medical genetics - the application of genetics research to human care -in a fellowship with Arno Motulsky,[4] one of the founders of medical genetics, at his Seattle University of Washington lab. While there, Epstein worked to understand the nature of Werner's syndrome, a genetic disease that causes premature aging.[5]

He is most notable for conducting groundbreaking research on Down syndrome.[6] In 1967 he became the chairman of the medical genetics division in the pediatrics department of UC San Francisco. He did research on making a mouse model for Down syndrome.

Died November 19 - Ira Michael Heyman, lawyer and college administrator (b. 1930)Ira Michael Heyman (May 30, 1930 - November 19, 2011) was a Professor of Law and of City and Regional Planning, and was Chancellor of University of California, Berkeley, and Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.[1][2][3][4]

During his Berkeley years he became a member of the Bohemian Club, at which his closest associates included Caspar Weinberger, who was Ronald Reagan's Secretary of Defense.

Stephen Heymann - Wikipediaen.wikipedia.org › wiki › Stephen_Heymann Stephen P. Heymann is an attorney who formerly served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts. He is no longer with the U.S. Attorney's … Personal · Career · NASA computer hack · TJX identity theft (and Boston Bombing)

Oct 10, 2020 - Stephen P. Heymann is the Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division for the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts and …

Heymann's conduct in the prosecution of Internet activist Aaron Swartz is widely considered to be inconsistent with professional ethics.[19][20] A White House web site petition to fire him for his handling of the case garnered more than 25,000 signatures in less than a month.[6][21] One attorney for Swartz accused Heymann of using the case to gain publicity for himself.[22] Two others submitted a complaint to the Department of Justice Office of Professional Responsibility, accusing Heymann of prosecutorial misconduct and alleging the prosecution withheld exculpatory evidence and undermined Swartz's right to a fair trial.[20][23]

The sinking of MV Conception occurred on September 2, 2019, when the 75-foot (23 m) dive boat caught fire and eventually sank off the coast of Santa Cruz Island, California,

United States. The boat was anchored overnight at Platts Harbor, a small undeveloped bay on the north shore of the island, with 33 passengers and 1 crew member asleep below decks when fire broke out shortly after 3 a.m.

It is the worst maritime disaster in California since the sinking of the Brother Jonathan in 1865, and the deadliest in the United States overall since the USS Iowa turret explosion in 1989.[3]

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

https://apnews.com/article/ california-75e870c372a809a28afe77000719584a

U.S. News California Owner of boat that burned, killing 34, sells other vessels

March 11, 2021

FILE - In this Sept. 2, 2019, file photo provided by the Santa Barbara County Fire Department, the dive boat Conception is engulfed in flames after a deadly fire broke out aboard the commercial scuba diving vessel off the Southern California coast. The owner of the boat that burned and sank off the California coast, killing 34 people, has sold his two remaining vessels. The Los Angeles Times says Glen Fritzler of Truth Aquatics Inc. sold the dive boats to Channel Islands Expeditions. One new owner says Fritzler has no involvement in the company. (Santa Barbara County Fire Department via AP, File)

LOS ANGELES (AP) The owner of a scuba diving boat that burned and sank off the California coast, killing 34 people, has sold off his two remaining vessels.

Glen Fritzler of Truth Aquatics Inc. sold the dive boats to Channel Islands Expeditions, which was listed as the owner as of Dec. 9, the Los Angeles Times reported Thursday.

The two boats owned other than Conception by Truth Aquatics - Vision and Truth - were sold in November to Channel Islands Expeditions, which is operating out of Sea Landing.

California Diving - Glen Fritzler Receives California Scuba Service Award

(The environmentalist and educator is recognized for his aquatic tours business)

Truth Aquatics started construction on a third boat, the Vision, in 1984. Around the same time, they secured the lease for Santa Barbara's Sea Landing facility. Today Sea Landing accommodates the three-boat fleet and Glen subleases the rest to water sports concessions including a whale watching boat, a dive center, and a jet ski rental company. Sea Landing is the hub for ocean activities in Santa Barbara.

In the early 2000s luxury dive boats were popping up in warmer water destinations around the globe and California dive business started to slow. Roy had retired and Glen reinvigorated his business by securing a contract with the Channel Islands National Park to take non-diving passengers to visit the islands. The trips include hosting the Sierra Club and various school groups - seniors and kids alike enjoy the thrill of experiencing the Channel Islands for the first time onboard a Truth Aquatics vessel. Through these and other types of trips showcasing what the region has to offer, Glen hopes to bring California diving back as a worldwide destination.

Mark Randall Meadows retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

Mark Randall Meadows (born July 28, 1959) is an American politician who served as the 29th White House chief of staff from 2020 to 2021. He served as the U.S. representative for North Carolina's 11th congressional district from 2013 to 2020. A member of the Republican Party, Meadows chaired the House Freedom Caucus from 2017 to 2019. He was considered one of President Donald Trump's closest allies in Congress before his appointment as chief of staff.

In 2011, he moved to Glenville, North Carolina. In 2016, he sold his house and moved into an apartment in Biltmore Park, a mixed-use community in Asheville, North Carolina, while deciding where to buy next in either Henderson or Buncombe counties.[He is the owner of Highlands Properties, which specializes in construction and land development.[14] In 2014, Meadows sold 134 acres (54 hectares) of land in Dinosaur, Colorado, to a young earth creationist group. He appeared in the film Raising the Allosaur: The True Story of a Rare Dinosaur and the Home Schoolers Who Found It.

Young Earth creationism (YEC) is a form of Creationism which holds as a central tenet that the Earth and its lifeforms were created in their present forms by supernatural acts of the God of Abraham between approximately 6,000 and 10,000 years ago.[1][2] In its most widespread version, YEC is based on the religious belief in the inerrancy of certain literal interpretations of the Book of Genesis.[3][4] Its primary adherents are Christians and Jews who believe that God created the Earth in six literal days,[5][6] in contrast with old Earth creationism (OEC), which holds literal interpretations of Genesis that are compatible with the scientifically determined ages of the Earth[7][8] and universe and theistic evolution, which posits that the scientific principles of evolution, the Big Bang, age of the universe and age of Earth are compatible with a metaphorical interpretation of Genesis.[9] Since the mid-20th century, young Earth creationists-starting with Henry Morris (1918-2006)-have developed and promoted a pseudoscientific[10] explanation called creation science as a basis for a religious belief in a supernatural, geologically recent creation, in response to the scientific acceptance of Charles Darwin's Theory of Evolution, which was developed in the previous century. Contemporary YEC movements arose in protest to the scientific consensus, established by numerous scientific disciplines, which demonstrates that the age of the universe is around 13.8 billion years, the formation of the Earth and Solar System happened around 4.6 billion years ago, and the origin of life occurred roughly 4 billion years ago.

This book

Within the 359 Degrees of Illuminati “Muscle” Usage? Including buying or controllling or dismantaling CIA Front Companies

A location Big Boy and ohers used identity theft to stage peeeping tom activities (up outdoor stairs, then taped off as crime scene) and used room changes to swap out my identity to the differnet peroon and money launder rights to genome, Jeeps and other cars setting up identity theft operation using motel owner co-operation.

Highlander Motel is Now Closed, Will Be Torn Down For a CVS in March retrieved from ARLNow and copied or modified to here

[image] [image]

The 57-year-old Highlander Motor Inn is now closed and will be torn down to make room for a CVS store, owner Billy Bayne tells ARLnow.

The two-story motel at 3336 Wilson Blvd, near Clarendon, has been closed since December. Bayne expects demolition to begin on the building in March and the CVS to open in the fall.

his wasn't unexpected. Plans have been in place since at least 2016 and permit applications were filed in December 2019.

Robert McKeon: founder of private-equity firm Veritas Capital, dies Sept. 10, 2012 of suicide; General Dynamics bought company in August 2011 to expand influence into Obamacare IT

Robert B. McKeon was Chairman of New York-based Veritas Capital Management LLC, a private equity firm that he formed in 1992. He was also a founding partner of Wasserstein Perella & Co., where he served as the Chairman of Wasserstein Perella Management Partners. Wikipedia Born: August 6, 1954, The Bronx, New York, NY

Jaime Jorge Zapata was an Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent who was ambushed and murdered by the Mexican criminal group Los Zetas in San Luis Potosí, Mexico. Wikipedia

Born: May 7, 1978, Brownsville, TX Died: February 15, 2011, San Luis Potosi, Mexico Organization: ICE - Homeland Security Investigations

Donald A. Perry Dead: Chick-Fil-A Vice President Of Corporate Public Relations Dies From and including: Friday, July 27, 2012 To, but not including Saturday, August 4, 2012 Result: 8 days It is 8 days from the start date to the end date, but not including the end date.

"Lia"Obama's Adopted Sister Died Suddenly Posted on August

7, 2010 by Bridgette *

Justina Pelletier

Linda Pelletier is from Checkoslovokia and part of a pscyhlogically intense family, she has a figure skating background as her daughters do, the family shows ADD like coverstaional patterns per a visiting forensic psychiatrist.

According to Lou Pelletier, he took his daughter to Boston Children's Hospital to seek treatment for a negative reaction to the flu. They went to visit Dr. Alejandro Flores, her gastroenterologist, who had recently transferred to Boston from Tufts. However at Boston Children's Hospital, the request to see Flores was denied, and Jurrian Peters, a doctor just out of Harvard Medical School, treated Justina.

Peters assessed Justina's symptoms and brought in a psychologist, who concluded that her medical problems were psychiatric, a disease called Somatoform Disorder.

Boston Children's Hospital then asked the Pelletiers to sign a form agreeing to cease any further medical treatment in regards to Mitochondrial Disease. When the Pelletiers objected and demanded to take Justina back to Tufts where she had been treated for a year, Boston Children's Hospital brought DCF in and stripped them of their custodial rights on grounds of alleged medical abuse.

Justina has spent the last 13 months detained in two Massachusetts' facilities against her parents' wishes: Wayside Youth and Family Support Network facility in Framingham, Mass., after spending a year at the Boston Children's Hospital.

Boston: GI Problems, Mitochondria, Slurred Speech, Borderline Personality Disorder possibly. FOXP2 Candidate for markers explanation.

According to Lou Pelletier, he took his daughter to Boston Children's Hospital to seek treatment for a negative reaction to the flu. They went to visit Dr. Alejandro Flores, her gastroenterologist, who had recently transferred to Boston from Tufts. However at Boston Children's Hospital, the request to see Flores was denied, and Jurrian Peters, a doctor just out of Harvard Medical School, treated Justina.

Peters assessed Justina's symptoms and brought in a psychologist, who concluded that her medical problems were psychiatric, a disease called Somatoform Disorder.

Boston Children's Hospital then asked the Pelletiers to sign a form agreeing to cease any further medical treatment in regards to Mitochondrial Disease. When the Pelletiers objected and demanded to take Justina back to Tufts where she had been treated for a year, Boston Children's Hospital brought DCF in and stripped them of their custodial rights on grounds of alleged medical abuse.

Justina has spent the last 13 months detained in two Massachusetts' facilities against her parents' wishes: Wayside Youth and Family Support Network facility in Framingham, Mass., after spending a year at the Boston Children's Hospital.

Boston: GI Problems, Mitochondria, Slurrred Speech, Borderline Personality Disorder possibly. FOXP2 Candidate for markers explanation.

Twitter Suspends ©eddonegan on fake pretense, cell txt reset does not work

Ed Donegan ©eddonegan facebook.com/ed.donegan Corpus Christi, TX drive.google.com/open?id=12a8k2 … Born November 18, 1961 Joined November 2014 763 Following 361 Followers

---

D. B. Cooper

Dan Cooper is the pseudonym of an unidentified man who hijacked a Boeing 727 aircraft in United States airspace between Portland and Seattle on the afternoon of November 24, 1971.[1][2] The man purchased his airline ticket using the alias Dan Cooper but, because of a news miscommunication, became known in popular lore as D. B. Cooper. He extorted $200,000 in ransom (equivalent to $1,260,000 in 2019) and parachuted to an uncertain fate. Despite an extensive manhunt and protracted FBI investigation, the perpetrator has never been located or identified. It remains the only unsolved case of air piracy in commercial aviation history.[3][4][5]

The pilot, William A. Scott (1920 - 2001), who had served in the United States Army Air Forces during World War II, contacted Seattle - Tacoma Airport air traffic control, which informed local and federal authorities. The 35 other passengers were given false information that their arrival in Seattle would be delayed because of a “minor mechanical difficulty”.[25] Northwest Orient’s president, Donald Nyrop, authorized payment of the ransom, and ordered all employees to cooperate fully with the hijacker’s demands.[26] The aircraft circled Puget Sound for approximately two hours to allow Seattle police and the FBI sufficient time to assemble Cooper’s parachutes and ransom money, and to mobilize emergency personnel.[3 D. B. Cooper

Flight attendant Tina Mucklow recalled that Cooper appeared familiar with the local terrain; at one point he remarked, “Looks like Tacoma down there,” as the aircraft flew above it. He also correctly mentioned that McChord Air Force Base was only a 20-minute drive (at that time) from Seattle-Tacoma Airport. Schaffner described him as calm, polite, and well-spoken, not at all consistent with the stereotypes (enraged, hardened criminals or “take-me-to-Cuba” political dissidents) popularly associated with air piracy at the time.[3]

During the International Geophysical Year 1957 - 1958, and subsequently through 1962 the 62d TCW supported scientific stations in the Arctic Ocean by airlanding and airdropping supplies on the drifting ice. It helped transport United Nations troops and supplies to the Congo in 1960. In 1963 the wing assumed responsibility for worldwide airlift of nuclear weapons and associated equipment, continuing this mission through early 1971.[6]

as witnessed by Mucklow.[38]) The FBI stressed that inclusion of the dummy reserve parachute, one of four obtained in haste from a Seattle skydiving school, was accidental.[91]

In March 2009, the FBI disclosed that Tom Kaye, a paleontologist from the Burke Museum of Natural History and Culture in Seattle, had assembled a team of “citizen sleuths”, including scientific illustrator Carol Abraczinskas and metallurgist Alan Stone. The group, eventually known as the Cooper Research Team,[94] re-investigated important components of the case using GPS, satellite imagery, and other technologies unavailable in 1971.[87] Although they gained little new information about the buried ransom money or Cooper’s landing zone, they were able to find and analyze hundreds of minute particles on Cooper’s tie using electron microscopy. Lycopodium spores (likely from a pharmaceutical product) were identified, as well as fragments of bismuth and

aluminum.[94]

In November 2011, Kaye announced that particles of pure (unalloyed) titanium had also been found on the tie. He explained that titanium, which was much rarer in the 1970s than in the 2010s, was at that time found only in metal fabrication or production facilities, or at chemical companies using it (combined with aluminum) to store extremely corrosive substances.[95] The findings suggested that Cooper might have been a chemist or a metallurgist, or possibly an engineer or manager (the only employees who wore ties in such facilities at that time) in a metal or chemical manufacturing plant,[96] or at a company that recovered scrap metal from those types of factories.[97]

Bismuth titanate or bismuth titanium oxide is a solid inorganic compound of bismuth, titanium and oxygen with the chemical formula of Bi12TiO20, Bi 4Ti3O12 or Bi2Ti2O7

Bismuth titanates exhibit electrooptical effect and photorefractive effect, that is, a reversible change in the refractive index under applied electric field or illumination, respectively. Consequently, they have potential applications in reversible recording media for real-time holography or image processing applications.[4][1]

Electrophoresis is used in laboratories to separate macromolecules based on size. The technique applies a negative charge so proteins move towards a positive charge. Electrophoresis is used extensively in DNA, RNA and protein analysis.

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia * * Laser-Stimulated Fluorescence in Paleontology

> Obama said birthday Aug 4 1961

Aug 4th Aug. 3rd, 2011 [Year of Glorian Death, Judge Roll death, US v 323K retirement fund - OKLAHOMA CITY (Reuters) A woman claiming to be the niece of infamous skyjacker D.B. Cooper has spoken to ABC News in an exclusive interview about her role in the recently re-ignited 40-year-old cold case that has haunted the FBI for years.

Marla Cooper told ABC News that she has provided the FBI with a guitar strap and a Christmas photo of a man pictured with the same strap who she says is her uncle, Lynn Doyle Cooper. *

[Speaking as Edward Paul Donegan listening to adult Marla Cooper recount her walk in the woods with the Cooper adults reminded me of being a Donegan and it all fits exactly and creidbily.

IN my family there was a sense our family had done nothing wrong but for some reason their was a lurking danger if this history of ours was known.

I think the Cooper family wanted to help get L.D. Cooper to safety so he and his secret would be safe, off the grid, and not buried under dirt in the “silence of the grave” Espionage uses to eliminate people who can compromise CIA or DARPA or Secret Service secrets.

Thus the Cooper family was not in remorse a family member was planning a crime but felt it freeing and a wholesome family project.

It all felt really true and as a survivor of MKULTRA targeting it makes perfect sense how that family felt at risk, risk or knowing too much. - End Ed Donegan comments on this point]

LIFE Magazine - August 4, 1961 - JFK - John F. Kennedy On Cover Single Issue Magazine – August 4, 1961

by Henry R. Luce (Editor)

› See all formats and editions

Single Issue Magazine from $45.00

1 Used from $45.00

August 4 1961 is also the allege Birthday of Barrack Obama in Hawaii which I account for as February 20 fertilization to February 2, then the claim Barrack Obama's white mother was three months pregnant at marriage thus an Auust 4 not November birthday, all Seattle 21st Century Expo tied and my genome siezures tied to Barrack Obamas ongtiong program for foreign economies.

Aug 4, 2011 - Marla Cooper recently came forward to the FBI with evidence that she believes proves that her uncle Lynn Doyle Cooper is the famed D.B *

Dan Cooper is the pseudonym of an unidentified man who hijacked a Boeing 727 aircraft in United States airspace between Portland and Seattle on the afternoon of November 24, 1971

> Is Obama the secret son of Malcolm X?
>
> Israel Insider 04 Novembre 2008
>
> In August I received a curious email. As a magazine that covers international politics, with a focus on Mideast affairs, Israel Insider gets more from its fair share of baseless tips and phony rumors. I ignore most and delete them unread. This one was a bit different. It came from a national security lawyer with extensive credentials and intelligence connections that checked out, and a phone number. *

AR6285-A. President John F. Kennedy Meets with Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago and Daley's Family Accession Number AR6285-A Date(s) of Materials 21 January 1961

The fertilization of Feb 20 meeting again about 11 as it is said in 1961 will lead into Founding Trinity Baptist Chruch Chicago November 1961 and it Takes Village.

On July 10, 1954, President Eisenhower signed into law the legislation that would eventually become known as the Food for Peace Act. As a result, the Food for Peace program has been bringing help and hope to the far reaches of the world for more than 60 years - reaching more than 4 billion hungry people since its inception. This video celebrates Food for Peace's work, and looks to the future of food assistance later as USAID.

24 January 1961 Description President John F. Kennedy meets with Director of Food for Peace Program George McGovern, Oval Office, White House, Washington, D.C.

1961 January 23 Meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk (Mason, Rockefeller) and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, 10:00AM (JFKWHP-1961-01-23-B) AR01 1961 January 23 Swearing-in ceremony, George S. McGovern, Director, Food for Peace (JFKWHP-1961-01-23-C)

REVEREND DAVID MANNING - Former head of the Trinity Baptist Church in Chicago. Was murdered during the apparent robbery of a catfish restaurant in 1972. Shortly afterwards, Rev. Jeremiah Wright took over as head of Trinity and a many parishoners (who later left the church) suspected Wright in having a hand in Reverend Manning's death. Decades later, Manning's son JAMAL MANNING was found dead of an apparent crack overdose in 2004. It was rumored he was going to bring evidence of Wright's complicity in his father's death. His testimony was timed to coincide with Obama's first senate

race *

James Mountain Inhofe born November 17, 1934 is an American politician serving as the senior United States Senator from Oklahoma,

Sen. Jim Inhofe's son, Perry Inhofe, killed in plane crash November 10, according to sources By JARREL WADE, KENDRICK MARSHALL and DYLAN GOFORTH World Staff Writers Nov 11, 2013 *

Perry Inhofe graduated from Duke University in 1984 and attended medical school at Washington University in St. Louis, according to the Oklahoma Surgical Hospital's website. He is a hand surgeon with Central States Orthopedics in Tulsa, according to the organization's website

Tulsa Mayor Dewey Bartlett also sent a statement of condolences to the Inhofe family Monday afternoon.

"It is with deep sorrow that we give our condolences to Tulsa's former Mayor Jim Inhofe and his family," Bartlett said in a statement. "Dr. Perry Inhofe was a man of great integrity, skilled as a surgeon, and an example for all of us."

Stanley Armour Dunham (March 23, 1918 - February 8, 1992) was the maternal grandfather of … During the war, Madelyn Dunham worked on a Boeing B-29 assembly line *

Malaysia Air Flight 370 Its last maintenance "A check" was carried out on 23 February 2014. Wikipedia * [21]

Feb 12, 2014 - An Airbus A350-900 does a fly over during the Singapore Air Show on February 11, 2014.

Tweets Tweets & replies Media Likes

Google knowledge panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Jack Patrick Dorsey ©Jack is an American technology entrepreneur and philanthropist who is the co-founder and CEO of Twitter, and the founder and CEO of Square, a financial payments company. Wikipedia

Born: November 19, 1976 (age 43 years), St. Louis, MO

Twitter.com/eddonegan

- Jan 8 Ed Donegan ©eddonegan ©cornelldeath ©Robby12692 ©QNNTexas Clinton Body Count Series: #10. Penthouse Pet Judi G * … The Goldwater US - Clinton Body Count Series: #10. Penthouse Pet Judi Gibbs Died in a Mysterious Hous … thegoldwater.com 1 1 1 ·

- Jan 8 Ed Donegan ©eddonegan Judi Gibbs, Exposing the Secret Life of Adolf Hitler (And King George VIII London KE Family of FOXP2 Dysgraphic Borderlines) and Brittany Murphy, both knew the #MKULTRA History #ClintonBodyCount #ClintonNeighbor ©cornelldeath©Robby12692 ©Qanon©QNNTexas

- Jan 8Ed Donegan ©eddonegan FOXP2 Borderline Girl Interupted author Kaysen of Cambridge, MA. A daughter of Annette (Neutra) and ECONOMIST Carl Kaysen, a professor at MIT and former advisor to JFK. #BrtiannyMurph #ClintonBodyCount #ThorkilKristensen #GeorgeBall #ClintonBodyCount ©Robby12692 ©cornelldeath

- Ed Donegan Retweeted ·Jan 7QNN Texas ©QNNTexas The Clinton Body Count 7 Jan 2020 - 10:34:00 pm submitted by . The long list of people associated with Bill Clinton

Google knowledge panel quoted here

A lab report suggesting “Clueless” actress Brittany Murphy died from poisoning is “ridiculous” and “baseless,” an expert said Tuesday. The Los Angles County coroner ruled pneumonia killed Murphy, 32, in December 2009, and that her husband, Simon Monjack, 39, died from the same illness five months later. Nov 20, 2013 Died: December 20, 2009 Spouse: Simon Monjack Brittany Murphy poison report ‘ridiculous,’ expert says - CNN

Wikipedia Death of Don Henry and Kevin Ives
retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

On August 23, 1987, the bodies of 16-year old Don Henry and 17-year old Kevin Ives were hit by a cargo train in Alexander, Arkansas as they lay on the tracks. It was later discovered during autopsy that Don Henry has been stabbed in the back and Kevin Ives’ skull had been crushed prior to being run over. The train driver attempted to stop and blew the horn, but the momentum of the train carried it over the bodies.

One week before the boys died, a man wearing military fatigues was spotted not far from the train tracks. When police officer Danny Allen attempted to stop him, the man opened fire and managed to disappear into the night. On the same night the boys died, a similar-looking man dressed in military fatigues was spotted nearby

Former professional wrestler Billy Jack Haynes claimed to have videotaped the boys being run over by the train.[12]. He claims corrupt police officers involved in the drug trade killed the children because they witnessed a drug drop.[13]

One week before the boys died, a man wearing military fatigues was spotted not far from the train tracks. When police officer Danny Allen attempted to stop him, the man opened fire and managed to disappear into the night. On the same night the boys died, a similar-looking man dressed in military fatigues was spotted nearby.

"The Clinton Body Count The long list of people associated with Bill Clinton who have ended up dead Because these cases are so numerous, and so many have connections to Arkansas, writers sometimes use the term "Sudden Arkansas Death Syndrome", also known as Arkancide.

If you really want to narrow your search, try searching for Mary Caitrin Mahoney, Paul Tulley, Jerry Parks, James Bunch, Kathy Ferguson, Danny Casolaro, Charles Meissner, Calvin Walraven, Keith McKaskle, James Milam, Alan Standorf, Jon Parnell Walker, Barbara Wise, and Jordan Kettleson."

Quote

James Milam 1928 - 2020 - Obituary - Legacy.comwww.legacy.com › obituaries › hartfordcourant › obitu … Apr 17, 2020 - Elder James H. Milam, 91 entered into eternal rest on April 4, 2020. He was … are entrusted to the care of Carmon Funeral Home, Windsor, CT.

Windsor is a town in Hartford County, Connecticut, United States, and was the first English settlement in the state. It lies on the northern border of Connecticut's capital, Hartford. The population of Windsor was 29,044 at the 2010 census.

On February 21, 1637, the colony's General Court changed the name of the settlement from Dorchester to Windsor,[8] named after the town of Windsor, Berkshire, on the River Thames in England.[9] The same day, Windsor was incorporated as a town along with Hartford and Wethersfield. *.

Windsor is a historic market town and unparished area in the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead in Berkshire, England, close to London. It is widely known as the site of Windsor Castle, one of the official residences of the British Royal Family.

JON PARNELL WALKER-Whitewater Investigator for Resolution Trust Corporation. Jumped to his death from his Arlington, Virginia apartment balcony August 15, 1993. Was investigating Morgan Guarantee scandal.

Vince Foster and Wife Elizibeth M. Baden 1993

At the National Institutes of Health, Elizabeth Baden and her fellow policy analysts create the policies, budgets, and communications of the NIH

http://www.aim.org/aim-column/something-stinks-the-fishy-vince-foster-case/?utm_source=akdart

- No bullet was ever found in Fort Marcy Park, even though Foster supposedly shot himself there.

- The gun that was found in his hand has never been positively identified as his.

- Foster's fingerprints were not found on the gun. […] Some other critical facts:

- Foster's car, a 1989 gray Honda, was not at Ft. Marcy Park when he died.

- The .38 revolver found in his hand was not the gun that killed him. It was not his gun. The caliber of the gun was too large to be consistent with the small hole in the side of Foster's neck. A memo by Rodriguez found at the National Archives stated that "the corpse was staged with the revolver brought by" investigators.

- Foster's so-called suicide note was a forgery. It said nothing about suicide. Handwriting experts say the note, which had no fingerprints on it, wasn't even written by Foster. The note was found in a briefcase that had previously been searched.

Vince's wife Elizbeth M. Baden does genetics science and stuff

https://mayoclinic.pure.elsevier.com/en/publications/a-single-mutation-promotes-amyloidogenicity-through-a-highly-prom

These fibrils are composed of monoclonal light chain protein secreted from an abnormal proliferation of bone marrow plasma cells. We previously reported that amyloidogenic light chain protein AL-09 adopts an altered dimer while its germline protein (κI O18/O8) forms a canonical dimer observed in other light chain crystal structures.

Order 66

> “Father, what of the clones?”
>
> “Those, which they have cloned, to look like those, who will be taken out, will begin to drop dead like houseflies.

The Parks Murder

http://www.geocities.ws/incindiary1999/jerryparks.html

“I’M A DEAD MAN,” whispered Jerry Parks, pale with shock, as he looked up at the television screen. It was a news bulletin on the local station in Little Rock. Vincent Foster, a childhood friend of the President, had been found dead in a park outside Washington. Apparent suicide.

He never explained to his son Gary what he meant by that remark, but for the next two months the beefy 6′ 3″ security executive was in a state of permanent fear. He would pack a pistol to fetch the mail. On the way to his offices at American Contract Services in Little Rock he would double back or take strange routes to “dry-clean” the cars that he thought were following him. At night he kept tearing anxiously at his eyebrows, and raiding the valium pills of his wife, Jane, who was battling multiple sclerosis. Once he muttered darkly that Bill Clinton’s people were “cleaning house,” and he was “next on the list.”

Sightings #78

ERIC BUTERA - An informant who came forward offering information regarding the murder of White House intern Mary Mahoney. He was promptly sent into a known crack house to make an undercover buy for the police and there was beaten to death by unknown assailants.

Police asked him to make another drug buy there, so they could get a search warrant. They gave him $80 in marked money and a ride to the house the night of Dec. 4, 1997. *

Butera was attacked, robbed and killed before he could even get inside.

WAPO *

Mother of Dead Informant Awarded $100 Million

Gay Mary Caitrin “Caity” Mahoney [Apporached as possible FOXP2 mother to Obama children?] dead July 7, Malia Ann Obama Barack Obama’s daughter Born: July 4, 1998 (age 22 years), Chicago, IL

Murdered one year before birth of Malia Ann

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

[a] two-week trial in U.S. District Court involved the slaying of Eric Butera, 31, an informant who was robbed and then stomped to death while working with police on Dec. 4, 1997, in Southwest Washington. His mother, Terry Butera, filed a lawsuit alleging that police failed to take steps to protect him that night and that those failures contributed to his death.

“This was a young man who put his life on the line,” one juror said shortly after the 3:45 p.m. verdict. “He should have been more protected.”

Caity Mahoney

Mary Caitrin “Caity” Mahoney - Killed on July 7, 1997

Caity, the youngest of three children, flunked the second grade but worked hard to catch up and by the sixth grade was accepted into the McDonogh School. She brought home report cards full of A’s and “an arsenal of great friends,” recalled her brother, Patrick Mahoney.

But Caity stuttered, and she disliked answering the telephone because of her speech impediment. By the time Caity was in the eighth grade, her speech had improved so much that she won the eighth-grade oratory championship. “Caity was so determined,” her brother recalled.

Mary Caitrin “Caity” Mahoney - Killed on July 7, 1997. In the pre-trial publicity surrounding Paula Jones lawsuit journalist Michael Isikoff dropped hints that a “former White House staffer” with the initial “M” was about to go public with her story of sexual harassment at the White House. Days later two gunmen entered a Starbuck’s that Mahoney managed. Two associates, Aaron Goodrich, 18 and Emory Evans, 25, were taken to a room and executed. Mahoney had five bullets in her, in the chest, her face, and in the back of the head from two different guns. $4000 in the store remained untouched.

On December 4th, just months after Caity Mahoney (and 2 co-workers) was murdered, Eric Butera, an informant who came forward offering information regarding the murder of White House intern Mary Caitrin Mahoney, was sent into an ambush situation by Federal agents and beaten to death.

---

http://www.strike-the-root.com/3/rarey/rarey2.html Mahoney had landed an internship working in the office of the Secretary of Commerce

---

Starbucks Suspect Faces Host of Charges

By Bill MillerWashington Post Staff Writer Thursday, August 5, 1999; Page B1

Carl Derek Cooper was charged in a 48-count federal racketeering indictment yesterday with a host of crimes, including a triple slaying at a Starbucks coffeehouse.

Cooper, who has been in custody since March in the Starbucks case, also is accused of killing a security guard in Northwest Washington in 1993 and attempting to kill an off-duty Prince George's County police officer in 1996. Like the July 1997 slayings of three employees at the coffee shop in Northwest Washington, the other violence took place during robberies, prosecutors said.

[image]

Starbucks Suspect 'Just Started Shooting'

Starbucks Suspect Describes Killing Three

Full Text of Starbucks Affidavit

Lone Starbucks Suspect Charged

Killings Remain Unsolved

Police Delay Seizing Possible Evidence

3 Slain at D.C. Starbucks

SEPARATE LIVES, JOINED IN DEATH retrieved from WAPO and copied or modified to here

By Sari Horwitz; John W. Fountain July 13, 1997

On the surface, the trio couldn't have seemed more different. One was an African American man from New Jersey who dreamed of being a musician. Another was a gay Irish American woman from Baltimore who loved politics. The third was a young Jewish man who listened to hard rock, relished cartoons and movies and someday wanted to be a cop.

But all three - Emory Allen Evans, 25; Mary Caitrin Mahoney, 25; and Aaron David Goodrich, 18 - had overcome challenges in their young lives and landed jobs in a Georgetown coffee shop. Each described the job to family and friends as a pivotal step toward a future goal.

Instead, last Sunday night, in several horrific moments, those lives ended together. They were gunned down execution-style in the back room of the Starbucks on Wisconsin Avenue in Georgetown, a trendy coffee shop in an affluent Washington neighborhood that is seldom touched by such violence.

Quote retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

n Washington, where Ms. Mahoney had worked for more than a year, and in Baltimore, where her family still lives, loved ones tried yesterday to put her ebullient life into words.

Ms. Mahoney was the one who never cried as a baby and who stopped eating meat as an adult because she felt sorry for the animals.

She was the one who gave leftover food to homeless people on her way home from her waitress job, who trekked across Alaska with her 74-year-old grandmother, who danced literally until dawn with friends most weekends.

She was the one who watched CNN every day, who included her cat's name in the greeting on her answering machine, who still became homesick every now and then and didn't mind admitting it.

"Why does God take the angels and leave the rest?" asked Molly Mahoney, her sister.

https://www.baltimoresun.com/news/bs-xpm-1997-07-09-1997190088-story.html

Barbara Wise - Commerce Department staffer. Worked closely with Ron Brown and John Huang. Cause of death unknown. Died November 29, 1996.

Rob Brown 30th United States Secretary of Commerce In office January 22, 1993 - April 3, 1996

> Wikipedia Some, including Kweisi Mfume - head of the NAACP at the time - and Rep. Maxine Waters (D-CA), chairwoman of the Congressional Black Caucus, had written federal officials to ask for more data on the suspicious circumstances of Brown's death. "Responding to homicide allegations, an official of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology acknowledged that doctors initially were puzzled by a circular wound on the top of Brown's head when his remains were recovered at the crash scene. The forensic pathologist then consulted with others and took extensive X-rays. As a result of these consultations and full-body X-rays, we absolutely ruled out anything beyond a blunt-force injury to the head.”[7]

Srebreno. Croatia 2:57 P. M.:

Villagers hear a plane roaring past unusually low and close.

Plat, Croatia. 2:58 P.M.:

Villagers Ana and Miho Dunlica rush outside and see IFOR-21 plunging “likea ghost out of the clouds.”

Velji Do. Croatia. 2:58 P.M.:

Everyone in this tiny collection of stone huts at the base of Sved Ivan hears a plane go directly overhead in the clouds, then rev its engines mightily for one instant.

Aboard the plane, the klaxon of its ground-proximity warning device suddenly blares, jolting pilot Davis. But the two-to-three seconds of warning are far too little. The plane’s left wingtip touches ground, spinning it directly into the rocky hillside, making an earth-shaking explosion.

There is the cackling hiss of a huge fireball as the plane and its large load of fuel burn. Then a dead silence in the mist. The tail section remains quite intact, but the rest of IFOR-21 is all over the hill, making later identification of many of the passengers impossible. The nose of the fuselage is just a blackish smudge in the ground.

All 35 people are dead except for stewardess Shelly Kelly, who is riding in the tail. She sustains only minor cuts and bruises.

Cillipi. 3:18 P.M.:

U.S. authorities are notified that IFOR-21 is down, location unknown. However, they are to suffer 11 In hours of pre-planned confusion before arriving at the scene. One prominent report verifies that pieces of the wreckage have been spotted floating in the Adriatic. A later report says a CIA trawler has retrieved some pieces.

Republic of South Africa, approximately 4:00 P.M.:

News reports say an attempt is made on the life of Ron Brown's law partner, Tommy Boggs, by an unknown assailant in a staged car accident in Capetown. Later, Boggs refuses to talk about the attempt. Allegations have been made that Boggs was culpable in many of Brown's activities.

Cillipi, later that afternoon:

Niko Jerkuic goes home to collect his reward, but the reward is not waiting for him. It comes three days later: a bullet through the chest, administered just shortly before he is scheduled to be grilled by the U.S. Air Force accident investigation team.

The hit squad wraps his hand around the gun and departs. The Americans do not want a live witness who could spill the beans later. Like many of the Whitewater dead, Jerkuic is immediately labeled a suicide, even though there's no evidence - and a chest wound is a rare cause - especially with a large caliber pistol (unusual in Europe).

The quick official reason given for bachelor Jerkuic's death is despondence over romantic troubles with his girlfriend. I have been unable to find any verification for this. Instead, I have found that neighbors and friends all agree Jerkuic was NOT depressed. He bad survived the years of the Bosnian War. He was excited that life was finally getting better.

Crash site. 7:20 P.M.:

Four hours and 20 minutes after the crash, the first Croation Special Forces search party arrives on the scene. They fund only stewardess Kelly surviving. They call for a helicopter to evacuate her to the hospital. When it arrives, Kelly is able to get on board without assistance from the medics.

But Kelly never completes the short hop. She dies an route. According to multiple reports given to journalist/ editor Joe L. Jordan, an autopsy later reveals a neat three-inch incision over her main femoral artery. It also shows the incision came at least three hours after all her other cuts and bruises.

This creates in your mind a horrifying scene in the back of the chopper, as one Special Forces operative holds down the struggling woman while another slice her leg.

Further autopsies of other passengers probably will not be made. Clinton ordered the cremation of all victims - it's hard to perform autopsies on ashes.

Penthouse Pet Judi Gibbs

Mysteriously, she died 30 years ago, along with her lover, a much older man known as Bill Puterbaugh, in a grizzly fire.

This, of course, has now raised the question of whether or not it's possible the Clintons might have had something to do with the woman's death. After all, it's not the first time we've all heard of something really, really bad happening to those who know things about this family.

Gibbs' older sister, Martha, recently spoke with reporters from The Daily Mail about her belief that Bill Clinton was responsible for the fire that killed her sister.

> PENTHOUSE US 1979/12 Judi Gibbs Debora Zullo Guillermo Vilas Michael Douglas The Secret Life of Adolf Hitler G B. Infield Single Issue Magazine - 30 Nov 1979 by Les Trésors d Emmanuelle (Author)

Judi Gibbs and Bill Puterbaugh died on January 3, 1986. According to a report in the local Fordyce News-Advocate, Gibbs called the fire department at 2.26 am: 'Bill Puterbaugh's house is on fire, hurry, you all, hurry.'

Bill Puterbaugh (June 6, 1936 - October 9, 2017) was an American racing driver in the USAC Championship Car series. He raced in the 1967-1971, the 1975-1977, and the 1979

Brittany Murphy, actress, researched role in Girl Interupted, FOXP2 Borderline Personality Disorder

Book Girl Interupted author Kaysen was born and raised in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She is the daughter of Annette (Neutra) and economist Carl Kaysen, a professor at MIT and former advisor to President John F. Kennedy. - Wikipedia

Everything on here http://www.akdart.com/body-c.html

On 20 November 1992, a fire broke out in Windsor Castle, the second largest inhabited castle in the world and one of the official residences of Queen Elizabeth II. The castle suffered extensive damage and was fully repaired within the next few years at a cost of £36.5 million, in a project led by the conservation architects Donald Insall Associates. It led to the Queen paying tax on her income, and to Buckingham Palace, the Queen's other official residence, being opened to the public to help pay for the restoration work.

Early stages

An 1848 drawing of the Private Chapel by Joseph Nash The fire began in the Queen's Private Chapel at 11:15 in the morning when a curtain was ignited by a spotlight pressed up against it.[1] Agents of the Royal Household were in the chapel at the time inspecting works of art.[2] A fire alarm went off[when?] in the watch room of the castle fire brigade, manned by the Chief Fire Officer, Marshall Smith. The location of the fire was shown by a light on a grid-map of the castle. Initially, the Brunswick Tower was lit up, but lights soon began to flash indicating that the fire had quickly spread to neighbouring rooms. A major part of the State Apartments was soon ablaze.

> Ethicists are also concerned about the potential misuse of mitochondrial transfer. With the recent rise in genome editing technologies such as CRISPR-Cas9, bioethicists worldwide are calling for bans on alterations to genetic information passed on from parent to child. But this is exactly > what happens when a daughter is born as a result of mitochondrial transfer; the daughter will carry mitochondrial DNA from a third unknown donor, which she will pass on to all of her future children. And if she has daughters, they will continue to pass on this donor DNA

Leon Gottlieb, a fur designer, died on Friday at his home at 200 East 62d Street. He was 68 years old.

Known as Monsieur Leon to clients that included the Duchess of Windsor and Rose Kennedy, Mr. Gottlieb had been the head designer for Maxmillian Furs, and since 1969 had been the head craftsman designer for Furs by Design at 12 East 57th Street, known also as Monsieur Leon Furs,

Flight 1549 Between NYC and NC 2009

CNN Opinion » Political Op-Eds | Social Commentary

Was it really a 'Miracle on the Hudson'?

November 18, 2009 5:16 p.m. EST

All the passengers and crew members survived when US Airways Flight 1549 landed in the Hudson River on January 15.

STORY HIGHLIGHTS

• The safe landing of Flight 1549

New York (CNN) -- When US Airways Flight 1549 ditched in the Hudson River and all of its 150 passengers and five crew members

ued in January, the landing of the airplane by pilot

http://www.cnn.com/2009/OPINION/11/18/langewiesche.miracle.hudson.flight/index.html ran between NCY eval city and North Carolina, as I did, at the time I was being released and Obama was being sworn in. My release was being timed until AFTER Obama sworn in.

- January 15, 2009 Flight 1549 crashes

- The first inauguration of Barack Obama as the 44th President of the United States took place on Tuesday, January 20, 2009

Paradise California Fire https://youtu.be/3efGrrkR87Q

Potentially my hair was in that city from a ski hat or something, I met Susan Archer from there on a high school field trip https://www.bbc.com/news/world-us-canada-46198498

The Awans

Published June 6, 2018 https://www.foxnews.com/politics/ex-dem-it-aide-imran-awan-poised-for-plea-deal-after-months-of-mysterious-delays

Mysterious

Imran Awan, the former IT aide to congressional Democrats whose federal court case has drawn the interest of President Trump, is poised to strike a plea deal with prosecutors, court filings indicate.

A Tuesday filing said a plea agreement hearing for Awan and his wife Hina Alvi has been set for July 3 before U.S. District Judge Tanya S. Chutkan in Washington.

The filing did not reveal any details about the terms of the apparent agreement. But in court documents last month, prosecutors hinted that a deal could be in the works.

"The parties are currently exploring a possible resolution of this matter," prosecutors wrote. "Therefore, the parties are requesting additional time in which to explore that resolution."

Abid Awan and brother Omar Awan tied to Pakistan, medicine (MD, epidimeology) and Abid tied to Yvette Diane Clarke (born November 21, 1964) is a Democratic member of the U.S. House of Representatives representing New York's 9th congressional district. ,

Feb 23 2019 Brother dies in crash

Feb 24 2019 as I am moving into Mac Lamar property

A Tesla owner was tragically killed in a crash in Davie, Florida on Sunday afternoon - and authorities report that the car's battery reignited multiple times after.

Omar Awan was driving his 2016 Model S on South Flamingo Road near Fort Lauderdale when, at approximately 4:30 pm, the car veered off the road. Police spokesman Sergeant Mark Leone says Awan appeared to overcorrect the car before totally losing control. The car then crossed three lanes of traffic and crashed into a row of trees in the median.

March 18, 2019, 6:14 PM UTC By Associated Press and Adam Edelman Alan Krueger, a groundbreaking Princeton University economist who served as a top adviser in two Democratic administrations, died over the weekend He was 58.

Gene Sperling, who worked with Krueger in the Obama administration as the director of the National Economic Council, tweeted: “Just shocked, just stunned, so, so saddened.”

“Alan has been my friend and colleague for over 20 years - and one of the very most consequential economists of our generation,” Sperling said. “His pathbreaking work on minimum wage was only one of many ways he used his genius for the good of all.”

After serving as a Labor Department economist under President Bill Clinton, Krueger worked for President Barack Obama as a top Treasury official and then as chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers from 2011 to 2013.

While serving under Obama, he developed and popularized the concept of the “Great Gatsby Curve.” It showed that high economic inequality corresponds with low economic mobility on a generation-to-generation basis. In short, it meant that when economic disparities between the rich and everyone else are wide, people’s ability to improve their financial health depends even more heavily on their parents’ economic status.

If you or a loved one are looking for help, please call the National Suicide Prevention hotline at 1-800-273-8255.

Paris Heavy Metal Bataclan

About 3,530,000 results (0.50 seconds)

Eagles of Death Metal - Wikipedia https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eagles_of_Death_Metal Jump to The Bataclan attack (2015) - On November 13, 2015, Eagles of Death Metal was playing ... to about 1,500 guests at the Bataclan theatre in Paris.
Eagles of Death Metal · Peace, Love, Death Metal · Death by Sexy · Jesse Hughes

Eagles of Death Metal Were Playing Paris Club When Gunmen Attacked
https://www.nbcnews.com/.../paris...attacks/california-band-was-due-play-club-time-...
The California rock band Eagles of Death Metal was on stage at a packed Paris nightclub Friday when gunmen stormed in, cut down dozens of fans with ...

Review: 'Eagles of Death Metal' Revisits the Paris Terror Attack - The ...
https://www.nytimes.com/2017/02/.../eagles-of-death-metal-review-colin-hanks.html
Feb 9, 2017 - He set himself a formidable challenge with "Eagles of Death Metal: Nos Amis (Our Friends)," his documentary about the American rock band ...

Eagles of Death Metal, Band Who Survived Bataclan Attack ... https://www.thedailybeast.com/eagles-of-death-metal-band-who-survived-bataclan-a...
May 20, 2016 - Eagles of Death Metal survived the horrific November 2015 massacre at the Bataclan during the Paris terror attacks. But now they are personae ...

Paris attacks anniversary: Bataclan managers deny entry to Eagles of ...
https://www.independent.co.uk/.../paris-attacks-anniversary-bataclan-memorial-conc...
Nov 13, 2016 - Members of Eagles of Death Metal, the US band who were playing at the Bataclan when Isis gunmen stormed in and massacred 90 people a ...

Eagles of Death Metal shooting survivor: Parkland campaigners 'vile Church intrigue?

REVEREND DAVID MANNING - Former head of the Trinity Baptist Church in Chicago. Was murdered during the apparent robbery of a catfish restaurant in 1972. Shortly afterwards, Rev. Jeremiah Wright took over as head of Trinity and a many parishoners (who later left the church) suspected Wright in having a hand in Reverend Manning's death. Decades later, Manning's son JAMAL MANNING was found dead of an apparent crack overdose in 2004. It was rumored he was going to bring evidence of Wright's complicity in his father's death. His testimony was timed to coincide with Obama's first senate race.

Victoria Windsor: Blogger, researcher into ancestry (sudden illness)

By Miki Booth

Dear Friends,

It is with a heavy heart that I inform you that Victoria passed away this morning at 4:15AM after a sudden illness. She is survived by her daughter, Deborah Rhodus, her mother, Betty Pugh, both of Colorado and 3 grandchildren. Prior to moving to Richmond, VA, Victoria lived in San Diego, Denver and Amarillo. Victoria ran a blog entitled, “Windsor’s America” on the website, “Richmond Patriots” or “The Patriots.” She was a champion for liberty defending the Constitution and instrumental in exposing corruption in the state of Virginia and criminal activity in and of the Obama administration. Victoria fought the good fight for our country and now deservedly and peacefully rests with God.

…

Victoria was active on blogs and newspapers in the constitutional arena. She was an excellent researcher, particularly in the area of ancestry. One of the last emails The Post and Email received from her stated that she had found evidence that the records of Madelyn Payne Dunham and Stanley Armour Dunham had been “tampered with.”

…

Over the last several months, Victoria had been involved in a new project which we do not believe she was able to complete.

…

Victoria had also performed extensive research on the background of then-presidential candidate Rick Santorum in an attempt to determine if he met the definition of “natural born Citizen” found in Article II, Section 1, clause 5 of the U.S. Constitution. It was believed that Santorum’s father had not naturalized prior to his son’s birth. Santorum dropped out of the race on April 10 but could be a candidate for vice president. The vice president must qualify under Article II in order to assume the duties of the president in the event of the president’s “removal, death or resignation” under the 25th Amendment.

From the Mountain, Book II MORE ON ILLUMINATI HISTORY

“Child, you have had many in your government, who were not Luciferians.”

“Like John Kennedy, perhaps? Was he killed because he would not go along with the Luciferian plans?”

“He was killed because he would not accept their plans for world expansion.”

“You mean, the New World Order?”

“This and more.”

“Child, there is a curse upon the whole Kennedy Clan.”

“What do you mean?”

“The curse has been laid upon them through the mouth of a prophet, spoken by the voice of your Father Jehovah.”

Monday, February 20, 1961

February 20, 1961

JFK met with the Secretary General of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation (OEEC) Thorkil Kristensen at around 11

am in the Oval Office.

JFK and Thorkil Kristensen (center) with unidentified man – February 20, 1961

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Thorkil_Kristensen Thorkil Kristensen (9 October 1899 -2 6 June 1989) was a Danish politician, finance minister, professor in national economy, and futurist.

Selected publications Kristensen, Thorkil. The economic world balance. The economic world balance. (1960). Kristensen, Thorkil. The brain drain and development planning. No. 29. International Institute for Educational Planning, 1968.

United States Ambassador to the United Kingdom

March 8, 1938 - October 22, 1940

1st Chair of the U.S. Maritime In office April 14, 1937 - February 19, 1938

Died November 18, 1969 (aged 81) Hyannis Port, Massachusetts, U.S.

Kathleen Cavendish

Marchioness of Hartington

Kathleen Agnes Cavendish, Marchioness of Hartington, also known as "Kick" Kennedy, was an American socialite. She was the daughter of Joseph P. Kennedy, Sr. and Rose Kennedy, sister of future U.S. President John F. Kennedy, and wife of the Marquess of Hartington, heir apparent to the 10th Duke of Devonshire. Wikipedia

Born: February 20, 1920, Brookline, MA

Died: May 13, 1948, Cévennes, Fraissinet-de-Lozère, France

Spouse: William Cavendish, Marquess of Hartington (m. 1944–1944)

Buried: St Peter's Church, Edensor, United Kingdom

Siblings: Eunice Kennedy Shriver, Patricia Kennedy Lawford, MORE

Parents: Joseph P. Kennedy Sr., Rose Kennedy

Seattle federal prosecutor Thomas Wales was possibly killed October 12, 2001 by hired gunman, FBI official says

https://www.latimes.com/archives/la-xpm-2002-jan-13-tm-22284-story.html

Some say Wales' determination to control guns started in his days at the prestigious Milton Academy, when his roommate, Joseph Kennedy II, lost his father, Robert F. Kennedy, to an assassin's bullet.

Robert Francis Kennedy (November 20, 1925 June 6, 1968), also known by his initials RFK, was an American politician and lawyer. He served as the 64th United States attorney general from January 1961 to September 1964, and as a U.S. senator from New York from January 1965 until his assassination in June 1968, when he was running for the Democratic presidential nomination. Like his brothers John F. Kennedy and Ted Kennedy, he was a prominent member of the Democratic Party and is an icon of modern American liberalism. Wikipedia

Wales' son, Thomas Crane Wales VII, now studying for his PhD in history at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland, believes his father also was influenced by a 1995 incident while Tom was a student at Garfield High School in Seattle. A 15-year-old freshman ran through the school firing a stolen handgun, injuring two students. "I think it was the first shooting inside Seattle public schools," he says. "Pop came to speak at the school after that. He came, I think, with a bunch of other law enforcement people. He reassured people that the school would be safe, and not to be paranoid or afraid."

Wales joined CeaseFire in the 1990s. It had begun in 1983 as the first state gun control organization in the country and within two years had lobbied successfully for a state law requiring a criminal and mental health history background check on all handgun purchases made through licensed dealers and for a five-day waiting period for delivery. That was five years before approval of the Brady Act, which set a federal waiting period for new buyers of handguns.

In the '90s, Wales was among those who pushed for CeaseFire to have a full-time executive director and to create a state political action committee, which became the only one in the nation to rate, endorse and contribute to candidates based on their gun control views.

"Tom really was the driving force behind professionalizing the organization," says Bruce Gryniewski, hired as the first executive director. Wales' forte was fund-raising. He had a large network of lawyer friends, along with contacts in the business and land development communities through his work on the planning commission. About the time of the Garfield High shooting, Wales had raised $40,000 for opinion polling on the issue of gun violence. Not surprisingly, it showed Washington residents had little appetite for handgun registration. Yet it also suggested that even outside of the Seattle political fault line, residents substantially supported firearm safety issues, including trigger locks and safety training for gun owners. https://www.latimes.com/archives/la-xpm-2002-jan-13-tm-22284-story.html

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joseph_P._Kennedy_II

Joseph Patrick Kennedy II (born September 24, 1952) is an American businessman, Democratic politician, and a member of the Kennedy family. He is a son of former United States Senator Robert F. Kennedy and Ethel Kennedy, and he is a nephew of former U.S. President John F. Kennedy and former U.S. Senator Ted Kennedy.

Kennedy served as a member of the United States House of Representatives from the 8th congressional district of Massachusetts from 1987 to 1999. In 1979 he founded and, until he was elected to the U.S. House, led Citizens Energy Corporation, a non-profit energy company which provides heating oil to low-income and elderly families in Massachusetts.

https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/crime/seattle-federal-prosecutor-thomas-wales-was-possibly-killed-by-hired-gunman-fbi-official-says/

Sidney Gottlieb, CIA MKULTRA?

Never-before-seen image of 1962 JFK's motorcade through Seattle World's Fair

1962 Century 21 Exposition in Queen Annes Seattle neighborhood tied to Queen Elizabeth of Windsor

In 1962, Seattle hosted a world's fair, the future-looking Century 21 Exposition. The idea was to put Seattle on the map as a launching point for the Space Age by Knute Berger / November 12, 2015

also

It happened at Seattle's World's Fair Photo of Daniel DeMay Daniel DeMay , SeattlePI March 10, 2017 Updated: Dec. 12, 2017 1:34 p.m.

Nelsan Ellis Dead: 'True Blood' Star Dies at 39 - Varietyvariety.com › news › nelsan-ellis-dies-dead-true-blood- … Jul 8, 2017 - Nelsan Ellis - famous for his role as Lafayette on HBO's "True Blood" - has … Born in Harvey, Ill. in 1977, he and his siblings were moved to … But it transformed who I am as an actor and a person." … Nov 18, 2020 • 23 min

> Harvey is a city south of Chicago in Cook County, Illinois, United States. The population was 25,282 at the 2010 census. The city suffers from high levels of unemployment, poverty, and crime. Wikipedia

SARAH KERSHAW

New York Times , Sharing Their Demons on the Web By SARAH KERSHAW NOV. 12, 2008*

For people who say they are the target of mind control or gang stalking, there may be enough evidence in the scientific literature to fan their beliefs. Many sites point to MK-ULTRA, the code name for a covert C.I.A. mind-control and chemical interrogation program begun in the 1950s.

Recently the sites have linked to an article published in September in Time magazine, “The Army’s Totally Serious Mind-Control Project,” which described a $4 million contract given to the Army to develop “thought helmets” that would allow troops to communicate through brain waves on the battlefield.

NY Times Reporter Found Dead After Exposing MKUltra*

February 24, 2016 A former New York Times reporter has been found murdered in the Dominican Republic following her exposure of MKUltra.

Sarah Kershaw was found asphyxiated due to strangulation on Monday at her apartment in Sosua.

Project MKUltra, often referred to as the CIA’s mind control program, was the code name given to an illegal program of experiments on human subjects, designed and undertaken by the the CIA. Ms Kershaw published an article with the New York Times exploring this subject in 2008 with her article Sharing their Demons on the Web, https://beforeitsnews.com/v3/alternative/2019/3667580.html

Feb 23 2019 she is found dead

A Playboy model who exposed proof of an international elite pedophile ring have been discovered dead just weeks after publicly documenting that she was fearing for her life and would "never commit suicide."

THIS Of the only findable Gusto Vera links as of 3/3/2019 Wed, Feb 25, 2015, 14:21 Gusto Vera https://www.irishtimes.com/news/world/europe/vatican-pope-meant-no-offence-by-mexicanisation-remark-1.2117030

Robert Kraft li Ying massage parlor bust

Google

Asian American and Pacific Islander Initiative

President's Advisory Commission on AAPIs, Regional Network ...

Trump and Craft associated with Li Ying massage parlor. Did they surrogate select their custom illigit children cooked up in a beaker eslewhere?

White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders ... https://en.wikipedia.org/.../White_House_Initiative_on_Asian_Americans_and_Pacific...
The White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders is a United States governmental office that works to improve the quality of life and ...
Organization · President's Advisory ... · History · Bush Administration

Genes and IQ? 2/3rd of conference quit because of "portrayal of immigrants, refugees, people of color and people of various faiths as untrustworthy, threatening, and a drain on our nation."

Asian American and Pacific Islander Initiative | Community Partnerships
www.calstate.edu/externalrelations/partnerships/asian-pacific.shtml
Apr 27, 2018 - The goal of the CSU Asian American & Pacific Islander (AAPI) Initiative is to improve college access and graduation achievement for Asian ...

10 Resign from President's Advisory Commission on Asian Americans ...
https://www.nbcnews.com/.../asian-america/10-resign-president-s-advisory-commissio...
Feb 16, 2017 - White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (WHIAAPI) Commissioners' Meeting, Dec. 6, 2016, in Washington, D.C. ...

So, was the issue of Geno-Engineering and IVF a topic with the Li Ying Group?

White House Asian-American, Pacific Islander initiative names new ...
https://www.nbcnews.com/.../asian-america/white-house-asian-american-pacific-island...
Nov 30, 2017 - The White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders has installed a new executive director, the Department of Education ...

Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders | The White House
https://obamawhitehouse.archives.gov/administration/eop/aapi

Leslianne Shedd-a young, courageous, highly successful CIA operations officer serving in East Africa-was a passenger on an Ethiopian Airlines flight when it was hijacked and then crashed into the Indian Ocean on November 23, 1996, killing 125 people, including Leslianne. Survivors said that Leslianne spent her final moments comforting those around her.

At the University of Washington, Leslianne was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority. She played intramural soccer and was also a runner. She enjoyed dance - jazz and ballet. She also worked as a nurse's aide, a secretary at Weyerhaeuser Company, and a law office clerk and paralegal researcher.

Life at CIA

Leslianne began working at the CIA in February 1991. She received extensive training in operations and completed the Career Training Program in 1992. Her training included an interim assignment in the Directorate of Operations (DO) Africa

Division, where she was responsible for operational support to several stations abroad.

Dawn Sylvia-Stasiewicz

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Dawn Sylvia-Stasiewicz (February 16, 1958 – January 12, 2011) was an American dog trainer. She trained dogs such as Bo, US President Barack Obama's dog and late senator Edward Kennedy's three dogs.[1]

Sylvia-Stasiewicz lived with and trained Bo before knowing who his owners were. She had been suggested to the family by Vicki Kennedy, wife of Senator Kennedy who had told her that the dog was for a "very busy family with two young daughters".

Sylvia-Stasiewicz died on January 12, 2011 at the age of 52.[2]

Floyd Simpson, Bobby Courtney, Jimmy, Wally, and the other homeless recruits used to fake evidnece and impersonate me to the adult entertainment industry, which I report to CCCPD

Images for obama speaks at FLoyd Simpsons funeral

More images for obama speaks at FLoyd Simpsons funeral

Report images

GcMAF and 2015

James Jeffrey "Jeff" Bradstreet (July 6, 1954 - June 19, 2015) From George CIA activities of Ladies Gardening Club (Atlanta) and CIA DARPA Brain research.

- June 19th Dr. Jeffrey Bradstreet (see above)

- June 21st Dr. Bruce Hedendal and Dr. Baron Holt found dead on the East coast of Florida. Dr. Hedendal died in his car and Dr. Holt's cause of death has yet to be officially determined.

- June 29th Dr. Theresa Sievers found murdered in her home. Dr. Jeffrey Whiteside goes missing. Reports say he just "walked away."

- July 3rd Dr. Patrick Fitzpatrick, MD, goes missing without a trace. His truck and trailer were found on the side of the road.

J

- July 10th Lisa Riley, Doctor of Osteopathy, found in her home with a gunshot wound to her head.

- July 19th Dr. Ron Schwartz found murdered by a gunshot wound to the chest in his home on the East Coast of Florida.

- July 21st Dr. Nicholas Gonzalez (see above)

- July 21st Dr. Abdul-Karim, holistic dentist. Found dead on the side of the road at 10pm EST.

- July 23rd Dr. Jeffery Whiteside is found dead in Door County with a .22 caliber close to his body.

- August 14th Osteopath Dr. Mary Rene Bovier, found stabbed in her home in Sharon, Pennsylvania.

- September 16th Dr. Mitch Gaynor is found dead outside his country home outside of Manhattan where he practiced. The local sheriff quickly calls it a suicide.

- October 11th Dr. Marie Paas is found dead of an alleged suicide.

- October 29th Dr. Jerome Block “jumped” to his death from the Central Park West Apartments.

Doctors Who Have Real Cures Not Approved by the FDA

By John P. Thomas
Global Research, February 21, 2018
Health Impact News

Region: USA
Theme: Science and Medicine

4848 Like 749 Tweet 160 Email 78 Share 12K

REDEFINING AUTISM
The Life and Work of Dr. Jeff Bradstreet

This article was originally published on July 31, 2015.

How are autism and cancer related? Two internationally known doctors may have lost their lives, because they knew about the connection between these two diseases.

Dr. Jeffrey Bradstreet, MD, an alternative autism specialist, and Dr. Nicholas Gonzalez, MD, an alternative cancer specialist, saw the truth and were willing to step outside of the standard allopathic medical model for treating cancer and autism. They were pioneers in their respective fields and both recently died or perhaps were killed because of their successful treatments of sick, suffering and dying patients.

Death of Dr. Bradstreet

On June 19, 2015, Dr. Bradstreet reportedly shot himself in the chest after his offices were raided by U.S. FDA agents and State of Georgia law enforcement agents. Three days before his death, agents exercised a search warrant to gather information about the use of GcMAF with autistic patients in his clinic. [1] in addition, inactivated Nagalase also active GcMAF by sugar demerger. macrophages occupy a key role in the immune system and are used as a young, immature monocytes from the bone marrow into the blood. the blood they differentiate partially dendritic cells or migrate after activation in tissue, where they mature into resident tissue macrophages, which then depending on the tissue as Kupffer cells (liver), glial cells (nervous system), alveolar (lung), osteoclasts (bone) or as Langhans giant cells (skin) are referred to.

…

The phagocytic activity and the expression of HLA molecules is up to 100-fold increased, whereby the presentation of antigens can be increased exponentially. through this booster effect pathogens that may have been immune defense previously limited access can be controlled efficiently. the immune response to antigens that were not recognized can be activated. tumor cells that may have escaped the immune recognition be unmasked and killed. multiple was confirmed in recent years that GcMAF improved the treatment of tumor diseases and infections such as HIV even enormous.

https://www.globalresearch.ca/cancer-and-autism-mysterious-deaths-of-alternative-health-doctors-who-have-real-cures-not-approved-by-the-fda/5465809

When agents from the USFDA and local state of Georgia law enforcement raided Dr. Bradstreet's clinic, they had a very specific agenda - they were after everything they could find pertaining to GcMAF. The search warrant stated in part that agents were to gather all Globulin component Macrophage Activating Factor (GcMAF), GCGlobulin, and/or any other products or component substances thereof that constitute misbranded drugs under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

They were to collect all records, in whatever form, associated with the use of GcMAF. This included patient records.

Here is a link to the complete search warrant.

GcMAF is a Substance Produced in the Human Body

GcMAF is not a drug, but a natural substance produced in the human body. GcMAF was being produced in Europe and Dr. Bradstreet was using it with his patients. He was conducting clinical experiments the results of which were published in scientific medical journals. [4]

Scientific medical research is also being done on GcMAF for the treatment of terminal cancer. The results are very promising. [5]

Death of Dr. Gonzalez

On July 21, 2015 Dr. Nicholas Gonzalez died. The cause of death was indicated as a heart attack. At the time of this writing, results from an autopsy have yet to be published. He was reported to be in good health. [6, 7]

Dr. Nicholas Gonzalez. Image from Dr-Gonzalez.com.

Would a healthy man who understood how diet could be used to prevent, reverse and cure disease be someone who was likely to have a heart attack? Was his heart attack just a natural occurrence, or could it have been caused by an external intervention?

In 1975, testimony before the U.S. Congress indicated that a weapon had been developed to shoot a projectile into a victim without the victim's knowledge, which would introduce a nearly undetectable substance into the body that would cause a heart attack. The victim would be killed without the telltale evidence of normal bloody assignation. [8] How much more sophisticated weaponry has been developed in the last 40 years since that testimony? Are there new ways to permanently silence doctors who stand alone on the outside of conventional medicine and who will not be quiet about the truth they see?

Are the causes of death for these two very well-known alternative medicine doctors coincidental? Are we being told the truth? Is there a connection between their research and their deaths? Was there research about to cut a large hole in the cancer treatment business and the vaccine business? Let's take a closer look at GcMAF.

The Power of GcMAF to Cure Modern Diseases

What if there was a simple treatment that could reverse all forms of cancer without radiation, chemotherapy, or surgery? What if it was an unpatentable natural substance produced by the human body and could be given to boost the human immune system to such a degree that it could eradicate cancer from the body without side effects? What if that same substance could be given to autistic children and 85% of them would experience improvement in their autism and many would be completely cured? Wouldn't that be wonderful!

Australia and the Richard Cousins Family *

also http://www.nightscribe.com/Politics/clintonhitlist.htm

Freak Accidents at Sea

350 miles South of Seatle and likely well after death a body found near Portland Oregon

The AP

SALEM, Ore. - One moment, Jayson Thomas was on the Oregon beach with his 3-year-old son. The next, they were gone, swept away by a "sneaker wave" as his wife looked on.

The man and his boy were but the latest to be lost to a sneaker wave, which are prevalent in the Pacific Northwest. A leading expert says there needs to be greater awareness to prevent future tragedies.

Body on Oregon beach identified as former Corpus Christi … www.caller.com › story › news › 2017/02/15 › body-o … Feb 15, 2017 - COOS BAY, Ore. (AP) - A body that washed ashore on Horsfall Beach near Coos Bay, Oregon, has been identified as Jayson Thomas, a man *

> COOS BAY, Ore. (AP) - A body that washed ashore on Horsfall Beach near Coos Bay, Oregon, has been identified as Jayson Thomas, a man who was swept out to sea last month while carrying his 3-year-old son.
>
> Coos County District Attorney Paul Frasier says the body was discovered Saturday, and there is no evidence to suggest it was anything but an accidental drowning.
>
> Thomas, who now lived in Elmira, Oregon, and his son were walking on the beach near Flores Lake, about 20 miles south of Bandon, Ore., when a wave swept them out to sea, officials said. The toddler's body has not been recovered.
>
> According to public records, Thomas left Corpus Christi in 2006.

BlackAmericaweb.com * Don Lemon's Sister Passes Away In Freak Drowning Accident - In a tweet, Lemon thanked his followers for their love and support. "Thanks everyone for your words of sympathy. Please keep my family in your prayers," he tweeted. "Leisa was my oldest sister & partner in crime growing up. Always hand my back. #RIPbigSis." Feb 1st date of tragedy

Prince Andrew tours Manhattan with billionaire sex offender Jeffrey Epstein By Cathy Burke February 21, 2011 the New York Post*

Elsewhere

How 'bout them missiles, and can we work together?

November 21 2011 some VERY HIGH LEVEL talks have been held are are coming in to the daily reports.

Would be serious violation of British Secrecy Act November 21 2011

November 21 2011 [OS] Russia 111121 … allow disclosure of missile defense secrets to Russia Kirill Belyaninov (New York), Gennady … a potential threat to Russian nuclear arsenal, while Washington tries to convince Moscow that … the framework of the project to build a nuclear power plant in Vietnam …

November 21 2011 .. [Eurasia] Fwd: [OS] Russia 111121 … allow disclosure of missile defense secrets to Russia Kirill Belyaninov (New York), Gennady … a potential threat to Russian nuclear arsenal, while Washington tries to convince Moscow that … the framework of the project to build a nuclear power plant in Vietnam …

November 21 2011 [OS] Russia 111121 … allow disclosure of missile defense secrets to Russia Kirill Belyaninov (New York), Gennady … a potential threat to Russian nuclear arsenal, while Washington tries to convince Moscow that … the framework of the project to build a nuclear power plant in Vietnam …

Days, before, Petty Officer's Strange's Nov. 16, 2011, autopsy report (Aug 6 Extortion17 flight) from the Armed Forces Medical Examiner System said he suffered burns to 40 percent of his body. But the body itself was intact with identifiable clothing.

November 17, 2011 Barrack Obama in Australia and Ausralia MKULTRA deals -

> … To you and the people of Australia, thank you for your extraordinary hospitality. … we will never forget how Australia invoked the ANZUS Treaty - for the first time … and when we pursue our shared vision: a world without nuclear weapons.

A year later Australia burns

The British-American coup that ended Australian independence retrieved from The Gaurdian and copied or modified to here

John Pilger

Across the media and political establishment in Australia, a silence has descended on the memory of the great, reforming prime minister Gough Whitlam. His achievements are recognised, if grudgingly, his mistakes noted in false sorrow. But a critical reason for his extraordinary political demise will, they hope, be buried with him.

Australia briefly became an independent state during the Whitlam years, 1972-75. An American commentator wrote that no country had "reversed its posture in international affairs so totally without going through a domestic revolution". Whitlam ended his nation's colonial servility. He abolished royal patronage, moved Australia towards the Non-Aligned Movement, supported "zones of peace" and opposed nuclear weapons testing.

Although not regarded as on the left of the Labor party, Whitlam was a maverick social democrat of principle, pride and propriety. He believed that a foreign power should not control his country's resources and dictate its economic and foreign policies. He proposed to "buy back the farm". In drafting the first Aboriginal lands rights legislation, his government raised the ghost of the greatest land grab in human history, Britain's colonisation of Australia, and the question of who owned the island-continent's vast natural wealth.

Latin Americans will recognise the audacity and danger of this "breaking free" in a country whose establishment was welded to great, external power. Australians had served every British imperial adventure since the Boxer rebellion was crushed in China. In the 1960s, Australia pleaded to join the US in its invasion of Vietnam, then provided "black teams" to be run by the CIA. US diplomatic cables published last year by WikiLeaks disclose the names of leading figures in both main parties, including a future prime minister and foreign minister, as Washington's informants during the Whitlam years.

Whitlam knew the risk he was taking. The day after his election, he ordered that his staff should not be "vetted or harassed" by the Australian security organisation, Asio - then, as now, tied to Anglo-American intelligence. When his ministers publicly condemned the US bombing of Vietnam as "corrupt and barbaric", a CIA station officer in Saigon said: "We were told the Australians might as well be regarded as North Vietnamese collaborators."

Fount of Honour influencing "Fountain of Authority or Taproot of Power in US Founding terms of governmental philosophy

The Sovereign is 'the fountain of all honour and dignity' and enjoys the sole right of conferring all titles of honour, dignities and precedence. Formerly most honours were awarded on the advice of the prime minister and the premiers.

The Order of Australia was instituted not by statute but by Letters Patent under the royal prerogative, and has since replaced most imperial honours except those in the personal gift of the Sovereign.

In the United Kingdom, The Queen is the Defender of the Faith, and the Supreme Governor of the Church of England, which is established in England and Wales.

In Australia there is no established church, but it is worth recalling that the preamble to the Constitution Act, 1900 (Imp) recites that the people of the several colonies "humbly relying on the blessings of Almighty God," had " agreed to unite in one indissoluble Federal Commonwealth under the Crown." When that was submitted to a wide consultation process before the referenda to approve the Constitution, this provision attracted very strong public and political support.

Julian Paul Assange retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Julian Assange was born Julian Paul Hawkins on 3 July 1971 in Townsville, Queensland, to Christine Ann Hawkins (b. 1951), a visual artist, and John Shipton, an anti-war activist and builder.

[Mrs Christine Ann Hawkins 5th May 1950 - 14th November 2020 ?]

> Funeral conducted by Selim Smith & Co Funeral Directors
>
> Mrs Christine Ann Hawkins
> 5th May 1950 - 14th November 2020
>
> It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Christine Hawkins who died at Gloucester Royal Hospital, aged 70 (50 + 20 or so) .
>
> She will be greatly missed by her family, friends and all who knew her.
>
> Due to current restrictions there will be a private service taking place on Monday 7th December.
>
> The family have chosen donations to go to > Ward 7B, Gloucester Royal Hospital Charity.

> May be sent c/o Selim Smith & Co.

The couple separated before their son was born. When Julian was a year old, his mother married Brett Assange, an actor with whom she ran a small theatre company and whom Julian regards as his father (choosing Assange as his surname)

Christine and Brett Assange divorced around 1979. Christine then became involved with Leif Meynell, also known as Leif Hamilton, whom Julian Assange later described as “a member of an Australian cult” called The Family. They separated in 1982.

The Family - also called the Santiniketan Park Association and the Great White Brotherhood - is an Australian New Age group formed in the mid-1960s under the leadership of yoga teacher Anne Hamilton-Byrne (born Evelyn Grace Victoria Edwards; 30 December 1921 - 13 June 2019). The group’s headquarters was raided by the police on 14 August 1987 and all children were removed from the premises.

The Family teaches an eclectic mixture of Christianity and Hinduism with other Eastern and Western religions on the principle that spiritual truths are universal.[3][page needed] The children studied the major scriptures of these religions and also the works of fashionable gurus including Sri Chinmoy, Meher Baba, and Rajneesh.[4][page needed] The group has an inner circle who justify their actions by their claim to be reincarnations of the Apostles of Jesus.(Great Society like Jonestown)

During the late 1960s and the 1970s, Newhaven Hospital in Kew was a private psychiatric hospital owned and managed by Marion Villimek, a Santiniketan member; many of its staff and attending psychiatrists were also members.

Many patients at Newhaven were treated with the hallucinogenic drug LSD.[12] The hospital was used to recruit potential new members from among the patients, and also to administer LSD to members under the direction of the Santiniketan psychiatrists John Mackay and Howard Whitaker.[13] One of the original members of the Association was given LSD, electroconvulsive therapy, and two leucotomies, also called lobotomies, during the late 1960s.[7]

PROJECT MONARCH, MK-ULTRA AND "THE FAMILY" CULT IN AUSTRALIA retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

MK-Ultra and Monarch "sleepers":the case of The Family cult in Australia

A Sleeper Agent is a spy who is placed in a target country or organization, not to undertake an immediate mission, but rather to act as a potential asset if activated.If they are mind controlled and programmed they most of the time are not even aware to be "sleepers" ,or even agents for that matter, and live a normal life until a pre-programmed sound or command activates them.

During the '60 and '70 and '80 the cover for C.I.A.'s Monarch and MK-Ultra projects in Australia was a sect/ cult called "The Family" [which is what Julian Assange was born into but rejected.] It was set up as a school for children but as it turned out after the investigation of the Australian Federal Police,it was in reality a mind controlling/programming facility of the C.I.A.

Known children that were raised in The Family cult were Martin Bryant,the spree killer who pled guilty to murdering 35 people and injuring 21 others in the Port Arthur massacre, and Julian Assange. A mention of this crucial event in Julian's life even appears in the Hollywood blockbuster movie based on his life called "The Fifth Estate". During a dialogue at the beginning, Assange tells his former friend and colleague Daniel Berg, > Assange: "When I was 13, my mother started dating a guy who was part of a nasty Australian cult. The Family. They believed in blue auras and cleansing souls and the strict discipline of children … starvation diets … regular dosing of psychiatric drugs and severe beatings. It had a surprisingly large network of influence, extending to the highest levels of government. My mum knew the guy was a wanker, but by the time she came to her senses they'd had a kid together and …we spent the next three years on the run. The Family chased us all over the country."

Directed Energy Weapon to his mitochondria derived hair?

[image]

Secret of Assange's hair revealed 05:00, Aug 08 2011 https://www.stuff.co.nz/ *

Brooke details how the 1.9m-tall Assange, who used to wear a platinum-blond bob, now cut short, told her the story of his hair.

“It went white as a result of a childhood experiment with a cathode ray tube that went wrong,” Assange told Brooke.

It is believed the incident happened when he was aged 15, up to which age he was blond.

He insisted his current hair colour is real.

“I used to have it down my back. When I was travelling in Vietnam it got very annoying because everywhere I went people would want to touch it,” he said.

©Targete97196203 ©mkultragirl ©ninjashoes ©EndMKUltra ©RadiumDanny My mother had her mitochondra “stalked” (hats stolen, photos stolen, wrist items destroyed like watchbands, etc.,) ©BIBBI02374449 ©Kaleigh23673557

Bobbi Peitsch ©BIBBI02374449 17th Generation Canadian, Endangered mtDNA group HVO t195c … Targeted Whistle-blower, being genocided by terrorists

The Telegraph UK - America ‘sold British nuclear secrets to Russia’: Shock claim in latest WikiLeaks cables

[image] [image]

CREDIT

Worrying: WikiLeaks has revealed US President Barack

Obama used British nuclear secrets - including that of the Trident missile - in agreeing a treaty with Russia *

Information about every Trident missile the US supplies to Britain will be given to Russia as part of an arms control deal signed by President Barack Obama next week ….

Compare with Kamloops torture, abuse, murder, anonymous burial of children 1959 Windsors CIA Vatican connected Kamploops Canada Childrens school, muuch like MCMartin CIA Manhattan Beach pre school.

> [image]
>
> STROKE BEHIND BARS WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange ‘suffers stroke in jail’ after court rules he can be extradited to America retrieved from the u.s. SUN and copied or modified to here
>
> [I Ed Donegan would rather kill Julian Assange before he spent even one second in any US legal system.]
>
> [image]
>
> Assange has reportedly been left with a drooping right eyelid, memory problems and signs of neurological damage following a mini-stroke.
>
> It’s reported the stroke happened at the time of a High Court appearance via video link in October.

His fiancee Stella Moris said he is “struggling” with the stress of fighting extradition to a US prison.

Since the mini-stroke, Assange reportedly has had an MRI scan and is taking anti-stroke medication.

Ms Moris told the Mail: “Julian is struggling and I fear this mini-stroke could be the precursor to a more major attack. It compounds our fears about his ability to survive the longer this long legal battle goes on.

“It urgently needs to be resolved. Look at animals trapped in cages in a zoo. It cuts their life short. That’s what’s happening to Julian. The never-ending court cases are extremely stressful mentally.”

Feb 1, 2016 - Over 50,000 Native Children Were Tortured, Sexually Abused and Some Murdered at Canadian Church Run Indian Residential Schools by Damon Corrie

Last Real Indians 2020 The New Indigenous Millennium *

Namely - that ALL European Royal families can trace back via at least one ancestor/ancestress to a member of the Imperial bloodline of the Roman Empire, and the Roman Emperors can trace back via at least once ancestor/ancestress to the Royal bloodline of the Egyptian dynasties - who in turn can trace back via at least one ancestor/ancestress to the Babylonian Royal Bloodlines - who were the first ‘Royals’ to claim that ‘A

Divine Right to rule over mankind was bestowed unto them from supernatural entities they called ‘Gods’ (and also the first to engage in ritualistic child sex and sacrifice children to these ‘Gods’ in dark rituals). Since the Babylonians - many other Kings & Emperors around the world have copied them and claimed ‘divine

Is there some additional esoteric importance to the mitochondrial DNA they have been so successful at carefully preserving for thousands of years? Some dark aspect to it known to the bearers?

Deaths of 215 children at Kamloops residential school - CTV retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

“When the oblates began to centralize their operations, they began to divest themselves of their records by donating them to appropriate public archives across the country,” Weber told CTV News Vancouver.

She says there are four other locations across the country with archives from the oblates, but B.C. has the bulk of the material.

In fact, Weber says the museum has “about 250 bankers’ boxes” full of records. Those include official government documents, letters, correspondence, daily journals, diaries and reports.

“Some of the records are written in cursive and some people had very good handwriting and some didn’t,” Weber said, adding she is “very adept” at reading the script.

Weber believes the documents will give an insight into the “conditions of life at the schools.” That could include evidence of disease outbreaks like measles, as well as the conditions of the buildings where the children lived.

According to information already recorded by the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation, in 1910, the school's principal said that the government did not provide enough money to feed the students properly. In 1924, a portion of the school was destroyed by fire.

Weber says the documents also include information about the missionary work that the oblates did in the surrounding communities.

"There's information that speaks to the conditions in general for the Indigenous people of that region at various points in time over the past 150 or so years," she said. "It also speaks to the relationship between the Department of Indian Affairs and the school itself, as there's a lot of letters and communication and reports back and forth between those two entities."

The museum is in the process of digitizing the documents, which is happening with the assistance of UBC's Indian Residential School History and Dialogue Centre.

"They have wonderful technology and the capability to safely store electronic records and share them in a way that can keep them restricted and private so that only the community members have access to them," Weber said.

This book

Jim Volcelcka and William Ruiz Slap work with and slap me back to Corpus Christi non white skid row

Blacklisting by Character Depredation. The system was to paint me who was a good fit for Stay and Play and make it seem to Jim Volcelka and others I was a poor fit. IT was made to seem I was a non-consensual photographer, of low sophistication level, and interested in childish peeping and not worldly history and Gothic history.

Over an over again my BDSM interest was hidden as not existing and instead "Are you looking at my ass?" accusations literally surrounded me. I had a very heavy exotic interest in execution, very pervy heavy BDSM normally taboo even in the scene.

For decades in the Gang Stalk very filthy and disgusting people have stalked me. In the institutions normal criminal populations hate the psych ward people. THey are the behind the dumpster ranting crazies with less than fifty percent teeth and more delusions than teeth remaining.

It is exactly with police assistance this group has stalked me for years and blamed me for being a gym clothes are ass peeper. Every single person switch there BDSM Instagram feed from the ultra heavy into weird buttocks in the parks and tights ass fetishism.

People faked being my victims while wearing sports tights or sports shorts of that alleged interests of mine when I neither had that interest nor had victimized them. The underage girl was nothing factually to do wiht me nor the rescuer adult female with huge buttocks.

This sceneario is around the clock. Dopple of me in a nearby apartment is a treehouse looking at a school (Casa Linda) and the fake peeper as me is really filthy skid row witha white female marital partner telling me whites don't belong in the area. A white adult female will use her buttocks to block the view of children's buttocks. The black male with the white female are usually Salvation Army or similar taking up Donegan family interests "cloning" them into Biblle studies.

One example I have seen online is Atari Jones of the Gates San Francisco a CLoner and he is black with pictures of white women playing tennis buttocks haningn out, etc, as he works with managing white female dominatrixes and that is based on studying me who is alleged incorrectly to force women into it when I never have and corrected that lie many times. IT is these skid row using my Natural Law Philosophy as some new form of Christianity.

Wanna Be Forbin's Quantum Tunnel Timeline

Since my days being around the Gorbachave Center Golden Gate Park San Francisco even then I had done running in with Shatter's new wife before she was, I had followed the collapse of the USSR. I had been to Red Square and spent my life reading Hoover Institute Soveitology more than almost anything else.

What I had wanted from those days of the fall of the USSR was a United Europe east and west, old and new and the USA and Latin America.

Leaving aside the superficial aspects of my life this is the progression., I had believed in Atheism rather than Orthodox and Islamic warfare with the Western Europe antagonidsts post fall of the USSR, a Euopre united Reagan supposedly dreamed of and re-united Germany.

My thrid web site recommending Mother Russia and the Statue of Liberty unite was going to be as I discussed with Jim Volcelkai was $2\ H_2O(l) \rightarrow 2\ H_2(g) + O_2(g)$ and this is the formula of electricty splitting the two gasses from one water.

Lawerance Hall of Science and the Cyclotron where the Forbin Project was filmed. Solids, Liquids, and Gases

Lawrence Hall of Science https://lawrencehallofscience.org › school-programs Discover the answer to these questions, and more, through the phase-changing, mind-bending world of solids, liquids, and gases!

Tours of this site with my father telling me about it as I sat on the Cyclotron listing to physicas and hitory of the a bomb were important times for us and suing the Teletypes from Head Royce and at that site to use the main computer for programs run for children teaching computers was great fun I had with my father and Tom as was my father believing religious wars were too devastating.

Think War Games and the Wopper, and realizing it is something made up. We don't have to go to war.

But what if it went the other way my XML syntaxes were going to suggest, We could gel again into a solid, one solid made of us both.

Jim framed me proably thinking it was true about me anyway, but he framed me still, and in that they took over my Deja scene request of b and d and turned it into a looser throwing money shot money at buttocks, that person not me but saying that was the third web site I was working on. This smear campaigning continues.

Political Rights my other web site had music uniting Russian and the US and featured Metalica playig Moscow. Honor Flight DCA same thing, fall of the Wall videos and peace now with Eastern Europe.

Web sites one and two on Natural Law Philsophy of Greece,

The New Eletrco and Dueax Electron same thing, and the New Electri I was going to write with XML what I had intended as stopping the religous wars that are along the old schism lime of east west most want WWIII for and they have wanted that for at least 2o years visibly.

[image]

Breaking and Entering vs Trespassing - What's the difference? retrieved from Shouse Law Group and copied or modified to here

Breaking and entering and trespassing are similar but distinct crimes. Breaking and entering generally involves the use of force, however slight, to gain entry into a building or residence. Trespass only requires an unauthorized entry onto someone else's property, with or without forced entry.

In most states, there also has to be an intent to commit a crime for it to be breaking and entering. The penalties are also different.

What is the crime of breaking and entering?

Generally, breaking and entering is the crime of using force or fraud to gain access to a building, and then entering it in order to commit a crime. Breaking and entering is sometimes referred to as "B&E."

Some states have criminal laws that forbid breaking and entering, specifically. Each state may define the crime slightly differently. Many other states, like New York and California, do not have criminal laws that specifically prohibit breaking and entering. Instead, these states cover the act with other criminal statutes, like burglary.

To add even more complexity, in some states, burglary only requires entering a building. The act of breaking into it is no longer necessary. California is one of these states.[1] The wide variation in state laws makes it important to discuss your particular case with a local criminal defense lawyer.

What is the crime of trespassing?

Trespassing is the crime of entering or remaining on someone else's property without permission or a right to do so.

In California, the elements of the crime of trespassing are:

- the defendant willfully entered someone else's property,
- the defendant had the specific intent to interfere with the other person's property rights, and
- the defendant did actually interfere with those property rights.[2]

The prosecutor has to prove each of these elements beyond a reasonable doubt.

What are the differences between the two?

Generally, breaking and entering is different from trespassing in 3 ways:

1. breaking and entering requires the use of force or fraud,

2. trespassing can happen anywhere, while B&E can only happen in a building, and

3. there has to be an intent to commit a crime for it to be breaking & entering.

These differences can be very slight and nuanced. Additionally, different states can have different definitions of breaking and entering. However, the differences can turn a relatively minor offense of trespassing into a more serious property crime. An experienced criminal defense attorney can help fight the criminal charge.

Force or fraud

Perhaps the most important difference between trespassing and breaking and entering is the use of force to gain entry. Cases of trespass, even criminal trespass, do not require the use of force or fraud. In many states, breaking and entering does. The amount of force required to gain entry, though, does not have to be great for it to become B&E. It can even be negligible.

In one state that has a breaking and entering law, Indiana, the following cases had sufficient force to be considered a breaking and entering:

- gaining access to a store through an unlocked door,[3] and
- further opening a door that is already slightly ajar.[4]

However, it is generally not considered to be breaking and entering when someone enters without using force because there was already an opening.

> For example: Steven reaches through an open car window and steals a tape cassette player.[5]

Some states, like California, have burglary laws that cover conduct that used to be considered breaking and entering. Many of these laws have done away with the need for force.[6] In these states, simply entering the premises to commit a crime is enough.

Breaking and entering can also be done through fraud, rather than through force. Coercing or tricking someone into allowing a defendant to enter does not make the entry a lawful one.

> For example: David walks up to a house and rings the doorbell. He asks to be let inside to use the phone because his car broke down. Once inside, he attacks the occupant and steals money. He is convicted of burglary for breaking into and entering the home.[7]

Buildings

While trespassing can happen anywhere on someone else's property, breaking and entering generally has to involve a building. In some states, it has to be a residence or dwelling.

The reason for this difference is that the law of breaking and entering is designed to protect people. Trespassing is just to keep others from intruding on property. Therefore, courts have required that the building or structure be large enough to accommodate a person,[8] and could actually be lived in.[9] However, the property owner does not have to be inside at the time of the offense for it to be breaking and entering.[10]

Intent to commit a crime

The crime of breaking and entering generally requires an intent to commit another crime - usually robbery, theft, or arson. Trespassing does not.

This intent to commit a crime has to exist at the time of the breaking and entering.[11] However, it only has to be an intent to commit the crime. It is not a defense that the intended crime was never committed.

Some states require the crime to be a felony offense. Many other states, including California, require an intent to commit a felony or a theft or larceny crime while inside. In other states, the intent to commit any crime will do.

What are the penalties of a conviction?

Because breaking and entering is a more severe type of criminal offense than mere trespassing, the penalties of a conviction are also higher. Breaking and entering is often a felony. Trespassing is usually a misdemeanor.

In California, for example, the crime of entering a structure or vehicle with the intent to commit a felony or theft is considered burglary.[12]

First-degree burglary is any burglary of a residence. It is always a felony offense. Convictions come with:

- up to $10,000 in fines,
- a 2, 4, or 6 year prison sentence in a California state prison, and/or
- a "strike" on the defendant's criminal record under California's Three Strikes law.[13]

Second-degree burglary in California is the crime of burglary involving any building that is not a residence. In California, these burglary charges are wobblers. Prosecutors can pursue either misdemeanor or felony charges.

If pursued as a felony, convictions carry up to:

- $10,000 in fines, and/or
- 16 months, 2 years, or 3 years of jail time in county jail.[14]

If pursued as a misdemeanor, convictions carry up to:

- $1,000 in fines, and/or
- 1 year in county jail.[15]

The penalties for trespassing in California are lower. Most trespassing cases in the state are simple misdemeanors. Convictions carry up to:

- 6 months in county jail, and/or
- $1,000 in fines.[16]

In certain, rare cares, trespassing carries higher penalties in California. Some examples are:

- refusing to leave a domestic violence shelter for battered women after being asked to do so,[17] and
- aggravated trespass, or entering someone else's property after making a credible threat on his or her safety.[18]

Whether charged with trespass or breaking and entering, defendants should strongly consider establishing an attorney-client relationship with a criminal defense lawyer from a reputable law firm and getting their legal advice for how to proceed.

Legal References:

1. People v. Gauze, 15 Cal.3d 709 (1975).

2. See, e.g., California Criminal Jury Instructions (CALCRIM) No. 2930.

3. Trice v. State, 490 N.E.2d 757 (1986).

4. Utley v. State, 589 N.E.2d 232 (1992).

5. Facts from State v. Martinez, 891 P.2d 1061 (1995).

6. See, e.g., CALCRIM No. 1700.

7. Facts from State v. Plumley, 384 S.E.2d 130 (1989).

8. United States v. Sparks, 265 F.3d 825 (9th Cir. 2001) (defendant had broken into several storage lockers).

9. In re Amber S., 33 Cal.App.4th 185 (1995) (a pole barn without walls).

10. State v. Ervin, 96 N.M. 366 (1981).

11. People v. Hill, 67 Cal.2d 105 (1967).

12. California Penal Code 459 PC.

13. California Penal Code 461 and 667 PC.

14. California Penal Code 461 PC.

15. Same.

16. California Penal Code 19 PC.

17. California Penal Code 602(w) PC.

18. California Penal Code 601 PC.

About the Author

Neil Shouse

A former Los Angeles prosecutor, attorney Neil Shouse graduated with honors from UC Berkeley and Harvard Law School (and completed additional graduate studies at MIT). He has been featured on CNN, Good Morning America, Dr Phil, Court TV, The Today Show and Court TV. Mr Shouse has been recognized by the National Trial Lawyers as one of the Top 100 Criminal and Top 100 Civil Attorneys.

> Bruce's Beach can return to descendants of Black family in landmark move signed by Newsom
>
> LA Times *

n September, California Gov. Gavin Newsom signed a law that authorized the return of shorefront land known as Bruce's Beach to the descendants of a Black couple who were run out of Manhattan Beach nearly a century ago.

That the house of every one is to him as his Castle and Fortress as well for defence against injury and violence, as for his repose; and although the life of man is precious and favoured in law; so that although a man kill another in his defence, or kill one per infortuntun' (by misfortune), without any intent, yet it is felony, and in such case he shall forfeit his goods and chattels, for the great regard which the law hath of a mans life; But if theeves come to a mans house to rob him, or murder, and the owner or his servants kill any of the theeves in defence of himself and his house, it is no felony, and he shall lose nothing, and therewith agreeth 3 Edw. 3. Coron. 303, & 305. & 26 Ass. pl. 23. So it is holden in 21 Hen. 7. 39. every one may assemble his friends or neighbours to defend his house against violence: But he cannot assemble them to goe with him to the Market or elsewhere to keep him from violence: And the reason of all the same is, because domus sua cuique est tutissimum refugium. [everyone's house is his safest refuge ("Every man's home is his castle.")

Glorian DOnegan's house, stopping peeping into and mocking me during peeping via looking into my windows, assaults by noise and computer theft, siege to wiring and plumbing, seige to grocery, violence on property, other crimes, violation of leases, rackets run inside of home, sexual assault staged inside my home against me and and against other from me home and destruction of my home property during those events.

Glorian DOnegan's house, stopping peeping into and mocking me during peeping via looking into my windows, assaults by noise and computer theft, siege to wiring and plumbing, seige to grocery, violence on property, other crimes, violation of leases, rackets run inside of home, sexual assault staged inside my home against me and and against other from me home and destruction of my home property during those events. Intrusive and seuxally abusive shouding and catcalling from adjoining apartements when I am the shower, toilet, bed, etc., Real papers and affects robbed or examined and others affects planted.

This happens after I move back to Corpus Christi and is trespass by blurred boundries brinksmanship plausibly denied but real incursions.

I came to Corpus Christi in 2015 and asked the ARC of NOVA TRust fund for money to buy a sailbord capable suv wagon and wanted to start windsurfing. This picture is taken from the Windport Launch Beach were I jump rope and wish to windsurf from. The Legend is I peek at beech goers buttocks and such peeping IS staged but not related to me but attributed to me undermining my as a "safe" person to be a beaches instead being a person who makes others “unsafe.”

My activities are sabotaged be pretextual reputation damage.

1511 (Yellow) near park	Quad 1511 parkside	Quad 1513 (Blue) aft of 1511 and floorplan
First Floor	1	2	5 me and the cats. Does not see park on decline hill In boundary blurring incursion like trespass the boundary between 5 and 5 seems blurred	6
Second Floor	3	4	7 Was normal occupant, female, moved out. CCRTA.org transgener male moved in	8

Incursion
Rottan Edwards lives 7 and has fantasies a Royal Confusion between floor boundaries

Read Ed Donegan blurred with 7 by incursions trespass of vague boundary

Not picture but next to the yellow and blue building I live in Pushing the apt number lable towards the ceiling helps the tresspass incursion accross the ceiling to floor line and "moves" 5 into 7 where 7 is then as 5 peeping at the beachgoers.

The capital homicides of Jen Moore and Corpus Christi street person Jimmy

I continue to assert black marketing brain genes and designer babies, slush funds, and politicians in slush funds a mafia activities have no place. ©sftomdunham and I are white hats defeated by black hats.

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Nodes	Suggestive or story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing suggestive fraud
1	.Suggestive narrative 5 (fraudulent and vague dual construction narrative or narration element)	2
3		4

Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events

On the way to Jim Vocelka's adult dungeon residence it was made to look like I was into child porn and I should be denied rental after a period of shake down (kiting money from my trust fund) for a while. This has been done to sabotage my life in all matters.

I stopped off at 1 Wells Fargo for 2 Rent payment at Adult Stay and Play. Narraitve was created I was attempt to proposition 3 and teen, for 4 illicit and dispicable purposes. Mechanistically my activities and attributes are reversed into an evil by false narrative and paid actors near me altering the context of my acts.

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog, bunko, exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Where

> Node 1
>
> is the positive thing I amd doing, at William Ruiz apartment writing docs to Fetlife Legal, Genetech, Chris Lloyd, Capitola police, ARC of Nova
>
> Node 2
>
> Law Enforcement community the DNA slush fund pays stripper bills for dopple of me
>
> .5 is the dual construction narrative ambiguity crossing the upper circut 1 in the chain of events of node 2

Node 3

is Dopple Chair or chair and my clothes moved to a different location where events will cross out from top circuit 1 - 2 which is truthful is Dopple Chair or chair and my clothes moved to a different location where events wil cross fout from top ciruit 1 - 2 which is truthful into 1 -4 which is not

Node .5

Node 4 is the phony element appended to Noe 1 during the via the cross out

A dopple of me has confessed to something despicable and will now pay up rather than be arrested

1 > .5 > 2

1 -2 is a valid circuit of events

1 > .5 > 4

1 - 4 Is a forgery based on crossed out chains of vents moving 3 into 1 via .5 and then in to 4

Nodes	Suggestive o story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing suggestive fraud

Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events

.5 Narrative Using Jimmy: I was approached on CCRTA by a person Jimmy forcing dialouge on to me that his Monkey just like Obama had peeping eyes and what a monkey Obama was and how little girls like monkey dolls like that. This would repeat about Magic Eye monkey dolls dialogue at Stay and Play. Jimmy used as a Narrative Patsy was beaten to death likely by Casper. Bobby Courtney was used to dopple me in strip clubs and was also beaten to death.

.5 Narrative at William Ruiz. I had documented for all the Golds gym bike dopples, William Ruiz disappearing, the chair disappearing my motorcycle disappearing , the usual ploy would I help him move TVs and connect monitory. but I would have to “clean myself off” the computer when I left. Was that m MS Word files on his computer, or something else?

At stay and play I was “assigned” one room, then moved to the next. Which barcalounger is mine? Etc., the 1- 2 circuit is broken and with the help of fraudulent .5 the fake circuit is created.

For the puprose of Information Theory

Nodes	Dialectial story telling space/ Clothing description suggests who commited the act, a story is told and links the person and act via the clothing which completes the SPO statement		Public Context
Targeted victim of Gangtalk		Obviously the Law as an Action
	In the Dialectal space of story telling suggestive confusing vague fog tells wrong story sin shared dialectal space		The public was harmed by the act and is offended by it
Mercenary Agent Provocateur		Broke the Law as an action

Dozens of National Security Agency, DARPA, and other Pentagon officials purchased and downloaded child pornography over the Internet, according to a report in The Boston Globe on Friday.

The newspaper said it obtained more than 50 pages of documents revealing that the government workers identified in an internal probe included NSA contractors with top secret clearances, one of whom has fled the country and is believed to be hiding in Libya.

Another involved a person working at the super secret National Reconnaissance Office, which operates the military's spy satellites, who was transferred to a field office and has not been charged with a crime.

In the United States, it is legal to possess obscene materials, which are generally defined as hardcore pornography involving consenting adults. It is also legal to posses non-obscene pornography.

But the knowing possession of child pornography is a federal felony. In the last few decades, the definition of child pornography has been expanded to include not only depictions of minors being sexually abused, but even images of clothed girls in leotards and, as CNET reported in 2006, photographs of clothed minors in what prosecutors claim were overly "lascivious" poses.

White Supremacists do find it hard to rent apartments or get jobs. Or get respect in politics. Or in Atheism.

Fallacies and Five Minutes Hate

A series of things are done in frame jobs with little pieces here or there enacted which will then be explained, placed into a context which is not the context they occurred in but will fit the narrative of Grand-standers giving Fine Minutes Hate speech, a Ministry of Truth - Ministry of Jutice reference alluding to 1984 in which lying State operatives claiming themselves for Justice and Trut as ministers of their organizations do hit pieces before the public and the evil of jews and ultimately the need to machine gun them as they are in rafts in the water stranded.

In fact New Speak a Propaganda friendly system.

- A public environment like a gym or business gets Confidential Informants and their handlers

- The Confidential Informants resemble the Gangstalk victim by physical description but differ in that the Dopple is a wrong do-er and harming people.

- A victim perhaps exploitative photographed, will later find she had been vicimized when both the Gangstalk Victim and the Confidential Informant were at the location (Golds Gym members refereed Moron J Ploy.)

- In my case the victim will approach misrepresentation of me who also likely represents her, as “the community” the “church group” or a retardation firm.

- Though all the little piece of the chain of events happened, were drawn out any single context the Police Narrative will glue them into a narrative context fitting the events together real and faked.

In the Long Con and Stages of the Con gaining building access or other buildings to use as sets, fake residents, etc., all go into the Long Con.

The black Hispanic county prosecutor recused himself in the murder case his outlaw motorcycle gang is accused of and tweets “fuck the police” in urban slang.

Minority Shares in the venture

A sex worker will be hired for the person (not me but impersonating me) who has negative conduct towards women, and perhaps catch that person with child porn, demanding DNA for the victim from Glorian Donegan trust fund assets.

It seems the are really on to Edward Paul Donegan but for them saying to Edward Paul Donegan nothing was intoned, nothing was meant. It only looked that way.

Austin and the fight against seeming White Supremacist Perpetrator Networks

Planted out side my door, KOMPROMAT unrelated to my politics but based on predation on, retaliation for, my politics

Ordered away from my lease on the flimsy excuse I was a day late (Hurrican Henry.) She “feels for children” it seems because her name is Cynthia Nino. She does NOT accuse me of any misconduct.

Ayn Rand, Atheism, Epistemic Tangibility rational foundation rather than Transcendetalist Ethics, what I have argued since 1973 or so.

Curious that Ayn Rand was a Russian Jew though she was an atheist, likely not indoctrinated by her family (good, some say that was the “error” of Jim Donegan not indoctrinating me I don’t think so) and she really didn’t feel antisemitism should play a role nor any other religious sentiment in free society of respecting free choice.

Dr. Steven J. Allen editor at iguild.org

To: eddonegan©yahoo.com

Sun, Jun 1, 2014 at 1:03 PM

I’m starting a couple of libertarian-oriented groups in the DC area, and Bruce Majors suggested that you might be interested.

One is the Kameny Way Area Libertarian Club. It’s centered on Kameny Way, obviously - that’s 17th Street between P and R NW. From there, our target area goes out a half-mile to a mile, or a 10-to-20-minute walk. If you’re outside that area, no problem. We welcome everyone, regardless of geography.

I expect we’ll have the first meeting of the KWALC in July, most likely at Trio (http://www.triodc.com, 202-232-6305), 1537 17th Street NW

The other is the Mensa Libertarianism SIG, meeting June 10. This is a Special Interest Group in the local Mensa chapter. People who are or might be interested in joining Mensa are welcome to attend. Here is the listing in the local Mensa newsletter:

“Tuesday, June 10 // 7-9pm: LIBERTARIANISM SIG.

Join us at Trio Restaurant,1537 17th Street NW in Washington, DC (202-232-6305, www.triodc.com) for a friendly, agree-to-disagree discussion of politics, culture, and events by anyone interested in libertarianism or in hanging out with libertarians. Ask for the Mensa table. POC: Steve Allen

(I'm encouraging all libertarians, Mensan or not, to attend, especially the first meeting, because I want to make sure that there's a decent-sized group there.)

Feel free to call or e-mail if you have any questions. - Steve

= = = =

ALREADY happened why not make it legal, and I think that includes the Obama family and other Illuminati Family who want my genome undetected and used from me but legitimized in others.

Roadblocking me in Housing and NORMAL cities and counties

Roadblocking, Disruption of Continuous Event Paths as applied to Housing

Roadblocking is a forgery system starting with tieing me to something like saying what bedroom I will be renting on the Volcelcka house then after that altering which bedroom I was in while building a chain of events in the bedroom originaly tied to me but I was blocked from continuing with.

Machold Rare Violins, domiciled in Bremen, was the global market leader in the historic string instruments trade. retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The company was established in 1861 in Markneukirchen as a violin manufacturer. The owner was Dietmar Harry Joachim Machold, born in 1949 and resident at Schloss Eichbüchl bei Katzelsdorf. Of the surviving 600 violins, 60 cellos and 12 violas crafted by Antonio Stradivari in Cremona, Italy, around half have passed through Machold's. The company also sold Guarneri del Gesù violins.

Machold had branch establishments in Vienna, Zurich (Geigenbau Machold GmbH and Cadenza AG), Alpnach (Bomalu AG), Bremen, Berlin, New York City, Aspen, Chicago, Seoul and Tokyo, buying and selling, among others, Stradivari and del Gesù violins.[1]

Dietmar Machold was given the title of honorary professor for a collection of historic violins he procured for the Oesterreichische Nationalbank.

In June 2011 one anonymous buyer paid $15.9 million for the Lady Blunt Stradivarius.[1]

Dietmar Machold was arrested in Switzerland in March 2011. He was accused of embezzlement and grand commercial fraud, among other things. A further reason for his arrest is the fact that Machold has settled in Switzerland instead of remaining in Austria.[2] In November 2012, Machold was convicted of embezzlement and fraud by an Austrian court. He was sentenced to 6 years in prison.

Forgeries in misrpresenting a fake product as authentic

In a television documentary on the case it was noted a certificate of proof of authenticity of a violin's origin was valid but not for the violin being represented.

It is this form of forgery Roadblocking creates. Real value does exist, but some identifying element is applied (incorrectly) to some other item which does not posses the real value. It appears from the certificate use on the replacement element that the replacement element is the same as or has the same value as the original element.

Collusion and Cartel

People in a similar or conneced area of enterprise

colluded with each other for a mutually beneficial act of fraud.

Machold Rare Violins mad a large donations of rare violins to an operao, over valued, and the opera accepted the violins and false valuation thus the opera had a greater claim of musical resources to attract ticket sales and perhaps musicians and public attention.

Regarded by many as the most influential dealer in the world, Machold, who went on trial last month on charges of serious fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation and fraudulent bankruptcy to the tune of about €250 million, may soon be reviled as the 'Bernie Madoff of the violin world'.

Fitzgerald blew the whistle, many of Machold's later deals might have been prevented. Instead, it was business as usual.

FItzgerals: When I was in Vienna in 2005 researching an art fraud case for a British newspaper, I was interested in finding out whether the fallout from the Axelrod affair had had an impact on the international violin market. I arranged to meet Dietmar Machold at his office near the Opera House. Sweeping into the elegant premises, the fox collar of his coat turned up against the chill, he was all charm. Not only did he claim that accusations that he overvalued instruments had no impact on the business, he also insisted that within the tiny, elite world of top dealers in Britain and the United States, which he described as 'part gentleman's club, part Mafia cartel', he was in any case seen as an outsider.

Fitzgerald then filed a statement with the United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Senate Committee on Finance, which was then investigating tax fraud through donations of overvalued artworks to charities. Alleging ‘a taxation fraud perpetrated by an eminent American collector with Mr Machold’s collusion’

> Illusion
>
> Something untrue that you see as true.
>
> Delusion
>
> An illusion that is fixed and does not shift despiate persuive arugment
>
> Collusion
>
> An agreement between two or more parties in a Cartel or Trust which aggree so a fraud for the benefit the fraud will bring to the parties of the Cartel.

Edward Paul Donegan rents in a normal city

False Flag of peeping, exploiting minors event

An adult entertainer an Identity Thief who has my identity and location of housing disrupts lease

Pperhas takes over date with female I was going to meet in that location

Identity Thief

Normal Cities and normal life

Skid row Gangstalk Nueces continues I can not leave alive. RICO scheme in Nueces

From the moment I saw Corpus Christi I was vomiting at the site of it and trying to leave. IT, th City, thinks it is the jewel in my eye and I owe it, its people.

What I would find out is that the Rockefeller family and other Masons used child victims as gambits to create a prosecution of me, told Jim Volcelka to create a settlement for the kids but in fact the children were gambits to victimize me, neutralize me, and inhibit my life and credibility and audience and access to normal life, something Rockefeller tied big names needed, rather than the life I would have led, quickly married, living at Stay and Play.

No white people around me. No college educated people around me. No white women of reproductive age and I am told I will be killed if I go near reproductive age white females and the world is ok with that and participating in that.

In the Fake Heroes scheme for this social good a fake hero, perhaps black or gay, will pretend to be Edward Paul Donegan, a peeper, and peep at females.

Next the fake hero will say he or she was the one found evidence Edward Paul Donegan peeped, and this same person who DID peep is now the hero of the scene, and will report the event to my trust fund which will reward the fake hero, the victim, and defame Edward Paul Donegan who has both eroticzed and harmed minors and minorities.

Roadblocking and Peepers who are NOT me

Edward Paul Donegan rents in a normal city?	My adult blocked by Identity Thief in my identity has other apartements, et peeper (not me can see and adult Perhaps takes over date with female I was going home)

entertainment in that location

Out of my control a tot or other is PLACED IN MY View, actual visble line of sight and again, the peeper is NOT me but the tot is IN FRAME with me and the peeper not conclusively proved to be me is presumed under the NDAA to be me.

Identity Thief is peeping at adult entertainer, as Ed Donegan, from a different physical location OR from stolen electronics means, or both and will pay with MY DNA Normal Cities and normal life denied as tot peeping is alleged to me.

Skid row Gangstalk Nueces continues I can not leave alive. RICO scheme in Nueces

Road Blocking as View Block and involuntary view of tots

At 1001 N. Water Street the North 4th Floor

Notes

49

nming Pool

le of Apartment

By 48 and 4B those two units seem confusable and or peeping tied per hallway chatter and old abondoned furniture of mine, brown couch, is on outdoor catwalk of 4B

46 and 47 are sometimes listed as 46 and 46-46 as if these apartments are one unit and it appears so from catwalk outdoor placed fake property lines and impersonators of me change out but are 47 with the same move in date as 46,

me.

The apartment has been pre stocked, before my move in, with racial race bating provocateurs describing blacks as the power race, a black male in unit 49, same move in date as me, who along with others in Corpus Christi made statemenets like “it will be us who will be eating tacos, not you.”

1511 and 1513 Ocean Dr

Two story quad 1-4 is at the front towards the bay and a single stairwell. Two story quad 5-8 is physically attached as 1513 buidling with its own stairwell.

Because of the single story bushes blocking ground level towards the bay or towards the neigbor building perpendicular I do NOT see others using my genome to peep in those directions but it is intoned to me I AM peeping in those directions.

Because my view is blocked I do not see what is being peeped at or thus know how it is being paid for (my trust fund) but the police tower whichy is also obstrsucted to my apartemnt is on the other side of the tree and watches (peeps) at the “shows” out of view of my apartment and are a part of that.

In short (while some deteal could be added in a longer description) my genome is being used by others to pay for modeling yet I am obstructed from observing, knowing about, participating in it, thus I can not track that my genome is paying for it.

First Floor and side frint views different

Overhead 1511 1st floor and 1513 second floor can see what is obstructed from 1513 first floor

Park and Bay
apt 3	clear view	clear view	Neighbor building
apt 4	clear View	clear view	Neighbor building
apt 7 is above apt 5 and “dungeon noises” are heard in apt 5	clear view	Neighbor building
apt 8	clear view	Neighbor building

Second Floor and side front views different

From the first floor 1513 apt 5 my view directly towards the park or to then neighbor h = building is obstructed but others DO have line of sight to those places depending on elevation or which apartment Quad is in front 1511 of the other Quahd 1513

Efforts will be made to connect me to the activities by “clues” which are false leads but if I appear to be invovled in this my trust fund can be sued under NDAA Kil Lists of assets forfeiture thus clues are planted I am involved in it.

Even within housing I am not illegally forced out of Roadblocking is used to harrass the fact I am a normal person and thus conspiring to get my assets under Behavioral Health Management

Ambushes

At roughly 5:30 PM 3/7/2021 I was in between sets of jump rope with the music at a very moderate level and I began to facebook post the glass I had on top of my wood bookcase and post how I could if I wanted to sink a bolt post then use 1/4 holes in the glass along with perhaps washers to set one or more layers of glass shelf on using the bolts posts.

A black male from 47 who had no right to surveil or ambush me immediately appeared at my door on a flimsy excuse, my music was too loud for his daughter, which distracted my activity of normal living.

This pattern of a harassing act to my normal life, often creating an appearance I need help, is part of others asserting their claim to what I am doing (in a taunt often expressed I am a retarded white person) while them force teaming by ambush of to what I am doing as if they were doing it or we were doing it together.

Perhaps 800 to 900 ambushes, never anything not ambushed in regular and constant Gangstalk by Behavioral Health as I am pushed to appear a low performer in comparison to others ambushing me as superiors which deny my assets and claims other in control of my assets which need management.

> It appears I have the kind of Adaptive Intelligence that can value add to a $25.00 USD bookcase and turn into a thing of value. How that could help foreign economies!

I described this in a lawsuit citing Jim Volcelka teaching me who I could put a motorcycle bag on the side of the seat side hand rails to carry my tools in attempting to preempt the fact I already had bought a tool-bag in San Francisco, had it with me, and was staring to mount it.

Dimuniiziong me as retarded in part achieves the affect of making me look retarded, and by pushing that hot button with me these Mental Health System bird doggers may get me throw the punch at them for these activities, activities Law

Enforcement back and assist the conduct of 800 to 900 times this happening may understate this in the 35 years I so I have been fighting the Gangstalk and at least 300 times in the last 4 years.

Included in this are annoying phone calls as I am doing regular life things and the phone calls are a from of “shot” as are gunning engines, etc., letting me know I am being watched and stalked from a veiled stalk system.

I am either

- Retarded and getting coaching
- A Psycho for punching clear homeless people bird dogger stalkers force teaming themselves with me in offensive times and ways, which sounds like Foval and Creamer working for DNC/Obama

One interesting example of this is during my ride I had a stripped thread side view mirror problem. I was trying to find a reverse thread lock nut in a regular hardware store and while I was doing it some social worker type women surrounded me in an empty store and said “my retarded boy needs help with his scooter. He needs a bolt to fix the handle bar mirror” to the store clerk, a black female was at the register with a cheap shot grin, and the two women almost touch me among three isles of bolt draws, all other isles empty were saying (cluing me into that they were social workers) “I feel like this one would be the one that would fit it” and they did realize they were satirizing themselves.

The building has all sorts of slight of hands confusions like the letter B and 8 right next to each other and consider how this scam operates.

A female connected to, hanging out with 4B residents, is with some other guests of 4B, they make some “milk” like references.

Mops are pushed all around 48 while the apartment 4B is right next door, and the fake hero peeping from the adjoining unit “owes” and provides DNA to the family making milk references, people push mops or cleaning rags all around where the fake hero was or might have been, and this surround me walking around.

The manufacture of confusion is the art of Bunko and I will have a full chapter and the sapient architecture of a complex “sperm bank” long con using corrupt law enforcement and profiteering shills.

Because 4B and 48 are separate units what each party knows, those who occupy 4B and 48 may not match the same story.

It is possible the female in 4B thinks she was peeped at by Edward Donegan in 48 or someone substituting for Edward Donegan in 48, if she knows it is a substitute she may feel better about being peeped at by the substitute for Edward Paul Donegan.

A Central Intelligence though which includes the ability to setup the physical layout scam and operations may have the sole consistent sapient truth to the happenings.

My apartment is not wired for AT&T, they confuse apartment numbers, which wiring goes where, etc., and this is the usual of the long con set of the victim unit and the adjourning fake hero unit who is caught (by him or herself peeping at the next door unit.

Es a Peeper in the identity of Edward Donegan. Then in the identity of a neighborhood watch hero finding evidence Ed Donegan peepes, an event like that 1/5/2021.

This has operated all my life, is based in fraud, but compounding fraud it had taken decades of my research to both prove the existence of and research the motive of.

It is the false manufacture of DNA rights and PCR manufacture of my DNA may accompany rights to my DNA under peeping claims.

In what might be called “movie line pull out” or Hero replacing me comes on to dominatrices, or better

A key feature of this has been creating fights with me and what may be true of my ancestry and WWI and WWII and sensitizing me on that subject with provoked disputes, then suggesting someone with less baggage move in to Stay and Play instead.

August September Leave and Play

During the month of August 2018 I was at Stay and Play Bondage theme Bed and Breakfast and Jim V and I should have been perfect friends but he was recruited into abusively planting evidence on me and attacking me during August.

During this time I invited Deja for a scene and in August I was asked to leave.

The KOMPROMAT generated by evidence plants and frames, shown to Deja, motivated her to reject me and in September, after I left, see and impersonator of mw who would “throw money” at her white buttocks and she would on false evidence reject me as a loser though she never met me.

The presence of Barack Obama thank you card there and the totality of my life leads me to concluding Espionage is harassing my normal access to reproductive life as I am beat out to just about any connection or project or other activity I start towards via an espionage take over of it.

Jim Vocelcka asked why he and William Ruiz would force me out of the BDSM scene or normal US Cities and while at it why they would claim rights to my DNA by shaking down me as a white supremacist scum.

Riuz Rocket doc x (My motorcycle jacked stolen, used in chair by Ruiz masturbating as though me

> There is law enforcement or Secret Service, DOD, or other internal law enforcement support based on what I have been told by at least 9 people. In ErosX (My identity is crossed out with someone else s) black sex offenders, black foreign nationals, and junkie white trash or other tattooed prison felons have been setup to receive stolen or embezzled property, telling me they were hired by the DOD to do so and in fact they have used names like “Harvey Dent” and “Casper.” I do believe this is slush fund related corruption and in international RICO scheme.

At the same time Jen Moore on CIA DOD Black Budget DARPA slush fund and brain genes rights

Interview on Nazi Germany, MK Ultra, child trafficking, and many other Hidden Identities black budge CIA DARPA dominatrix genome budge money

In the course of this book and researching I find it was attacks on me that led me to research and resent racial assaults on me and others, and as salt gets rubbed into the sensitivities I have developed around these assaults, the assailants claim the higher ground and profit off the fights generated with me.

In short, if the parties are non neutral, have a shakedown scheme, and the scheme is a fight erupts around race between a proud white and proud black, the proud black will win the public and any observer especially non-neutral profit gaining observer with a secret motive.

If fact though my research also indicates these racial assaults on me, planting evidence of child porn to take down a white person in society, was created by the old white CIA connected families which ran the CIA like George H.W. Bush and now want to sabotage and even get the CIA in control of my reproductivity by giving non whites or gays a stake in a fight with me which I will lose.

Getting me ostracized from a potential family life by faked allegations will work, and it works by showing how framing me can pay off for social good, if good people will frame and attack me (as dupes of George H.W. Bush and others.)

It is called the Precious Gemms Scam, people are told a Gullible loser fool is coming along and you can help shake him down and then you (or the cause you like) will be in possession of the Precious Gems when the scam is over and he has left without them.

Techniques of Fraud typical of con artistry and deceitful photos or manipulation of people, but Illuminati connected CIA DOD Espionage support and Color of Law personnel and politicians in support of it

This book

Hey Mom I Am A Targeted Individual

Hey Mom, I'm a Targeted Individual: For the Families and Friends of Targeted Individuals - Cathy Meadows on Kindle

Hey Mom, I'm A Targeted Individual by Cathy Meadows M. A, Clinical Psychology Consultant, Advocate, Witness For Targets of Bullying, Workplace Mobbing And Covert Harassment and Surveillance

The strength that the targets possess lies in their diversity. They are both male and female, and they herald from all races, lifestyles, political persuasions, backgrounds, and genders. They are conservatives and liberals, rednecks and hippies, good ole boys, and southern belles, patriarchists and feminists, white collar and blue collar. They cover every job description, educational level, and are from every corner of the country.. They stand together and they are not divided by superficialities. This is their strength. They are simply Americans.

To the Families of Targeted Individuals Often, people are targeted because they did something right. Targeting can happen to anyone who sounds an alarm about something that is ethically or morally wrong, or illegal.

Many people are targeted for other reasons but it's for sure that most targeting has something to do with someone else's fear about being exposed for some kind of wrong-doing.

Covert harassment and surveillance is a horrific crime and all targets need someone to talk to about their feelings of alienation, confusion, and shock with regards to what's happening to them. Be that person who listens without making judgement calls. It's the single most important thing that you can do. Dedicated to All Targets Everywhere.

Never Give Up!

About Me

Hi, My name is Cathy Meadows and I've been working with victims of Covert Harassment and Surveillance for over IO years. I first became aware of targeted retaliation when I myself became targeted after calling out wrongdoing in my community. For years I sought out others like me, and I researched this phenomenon as best I could. There wasn't a lot of information about it back in the 1990's and early 2000's but I knew there had to be others who were suffering, like myself.

This program was too well organized, prolific, and all-encompassing to have been constructed just for me. Finally, around 2005 1 began to find a few websites and posts written by people who were experiencing the same kinds of civil and human rights abuses that I was which gave me the courage to speak openly about targeting on different internet venues. Soon I became a member of the original, Freedom From Covert Harassment and Surveillance, over which Derrick Robinson presided (he now presides over PACTS International). Not long after that I became familiar with the works of Dr. John Hall [and others …]

Table of Contents

My Kid is a Targeted Individual ? Is This For Real ?,

The Most Important Thing You Can Do,

COURT TO DEFENDANT . STOP BLASTING THAT MAI,

How Will I Know For Sure If My Kid is Targeted ?,

What Do We Do Now ?,

Socially Appropriate Behavior,

Too Crazy to Believe,

How is the Harassment Perpetrated ? 24 / 7 Surveillance,

Illegal Surveillance,

Defamation of Character,

Illegal Entry,

Gaslighting,

If The Harassment Is So Prolific , Why Can't I See It ?,

Who'd Put All This Money , Time , and Effort Into My Kid,

How Does This Program Get Funded ?,

What Now ? Food , Water , Shelter,

Being Productive and Self Supporting,

Are Weapons Really Being IJsed and What Are They ? ,

ARMY YANKS ' VOICE - TO - SKULL DEVICES ' SITE,

Should You Call Law Enforcement ?,

Get An Expert Witness (or any witness),

Psychological Assessments,

Above and Beyond the Targeting,

What Targets Say That'll Blow Your Mind (And It's All True),

How Can I Protect My Kid ?,

Mind Judo Especially for the Targets,

Light and Darkness , Good and Evil , Health and Disease,

Controlling Your Thoughts and Behaviors (so no one elses)[Live and Let Live], Things that you can do to lift your spirits and keep you or,

Going Down - Alleviating Depression,

Taking Care of Your Temple,

Why Are You Being Targeted ?,

Types of Targeting,

Can The Targeting Be Stopped ?,

Think Back to the Days When, Find Love,

Look Amazing,

Don't Get Paranoid,

Keep Fighting for Your Freedom - Never Give up,

> It's All About You,
>
> Aim For Success and Don't Give Up,
>
> Targeting Women,
>
> The Cost of Control,

As Ed Donegan asserts Stalkers try to draw missteps from the stalked OR assert a correct act from a stalk victim was paranoid and thus the stalk victim should be institutionalized.

Logging Stalker is what I have done aver 40 years of being put in psych wards and spending 7 to 10 thousand phone calls to my family I was being stalked.

Hey Mom I Am A Targeted Individual, a behavioral counselor explains how people get wrongly institutionalized while fighting against the Stalk team using assets of FBI, CIA, and others.,

As stated normal mind attempts to bring closure to anything it doesn't understand (menacing surroundings) and even if a target isn't "crazy" this kind of confusion about the who's, why's, how's and what's of the attacks can get victims wrongly diagnosed, institutionalized, and medicated.

The following is your first piece of evidence that group stalking and harassment is for real. Get your computer or smart phone because this is worth it. I'm curious to know what you think. The video is by Norma Lawrence.

https://vimeo.com/31636917

Defamation of Character

[Creating a *"Legend"*that some person is threat and doesn't belong there, creating a basis for retaliation on the record against a person framed off of the record, the Abuse of Process system that is Obstruction of Justice and Conspiracy Against Rights.]

[Creating By Undercover Operatives Deceived Emotional Lynch Mobs]

Slander can rally many people in the community, particularly financially marginalized people, young people, emotionally damaged persons, and angry middle-aged men (David Lawson, Cause Stalking: Terrorist Stalking in America) against targets. Slander is free, easy, and effective and it's the foremost tool used by the perpetrators because it fuels hatred for the target.

It's virtually impossible to carry off the targeting without it. Slander can get an entire community mobilized against an individual, and induce the community to commit felonies against that person, for fun and relaxation.

Kind of like what throwing Christians to the lions did for citizens in Ancient Rome. Further, it can cause psychological confusion in the target who'll worry about what's being said about him or her that's so horrific that their neighbors, co-workers, and other associates have turned against them.

As an added bonus, this tactic often lowers the self esteem of targets, and damages their egos. This, along with sleep deprivation, 24/7 harassment, worry, and confusion could lead to an agonizing descent into mental illness (or at least the perpetrators of the crime hope so).

Quite Often, fake police documents are distributed around the locality of the target that falsely describe the target as some kind of a community danger.

From what the targets themselves report, it appears that the false documentation against them usually has to do with sex crimes, theft, violence, and associations with terrorism.

Those who introduce the illegal and slanderous "offcial" documentation into the community usually show fake police badges, or something similar, to prove their point. However, law enforcement doesn't knock on doors. They simply put the stats on the internet and in 99 percent of the cases I've worked on, all accusations are criminally false.

The good new is that sometimes these kinds of attacks work against the stalkers because spreading disgusting slander, and falsified documents goes towards proving that the target is not imagining that people are out to get him or her. It's proof that someone is, and it's illegal as hell. Prison awaits those who find themselves in the cross-hairs of some of the more retaliatory targets who have resources.

Homeless and indigent people are often used to harass targets and all it takes is $5.00, a threat, a sandwich, a cheap bottle of booze, or a very small amount of their favorite drug to draw them in. In fact, because they have nothing, almost anything you give to indigent people could seduce them into committing a felony.

You may not suspect that someone who is driving a car and is dressed well is poor but think again. Many of the vehicles that the stalkers use are lent to them. Also, they may be given free haircuts, clothes from a 2nd hand store, or other goodies that the overseers got for free on Craigslist.

Sometimes people who have their own places and cars have over-extended themselves financially and will work for as little as $20.00 a day, to follow a target around, menacingly. Plus, figure in those stalkers who have been deluded into thinking that they're some kind of James Bond who are saving their communities by harassing a "dangerousperson who has done bad things" and the criminal perpetrators have themselves a free army [of "Noble Savages", punks and prison snitches, trustees, etc. helping the police now.]

The pay scale, if there is one, is very low and people who work at fast food restaurants make more. However, the stalking schedule is often flexible and many guys do it just to impress the females, and vice versa.

Sometimes, sex is involved. Seduction is used as much as possible to get people to commit these types of felonies. Most of the time, the top stalkers just have to flirt with the recruits and offer the promise of something that's probably never going to happen. [Frequently they are Targted themselves like Veronica Hoffman, Bobby Courtney, and Jimmy of Corpus Christi.]

Illegal Entry

What occurs in 99 percent of all cases is illegal entry, and gaslighting. Illegal entry is done either the good old fashioned way, with credit cards, lockpicks, etc.,

Why don't the targets report the illegal entry to the police? Sometimes they do but in the majority of cases there's no extreme evidence that anyone other then the tenant (or someone posing as the landlord) was in the home.

These criminals don't break and enter; they illegally enter. Further, the stalkers usually don't break or steal any of the target's possessions, but when they do it's minor or can be explained away as normal breakage. The more targets call the cops, the crazier they look, and some cops have been know to call a 51-50 (involuntary psychiatric hold) out on a target out of fear for the target's safety.

[If they do break in they pose as rescuers to children being held or other emergenices that do not exist.]

Gaslighting

[Black bag jobs planting items, removing them, or altering them in the absence of the home owner or leasor of the property]

The term "gaslighting" is taken from a 1944 movie thriller starring Ingrid Bergman (wife) and Charles Boyer (husband). In the movie, the husband tries to drive his wife into madness by assuring her that there's no gas with which to light up the lanterns in their home. Yet, every night while she lies in bed the lanterns light up. She continuously tells her husband what's happening and he continuously tells her that she's imagining it, thereby making her question her own sanity.

When stalkers illegally enter the home or vehicle of their target they let them know that they've been there, but in a subtle way. They leave one little thing out of place, for example. They may do small but noticeable vandalism, move things around, or take things and bring them back at a later date. This is not really confusing for most targets, who know exactly what's happening, but it can be infuriating that their right to privacy is being trampled on.

We Are Your Government Landlord And We Are Here To Help

https://read.amazon.com/?asin=B07BX97GW6

Hey Mom I Am A Targeted Individual retrieved from Kindle Cloud Reader and copied or modified to here

https://read.amazon.com/?asin=B07BX97GW6

by Cathy Meados

How is the Harassment Perpetrated ?

24/7 Surveillance

This program has certain and specific criteria that are followed, and it's all designed to get the target discredited in order to protect someone else's reputation, money, or both. This is true even if it's being done as a government experiment, which many targets suspect is happening. Occasionally, it's done by a sicko just to torture someone, but usually there's a reason. The program is designed to damage the target's credibility, as stated earlier, and to cause confusion and fear in the target so that they can't make any lucid accusations against wrong-doers, or are too distracted by the abuses to coherently attend to their day to day obligations.

Illegal Surveillance

One of the biggest civil rights complaints that targets

make centers around surveillance, and the bugging of their phones, cars, digital and electrical equipment, and homes. This is a truism and the victim is not imagining it. It's easy to do and one of the 12-year-olds down the street probably knows how. There are hacking classes in any university tech program, regardless of the name of the class, and many people use extremely rudimentary methods as well. I remember one Saturday when my daughter was in high school and we were both up and actively getting ready for the day. I casually walked over to an open, patio window when all of a sudden two teenage girls jumped up from directly underneath my open patio window and ran away screaming and laughing. I've also found stalkers in the crawl spaces under my home on more than one occasion, and they weren't homeless. They lived right next door and I knew them. Therefore, don't rule out simple eavesdropping as a surveillance method.

Also, I've commonly heard that simple surveillance techniques are done just by rigging the communication wiring in and Outside Of the target's dwelling. It wouldn't be too difficult to attach some listening/ hearing devices up. In Cases of digital surveillance, people a have gone to cell phone forensic services and have gotten feedback that hacking had been done. Further, sometimes GPS equipment is found hidden somewhere on a target's car during routine oil Bugging a targets property, and making sure the target knows that he or she is under surveillance is an important part of the program because it helps to create a state of paranoia in the target, which as mentioned earlier helps to destroy the target's credibility. Also, if the surveillance turns up some perceived dirt on the target (I say "perceived" because the stalkers appear to be working from a social norm handbook from the 1950's), then the dirt will be a part of the smear campaign. Whether you know it or not, our entire world has temporarily turned into a free-for-all surveillance community.

Bugging a targets property, and making sure the target knows that he or she is under surveillance is an important part of the program because it helps to create a state of paranoia in the target, which as mentioned earlier helps to destroy the target's credibility. Also, if the surveillance turns up some perceived dirt on the target (I say "perceived" because the stalkers appear to be working from a social norm handbook from the 1950's), then the dirt will be a part of the smear campaign. Whether you know it or not, our entire world has temporarily turned into a free-for-all surveillance community.

Defamation Of Character

Slander can rally many people in the community, particularly Cause Stalking: Terrorist Stalking in America) against targets.

Slander is free, easy, and effective and it's the foremost tool used by the perpetrators because it fuels hatred for the target. It's virtually impossible to carry off the targeting without it. Slander can get an entire community mobilized against an individual, and induce the community to commit felonies against that person, for fun and relaxation. Kind of like what throwing Christians to the lions did for citizens in Ancient Rome. Further, it can cause psychological confusion in the target who'll worry about what's being said about him or her that's so horrific that their neighbors, co-workers, and other associates have turned against them. As an added bonus, this tactic often lowers the self esteem of targets, and damages their egos. This, along with sleep deprivation, 24/7 harassment, worry, and confusion could lead to an agonizing descent into mental illness (or at least the perpetrators of the crime hope so).

Quite often, fake police documents are distributed around the locality Of the target that falsely describe the target as some kind Of a community danger. From what the targets themselves financially marginalized people, young people, emotionally damaged persons, and angry middle-aged men (David Lawson, Cause Stalking: Terrorist Stalking in America) against targets.

Those who introduce the illegal and slanderous "offcial" documentation into the community usually show fake police badges, or something similar, to prove their point. However, law enforcement doesn't knock on doors. They simply put the stats on the internet and in 99 percent of the cases I've worked on, all accusations are criminally false. The good new is that sometimes these kinds of attacks work against the stalkers because spreading disgusting slander, and falsified documents goes towards proving that the target is not imagining that people are out to get him or her. It's proof that someone is, and it's illegal as hell. Prison awaits those who find themselves in the cross-hairs of some of the more retaliatory targets who have resources.

The best way to know for Sure about any slander you've heard about someone, Or about how bad a so-called 'target" is, Or about a perpetrator's claims Of being with the military Or with law-enforcement is to go down to the service Office and ask, in person.

Ask if that organization sent anyone to your neighborhood to warn you about someone. Have the name, the card, and the picture of the slanderer/stalker on your cell phone. They'll tell you that they haven't because it's time consuming and illegal.

Let me know how this works for you.

Illegal Entry

What occurs in 99 percent Of all cases is illegal entry, and gaslighting. Illegal entry is done either the good old fashioned way, with credit cards, lockpicks, etc., Or with the help of someone who has access. No locks can keep the stalkers out. I had a client who had locks installed by a very good company, and which required 17-digit codes to get into the home. It took 2 months but the stalkers got in. I've heard of cases where the doors and windows were locked so tight that the stalkers came in through vents, or fireplaces.

I've worked with people whose stalkers had connections with the county and so were able to convince some county personnel to allow a caterpillar digger to dig a tunnel from across the street and straight under the target's home. Seem bizarre? That's what they're counting on. The more bizarre and the more unbelievable,the better. Many perps actually enjoy the ridiculousness of it all, and get off on the look of shock and disbelief in the eyes of their target.

Further, many enjoy watching their target attempt to convincepeople of what's happening. Let's just say that the perpetrators of the crime often enjoy their work. As previously stated, they count on the inconceivability oftheir crime. "Who's going to believe their leave one little thing out Of place, for example. They may do small but noticeable vandalism, move things around, or take things andbring them back at a later date. This is not really confusing for most targets, who know exactly what's happening, but it can beinfuriating that their right to privacy is being trampled on.

targets"?

Why don't the targets report the illegal entry to the police?

Sometimes they do but in the majority Of cases there's no extreme evidence that anyone other then the tenant was in the home. These criminals don't break and enter; they illegally enter. Further, the stalkers usually don't break or steal any of the target's possessions,but when they do it's minor or can be explained away as normal breakage. The more targets call the COPS, the crazier they look, and some cops have been know to call a 51-50 psychiatric hold out on a target out of fear for the target's safety.

Gaslighting

The term "gaslighting" is taken from a 1944 movie thriller starring Ingrid Bergman (wife) and Charles Boyer (husband). In the movie, the husband tries to drive his wife into madness by assuring her that there's no gas with which to light up the lanterns in their home. Yet, every night while she lies in bed the lanterns light up. She continuously tells her husband what's happening and he continuously tells her that she's imagining it, thereby making her question her Own sanity.

When stalkers illegally enter the home or vehicle of their target they let them know that they've been there, but in a subtle way. leave one little thing out Of place, for example. They may do small but noticeable vandalism, move things around, or take things and bring them back at a later date. This is not really confusing for most targets, who know exactly what's happening, but it can be infuriating that their right to privacy is being trampled on.

How it's Done - the Matter of Tara Moore and corrupt city officials

Robert Montgomety Thomas (Mr.)
848 Washington Street
Weymouth. MA 02189 -1525
781 - 335 -1796
BobMontgomeryThomas©gmaiLcom

May 30, 2017

James D. Baldassini, Esq.
Baldassini and Baldassini
59 Winter Street
Weymouth, MA 02188-0002

Re: Tara Moore, 275 Lake Street, Unit 3,
Weymoutl, MA 02189, Docket # 1756SU000273

Dear Attomey Baldassini

I recently made the acquaintance of Tara Moore, supra, and all I can say is that I was astonished by the story she told me about her landlord/tenant relationship with your client Robert L. Hedlund, of 54 Longwood Road, Weymouth, who is also the current mayor of Weymouth. Mr. Hedlund is the registered owner of a corporation known as HWO, LLC (aka Hediund World Order, LLC), which limited liability corporation owns the subject property.

I am going to cut right to the chase by saying 1): that I find it incredulous that a seasoned attorney like you would participate in what amounts to taking advantage of a disabled woman (diagnosed with Panic Disorder, without Agoraphobia), who is also a recovering addict and who was not advised by or apprised of her rights to counsel in her dealings with you or your cfient, and 2): having seen pictures of the living conditions she has had to endure in her tenancy would be indicative of what a Weymouth slumlord would likely provide to his or her tenants. That the Boston Housing Authority (BHA) participates in the tenant's lease by almost $1 ,200 a month and has done little, if anything, to order your client to correct the glaring deficiencies over a long period of time is astonishing as well - probably criminal at least in my mind.

From what I can see your client has also engaged in a pattern of harassment, violating MGL c. 264, S 34A (a) and prowling, the prowling incident admitted on his TV show, "Ask the Mayor" on April 6, 2017. If you would like I will provide you with the time stamp information from the show.

I am enclosing herewith a contact sheet with pictures of the premises Ms. Moore leases from your client. The term utterly disgusting really does not fit its description. That you, client and the BHA could care less is appalling and the eviction notice you sent her, without being represented by counsel, has damaged her chances of finding an apartment or condo for her her daughter.

She has already been denied by Weymouth Place: recommended by your client .

That Ms. Moore and her daughter would have to live on the street is apparently not your issue.

Without further ado I am going to print seven copies of the contact sheet: one for you; one for your client; one for the BHA; one for the local Board of Health; one for Judge Coven; one for the Governors Opioid Task Force and one for District Attorney Michael Morrissey to see what they think about the situation and your ruthless representation for an obvious slumlord.

cc: Robert L. Hedlund; Cheryl Hill, BHA; Daniel McCormickt Weymouth BOH; Hon Judge Mark S Coven, Quincy District Court; Governor Charles D. Baker; Dist Atty. Michael Morrissey Disabled Persons Protection Commission, the Patriot Ledger; Boston Globe and Boston Herald'

robert montgomery thomas

848 Washington Street | Weymouth, MA 02189 - 1525
781 - 335 - 1796 | bobmontgomerythomas@gmail.com

May 30, 2017

James D. Baldassini, Esq.
Baldassini and Baldassini
59 Winter Street
Weymouth, MA 02188-0002

Re: Tara Moore, 275 Lake Street, Unit 3, Weymouth, MA 02189, Docket # 1756SU000273

Dear Attorney Baldassini:

I recently made the acquaintance of Tara Moore, supra, and all I can say is that I was astonished by the story she told me about her landlord/tenant relationship with your client Robert L. Hedlund, of 54 Longwood Road, Weymouth, who is also the current mayor of Weymouth. Mr. Hedlund is the registered owner of a corporation known as HWO, LLC (aka Hedlund World Order, LLC), which limited liability corporation owns the subject property.

I am going to cut right to the chase by saying 1): that I find it incredulous that a seasoned attorney like you would participate in what amounts to taking advantage of a disabled woman (diagnosed with Panic Disorder, without Agoraphobia), who is also a recovering addict and who was not advised by or apprised of her rights to counsel in her dealings with you or your client, and 2): having seen pictures of the living conditions she has had to endure in her tenancy would be indicative of what a Weymouth slumlord would likely provide to his or her tenants. That the Boston Housing Authority (BHA) participates in the tenant's lease by almost $1,200 a month and has done little, if anything, to order your client to correct the glaring deficiencies over a long period of time is astonishing as well — probably criminal — at least in my mind.

From what I can see, your client has also engaged in a pattern of harassment, violating MGL c. 264, § 34A (a) and prowling, the prowling incident admitted on his TV show, "Ask the Mayor" on April 6, 2017. If you would like I will provide you with the time stamp information from the show.

I am enclosing herewith a contact sheet with pictures of the premises Ms. Moore leases from your client. The term utterly disgusting really does not fit its description. That you, your client and the BHA could care less is appalling and the eviction notice you sent her, without her being represented by counsel, has damaged her chances of finding an apartment or condo for her and her daughter. She has already been denied by Weymouth Place: recommended by your client. That Ms. Moore and her daughter would have to live on the street is apparently not your issue.

Without further ado I am going to print seven copies of the contact sheet: one for you; one for your client; one for the BHA; one for the local Board of Health; one for Judge Coven; one for the Governor's Opioid Task Force and one for District Attorney Michael Morrissey to see what they think about the situation and your ruthless representation for an obvious slumlord.

Bob Montgomery Thomas

cc: Robert L. Hedlund; Cheryl Hill, BHA; Daniel McCormick, Weymouth BOH; Hon. Judge Mark S. Coven, Quincy District Court; Governor Charles D. Baker; Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey; Disabled Persons Protection Commission, the Patriot Ledger; Boston Globe and Boston Herald.

Edward Paul Donegan writes advance filings in his own defense with evidence groups 1 and 2 the judge refuses to look at any writing or evidence before or or during hearing and refuses a continauance for lawer

Eviction Defenedent responds before hearing in filing. Magistrate does not read it This is Edward Paul Donegan's (defendant) response by filing.

2021-FAM-2372-a, file number 0014159369

If you believe the operators of Mac Lamar Manage LLC they are asking I be evicted by the Courts at the behest of neighbors who have alleged a harm from me and perhaps handled behing me back by a Trust Fund conservator paid out for compensation to the alleged victim neighbor as well.

If you believe me you understand by the time of the scheduled hearing I may have already fled corrupt law enforcement operation and hoped for am seeking by now safety in some other state. I consider the least in non performance on the building management side and so corrupt an administration of the premises I have left it and Texas.

Office Mobs are a scheme were coworkers as part of an undercover operation begins smear campaigns in the office place at the water cooler and begin to talk up damaging allegations in cliquish office politics behind a person's back.

In the apartment building environment and undercover operation has placed false allegations producing neighbors in the vicinity of Edward Paul Donegan and with the assistance of Mac Lamar Manage LL have facilitated the false allegations by illegally using access to Ed Donegans apartment and cutting peepholes or peeping apparatus in his apartment doors or blinds or curtains.

Abuse of Processes is the illegal system of falsify data that will be used in seemingly legitimate process like evictions. It is also called fabricating evidence, fraud on the courts, use of illegal pretexts in Conspiracy Against Rights, and may also constitute welfare fraud and money laundering the person who asserts damage to Ed Donegan does the damage to themselves then attempts to shell game switch the possessor of the liability into Edward Paul Donegan's identity.

Yet another name for it Obstruction of Justice faking crime scenes or faking criminal or civil allegations against a person or using falisfied information in legal proceedings of any type, and also doing to to harass a writer or litigant who is preparing research or court filings or police reports on others.

My response to eviction suit is with Mac Lamar's desire to evict me probably being and Government desire to evict me as I write about corrupt politicians is turned into the neighbors desire to evict me only after Mac Lamar LLC planted the neighbors to form an outraged mob desiring my eviction.

Affidavit Legends - What Tales or alternatives to the truth the FBI and CIA wish to tell you are true but are not one such Legend defamatory and false is I am photographing illegally, unethically, or covertly, all false independently and together but racially assaulted for sexual misconduct claims in Hoax evenest falsely tied to me.

Legends supported by faked records, staged appearances, and deceitful narrative create Legends, a pseudo truth, a non truth, that will be believed by the public or courts or press including a smear of a person, perhaps because child porn was planted, or because an older alt-right males shouts a racist epithet at the black person who planted it or the cop who planted it and thus the alt-right male is a bit of a Legend to those around him, quite legendary.

In a Conspiracy Against Reputation leading to defamation and incited retaliation towards a smeared person, the very harm Title 18 Chapter 13 is designed to protect against. An ambiguity of events is created in a public settings as to whether I or a Mockery of me also present photographed or wished photographed a minor as a sexual object. If the frame job of me sticks as paid actors surround and stage an incriminating scene I am defamed and perhaps defrauded by the false appearances.

If confronted at the scene of the ambiguity it could be resolved by analyzing events and taking statements. Left ambiguous as to what really happened during the event that later at least two possible construction of events as to who took the picture the balance scale of presumption of innocence of a person in the vicinity with the probably a crime occurred should be an equal balance inviting fair inquiry. Instead in a coordinated way a Dopple likely the very mimic of myself at the scene who did take the picture will confess in the identity of Ed Donegan in a similar apartment to Ed Donegan or with property or location once tied to Ed Donegan. The ambiguous circumstantial evidence Ed Donegan was in the area of the photography along with a confess elsewhere of a Mockery of Ed Donegan ad Ed Donegan improperly adds up to is the sum of the appearance of guilt of Ed Donegan and a confession forged from a mimic of Ed Donegan that confirms the wrong construction of public events and false allegation weighing him down with the appearance of wrongdoing in public and a forged confession distributed behind his back by hostile parties usually misrepresentation of Ed Donegan with a financial or political interest in a an allegation against Ed Donegan succeeding even though it is false.

Mac Lamar using Shills and coordinating similar apartment usage and manufacture of peeping tom apparatus at its property in ways out of the control of Edward Paul Donegan has created the reputation damage in a coordinated way Tittle 18 US Chapter 73 smearing of witnesses was designed to prevent and some people I am accusing of Obstruction of Justice, faking evidence, faking probate cases, using racketeering layers and money laundering or the social and child services operation in Nueces County that have made Mark of me in false can expertly fabricated false allegations only sophisticated and well place covert operators undercover in Landlord positions with access to the properties and units could achieve.

Sometimes the confession of a Mockery of Me forging my confession nearby me close enough to be confused with me (an adjoining apartment and thin walls) has occurred even before the stage ambiguous event in public has occurred but adding the forged confession and visible public ambiguity later will still add up long as reslt of 3 in 1 plus 2 as is necessary to smear me with the false allegation to whoever it is necessary to smear me to a later date to events 1 and 2.

In their case of a blatantly illegal slush fund operation run by the staff of Mac Lamar Manage LLC the appearance is created Ed Donegan has uncured liabilities to his neighbors and is going pay into what is a victims compensation slush fund of benefits to those who with Mac Lamar LLC assistance faked entitlement to the assets and fake consent to the assets seizures and have done so with an illegal politically based Cartel operation who depends on Confidential Informants to created the sufficient layers of deceit to occur in the places of the process of justice as require to obstruct justice and racketeer as if financial securities false, compensated to false claimants, and destruction allegations against Edward Paul Donegan. Thus system is a Protection Racket allowing racially motivated allegation to be made, to be inciting of dispute, and to resolve dispute that children often immigrant children of the neighborhood and property had been harmed by Edward Donegans alleged acts or harmed by Edward Paul Donegans counterclaims and objections to racially motivated hoaxes being staged, hoaxes that Ed Donegan harmed others.

In addition to Ed Donegans here stated claim Mac Lamar Manage LLC, staff and Bird Dogging tenements surrounding hi were defrauding them they were doing to harm the life and reputation of a witness to political misconduct and the fabrication of allegations against Edward Paul DOneagn violates Obstruction of Justice Title 18 USC Chapter 13 in many sections and other fraud and obstruction of justice laws. While she was disavowed by the media Jen MOore spoke of a criminal racket operated in the family courts of Texas tied the betrayal of the wishes of Glorian Donegan and Ed Donegan in their Arlington Virginia home and thier fear of and disgust with crime from immigrant snow I am subjected to. Exposing the evil of trafficking, blackmail, silenced witnesses https://youtu.be/YwABiGXNW9wbut my assertions to the court are independently made and proven independently or her evidence though she was found dead under suspicious circumstances for any whistle blower about Cartels and slush funds.

In addition to her video work not included here are her SMS Texts screenshots are included that show her message the FBI at its very highest levels are creating child porn and using their own children or church taught children to manufacture child porn and it is used from blackmail some in FBI and US DOD reprt being horrified at the program but no one has been able to stop the FBI or churches or Department of Defense from making child porn on DOD computers nor using it in stings for blackmail.

Ed Donegan asserts the child porn is manufactured in the whereabouts or alleged whereabouts of Ed Donegan. In addition to her video work not included here are her SMS Texts screenshots are included that show her message the FBI at its very highest levels are creating child porn and using their own children or church taught children to manufacture child porn and it is used from blackmail some in FBI and US DOD reprt being horrified at the program but no one has been able to stop the FBI or churches or Department of Defense from making child porn on DOD computers nor using it in stings for blackmail. of Ed Donegan but Ed Donegan is wrongly entangled to the operation by frame jobs and an impersonator of Ed Dongean will assert he is Ed Donegan confess to the child porn and pay into a sluch fund using Edward Paul Dongan assets.

In may cases the Bird Doggers have assaulted me both sexually and physically and the safety of the building and community have been compromised by Mac Lamar LLC introducing its own and other criminal Cartel acts meeting the definition of RICO with political participation in legal definitions and in analysis of how the crimes operate on and are a danger to The People.

In politics it is called defining people, creating a label for them, a reputation about them. In my case I was racially and sexually attacked by an illegal operation whose undermining, subverting, my not particularly racially biased perspective (Bell Curve type thinking) into constant racial fighting has resulted from abusive antagonistic treatment of me and damaged my life.

theMedicalState.epub©protonmail.com is the email I registered my account with and is still used by Mac Lamar as my contact email statements are sent, I use in my web interface to pay rent in, see the ledger, maintenance requests etc., and The Medical State is one of two books I have underway that from fiction and non fiction tied highly placed figures both Democrat and Republican of being tied to WWII and Korean War and Cold War CIA programs tied to the Kennedy assassination.

Attacks on my home office, home computer equipment, burglaries, and cuts of utilities to unexplained anomalies have harassed my book writing about powerful figures and reeks if not actually is the type of program ordered from the White House basement for Creamer and Foval to attack Trump supporters or others with "bird doggers" from mental health programs hoping to draw Trump supporters into fights.

The office holders of State positions such as CIA, FBI, POTUS or Congress do not have any write to hamper my book writing. Stasi (decomposition) can harass my home office with loud sounds, tortured cats outside, shrieking children, sexual abusive noises shouted into the apartment, imagery paraded outside my windows of hostile messaging and other forms of Rough Noise and are mere noise, sounds or imagery that meant to stalks and distress.

Neighborhood vigilantes may demand my removal and restitution from me and money and cars to protect women and children from me if they can prove their children were harmed by me and use of Dopples and staging of child porn shoots near me seems to involve me in that.

At one point I sued the DHS FBI in court citing Brown v.

Socialist Workers ’74 Campaign Committee a political fiance case. No one wanted to rent to a Socialist political group so the small group was exempted from reporting its expenditure finances and thus no renters of office spaced need fear renting office space to them.

Brown v. Socialist Workers ’74 Campaign Committee, 459 U.S. 87 (1982), the Supreme Court ruled that the First Amendment right of association prohibits states from compelling minor political parties to disclose the names of contributors and recipients of disbursements when there is a reasonable probability that those persons will be subject to threats, harassment, or reprisals. https://www.mtsu.edu/first-amendment/article/124/brown-v-socialist-workers-campaign-committee Allegations I am Peeping Tom because the Mockery of me is (the Dopple of me, the Mimic of me) gives me the same problem and fights with neighbors Socialism had in 1974 conservative areas.

That activity harasses my home use and the fights of people putting their children outside my window and calling me a pervert is how the latest dispute erupted in a well planned fight that may lead to my eviction.

COINTELRO is the official name given to the endless budget of Abuse of Power, Conspiracy Against Rights, and Obstruction Of Justice denominations are drawn from to protect corrupt FBI agency and its officials.

It is my belief I am on the "hit list" of people who might be able to offer statements about CIA FBI Free Mason MKULTRA and because of that unseen hidden hands of Espionage are imposing unwanted and loosing fights upon my.

"If you are explaining you are losing" the political wisdom goes and I am consonantly explaining my racial frustration of the environment that surrounds me.

Welfare Fraud is not only a crime against the People to start with and fraud but has been weaponized in violation of Title 18 USC Chapter 13 (Witness intimation or defamation or obstruction, harassment or murder of witnesses) and the mechanism has been for a layer of Behavioral Health Care providers create a scenario where Mockery of me is caught with pictures of children's buttocks, illegal exploitation of children by photographing them from a Tree House, but since police detected the crime, the Mocker of Ed Donegan will be confronted by an Dominatrix who will make him confess to the police while she role plays with him, but the role play is being watched by the police from one-way overwatch apartment, who will demand vicitim restitution once the confession to the Domina is overheard by secretly watching police.

Realizing the person in the grasp of the Domina is developmentally retarded the adults call adult entertainer sex workers to teaqch the retarded child abuser about peeoping at adult women models instead.

The welfare fraud and conspiracy peice of this is the Mockery of Ed Donegan is not Ed Donegan or really like Ed Donegan. The satire of him though allows for claims agasint the trust fund behavioral health care fund of Ed DOnegan to pay victims.

If this sounds like politically defaming of Edward Paul Donegan it is and more so than it seems. At one time I had some thirty years ago a Teens at the Beach download from the old internet UUNET and it was a fairly minor passing interest as I was looking at some soft core bikini bar type pictures, in that same download bikini contests etc., Those were the available download of bikini bods at that time. I assert in my book Kamala Harris for political hay attempted to make a big deal out of it, back in 2001 or so, it was not any huge matter. But using a thirty year ago slightly aberrant download of pictures from a newsgroup of them at one time adds enough kernel of truth to future allegations that is the basis for allegations against me not really representative of me, in fact that one onetime download was among others including adult BDSM leather porn.

Stigmatizing me and using a gullible who fits the stigmatization has been successful if it can be made to look like I am the mockery of me, and it is me who is exploiting teens or other minors, and that can be used against me both politically and as a way in welfare fraud to provide adult entertainers as health care to mimics of me nad the resultant information is it seems me rather than a dopple was connected to child abuse events.

The operation of that facilitated by Mallarme for years is "Fencing" creating liabilities to exploited minors by a Mockery of Ed Donegan pay for the mockerery's liabilities to minors and paying for the mockery's need for adult sex worker services.

THe first of my books the theGreatTreason.epub is non fiction and talks about the fraudulent past of many politicians and the second book Pillary is semi-fictional talking about how in violation of TItle 18 USC Chapter 73 these frame jobs on me staging emergencies that I have been exploiting minors is a way of pillorying me as people believe the acts of the mockery of me who is in my vicinity as I walk around are the acts of mine or that I endorse his acts when I do not.v

Perhaps 80 times in the first book the GreatTreason.epub I document Maclamar misconduct during the writing of my book and why a political interest exists in undermining the book, that political interest acted on by Mac Lamar property managers.

This book

How It Also Was Done

Setting up a Long-Con obstructing justice and falsifying pretext to abuse leasors has Government operation place undercover Confidential Informants behaving in a hostile ways to fake and manufacture fact patterns.

Jen Moore a financial crimes expert worked extensively the illegal racketeering operation conducted under Color of Law.

Targeted Victims of Gangstalk Operations

Jen Moore was herself a victim of a GangStalk and that is a Free Masonry Rough Noise system to desrtroy a person's life.

Below are the mechanisms of the GangStalk from English Traditions

- Union Hall : Masonic Labor halls of Masters and Apprentice

- Frame-Jobbers : Those laborers who will take the job of framing a Non Mason by planting children's underwear near a person, acting out that the Stalk victim is a Russian spy by being pictured handing stolen US documents to the Stalk Victim, Stalker making incriminating monologues near the Stalk Victim that appears dialogue

- Two-Hatters : Donald Barr, William Barr, Christopher Wray, The Bush Family, others who explain the orders for Frame-jobbers to STalk a person will come from official fire, police, and other first repsponder office holders, to the Stalk Victim will not be able to fight off the GansStalk

- Smear Merchants : Be it Rumor Mongers will talk up the smear or media companies who will promote dis-truth about honest people and help guilty people avoid guilt. CIA Mockingbird uses the MSM to blame Russia for radiation attacks inside the USA that are really CIA attacks FBI DOJ Bureau of Prison attacks using radiation, and the CIA places blame instead on Russia

- Roadblockers : Roadblockers surveill a victim of Targeting illegally and disrupt what the Targeted Victim is doing, often taking the activity over themselves and leaving the Targeted Victim roadbloackd and completely out of future activities, also called Ghosting

- Disrupting Bullies Part of the GangStalks Rough Music affect is to disrupt and ordinary day of an ordinary stalk victim. If I go have coffee a Stalk team in the coffee shop will place females buttocks exposed in my direction. As I am reading a book on my cell phone the will move into my smartphone lens direction and begin taking picture and dialing my phone in an abusive Pantomime that makes me seem to others, smears me by staged appearances, I was photographing females in public, making my use of the coffee shop risky and prone to fighting with those in the coffee shop and the time in the coffee shop harassed.

Is Defamation criminal? Yes; in certain contexts such as Conspiracy Against Rights using Defamation to encourage violation of lease agreements or employment status, cause other harms and do so under Color of Law, the Defamation uttered to a persons face can be sexually abusive, inapropriate, sexual harrassment, and be part of creating a false and abusive Legend about a person such that the defamed person can be blamed elswhere for acts of a doppple of a defamed person.

In Racketeering and Money Laundering a dopple of Ed Donegan is a peeper. By his identity and actions he is not me. By identity theft and faking a basis for trust fund fraud he is by identity me.

Excerpted letter copied here editorially modified in part for several reasons

8/7/2018
To: Capitola Police
422 Capitola Ave,
Capitola, CA 95010

From: Ed Donegan
19025 Karen Dr
Salinas, CA 39307
EdInArlington©gmail.com

A pernicious Blackmail/Extortion ring has formed. The complexifying elements are that

- Embezzlers have captured funds into bank accounts tied to them but falsy claimed are actually mine use Identity Theft and other Fraud tactics to hold, and money launder the funds due me but held by others. I have no verbal, financial, or any another account of the financial accounts but others use identity theft to create the cover story I am aware of the money and I am spending out of it. Chris Lloyd of Orinda California appears central to this illegal scheme.

- Identity Thieves are using impersonations of me to engage in despicable and politically defaming conduct. PICTURED A bike other than my bike, but of similar description, in an otherwise empty parking lot, is spying on women of the gym. Golds Gym Corpus Christi. Rarely and non-exploitatively I do use a forward facing dash camera to tape scenic motorcycle rides on MY motorcycle, not the one pictured below.

- The impersonators themselves are both engaging in the despicable conduct and agreeing to be blackmailed socially by dominatrices who will “punish them” by making them give money or other assets to blacks. “Domination is not prostitution.” The embezzled money is turned over to “above board” dominatrices such as Kora Kaine, Anastasia, Veronica Hoffman, and adult toy suppliers in a money laundering operation to semi legitimate businesses or donations. [added 2/15/2022 or seem like legitimate assets seizures of Ed Donegan's trust fund based on the acts of the person who stole the identity of Ed Donegan and used that identity in St Louis or elsewhere.}]

- Public spectacle staged photos (along with phone hacking) create the appearance I am aware of the embezzled misused funds. For instance I have only a motorcycle. If I consider buying a car an look for one or request one from my trust fund, vehicles I am considering will be driven near me, pause, then drive away as though I am examining them. I conjunction with this unrelated spam phone calls will reach my phone making it seem I am being asked to authorize and am involved in some vehicle purchase which I am not. Without out accounting to me embezzlers will buy the vehicle as though authorized by me, keep it for themselves, and conceal it from me. (Corpus Christi Toyota 4Runner or Chris Lloyd Porsche, or real estate such as in Missouri, Moraga California, or Corpus Christi.

- At Points of Sale cashiers intone some “good times” are being bought in addition to groceries from some planted female. I suspect a second transaction (not the legitimate one I make) is later made by an impersonator of me which will access the embezzled account rather than my account. The impersonator will then leave the store or gym with the planted female for the “good time” although the innuendo was said towards me at the point of sale.

- There is law enforcement or Secret Service, DOD, or other internal law enforcement support based on what I have been told by at least 9 people. In ErosX (My identity is crossed out with someone elses) black sex offenders, black foreign nationals, and junkie white trash or other tatooed prison felons have been setup to receive stolen or embezzled property, telling me they were hired by the DOD to do so and in fact they have used names like "Harvey Dent" and "Casper." I do believe this is slush fund related corruption and in international RICO scheme.

ONE EXAMPLE WILLIAM RUZ

A Motorcycle jacket [aka Ruiz "Rocket" Johny Rocket

the Trust Fund paid for was stolen and a chair I sat in moved, both to a location I was not at so an impersonator could use those items to establish an identity of me and shower peep.

Verbal narrative but vaugely so was added by William Ruiz that while in my motorchycle jacket I was using remote moinotor equipment to watch women shower.

[Safety gloves were also pilfered and thieves encourage to pilfer from me are encouraged to do so in ways that harm my progress towards important goals or safety, the FBI scheme of disrupting a person's life)

HOW PARTS OF THIS HAVE UNFOLDED (I was in a Home Depot looking for piece of wood for a cat play piece of furniture and walked out the Corpus Christi Home Depot without a purchase. That weekend an identity thief with email, age, birthday near me, but unrelated to me, bought property for a rental property I have nothing to do with or accounting of, but is owned by and Identity Thief of me.

The picture of me not buying anything in Corpus Christi is fused with something at a different GPS, a purchase by an identity thief, for a fake record that I did buy something when in fact an identity theft bought something from funds and an account not disclosed to me.

I was in Corpus Christ, was visible in Corpus Christi Texas Home Depot, and nowhere near Missouri Home Depot.

Photos of where Dopples of me operate, Arsons to those areas afterwards in sevarl cases, and the misspellingg domain confusion or brand confustion tricks to hijack my identity and move to elsehwere with it where other events not tied to me in reality will unfold.

Tom Dunham, myself, and Veronica Hoffman were all in that scene and attending events together.

This book

Austin I and II

Fair Housing For Renters retrieved from TDHCA and copied or modified to here

P.O. BOX 13941, Austin, TX 78711-3941
221 East 11th Street, Austin, Texas 78701-2410 Map
Email: info©tdhca.state.tx.us

The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs is the state agency responsible for affordable housing, community and energy assistance programs, colonia activities, and regulation of the state's manufactured housing industry. The Department currently administers $2 billion through for-profit, nonprofit, and local government partnerships to deliver local housing and community-based opportunities and assistance to Texans in need. The overwhelming majority of the Department's resources are derived from mortgage revenue bond financing and refinancing, federal grants, and federal tax credits.

All TDHCA divisions regularly interact with other state and federal agencies, the state legislature, housing and community development organizations, community assistance agencies, lending institutions, real estate interests, the media, and other public sources.

Examples of things that might indicate unlawful rental discrimination is occurring could include (but are not limited to):

- Lying about or misrepresenting the availability of housing when housing is available
- Requiring different terms or conditions based solely on a household member's race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or disability
- Advertising that indicates a limitation or preference based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or disability
- Harassment or intimidation such as verbal threats, vandalism, or unwanted sexual advances
- A refusal to make reasonable accommodations for a person with disabilities
- Being steered to properties, buildings, or units on one side of a complex based solely on factors related to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or disability, regardless of other available options

In addition to rights under the Fair Housing Act (www.justice.gov) which are further described on the Fair Housing 101 page, Texas Property Code (www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us) includes an overview of your basic rights as a tenant in a rental property.

Additional resources may be available to you through your local Legal Aid Office or through one of HUD's approved rental counseling programs (hud.gov). Many Legal Aid Offices also operate legal clinics or hotline services to better serve the public. A comprehensive listing of each office's location, services, and hours is available at TXLawHelp.org (www.txlawhelp.org).

For help in submitting forms for common types of landlord complaints (such as submitting a form to dispute your credit rating, requesting a deposit refund, or sample letters requesting repairs), please review the Austin Tenants Council's Forms page (www.housing-rights.org).

For information related to requesting reasonable accommodations or entering a complaint under the Americans with Disabilities Act, visit Disability Rights Texas (www.disabilityrightstx.org).

Just as I was on my way to pay rent at Stay and Play a Crisis Actor Team created a crisis to road black that, and the same happened as I was trying to move to Austin, but a fake crisis blocked my getting to Austin when the fake crisis got their first and me kicked out before I got there.

Initially I thought and still at least idealize Austin as a good town for me. Bicycles, health, hiking, bdsm scene, university town, capital of a state, lower cost of living, high tech center, parks and rec, etc.,

I joined a motorcycle meetup, had drinks downtown, during a stalk, was stalked everywhere, pools were shutdown on pretext, it would have been a national emergency if I I met a white female between 25 and 40 and helicopter gunships and black nationalist prison recruits were on hand to make sure that never happened.

I was gang swarmed by cheap shot black females perhaps 85 times the times I was there of nothing other than black nationalism and Asians with a tude swamring those around me, always denyimg they were doing it.

The move in was an example. I had a lease. dishwasher and washer dryer, cheap rent, on the park for excersize on tree lined trails, etc.,

Malicious filthiness so absurd only Black Nationalists could be behind it. Pretending I was a retarded person who thought an apartment complex who's marketing effort was that it had student level pricing and was near a college therefore meant I was mentally retarded delusion thinking he was in "incoming freshman waiting for his dorm room assignment." Unlike most homeless people being recruited to physically assault me I have lived in dorms, near schools, and away from schools, and the statement towards me were insane.

"Meet by the poolside" for your dorm assignment. No, the lease stipulated they assign the 1 X1 apartment. A fake peeping incident handled by "Cynthia Nino" allegedly protection children (which I can not get away from even at Stay and Play) would get me away from adult women as though "my balls had been cut off" by those black nationalist who keep threatening me, as they said.

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Nodes	Suggestive o story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing suggestive fraud
1		2
	.Suggestive narrative 5 (fraudulent

Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events

On the way to Jim Vocelka's adult dungeon residence it was made to look like I was into child porn and I should be denied rental after a period of shskind down (kiting money from my trust fund) for a while. This has been done to sabotage my life in all matters.

I stopped off at 1 Wells Fargo for 2 Rent payment at Adult Stay and Play. Narraitve was created I was attempt to propositoin 3 and teen, for 4 illicit and dispicable purposes. Mechanisticly my activities and atributes are revesed into an evil by false narrative and paid actors near me altering the context of my acts.

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog, bunko, exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Cynthia Nino

4.5/5 Fraudulent chains of events, Cynthia Nino stopping my adult life with adult vaguely hints she is protecting children from me

On the way to my new apartment in Austin property was stolen or gained from Corpus Christi I and placed at Austin in III so instead of me in Austin as II it by flse narragtive was that I was in Austin as IV a child harmer.

On the way to Jim Vocelka's adult dungeon residence it was made to look like I was into child porn and I should be denied rental after a period of shakedown (kiting money from my trust fund) for a while. This has been done to sabotage my life in all matters.

I stopped off at 1 Wells Fargo for 2 Rent payment at Adult Stay and Play. Narraitve was created I was attempt to proposition 3 and teen, for 4 illicit and despicable purposes. Mechanically my activities and atributes are revesed into an evil by false narrative and paid actors near me altering the context of my acts.

2.5/3 four ways. It is in the .5 that the fog exists, confusion, vague, gray, not black and white.

Nodes	Suggestive or story telling element	Nodes	Public perception believing suggestive fraud
1		2
	.Suggestive narrative 5 (fraudulent and vague dual construction narrative or narration element)
3		4

Four actual Nodes and a Connecting element, that element deceitful and cross out events

Leasing Manager
Ballpark West Apartments
1600 Wickersham Lane
Austin, TX 78741

(ordered me off the property of my lease as I was there with my moving truck and belongings with threats of police action if I stayed. I was late a day or two though my apartment was being hit by Hurican Henry as I was packing and driving.

The general pattern is a black defeating white supremcism conducts a peep but it is alleged to me. The black nationalist fighting white supremacism then make a baseless cheap shot at me, aviding a direct statement and thus avoiding direct scrutiny, yet say they are “always above” (a white person) and “really on to me now” (though no allegation) and happily tell me what scum I am.

Because the “legend” of peeping is alleged then my dna is due to blacks and I must be removed from women being around me.

From the chapter on Black Markets

Protection Racket

Not only do False Flags of Crisis actors create closed doors to me the Crisis Actors bill my trust fund for high power muscle cars, beach going 4 jeeps, other equipment to patrol against further crisis, though they generated the crisis they are on patrol for.

Who did take the photo of the teen or tot I can not get away from me? REruited sex offenders and others the protection racket who claims to have me as a client had already as a charged. I am then charged (by their protection racket) for that act of that “zoom photographer” who took the picture I am not interested in.

Then, acting on “all peoples safety” I am moved into homeless shelters and county programs which will manage my IQ genes, etc., for me.

Jeep Wrangler JK Freedom build-out

Ed Donegan edinarlington©gmail.com

Attachments

Sun, May 6, 6:30 PM

to Raphael, Tia, Trinitas, rgaytan

The base is Jeep Wrangler 4 door, red, 17 inch wheels.

(pls confirm 4 door at every phase. Roomier back in case of need to sleep inside during rain storm.)

Basic Class II towing package for standard type trailer and Carrier.jpgbicycle trailers (downward weight not an issue, sample bicycle and small trailer photos included. Cost of trailer = about 700 from Northern Tool in Corpus Christi. 7- 10 days delivery, on sale now $75 off.)

Vehicle navigation system and hard top for normal use. Better against theft and damage. I have thrown the PDF of the quote request in along with some camping photos, vehicle usage as well as non motorcyvle vehicle to use.

Ed Donegan
Cisco and Checkpoint
Certified Security Engineer
(361) 331-2571

The protection racket breaks my leases on false pretenses, etc., to get me into Social Services as a white male with no normal life being lived.

In absurdity they simply deny their are moving white women away from me even when they assault white woman, assault her, threaten to arrest her, or shout a death threat at me.

Their (the protection racket's) cause is not shown to me, no allegation is made to me, thus I am not given a chance to scrutinize the claim behind my back people are "my pornography" entitled to my DNA. I do not photo women without permission.

First last and massive deposit were paid in advance but had been "zeroed out" prior to my arrival

In fact rather than the unflushed ghetto toilets I am force into that would have been a better lifestyle for me.

I have posted on Storm Front I have a White Supremacist stomach, made ill by the site of third wold education levels, third world behavior, ghetto filth and ghetto losers and ghetto crachheads and ghetto music.

Force out of Austin at gun point and with repeated institutionalization design to keep black nationalist lefist protection racket denial of my ordinary life, including by stealing my wallet, blacks forced me back to Daiper Stain Texas 78411 again.

The sight, sound, and actions of Diaper Stain reaffirm my Nazism and Odinism and the gay leftism of social Austin as well as Abbot, the CIA and DOD history of Texas, CIA front operations at places like University of Texas Austin match the MKULTRA Gods CIA activities I hate anyway.

Thus my life for Austin was mixed with the realization I don't like many of the ingredients.

Leaving for Gay austin was not far enough. I believed then and still now that even Canada is not far enough away from here.

As always I can't get to the hearing, can't find wout what was told the the psych examiner with me not there, and never say any paper work as I rotted away in detention and black nationalists pulled the usual stunts during my detention, like giving books I requested to a black and putting me in some corner broom closet cell I was never let out of just like being put in a near bulkhead on Amtrack by black nationalists who surrounded me there.

This book

A Declaration by Edward Paul Donegan On His Experiencing Government Retaliatory Violence From US Government Officials Hostile to JFK RFK Case Solutions

The Structural Elements as Logic of this Declaration are as follows

1) That Edward Donegan has the best available Assassination Theory that answers unanswered questions and that by his family background is likely closely linked to the assassinations of JFK and RFK and has available public information supportive of a threshold of likelihood of truth in that assertion.

The the US Government and its Officials have available information on their own and could assist rather than interfere with Ed Donegan's research on US Government connections to the Kennedy assassinations including powerful elite families in the CIA and Congress and US Presidencies, but Ed Donegan has been at all times harassed rather than assisted in researching the government history of this, government records im this such as military and birth records of private citizens, and backgrounds of CIA US DOD families like the Burns family, the Barr family, the Mueller family, and other families of public record including public employees like Ted Gunderson and William Cooper and Jen Moore.

2) That Jen Moore had files corroborating Ed Donegan's information is recrded as her death bed statements I continue to cite that affirms my stories of my family history I also cite family, news-story, and White house records on. That Jen Moore said before she died she faced death threats - being Silenced - by Free Mason connected powerful CIA figures if she spoke out on Ed Donegan is both on the record statement of her in Youtube, Bitchute, Farmer Jones Free Conference Call, and sources of her statements or statements about her and seen in her videos.

3) That these stories of Ed Donegan and Jen Moore trying to get Kennedy Assassination history told is too dangerous in the USA and will result in lethal covert retaliation by State Sponsored wielders of US Official power in Abuse of Power.

4) That the Abuse of that Power is in deniable mafia usage of allowing gang activity, snitch activity, neighborhood watch groups be front groups for disputes and fights that are the engineered violence against witnesses the Government needs to hide its hand (sometimes hidden) in disparaging, blocking, and suppressing conspiracy theorists as Russian plants, terrorists, or i diversionary smear campaigns, the Conspiracy theorist is ALSO a pedophile in fights with neighborhood toughs or employers are apartment managers of pedophilia accusation smear campaigns or schizophrenia smear campaigns and that this is a Modus Operandi of Targeting witnesses as part of suppression of witnesses.

5) That in the US theory of an unrestrained and free press, a condition of a free society, books and statements from those that todays 21st Century leaders came to power on something likely tied to Partnership for a New Century that ran in th 20th Century allowed George H.W. Bush and his planned successors Barrack Obama Jr make international stride in global allegiance under the propaganda of a liberal democracy when in fact covert allegiance with corrupt business practices was the tru partnership for the 21st Century and the globalization of CIA crime now controls official US policy and activities of State sponsored crime in mafia government.

6) That specific acts like break-ins to my home office (upon which the police records were changed to fictitious and unsupported burglary theory), cutting of utilities to my apartment by outdoor switch and valves operation, physical wire cuts or rewiring and splicing, have been part of black bags on thee home office often tied to very direct activities the Government perceives as a threat, activities naming William

Burns in my book, Christopher Wray on the cover of it when my computer was stolen, etc.,

That this is a conspiracy against rights per-empting and disruption witness accounts to the Government or to the Press.

That Jean Hill experienced this.

That Jim Marrs, Richard Selzter, Ralph Thomas, and others observe is a pattern of the destruction of lives of loss lives by witnesses whose assertions contradict Government accounts.

Norma Jean Lollis Hill (February 11, 1931 - November 7, 2000) was an American woman who was an eyewitness to the assassination of United States President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.[1][2] Hill was known as the "Lady in Red" because of the long red raincoat she wore that day, as seen in Abraham Zapruder's film of the assassination. A teacher by profession, she was a consultant for Oliver Stone's 1991 film JFK and co-wrote JFK: The Last Dissenting Witness with Bill Sloan.

Hill's claims have been both disputed and embraced. While official sources have considered her an unreliable witness for a number of reasons, other researchers investigating the assassination and the conclusions of the Warren Commission consider her a highly credible witness. They point to significant circumstantial evidence of an apparent smear campaign to undermine the testimony and credibility of Hill, the closest civilian witness to the assassination and its immediate aftermath.

Jean Hill was a consistent critic of the official report of the Warren Commission since its release and in 1992 she co-wrote a book entitled The Last Dissenting Witness. In this book she made the assertion that her reported testimony before the Warren Commission was fabricated by the commission, a claim also made by others about Warren Commission testimony.[3] Others point out that those claims cannot be verified one way or the other, and argue that the Warren Commission did not fabricate testimony at all, although some people who probably committed perjury point to the possibility of an internal conspiracy. Wikipedia

Jean Hill was born in 1931. She worked as a teacher in Oklahoma City before moving to a Dallas school in 1962. On 22nd November, 1963, Hill, watched the motorcade of President John F. Kennedy from the grassy knoll facing the Texas School Depository Building. Hill and her friend, Mary Moorman, who was taking Polaroid pictures of the motorcade, were only a few feet away from President John F. Kennedy when he was shot. Hill and Moorman thought the shots had come from behind her on the grassy knoll and as soon as the firing stopped they ran towards the wooden fence in an attempt to find the gunman. Hill claims that they were detained by two secret service men. After searching the two women they confiscated the picture of the assassination.

Hill gave a statement to the police where she stated: "Mary Moorman started to take a picture. We were looking at the president and Jackie in the back seat... Just as the president looked up two shots rang out and I saw the president grab his chest and fell forward across Jackie's lap... There was an instant pause between two shots and the motorcade seemingly halted for an instant. Three or four more shots rang out and the motorcade sped away."

Shirley Martin telephoned Hill on 25th January, 1964. She told Martin that as soon as the firing stopped they ran towards the wooden fence in an attempt to find the gunman. However, they were detained by two secret service men. After searching the two women they confiscated the picture of the assassination. Hill told Martin that she was very scared as another witness, Warren Reynolds, had been shot in the head by an unknown assailant, the night before: "Mrs Hill told me that she and Miss Moorman had received many threatening phone calls urging them to keep quiet and when they reported these to the Dallas police, they received an official brush-off. Mrs. Hill said Miss Moorman would not talk to me as she was much more frightened and upset over the whole thing than Mrs. Hill was."

Hill later gave evidence to the Warren Commission that was highly controversial. She claimed that she heard between four and six shots. Hill was also convinced that some of the shots came the grassy knoll. In interviews on television after the assassination Hill said she saw "a little white dog" in the rear seat of the president's car. As there was no dog in the car, the reliability of Hill's witness statement was undermined. However, 25 years later, it was revealed that a small white stuffed animal was on the back seat of the car. A child had presented it to Jackie Kennedy at the beginning of the tour of Dallas. This information was suppressed in order to discredit Hill as a reliable witness.

The Zapruder Film film shows the position of Jean Hill (left) and Mary Moorman when John F. Kennedy was shot.

The Zapruder Film film shows the position of Jean Hill (left) and Mary Moorman when John F. Kennedy was shot.

Jean Hill told Mark Lane: "The FBI was here for days. They practically lived here. They just didn't like what I told them I saw and heard when the President was assassinated. She declined to permit a filmed interview, stating, for two years I have told the truth, but I have two children to support and I am a public school teacher. My principal said it would be best not to talk about the assassination, and I just can't go through it all again. I can't believe the Warren Report. I know it's all a lie, because I was there when it happened, but I can't talk about it anymore because I don't want the FBI here constantly and I want to continue to teach here. I hope you don't think I'm a coward, but I cannot talk about the case anymore."

For many years Hill refused to give interviews about the John Kennedy assassination. However, in 1990, Hill agreed to work as a technical adviser on Oliver Stone's motion picture, JFK. The following year she revealed what happened after the assassination: "They (Secret Service agents) took me to the Records Building and we went up to a room on the fourth floor. There were two guys sitting there on the other side of a table looking out a window that overlooked the killing zone, where you could see all of the goings on. You got the impression that they had been sitting there for a long time. They asked me what I had seen, and it became clear that they knew what I had seen. They asked me how many shots I had heard and I told them four to six. And they said, No, you didn't. There were three shots. We have three bullets and that's all we're going to commit to now. I said, Well, I know what I heard, and they told me, What you heard were echoes. You would be very wise to keep your mouth shut. Well, I guess I've never been that wise. I know the difference between firecrackers, echoes, and gunshots. I'm the daughter of a game ranger, and my father took me shooting all my life." In 1992 Hill published her book on the case, JFK: The Last Dissenting Witness.

Jean Hill, who worked as a schoolteacher in Dallas for over twenty years, died on 7th November, 2000.

https://spartacus-educational.com/JFKhillJ.htm

Edward Donegan asserts assets of government are aware of and threatening my writings often while saying they are not, they are talking to someone else, or threatening me on non-verbal gestures or for allegations of pedphilia when the kill (as Noble Savage Prison Snitches) pedophiles, but that is also fabricated about thus I am exposed to the danger of Nobel Savages claiming they have a revenge motive to attack me, that occurring in my surroundings while I write my book or rent apartments in skid row. It is on my book cover intimidation or obstruction of my truth telling on this is Obstruction of Justice USC Title 18 Chapter 73, that Jen Moore was assassinated in furtherance of treason, what the United States as 18 USC Chapter 73 to address.

I Edward Paul Donegan declare I knew as a child likely the same Mr. Prouty that Oliver Stone and Jim Garison did. THe best of my research is that J. Edgar Hoover was serving on Majic 12 a committee of British and US Intelligence operations directors hostile to JFK and Roman Catholics during the Irish Troubles where the FBI was also operation and that this information is in the books I am writing and others have written.

That the facts of my research and family history show my Roman Catholic family and Roman Catholic PRouty of Boston opposed the Majic 12 allegiance with Great Britain that in 1954 GOP President Eisenhower agreed to in intel cooperation and VP Nixon used for directives in who to assasinate, and that JFK wanted to shut down Majic 12 that J. Edgar Hoover was leading.

7) That the following is my list of books as I am writing and publicizing them now as a matter of substance for potential readers of History.

New William Cooper Patriotic Sovereign Press

The Great Treason: High and Petite Treason in the USA

Extensive non-fiction that shows the 100 year history of the espionage covert Special Relationship between England and the USA that led in to the Kennedy Curse and how the Donegan (my own and other families secretly were tied to that history under Hidden Identities and Underground Railroads during several world wars.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/GreatTreason.epub

Pillory: Tools and Fools of the USA

A fictional book as a speculative simulation between the Donegan's, Kennedy family, and others in Boston and how because of the Donegan factual history in that matter led to a Mockingbird pillory of me by the CIA, FBI, and others when my and other evidence on the JFK and RFK and other murders should not be retaliated against or conspired against by the very agencies this information should be useful to in those agencies and the US sovereign self-interest. In the fictional version RFK escapes assassination and we will learn of the underlying connection between Marilyn Monroe and Dysgraphic Albert Einstein.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/What.epub

Ted L. Gunderson An Edited and Approving Biographical Anthology of his Life and Works

Ted Gunderson was the right-hand man to RFK fighting the mafia that was run by Vice President Richard Nixon in the 1946 to 1960 years. As the Kennedy's gained power in the USA and world global dirty business operations subverted the USA and other nations. JFK and RFK attempted to shut down the CIA but it was too globally located to respond to the US Presidency and and held too much allegiance from British trained and supported Espionage in the USA operating as the US Government but through NGOs that again were difficult to control from inside the US Government. It would be comparable to NASA trying to control a long gone satellite past its available connections back to Earth.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TedGundersonByEdDonegan.epub

Written by the Right Hand: The Right Hand Operatives of the Cabal and the Dangerous Job They Undertook of Exposing its Secrets

Many leakers of the secrets of the JFK history have come forward. Deep State Cabal range from Mocking them to assassinating them to denying the truth of revelations but history is being continuously revised as theories Lee Harvey Oswald was a patsy are gaining growing support. The patriots fighting against Free Masonry, Vatican history, Knights of Malta, Council on Foreign Relations, British Pilgrim Society all experience media abuse of their theories find any publicity at all but these patriots still speak out at the risk of their lives and leave death-bed statements.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/WrittenByTheRightHand.epub

Majic 12 and the Secret Government by William Cooper Introduction by Edward Donegan

With Ed Donegan provided Introduction and in-context commentary and de-anonymized cartoon space aliens as real people under Hidden Identities talked about in anomyized fictionalized ways for un-traceability of any real figures. William Cooper was tied to Free Mason families in his personal life and was part of that overlay of that in US Government activities and became an NWO whistle-blower. Ed Donegan shows the real people and real stories under the clouds of fictionalized obfuscations. Eisenhower GOP and Truman and NIXON worked with Free Masonry and likely formed the CIA as un understudy of MI5 and MI6 Jedah assassins and covert operatives with exchanges of espionage teams between the USA and Great Britain.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/majestic-12-and-the-secret-government.epub

All Above Books By Edward Paul Donegan © All rights reserved 2023

Calibre is a cross-platform free and open-source suite of e-book software. Calibre supports organizing existing e-books into virtual libraries, displaying, editing, creating and converting e-books, as well as syncing e-books with a variety of e-readers. Editing books is supported for EPUB and AZW3 formats. - Wikipedia

Download Calibre for Windows. Only the light brown icon book reader is needed to read these books that are in development by me and readable in full for free now but and can be transmitted to others as I do in full as per-publicity and problem solving of who came to power after JFK.

https://calibre-ebook.com/download_windows

February 20, November 18, December 13, April 1, June 4, July 6, August 4

8) That the following is my list of books as I am writing and describing them now as a matter of process for the Courts.

A Manchurian Candidate built By The Queen of England and her Jewelry Makers Kills JFK and RFK and OThers then creating line of new sucession of New USA.

The Great Treason: High and Petite Treason in the USA

The Assassination of JFK as Oppression of the USA. An English system of anti-democratic measures of assassinations, State backed smear campaigns, and other dirty tricks (often those dirty tricks like hiring Charles Harreslon to assassinate JFK) bought from the Mafia as fill-in capability where the US needed that capability or corrupt interests need that capability.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/GreatTreason.epub

Pillory: Tools and Fools of the USA

A book on Suppression as John F. Kennedy's brother Robert F. Kennedy is assassinated as begins to close in through John Frankenheimer and others the Manchurian Candidate story that lead to his brothers death and how Ed Donegan and others are smeared and made a public pillory victim of rotton cabbage as they tried to gain a credible voice in society telling their stories but being suppress by smear.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/What.epub

Ted L. Gunderson An Edited and Approving Biographical Anthology of his Life and Works

Assassination. Ted Gunderson and others with insights to the CIA including Bush, Ashcroft, and others tied them to the assassination of JKF and Gunderson asserted and NWO plot to "plant people on him" (perhaps children in sexual poses or others) to physically poison him, and do so in a secret program tied to an NWO of Bildergers and others who were using covert operatives for break-ins to his home, death threats, firing guns at him, etc., and Geral Sosbee and others assert these programs of Free Mason systems of private citizen misconduct towards journalists or others and the misconduct is by Mafia Dons of big government NWO.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TedGundersonByEdDonegan.epub

Written by the Right Hand: The Right Hand Operatives of the Cabal and the Dangerous Job They Undertook of Exposing its Secrets

Defectors protecting the rights of US Journalists from being Stalked and Silenced. Jen Moore and others talk abotu how Stalkers disrupt people's lives but are Mafia and we can and are getting the dirt on Mafia backed allegiance with NWO forces.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/WrittenByTheRightHand.epub

Majic 12 and the Secret Government by William Cooper Introduction by Edward Donegan

The understanding of it all. Why would CIA and FBI have need to kill someone like Jen Moore, Dorothy Killgallen, Ted Gunderson, Micheal Hastings, Ed Donegan, or others? Because the US is really in illegal allegieance with two forieng powers. One of those is England who rules by using crime to undermine polticial enemies. THe other are the criminals our officials need to preserve their culpubiity from exposure to the public, else they would be arrested.

https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/majestic-12-and-the-secret-government.epub

All Above Books By Edward Paul Donegan © All rights reserved 2023

Calibre is a cross-platform free and open-source suite of e-book software. Calibre supports organizing existing e-books into virtual libraries, displaying, editing, creating and converting e-books, as well as syncing e-books with a variety of e-readers. Editing books is supported for EPUB and AZW3 formats. - Wikipedia

Download Calibre for Windows. Only the light brown icon book reader is needed to read these books that are in development by me and readable in full for free now but and can be transmitted to others as I do in full as per-publicity and problem solving of who came to power after JFK.

https://calibre-ebook.com/download_windows

Royals in the USA: February 20, November 18, December 13, April 1, June 4, July 6, August 4 suppressing Sovereign suspicion of NWO

9) That the Mafia system uses Tensioning, Provocateur fights, break-ins, and evolving violent situations that match the story-line of Taps where cadets find themselves in fights with roughians and ultimately hold up on their arms depot in a stand off with police. In this case the Roughians were police operatives creating the standoff and in that tense situation the police may end up on violent acts resolving the tension by neutralizing the cadets.

That dissenters have said the goal of the conflicts initiated by Government is to institutional or leave dead the person targeted for or by provocations.

That the conflicts that emerge are Diversions drawing the writer away from writing and designed to wast the time of the writer as the writer must confront the conflict to return to peacfull use of public or private accommodations, and roadblocking access to things like grocery shelves, etc., is how Provocateurs have been trained to become and unavoidable fight with the person Targeted for provocations.

That these Provocations are Breaches of the Peace. Harassment can include open attempts to defraud by fabricating public appearances. A provocateur may say "Thank you" while walking away with property asserting as matter of visible public record property was offered when it was not. The immediate instinct is to pursue the person leaving with property not authorized to that person or to argue with that person about what was happening or had been said as the person departs the scene. It is that instinct to engage that is played to by skillful underhanded provocateurs. It is no crime to be a man or woman, but harassing use of exposure of body parts is or harassing comments, leering, jeering, or other activities are breach of the peace.

10) That I Edward Donegan the last living Donegan has had experience injury from these illegal operations and these illegal operations have left him homeless, discredited, and the subject of covertly originated State violent acts conducted through the un-prosecuted acts of violont felonous government stoolies and this system is called Snitchjacking and that system used police to attack through the hands of snitches.

11) That Tara Moore and Ed Donegan share comparable stories and at least Ed Donegan lives in that ongoing injurious state of unsafe unhealthy unproductive homelessness and Tom Dunham and Ed DOnegan have experience a complex smear campaign that created that injury that in Ed Donegan's case at least is still ongoing.

Tara's Story is Ed's Story is Ted's Story

… https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

This New World Order "One World After All " MAI/ NAFTA world has been built on assasination, death, ghetto drug addictions from the mid 40's. If you want to see how and through WHOM this has been going on since WWII, go to http://sightings.com/political/ciadrug.htm to read all the details proving how LONG the CIA and before them the OSS have been dealing drugs, not to enrich themselves but to pay for covert dirty tricks without borrowing from the oligarchs. They did not want money trails to lead back to the oligarch-run banking, IMF, world slave colony agenda. Read the truth about Casolaro stumbling on this OCTUPUS and on these crazy PROMIS software driven CIA bank raids. Read of Vince's battle with the CIA, their emptying his Swiss bank accounts the week of his death at http://home.earthlink.net/~astrology/cialetter.html

… https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

At least 300 times in federal or state custody I have wathced Gov employees ignore my law and order life and activities as they are mafia inseparable in activities of vicinity of gang members they are operating as gang members with.

At least 30k attacks on me since 1992 in public and private and no less than 100 open death threat to me in the last 10 years as I try to write. Most attacks undermining anywhere I write my books or have a home office, eroding use of office. It is the Jean Hill last witness story 1000 times over.

The purpose of destroying lives with cover criminal harassment using techniques all the way up to radiologically and other poisonings is the eliminate any martyrdom of fame; simply humiliate a person in society as pedophile, schizophrenic, any form of loser, homeless person, psych ward escapee, and insure over time the smear is effective enough to ensure person behind a dumpster is run of the mill street person, not someone the most elite in society are terrified of.

No Ordinary Stalking

Organized stalking is carried out by an enthusiastic and structured group that has cruel intentions: stalk, harass, injure, financially ruin, and mentally crumple human prey until incapacitation occurs. What sets this crime apart is that innocents are picked off the street. There is no getting away from the stalkers and no getting away from the unusual technology that is used to take over someone's life.

"For the first couple of months," says June, "I thought it was a sick game. Now that I've been tormented for years, well, it's clear that organized stalking is a sophisticated crime that follows a step-by-step process to leave the victim as bare and isolated as the dead tree on the cover. He or she may still be standing, but that's about it.

"I'll sum it up this way. Veiled intimidation ensures that targeted individuals are viewed by the public as free people, which they are not. They are playthings to their controllers. Hostages in plain sight. Victims are quite literally owned yet have limited chance of rescue because their desperate circumstances are > misunderstood.

>
> Some die from the violence. Some die from suicide. And the rest merely exist."
>
> Organized Stalking is worldwide and is called gang stalking in some areas. The electronic harassment that accompanies organized stalking is also known as covert harassment.

The Sheep in its vulnerability feigning injury or feigning pursuing its injurer in a trap is a Wolf and the predator. The Management at my apartments were Wolves acting like injured Sheep and they moved other wolves dressed as sheep around me. Treating me as a predator is an act of predation, the accusation by repetitive fraud had gained acceptance as true even though several factors should negate that.

I have likened the entire plan to have landlords others drive me out because I am a peeper (when I am not but the Gangsalk manufactures this) and leaving me in skid row homeless shelters under black and white assault and loss of all belongings over and over again to the Law and Order Special Victims Unit episode Taken.

The "special victim" is a former underage girl rapist himself under age. At age 17 a con team (grifters) know his background and fake a Deep Pockets civil complaint against the hotel employing him at very low wages, the brand new well financed hotel. With the detectives on the case they find the female victim was a fake, the team creating the compliant a con artist team. Stabler and his partner plead the grifters to a minor or civil charge and the grifters agree. Then Stabler and his partner arrest the grifters on serious charges right in front of the judge for felony involvement in his wrongful death in custody, attacked as a sex offender.

Taken Episode aired Dec 15, 2000 Plot Summary: When a young female reports a brutal rape during a hotel's grand opening, the police investigates the details of the attack to pin down their suspect, who has a prior conviction for statutory rape. Director Michael Fields Writers Dick Wolf, Dawn DeNoon, Lisa Marie Petersen, Stars Christopher Meloni, Mariska Hargitay, Richard Belzer

Gaslighting has repeatedly left me homeless unhealthy with little communications or hygeine or privacy and under attack by skid row thugs as a bag man in 100 degree heat. All allegations are in some way false and on fabrications of appearances and not reality.

It is exactly the acts of people like Jim Vocelka who take the deal to evict me, profit from it, or help others too, then leave me in homeless shelters where I am said to be there out of mental incompetence needing Social Services representation.

Jim Volcelka intentionally and knowingly engaged in coached fraudulent acts to make me seem intellectually retarded thus needing conservancy as well as faked allegations the layer of conservancy would then pay out as claims though the claims were staged frauds.

"Gaslighting" is the act of moving things around in home when the person is not there such as the location of furniture, etc.,

Stalking a person is most distressing when the Stalker proves to the Stalked person the Stalker has gained access to details of their life, home, etc.,

Gas lighting got its name when a husband in a movie toyed with the mind of his wife saying the gas was off but then in an out of place way lit a gas lamp that should not have worked.

Coming home as I repeatedly did to find my underwear gone, altered, left outdoors, my drapes cut with peepholes, damaged items not damaged when I left, etc., were a particular subset of Gaslighting, staging fraudulent appearances that will both defame and injure me and my reputation but give others a pretext for retaliation against me for what was staged in the Gaslighting.

That first veiled aggression is creating a phony allegation or the visual support for a phony allegation that then opens the door literally for a retaliation over the phony allegation.

Tara Moore harassed by the GOP mayor and owner of her building is from Weymouth the Town of Presidents. There are 8.67 miles from Weymouth to Dorchester in northwest direction and 12 miles (19.31 kilometers) by car, following the MA 3 route. Dorchester is where my father Jim Donegan was born and the Kennedy's are from, all part of Cape Cod area South Boston, Columbia Point out into Cape Cod, the Brookline area of town, etc, Abigail Adams was from there, the Kennedy's, long history going back to he Boston Tea Party and fighting of the British and Boston Harbor.

As she was violently stalked and attacked in here bathroom through the walls and vets as she showered, used the toilet, etc., same with me) she wondered how insensitive to the important history this could happen in this area, police misconduct. I wondered in astonishment in Washington D.C. area Arlington County Bolston Stop WMATA incredibly KOMPROMAT hate crime could be successfully conducted out in the open.

Excuse me it is Quincy as I look at her tweets. Quincy, MA Called the "City of Presidents" and "Birthplace of the American Dream", Quincy is the birthplace of the second and sixth U.S. Presidents, John Adams and his son, John Quincy Adams. Rich in historic treasures, Quincy's impressive past remains vibrant today as the city lays claim to an exciting future.

> Broken hearted Tara Moore this could be happening. "Was haunted, harassed and stalked out of here to her 68 BEALE STREET QUINCY MASSACHUSETTS USA IN THE CITY OF PRESIDENTS~ TJM or America💔...🖤" 9:51 PM · Dec 2, 2021 https://twitter.com/TaraJMoore76/status/1466616168916082690?s=20

These Stalks were not in spite of the importance of the area, but because of them and the histories.

In my last few days of MacLamar property 1001 N. Water St. I spent nights with kitchen knives with me, my mattress pulled to the center of the apartment, the far side of the room from the windows, and furniture arranged to slow intruder entrance into the apartment.

Police assisted break-ins and other threats were a constant as hostile "snitch" neighbors of street gangs were moved next to me.

This is the life of Ted Gunderson whose daughter was shot at through her window after Ted Gunderson had received threats to that affect in advance and later as well. The bullet-hole was photographed and document and Ted was no slouch in being able to collect and research the evidence.

Tar Moore was agoraphobic, a fear of being outside and even being in fear of being in her apartment. We shared that in common and talked on Twitter about Stalkers and the Government operating through landlord office fronts.

Here is what a lawyer responding to her situation had to say, and at least in my case there was a 25 year plus at least history of every place I lived in custody of or out being exactly the same.

When some people go to bed they feel safe, alone, or with their partner. I don't think I have sensed tat in 25 years and I am not meant to, the stalkers are out their and on a mission to prove that to me at all times.

Robert L. Hedlund (born July 12, 1961) is an American businessman and politician serving as the mayor of Weymouth, Massachusetts. He was formerly a member of the Massachusetts Senate representing the Plymouth and Norfolk District.

Robert Montgomery Thomas (Mr.)
848 Washington Street
Weymouth. MA 02189 -1525
781 - 335 -1796
BobMontgomeryThomas©gmaiLcom

May 30, 2017

James D. Baldassini, Esq.
Baldassini and Baldassini
59 Winter Street
Weymouth, MA 02188-0002

Re: Tara Moore, 275 Lake Street, Unit 3,
Weymoutl, MA 02189, Docket # 1756SU000273

Dear Attomey Baldassini

I recently made the acquaintance of Tara Moore, supra, and all I can say is that I was astonished by the story she told me about her landlord/tenant relationship with your client Robert L. Hedlund, of 54 Longwood Road, Weymouth, who is also the current mayor of Weymouth. Mr. Hedlund is the registered owner of a corporation known as HWO, LLC (aka Hediund World Order, LLC), which limited liability corporation owns the subject property.

I am going to cut right to the chase by saying 1): that I find it incredulous that a seasoned attorney like you would participate in what amounts to taking advantage of a disabled woman (diagnosed with Panic Disorder, without Agoraphobia), who is also a recovering addict and who was not advised by or apprised of her rights to counsel in her dealings with you or your cfient, and 2): having seen pictures of the living conditions she has had to endure in her tenancy would be indicative of what a Weymouth slumlord would likely provide to his or her tenants. That the Boston Housing Authority (BHA) participates in the tenant's lease by almost $1 ,200 a month and has done little, if anything, to order your client to correct the glaring deficiencies over a long period of time is astonishing as well probably criminal at least in my mind.

From what I can see your client has also engaged in a pattern of harassment, violating MGL c. 264, S 34A (a) and prowling, the prowling incident admitted on his TV show, "Ask the Mayor" on April 6, 2017. If you would like I will provide you with the time stamp information from the show.

I am enclosing herewith a contact sheet with pictures of the premises Ms. Moore leases from your client. The term utterly disgusting really does not fit its description. That you, client and the BHA could care less is appalling and the eviction notice you sent her, without being represented by counsel, has damaged her chances of finding an apartment or condo for her her daughter.

She has already been denied by Weymouth Place: recommended by your client .

That Ms. Moore and her daughter would have to live on the street is apparently not your issue.

Without further ado I am going to print seven copies of the contact sheet: one for you; one for your client; one for the BHA; one for the local Board of Health; one for Judge Coven; one for the Governors Opioid Task Force and one for District Attorney Michael Morrissey to see what they think about the situation and your ruthless representation for an obvious slumlord.

cc: Robert L. Hedlund; Cheryl Hill, BHA; Daniel McCormickt Weymouth BOH; Hon Judge Mark S Coven, Quincy District Court; Governor Charles D. Baker; Dist Atty. Michael Morrissey Disabled Persons Protection Commission, the Patriot Ledger; Boston Globe and Boston Herald'

1001 North Water St. North 4th Floor 1x1

I live in discreet non adjoing units which are Quauntum Tunneled incursion system where from close enough to me the borders can be violated in some way for others near me to create blur moving their liabilties to me and my assets to them.

1513	1511
Outdoor Walkway	Kitcen Door #5	Kitchen #5	1513	Floor OK
Tunnel 1513 #6 under 1st floor to 1511	Unit 6 Empty	Kitchen #5	Bedrrom towards closet	Underground tunnel dug out of foundation when work was done on 6. 6 seems to have entrance to upstairs 1513. Hollowed out
Floor ok in 1513 #5		Bedrrom half towards window	1513	Floor OK

1513 First Floor has tunnel under middle of apartment

My rental of it and planned and actual use of it

To understand it you must first my “I just had a heat attack and it changed my life” lifestyle.

Some time ago, years ago, over a decade ago Dr. Christina Baselga of Arlington Internal Medicine was concerned about my medical condition.

I was overweight, hypertensive, aging, and had breathing difficulty, a task avoid by me through the use of alcoholic beverages to preoccupy my assphogus .

Like my father, she assured me these were warning signs of bad health to come.

It was time to educate the young skinny doctor.

People grow old and fat. It is right. If William Shatner can then I can too.

Well anyway that lasted until I was diagnosed with diabetes and an A1c of 13.3. Meeting her in the park I though by coincidence (she with a child) I said to her I took the A1c 33.3 thing seriously, getting the number scale I was just starting to learn wrong and the numerals jumbled.

In fact on reading the symptoms I joined the gym went to lean meats, cut the drinking, and started working out the the hard driving music I already listened to and let Auto-play find me more during the free hours i had, even budgeting time in the day at home for gym music music hunt on YouTube.

Penny Ashley, an Arlington Behavioral Health Care worker commented on my weight loss while she had been away for a while.

“I never thought it would be me saying it” I told her. “I feel like one of those people who had a heart attack and rather than hate the lifestyle and diet changes, I LOVE them and everything feels great and new, even my horrible neck problems have improved as I use slowed down meditative should press machines and just let my muscle flex and stretch in that area.”

That has been my lifestyle ever since using the area around 1001 N. Water St #46 and the Marina and Sea Wall as an exercise platform, as I made a par course out of Arlington Virginia running foothills, running Goff Courses ad I did in my 30s, and making gym equipment out of outdoor fixtures like fences like Le Mans drivers make race course out of city street, and I photographed the outdoors I loved being in too, always like the good times with my father in the Sierra Mountains, hiking, biking, and skiing.

If you grow up on the San Francisco Bay Area it is impossible to understand why ANYONE would EVER exercise indoors and I even emailed Arlington Parks and Rec about how similar I was to that black QB though I lived in absolute poetry.

The good stuff is when you get outdoors, and especially in the Pacific Northwest, home of the San Francisco /PNW Sound I grew up too like Jefferson Airplane, Janis Chaplin, and others at the Fillmore.

I asked MacLamar management what was available it was the north 4th Floor corner unit or the one next to it both at the same price which was being looked at by who I called “the talloid” a violent black and his white female partner.

At 1001 N. Water Street the North 4th Floor

The 45 to 40 side look at the Downtown main drag, the city park, the Omini Hotel and swimming pool, and the 1001 N. Water st pool.

The 46 unit faces the left of this drawn diagram to a large empty grassy lot then below a gas station and dumpster.

How the Townsfolk used my presence

One of the last times tried to use the outdoors I nearly lost my hand to a downward spiral of the abusive false claims treatment I was receiving from the area.

A teen female was placed near me in yoga pants suggesting that I had a yoga pants fetish, that it applied to under age females, and that I owed for that and would have to pay for that as my porn to the townsfolk.

I spit on the ground in part because I expectorate my ashtma quite a bit and also because I had stated openly I wanted noting to do with the town migrant workers and others placing exploited females around me.

The reaction of Hispanic and black males was to jump me from behind knocking me to the ground and as I broke my fall I injured my elbow and worsened my shoulder injury.

The “provider” will tell Social Security admin or others I was after that teen female who he was protecting.

I say it was a photo bomb which was both racially and sexually offensive by minorities planting child porn on an alt right person and saying I am pedophile.

Some time ago on a CCRTA city bus system I nearly attacked a women with a hammer which she said the youth female with her was being provided as porn to me.

It is not provided to me, a nearby persons to me will, using identity theft, take a picture of the minor and do so will being next to me and in similar clothes.

I call this a later exploit of the ambiguity of who took the picture at the scene, me or he other person.

Behind my back it will be shown to others that minor female was photographed, I was in the area, and a confession not mine will be forged by a person not me.

Even if I had not been attacked on the street by a group of people a legal risk or social risk to me exists as the entire scene can social engineer people regarding me and get gym memberships or apartments canceled on whisper campaigns about what is alleged about me.

As to the physical risk of being outnumbered at the scene and an skid row friendly Hispanic prosecutor likely helping the fake claims against me I was at risk for arrest in the fight.

I was also at risk for loosing my finger. A piece of gravel went deep into the the outermost finger and could have caused an infection, it did, but did not get out of control despite lack of a good area safe outdoors to lower by diabetes blood sugar. thus I stay indoors and can not use the Par Course I designed for the area lapping around the spiral stairs, Boradway Terrace, the Sea

Wall and docks, etc.,

My weight bar was sabotaged and I am attacked when I excessive by hooligans and my diet is often sold out, lean meats, so my entire A1c 13.3 to A1c 4.7 has not been available even if the extreme heat and no shade sunshine of near equatorial living were acceptable for my needs.

From the move in to my apartment it was undermined as a peeping tom area to spy on hotties, though my side over looked the dumpster and gas station, dopples of me did spy at pools and gym, getting me banned from the gym and the pool at the apartment shutdown.

The law enforcement re-write police reports including regarding property theft from me to help shake down my trust fund and back the claims of the migrant farm worker and skid row communities, then the falsified police reports shunning the alt right white guy are passed around.

The false claims of the community I am the aggressor include people outside my window saying they are my pornography and I own them compensation for the sight of them, I demand they get away from my windows.

My asset manages, social services of my mothers trust fund and those working with those social services, would rather my assets go towards this poor community rather than me.

The OECD piece of all this

The scientific articles I poured through reading about diabetes, about insulin resistance, number mechanisms of cell, metabolizing carbohydrates, Syndrome X, sports nutrition and sports medicine, all where amazing fightback against diabetes, but like fixing up a dive apartment, others are hostile to recognizing me as a contributor and instead harass me with hostile defaming and entangling actions towards me.

I have called it the Oliver Twist Ploy that social services recipients forced themselves into my vicinity, acted like I needed their coaching and team work with me, when I did not, meanwhile used time in my vicinity to make disparaging statements or acts regarding me when I wanted nothing to do with them.

If I realize income from my work and activity I think it has historical relevance, OECD wanted my mother's genome, and also legal significance.

If my activities generate Substantially Gainful Income by my returning to work in a normal way the trust fund dissolves as a need.

It it also likely in marriage partnership family finances would not need the trust which is what I had told Tia Mareselli right from the outset, perhaps third conversation with her.

I wanted to order some Those Shirts duds from Drudge Report advertising so I could go meet a fellow drudge report reader wife and say goodbye the the trust fund by marriage.

Somebody allegedly babysitting me as though I am retarded has realized others could fix up the apartment as i have and realize a capital gains in the held asset value, though I made the improvements, the buidling management would not even fix what was broken, my being in the apartment still showed its potential worth above what it was valued at.

> Your Special Needs Trust ("SNT") Defined
>
> https://www.specialneedsalliance.org/ *

Disability - The beneficiary of a first-party SNT must have a disability recognized by section 1614(a)(3) of the Social Security Act. You can visit http://www.ssa.gov/disability/professionals/bluebook/ for a complete list of SSA-recognized disabilities for adults and children.

Remainder beneficiary - When the trust ends (usually upon the beneficiary's death), the remainder beneficiaries are the individuals who will receive any remaining trust assets. In first-party SNTs, the state's Medicaid division is typically the first remainder beneficiary (note that in some states, Medicaid is not considered a beneficiary but rather a creditor). After Medicaid is reimbursed for the services it provided to the beneficiary, if trust assets still remain, they usually pass to the beneficiary's estate, or in some cases to persons named as remainder beneficiaries in the trust instrument. In third-party SNTs, the grantor of the trust decides who the remainder beneficiaries are. Medicaid should never be named as a remainder beneficiary of a third-party SNT.

If I work normally in normal cities in normal high tech jobs I am not disabled under the law under the general mental health system if he is a danger to himself (can not care for himself) or is a danger to other, then becomes subjected to behavioral health car and asset management as well.

I Edward Donegan had sent Tia Marsili Director of Trusts this info as email text and this was her reply as to my housing and physical assault crisis in the town of Corpus Christi.

Re: Apartment seems to be turning to condos

Tia Marsili 8:07 PM (37 minutes ago) to me

Ed,

I hope you are doing well.

Please limit your contact with The Arc to disbursements.

Thank you and stay well.

Tia Marsili

On Mar 31, 2021, at 8:37 PM, Ed Donegan edinarlington©gmail.com > wrote:

..

Both Tia Marselli of Arlington Virginia and the black female I met who introduced herself as Nueces County Texas Social Services in the gym have autistic or retarded children by their own accounts.

The fight white supremacism and would likely rather be credited themselves as “wise mind” “mindfulness” behavioral integrated health care in the gym than an alt right white male succeed who wants nothing to do with those social services counselors, their health programs, or their Oliver Twist clientele who surrounded me as “classmates” in social services classes I was not in.

Law Enforcement and Social Services Role in This Operation

If Ed Donegan were retarded, deveopmentally retarded, not able to function or produce wealth or income, no income oppurtunities presenting themselves, let's say, he might be take to a Dominatrix or sex worker for sex therapy, to be shown "female parts" and to also be caught by the white dominatrix or sex worker with child porn.

If actual Ed Donegan took the picture of Homegirl, why should Ed Donegan see a dominatrix or sex worker, when Homeboy could and be punished instead for a payment with Ed Donegan's DNA.?"

This what white male told me a Bikini's sports bar in Austin. Best punishment a Dominatrix can do is leave a person alone, not entertain them, rather than one role play or another.

The adult sex worker industry may or may not believe Ed Donegan took the picture of Homegirl. But she does believe Home Families matter and will most likely knowingly accept a substitute to give Ed Donegan's permissions for Ed Donegan's DNA rights or PCR manufactured actual DNA, and also likely help Homeboy enter the Goth scene and defeat white supremacism, also helping homeboy learn about it.

Because the photo exploitation victim female, the male who in my identity and in my vicinity photographed the victim, and away from my vicinity confessed to sex worker while in my identity do not need need to involve me this occurring in my vicinity is more to get the adult sex worker or any other female or normal life to consider me to be poisonous and quickly reject me on the rumors created by the Law Enforcement distributed allegations of me.

It is an independent self contained unit of creating and utilizing negative information regarding Ed Donegan and it is a Conspiracy Against my Rights generally, Conspiracy against my Safety as it leaves me homeless, and Conspiracy Against my Property Rights in money laundering as the criminals creating pretext to utilized the value of Ed Donegan genome are the creators of the liabilities under which they will gain my assets, and this is aggression, and I am on the correct side of the law calling out the Racket.

1513 Ocean Dr Unit 5

HUMMINT does this to mne inside and outside custody, and asks the public to intone to me I am the person in that other unit and I am not. The HUMMINT operators are and are asking to learn about white females and about the goth scene.

I ordered a spectrum self install kit, it was a pressure slam, I really was thinking I would pick up my own modem/NAP but they wanted to send the kit and pushed for that. I got a delivery that day by a woman Fed Ex I think with two packages at the door, my door, which I answered. She said one was for me, one was headed upstairs to the 2nd floor apartements which are I think 7 and 8.

I never got the self install kit and I think the FedX deliverer sent to a nearyby apartment I have nothing to do with or any knowledge of. ALl the time I orderd WIFI or anything else it gets crossed out with others and in the same time I have no Internet.

This happens in instituions, everywehre including at mac Mac Lamar managed 1001 N. Water street where 47 had wifi, I did not in 46, and the leases were confused fusing the aartements together when they are not but effecticly creating an alleged annex of my unit creates a sort of break-in to my said to be apartment, the annex, where evidence can be manufactured with connectivity in my nane or my stolen identity.

Account Information
Account Number: 8260180905461230
Order Number: 1001442834651045 Shipment Details
FedEx: 280204592888

Shipping Address
1513 Ocean Dr Apt 5
Corpus Christi TX 78404-1872

At alleged dungeon space of my control or some other assertion to others like that a person in my idenityt probabkly with my diverted rather than delivered connectivity will abuse the connectivity with child porn or sonething like that, perhaps Tik Tok or something, then, as me, confess that to an adult entertainer and agree a setlement should be paid for from my trust fund, both for the adult entertainer services and for restitution for child porn.

This has been done to build a slander campaign against me in lawfare against my trust fund missusing it and also getting me blamed for what the dopple or person tied to me (but is not really tied to me except for vicinity out my control) confesses to which has nothing to do with me or my interests.

This book

Counterfeiting Forgeries Money Laundering used in Ukrainian Fraud

Vocabulary.com retrieved from Claim and copied or modified to here

When you express your right to something, you're making a claim to it, like telling your sister, "This bowl of cereal is mine."

A claim is when you express your right to something that belongs to you, like your medical records or the deed to your home. When you make a claim or claim something, you're demanding it or saying it's true. People claim dependents and deductions on their taxes. In court, you could claim you deserve money from an employer who cheated you. You could claim you can juggle chainsaws. With any kind of claim, you're going to have to prove it.

This book: A (remittable) claim (including a stipulation by someone claiming to be Ed Donegan or claiming to act on his behalf) harm has occurred and someone covered by the trust fund of Ed Donegan has caused the harm and owes restitution or portections racket money.

1. verb. assert or affirm strongly; state to be true or existing "He claimed that he killed the burglar"

2. verb. demand as being one's due or property; assert one's right or title to "He claimed his suitcases at the airline counter"

   "Mr. Smith claims special tax exemptions because he is a foreign resident"

3. verb. lay claim to; as of an idea. synonyms:take arrogate, lay claim demand as being one's due or property; assert one's right or title to

4. ask for legally or make a legal claim to, as of debts, for example. "They claimed on the maximum allowable amount"

5. an assertion that something is true or factual "his claim that he was innocent" "evidence contradicted the government's claims"

6. noun. an established or recognized right. "a strong legal claim to the property" "he staked his claim" "he staked his claim"

7. noun. an assertion of a right (as to money or property) "his claim asked for damages"

8. noun. demand for something as rightful or due "they struck in support of their claim for a shorter work day"

9. an informal right to something. "his claim on her attentions"

10. verb. take as an undesirable consequence of some event or state of affairs "the accident claimed three lives"

11. a demand especially in the phrase "the call of duty"

A racial hate crime COIINTELPRO operations has been organized against me which is supposed to define me and defeat me and this is likely because my genome has been used in blacks and whites who do not wish be associated with the Kutscheras by attributes but do wish me defined by Kutschera attributes and defeated and disavowed.

The primary system has been subjected me to intense racial assault including black adults planting white minor children near me or my home as a black nationalist statement about me, and vows from those same black males to use my genome on their white female partners.

This should be easy to defeat by elites all through society black and white go far back in generations of underground railroads the destruction of my atomic veteran genome which was from lawful marriage and lawful family life achieves a benefit to the genome co-opting criminals and organizations.

Those high power well placed elites use their influence to get necessary programs in place to destroy or co-opt assets already my own and roadblock all property and achievement I attempt which is rooted in my law abiding Atheist family.

This is called "road blocking" or also Surveillance Ambushes where Espionage can intercept and co-opt my positive activities of health and community activities of normal life and opportunity.

Many of the now defunct websites pointed out hundreds if not thousands of deaths tied to Middle East North Africa Standard Oil Rockefeller Oil Plains States (Texas Arkansas, the Dakotas, etc.,) and deaths like Don Ives.

Here is a look at the Deep State, how it buys its cars, ovoids oversight, et.,

- Quackery : Bad policing can allow the criminal to proceed if the crimes are not solved and bad medical services can fake medical needs for involvement in a said to be patient and even conduct physical batter of a person by creating hostile context or treatments of the person or subject a person via medical management to criminal environments. Quackery can diagnose a legitimate police report into the rantings of an unbalanced mind that should be ignored.

- Maladministration: Maladministration is the actions of a government body which can be seen as causing an injustice. The law in the United Kingdom says Ombudsmen must investigate maladministration.

  The definition of maladministration is wide and can include: Delay, Incorrect action or failure to take any action, Failure to follow procedures or the law, Failure to provide information, Inadequate record-keeping, Failure to investigate Failure to reply, Misleading or inaccurate statements Inadequate liaison, Inadequate consultation, Broken promises

- Criminal Act: Breaking and Entering, murder of journalists, planting of child porn, theft of journalists works (like the work product of Dorothy Killagalen) vandalism to create physical evidence narrative such as creating peepholes in someone else s home which will imply the home owner has peeped outside of his or her home

- Fencing stolen goods: Use of outlets to created a market the stolen goods can be used at. An available though false lawsuit is a liquid asset such as a penny stock or option to buy a stock and can be re-marketed or transferred

- Money Laundering and Racketeering Influenced Criminal Organizations: Entities such as property managers, police and fire, county prosecutors, State gov or FBI DOJ, or other businesses which allow for activities of the Racket to proceed. Wire fraud, welfare fraud, phusical assault, sexual assault by planted operatives who have access to common property of sole posession property. Welfar and other fraud.

- Fraud: The machinery is built to use pretexts that are manufactured acts of fraud to gain rights to assets to which the parties acting fraudulently are not entitled.

- Homicide: The Mafia likes to stay in business and has partnership in a mob assisted State goal of Espionage ambitions for the NWO. Silencing Micheal Hastings and others keeps the Mafia unchallenged by the disinfecting Sunlight.

- Predatory Journals: A “Legend” may be created in government records of the Press which will convince people of theories which allow the crime to proceed under, such as it is a military exercise sharing property with a society but not impacting the society

- Conspiracy Against Rights by Inciting to Violence: The Racket and its Quakery based layers of money laundering, fraud, and fencing operations will assert a series of events were true, the staged and faked events will be used to incite or influence the population as the Conspirators desire

Racketeering retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In short Rackets create a need for a service then provides the service which otherwise would not be used by the recipient of the goods or services.

A racket is a service that is fraudulently offered to solve a problem, such as for a problem that does not actually exist, that will not be put into effect, or that would not otherwise exist if the racket did not exist. Conducting a racket is racketeering.[34] Particularly, the potential problem may be caused by the same party that offers to solve it, although that fact may be concealed, with the specific intent to engender continual patronage for this party. An archetype is the protection racket, wherein a person or group (e.g., a criminal gang) indicates to a store owner that they could protect her/his store from potential damage, damage that the same person or group would otherwise inflict, while the correlation of threat and protection may be more or less deniably veiled, distinguishing it from the more direct act of extortion. Racketeering is often associated with organized crime, and the term was coined by the Employers' Association of Chicago in June 1927 in a statement about the influence of organized crime in the Teamsters union.

Hostile and self enriching Conservators can entangle, forced-team with me and assets belonging to me or my trust fund if I appear to need an asset manager.

If a manager of assets can insert itself as a conservator in layer of finances to become co-mingled with me and my asset by forced team they can assert they are required by law to continue to entangle, forced-team, with me and my assets.

What Constitutes Child Abandonment?

The term "child abandonment" is broadly categorized and used to describe a variety of behaviors. Specific examples of abandonment vary, but common actions that may lead to charges include:

- Leaving a child with another person without provision for the child's support and without meaningful communication with the child for a period of three months;
- Making only minimal efforts to support and communicate with a child;
- Failing for a period of at least six months to maintain regular visitation with a child;

- Failing to participate in a suitable plan or program designed to reunite the parent or guardian with a child;

- Leaving an infant on a doorstep, in trash cans and dumpsters, and on the side of the road;

- Being absent from the home for a period of time that created a substantial risk of serious harm to a child left in the home;

- Failing to respond to notice of child protective proceedings; or

- Being unwilling to provide care, support, or supervision for the child.

Abusive Gaurdianship after sabotage of finances

This book asserts criminal breaking and entering of my home to create false but actionable legal claims against me or rather my trust fund, that those claims are fenced via a Sting operation run at a child porn peeping house where deals made with my trust fund satisfy false claims against it , the false claims brought to that tree house of child porn which is not my home but a fencing operation location.

The in-citation to violence is people believe the claim against me was real and settled an a manner agreed to me or agreed to by an representative acting in my interest.

Glorian Donegan stem cells in black budget operations

7th floor group * - Wikispooks Search domain wikispooks.com/wiki/7th_floor_grouphttps://wikispooks.com/wiki/7th_floor_group

The 7 th Floor Group was a deep state

Vocabulary.com retrieved from milieu and copied or modified to here

milieu

A milieu is a surrounding culture. Your family, house, neighborhood, school, and people you hang out with make up your milieu. If you live in a mansion and have rich friends, you're part of the upper crust milieu. Go you.

A milieu is both "surroundings" and everything that makes up the surroundings. Your milieu is your world, or the context you come from. Sometimes a milieu shapes a person, as when a "milieu of abuse and poverty," inspires someone to improve things for others. Milieu sounds a lot like mildew without the "d," but unless you grew up in a moldy bathtub, mildew probably has little to do with your milieu, or environment.

Noun

1. the environmental condition

> A CIA backed media operation supporting the NWO Cartel of Free Masons, CIA, and profiteering profit contractor businesses of Rockeffellers, Rothschild's, others using Western Europe back media assets, Pschological Operations assets in reporting, FBI, and CIA and State Department undercover infiltration operations including use of Media to create and support Legends desired by Espionage and to protect undercover CIA or State Department assets cover stories made up of US State Department officials who met regularly on the 7 th floor of the Harry S. Truman Building in Washington, DC, that was exposed in Autumn 2016.. The FBI mentioned that the group was referred to as The “Shadow Government” inside the State Department, which briefly attracted the attention of commercially-controlled media.

> MILIEU
>
> Oxford Languages *
>
> milieu: a person’s social environment. “he grew up in a military milieu”

Peter Strzok’s SMS

An SMS between Peter Strzok and Lisa Page released in February 2018 On 7 February 2018 the US Senate released a set of (redacted) SMSs between Peter Strzok and “his alleged mistress Lisa Page”.[9] One from 28 July 2016 reads: “This article highlights the thing I mentioned to you earlier, asking if Bill had noted it to 7th floor. I’m going to send it to him”.[10] Strzok had previously referred to a “‘secret society’ of folks within the Department of Justice and the FBI”.[11]

A third and earlier reference was in a 2013 NBC-article[12], but this time it was on the 7th floor of the CIA headquarters, and seems to refer to “the Sisterhood,” a powerful band of female CIA-leaders: Avril Haines, Fran Moore, Sue Gordon (CIA Zoology) and many others “some of which are classified”.

Hillary Clinton and Huma Abedin are not known to have attended their meetings, but this inference seems highly plausible considering that some names were redacted from the FBI document, Hillary’s office was also located on the 7th Floor of the US State Department Headquarters, where she is known to have met with her top advisers, including Huma Abedin and Cheryl Mills. [5] Moreover, in 2018, an email to Colin Powell was declassified in which she wrote “Colin, I am finally out of the SCIF and want to thank you for all of the advice about berries, security and life on the 7th floor! I hope we’ll have a chance to visit in person sometime soon. All the best, H” [6]

One such passage, present in the draft but not in the final report states that “Sources reported that a senior ‘7th Floor’ Department official ordered [diplomatic security] to stop the investigation of an ambassador accused of pedophilia, and another such senior official had [diplomatic security] stop an investigation of an ambassador-designate”.

Insider knowledge on Brain Genes and awaiting markets through sham moves.

Black Markets often, usually, traffic items (repugnant markets) not legal to traffic in but are of value to those who desire them. Note that Jerome Adams *, Surgeon General, Dept Of Defense Non Combatant Military Dept of Defense Service Public Health Service * (Uniformed) is likely in the Brain program as director and can get brain genes, like clean needls and other AIDS HIV type programs underway, of value to the Gay communities, such as designer baby markets for gay couples with IVF Three Parents needs,, etc., and knows which genes to sieze for “vicitm’ couples or couplse due some “bounty fee” paid to finding a sex perv bounty hunters for the county of jail jumper finders.

A gay or retarded person “finding the treehouse” as part of Neighborhood Watch might due a “fee” if the peeper owed the bounty hunter or the victim his DNA. Thus the impersonator of me is gettign caught in a treehouse as an exploiter, which I am not but the dopple is.

An Espionage ring using a Gangstalk creates a protection racket wherein covert operators trade in my DNA by paying of for misconduct falsely attributed to me, the antisocial conduct cover ops frame job moving rights to me DNA into CIA money laundering for the value of the genes, economic, and bedroom value of the genes used to pay false debts alleged to me, paid by Secret Service /CIA front companies money laundering genomic rights.

The book title refers to this is long term activity of the Vatican/CIA/Illuminati and continuing activity is trying to hide previous activity by creating consistent in the total world genome picture, and acts of world terror and assassination also are part of the global cover-up conspiracy of 1961.

This is about the history still flowing out of MKULTRA and the end of WWII, the continuing story of understanding and modifying world evolution, and continuing understanding of the Camelot Thomas C. Wales murders and MKULTRA Birtherism. I also think Epstein Brain Foundation connected in the course of blackmailed DNA rights.

Counterfeit retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

To counterfeit means to imitate something authentic, with the intent to steal, destroy, or replace the original, for use in illegal transactions, or otherwise to deceive individuals into believing that the fake is of equal or greater value than the real thing. Counterfeit products are fakes or unauthorized replicas of the real product. Counterfeit products are often produced with the intent to take advantage of the superior value of the imitated product. The word counterfeit frequently describes both the forgeries of currency and documents as well as the imitations of items

Gresham's law

In economics, Gresham's law is a monetary principle stating that "bad money drives out good". For example, if there are two forms of commodity money in circulation, which are accepted by law as having similar face value, the more valuable commodity will gradually disappear from circulation.

It is my belief (Edward Donegan) that a self funding Racket was created to surround me with hostile people which served several functions the most sought one was the the funded RICO operatives could motivated themselves and empower themselves in a fraud of self gain exploiting assets of mine which displaced normal life for me which would have existed otherwise.

The bad money which is forgery by under seignorage ( of great value after it is forged) is desired over regular law abing commerce and has replaced law abiding commerce and currency.

The forged currency is seen as a Good and is counterfiet to the real currency but provides a higher return.

The process of Forgery is a document is started such as Drivers Liscense application and then in some way road blocked before completion in a contiguous way. Falling into the wrong hands the documents is later completed but with incorrect data entered into as the second stage of its manufacture.

Counterfeiting misrepresents aggreements or transactions as authentic or have some meaning they do not.

Money Laundering is using these techniques to create false accounting of transactions.

Rackets are entties which use these techniques to illegal fraudulent gains.

Seigniorage

Seigniorage /ˈseɪnjərɪdʒ/, also spelled seignorage or seigneurage (from the Old French seigneuriage, “right of the lord (seigneur) to mint money”), is the difference between the value of money and the cost to produce and distribute it. The term can be applied in two ways:

If rights to a sought after genome can be faked the value of it to others may be very hight and thus a temptign crime for fraudsters to comit.

Funding Road Blocking False Allegations by paying false allegations. Even paying street criminals to act like they are protecting themselves from me, after fake allegations I harmed them.

Whatever I do in my life, positives, is given a poison pill of being an act of child abuse, shizophrenia, etc., thus assassination my character and making me a pariah to civilized environments (who conspire against me on the rumors) and undermines my life.

In fact not only was ARC of NOVA impeding what I was doing them they were roadbloacking the rest of my life.

- I requested Microsoft Office with Access to track my blood sugar and calories, workouts, etc., and ARC Nova denied the request.

- I used my cell phone for exercise music including tablets and making my own videos decrypting movies on DVDROM and excerpting the music pieces of Austin Powers, etc.,

- I used the cell phone as a coordinator of Honor Flight DCA including filming the events.

- I used the cell phone for safety on long trail walks.

- I transferred the cell phone video footage to Cyvberlink software to create the You Tub videos of Honor Flight DCA videos I made with Cyberlink and HIT processor M4 quad core.

You would not pay for the Cyberlink software not the cell phone, nor my doing laundry for the gym, leading me into the crisis I was evicted over, contesting this and Tom Donegan ties to this, and when I encountered a Texas a cop (he said NIH) lectured me in the value of cell phones in volunteer work while at First United Methodist CC work where I was to volunteer helping homeless veterans.

ARC has been blocking me in these matters while they have been life long pursuits of mine including at Computers Freedom Privacy 2011.

Does access to my high tech and health needs requests foundations demonstrate to you a good plan which you are denying to me but allowing for others?

Knowing I had lethal A1c levels and a prescription from my board certified Internets M.D. for exorcize and diet and blood sugar manage to stave off death Tom Donegan and Tia Marsili become the road block to housing, leading to homelessness, denial of gym funds, denial of diabetes expenses of any type

My mother's will and trust fund of about 333K dollars in assets was the sale of her Moraga Caolifornia bouse likely sized in the Judge Roll case and the desperation of Gneome Cartel to seize that asset.

What does ARC of Northern Virginia and my brother Tom Donegan get as a remainder benefit if I die homeless or of Diabetes, as they both break my housing agreements and deny me medical care as hostile elder abuse of me and the trust fund left for me not them .

If Tom Donegan, Metro Churches or Methodists, or other Church groups and others claim my mother's will was not just for the half the value of the sale of her house at death (he in the will got half the value of the house in cash) but also somehow rights to her genome, I was never told about any value in her geonome, then I died, he had my half of the estate for their retarded peoples fund as the remainder benefit if I died as a single man and btw soon.

Medical Foundation For Spending on Diabetes

Diabetes CARE

Know Your A1C and Blood Sugar Levels

A1C
Average blood sugar over the last 2 to 3 months

Blood Sugar Level
Daily self-monitoring results

Danger: A1C above 7%

A high A1C increases your chance of long-term health problems. This means you need more help to lower your blood sugar level.

Goal: Get A1C below 7%

Work with your health care team or Diabetes Care Team to keep your A1C less than 7%

Tip #1
Check your blood sugar at different times every-day to see what raises your blood sugar level.

Tip #2
Take medicines prescribed by your doctor and make small changes in your daily life. They can help control your blood sugar.

Smear Review — Criteria for review not met omprehensive Metabolic Panel			Result: 8/17/2013 3:08 AM

Sodium		134 L	135-145	mEq/L
Potassium	3.9		3.5-5.3	mEq/L
Chloride	97		96-112	mEq/L
CO2	25		19-32	mEq/L
Glucose		319 H	70-99	mg/dL
BUN	13		6-23	mg/dL
Creatinine	1.15		0.50-1.35	mg/dL
Bilirubin, Total	0.8		0.3-1.2	mg/dL
Alkaline Phosphatase	60		39-117	U/L
AST/SGOT		41 H	0-37	U/L
ALT/SGPT		61 H	0-53	U/L
Total Protein	7.4		6.0-8.3	g/dL
Albumin	4.8		3.5-5.2	g/dL
Calcium	9.8		8.4-10.5	mg/dL
			Result: 8/17/2013 3:40 AM
TSH	1.227		0.350-4.500	uIU/mL
Hemoglobin A1C			Result: 8/17/2013 4:31 AM
Hemoglobin A1C		13.3 H	<5.7	%

Re: SSDI and Special Needs Trusts necessities

Tia Marsili tia.marsili©thearcofnova.org Tue, May 13, 2014 at 9:34 PM
To: Ed Donegan edinarlington©gmail.com>, Hannah Dannenfelser hdannenfelser©thearcofnova.org
Cc: “Ashley, Penny” pashley©arlingtonva.us

We need the entire contract. The pages you sent do not indicate that you are bound to an on-going contract.

Please understand that we are doing our duty as managers and are accountable. Half a contract is not sufficient supporting documentation.

Tia Marsili
Director of Trusts
The Arc of Northern Virginia

On Mon, May 12, 2014 at 3:42 PM, Ed Donegan edinarlington©gmail.com wrote:

Look for the giant type “Membership Agreement” at the top of page one to indicate it is a legal agreement in writing between two parties. Look in the section “monthly dues” for information on monthly dues. Look to page 2 for my autodeduct from my checking authorization.,

---

On Mon, May 12, 2014 at 3:04 PM, Tia Marsili tia.marsili©thearcofnova.org wrote:

Ed, That is my assumption, that it repeats, but the document doesn't state that. It states a beginning and end date as you and I have both noted.

Tia Marsili
Director of Trusts
The Arc of Northern Virginia

On Thu, May 8, 2014 at 12:44 PM, Ed Donegan edinarlington©gmail.com wrote:

Tia; you said regarding the 1st page of the gym contract I sent you

> "To date you have sent us a statement that has a September 1, 2013 start date and a September 30, 2013 end date. This cannot be used to pay a monthly payment since there is no indication that you have a membership. "

That page one was not a STATEMENT. IT was a CONTRACT. If you read Page 1 is says (in the Membership and Electronic Funds Transfer section) that the initial term of the contract is the first month, sept 1 through 30, then the bill repeats each month by electronic funds transfer unless cancelled.

On Wed, May 7, 2014 at 10:47 AM, Tia Marsili tia.marsili©thearcofnova.org wrote:

Ed, First, the trust was only recently established and funded with The Arc. Any request prior to your trust being established with us would have been of no use. We are more than happy to approve requests as long as you send us the Disbursement request form correctly completed and with your signature and appropriate supporting documentation.

To have a request approved it is very simple: please send us a statement from Sport and Health that shows your name, on-going membership, the amount to be paid, and address. If you haven't already sent a recurring disbursement request form, send a signed one to us, too.

To date you have sent us a statement that has a September 1, 2013 start date and a September 30, 2013 end date. This cannot be used to pay a monthly payment since there is no indication that you have a membership.

From: Ed Donegan mailto:edinarlington©gmail.com

Sent: Tuesday, May 06, 2014 7:47 PM
To: Ashley, Penny; Tia Marsili; Integrity from #1005; Hannah Dannenfelser; Heather Coryell
Subject: Fwd: SSDI and Special Needs Trusts necessities

I have 143 email sent items trying to get gym re-imbursement since my diabetes diagnsosis, starting with this email, 8/17/2013, where I was already trying to get ARC to take over because would never provide an accounting of the trust, a copy of the trust, or any disbursments. As of today, those 143 emails plus about 50 or o I probably deleted, 7 faxes, 5 scans, 19 txt messages, and at least 20 phone calls later, 8 mothns later, and after breaking down crying four times wondering "how in the hell is it possible I can't get this re-mbursed..?"

It still isn't.

What is it going to take?

from Wordnik retrieved from and copied to here

coupon

noun A section of a ticket, showing the holder to be entitled to some specified accommodation or service, as to a passage over a designated line of travel, a particular seat in a theater, a discount, etc. - from Wiktionary, Creative Commons Attribution/Share-Alike License.

- noun A code or detachable part of a ticket, card, or advertisement that entitles the holder to a certain benefit, such as a cash refund or a gift.
- noun A periodic interest payment due to the holder of a bond.
- *noun*The interest rate of a bond that pays a coupon.
- noun One of a set of small certificates that may be detached from a bond certificate and redeemed for interest payments.

Dopple of Ed Donegan say they are Ed Donegan, incur liabilities in conduct towards others, forming a Triangle of persons. A victim, a Dopple of me who both victimizes the victim (photographically) while also selling at the scene I was the one who took the photo (the Dopple taking advantage of the fact I have my cell phone out for some legitimate reason.)

The Dopple in my identity will confess to vctimizing a feamle and thus create a Coupon for restitution, access to my genome.

Without people interested in that Coupon, the psuedo currency would not be accepted but the Coupon is used among those who will accept it because they want to and use means to bypass normal currency usage by using the Coupon for genetics rights instead.

Money Laundering is complex. The layering of it diffuses it vertically with financial entities involvement and horizontally with confused accounts or identity of people thus broken up mini spread sheets or views of a financial picture are not consolidated into a single events picture which in its totality would not survive cross checks in a contiguous view of events. This book draws upon Dept of Treasury research and other research into how RICO Operations can be setup in complex and layered way to evade detection.

Vulnerability	Later Exploit	The Barrio Goes on Guard against Ed Donegan requesting Patrol Assets
Homeboy (Tx)	Homegirl	Away from the scene Tx will identify Ed as the Taker of Photos of Homegirl	Ed Donegan's trust fund is billed restitution to Homegirl and Homeboy and for security services by Prosecutor and social service

for the Barrio

Ed Donegan (Rx)

Ed Donegan not correctly informed the Trust fun settled a suit

Creating and Ambiguity (Vulnerability) to be Exploited (used for a crime) later

Vulnerabilities introduced for later exploit include forcing double meanings into words and Identity Theft

Non White Agent provocatuers fighting “White Supremacism” (whites who are threat and alleged psychopaths) by creating novel sex crimes and child pornography in my identity utilizing children in my vicinity.

Dozens of National Security Agency, DARPA, and other Pentagon officials purchased and downloaded child pornography over the Internet, according to a report in The Boston Globe on Friday.

In the United States, it is legal to possess obscene materials, which are generally defined as hardcore pornography involving consenting adults. It is also legal to posses non-obscene pornography.

But the knowing possession of child pornography is a federal felony. In the last few decades, the definition of child pornography has been expanded to include not only depictions of minors being sexually abused, but even images of clothed girls in leotards and, as CNET reported in 2006, photographs of clothed minors in what prosecutors claim were overly “lascivious” poses.

The non victims of the peeping tom provocateurs will be paid through my trust fund. and racial hatred as if I offended will be directed at me.

Cui Bono

It can also be rendered as cui prodest? ("whom does it profit?") and ad cuius bonum? ("for whose good?"). *

Those seeking to benefit gays, blacks, the retarded, etc., or they themselves, have an industry of false claims to my DNA and seizing rather than protecting my assets and rights.

One way Homeboy in the identity of Ed Donegan might get caught is to go to a Glamm Domme who believes Homeboy Lives Matter (much more so than peeping white supremacists) and that Glamm Dome will catch Homeboy (who is in the role of Ed Donegan and needs a sex worker) wiht that child porn in his porn folder, thus vamping Ed Donegan's trust fund.

History *

"Laws against money laundering were created to use against organized crime during the period of Prohibition (of alcohol trafficking) in the United States during the 1930s. Organized crime received a major boost from Prohibition and a large source of new funds that were obtained from illegal sales of alcohol. The successful prosecution of Al Capone on tax evasion brought in a new emphasis by the state and law enforcement agencies to track and confiscate money, but existing laws against tax evasion could not be used once gangsters started paying their taxes." From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Money laundering retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Money Laundering is the process of making illegally-gained proceeds (i.e., “dirty money”) appear legal (i.e., “clean”).

Black Money as assets siezed from a dopple of Ed not authorized to agree to asset siezure using improper accounting for the assets taken in by an institution and not reported to the person with rights to the assets.

Typically, Money Laundering involves three steps: placement, layering, and integration and introducing money not accounted for into a financial racket

- the illegitimate funds are furtively introduced into the legitimate financial system. (ARC Northern Virginia denied any starting accounting or geno assets accounting in setting up trust fund. I was told I would not a staring or opening accounting only a firs quarter statement after the first quarter passed. Similarly Integrity Payee denied principle statements and reported back to me some disbursements I requested but no whole ledger accounting)

- Then, the money is moved around to create confusion, sometimes by wiring or transferring through numerous accounts (Doppelgangers, fake Ed Donegan, fake Ed Donegans at locations contused for Ed Donegan’s locations)

- Finally, it is integrated into the financial system through additional transactions until the “dirty money” appears “clean” after the Dopple of Edward Donegan agrees to real Ed Donegan assets being seized upon the Dopple of Ed Donegan harming others in real Ed Donegan’s community thus Dopple Ed Donegan creates a liability of real Ed Donegan

> Note that in Assets and Liabilities balance sheets the assets and liabilities must match, thus for an asset to be paid from the trust fund a liability must exist, which is children being exploited as child porn as the liability to be balanced with an asset disbursment.

Achieving Concealment of Ed Donegan assets.

Concealment of Ed Donegan cognitive assets by denial they exist and thus making the trade in them unlikely if not preposterous. Creating the appearance of a mentally challenged Ed Donegan not only creates an unlikelyhood a retardation service would trade his genes it also puts that retardation services advocacy group as mice guarding the cheese.

“Stripper Bucks” and spending assets not properly reported to, black money, not accounted to Ed Donegan

With unreported assets in a financial system and "cut out" accounts, accounts similar to be distinct from the real accounts to do illicit unreported transactions under spending assets can occur

- Genomic assets of interest to those seeking designer babies, etc., may be offered during erotic services as "Payment" by a person pretending to be Edward Donegan. Those "stripper bucks" title or form of deed to pay for adult entertainers are "black money"

- The Adult Entertainer Stripper and the Dopple of Edward Donegan may work an agreement he idolizes little "non white princesses" and their beauty, and by photographing them (which Real Ed Donegan did not) the genomic assets of the "fake" white supremacist Ed Donegan should go to those he thinks superior, little hottie non white totties

Thus under a RICO financial operation (engaging in advocacy for the underprivileged) a fake Ed Donegan, like for instance a social services beneficiary, could hire a stripper, pay for the stripper with Ed Donegan assets, and then also agree Ed Donegan really thinks minorities are his dream, how owes them, Ed Donean is a through a Dopple's acts seems fake white supremacist who believes in The 14 Words.

Horizontal and Vertical Layers used in Money Laundering to create legitimate appearances

- Moles and Inside Jobs through buyout of leasing companies or apartment complexes and

- setting up lateral “accounts” such as apartment numbers to be confused with the tenant whose assets are being money laundered.

- Use of itermediate devices such as inserting an FBI Fake Cell Tower (Stingray) which will switch and cross switch between phone SIMM Chips for switching out who is on the phone and what is being said.

- Exploiting that smart phones have multiple functions such as Google Books reading, gym music, and cameras, and altering the perception of what lateral separate functions of the phone are in use in a gym, etc.,

- Person lateral to each other sharing similar clothes, motorcycles, etc.,

Most text or information drawn from Wikipedia Black Markets page

NIA Framework of Black Market economies including in Repugnant Markets (designer babies, organ harvesting)

Root Element: Black Market Economy, illegal trade economy in goods or services Black Market the goods or services traded in Black (secret currency) Money:

The currency of the market, of legal or illegal issue Black Budgets: Black Profits derived from black market capitalization, operations, or profits or losses and Black Operations funded by Black Profits

Markets and especially Repugnant Markets:

Goods or services traded including sex trafficking, drugs, arms stolen organs, etc., Crazy things go under the designation Repugnant Markets and also includes Rome Statute controlled activities such as genocide (racial, religious, national, or ethic interference with or transfers of children.)

A Black Market system has been designed in which "Black Money" rights to my DNA is used in the adult entertainer industry.

The Money is Counterfeit

Not authorized value being traded, not properly rooted in valuation by the actual value owner.

Others, non-whites and gay peep at white women, masturbating to women and preferring that over sleeping with women, then "pay" my genome not theirs, the peeped at women, when caught, with actual Ed Donegan's DNA rights.

Layered

Architecture of Racketeering influence Criminal Organization introduces "railway" crossing point in which the cross out of accounts can occur cicrumventing in that extra step direct accounting of the asset owner

Recall from the Department of Treasury description and how this layering of an extra layer can provide the money laundering cross point.

> “History of Anti-Money Laundering Laws”. United States Department of the Treasury. 30 June 2015. Retrieved 30 June 2015
>
> Typically, Money Laundering involves three steps: placement, layering, and integration and introducing money not accounted for into a financial racket

The scheme is illegal as a Racket in Racketeering Influenced Organizations

The scheme permits others not me to benefit from DNA through money laundering Designer Babies

The scheme is be design hostile to who the REAL ME is and is meant to defame and incite hostility and vigilantism toward me.

Finally, the NOMINAL and ACTUAL goals differ and in fact the scheme harms the NOMINAL goal in achieving the ACTUAL goal.

The medical techniques should be publicly and freely available, not a secret underground sex trade economy.

Long Con Terminology retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Protection Racket (and one run through Social Services)

An unneeded mental retardation advocacy of me creating by my mother's will creators enables this loot of my DNA rights by sabotaging my normal life circumstances such as metropolitan apartments and keeps me either homeless, institutionalized, or in deep slum non-white conditions of hostile environments devoid of my intellectual, sexual, religious, or their interests.

Example: Fagin is a fictional character and a main antagonist in Charles Dickens' 1838 novel Oliver Twist. In the preface to the novel, he is described as a "receiver of stolen goods". He is the leader of a group of children (the Artful Dodger and Charley Bates among them) whom he teaches to make their livings by pickpocketing and other criminal activities, in exchange for shelter.

Oliver Twist contains an unromantic portrayal of criminals and their sordid lives, as well as for exposing the cruel treatment of the many orphans in London in the mid-19th century.[2] The alternative title, The Parish Boy's Progress, alludes to Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress, as well as the 18th-century caricature series by William Hogarth, A Rake's Progress and A Harlot's Progress.[3]

In this early example of the social novel, Dickens satirises the hypocrisies of his time, including child labour, domestic violence, the recruitment of children as criminals, and the presence of street children.

Somebody illegally set themselves up as Fagaon and broke my apartment leases in non skid row environments then used Texas Nueces County skid row to surround me in housing, plant evidence, and run scams to loot Donegan family assets. I reported this to the Social Security Administration to no avail.

Shills

Shills are fronts for secret motives and operations who conceal their real objectives and appear to be neutral, uncorrupted, or motivated as chartered but operate on behalf of secret agendas instead.

Shill planted victims who claim ti be victimize but in fact victimize themselves such as children sexualizing themselves in my vicinity and claiming they are “my visual pornography.” I am their victim for false claims, not vice versa.

Shill planted victims who claim ti be victimize but in fact victimize themselves such as children sexualizing themselves in my vicinity and claiming they are “my visual pornography.” I am their victim for false claims, not vice versa.

Gulls (A con artist term for a “Gullible” or “grape” which can be plucked

A special kid of Shill (con artist team member) is a Gull who is a gullible person who can be caught in a compromising situation or lead into a bad deal.

I am not such a person so an impersonator me (I call Tx the transmitter of false information seeming from me) is created and that Gullible both needs a trust fund and is frequently caught in traps and needs the Trust FUnd to bail him out.

That person, ann Information Doppelgangers and will forge a confession of me that will be used as a pretext for legal claims against me, It is the Gull who actual photographed or committed the peeping whilst standing next to me in public at the same time the shill victim was planted in front of us.

Racketeeriing Influenced Criminal Organization

A Racket is a service which is not need but imposed or operates in such a way as to use illegal means to create a profit which would otherwise not exist.

While a Protection Racket creates a danger and then charges to protect against it a Money Laundering RICO uses its position of operating multiple accounts to swith unlawfully between them so that in the accounting shell game slight of hands the accounts appear to be correct.

Mark

A Mark is some person or asset who is the “bullseye” of the operation, the person or asset targted to be defrauded. In my cast the trust fund of Glorian Donegan and her biology, with the indirect means of pretending to be my victim them seeking Trust Fund compensation.

Some me as having judgementalism and wish my trust fund was for the underprivileged instead and in that case my contempt for underbelly of society life is bypassed and even retaliated against with > fake claims to the trust fund of the family I came from and in that way my sneer at riff raff is the mark, and the riff raff are trying to get even with me.

Paper Moon (film) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

The film, shot in black-and-white, is set in Kansas and Missouri during the Great Depression. It stars the real-life father and daughter pairing of Ryan and Tatum O'Neal as protagonists Moze and Addie.

In a state of poverty and needing car repairs, Moses visits recently widowed women often driving to funerals in the old car, pretending to have previously sold expensive, personalized Bibles to their deceased husbands, and the widows pay him for the Bibles inscribed with their names. Addie joins the scam, pretending she is his daughter, and exhibits a talent for confidence tricks, such as selling Bibles and the quick change scam. As time passes, Moses and Addie become a formidable team

---

This is a short con, run quickly, on sequential Gulls (Gullibles) who are grieving widows, emotional, at their husbands funeral, as the Bibble saleman shows up with a Bibble tied to the last purchase of their departed husband, which for a fee, the widow can buy and finish the sale.

It features many Confidence Tricks elements such as selecting Gulls in advance for a particular type of scam which has been rehearsed again and again, using Gulls who are in emotional and quick decisions states, and a team of Shills rather than just one con artist.

A Long Con focuses on a single Mark, such as my trust fund and Glorian Donegan, shaking it down in with long term preperation, resources, and complex sustaining efforts to keep the Con running.

Shill lawyers and judges such as B Janice Ellington or Paula Xinis or others who are connected to deep state genetics programs.

Prostitution is illegal or highly regulated in many countries across the world. These places form a classic study of the underground economy, because of consistent high demand from customers, relatively high pay, but labor-intensive and low skilled work, which attracts a continual supply of workers. While prostitution exists in every country, studies show that it tends to flourish more in poorer countries, and in areas with large numbers of unattached men, such as around military bases.[17] For instance, an empirical study showed that the supply of prostitutes rose abruptly in Denver and Minneapolis in 2008 when the Democratic and Republican National Conventions took place there.

Prostitutes in the black market generally operate with some degree of secrecy, sometimes negotiating prices and activities through codewords [faked, I am not using them] and subtle gestures. In countries such as Germany or the Netherlands, where prostitution is legal but regulated, illegal prostitutes exist whose services are offered cheaper without regard for the legal requirements or procedures-health checks, standards of accommodation, and so on.

In other countries, such as Nicaragua, where legal prostitution is regulated, hotels may require both parties to identify themselves, to prevent the rise of child prostitution.

Black Market Biological organs and custom brains via DNA

Main article: Organ trade § Illegal organ (or third party parents brain genes or other genes trade)

According to the World Health Organization (WHO), illegal organ trade occurs when organs are removed from the body for the purpose of commercial transactions.[31] The WHO justifies its stance on the issue by stating, “Payment for … organs is likely to take unfair advantage of the poorest and most vulnerable groups, undermines altruistic donation and leads to profiteering and human trafficking.”[32] Despite these ordinances, it was estimated that 5% of all organ recipients engaged in commercial organ transplant in 2005.[33] Research indicates that illegal organ trade is on the rise, with a recent report by Global Financial Integrity estimating that the illegal organ trade generates profits between $600 million and $1.2 billion per year with a span over many countries.

Racketeering

Main article: Racket (crime)

A racket is a service that is fraudulently offered to solve a problem, such as for a problem that does not actually exist, that will not be put into effect, or that would not otherwise exist if the racket did not exist. Conducting a racket is racketeering.[34] Particularly, the potential problem may be caused by the same party that offers to solve it, although that fact may be concealed, with the specific intent to engender continual patronage for this party. An archetype is the protection racket, wherein a person or group (e.g., a criminal gang) indicates to a store owner that they could protect her/his store from potential damage, damage that the same person or group would otherwise inflict, while the correlation of threat and protection may be more or less deniably veiled, distinguishing it from the more direct act of extortion. Racketeering is often associated with organized crime, and the term was coined by the Employers’ Association of Chicago in June 1927 in a statement about the influence of organized crime in the Teamsters union.[35]

Counterfeit medicine, essential aircraft and automobile parts

Chris Lloyd, former high school friend my mother hated and claimed was a fraud to be avoided, who had information about me which PizzaGate was tied to, a former friend from high school and college, was twice connected to Genentech. A, he had a daughter who worked for Genentech directly, and B Chris Lloyd stated he had his own frowned upon genetic company and mentioned the CCR5 gene and other genetics information. He also acted a vague statement ways as others had done, with innuendo, but nothing directly. He also slyly indicated someone like him would manage a trust for me better than my brother.

Andy Lloyd, former friend of mine as younger brother of Chris Lloyd, now an Orinda California attorney on the board of directors of …

JOHN P MAYHUGH FOUNDATION https://johnpmayhugh.org/

COMMITTED TO BUILDING BETTER PATHWAYS OF RECOVERY FOR MILITARY VETERANS AND FAMILIES. #Wounds2Wellness

the Hobbs Act 18 U.S.C. § 1951

(a) Whoever in any way or degree obstructs, delays, or affects commerce or the movement of any article or commodity in commerce, by robbery or extortion or attempts or conspires to do so, commits, or threatens physical violence to any person or property in furtherance of a plan or purpose to do anything in violation of this section shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

The Hobbs Act criminalizes both robery and extortion

1. “robbery” means the unlawful taking or obtaining of personal property from the person or in the presence of another, against his will, and

2. “extortion” means the obtaining of property from another, with his consent, induced by wrongful use of actual or threatened force, violence, or fear, or under color of official right.

3. Medical State: I have used the legal interpretation of Extortion as appending unwanted penalty or price to a necessary predicate such that the person extorted does no have a “door out” thus must remain in the transaction, also a concept in sexual abuse. If a voluntary package includes an unwanted component extortion may not apply.

Section 1951 also proscribes conspiracy to commit robbery or extortion without reference to the conspiracy statute at 18 U.S.C. § 371. Although the Hobbs Act was enacted as a statute to combat racketeering in labor-management disputes, the statute is frequently used in connection with cases involving public corruption, commercial disputes, and corruption directed at members of labor unions.

The Hobbs Act also reaches extortionate acts by public officials acting under the color of law. A public official commits extortion under the color of law when he obtains a payment to which he is not entitled knowing that it was made in exchange for official acts.[5] § 1951 therefore not only embraces the same conduct the federal bribery statute (18 U.S.C. § 201) prohibits, it goes further in two ways:

1. § 1951 is not limited to federal public officials.

2. The government need only prove a public official agreed to take some official action in exchange for payment as opportunities arose to do so (i.e. a “stream of benefits” theory) to sustain a § 1951 charge whereas, under § 201, > the government must prove an express quid pro quo (or something approaching one).[6]

> Sovereign immunity
>
> Also termed crown immunity, is a legal doctrine whereby a sovereign or state cannot commit a legal wrong and is immune from civil suit or criminal prosecution, strictly speaking in modern texts in its own courts. A similar, stronger rule as regards foreign courts is named state immunity. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia > > sovereign immunity defense “is jurisdictional in nature.” officers acting in their official [public interests]] capacity, “[s]overeign immunity generally shields [these entities] from suit.
>
> >
> > Government officials acting in sovereign capacity as government officials who gain personally from misconduct are not immune from liability and criminal intent to acheive personal gain is applicable as to state of mind in misconduct

Errors of Reproductivity, The State Controls Fertilization Rights and Activities

State Teloogical “emergency” control private reproductive rights and moves them into State owned assets for the elite and government backed causes.

And politicians choose whose DNA will be seized on fake claims organized by evidence plants.

dola Polis En Parentis Loci

For the NIH and Obama Admin to racketeer the value of my genome (and who does know it and will not disclose it to me) and pass it to White women it is necessary to make a publicly visible spectacle I am mentally incompetent, a spy or terrorist, thus medically and legally gaining control of my genome rights, and I must be sabotaged as somebody who can not be near white woman, or whom white women, potential partners of mine, should avoid like the plague.

It should also look in public like the people racketeering me are actually daily living and business partners with me, though as I confront them in public they reveal the truth, their statements are in my vicinity and seem to be a connection to me but are not.

Conservative Political Action Conference aka CPAC has always had, illegally, my genome, my mother's genome, and by claiming I am an unaccomplished homeless psycho with Bipolar Disorder and Bipolar Acts victimizing children the CPAC claim to my Genome continues.

The fuller story of this book are the events around Honor Flight DCA in a chapter separate from this but this is where Mike Pence and others setup Pizzagate "black mail" claims to Atheist DNA under the plan Mike Flynn and his son objected to, an impersonator of me giving into blackmail.

The mechanisms of Asset Seizure as "555" Integrated Circuits is expounded later in this chapter. Rx is what I call myself, the Transmitter that a Trigger event has occurred for Asset Seizures is the dopple of me I call Tx.

Pizza Provider Location A	Teen "Provider" (pimp) Location A	Adult Entertainer o Adults (Location B)	Adult Entertainer of Adults (Location B)

Rx (recipient of blame)USA (555-1)	Tx (Trigger creator of asset seizures actions (Masonic Lodges 555-2)	Tx	Victoria Secret Model
Pizza. Even the sauce was white	Pizza (female minor to photograph ala Bettie Page photo sessions)	Tx a Fugitive on the run	I am bankrupt and will pay the bill with my DNA
Goes to actual home	Tx leaves and is chased to location he is at, fake Ed Donegan home, with Adult Entertainer, a fugitive. Tx owes the biology of Donegans

Understanding Pizzagate and the Pizza Order
Offender Tx offends in the pizza shop and confesses elsewhere in the identity of Ed Donegan

What Is the Crime of False Pretenses? retrieved from legalmatch.com and copied or modified to here

What Is the Crime of False Pretenses?

In order to better understand the crime of false pretenses you must first understand the crimes of fraud, larceny, and embezzlement. Both larceny and embezzlement are theft crimes that deal with the taking of another's property without consideration or permission from the owner of the property.

Criminal fraud occurs when an individual misrepresents a material fact that they know to be false, with an intent to deceive another, which results in an actual injury or damages to the individual that relies on the misrepresentation.

Specifically, larceny is the unlawful taking of the property of another without the permission of the owner coupled with the intent to permanently deprive the owner of that property. Embezzlement is similar to larceny in that it involves a taking of the property of another person or business, however the person who performs the taking has permission to access and handle the funds. The act of embezzlement occurs when the person entrusted to handle funds takes funds for their own personal use, and is generally classified as a white collar crime.

False pretenses, also known as "obtaining property by false pretenses," is a crime that is a combination of fraud and larceny where an individual lies or makes misrepresentations in order to obtain the property of another. False pretenses is very similar to the theft crime of "larceny by trick," which involves convincing someone to transfer you possession of their property through deception.

ELECTIONS New FBI release on Clinton email probe refers to 'Shadow Government'

PUBLISHED MON, OCT 17 201612:19 PM EDTUPDATED MON, OCT 17 20163:35 PM EDT Everett Rosenfeld

The documents, part four of four to be released by the FBI, include notes and interview summaries that may illuminate more about the bureau's decision not to recommend Clinton be prosecuted for her actions.

Many Republicans have criticized that decision, but FBI Director James Comey has repeatedly insisted the move was apolitical.

> "I want the American people to know we really did this the right way. You can disagree with us, but you cannot fairly say we did it in any kind of political way," Comey said in July. "We don't carry water for anybody. We were trying to do what the right thing is."

One revelation in the documents came from an interview with an unidentified person who suggested that Freedom of Information Act requests related to Clinton went through a group sometimes called "the Shadow Government."

"There was a powerful group of very high-ranking STATE officials that some referred to as 'The 7th Floor Group' or 'The Shadow Government

TOWER II DIRECTORY

Law Office of William Abernethy	401	Griffin Partners
Larry J Adams	870	The Grand Canal
Wm. Dewitt Alsup	201	HDR
Arthur's Moon Pizza	20	Law Office of Todd Hunter, PLLC
Cindy Boudloche, Chapter 13 Trustee	600	Internal Revenue Service
Canales and Hunter, P.C.	920	The Islands
CH2M	320	KCS Public Relations
Charles Schwab & CO.	270	The John and Marie Stella Kenedy Mem
Coastal Bend Community Foundation	900	Louise Allen Foundation
Bruce L Collins, Attorney	120	Majesty Outdoors
Collier Johnson and Woods PC	1000	McKibben Martinez Jarvis & Wood,
Contract Land Staff, LLC	102	Monte English Law
Melody Cooper Attorney At Law	850	Nueces County Hospital District
Corpus Christi Bar Association	260	Ramirez Law Offices, PC
Corpus Christi Symphony Society, Inc.	410	The Rangel Law Firm, P.C.
Diocese of Corpus Christi	750	Law Office of Ralph M. Rodriguez,
Donnell, Kieschnick, Wolter & Gamez, P.C.	400	Law Offices of Steve Schiwetz
Sue Donahoe	1030	SERCO of Texas
Ed Rachal Foundation	700	Suemaur Exploration and Production
EOG Resources	300	Trinity Consultants
Fancher & Neblett, LLP	1200	Ventos Power Plus, LLC
The Gaines Organization, Inc.	830	Woolsey & Woolsey, PLLC
Gowan Elizondo	1400

Office Space Available! Call the leasing office at 361 888 4845.

The "We have permissions through Asset Seizures" Gambit

> Gambit: noun., a device, action, or opening remark, typically one entailing a degree of risk, that is calculated to gain an advantage. Definitions from Oxford Languages

The gambit, an exploited child, or exploited female's buttocks, is the allegation "I took the bait" and exploited the minor, though, after that, my trust fund will compensate the victim, the gambit, and those who protect the child.

In fact I am not “taking the bait” ,the minor as an exploitable gambit, but others using my identity are exploitively photographing the child near me.

On the larger view the Illuminati are putting a Gambit near me and created a Legend I am taking it, I am not, but under that theory the Illluminati claim rights to my genome.

Gambit retrieved from Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia and copied or modified to here “Gambit” is also sometimes used to describe similar tactics used by politicians or business people in a struggle with rivals in their respective fields.

Soundness

A gambit is said to be ‘sound’ if it is capable of procuring adequate concessions from the opponent. There are three general criteria in which a gambit is often said to be sound:

1. Time gain: the player accepting the gambit must take time to procure the sacrificed material and possibly must use more time to reorganize his pieces after the material is taken.

2. Generation of differential activity: often a player accepting a gambit will decentralize his pieces or pawns and his poorly placed pieces will allow the gambiteer to place his own pieces and pawns on squares that might otherwise have been inaccessible. In addition, bishops and rooks can become more active simply because the loss of pawns often gives rise to open files and diagonals. Former world champion Mikhail Tal once reportedly told Mikhail Botvinnik that he had sacrificed a pawn because it was simply in the way.[3]

3. Generation of positional weaknesses: finally, accepting a gambit may lead to a compromised pawn structure, holes or other positional deficiencies.

The Character Assassination of this Atheist are created weakness in my political, religious, and personal reputation.

These religious charities are using their children as exploitation victims to gain advantage over an Atheist by an impersonator of the Atheist taking the bait.

Catholic Charities of Corpus Christi, inc.,

*

Catholic Charities
555 Tanuchua #750
Representive Payee (Trustee) for Disabled People

Representative Payee Program

Program Description We follow the Guide for Organizational Representative Payees as provided by the United States Social Security Administration.

We serve as the source of financial assistance towards the clients gain of basic needs such as food, shelter, and clothing.

Representative Payee Program Keeps Homeless Numbers Down established 1971

By becoming the Representative Payee, Catholic Charities assumes the financial management responsibilities for people who because of severe mental or physical limitations or may be subject to family exploitation, are unable to manage their own finances. The Payee Program provides assistance to the most vulnerable members of the community; the young, the elderly, and the disabled who are unable to manage their SSA, SSI, and or VA benefits.

I, Edward Paul Donegan was homeless and without a payee when I was in Corpus Christi homeless Catholic Charities shelter. I was evicted the day I an appointment for them to become my payee.

In short this book is about public photo bombs areas I am in and using my phone in, changing the context of what I am doing by placing teens and tots in health club areas or tourist areas, or planted in my home or windows area, and even falsifying which residence is mine or under my control, all of which can be faked through requests for law enforcement co operation that landlords, others will provide.

I have repeatedly watched the local media ASSIST in the fabrication of deceptive public circumstances and other acts of fraud as well as allow those activities on the visible parts of their outdoor property and the refuse to remediate any of it or allow accept my complaints.

As stated elsewhere the Gangtalk uses “Rough Music” of harassment getting back at the village enemy for real or imagined reasons. I have refuted since I have been here in Corpus Christi I am “on the run” for anything yet the strategic interest in giving themselves an excuse, and keeping that excuse alive, allows the town to shakedown my trust and me without a sense of guilt.

The ups turn to the community is seen to be great. I hope instead the weed of crim bears bitter fruit and the risks of a town like this be understood unless their corrupt border official are held to account for running unsafe communities, to unsafe for “gringos” to move to.

The facts are visible to the Media, the MSM, but the shot callers, the elites, request the media not report them or intimidate factual statements or factual reporting.

Have they always had and always used my assets without my permission and are they now going toi get caught, once and for all, settling many mysteries?

Alma Vivian Powell is an American audiologist and the wife of military and political figure Colin Powell (State, JCOS), whom she married on August 25, 1962. She graduated from Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee, and went on to study speech pathology and audiology at Emerson College in Boston. Wikipedia

Alma Vivian Powell (née Johnson; born October 27, 1937) is an American audiologist and the … graduated from Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee, and went on to study speech pathology and audiology at Emerson College in Boston.

Alma Powell's Biography - The HistoryMakerswww.thehistorymakers.org › alma-powell-41 Between 1958 and 1962, Powell worked for the Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing as an audiologist. In 1962, Powell met her husband, General Colin Powell, … *

Alma Powell's first job was as a radio show host. She had a show called 'Luncheon with Alma' that featured women's news and lunchtime listening music. A year later, Powell decided to move north to Boston, Massachusetts. There, she went to Emerson College to study pathology and audiology. Between 1958 and 1962, Powell worked for the Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing as an audiologist. In 1962, Powell met her husband, General Colin Powell, and was married the same year in Powell's hometown of Birmingham. *

November 22, 1963, Parkland Hospital, Dallas, TX

MKULTRA and DIA CIA US Marines use Counter Intel powers to seize the most basic of my human rights and in the service of Non-US interests of genes export from the U.S at the expense of my U.S. Natural Born white family and my forced U.S. celibacy

The scheme is advanced by plain clothes hostility towards me which is intolerable crimes though which complicit foreign aligned workers civil commit me as a result of the provoked conflicts, nulling my outcries and disrupting my normal course of life.

The below pictures are the standard of a ploy which began around at least 2006 or so with Veronica Hoffman.

The basics are that I am around someone, someone I contacted (Veronica Hoffman though she dropped contact with me) or someone I don't know approaching me (a woman here in Yoga pants riding on Metro and literally putting it in my face invading my space) and doing so very suggestively.

I look around and there is the Harvey Dent figure, a military or skid row looking black, often non-english speaking. I ask him who he is in friendly conversation. He is from Ethiopa and on a study trip to Georgetown. He has a Catholic like wrist band on and is reading from an article that looks written in some African script.

Further away are some females, often one white and one non-white who sometimes appear to be some sort of sociology tied people.

I didn't see one on this trip but usually when this happens, which is whenever I am in public, a person dressed like me will have an interest in the female and the parties will then bifurcate from me and I believe the person dressed like me will take over my identity.

BLUE

With some suzzy guy there, from Ethiopia, a Catholic he explains as I ask about his wrist bracelet, and he also says he goes to Georgetown from some kind of program.

It seems to be as ass flashed (or sexually abusive treatment of me such as shouting in pain and saying I owe the shouter because that person is my pornography) at me. I was provided for they say, or made to look like I was chasing it and now owe for it (owe my dna) to her or the scuzzy “provider” who stalked me and go on the train. An alleged DNA debt I owe for seemingly victimizing her, but they stalked me, not the other way around.

Probably those females are social workers or something, perhaps Nueces County Services or Texas Ministries workers, Metro Churches, etc., “Ed Did it again, victimized a female.”

People like Trinitas Nsabimana of Africa, Obama and Tom Donegan connected, seem to be put in place at places like ARC of Northern Virginia to arrange something with the blacks or sometimes gays, who may wish IVF rights based on some patterns which seem to occur.

Note that if this use of foreign nationals for activities inside the U.S. are part of RICO for sexual results (semen) rights for Africa this could and likely does tie for foreign use DNA theories I have asserted as the Judge Roll and Justsice Scalia murder motives.

CIA contractor illegal irregulars were used to kill Jen Moore and to assault me, drawn from Social Services Agencies (who are in a RICO scheme embezzling genes rights and the value of genes they do not own) because she and I were uncovering and reporting on the RICO scheme, its black budget coming from violent crimes connected racketeering.

All of this is achieved not as real counter intelligence activities counter intel is empowered for, but instead, a financial and sex trafficking ring including rape, murder, arson, and coverups

A Blind Conservertorship was created without Due Process to me and without accounting to me.

This State controlled and created Conservatorship “nationalized” (enslaved) me in or through NDAA like powers for an international criminal organization to succeed in MKULTRA plans throughout the world.

Fraudulent acts before the Public

Acts of Fraud

- In public people who are complete strangers to me deny any connection to me put on public shows of being my daily living advisors and coaches by saying things to me which are pointless and unwanted.

Example. I ask one question of a store clerk, a stranger near me asks a question as “another question .. ” thus trying to associate herself with me and my first question.

- Items I am shopping for pause near me, such as cars or campers. Vaugely, it appears I am associated with this, or statements made in my vicinity about business relations. These are public shows out of my control staging events around me which are mere illusions.

Example Chris Lloyd makes a comment he bought a Porsche. He also send me a pic of the house I grew up in. No statement is made to me, at least the REAL me, regarding these things. It may be portrayed to others that I had somehow approved that or any other use of any money. In fact Chris Lloyd directly denied any business relationship to me at all, none whatsoever.

- PizzaGate - Roving squads of scam artists frame me as a stalker seeking to expoitively view women, the real motive for any of me acts. In fact I did not “buy” or “own” anyone, whatever any illegal conservancy of MY human rights was invented. Supposedly I was picking women out for something, I don’t know what, probably the polymorphous perversity DoppleEd wants in place of Human sex, when my music went from Play to Pause and I had to reach to my phone to get the music playing again. When I took my SIMM chip out people stood next to me and started hand signaling when women were near. This was never me signalling anything. Any agreement of me to any of this was mere illusion, forgeries of my agreement by impersonators wrongful people speaking for me not authorized by me to do so.

A central lie in Pizzagate is that in ordinary acts I am actually “sendng the signal” or making the deal for my DNA, signed over during a tryst an impersonator of me is really setting up in which my DNA sperm bank rights will be money laundered.

Sigma Squads in the Gym and Elsewhere

Blacks, often Ethiopians or others, surround me and move white women away, normal white women, asking if I am ok, thus asserting I could not handle the presence of the attractive white women in the flesh, then a fake target fo my affection flashes me and an impersonator of me will have “cyber” with that woman in ErosX replacing me with crossed wires, rather than my dick entering real women.

My DNA is being forced across insecure lines.

This book

The Mousetrap

Ten Little Indians is a 1965 British crime mystery film directed by Geo
It is the second film version of Agatha Christie's 1939 novel.[1] It was by Oliver A. Unger, with co-producer Harry Alan Towers also credited under his pen name Peter Welbeck.

Ten people travel by aerial tramway to a snowbound mansion, invite
Mr. U.N. Owen (Unknown) to spend the weekend. They discover that n them has actually ever met Owen,

Dinner is served by the butler Grohmann on a tray adorned with ten figurines, as well. At exactly 9 p.m., as instructed, Grohmann switches tape recording. A man identifying himself as Owen reveals that each o guests has a scandalous secret, their involvement in various innocent p deaths. One by one, the guests begin dying off.

The Mousetrap (written by Dysgraphic Agatha Christie) is a murder mystery play by Agatha Christie. The Mousetrap opened in London's West End in 1952, and has been running continuously since then. The longest-running West End show, it has by far the longest initial run of any play in history, with its 25,000th performance taking place on 18 November 2012 .[1]

The play has a twist ending, which the audience are traditionally asked not to reveal after leaving the theatre.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Mousetrap

The Premise of the play and movie is to bleed a trust fund by creatign fraudulent factual use.

In my case a Doppelgänger of me will create a harm to others protected by the same trust fund, and my assets will be transfered among the trust fund recipients using my assets for others managed by the same trust workers.

In my case the leftist anti white hate workers had the advantage of making non whites victims of a white supremacist, the white supremacist made to look retarded and perverted, needing trrust fund services.

Those Doppling me and planting tots, porn, etc., describe blacks as “the power race” and they say that by “Disrupt[ing]” white nationalism and bleeding assets away they are protecting others.

Wild Things 2 Ploy

Breaking the Terms of a Trust via an Con

In the case of GLorian Donegan, her financial trust is mixed with undisclosed biological rights to her genome, then a money laundering system is setup to creat fake claims.

The fake claims are a “mousetrap” is set in front of Edward Donegan. It appears Edward Donegan is taking the bait and owes victims DNA because he (Edward Donegan) made vulnerbale people his photographic pornography.

Though this is not a behavior of Edward Paul Donenan an impersonator of Edward Paul DOnegn, a “zoom photographer,” will take the bait and sign away genomic rights managed by the undiclosed assets trust.

Wild Things 2 Ploy

- Britney Havers every day teen with a $70 million dollar trust fund from her rich dead biological mother, allowing her only a 25K a year stipend. Her rich mother secretly murdered in an Florida alligator swamp.

- Maya King secret teen lover and brash accomplice to Brittney Havers who will use the clause of the will if a biological relative is found the trust then goes to her, and the 25K a year basic scheme is no longer in place.

- Kathy Neff plays Brittney rich biological mother, killed by alligators in a accident, at least it seems that way to the story line the public believes

- Niles Dunlap, step father to Brittney Havers, after the biological parent (played by Kathy Neff) dies in the alligator swamp but dies in a plane crash, creating a professional trust management firm.

When Dunlap is killed in a private plane crash, his will calls for Brittney to receive a small stipend until she finishes college, after which she will receive only $25,000 a year for life from the estate. The rest of Dunlap's assets, totaling $70 million, are to be left to a corporate trust, unless a blood heir can be found.

Brittney's brash, relatively poor classmate Maya King suddenly claims to be Dunlap's illegitimate daughter as the result of her mother's extramarital affair. She is ordered by a judge to submit to a DNA test, the result of which proves she is Dunlap's child.

At the Dunlap home, Brittney hears a noise on her way to the wine cellar but it turns out to just be rats. Suddenly Maya appears and the girls reveal they are lovers before being joined by Dr. Julian Haynes, who had arranged the DNA test. The trio are in cahoots, running a scam to secure and share Dunlap's fortune.

A Long Con backed by the CIA and others created a fake “Nest Egg” (Ovum) Trust Fund out of what was only a Sale of The Moraga House principle funded trust fund, about $323K, 42 Lambeth Square Moraga California.

In this case, the controlled assets, are the secret trust fund interest in brain genes for the retarded, and the trust fund is complicit in the shakedown scheme and operate it validating false claims, using their retarded clients as fake victims.

She (Glorian Donegan) never touched the principle of that house, living frugally, so she could leave it to Tom and myself. She used interest on the amount and divorce/social security money for her apartment.

The CIA and Tom Donegan, Public Health Service, and others wanted her ovum and built a Long Con to get them. Tom Donegan and Mark Weirness setup a “Nest Egg” long con to create then falsify access to her genome through false claims and false conservatroship of me, all on blatantly fraudulent basis.

This is not a “victimless crime.” The crimes are felons, sexually abusive and otherwise abusive of me by felony assaults on me denying basic rights and constitutional protections as I have been subjected to and blamed for disgusting erotic activity meant to foul, despicable, and repulsively offensive.

Further, blacks, gays, the retarded, and others have claimed the moral high-ground in their assaults upon me and my seeking those willing to criticize and understand the DNA needs of this group, to describe the attack on me, have for at leats 3 decades only accelerated the attacks as they continue to vilify me morally, the victim of their attacks.

As I write the decades long biography this con will be clearly visible.

Jen Moore on this betrayal

Jen Moore knew both my mother and me and using the trust fund to save me from problems and worries and instead attack my life was a betrayal of my mother.

I needed food, medicine, safety, and normal life opportunities including returning to paid employment and the white wife and white family I desired, but leftist non white race baiters worked to defeat that in my life instead for race and class warfare against me and my mother instead.

This book

HUMINT Attacks

If the Foundation Work done at every location I have lived in is allowed to work (the foundation work being a con job alleging sexual misconduct of mine which is in fact the misconduct of a Dopple) the appearance as I leave 1001 N. Water Street North 4th Floor 1x1 will be that I am a sex offender on the run, a narrative not true but snowballing as I undergo repeated Conspiracy Against My Housing by a dopple being evicted and that being my record.

[image]

https://www.thomasvan.com/

It's Too Late To Apologize - How Affairs Snowball

October 3, 2013 Thomas Van

When does a person under a #COINTELPRO #MKULTRA cloud of suspicion pant his feet and demand, fight for, fair housing rights?

FBI can draw law abiding people into fights by asking or inciting others to comit petty or worse crimes against a law abiding person, selcting criminal or needy Confidential Informants into profitable illegal schemes against a law abiding person the police create the crimes rather than resolve them.

> The snowball represents the accumulation of all of the mistakes you've made in your relationship [or been blamed for in your neighborhood area.] With each new mistake you give the snowball a little nudge down the hill. With every stop you try to fix and contain your mistakes. At some point you have made too many mistakes and the snowball rolls on its own - you must now pay for your mistakes.

I will assert during this book that manufacture of fraud and forgeries are central to the scheme and not fighting them is a risk as well as fighting them is. Documentin them presumes nuetral listeners who are truth seeking, I have not found that yet.

Definitions from Oxford Languages via Google Definitions > populate

>
> fill or be present in "the spirit of the book [set in some location] and the characters who populate its pages"
>
> infiltrate

> enter or gain access to (an organization, place, etc.) surreptitiously and gradually, especially in order to acquire secret information. "the organization has been infiltrated by informers"

Hostile and abusive infiltrators control the private spaces such as my housing I live in and insert Confidential Informants who are encouraged to participate in Mafia like acts against me.

One such act I call "Still Framing." Normal housing matter such as the lever-chain-stopper flush mechanism on my toilent broke.

Rather than replace it easily the building supe used the Modus Operandi of fraud via forgeries. He said "I will need to take a picture of that" out loud, took a photo of the real toilet, then went to some other toilet somewhere else and as if using a "7" on a passport and modifying it to a "9" created a forged story line in an apartment not mine, and even never returned to my apartment.

If I change the channel on my TV with the remote that becomes the basis for a forgery created elsewhere I was photographing someone which I call the "Play To Pause Attack."

Normal acts of mine are altered by other events seeming to tie my acts to other events, but the other events are merely superimposed onto the base normal elements I am involved in, then extened, embellished, by the super imposed acts of others make the "7" a "9" seemingly.

The art of the fraud is using of deceit to add the extra elements of othes which is wrongdoing on top of my normal acts and make the two layers seem one.

Rather than hide many of these acts the Confidential

Informants often bait for a fight while doing it, I calll it “trying to me into a fight coming from out of the blue against a red predator criminalliy harrassing Confidential Informant who is acting under cover.”

If I (Edward Paul Donegan) accept the soft innuendo (NOT hard allegation against me) I should move out and the appearance of impropriety of me shadows me as a rumor my life will be again damaged by the rumors of the Dopples acts tied to me in a Slander Campaign costing me this apartmet and the next as well Repeatedly people make public show in saying “I saw you do it!”” yet refuse to say what, often keepign their own acts they are blaming me for (which they are encouraged to do as paid actors) this creating a defaming cloud of suspicion around me which never clears and cause people to deny my rental applications on flimsy excuses. I am including to protect therefore the rental agreement that I DO HAVE from any fraud. I can not be replaced during a methodial slander campaign udnering the ability to keep in housing and write books with computer equipment.

My premise is that the road blocking of positive acts of mine like choosing and renting good apartments is they conspired against for my usage and are usally taken over by skid row and I am blamed for skid row acts is both an asset transfer from me which many approve of as justice for the oppressed minorities but I believe it is a plot to conceal I generate worth even and perhaps especially under 3rd World or 2nd World like living conditions (homelessness) and this value creating of mine is being hidden to hide the Organization for Cooperation and Economic Development (OECD) interest in my February 20 November 18 December 13 DNA supply line (my mother.)

I need to enforce my housing rights but even suing has not worked and I think that was rigged for 7 years now b B. Janice Ellington and other Federal Courthouse officials, and also County Courthouse officials not notifying various hearings held regarding me I had therefore not attended.

Google Knowledge Panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> Human intelligence
>
> Human intelligence is intelligence gathered by means of interpersonal contact, as opposed to the more technical intelligence gathering disciplines such as signals intelligence, imagery intelligence and measurement and signature intelligence. Wikipedia
>
> Roadblocking
>
> Road blocking uses the planned or active path of a person, slowing that person down, and then jumping into that person's activities under their Identity such that the identity of the person and the acts of the double join together into a forgery of events as if one perons was on video walking to a contract at a desk, asked to step away for a moment because of an emergency, the camera stopping, then an Identity Thief continuing the path picking up the conract, agreeing to it, then signing it.

HUMINT by illegal COINTELPRO and Sham investigations which are created under false premises and use illegal harassment

Racial fights are picked (A minority child is photgraphed in the vicinity of me and racial anti white statements made to me as misplaced anager) and staged and I and my trust are the Mark in fraud upon me.

has a theory of Black and White thought based on Hegel and will infiltrate and destroy from within the dangers of White Supremacism as said to me by Nueces Behavorial Health systems and Social Services

The Gangstalk of Edward Donegan

I will face numerous evictions over this including housing, gym, etc., but the liability is with Tx and the fake claims processing (legitmizing) when the claims should be denied.

One affect it creates a record that my genes are legitimately being used by others and with appropriate permission from the owner of the genes, Edward Paul Donegan.

Vulnerability	Later Exploit	The Barrio Goes on Guard against Ed Donegan requesting

		Patrol Assets
Homeboy (Tx)	Homegirl	Away from the scene Tx will identify Ed as the Taker of Photos of Homegirl	Ed Donegan's trust fund is billed restitution to Homegirl and Homeboy and for security services by Prosecutor and social service for the Barrio
Ed Donegan (Rx)	Ed Donegan not correctly informed the Trust fun settled a suit

Creating and Ambiguity (Vulnerability) to be Exploited (used for a crime) later

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Search and seizure and copied or modified to here

Search and seizure is a procedure used in many civil law and common law legal systems by which police or other authorities and their agents, who, suspecting that a crime has been committed, commence a search of a person's property and confiscate any relevant evidence found in connection to the crime both the Search and Siezures based on the dependency genuinely held premise a crime has occurred or is occuring. Wikipedia

1. The Exclusionary Rule as a Deterrent to Illegal Police Activity

It is, of course, incorrect to assume and too much to expect that the exclusionary -rule will deter all illicit police activity. Often the police will act illegally for harassment purposes to prevent certain activities-gambling and prostitution, for example-or to satisfy the public's demand for action on vice-squad crimes.

The threat of excluding evidence will, at least in -these situations, be insignificant. Dean Francis Allen suggests that "[t]he uncomfortable possibility even exists that the presence of the exclusionary rule in a jurisdiction may in certain situations influence the police to reject efforts to make a case for formal prosecution and to rely on such informal and illegal sanctions as they see fit to devise and apply."

The same author, however, indicates that "in localities where police illegality is most deliberate and systematic, conviction of offenders remains obviously an important objective of police activity. One may assume that the presence of the rule induces a degree of caution and care in preparing the case that might otherwise be lacking.

Although the exclusionary rule may not deter all official illegality, it is fair to assume that it is the most effective way of limiting such methods.

2. Exclusion of the Fruits of Illegally Obtained Evidence

The complete exclusion-in all situations and for all purposes-of second and subsequent generation “fruits” of illegally obtained evidence seems logical and warranted unless there are competing considerations to restrict the radiations of the exclusionary rule.

The obvious competing consideration, in criminal as well as civil cases, is the policy of admitting relevant and trustworthy evidence in order to maximize the search for truth. In criminal prosecutions the exclusionary rule conflicts with another interest of society-convicting the guilty. Hence, departures “from the primary evidentiary criteria of relevancy and trustworthiness must be justified by some strong social policy.”

I suggest dirty cops not only planting evidence for self gain doing so an asset possessing law abiding people to use for personal enrichment of corrupt policing (of the police) by pretextual seizures assets based upon the planted evidence tilts to full the need to prosecute the misconduct of the law enforcement.

HUMINT resources and techniques to use a Crisis Actor to create a crisis in my identity, continue the switch into my identity by disrupting my activities including with women, and signing my DNA over to others and CIA based black markets as though me, forging the permissions.

This disrupts my contact with women in Goth communities and puts “safe” neighborhood heroes of the community into those activities who will disrupt my activities and is NDAA Law Enforcement Intelligence Units (LEIU) Gangstalks of Targeted Individuals are conducted out of, I say the 555 building in Corpus Christi, which is seeming information Gathering of terror groups though a sham invasion ethnically of a group his communities of color wish to learn about and be expose to or expose themselves to.

The study of me and my history and ethnicity is intrusive to me but of interest to others who are not from that background, the farming community and homeless of Corpus Christi who can be raised up from from a migrant comunity to more metropolitan life styles and behaviors.

The sham investigations include sham allegation of me which will sue my Trust Fund as well.

I believe the real Espionage interest in my has been converting my positives into the positives of others such as people will turn from me to others and I thus find it difficult to enter communities such as Austin and this stalk goes back those identify stalk victims during Church Committee hearings about the CIA, FBI, NSA AND DARPA Brain Program.

I came to Corpus Christi in peace but the poor migrant town made a Mark out of me and my trust fund.

Tom Donegan, Mark Weirness, Edward Paul “Mark” Donegan

I am portrayed as a threat to the community serving both law suits against me, sham filings about me, and the profits under those suits including debate practice with an expert in sociology and philosophy, me, and this fight picked invasively with me making a mark of me and mark of my assets.

Road Blocking

My California identity as Edward Paul Donegan stolen while at Say and Play. 1) I am at Stay and Play Texas ID, seek an apt with Deja there 2) I get CA Drivers Liscense but a black next to me at SSA switches with me in line at CA DMV. 3) Black steps into Edward Paul DOnegan CA DMV DL. I am asked to leave Stay and play. 4) Black as Edward Paul Donegan continues at Stay and play for nearly 3 years with my DNA. My CA DMV DL is cancelled as the black peson's fake attempt at being Edward Donegna but the black failed to give the correct ID.

RESPONSE NEEDED BY 08/03/2019

Dear EDWARD PAUL DONEGAN,

This letter was sent to you because at the time you you were issued a REAL ID card during the period January 2018 April 2019, only one residency document was provided to the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). A second residency document must be provided in order to retain your REAL ID card. DMV set up this easy and convenient way for you to respond by following a few simple steps.

One Event		Second Event
Person 1	Becomes	Person 2
	Cross Out
Person 2	Becomes	Person 1

2 People 2 Evens Foundation

In the Sower Reaper Roadblock Reaper Grain model I sowed a California Real ID. After that or during that a Reaper was along side me both at SSA and CA DMV. So far no roadblock. Then I get a letter while in Texas I did NOT have the correct papers at CA DMV. CA Real ID gone. IN Texas Reaper Edward Paul Donegan has Edward Paul Donegan Texas ID, Edward Paul Donegan has NO ID of any kind.

Cutouts and Splicing, Black Bagging, Compositing to create deceptively fictional Chain of Events from non-fiction

I have just used the google search result below as “use the term Black Bag in a sentence,” Espionage plants or removal of items surreptitiously.

> …worldview.stratfor.com › article › botched-black-bag-jo … Sep 7, 2017 A Botched Black Bag Job Reveals the Long Arm of Chinese Intelligence … and whether malware planted on the guest network could have affected the rest of … The Chinese have a wide variety of espionage weapons at their . *

Recalling Spy Museum information

Bagman

An agent who pays spies and bribes authorities

Black Bag Job

Secret entry into a home or office to steal or copy materials

Black Operations

Covert operations that are not attributable to the organization performing them

Black Propaganda

A disinformation that is deniable by (and not traceable to) its source

Film will show how the Domiatrix called Ed a loser after HE threw genetic money at her white buttocks being a buttocks fetishist

Photo-bobming and evidence plants of child porn

That new dake evidence o accumulati fake Evidence shown by Espionage to person I started towards

Law Enforcemer substitute accepted as substitute for me, pays dominatrix with my genome for sight of white buttocks

Braggadicio from Dominatrix a white loser threw money at her buttocks and he was scum, person not named

Me normal, starts normal, starts Deja email contact

Braggadicio from Dominatrix a white loser threw money at her buttocks and he was scum, person not named

August I ar in Stay and Play

September and after when I left but Deja and the substitute for me was there

Law enforcement, Obama connected, warm up to Dominatrix and with Dominatrix ace out and socially sabotage me.

mistress.deja.x©protonmail.com An (unidentified or misidentified) person threw [my] money at her buttocks but whose money was it?

What is HUMINT investigating as though me?

The bizarre spectacle of this frame job is people near me photograph children, do so while dressed as me, that person dressed as me will be taken to a dominatrix who will leave me out of a scene and scene with the dopple.

Dopple with the ass fetish impersonates me as he photographs asses of tots, minors

Domina hates that I, dressed the same as the dopple, who seems turned on by teen and tot asses

Domina sees the Dopple instead who is working with the cops, an will taunt me that someone else thew my money at her ass

The Domina, a wise person, knows punishing me by NOT talking to me or role playing with me punishes me for photographing teen or tot asses, leaving me alone, so then the cop and neighborhood watch paid the domina with my DNA instead and they saw her ass.

An espionage backed impersonator of me has beaten me out to a white woman and is throwing the value of my genome at her buttocks.

A recurring event. I attempted to come on to Mistress Isys but somebody beat me out to her.

So here are some questions I have back to Jim Volcelka.

- Who sexually assaulted, physically assaulted me, and manufactured child porn and peeping porn at Stay and Play attributed to me in Black Bag operation?

- Who used that information to socially sabotage me to Deja and used his property to money launder the rights to my genome?

- Who was the person, not me, who paid Deja with my genome rights?

I have been through thousands of sexual assaults in what amounts to Ruby Ridge standoff as people shout into my home in sexualized ways or time, death threats are shouted into the home, I am wrongfully forced out of my real lawful home into a controlled sexual assault controlled environment located in Nueces County Texas I want nothing to do with from day one.

T-Mobile 4G 92% 12:51

Mistress Isys 💋
2,703 Tweets

Tweets | Tweets & replies | Media | Likes

1 22 80

Mistress Isys 💋 @Mistr... · 47m
Just cause ;)

1 7

Mistress Isys 💋 @Mistres... · 1h
Bikini and pool day.
#kneel and #worship

When at a similar apartment to mine thinking it is mine, and knowing it overlooks a school area a Dominatrix protective of children's buttocks may block the view

This is spliced with my real contact to her and the evidence manufacture about me is spliced to her by Espionage along with my contact to her for her to be incited against me.

As if on a cutting room floor deceptive editing of elements spliced together create a false tail which seems to be real and in Military Intelligence is called Cutouts which is the cutting out of pieces of separate events, some of it paid actors as "stunt doubles' with other scenes of the real person

From the movie it seems Tobey Maguire has amazing capacity to swing from buildings and it is shown in that movie showing the chain of events.

Deja was shown fake evidence chains about me and incited and faked, spliced a chain of events, fictional and real, together about me.

Film splicer Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Film splicer From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A film splicer (also called a film joiner, usually in Europe) is a device which can be used to physically join together lengths of photographic film. It is mostly used in film motion pictures. The units are made in various types depending on the usage: Single-8, Super 8 film, 16mm, 9,5 mm, 35mm and 70mm. Used in film editing to make a cut (transition).[1][2]

Contents

1. Cement splicers
2. Tape splicers
3. Ultrasonic splicers
4. Thermal paper splicers
5. Cement splicers

Cement splicers join films together by using a chemical called film cement which is made of film base dissolved in a solvent. The photographic emulsion is removed from the area to be joined and the base of the other end is brought into contact with it.[3][4]

Film editors use a version with a very small overlaps at the top and bottom of the picture frame to edit film negatives, although units with a longer overlap are preferred for projection release prints.[5]

These can only be used with acetate, triacetate and nitrate films. Polyester film, such as that used for currently produced prints, will not bond with standard film cement.[6]

Tape splicers

Here a piece of thin transparent adhesive tape is used to join the two ends. The tape may be pre-perforated for the film perforations, or the splicer may make perforations as the splice is made (this type of splicer is sometimes referred to as guillotine splicer).[7]

Tape splicers can be used on most types of film. This is the most popular way to join polyester prints in theaters.

Ultrasonic splicers

These splicers use an ultrasonic signal to melt the film together. They are generally used with polyester film, and are used in splicing microfilm as the splice will not break down over time as a tape splice might.

Thermal paper splicers

Used in film processing labs to join film into large rolls before processing. These use a plastic coated tab to make the splice. The tab is heated and the plastic melts slightly, bonding to the film. The tabs are often printed with a number or bar code to identify the film after processing.

See also

Splicing is sometimes used to describe the technique of compositing used in digital film-making which is used to combine visual elements such as actors onto a virtual background.

Compositing (composing photos) *

> Photobombing has been known to get global exposure, mainly due to the bandwidth and ease of dissemination afforded by the Internet, and the abundance of snapshots by smartphone cameras and other hand-held devices. A number of websites include sections on them, or are entirely devoted to photobombs.
>
> In 2014, “photobomb” was named Word of the Year by the Collins English Dictionary.[4]
>
> Photobombing can be described as a person, intentionally or unintentionally appearing in a photograph of someone or something else and intentionally or unintentionally taking the focus and attention off of the intended subject *.

Manufactured Coutouts to be spliced together

- Classless: Start by the appearances of a ring which in now way exists, a ring between Tom Dunham and Edward Paul Donegan, a ring in which suck puppets of each seem to traffic in teens and or tots being eroticised as well as adult entertainers who catch them and rumors grow, cliquishly. A Grand Jury or other Ex Parte group will act as a certified class of injured parties and remdiators The fictional world of an exploitation rign existing.

- Begin faking exploitation by photo bombing my normal use of cell phone by placing teens and tot buttocks on the non display side of the phone whenever I hold the phone in use of any type uage.

- Place me in the lens view of people who saw me, filmed me, in the area of a photographed teen or tot.

- Someone other than Edward Paul Donegan creates on the phone that person has a photo of a the teen or tot and that photo will be alleged to the memory chip of Edward Donegan's smart-phone or a phone alleged to Edward Paul Donegan

- Call something in Edward Paul Donegan's possession a camera and in some way later "tape a photo to it" as if the shopping cart, solar cell, or whatever had been a camera generating a picture taken by something else and someone else.

- Bragadicio assaults on me by those who "see me in the area" photograph me in hostile way and show the hostility towards me they would show a pedophile WITHOUT calling me a pedophile and without accusing me of me anything. Their harmed child is added into the fake class of harmed people, and child's parent believes I > am a pedophile, but harming their child is worth it to get in on the class action against my trust fund.

All of this is witch burning. Neither Tom Dumham nor I have any interest in exploitation or minors and fight against both, but use of fictional allegations allows fictional victim hood of claimants in tampered with chains of events.

People are encourage to fake claims against me which create normalization of them and I think that was meant to bolster one very important one in the 1990s which allowed for IVF of the Obama children by bacteria based brain genes supplementation which created a brain genes parrallel between Barack Obama Jr. Edward Paul Donegan, and Glorian Donegan which MKULTRA Brain Research, DARPA and Boeing Corp, the CIA would rather not talk about.

Thus this book does talk about it amidst death threat towards my writing it and hinderences to publication of the book.

This book

Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law (18 USC §242) and Negligence Mercenaries 18 USC § 241 who will live above their means and gain in their cause

These. legal codes are what I had sued in in South Texas Federal District Court but an excuse was made at filing, it could not be filed then because it had two sided material and tech would need to be called, and a dopple was near me and the video cameras were also being fixed and adjusted thus which person was which could not be determined later.

Black Operations Witch-hunting with the Public and Naked Acts o Prurience	No Witches Allowed Victim concedes to being a Heathen, Ed aced out
Leading the Witch hunt	Negligent Mercenary Recruit	Harassed Victim Heathen, Police and Public Harassed by ongoing Espionage conspiracy against rights
Non mercenary
Fictional Story Line, illegitimate reason, manufactured by the police, a police officer gives to others, the Police will use in recruit assistance from a Lynch Mob which will act on and gain from (an	fight between police backed impersonator of Ed and Ed	Not able to enforce rights impersonator of me has engaged in misconduct OR someone rigged a finding against me earlier and that is passed along (False Predicate) Tx the impersonator of me will "Tx" transmit to the police He (in my identity but not I) was guilty subversion n the undermining of the [political] power and authority of an established system or institution. "the ruthless subversion of democracy" [or against Heath aesthetic, political, intellectual, or other material]

Negligence Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Most jurisdictions say that there are four elements to a negligence action:[5]

1. Duty: the defendant has a duty to others, including the plaintiff, to exercise reasonable care,

2. Breach: the defendant breaches that duty through an act or culpable omission,

3. Damages: as a result of that act or omission, the plaintiff suffers an injury, and

4. Causation: the injury to the plaintiff is a reasonably foreseeable consequence of the defendant's act or omission.

Mercenaries, those who are likely to be selected, targeted, for recruitment into Espionage agency

Interfering, Intervening, not Interceding

Masonic Creed John Rockefeller

American tycoon and philanthropist John D. Rockefeller wrote a 'masonic creed' that started with the sentence: 'We will keep their lives short and their minds weak while pretending to do the opposite.

intercede Vocabularly.com

When you intercede, you try to help people work out their differences or achieve something, like when you intercede on your friend's behalf to encourage your boss to hire him, or when feuding friends ask you to intercede, guiding them to sort out their differences.

The verb intercede comes from the Latin root words inter, meaning "between," and cedere, meaning "go." Acting as a go-between is exactly what you do when you intercede. Maybe you are the peacemaker, or you play matchmaker, or you just bring people to work out their problems.

Sometimes people pray that God will intercede in their lives, meaning bring change that improves a situation.

intervene Vocabularly.com

From the Latin “intervenire,” meaning “to come between,” the verb intervene means just that: to get involved, to jump in the middle of something, to interfere.

The verb intervene was first recorded around 1600. Since then there haven’t been many interventions in its meaning or usage. You should probably intervene in a heated verbal fight between two of your friends before it escalates and gets physical. Especially if they’re debating the United States’ habit of intervening in international conflicts.

interfere Vocabularly.com

To interfere is to try to stop something from happening. If you get into a fight on the street, people passing by might try to interfere so no one gets hurt.

Many countries resent it when other countries interfere (get involved) in their internal affairs, just as people often dislike it when others interfere in their personal affairs. In this sense interfere is the opposite of minding one’s business. On airplanes you’re not allowed to use cellphones because, it’s said, they interfere with the plane’s navigational systems.

February 20 November 18 December 13 August 4 33rd & 5 NYC

In practice, whether or not a person is a mercenary may be a matter of degree, as financial and political interests may overlap, as was often the case in all of history. - Wikipedia

The spy who secretly and without uniform passes the military lines of a belligerent in time of war, seeking to gather military information and communicate it to the enemy, or an enemy combatant who without uniform comes secretly through the lines for the purpose of waging war by destruction of life or property, are familiar examples of belligerents who are generally deemed not to be entitled to the status of prisoners of war, but to be offenders against the law of war subject to trial and punishment by military tribunals. - US Supreme Court in the case of Ex Parte Quirin

			5 Victim: Rights subverted

at request of police

4 Duped and Negligent Public recruits of police include public, media, corrupts

2) Police Conspirators are the sapient planners of phony police investigation aka Russia investigation

3) The Mercenaries (Targeted for [successful] recruitment by Espionage [likely Bob Creamer/ Scott FOval Mike Foval Little Rock AK CMA Bird DOgger recruit] w/o words physical assault me near female victim (unsafe for me to be in public or institutions) Bodily attacks by shills on "Mark" →

6) Targeted Victim, Edward Paul Donegan, UNEXPLAINED Human Rights ABuse, not cause shown

1) Phony investigation initiated by police, misconduct police because police themselves create predicate for opening an investigation, Abuse of Process

Black Opps The Phony Investigations of COINTELPRO police work and Dissinformation

I, the Mark" and my trust fund (also the "Mark" are the victims of false claims of what the SHill did at Espionage request, which was victimize a female, also a Mark.

Living Above Means, Vulnerabilities to Recruitment into Espionage

Espionage success involves scanning for then finding people, other police or private people or entities will to cooperate with the espionage mission, and a profit role in the espionage mission helps get the buy in of recruits, tbe buy in to the mission is misconduct or negligent asks from the normal activity to something different > subversion and espionage directed against the army saeda terminal … Disgruntled employee; Living

Above Means of Income; Vulnerabilities; Greed

Subversion, Shakedown and Conspiracy Against Rights (as mercenaries) of a white supremacist who regretted from day one Corpus Christi Texas, Nueces County cartel

When groups band together to control the supply of a product for their best interests, that's called a cartel. If you and the other kids running lemonade stands form a cartel, you can force up the price of lemonade.

The word cartel originally referred to political parties that joined forces to promote a common cause. Over the years, cartel took on a decidedly negative connotation, and now it's more likely to describe organizations that join together to limit supply of a product to force prices to remain high. You might read about an international drug cartel or a cartel of natural gas producers. To correctly pronounce the word cartel, put the accent on the second syllable: "car TEL."

1. noun. a consortium of independent organizations formed to limit competition by controlling the production and distribution (or rights or market opportunities) of a product or service

synonyms: combine, corporate trust, trust

Mercenaries Functioning via Illegal Acts in Charity Front Groups

In practice, whether or not a person is a mercenary may be a matter of degree, as financial and political interests may overlap, as was often the case in all of history. - Wikipedia

This book asserts religious and charitable practices have exceeded lawfull conduct and now use Mercenary acts of illegality and criminally founded racketeering to further charity group goals.

Weaponization of allegations against others via fraud as Lawfare dirty war or character or other conspiracy systems through charity groups are dirty war opportunities when combined with State retaliation for falsified pretexts asserted by charities against others.

Terms

- SUBVERSION

Advocating, causing, or attempting to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny, or refusal of duty by any member of the armed forces of the United States or by Department of Defense civilian personnel with the intent to interfere with, impair, or influence the loyalty, morale, or discipline of such armed forces.

(see 18 USC 2387-88)

TSG Marlanas

Persons - Special Vulnerability

- Frequent official overseas travel
- Resided in a foreign country
- Relatives in a foreign country
- Born/raised in a foreign country
- Persons with access to classified defense information
- Persons having extraordinary financial difficulty

TSG Marlanas

- Whoever, with intent to interfere with, impair, or influence the loyalty, morale, or discipline of the military or naval forces of the United States:

  - advises, counsels, urges, or in any manner causes or attempts to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny, or refusal of duty by any member of the military or naval forces of the United States; or

  - distributes or attempts to distribute any written or printed matter which advises, counsels, or urges insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny, or refusal of duty by any member of the military or naval forces of the United States

Shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both, and shall be ineligible for employment by the United States or any department or agency thereof, for the five years next following his conviction.

- For the purposes of this section, the term “military or naval forces of the United States” includes the Army of the United States, the Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Navy Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, and Coast Guard Reserve of the United States; and, when any merchant vessel is commissioned in the Navy or is in the service of the Army or the Navy, includes the master, officers, and crew of such vessel.

Finding the person to use as Espionage Dupe, Espionage Recruit

My beleif is both Commander In Chiefs, Special Forces, others have been killed, both active duty, civilian judiciary on military assets seizures, Veterans Administration, military facilities (that I was in in Virginia, and US Public Health Service Commissioned Corp embarked at federal locations) are all affected as was my father, mother, and myself.

Subversion Motives - Inclinations and interests departing from from neutrality

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

inclination

1) the act of inclining; bending forward 2) a characteristic likelihood of or natural disposition toward a certain condition or character or effect

You can see the word “incline” inside inclination, which clues you in to the fact that inclination has to do with leaning. Sometimes the inclination is literal; in most cases it’s about what you incline toward in a figurative sense.

An inclination is something you are leaning toward, a tendency you have. You could have a specific inclination for chocolate, or you could have an inclination that applies to a decision you are about to make: “Looking at this dessert menu, my inclination is to skip everything and just go home and have a chocolate bar.”

interest

1. n. sense of concern with and curiosity about someone or something 2. n. a fixed charge for borrowing money; usually a percentage of the amount borrowed 3. n. (law) a right or legal share of something; a financial involvement with something 4. n. (usually plural) a social group whose members control some field of activity and who have common aims

Interest is used most often to describe something you like, enjoy or think useful. You might have an interest in African literature, or you might follow the news with interest.

Although interest is used mainly to describe anything that is, well, interesting, it also is used in specific legal contexts. If you have an interest in a company, it means you own part of it. Interest is also the word used to describe money charged or given as part of a debt. If a bank loans you $10,000, you have to pay back the $10,000 plus the interest. If the interest rate is 5 percent annually, you would owe $500.

MR. HYDE IS IS NON WHITE MARSHALL

WATCH SETTINGS

45 1 1

WORK

Air Force National Guard
Airman first class

EDUCATION

U.S. Air Force ROTC
F-22 Fighter Pilot

Vanden High School, Travis AFB, CA
High School

In the Grifters scheme of things which surround me this guy is in the role of the tough guy, glaring at me at the scene some tot was abused at. I didn't do anything to the tot or teen female, he won't say I did, thus I won' be availed the chance to clear my name, but instead of a statement accusing me of something he will play a fool in some kind of aviator glasses as the alternative to saying something.

Sometimes something will be said like "that will be 20CCs" or something, and I either tell them I have nothing to do with them or I want nothing to do with them, including the exploited minors near me, but depending on the mere appearances they create they will to my trust fund, a county prosecutor, local religioius services, and demand some blind conservator of me "pay the bill."

Frequently, as seen here, these are non US nationals with stolen IDs they are acting under, not eligible for US benefits, some have been open about being awaiting deportation or deportation hearings, and use fake names sincfe under real names they are not eligible for any US benefits.

It is often said Constitutional Rights are for those in the jurisdiction of the USA, not merely those who are citizens of the USA. These international grifters make a claim against the Donegan family line with false pretenses.

Civil claims of being harmed them, being harmed, or them being some local heroes entitled so some spiff or bounty, gets them some kind of economic and even social status advancement.

Some of them have not known how to use USA toilets, don't use socks or shoelaces, have only two or three teeth total, and frequently seem unable to speak English or write in their own native languages.

I had written and Affidavit of Foreign Involvement citing many aspects of this going back to Virginia but I got denied legal filing status.

The presence of these needy people created a Subversion capability, the funds of my trust weaponizing these into a fraudulent Cartel money laundering creating an promising economic lift for the impoverished town and city officials promising to bring justice to these alleged victims rose to power in elections as others stepped down amidst scandalous accusations brought against them.

Putting a Name To it - "Leopard Street"

Leopard Street, though not all participating Government and NGOs are on Josephine or Leopard Street or even in that area as

Salvation Army, Habitat For Humantiy, and other services for the needy are.

Good Sams Baptist Ministry and Homeless Shelter, Unilateralist Church 23, Israel United in Christ/Black Hebrew Islrealites, VA and Evangelical homeless outreach via church program, Methodists, Catholic Charities, and the Faith Based social services delivery including delivery of trust fund management, Social Security benefits management for the mentally ill, legal services for the indigent who may be victims of the Establishment, and other state charity workers.

These bilked and are bilking my trust fund in lavish spending on themselves ways hiring strip shows, buying extravagant cars, running up food and housing bill s and one year leases per civil claim, education opportunities and expenses, even biological rights and claims to "family status" with a non reportable white person, mysle, which has also been cited, as Corpus CHristi police watch them push strollers next to me, etc., and one family in particular on South Staples street bragged about an "anchor baby" verbally and also had a picture of an anchor on her SUV bumper with the term Anchor Baby!"."

There has been a culture affront in this too as I am culturally prevented from my normal living by braggadacio gang threats meanwhile under study from these immigrants they also adopt and present my lifestyle and even language usage, cultural high tech and music culture, as themselves as they infiltrate US society similar to how Chinese or Russians use cultural practice environments in advance of sending sleeper agents to infiltrate the USA and its government, private, and religious communities.

This includes theft of my US Real ID which hey are not eligible for but were able to swap residency info with me to gain a REAL ID card, costing me my own limiting my air travel but enabling theirs.

Examples

Unitarian Universalist Church of Corpus Christi
6901 Holly Rd
Corpus Christi,
Texas 78414
(361) 986-8855

Habitat for Humanity Corpus Christi
Address: 1901 Lipan St,
Corpus Christi, TX 78408
(361) 289-1740

Diocese of Corpus Christi
Serving Mother Therases Day Shelter, Catholic Charities Payee Program, and other faith based activities
555 N Carancahua St Suite 750,
Corpus Christi, TX 78401
(361) 882-6191

The Salvation Army Administrative Office family support ministry and food, other economic support
521 Josephine St, (361) 884-9497

Charlie's Place (addiction) 5501 Ih 37, 5501 Mc Bride Ln, Corpus Christi, TX 78408

(877) 267-8110

Other recovery services in position arbitrate behavioral disputes and assessment of conduct in family courts or other venues of asset management disposition, or dispute resolutions service or arbitrational jurisdictions

Good Samaritan Rescue Mission
210 S Alameda St,
Corpus Christi, TX 78401 (361) 883-6195

Herman Edward Butts, Australia an JFK

H E B Grocery connected … Southern Baptist Ministry connected Revenue Increase $21 billion+

Laity Lodge: Ecumenical Retreat Center in Texas Hill Country

Laity Lodge is a place of subtle discovery: an ecumenical retreat center in the Texas Hill Country. Since 1961, guests from all walks of life have made their way to this outpost along the Frio River

Foreign Origin and Control de Pestos*

Terms

- SUBVERSION

Advocating, causing, or attempting to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny, or refusal of duty by any member of the armed forces of the United States or by Department of Defense civilian personnel with the intent to interfere with, impair, or influence the loyalty, morale, or discipline of such armed forces.

(see 18 USC 2387-88)

TSG Marlanas

Persons - Special Vulnerability

- Frequent official overseas travel
- Resided in a foreign country
- Relatives in a foreign country
- Born/raised in a foreign country
- Persons with access to classified defense information
- Persons having extraordinary financial difficulty

TSG Marlanas

Free Masonry Infiltrates, abuses, US Politics,

Espionage

I assert that a Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law as Subversion of the USA and my MKULTRA family genome is based in taking over charities, using charities as claimants against me thus manufacturing a popular and publicly accepted Conspiracy Against my Rights under color of [Law Fee Masonry Subversives in who are in Power feigning loyalty to the Constitution but actually looking out for themselves.

Left is Right and Right Is Left in the NWO USA

Subversion

Subversion (from the Latin word subvertere, ‘overthrow’) refers to a process by which the values and principles of a system in place are contradicted or reversed in an attempt to transform the established social order and its structures of power, authority, hierarchy, and social norms. Subversion can be described as an attack on the public morale and, “the will to resist intervention are the products of combined political and social or class loyalties which are usually attached to national symbols.

- Bribery : Bribery is one of the most common tools of subversion. Most societies see bribery as a form of corruption, and it used as a subversive tool because it “implies the undermining of existing rules of political or moral conduct.”[37] It can also be one of the less reliable tools as well. Bribed officials are only useful if they take action.

However, actions taken over a period of time draw suspicion from the public.

This book suggest people were told if they join a Cartel supporting fake allegations about Ed Donegan they will benefit from it. Tha false legend about Ed Donegan will include that he owes others for allged harms done to others.

- Money Laundering makes : the Racket of fabricated false cliams against Ed Donegan will be a group decided upon divied up Cartel beneift for the Cartel as it operates to erode and destroy Ed Donegan by allegations against me the Cartel pushes in public ways

Infiltration and establishing front groups

In order for a group to be successful in subverting a government, the group itself and its ideas must be seen as an acceptable alternative to the status quo. However, groups that work toward subverting a government, in many cases, follow ideas and promote goals that on their surface would not receive the support of the population

Therefore, “to gain public credibility, attract new supporters, generate revenue, and acquire other resources, groups need to undertake political activities that are entirely separate, or appear separate, from the overtly violent activities of those groups.

> Sometimes this is achieved by infiltrating political parties, labor unions, community groups, and charitable organizations.”

Offensive terror

> Offensive terror can be defined as the killing of people, destruction of property, kidnapping, etc. It is usually a minor part of subversion and “is used not to exert force in the transfer of state power, but is meant to cower the people or ruler.”

> A Sexual Attack Cartel of sapping in criminal racket activities the value of Ed Donegan life and biological assets by RICO activity organized participants into a Cartel of lethaly destructiove allegations against me funded and supported by enemies of me.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Cower

> Crouch down in fear. Jen Moore did not and reported the Infiltration of the US political system.

Many witnesses have been silence I believe Marylin Monroe was one of them, a deragtory record of her brain characteristics manufactured before her murder at the hands of the CIA who did not wish History to recognize her cognitive characteristics.

I believe the pillow over the face of Justice Scalia, played dwon in the press, was a warning not to talk about “The Family” aka D Ass Raper Gangstalk mobs.

Bribery

Bribery is one of the most common tools of subversion. Most societies see bribery as a form of corruption, and it used as a subversive tool because it “implies the undermining of existing rules of political or moral conduct.”[37] It can also be one of the less reliable tools as well. Bribed officials are only useful if they take action. However, actions taken over a period of time draw suspicion from the public.

Money Laundering makes

Fake claims from Neighborhood patrols of gang infested neighborhoods

The Marshals Service supports communities by transferring certain types of forfeited assets to state, local and nonprofit organizations. Through the Operation Goodwill program, forfeited real or personal property of marginal value can be transferred to state or local governments in support of drug abuse treatment, drug crime prevention and education, housing, job skills and other community-based public health and safety programs.

South Texas District Attorney under fire for writing 'ftp' on social media

The post included the hashtag "ftp," which is most known to stand for "F--- the police."

"Self funding" assets seizing Black Marshalls, Black Corpus Christi PD, Black FBI.

What these eyes, what my eyes, have seen.

HORROR!!

Tots spreading their legs and saying they are my pornography.

My mother's financial trust fund, 323k dollars or so, changed to a genomic "family grow fund" of new "family members like uh oh say the Obamas? Or how many others?

Somebody nearby filming these tots as though I did, then being "caught" when, as me, an adult entertainer finding the pics calls the US Marshalls who are fighting white supremcism as well and thus are also already on my trail.

Allegedly fighting white supremacism non whites are going to white adult entertainers and asking those adults to "catch" Edward Pauld Donegan (or more actually his impersonator) as a pedophile who secretly likes non white children.

It is more so that the non white US Marshalls like adult white women and use them to catch the impersonator of me, and when that happens, my genome goes to non whites, the adult entertainer, etc., and also buys the cars of the US Marshalls tracking white supremacism.

Lie: Edward Donegan eroticses minority children or any minors

Truth: Black Nationalist US Marshalls like being with Fake Edward Donegan when adult entertainers catch fake Edward Donegan with erotic pictures of minority children.

An Illuminati World Wide Espionage Agency Plot, not a USA Plot, manufacture false and after-the-fact rights to my genome and false legitimacy of "family members" of mine.

The dependency of the plot, surreptitious plot, manufactured by context is that I am a severly retarded loser how needs a trust fund manager, and that trust fund manager can break any contract for housing in normal life and keep me in homeless shelters of violent felons and threatening to kill me if a retarded person like goes to the library of study intellectual content.

Thus my genes seem of no interest to anyone, yet they do want the genes and they know why, but that is behind my back.

Surreptitious needs and surreptitious plots

Vocabulary.com surreptitious *

When someone behaves in a surreptitious way, they're being secretive. They're doing something that they don't want to be seen doing.

While surreptitious means secret, it has the added sense of "sneaky" or "hidden." During the Jewish Passover meal of Seder, an adult will surreptitiously place a piece of matzoh somewhere in the house for the children to hunt for later in the meal. You'll see surreptitious applied mostly to actions, rather than to things or ideas. We do things surreptitiously. The members of the secret society hold surreptitious meetings because, well, they're a secret society. I was very surreptitious in how I organized the surprise party: she never knew!

Cryptonyms and Digraphs and reading between the lines of public news of even science fiction or Hollywood story lines

Stegonography or Secret Writing uses “cyhper” (encoded) references to “clear text” (unencoded) information.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/CIA_cryptonym

Format of cryptonyms

Each CIA cryptonym contains a two character prefix called a digraph, which designates a geographical or functional area. Certain digraphs were changed over time; for example, the digraph for the Soviet Union changed at least twice.

Digraphs

Partial list of digraphs and probable definitions AE: Soviet Union 1960s
AM: Cuba
AV: Uruguay
BE: Poland
BG: Albania

The rest is either an arbitrary dictionary word, or occasionally the digraph and the cryptonym combine to form a dictionary word (e.g., AEROPLANE) or can be read out as a simple phrase (e.g., WIBOTHER, read as “Why bother!”). Cryptonyms are sometimes written with a slash after the digraph, e.g., ZR/RIFLE, and sometimes in one sequence, e.g., ZRRIFLE. The latter format is the more common style in CIA documents.

Abuse of Process (railroads)

After being driven out of California leases by assault in my home, rented apartments which the State conducted, I was forced to return to Texas. During the time in California I completed the first thirty days of rental and showed Wells Fargo Bank and Social Security billing at Salinas address. Black surrounded me during all phases including at Social Security office as I was using the machine on premisis wasting years of my life. People from Texas also surrounded me in the waiting chairs striking up conversation about how God and Science were really the same thing, the concept I and my father have fought against our whole lives. Texans harassed everywhere I went across the USA.

This book

Jim Vocelka and William Ruiz, Stay and Play and Capitola

Crisis Acting as foundation work in the Long Con, Stages of the Long Con on my Sperm Bank Rights

In the Lambda Green White chapter of this book this and more information is found on Cons or Long Cons, shakedown schemes.

Keep these in mind as I describe the trip to and arriving in Stay and Play.

Con artists cops out to get “Trump supporters” (STormfronters) will advise/falsify to Jim Vocelka who is on the way and enlist Jim Volcelka to handle the “emergency” in a “curbside justice” way which will shake me down for Social Justice before I am sent packing into homelessness.

Using me as cover story for blacks peeping and the peeping being caught by white glam dominatrices who will want nothing to do with Ed is part of a narcissistic rage built around black theory my family stole DNA from blacks and it is payback time and it is I who is the scum not blacks.

Per the blacks this Antifa like assault upon me and resultant claims to my children merely sets history and racial justice back to even.

Thus I am assaulted in my own home in long term persecution I have not been able to break free from.

Now, the list of witness starting with Stay and Play of assaults upon me meant to make me the suspect for the acts of others, the acts of those others under my identity will create false claims by those assailants to the rights to “my babies”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Confidence_trick

Stages of the con

In Confessions of a Confidence Man, Edward H. Smith lists the “six definite steps or stages of growth” of a confidence game.[7] He notes that some steps may be omitted.

Creating the Crisis

Foundation Work

Preparations are made in advance of the game, including the hiring of any assistants required. [Crisis Actors which will require others to take acts in the crisis]

The Hurrah

A sudden crisis or change of events forces the victim to act immediately. This is the point at which the con succeeds or fails.

Con People Seek the Assistence of Others in the Crisis

Approach

The victim is contacted. (in this case Jim Volcelka who will be drawn into criminal activity he thinks will not be caught. He otherwise as one of the “goodguys” would have had a great room mate tenant.)

Build-up

The victim is given an opportunity to profit from a scheme. The victim's greed is encouraged, such that their rational judgment of the situation might be impaired.

Pay-off or Convincer

The victim receives a small payout as a demonstration of the scheme's effectiveness. This may be a real amount of money, or faked in some way. In a gambling con, the victim is allowed to win several small bets. In a stock market con, the victim is given fake dividends.

Special Operators

The In-and-In

A conspirator (in on the con, but assumes the role of an interested bystander) puts an amount of money into the same scheme as the victim, to add an appearance of legitimacy. This can reassure the victim, and give the con man greater control when the deal has been completed.

A shill

also called a plant or a stooge, is a person who publicly helps or gives credibility to a person or organization without disclosing that they have a close relationship with the person or organization. Shills can carry out their operations in the areas of media, journalism, marketing, politics, confidence games, or other business areas. A shill may also act to discredit opponents or critics of the person or organization in which they have a vested interest through character assassination or other means.

A conspirator

(in on the con, but assumes the role of an interested bystander) puts an amount of money into the same scheme as the victim, to add an appearance of legitimacy to the scheme. This can reassure the victim, and give the con man greater control when the deal has been completed.

Effect of False Flag, effect of Crisis Acts acts on real person in whose identity the crisis was created in

In addition, some games require a “corroboration” step, particularly those involving a “rare item”[flim flam quackery claim of savant, etc.,]. This usually includes the use of an accomplice who plays the part of an uninvolved (initially skeptical) third party, who later confirms the claims made by the con[man.

Character assassination

(CA) is a deliberate and sustained effort to damage the reputation or credibility of an individual[1] The term could also be selectively applied to social groups and institutions. Agents of character assassinations employ a mix of open and covert methods to achieve their goals, such as raising false accusations, planting and fostering rumors, and manipulating information.

CIA Mockingbird - Does the Run setup the Pass or the Pass setup th

Normally abusiveness towards Person “A” (I call myself Rx as person A) in public is resultant from misconduct by Person “A”.

In my case the bullying of me creates the Legend of me, a false legend, underwhich Person “C” aka CIA can operate catching Person “B” (I call Tx) in conduct consistent with the bullyingo of me, thus selling to the public CIA backed misconduct of an imersonator of me as my misconduct.

The accusations by in-explicit foundation-less chest full of hot air not saying anything have been far removed from any truth about me but they person planting evidence has the chest full of hot air.

I spent years of my life around the clock trying to figure out why people planting evidence seemed to believe the phony conduct allegations against me, out of character for me, not me.

I came to learn as I head a “talloid” confess pretending to be me that a behavoiral charicturization of me had to be sold to the public, not specific enough for me to refute, such that the impersonator of me, selling that reputation, can then act as me under that reputation for misconduct tendencies and be believed, if the Legend of Ed Donegan, the CIA claim of who Ed Donegan is, gets accepted by key people.

The confession of Tx, the impersonator of me confessing to misconduct, must match the bullying towards me, Rx, the recipient of foundation-less abusive treatment.

In a totalitarian regime The effect of a character assassination driven by an individual is not equal to that of a state-driven campaign. The state-sponsored destruction of reputations, fostered by political propaganda and cultural mechanisms, can have more far-reaching consequences. One of the earliest signs of a society’s compliance to loosening the reins on the perpetration of crimes (and even massacres) with total impunity is when a government favors or directly encourages a campaign aimed at destroying the dignity and reputation of its adversaries, and the public accepts its allegations without question. The mobilisation toward ruining the reputation of adversaries is the prelude to the mobilisation of violence in order to annihilate them. Generally, official dehumanisation has preceded the physical assault of the victims.[10]

My arriving at Stay and Play

I was invited to Stay and Play and met then who was called Jim and Simply Cat and it was agreed I would move in and pay $600 per month.

I took the amount out in cash because I do not use paper checks and took the cash paper bill pocked from the bank and put into the interior of my motorcycle jack where an internal chest area pocket was.

As usual when I am in the vicinity of cash a Shill con artist scheme surrounds me as a leggy teen was near, strange people around, black Secret Service inside the bank including one male and one female with a graduated like drinking bottle which would be similar in description to my camping cooking one though I had left that for then at Capitola where I was moving from.

It was probably alleged I was trying to pick up the teen near the bank though a black probably was.

It was agreed when I would move in and prior to that day what I call a Bifurcation occurred. While another motorcyclist was near me in an open park I was called and asked why I wasn’t at that dinner at Stay and Play which btw I had not been told about and wasn’t going to anyway.

Likely at that dinner Jim Volcelka received false information about me as was enlisted by con artist to continue a con against me, a protection con which would get me into homeless shelters and social services and away from him and white females.

Jim Volcelka modified his building to what would be a peeping tom facility in the shower. Simply cat demanded the window open in the shower at all times including when I was using it. The wall was modified, etc.,

Women in muscle cars came into the facility, one sitting at the computer when my phone rang. I call that a Google Books Ploy. I use my phone and someone near me is photographed, behind my back those two facts are merged together.

Adult white reproductive healthy females missing and "the are really on to me" game was played, not accusation towards me but Jim V wearing a NYPD cap must of made me the/a suspect for what somebody else did.

I had contacted a Dominatrix i never heard back from but likely she was warned off me based on the fake allegations against me and saw a Doppelgänger of me who confessed to peeping and acknowledged my DNA was due to others because of that.

I was a great friendly and law abiding roommate and Jim V blew it. He was part of a protection racket shakedown in bad faith acts of making me LOOK retarded or savantish when he knew I was not. He felt letting the protection racket shake me down was good curbside justice.

He did thinks like coach me to put a motorcycle pouch on my rear bench handles knowing I already planned to do it and had the gear., etc., but felt it was for a good cause, much like those at Highlander Motel, who doesn't want to shake down a scum bag behind his back and send him packing.

The outrage and disbelief I hold continues that these insane criminals have been convinced their crimes are law abiding and my law abiding is crime.

In fact blaming me for the acts what Nazis would call the inferiors are said to be social justice. I am very neutral about things and without any sense of superiority. In fact I carry a few or one genetic disorder tied to ADD/Dyslexia, etc., which has been a hassle and I don't doubt myself in anyway because of it.

But I have turned to whites to find what motivated blacks to attack me and my mother over decades including black and others defaming with with persecution for acts and interests not my own.

Other than that behind my back Jim V said would not hurt me, and asking me to leave as Simply Cat requested, he was in some ways accommodating. Still, the damage can not be overlooked. I do believe somewhat in dupes, entrapment, and mass hysteria, and Jim Volcelka in part affected by that.

I have always wanted, expected, and demand better than faking sexual allegations against someone by scene elders, ever.

The common elements to the 200 People Witness List to be taken from Stay and Play are these.

Physical,sexual assaults, character assassination attacks upon me and evictions are heaped upon me by the Protection Racket.

Those attacks launched on me and publicly launched upon me are the cover story others use for their crimes and sexual misconduct and acts of racial predation.

Non white are willing to harm children if that harm can become a pretext for assaults on me.

Modification of the home to create a peeping tom allegation against me is done at the request of the Protection Racket so I can blamed for what usually I don't even know occurred or catch others who ARE involved in the generation of child porn., etc..

There is a strong propensity for this scam where I would live WITHOUT social services and it is social services who wish my DNA for non whites and operate the Protection Racket. The sexual misconduct allegation against me also prevent me from a white wife family I have sought.

During this time I was analyzing Capitola Santa Cruz GoPro footage and Doppelgangers and Jen Moore Pizzagate reporter was murdered, I think she was murdered to cover up my family history, Freemason interest in Feb 20 Full Term Spiritual Code for Yahweah, and why an impersonator was shaken down over “pizza” for DNA rights.

My primary motive for California trip was to displace the Doppelgänger to the BDSM Scene (Daemon Boyle, Stefanos, others) and to Genentech as well and I was emailing Genetech, Chris Lloyd, others at that time as well as Capitola Police and Fetlife Legal on the situation.

Another Ripple of this emanation registered at Wiliam Ruiz Capitola

I spent nearly all my time at Capitola either trying to fix the PC well enough for a legally blind person to be able to use OR, more likely, writing documents for Genetech, Capitola, Santa Cruz Police, and other law enforcement as well as document evenets as they were occurring.

William Ruiz was using the computer for his “sandwich” of white lesbians in the shower porn in my stolen clothes and with a chair “he assigned to me” moved from the condo in the development to likely another condo across the street.

In fact stealing my necessary items, riding gloves, eye goggle for laps, swim suits, motorcycle jacket, have been common assaults upon anything I do for safety.

Jim Volcelka would spit on my changing the music to pairs free skate to songs I like as peeping tom activity and he rather than I would be the peepoing tom in his own Stay and Play bed and breakfast, but assault on what I did do by claiming it is what I did NOT due is the scheme of making me the suspect for the black on white crimes committed by Black Nationalists such as William Ruiz, part black hispanic out to get “Nazi scum.”

In fact like Tom Dunham I spent about 20 years trying to prove the things in my vicinity and even in my home I a not involved in. Instead it is police activity alleged to Tom Dunham and I as others are in pizza pedo networks.

Though I did not get to Genentech all through my motorcycle trip to California that was my main goal. I also was going not from shower cam peeping as William Ruiz was, I was going to rope workshops, Rainbow adult supplies in Santa Cruz, and Pansexual LGBT BDSM events on the beach listing to band concerts with scene members etc.,

That is who I am and William Ruiz is who he is.

During the course of my stay at Capitola I alerted business owners that the activities around me were a scam (to no avail though) took documents to police department after police department to no avail.

The seedy disgusting world of CIA Midnight Climax run by DOD CIA Secret Service for trafficking in DNA rights is run by Government and they will kill to keep it secret as they killed Jen Moore who had the documents I was generating as Fetlife Legal did.

Nevertheless William RUiz took the “law enforcement positive” acts I was doing on the computer and turned it into HIS black nationalist “Fapping” to white lesbians, the Sandwich of Aug 10 2017 (2 days before Jen MOore death) and he did it the Aviator Glasses Cheap Shot character assassination way.

“Be sure to wipe yourself off that computer before you leave Ed.”

Of course, my documents of course. How was that shower cam peeping at the white girls William?

Another piece of this story was me surrounded at Capitola health club, me working out great and I should be doing that today, but a Doppelgänger of me and lesbians in that same club.

William Ruiz fapping to white women equals my DNA to blacks. How co mingling world.

In fact the Griffith Observatory and Utah Geologic museums are other things I cite of black nationalists defecating on my life.

It was my hope that getting into a scene reputable place would get me away from the fraud of William Ruiz and thus my own acts in between Capitola, Santa Cruz, and Salinas were one long ongoing act going back and forth between expected credible people and not finding any, even in law enforcement.

Part of the evidence I collected though on William Ruiz stealing my motorcycle jacked (it was a great time to hike, motorcycle ride, etc., by I lost all my life I would have led in the area to fighting William Ruiz) included a video of text messages screen shots, recordings, patterns of activities, events, etc., and I still think in that Jen Moore got the final peices of evidence SHE needed to help me and Jen Moore also hear my raging screaming pain at the US and all that it is right now and she wanted to help me.

Other Activities

One of the deepest resentments I hold is being stuck in the feces filth of Nueces when I had moved to Austin (and did before being ordered to leave my leased apartment apartment complex property at near gunpoint) when I wanted to join Sierra Club, bike, join motorcycle clubs, attend Libertarian and Web meetups, and so much more including the Austin BDSM and rope scene.

Richard Neal, an old hight tech friend was in a motorcycle meet-up I was joining, in the area as was Christ Lloyd I wanted to discuss matters with, and others I wanted to meet anew or reestablish friendships with.

The crackhead feces toilet buckets of human waste I am assaulted with is a stench so great I can not get Feces Stench Neuces out of my pours but the black prison felons are making sure they are “always above” a piece of shit like me.

I have black ghetto hurling feces at me and proud of it, and they started it and they oddly want to ‘have my baby.”

Other Common Elements To Take Away From William Ruiz and Jim Volcelka for RICO Pattern

People are asked (in part to defeat White Supremacism) to adopt my identity in some way (making statements in the first person as me but them speaking, stealing my clothes or phone, pretending their phone is mine, or a device not a camera I have is a camera) to allege peeping to me when they did it.

My being vigilante attacked especially publicly creates the cover story for their acts. I continue to demand an allegation such as “Ed photographed a woman or child” and instead mere cheap shots such as Aviator Glasses or law enforcement wear like t shirts and hats by those who were asked to comit the acts that I implied as the suspect of.

In this way use of my genome by racketeers seeing adult entertainers in my identity or KOMPROMAT shown to others by made by police back people seems to have been acts of my own. Rational analysis af an allegation against me because no actual allegation occurs.

Those hostile to me will handle accusations made against me behind my back and agree to those allegations.

A very common elements that probably has something to do with transcripts are people speaking lines which should be mine.

After I came back from a long motorcycle camping trip and was using a home shower for the first time in weeks William Ruiz said “it sure is nice taking a shower after not doing so for weeks” and note the shower reference. Jim Vocelcka spoke in the first person as me taking military IQ tests as ASVAB MEPs but then not enlisting, doing the same thing (cryptanalust) in the private sector.

I guess Jim Volcelka when caught by a domina peeking in the Stay and Play shower will be able to sign his genetics to the retarded.

This book

The Jim Vocelcka Question

Etiology and the Jim Vokelcka Question

As Jim Vokelca did what others did, persecute me as a Nazi and fake being me to sign my DNA away to others prior to evicting me at his female co occupants request, he posed a question I now know is a quesion of Etiology

> Why would we frame you as retarded and why would we sign your genome away to social justice as we frame you, you being a right winger [suggesting Nazi though behind the accusation of MAGA TRump supporter]?

Grammer clipped writing on paper, choking on food like Artichokes, speeking rapadily in ADHD like spastics or mumbly quick slur, much like handwriting, is not being retarded. It is FOXP2 but hiding that I have London KE FOXP2 has been an issue for me in Behavoiral Health in disguised the clear quality and genetic origins of my brain, making me seem retarded by interfering with normal developed adult mind life.

Reaper Path now is novel and create confusion

Reaper Path now is novel and create confusion

Reaper Path now is novel and create confusion

Reaper will defame Sower to Community, Ask to be accepted instead

May also rob Sower's original work

Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition

When Police or private allies help plant KOMPROMAT and/or create or enforce roadblock Conspiracy Against Rights

In another section I will list many like Dr. Charney, Ryan, Augustus, and others switched out so different, almost always non white, "hit job" environments and diagnosis takeover with malicious mischaracterizations of me, I think part of DARPA Twins Study covert FBI CIA NSA Secret Service work in the Brain Program making me an unlikely candidate to share brain genes with those that I do share brain genes with.

My brother spent most of his life doing hit jobs on both my mother and I overty lying and trying to hide both our DNA continaing clothes and items, photos, anything of the like.

Whether he himself knew it or not the answer this book poses to that question of Etiology, what gave rise to this black market racket, is the need for Black Hebrew Isrealites to lay claim to GLorian Donegan Ed Donegan DNA around the world in interracial missionary use and end that genome in the United States and accomplish the illegal goal off the books, hidden. Illegal ends by illegal means.

This starts to introduce the protection racket I call Weekend at Bernies or Extortion17 in which the need for a protector, an asset manager will be setup, and that same asset manager hostile to me will fake evidence against me and “double dip” being both the representative of the retarded, autistic, and low IQ non white or gay seeking IVF, and as SJW for them, litigate against me who they also want to represent.

Hostile to me and probably the same black felon types who surrounded my mother and I, engaging in “payback” for alleged crimes of my mother (Nazi Kutscheras?.)

But for the motive of gaining furtive access to her genome the co-operating Illuminati seeking to help minority families effectively shifted the represented Pooled Trust of half the sale of Glorian Donegans home, the principle dollar amount she refused to touch for 30 years (never using the principal so it could be inherited) and faked for her genome a Master Trust effectively behind the scenes, faking me as need a trust after her death and then settling false claims of other covered retarded children such that my mothers cash value of their home was turned into genomic feed to non-whites.

Such a system of settling conflicts with me including sexually abusive ones, while benefiting the assailants needs deprived me of the assault free environment I would have enjoyed. damnum emergens aka opportunity cost.

Is Edward Paul Donegan a clone (no) of Baptist Church or clone of Baptist CHruch “little brown princesses” work of Salvation Army work with Glorian Donegan DNA, or work with Trinity Bapstist Church Chicago, Glorian genome used by the Baptist chruch in 1961 and 1996, and will Edwdward Donegan drop like a homeless housefly because he is not a Baptist like the other God Fearing clones who do have housing?

Will that get rich Baptist ministers off the hook if I do drop like a homeless housefly?

I am evicted on pretexts from places I shoudl live then on religious property fake religious allegations undermine me and I don’t have religous housing either.

“Those, which they have cloned, to look like those, who will be taken out, will begin to drop dead like houseflies. I am against the clones. I am against the genetic sciences, which they have devised to destroy My purity. I am against the evil alchemists, who play god. When they least expect it, I shall utterly destroy them. Go this day in peace, my Child; and know that My love for you is great. I am your Father in Heaven, yea

Jehovah, Most High God.

I was hit by radiological attack and my mother stalked and hit by it too in 2011, me in 2009 and Ted Gunderson and others in 2009.

This is precisely what I sued over and requested Federal Defender assistance with Process Service (since I don't trust the Marshalls) but in the court room B Janice Ellington, south Texas Federal District Court, forced to return after losing other leases, and then she merely threw unsubstantiated cheap shots at me for allegedly harming children, perhaps intoning at Stay and Play or she was furtively referring to Capitola California or something in Texas that fits that.

Jim Volkelca made a huge point out of why would we be framing you (Ed Donegan) as retarded when you are not, and when only to gain access to a trust fund amount of $160k (half of 320k or so) was at stake? such chicken Feed! For a rich guy like Jim Volcelka. Obviously they had NO motive to fake a case against my trust fund or the requirement fo a trust fund. Which the Rockefellers might want. Maybe that last things was the reason.

I believe it was the Obamas who were born of Glorian DOnegan ovum and others now want control of it to cover-up MKULTRA Birtherism/Truther and the fake birth certificate of Barack Obama, and his attempt to protect his children from controversy.

Blacks have long said what garbage I am, I do seem very close to the garbage can in this photo.

Unable to rent apartments, stay in shape, nothing at all like Barack Obama or his children, and need of someone to manage his DNA. A person who must be in need of money managers

More on Etiology and Benefits Prosecutors can bring to County Hospitals and Goodwill Industries Programs with Asset Seizures

In fact by claiming County social services victims those victims and other programs generally can claim biologically seized assets including those religious groups involved.

Some of the ploys

What I call the Double Dip Ploy of Photocopied Books that is to say of my amino acid sequences.

Like a realtor with a seller listing who also finds a buyer or a market maker representing both the buyers and sellers of financial product, these SJWs who represent blacks, gays, autistic, low IQ minorities set themselves up with a flase claim I need them to manage me too, allegedly that I am schizophrenic or low IQ or autistic or savant so therefore false claims can be mounted against my brain genes.

The theory is that since they are only creating rights to my brain genes with false claims of me victimizing their other clients then therefore no damage has been done to real me.

In fact that is not true. It is based on social justice hatred of a white and by non whites who incite vigilantism against me for their own demons demons of theirs they let out while dressed as me.

White women are victimized by peepers claiming to be me.

I am blamed and isolated and litigated against by the unwanted conservator who denies real accounting.

The vigilantism is supposed to and does have lethal consequences against myself including evictions for the acts of others and manufactured or resultant conditions I am subjected to.

In fact Christian ministries representing those I hate as much as Christians set this up. It is a way to dab away from an Atheist what religions have no right to.

Forcing me out my homes and INTO homeless shelters

This chapter (like all chapters in this book) re-write some information from the earlier book.

In this chapter I will write about being forced into social services by social services proxies of me violating my own rights which are normal and my own, exactly so they can prevent my housing, et al.,, from coming from anyone other than their mental health services.

Being in Social Services, I never needed or wanted or signed up for, gives Social Services a proxy claim to administer, without disclosure to me, my financial and biological assets.

Blacks in Social Services Blocking My Austin white family life: Enslavement to Corpus Christi Texas and a black lead Retardation Children's Fund

Even before beginning, some may say the fact of the attempted moves to Austin are vaguely stated first hand accounts of mine.

True but t h i s .. y e a r .. a lo n e .. 2018 I had valid leases at 42nd Ae Capitola, CA, and Salinas 19020 Karen Dr, Salinas, CA "Kink BnB, and CasaLinda Apartments, Corpus Christi.

42nd Street Capitola, CA

> At 42nd Ave Capitola, William Ruiz stole my motorcycle jacket, at least, from my room, and moved the chair I normally sat at to falsify his identity as mine in an impersonation, also shouting abusively at me about what a Nazi scum piece of shit I was we we had never talked politics even once in the short time we knew each other.
>
> He also faked my voice by this method. He lived in a two bedroom condo advertised on Craig's list I moved into on an ongoing rental leasee, handshake, for the unused bedroom. I had been camping for weeks prior to > that. He said, as though me, “It sure is nice showering after not having had showered for weeks!” setting up the sound of his voice as my while he also had stolen my clothing.

>
> Evidence exists of this including a recording of him.

Karen Drive, Salins, CA

> In the next rental in California these plain clothes police backed harassment schemes continued and were even worse.
>
> Clothes were stolen (my lap swim clothes and goggles) and Jim Volckelcka said to me things that applied to me rather than him. Jim Vokelcka said to me “I had taken the Military Entrances Processing Center ASVAB (vocational aptitude) Test but decided not to enlist and did the same thing privately.”
>
> This applied to me. I had taken that test in Oakland California, scored so high on the IQ piece I was questioned about cheating before cleared, offered Naval Intelligence Service Cryptographic Analyst or Flight Fire Control seat.
>
> In my private high tech life I did a lot of work on cryptographic technology in network security.

All Together Now

In both cases (of these two recent examples of the harassment) I was framed as being a sexually knowledgeable naive boy who like preschool children needed to learn about female anatomy and this frame job of me continues in public and out of me control.

this housing activity seemed to interplay with the health club I was in at the Capitola and Salinas locations, mirroring the Gold's Gym and other health clubs, also staffed by US Marines.

Gyms and Health in the Monterrey Bay Area during this

> On hikes and in the gyms planted females, including teens, made bizzare and uwnated inuendo.
>
> In gyms, as usual, black former marines, no white women, scum scuzzy looking people flooding the gym for and keeping equipment I needed tied up, and pretend coaching or pretend workout partner with me.
>
> As always I had to take the Tmobile chip out of the phone to prevent disruption of PLAY of music when women were in the area, which caused me to have to press PLAY again.
>
> As I took the chip out what happened instead is people, mostly women, I did not know would get on treadmills next to me and start waving their arms around as other women were near me, all of which was distracting and out of my control.

As I told Jim Volcekla of Salinas Karen Dr KinkBnB I had done thousands of BDSM scenes in the Goth Fetish Industrial scene, including observing scene for safet as the backup Dungeon Master at the most famous club, where I still have VIP For Life membership, was the houselave of some of the best known dominatrices including of the club Bound (Athena,) and had an old horse farm Concord CA residence with attached barn which furnished as a dungeon as was every room of the house, and repeatedly through 50 to 100 people orgies and oversaw them for safety including observing penetrations and insuring safe word observance, and I had a live in slave at that very house name Meridith who was under slave color to me.

None of this harassment, assault, or defamation of me, in my leased housing, has any legitimacy.

This sexually assault of me police brutality of me is what keeps me homeless.

My rent on Salinas Kink BnB was 600 per month I should have lived there with my motorcycle, my car, my 2K per months, my book revenue, and my mothers trust fund.

And my white wife who I would double date with in Monterrey County with joining Jim and his wife.

Free from diabetes, outdoors, and healthy. This is what the government had to stop at all costs, and it did.

2014 Arlington Sport and Health, taken over by blacks

Gym access was hard to get. When I had $18,000 in unused social security as well as my regular social security monthly amount, and a family trust found of $160,00 for medical and similar use, it took over three hundred email and other attempts to get a gym membership, valued at $50 per month, this when I had an A1c of 13.3 and I showed to everyone.

Diabetes is going to be the cause of death, and the further I fought to get healthy, the more the conservancy has fought against me, including from within the gym.

When I die, certain problems related to the Donegan family line get eliminated.

So the question, “What harm does this all do?” has this answer

Unwanted parties tied to my brother have been trying to, and achieving, the circumstances of my homeless celibate death, and this is achieved through the creation of hostile conservancies trying to bring about my death by proxying for me to undermine my life.

Switching Jim Volcelka’s Pez Dispenser for mine seems to have been an Obama family request and I think I now know why.

Moving my family DNA into the Obama family line and ending Jim Donegan’s family line.

Bitchute and Salinas KinkBnB Money Laundry and Political Frames

DISASTER REEL SALINAS KINK BNB

And

DISASTER REEL CASPER

Salinas Kink BnB

- Barack Obama seems to be hiding in the plants

- Quackery, alleging paraphilias including pedophilia, peeping, preference to masturbate not my preference than to be with women is my preference and mental and sexual retardation, my needing of an Retarded Children Advocacy.

- First strike politically motivated vigilantist attack on me and incitement of others to vigilantism against me

    - I spent 30 years trying to understand black on white hostility against me and scams of white females any where near me. I finally found a world rico plot of keeping me single, out of housing, out of jobs, out of normal environments, on the basis of back stabbing manufactured evidence, persecution of me money and laundering of my genes by non whites as I APPEAR disabled and out of normal environments

- Fake retardation claim, as though I need coaching to attach tool bag to bike

- Money laundering undisclosed genes values into adult entertainment industry

    - Stassia as a web site and adult toys supplies

    - Pay up or Be Arrested scams on planted evidence and impersonators punished by the Dominatrix industry and an adult entertainer

- Impersonation first person speech confusion accomplishes that and was used at 42nd Ave Capitola,

Golds Gym Corpus Christi, Arlington VA, at least

- Aliases akak cutouts someone who had size 13 feet was shopping online for boots and guns. I have size 13 feet and would be attributed to me.

- Clothes of Law Enforcement, wearing NYPD cap while assaulting me with baseless innuendo of that which would not withstand any scrutiny if actually named, and in conjunction with that, manufacturing the evidence needed to support the innuendo near my presence but in ways not involving me

- Murder, Whistle blower Jen Moore murdered to coverup what I was documenting, and the police were not responding to my calls

- Conspiracy against my housing and sexual reproductive rights

- Conspiracy against religious rights and beliefs including misuse of atheist works in the New and Duex Electro and my book rights exposing the Opus Dei conspiracy

    - Jim Volcelcka talked of a book rights deal as THOUGH me

    - Tried to get me to write UIX for religous grave markers

    - Sold me out to my religious enemies

Typically, it involves three steps: placement, layering, and integration.

- the illegitimate funds are furtively introduced into the legitimate financial system. (ARC Northern Virginia denied any starting accounting or geno assets accounting in setting up trust fund)

- Then, the money is moved around to create confusion, sometimes by wiring or transferring through numerous accounts (Doppelgangers, ERosX, etc.,)

- Finally, it is integrated into the financial system through additional transactions until the “dirty money” appears “clean”.

According to the United States Treasury Department

> Money laundering is the process of making illegally-gained proceeds (i.e., “dirty money”) appear legal (i.e., “clean”). Typically, it involves three steps: placement, layering, and integration.
>
> - First, the illegitimate funds are furtively introduced into the legitimate financial system.
> - Then, the money is moved around to create confusion, sometimes by wiring or transferring through numerous accounts.
> - Finally, it is integrated into the financial system through additional transactions until the “dirty money” appears “clean”

Crime

The payout to the racketeering influenced crime org could vary. Its employees or clients may receive the benefit of the value due others, its goals may be served in its mission, or some other benefit received to the organization which participates in the money laundering.

Quackery

The ARC of Northern Virginia has used quackery from the outset to undermine the fact i never needed them or signed up for them. When; for instance, I first moved to Texas I found and bookmarked Texas information lines and other resources for a Texas payee. ARC of Northern Virginia pretentiously sent me the same information as though my helper, after the fact, attempting to establish themselves as the source of what I had done, a regular pattern of Bunko activity ARC of Nova has displayed, use of quakerty to created the claimed need I am said to have for them.

In fact the quackery just facilitates step two of money laundering, creating an account of mine with them they can then confuse with their other accounts.

The entire scam is medical supplies fraud, siezing healthy kidney from me so it can be resold to those who need one under the pretense my healthy one needs to be removed.

Forcing me into indigence

I never asked for SSDI nor a trust fund.

My brother, backing the National Institute of Health, to my mother, organized both.

Illegal criminal harassment of my rights (by my brothers proxy of me) to live at these places, and not retardation housing, forced me out Ballpark West and other normal housing.

Exactly what my brother wanted, hostile to my OWN situation, but favorable to his Obama connected goals.

It was retardation services who illegal forced me out of my legitimate lease thus I could be forced into retardation housing, them further racketeering me into THEIR services diminuizing me.

My car seemed to break down (a black male was in the car who did not seem to work for the autoshop I had it preventive maintenance serviced at,) a black female seemed to be stalking some way as I bought the fuel service additive, gays seemed to trash my phone calls as I made inquiries, my right to lease was twice disrupted.

I think the purpose of people interjecting themselves into sabotage, conspiracy, against my human rights is simply to enslave me into social services, who, by proxy of me, are merely sabotaging me.

Some of the sequence of events here is useful to note again.

I made sure the ARC of Northern Virginia were not involved, thus not in position to block anything from my moving downtown to the capital of Texas in a University Town of High Tech USA workout in the best bicycling town in the USA.

Everything SJWs would never permit.

It wasn't just that those two moves to Austin were undermined, it was that after that a tree seemed to try to destroy my apartment, in my absence during Hurricane Henry, targeting my apartment in particular.

Retarded black females in need of human dna kept saying I was or had signed up for their social services allowing them, per the agreement, them to speak and act for me.

I have for twenty years been saying absolutely no way does anyone speak or act for me.

Blacks of SJW Services

Trinitas Nsabimana

2:12 PM (1 hour ago)

Donegan,

The Trust Department received a disbursement request from you to pay Highlander Motel Arlington the amount of $736.19.

After review by the Director of Trusts, this request was disapproved. As the end of November 2018, we received $17,000 worth of disbursements, half of which were hotel fees. Our recommendation is to look for permanent housing. Below is a link to the Arlington County Housing grant information.

https://housing.arlingtonva.us/get-help/rental-services/local-housing-grants/

Please contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Trinitas Nsabimana,

Account Manager

Tel: 703-208-1119 (Ext: 119)

This book

Roadblocking, Disruption of Continuous Event Paths

the Claims and Counter claims of Mac Lamar Management (property manager) and Edward Paul Donegan (renter)

MacLamar claims I violated the lease when I had an angry outburst. My counter-claim is they precipitated my angry outburst quite literally by intentionally angering me with an abusive and harassed apartment environment.

Charivari, alternatively spelled shivaree or chivaree and also called skimmington, was a European and North American folk custom in which a mock parade was staged through a community accompanied by a discordant mock serenade. Wikipedia

This parade occurs outside my window as I try to concentrate on writing my book.

Psychic driving was a psychiatric procedure of the 1950s and 1960s in which patients were subjected to a continuously repeated audio message on a looped tape to alter their behaviour. In psychic driving, patients were often exposed to hundreds of thousands of repetitions of a single statement over the course of their treatment. The procedure was pioneered by Dr. D. Ewen Cameron, and used and funded by the CIA's Project MKUltra program in Canada.

Conduct of others as stimuli to the victim of a Gang Stalk is designed to be visually or auditoraly abusive and distracting and cognitively disruption (on a temporary or permanent basis) of brain patterns, diverging them for normal life into extreme rage, racial rage, anti American rage, or even anti RFK rage as some have asserted, like Tsarneve, the time in the USA led to cultivated hatred of the USA and thus they become the visible attackers of the USA.

Further Ed Donegan asserts in violation of 18 USC 1512 Mac Lamar is conributing to disrupting robbing and harassing my home office and home to undermine my book writing, fair use of the leased home, and attempts to provide information on the Deep State that assassinated many members of the Kennedy and other families.

Original Person	Roadblock Tree In Road	Identity Thief	Original Path now is now under way with identities switched out
Identity Thief (black male)
Original Person did not move forward

Road Blocking

Roadbloacking as it applies to MacLamar

Original Person/ apartment needs toilet fixed, building management #	PATH Roadblock discontinui CALLS Building supe did not have repair part him, would have to come back later	Identity / identification Theft	Original Path now is now under way with apartment identities switched out
Another Person in other department	Original person now possibly tied to this identity

Original person has unfixed toilet	Leas in Non Performance #

Road Blocking

In my apartment 46 the connecting chain between flushing arm and the stopper broke and for months the apartment management refused to fix the problem. I simply tied a piece of wire in place of the chain or used a pale of water to flush the toilet while I waited for the property manager to respond.

As I continuously pushed the point the Mac Lamar person upon arrival said vaguely “I need to take a photo of that” and did and then said he need a flush kit which he did not have with him.

Not having the kit with him blocked him from the continuous chain of events of fixing my toilet and it appears from what I was able to hear in 46 he had gone a couple of floors below to 26 where a scene was staged of a peeping tom toilet and enraged community members outside the windows skidding their cars around.

The service all to repair my toilet with a permanent solution is in non-performance and the property management call to some other location switch that location’s activities into the start of my service call.

IMG_20210117_084518308.jpg 1/17/2021

> Most toilets have a standard flush valve. … Changing a flush valve in a standard toilet is a fairly easy project that can be done by most homeowners. If you have a running toilet and have replaced the flapper, but this did not stop water from leaking out of the tank, your > toilet may need a new flush valve.

>
> - Google “People also ask”

If members of the community were harmed by the activities in 26 then that could appear in the chain of events be a liability of mine which could be presented to asset managers and the community generally as a sham complaint about me, a false allegation.

If I am evicted for any such activities unfolding at other apartments confused with mine that is the manufacture of pretexts in conspiracy against rights and conspiracy against property.

From day one I moved in I had been told by a black in unit 40 that blacks were the “power race” and there seems to have been intentional provocations of racial give and take that has harmed my wish for peaceful relations with all.

Any dispute here was founded in frauds out of my control and the building is in nonperformance of service calls and living conditions.

Braggadocio acts of suggestive behaviors (not statements) behaviors like skidding cars around operated by Neighborhood Watch have no specifications, not statements to subject to examination, no test of an allegation, but the braggadocio in the community via behavior will sell to the public behind my back a specific allegation is valid. My trust fund probably agrees to the specification, the specification is NOT stated to me.

For man in this migrant farm worker community the narrative that a white establishment alt right male is harming them and owes them is a narrative they want and ALSO my conservator wants.

So where else does this chart apply to a Targeted Individual

Road Blocking

In the above example the roadblock was the buidling repair man did not have the flush kit.

In other examples, per what a AT&T installer told me the telephone wiring pairs to my apartment had been [his word here] “sabotaged” before I moved in, thus I never had WiFi for researching my book, communicating, etc., and I suspect my telephone lines were directed to some other apartment.

The Building numbers appeared to undergo an offset of one unit number after I signed my lease but before I took occupancy and per the renatal management company my name was used (by others) for other apartment units and I had no control over that confusion.

Some apartment number labels on the doorways have been tampered with or removed or false claims apartments are cojoined when they are not.

"If you can't win the factual contest win the referee of the contest then you won the factual contest."

The building management is creating this fraud and the exact same frauds occured at the South TExas Federal District Courthouse when I sued.

Road Blocking at South Texas Federal District Courthouse

CIA Front Operation and planted CIA Magistrate

I believe a Blackwater Enrique Prado like CIA backed group is behind this, behind the MKUTLRA connected powers, and misuses of my DNA, and my normal if it had existed is a threat to them and what they have already done, thus I fear from these Rackets spanning not only private but public institutions.

Criminal Harassment Under Color Of Law, Sexual Harassment, or other harassment is a large a threat as the level of power of the harasser and I am up against some of the greatest evil of history, MKULTRA.

The Compounding Scramble of Data from its original form by the Enigma Keyboard Plug

Wikipedia retrieved from Enigma machine and copied or modified to here

The Enigma machine is a cipher device developed and used in the early- to mid-20th century to protect commercial, diplomatic, and military communication.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here > cipher

>
> a scramble of that which is clear into a moved around soup
>
> scramble
>
> scramble of data out of its clearness into something else not the original data decipherable

> Capable of being explained or accounted for: accountable, explainable, explicable, illustratable, interpretable.

Enigma has an electromechanical rotor mechanism that scrambles the 26 letters of the alphabet

Like other rotor machines, the Enigma machine is a combination of mechanical and electrical subsystems. The mechanical subsystem consists of a keyboard; a set of rotating disks called rotors arranged adjacently along a spindle; one of various stepping components to turn at least one rotor with each key press, and a series of lamps, one for each letter.

[Like rotating the wheel which changes one letter to a differnet one, the change of apartment unit numbers in a crossed way is like this altering the pathway of what would be and was one thing into another thing.]

The repeated changes of electrical path through an Enigma scrambler implement a polyalphabetic substitution cipher [letters, like apartment units] get their identity switched creating a soup of confusion]

The plugboard (Steckerbrett in German) permitted variable wiring that could be reconfigured by the operator

Enigma Keyboard - Keyboard Plug alters letters type - Enigma Wheels rotate letters around - Confusing but later reversable text

[These are EXTRA switch out capabilities beyond the scramble. In my case misrepresentation of me by others agree to what I would not, and telephone calls are misdirected by fake cell towards. These are extra layers, extra ways, the real data, the real truth, can be obfuscated even further

True	True
Wrong full chain of events	Rotor Data apartment units switch around
Misrepresentation of me agrees to garbled data	Keyboard plug changes letter as typed
Distruth, Bunko, agreed to	Garbled Data but agreed to in garbled form in cell to left of this

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> cipher
>
> Cipher comes from the Arabic sifr, which means “nothing” or “zero.” The word came to Europe along with the Arabic numeral system. As early codes substituted numerals for letters to hide the word’s meaning, codes became known as ciphers.

A Conspiracy Against Rights by Pretexts of “zero” truthful information.

I am suggesting the Targeting of me has meant use of garbled data of zero value, mostly from paid actors or rigged proceedings for that information to be a Conspiracy Against my Rights via baseless pretexts for State acts like evictions, suing my trust fund, encouraging others to ostracize me, etc.,

Landlords can both plant evidence and show that evidence if the building management chooses to cooperate with police, and because access to the apartment is not supervised the surreptitious access the validity of activities are already suspect.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> surreptitious
>
> When someone behaves in a surreptitious way, they're being secretive. They're doing something that they don't want to be seen doing
>
> While surreptitious means secret, it has the added sense of "sneaky" or "hidden." During the Jewish Passover meal of Seder, an adult will surreptitiously place a piece of matzoh somewhere in the house for the children to hunt for later in the meal. You'll see surreptitious applied mostly to actions, rather than to things or ideas. We do things surreptitiously. The members of the secret society hold surreptitious meetings because, well, they're a secret society. I was very surreptitious in how I organized the surprise party: she never knew!
>
> adj. kept secret, especially because it would not be approved of. "they carried on a surreptitious affair" - Google Dictionary from Definitions from Oxford

Languages

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Sneak and peek warrant

A sneak and peek search warrant is a search warrant authorizing the law enforcement officers executing it to effect physical entry into private premises without the owner's or the occupant's permission or knowledge and to clandestinely search the premises; usually, such entry requires a stealthy breaking and entering. Wikipedia

Landlord Access

No Texas statute addresses landlord's entry, but Texas courts have held that a landlord may not enter the rental property unless entry is authorized by the lessee. … Since no Texas laws state when a landlord can enter a rental property, the rules default to the lease agreement.

At 1001 N. Water Street the North 4th Floor

Swimming Pool	Notes
	By 48 and 4B those two units seem confusable and or peeping tied per hallway chatter and old abondoned furniture of mine, brown couch, is on outdoor catwalk of 4B
	46 and 47 are sometimes listed as 46 and

46-46 as if these apartments are one unit and it appears so from catwalk outdoor placed fake property lines and impersonators of me change out but are 47 with the same move in date as 46, me.

The apartment has been pre stocked, before my move in, with racial race bating provocateurs describing blacks as the power race, a black male in unit 49, same move in date as me, who along with others in Corpus Christi made statemenets like “it will be us who will be eating tacos, not you.”

Catwalk Balcony	40
45	44	43	42	4A	Electric	40
	Unit 43 has non building standard numer stickers as apartment unit 4A has standard and sticker, Compositing (described in a later chapter) may fuse 43, 48, and 4B
	Indoor hallway
46	47	48	48	4B	elevator	49
Gas Station and Dumpster	49

The Special Case of Unit 42

The occupants of 42 seem like MS13 gang members.

Filthy dregs of society usually are next to the “show” location and hide themselves from cameras, are armed and dangerous felons, and use “Neighborhood Watch” stickers, drive muscle cars far out of their means, while on drugs, “legal” and pot smoke billowing from the cars which skid around.

My best guess is these are MS13 or MS13 inside Black Hebrew Israelite church groups tied to Organized Crime and as part of Organized Stalking who will as criminals recruited as Neighborhood Watch help “catch” a law abiding citizen peep on the adjoining unit by stealing the identity of the law abiding citizen.

This is the person at activity in my vicinnity I am not involved in but as a “fake hero” will become the hero by alleging I victimized his neighborhood.

I confronted the black man in the muscle car in some type of street theater with the life long malnourished black woman. Tbe black male in the muscle car likely had no education above the fifth grade level for the United States.

The Surveillance of me leads to an ambush of this activity I sought as it is roadbloacked and taken over

Is Mistress S Methodist?

https://www.donatelladen.com/mistress/S-1768/

https://www.history-events.info/year/1768

Events in year of 1768

> 02-11Samuel Adams letter, circulates around American colonies, opposing Townshend Act taxes

> 02-151st mustard manufactured in America advertised, Philadelphia

> 02-201st American chartered fire insurance company opens (Penn)

> 04-051st US Chamber of Commerce forms (NYC)

> 06-211st US bachelor of medicine degree (Dr John Archer)

> 08-25Captain James Cook departs from Plymouth with Endeavour to Pacific Ocean

> 10-01English troops under general Gauge lands in Boston

> 10-301st Methodist church in USA initiated (Wesley Chapel, NYC)

> 12-061st edition of “Encyclopedia Brittanica” published (Scotland)

Wesley Chapel, NYC

America's 1st Methodist church more than a historical landmark retrieved from By Raquel LaneriNovember 23, 2016, New York Post and copied or modified to here

The Methodists took an even more active role in social justice when one of its first African-American members, a slave named Peter Williams, expressed fear of going on the auction block after his Loyalist master high-tailed it back to Europe. Wesley Chapel bought Williams, and granted him his freedom in 1784. A decade later, Williams had his own prosperous tobacco business and a home on Liberty Street nearby. And in 1796, he and one of John Street's black deacons formed the country's first all-black Methodist congregation, the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, out of Wesley Chapel. That church now operates out of Harlem.

> "The Methodist Church begins here in lower Manhattan, just a few blocks from Five Points, one of the earliest African-American settlements in New York City," said New York historian Kenneth Jackson, explaining John Street's important role in African-American history.

> "For many people, the civil-rights highway is the church."

From: Ed Donegan EdInLimbo©protonmail.ch

Date: Fri, 12 Feb 2021 06:55:22

To: Donatella©donatelladen.com

Subject: attn S: Open to this scene space ?

I am as always seeking legal activity in all maners, but I am into darkly brutal and strict BDSM, torture is a word I like the sound of and seek a Mistress comfortable with.

I am trapped in skid row hell hole Texas at the moment. If I just watched porn, it might be on the boundary of legal or illegal on community standards basis though I have no interest in anything other than athletic adult females on consensual activities.

Female or male subbing is fine, me or seeing a female suib but Iam interested female tops.

So the porn in borderline but a consenting session is between only us, and mere fantasy talk less of a problem the most likely thing.

I am also looking to move to NYC or other scene friendly locations to get me out of Gregg Abbot or Ken Paxtons or George Bushs God fearing Texas.

I would rather fear S. :-)

I am the subject of illegal targeting, a CIA NSA FBI technique of continuing story of illegal sceince tied to an freak named Sidney Gottlieb (CIA DARPA DOD) and I and my family involuntarily got signed of for lifelong stalking when I was bourn under the Manhattan Project and radiation testing long term affects, my father in US ARMY AIR COPS bomber escort in p-51.

Neither of use have privacy in this matter.

https://fetlife.com/inbox

What is Targeted and being Targeted by the NSA?

Please ignore any activity directed towards you by these morons. THx

https://www.surveillancesurvivors.org/introduction.html

Coincidence in Sower's path

Me being near a black handkerchief and some sort of appearance of me near at "rough play" handkerchief symbol appeared to involve me in what I sowed but was taken over by somebody else.

Odd behavior in 43 with gay women just moving in accused me (wrongfully) of misconduct towards one of those females, and as I walked the halls doing laudry a "punishmnt"

during an S and M roleplay involved making babies with DNA

Reaper will defame Sower to Community, Ask to be accepted instead

The black man in 47 was moving around in the hallways and also another person in the hallway, I think 4B dropped a black handkerchiff near me as if to place me in activities by apearances in the public hallway

Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition

Sower Reaper Roadblocjing. Sower is blocked, Reaper moves in

Philip Rushton, Mineasota Twins Study, and R and K Reproductive STrategies

I use through this book a scheme tied to money laundering, “money shot” as genetic value that is transferable by a court or conservator, and fake claims to “the money.”

Philip Rushton in Race Evolution and Behavior proposed what others have summarized as “Brains versus Dicks,” that Knowledgeable civilizations will behave in civilized ways as those con-formant with civilized conduct will thrive including in status and reproductive opportunity.

More aggressive and animalisic behavior was built around sexual predation as forceful conduct.

In order to gain my genome when I am engaged in my normal civilized conduct predators engage in a predatory way inserting predatory claims to genome based on non abusiveness towards me rather than civilized conduct.

Here is an example of predatory conduct targeting reproductivity when I was engaging in normal Civilized conduct, Knowledge based socities.

New occupants were moving into 43 and I had no idea who they were. As I was doing laundry and going down the hall the door was open and I saw a few people, “smoking out” with each other as they put a new apartment together in move.

I introduced myself and they were working with tools as the male said trying to hang something, I think a picture but maybe a TV though out of view of me.

I offered my tool box with hammer, etc., when the male asked for a philips head and later offered my power drill. THey already had that but DID want a tray of screws and thanked me for that saying they needed it.

I offered to show them the cabinets I had built using that very drill but a the female answered the door and said she was not interested in that.

later the male returned and returned my tools, still glad he had borrowed them, but said the female did not like me going to her door on these matters and she (and her female co occupant) where threatened by me.

In fact the entire group of them at various times as I was walking the halls to both give and get back the Man Cave tools and get my laundry were all together reporting themselves as pleased and giving positive social cues but then AFTER they had some phone session with a Domina, and babies given out during the role play, the claim was I was aggressive wrongly towards these females.

It appeared my good Man Cave conduct was turned into a fake claim of my aggression towards the female, creating a hostile false claim aginast me reproductivity, when I all I was doing was working on cabinet and book case building.

A predatory and dishonest element was introduced to my civilized conduct, and it was predatory and it was tied to reproductivity, and as time place manner were all wrong but part of a fraud a person seeking my genome committed.

It is probable the scuzzy ghetto person in 47 is some kind of ghetto neighborhood watch, he is accusing me of harming the ghetto, and this claim is possible because a person who seems to be me, likely the person from 43, as me, confesses to harming the people in 43.

On the phone with the remote domina 4b could have taken my role as 46, and in so doing, acting in conjunction with 47, 43, and 4B, and the domina, arrange a fake claim to my genome to be presented to protectors of the neighborhood from [the impersonator of] me.

Adding to me theory that the Shills in 48 and 4B were impersonating me for the purpose of forging a confession is that a black lady was talking to them about extreme porn on the cell phone operated by TMOBILE. At that time I was doing laundry because I had no cell phone service, very rare, so I did laundry rather than work on my book and for the several loads between the washing machine and dryer I was going back and forth and transferring the laundry which as at the far end of the hall from my apartment.

A few days before a woman asked me to help her with what would have been a selfie at the Selana memorial, a Tejano songstress killed in Corpus Christi and memoralized with a statue and Mira Vista structure which looks over the Nueces Bay.

That “tough” of her cell phone by me may have been used to tie me to other material on her phone victimizing her.

Salvation Army and Good Sams Baptist Chruch behavior with handkerchiefs as they use my genome “fund” for adult entertainers, and role play punishments to gays during role plays

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia retrieved from Handkerchief code and copied or modified to here

Handkerchief code

The handkerchief code (also known as the hanky code, the bandana code, and flagging[1]) is a system of color-coded cloth handkerchief or bandanas for non-verbally communicating one’s interests in sexual activities and fetishes. The color of the handkerchief identifies a particular activity, and the pocket it is worn in (left or right) identifies the wearer’s preferred role in that activity. Wearing a handkerchief on the left side of the body typically indicates one is a “top” (considered active in the act/fetish indicated by the color of the handkerchief), while wearing it on the right side of the body would indicate one is a “bottom” (considered passive in it). For example, a dark blue handkerchief indicates an interest in anal sex, and wearing it in the left pocket indicates a preference for being the insertive partner. The code was most widely used in the 1970s in the United States, Canada, Australia, and Europe, by gay and bisexual men seeking casual sex, or BDSM practitioners.

Black S and M, Blue (Dark) Anal sex, Blue (Light) Oral sex, Brown Scat, Green Hustler/prostitution,

Grey Bondage, Orange Anything goes , Purple Piercing, Red Fisting, Yellow Watersports

This book

Brainwashed

We have been Brainwashed MKUTRA, Rockefeller ties to MKULTRA, Nazi connections, secret identities of relocation of Nazis and others, and the NSA CIA FBI operations surrounding this ever ended.

I remain trapped in ongoing MKULTRA involuntary and abusive science.

Task Force Video 3.2 Conspiracy Theorist = Truth Teller

Speaking of Rockefeller Charities as front org for social "experiments" or connived genetics rights which could bail Rockefeller history of genetics out of trouble, by both suppressing my genetics and claiming them as well? Both operations at Stay and Play?

Lucrative Google knowledge panel and copied or modified to here

This adjective is from the Latin word lucrum, meaning “profit.” In Latin, lucrum also meant “greed,” a negative sense preserved in the English phrase filthy lucre, or “shameful profit or gain.” But the word lucrative doesn’t carry a similar sense of shame

If the purpose of the Rockefeller Foundation shaking down a Nazi for genome “for the kids” it doesn’t seem shamefull. [byproduct of the operation]

If the operations, as it was, to incite homelessness in a person (myself) already a victim of the Rockefellers the scam was shameful. [goal of the operation]

Being up against charities is like being Paul Newman in The Verdict suing the Catholic Church in Boston.

Jen Moore in the video from the auto transcript - I would say what advise is just you know everyone open your eyes keep your eyes open the these things happen really right under the noses of just about everybody it’s it’s almost hard to believe but these people have become so skilled they’re so devious that they they think they are number one they think and it’s pretty much true that they will never be caught and if they are caught in some way they’re going to be protected and then number two do they’re just they’re so skilled because they’ve been doing it for so long and trained at being so devious

[image]

Margaretta Large “Happy” Rockefeller (née Fitler, formerly

Murphy; June 9, 1926 - May 19, 2015) was a philanthropist and the second wife of the 49th governor of New York and 41st vice president of the United States, Nelson Rockefeller (1908-1979). She was first lady of New York from 1963 to 1973, and second lady of the United States from 1974 to 1977.

IF FOXP2 SHOWS hide what it realy is (call it retardation, Bipolar) and burry the body never to be found in a Blue Blood line, but study it first and learn about it under stress conditions, then get rid of the bodies and so what you see what you think you would see to your face is some sort of monstrous presentation or you know to be blunt jackass presentation evil presentation and that is not really how it works most of these people involved in these horrific crimes are to the world and NOT behind the scenes they are the epitome of CHARMERS they are the epitome of we "WE WANT TO HELP CHILDREN" that's why THEY RUN CHILDRENS CHARITIES "save the children" and you know …

Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller (July 8, 1908 - January 26, 1979) was a businessman and politician who served as the 41st vice president of th States from December 1974 to January 1977, and previously as the 49 of New York from 1959 to 1973. He also served as assistant secretary o American Republic Affairs for Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Ha Truman (1944-1945) as well as under secretary of Health, Education a under Dwight D. Eisenhower from 1953 to 1954. A grandson of billion Rockefeller and a member of the wealthy Rockefeller family, he was a collector and served as administrator of Rockefeller Center in Manhatta York City.

Rockefeller was a Republican who was often considered to be liberal, progressive,[1] or moderate. In an agreement that was termed the Trea Avenue, Rockefeller persuaded Richard Nixon to alter the Republican P platform just before the 1960 Republican Convention. In his time, liber Republican Party were called "Rockefeller Republicans". As Governor o from 1959 to 1973, Rockefeller's achievements included the expansion University of New York, efforts to protect the environment, the constru

Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller Empire State Plaza in Albany, increase and personnel for medical care, and the creation of the New York State the Arts.

After unsuccessfully seeking the Republican presidential nomination 1964, and 1968, Rockefeller was appointed vice president of the Unite under President Gerald Ford, who ascended to the presidency followin August 1974 resignation of Richard Nixon. Rockefeller was the second president appointed to the position under the 25th Amendment, follow himself. Rockefeller was not placed on the 1976 Republican ticket wit retired from politics in 1977 and died two years later.

I'm not just singling them out and I don't know their structure anything but I'm just using that as an example all of these places that run these children's facilities to save these poor children and these guys are such charmers and speak about all the evil [of the Alt Right] and how they want to save all these children from from these evil perpetrators, most often ARE the evil perpetrators

They are looking at you dead in the face and lying to you Look closel at any charity, any group, that is purpoting to represent the needs of the poor …"

…

the who Central Intelligence Agency CIA that term was made up by them in order to kind of throw the scent off of anything that has to do with these kinds of evil acts so they threw the conspiracy theorist tag on it to make it stick children from Haiti are being used in these trafficking rings, these [gambit] sacrifice rings and now that's what you hear all the time anyone that comes out with truth that is this evil is named a conspiracy theorist and these are not theories this is a because our conspiracy truths a conspiracy is a crime in and of itself it's the gathering of you know at least two people and making a plan to commit a crime that is crying mystic conspiracy

this is not a and the theory is actually an idea that needs facts to support it and we have those facts so the word conspiracy theorists has always been used as some derogatory term to make everyone think that you're crazy well that was their goal it was their goal from the beginning so all of you people screaming conspiracy theorists they've accomplished their goal with you congratulations you have officially been brainwashed and you know pat yourself on the back for that and once you get done with that take your hand off patting yourself and each other on the back it actually started doing some work and researching this and looking into this and start helping uncover some of this stuff so that we can have our country back and children can be set free and child again and we are not gonna stop until that is done so that's the end of part three point two I believe and there will be some more coming up but thank you for listening and paying attention and I'm giving as many details as I can

I know people will want me just to come forward with with names and come forward with interviews I get it I so wish I could but I have to take in the witnesses and victims safety in their lives first and until I know that some of this is safe and there are for sure good people protecting them and going to help them and

I have confirmation of that I cannot release this information publicly for their lives and their lives are way more important than me releasing anything on videotape just to get people to watch the videos or to get hits or anything like that I don't really care about that all I care about is people actually listening expanding your thinking doing the research and realizing that it is not only possible it has been happening for you know really since the beginning of time but it has really a just blown up in the past you know seven or eight years and is rampant in our society and it's it's the underbelly of the darkest of dark and these kids and these young adults who have survived this need all the support and all the encouragement and all the protection and all the safety that we as the American people who believe in justice can possibly offer them so please continue to research and share what you can what you know about child trafficking and all the just horrific crimes that that come with it including sacrifice and really really just disturbing things that that you people think to themselves human beings don't really have the propensity to do that and I'm telling you yes they do and they have the propensity to not only do it but also to get up the next morning and put a suit and tie on or even the uniform and go into work as if nothing ever happened and this is going to come out and shot people so open your eyes drop the scales look deeply and realized that those of us that are pushing this envelope on YouTube or whatever Twitter things like that the reason they are blocking us a shadow banning us or doing all these things is not because we're crazy conspiracy theorists at that point you would just let us go because we would just sound like crazy conspiracy theorists no they're shutting us down and attacking us and blocking us

why why would they do that for people who are just nuts as as some people would like to believe they're not doing it because it's the truth and some of them are involved and they don't want it to come about we're going to force the issue so checking out for now thank you for listening thank you for your support

This book

Irregular Acts and Irregular Warfare copied from Wikipedia

[image]

Let Caveat Emptor in medicine be the only message of my life for fear of diminuation of it, and the my choice to take chances against against COVID19 v the USA.

Caveat emptor (/ˈɛmptɔːr/; from caveat, “may they beware”, a subjunctive form of cavēre, “to beware” + ēmptor, “buyer”) is Latin for “Let the buyer beware”.[1] It has become a proverb in English. Generally, caveat emptor is the contract law principle that controls the sale of real property after the date of closing, but may also apply to sales of other goods. The phrase caveat emptor and its use as a disclaimer of warranties arise from the fact that buyers typically have less information than the seller about the good or service they are purchasing. This quality of the situation is known as ‘information asymmetry’. Defects in the good or service may be hidden from the buyer, and only known to the seller.

It is a short form of Caveat emptor, quia ignorare non debuit quod jus alienum emit (“Let a purchaser beware, for he ought not to be ignorant of the nature of the property which he is buying from another party.”)[2] I.e. the buyer should assure himself that the product is good and that the seller had the right to sell it, as opposed to receiving stolen property.

A common way that information asymmetry between seller and buyer has been addressed is through a legally binding warranty, such as a guarantee of satisfaction.

5 Steps to Starting Seeds

1. Prepare moistened soil. You will likely have your best success growing your own seeds in seedling soil

2. Place soil into cells of tray. ..

3. Place 2-3 seeds into each cell. …

4. Allow the seeds to grow. …

5. Remove all but one of the seedlings in each cell. *

For the Cuba operation The Mob is forced under the covers with Anti Mob RFK. The result is secrets and assassinations to cover up the secrets from RFK and JFK.

Its as simple as 1 - 5 insertion of operatives then arbitrary escalation of planted leader. planted Hydrangea (Crus Jr.) The 21st Century is long term restoral of Commonwealths, allied nations. Irish resent Big Buiz East India 33s

Gaining control of infrastructure of society, front companies, agency chosen helpers like Ian Flemming/Disney propaganda, media cover stories help Legends spies need to operate, etc., can arise from $$$ buys of media stock.

That is just a return to Boston.

Authorized CIA Activities

3

Study Subjects planted into Masonic run puppet StrongMen

1

CIA TSS Overthrow Including Irregular Warfare Plant of "33"s Sleeper Agents

La Cosa Nostra Chicago + Mexican Mafia

2

FOXP2 does not show in Sleeper Agents

Famililes Watch research by CIA, others, of FOXP2

DOJ JMWAVE JMTRAX

Authorized CIA Activities

3

Ted Gunderson JFK RFK

US Gov authorized Regime Changes not Opp 40 or Business Plot

CIA TSS Overthrow Including Irregular Warfare Plant of "33"s Sleeper Agents

Donald Barr Jen Moore

CIA Contactors, Defense Contractors DuPonts etc.,

La Cosa Nostra Chicago + Mexican Mafia

George H.W.Bush

2

FOXP2 does not show in Sleeper Agents

Famililes Watch research by CIA, others, of FOXP2

FOXP2 shows

Obama, Kellys Bush Family

Marylin, Warhol, Ed Donegan Collet Mc Donald hit, Rosemay K hid, me hit

The successfull placement of Sleeper Agents around the world means one thing in particular. In highly visible Sovereign heads of state the FOXP2 must not be recognized else the family lines will be recognized and the sleepers exposed

The Lawford Shriver Peace Corps plan is more extensive than approved as

1. This is where I Edward Paul Donegan, Tom Donegan, and Glorian and Jim Donegan fit in. On November 18 1961 I was born as a 33rd Degree mason plan to create Aristocracy back Junta regimes around the world Barrack Obama and Ted Cruz Jr being among them. It is a WASP plot to indirect rule through blue blood brown skin regional leaders.

2. This is Felix Rodriquez and others are recruited by Operation 40 George H.W. Bush eugenics studies from Mary's lab i knew Orleans fertilization research

3. This is the blind spot of how out of bounds many of the illegal programs were including experimenting on prisoners, Dr Cameroon, and others. Some was know about FOXP2 existing and quietly researched

As JFK and RFK find out how extensive the co-operation with ROckefellers, QEII, Royal families (Saudis, others) are and that 33s don't take orders or disclose lodge activties, JFK and RFK have enough contacts to become a risk to 33s.

Donald Barr and other republicans don't trust the Kennedy family, keep the Irish Catholic Mafia out of most of the loop.

Frank Sinatra, close to Marylin and Mafia and Mob know something is up and this is why Marylin Monroe, neighbor of Lawford Shriver was murdered. Night club singers and non drinker Southern Baptists were at a distance.

The Mob from Area 2 activties were talking to their lawyers thus Sinatra with the same lawyers knew the CIA planned to kill Marylin or did. Sinatra did NOT know much of what the George Bush family had planned and that shows in Sinatras pattern of statements and activities.

Mark Edward Lenzi was an American Olympic diver and diving coach. Lenzi was known for his Olympic gold medal in the 1992 Olympic Games, and his Olympic bronze medal in the 1996 Olympic Games on the 3 m springboard. Wikipedia Born: July 4, 1968, Huntsville, AL Died: April 9, 2012, Greenville, NC

[image]

Mark Edward Lenzi (July 4, 1968 April 9, 2012) was an American Olympic diver and diving coach. Lenzi was known for his Olympic gold medal in the 1992 Olympic Games, and his Olympic bronze medal in the 1996 Olympic Games on the 3 m springboard.

Lenzi was also the first American diver to perform a 109C (forward 4.5 somersault tuck) in competition, and the first diver to score over 100 points in competition, performing a 307C

(reverse 3.5 somersault tuck) off of the 3 m springboard for over 102 points.[1]

Where Leviathans battle Anarchy reigns not Sovereigns.

The premise of a Leviathan who can oversee a Realm and insure the end of anarchy brutishness to impose law may hold true under an instituted government, but on a shadow government of mafia actors who have infiltrated subsumed government rules are few, war is constant, and brutishness returned in the Deep State control of populations and waring shadow governments.

Leviathan (Hobbes book) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Hobbes describes human psychology without any reference to the summum bonum, or greatest good, as previous thought had done. Not only is the concept of a summum bonum superfluous, but given the variability of human desires, there could be no such thing. Consequently, any political community that sought to provide the greatest good to its members would find itself driven by competing conceptions of that good with no way to decide among them. The result would be civil war.

However, Hobbes states that there is a summum malum, or greatest evil. This is the fear of violent death. A political community can be oriented around this fear.

Since there is no summum bonum, the natural state of man is not to be found in a political community that pursues the greatest good. But to be outside of a political community is to be in an anarchic condition. Given human nature, the variability of human desires, and need for scarce resources to fulfill those desires, the state of nature, as Hobbes calls this anarchic condition, must be a war of all against all. Even when two men are not fighting, there is no guarantee that the other will not try to kill him for his property or just out of an aggrieved sense of honour, and so they must constantly be on guard against one another. It is even reasonable to preemptively attack one's neighbour.

> In such condition there is no place for industry, because the fruit thereof is uncertain, and consequently no culture of the earth, no navigation nor the use of commodities that may be imported by sea, no commodious building, no instruments of moving and removing such things as require much force, no knowledge of the face of the earth, no account of time, no arts, no letters, no society, and which is worst of all, continual fear and danger of violent death, and the life of man, solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short.

The desire to avoid the state of nature, as the place where the summum malum of violent death is most likely to occur, forms the polestar of political reasoning. It suggests a number of laws of nature, although Hobbes is quick to point out that they cannot properly speaking be called "laws," since there is no one to enforce them. The first thing that reason suggests is to seek peace, but that where peace cannot be had, to use all of the advantages of war.[14] Hobbes is explicit that in the state of nature nothing can be considered just or unjust, and every man must be considered to have a right to all things.[15] The second law of nature is that one ought to be willing to renounce one's right to all things where others are willing to do the same, to quit the state of nature, and to erect a commonwealth with the authority to command them in all things. Hobbes concludes Part One by articulating an additional seventeen laws of nature that make the performance of the first two possible and by explaining what it would mean for a sovereign to represent the people even when they disagree with the sovereign.

Part II: Of Commonwealth

The purpose of a commonwealth is given at the start of Part II: THE final cause, end, or design of men (who naturally love liberty, and dominion over others) in the introduction of that restraint upon themselves, in which we see them live in Commonwealths, is the foresight of their own preservation, and of a more contented life thereby; that is to say, of getting themselves out from that miserable condition of war which is necessarily consequent, as hath been shown, to the natural passions of men when there is no visible power to keep them in awe, and tie them by fear of punishment to the performance of their covenants …

The commonwealth is instituted when all agree in the following manner: I authorise and give up my right of governing myself to this man, or to this assembly of men, on this condition; that thou give up, thy right to him, and authorise all his actions in like manner.

The Assassination of John F. Kennedy retrieved from Spartacus Educational and copied or modified to here

Notables

David Sanchez Morales

David Sanchez Morales was born on 26th August, 1925. He spent his early life in Phoenix, Arizona. A Mexican-American, Morales was later to be nicknamed El Indio because of his dark skin and Indian features. As a boy his best friend was Ruben Carbajal. After his mother divorced his father he was virtually adopted by Carbajal's parents.

Morales attended Arizona State College in Tempe (now Arizona State University) during the 1944-45 school year, before moving to Los Angeles and attending the University of Southern California (1945-46).

Morales joined the United States Army in 1946 and after basic training was sent to Germany where he was part of the Allied occupation force. According to Ruben Carbajal, Morales was recruited into army intelligence in 1947. However, officially he was a member of 82nd Airborne. It was during this time he began associating with Ted Shackley and William Harvey.

In 1951 became a employee of the Central Intelligence Agency while retaining his army cover. The following year he joined the Directorate for Plans, an organization instructed to conduct covert anti-Communist operations around the world.

In 1953 he returned to the United States and after a spell at the University of Maryland he assumed cover as a State Department employee. Morales became involved in CIA's Black Operations. This involved a policy that was later to become known as Executive Action (a plan to remove unfriendly foreign leaders from power). This including a coup d'état that overthrew the Guatemalan government of Jacobo Arbenz in 1954 after he introduced land reforms and nationalized the United Fruit Company. After the removal of Arbenz he joined the staff of the US embassy in Caracas (1955-58). During this time he became known as the CIA's top assassin in Latin America.

Morales moved to Cuba in 1958 and helped to support the government of Fulgencio Batista. In 1960 Wayne S. Smith was a State Department officer in the American Embassy in Havana. Smith tells the story of being in a bar in Havana with Morales. After a heavy drinking session Morales began talking about the CIA's secret operations that involved frog men operating out of Guantanamo Bay. Smith told Gaeton Fonzi (The Last Investigation) that Morales was very indiscrete when drunk. According to fellow

CIA agent, Robert N. Wall: “He (Morales) was a rough-neck. He was a bully, a hard-drinker and big enough to get away with a lot of stuff other people couldn’t get away with.”

[image]

In November, 1961, William Harvey arranged for Morales to be posted to JM/WAVE , the CIA station in Miami. Morales was operations chief for the CIA’s covert operation to train and infiltrate teams into Cuba to destabilize the Castro government. Morales reported directly to veteran Agency covert operator Ted Shackley, who was the Agency’s Miami bureau chief. In May, 1962, Morales was seconded to ZR/RIFLE, the plot to assassinate Fidel Castro. During this period he worked closely with David Atlee Phillips, Tracy Barnes, William Pawley, Johnny Roselli and John Martino.

JM WAVE was the Central Intelligence Agency station in Florida. Located south of Miami in a heavily wooded 1,571-acre tract. The numerous buildings were said to belong to Zenith Technological Enterprises.

After the Bay of Pigs disaster President John F. Kennedy created a committee (SGA) charged with overthrowing Castro’s government. The SGA, chaired by Robert F. Kennedy (Attorney General), included John McCone (CIA Director), McGeorge Bundy (National Security Adviser), Alexis Johnson (State Department), Roswell Gilpatric (Defence Department), General

Lyman Lemnitzer (Joint Chiefs of Staff) and General Maxwell Taylor. Although not officially members, Dean Rusk (Secretary of State) and Robert S. McNamara (Secretary of Defence) also attending meetings.

While mostly remembered for his career in government, Dean Rusk was also a distinguished university professor and an influential president of the Rockefeller Foundation (RF). Dean Rusk was born in Cherokee County, Georgia, in 1909. He attended Davidson College and was selected as a Rhodes Scholar.

At a meeting of this committee at the White House on 4th November, 1961, it was decided to call this covert action program for sabotage and subversion against Cuba, Operation Mongoose. Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy also decided that General Edward Lansdale (Staff Member of the President's Committee on Military Assistance) should be placed in charge of the operation.

Some researchers such as Gaeton Fonzi, Larry Hancock, Noel Twyman, James Richards and John Simkin believe that Morales was involved in the assassination of John F. Kennedy. It has been suggested that others involved included Carl E. Jenkins, Rafael Quintero, William Pawley, Roy Hargraves, Edwin Collins, Steve Wilson, Herminio Diaz Garcia, Tony Cuesta, Eugenio Martinez, Virgilio Gonzalez, Felipe Vidal Santiago, Theodore Shackley, Grayston Lynch, Felix Rodriguez, Thomas Clines, Gordon Campbell, Tony Sforza and William (Rip) Robertson.

According to CIA agent Tom Clines, Morales helped Felix Rodriguez capture Che Guevara in 1965. “We all admired the hell out of the guy. He drank like crazy, but he was bright as hell. He could fool people into thinking he was stupid by acting stupid, but he knew about cultural things all over the world. People were afraid of him. He was big and aggressive, and he had this mystique. Stories about him permeated the Agency. If the Agency needed someone action-oriented, he was at the top of the list. If the U.S. government as a matter of policy needed someone or something neutralized, Dave would do it, including things that were repugnant to a lot of people.”

In 1966 Ted Shackley was placed in charge of CIA secret war in Laos. He recruited Morales to take charge at Pakse, a black operations base focused on political paramilitary action within Laos. Pakse was used to launch military operations against the Ho Chi Minh Trial. In 1969 Morales moved to Vietnam where he officially worked as a Community Development Officer for the International Development Agency.

Morales moved to Chile in 1970. He was a member of the team that used $10 million in order to undermine left-wing forces in the country. Morales told friends that he had personally eliminated several political figures. He was also involved in helping Augusto Pinochet overthrow Salvador Allende in September, 1973 [organized by The Chicago Boys].

After arriving back in the United States Morales moved to Washington where he became Consultant to the Deputy Director for Operations Counter Insurgency and Special Activities. Larry Hancock believes that during this period he provided advice to right-wing governments (Bolivia, Paraguay, Uruguay, Chile, Brazil and Argentina) as part of Operation Condor.

According to his friend, Ruben Carbajal, in the spring of 1973, Morales talked about his involvement with the Bay of Pigs operation. He claimed [JFK and through formal delegate AG RFK] "Kennedy(s) had been responsible for him having to watch all the men he recruited and trained get wiped out". He added:

> "Well, we took care of that SOB [JFK], didn't we?"

Another example of Morales indiscretion was allowing his photograph to be taken by Kevin Schofield at the El Molino restaurant on August 4, 1973. The picture appeared in the Arizona Republic with the following text: "Feted by friends at a fiesta Saturday was former American counsul to Cuba, David Sanchez, left, who was in that country when Castro took over … In government service for 28 years, Sanchez is now consultant in the office of deputy director for Operations Counter-insurgency and Special Activities in Washington."

Soon afterwards Morales left the CIA. However, he continued to make regular trips to Washington. When asked about this by his friend Ruben Carbajal, Morales replied: “Oh, they run into some problems, I have to go up there and take care of them. These people never let go of you.”

[image]

Morales built a new house at El Frita, which is about half-way between Willcox and the Mexican border. Morales told another friend, Robert Walton, that he had put in the best security system in the United States. Walton said, “What do you need so much security for? You’re still thirty miles from the Mexican border.” Morales replied, “I’m not worried about those people, I’m worried about my own.”

Gaeton Fonzi, staff investigator for the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HUCA) found out about Morales from CIA asset, Paul Bethel, who worked for David Atlee Phillips. It was suggested that Morales might have been the “Latin-looking” man seen with Lee Harvey Oswald in New Orleans during the summer of 1963.

Fonzi had also read David Phillips’s autobiography, The Night Watch: 25 Years of Peculiar Service. It includes a reference to a CIA agent who used the code-name Hector (William (Rip) Robertson) and his “sidekick ‘El Indio’, a massive American of Mexican and Indian extraction I had seen only briefly during the revolt (the CIA-stage 1954 Guatemala coup) but was to work with in other operations over the years.” El Indio was Morales.

When Fonzi interviewed David Atlee Phillips on behalf of the HSCA he asked him about Morales. Phillips said that Morales was an unimportant figure in the CIA and suggested that he might have died as a result of his heavy drinking. At this stage Morales was still alive. What is more, Morales was far from being an important figure, he had in fact been Chief of Operations at JM/WAVE in 1963 and at the centre of the operation to kill Fidel Castro. Fonzi also discovered that Morales had worked very closely with John Rosselli, who also played a key role in the plots against Castro. Rosselli was to be one of the first people to be interviewed by the HSCA but went missing in July 1976. His body was later discovered in the Intracoastal Waterway in North Miami. He had been cut up and stuffed into a 55-gallon steel drum.

Morales began to worry about his own health during the HSCA investigations. Rip Robertson had died in 1970 and could not be interviewed. William Pawley committed suicide in 1977 when he was asked to appear before the HSCA. The other key figure, in the assassination of John F. Kennedy, CIA officer, Carl E. Jenkins, had remained deeply undercover and was not being investigated by the HSCA.

David Sanchez Morales made his last trip to Washington in early May, 1978. Ruben Carbajal had a drink with Morales a few days later. Carbajal told him he looked unwell. He replied: “I don’t know what’s wrong with me. Ever since I left Washington I haven’t been feeling very comfortable”. That night he was taken to hospital. Carbajal went to visit him the next morning. As Carbajal later recalled: “They wouldn’t let no one in, they had his room surrounded by sheriff’s deputies.” Later that day (8th May) the decision was taken to withdraw his life support. Morales’s wife, Joanne, requested that there should not be an autopsy.

In a letter sent to John R. Tunheim in 1994, Bradley E. Ayers claimed that nine people based at JM/WAVE “have intimate operational knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the assassination” of John F. Kennedy. Ayers named David Sanchez Morales, Theodore Shackley, Grayston Lynch, Felix Rodriguez, Thomas Clines, Gordon Campbell, Rip Robertson, Edward Roderick and Tony Sforza as the men who had this information.

Bradley E. Ayers was interviewed by Jeremy Gunn of the Assassination Records Review Board in May, 1995. According to Gunn: “Ayers claims to have found in the course of his private investigative work, a credible witness who can put David Morales inside the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles on the night of June 5, 1968 (RFK’s assassination).”

In January 2004, E. Howard Hunt gave a taped interview with his son, Saint John Hunt, claiming that Lyndon Baines Johnson was the instigator of the assassination of John F. Kennedy, and that it was organised by Morales, Cord Meyer, David Atlee Phillips and Frank Sturgis.

While researching a documentary, Shane O'Sullivan discovered a news film of the Ambassador Hotel on the day Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated. Bradley Ayers and other people who knew them, identified David Sanchez Morales, Gordon Campbell and George Joannides as being three men in the hotel that day. An article about this story appeared in The Guardian and on BBC Newsnight on 20th November, 2006.

By John Simkin (john©spartacus-educational.com) © September 1997 (updated January 2020)

[image]

George Joannides

George Efythron Joannides (July 5, 1922 - March 9, 1990) was a Central Intelligence Agency officer who in 1963 was the chief of the Psychological Warfare branch of the agency's JMWAVE station in Miami, and in 1978 was the agency's liaison to the United States House Select Committee on Assassinations.

[image]

Robert Maheu from Wikipedia and Spartacus

Robert Aime Maheu (October 30, 1917 - August 4, 2008) was an American businessman and lawyer, who worked for the FBI and CIA, and as the chief executive of Nevada operations for the industrialist Howard Hughes.[1]

Maheu was born in Waterville, Maine, the son of Christine and Ephrem Maheu, who were of French-Canadian descent.[2] He held degrees from Holy Cross and Georgetown University. In 1941, during his law studies at Georgetown, he was hired by the FBI and worked as a counter-intelligence officer in Europe during World War II.[3] He left the FBI in 1947 and opened Robert A. Maheu and Associates, a private detective firm in Washington, DC.

Maheu also worked for the Central Intelligence Agency. He would later recall: "The CIA was my first steady client, giving me 'cut-out' assignments thus the the assignment would be linked, if found, only to Maheua [those jobs in which the Agency could not officially be involved]."[15] Maheu's investigative agency was said to be the model for the television series, Mission Impossible.

In the summer of 1960, the CIA recruited Maheu to approach the West Coast representative of the Chicago mob, Johnny Roselli. When Maheu contacted Roselli, Maheu hid the fact that he was sent by the CIA, instead portraying himself an advocate for international corporations.

According to Maheu associate John Gerrity, he and Maheu were summoned to Vice President Richard Nixon's office in 1954 at the behest of the National Security Council. Nixon gave Maheu a green light to employ a series of dirty tricks to wreck a pending agreement between Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis and the king of Saudi Arabia.

Robert Maheu was born in Waterville, Maine, in 1918. After graduating from the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, in 1940, he joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation. During the Second World War he posed as a Nazi-sympathising Canadian and infiltrated New York's German-American Bund, passing disinformation to spies who were eventually arrested.

In 1947 Maheu established his own investigative company. Maheu also worked for the Central Intelligence Agency. He was later to admit "The CIA was my first steady client, giving me `cut-out' assignments (those jobs in which the agency could not officially be involved)." This work brought him into contact with Howard Hughes and in the late 1950s worked for him on a freelance basis. This included intimidating would be blackmailers and obtaining information on business rivals.

In 1954 Maheu was hired to deal with a starlet attempting to blackmail Howard Hughes after their relationship had soured. Hughes also employed Maheu to spy on Ava Gardner. While working for Hughes he met Edward Bennett Williams, who in turn introduced him to Johnny Rosell, the mob's frontman in Las Vegas. Maheu and Roselli became close friends.

Maheu served as Hughes's bagman and among those who received money was Bebe Rebozo, a close associate of Richard Nixon. Hughes via Maheu also provided $205,000 to the politician's brother, Donald Nixon in January 1957.

In 1960 Richard Bissell and Allen W. Dulles decided to work with the Mafia in a plot to assassinate Fidel Castro. Maheu was employed by the CIA to organize the conspiracy. The advantage of employing the Mafia for this work is that it provided CIA with a credible cover story. The Mafia were known to be angry with Castro for closing down their profitable brothels and casinos in Cuba. If the assassins were killed or captured the media would accept that the Mafia were working on their own.

In August 1960, Colonel Sheffield Edwards contacted Maheu. As Maheu explained in 1995: “In the winter of 1959-60, however, the CIA still thought it could pull off the invasion (of Cuba). But it thought the odds might be better if the plan went one step further - the murder of Fidel Castro. All the Company needed was someone to do the dirty work for it. Professional killers. A gangland-style hit.”

for a meeting on 11th October, 1960, between Maheu and two leading mobsters, Santo Trafficante and Sam Giancana. As Maheu pointed out, “both were among the ten most powerful Mafia members” in America. Maheu told the mobsters that the CIA was willing to pay $150,000 to have Castro killed.

On 12th March, 1961, Maheu arranged for CIA operative, Jim O’Connell, to meet Roselli, Trafficante and Giancana at the Fontainebleau Hotel. During the meeting O’Connell gave poison pills and $10,000 to Rosselli to be used against Fidel Castro.

The Shadow Government

Title	Document Type	Publication Date	Subjects	Description
Document: Years of the Deep State	Book	22 November 2013	Deep state CIA 9-11 George H. W. Bush JFK/ Assassinati RFK/ Assassinati MLK/ Assassinati	A detailed overview of the modern US deep state which names names, the most prominent of which, George H. W. Bush, is exposed as the kingpin of the US Deep state and probable a key mover behind the 9/11 plot
Document: Coup of '63, Part 1	essay	10 April 2014	Deep politics US/ Deep state JFK Assassinati	Part 1 of Mark Gorton's summary of the JFK assassination
Document: Political Dominance of The Cabal	essay	2 March 2014	Deep politics 9-11 Bush Family US/ Deep state	The story of an American political cabal so powerful that it has been able to repress knowledge of its existence for 50 years, and the hidden history of the political force that has dominated American politics for the last 50 years.

Mark Howard Gorton[1] is a businessman whose research into deep politics was published on Gawker in 2014.

The Secret Team of Defense Business Contract Killers and the contracts and secret history they kill to preserve the mafia profitability of.

Not just with Joseph Kennedy Dr, Whitehead, or others tied direclty to the Windsor family, but look at the polar spectrum of the divided Allies and Axis regarging nuclear energy as 1925 through 1945 unfolded and consider Enrico Fermi and Columbia Universisty along with Albert Einstein..

The Duponts, Kellogs, and many others will be involved and span from radio communications, radar, xray medicine, atomic bombs, cancer and imaging, cosmology and perhas the “Ice Theory” of Nazi cosmology research a well as a new axis of national power and national capability.

The Sub Atomic Science Race 1905 to 1945 as Europe grows divided

[image]

Marie Curie retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In 1895, Wilhelm Roentgen discovered the existence of X-rays, though the mechanism behind their production was not yet understood.

The Annus mirabilis papers (from Latin annus mīrābilis, “miracle year”) are the four papers that Albert Einstein published in Annalen der Physik (Annals of Physics), a scientific journal, in 1905. These four papers were major contributions to the foundation of modern physics. They revolutionized science’s understanding of the fundamental concepts of space, time, mass, and energy. Because Einstein published these remarkable papers in a single year, 1905 is called his annus mirabilis (miracle year in English or Wunderjahr in German).

In August 1922 Marie Curie became a member of the [European Royal Families leaning] League of Nations‘ newly created International Committee on Intellectual Cooperation. She sat on the committee until 1934 and contributed to League of Nations’ scientific coordination with other prominent researchers such as Albert Einstein, Hendrik Lorentz, and Henri Bergson. In 1923 she wrote a biography of her late husband, titled Pierre Curie. In 1925 she visited Poland to participate in a ceremony laying the foundations for Warsaw’s Radium Institute.[49] Her second American tour, in 1929, succeeded in equipping the Warsaw Radium Institute with radium; the Institute opened in 1932, with her sister Bronisława its director.[49][65] These distractions from her scientific labours, and the attendant publicity, caused her much discomfort but provided resources for her work.[65] In 1930 she was elected to the International Atomic Weights Committee, on which she served until her death.[73] In 1931, Curie was awarded the Cameron Prize for Therapeutics of the University of Edinburgh.

Curie visited Poland for the last time in early 1934.[16][75] A few months later, on 4 July 1934, she died aged 66 at the Sancellemoz sanatorium in Passy, Haute-Savoie, from aplastic anemia believed to have been contracted from her long-term exposure to radiation, causing damage to her bone marrow.

Werner Heisenberg (born December 5, 1901, Würzburg, Germany-died February 1, 1976, Munich, West Germany), German physicist and philosopher who discovered (1925) a way to formulate quantum mechanics in terms of matrices. For that discovery, he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Physics for 1932. In 1927 he published his uncertainty principle, upon which he built his philosophy and for which he is best known. He also made important contributions to the theories of the hydrodynamics of turbulent flows, the atomic nucleus, ferromagnetism, cosmic rays, and subatomic particles, and he was instrumental in planning the first West German nuclear reactor at Karlsruhe, together with a research reactor in Munich, in 1957. Considerable controversy surrounds his work on atomic research during World War II.

Ernest Rutherford, in full Ernest, Baron Rutherford of Nelson, (born August 30, 1871, Spring Grove, New Zealand-died October 19, 1937, Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, England), New Zealand-born British physicist considered the greatest experimentalist since Michael Faraday (1791-1867). Rutherford was the central figure in the study of radioactivity, and with his concept of the nuclear atom he led the exploration of nuclear physics. He won the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 1908, was president of the Royal Society (1925-30) and the British Association for the Advancement of Science (1923), was conferred the Order of Merit in 1925, and was raised to the peerage as Lord Rutherford of Nelson in 1931 *.

Opportunistic Assassinations studied by the CIA of how these therapies can be used to advance rather than retard cancer cases.

When radiation therapy is used to kill cancerous cells in the body, to measure the dose correctly to avoid unnecessary damage to norm body.

Radiation is not selective to tumor cells and therefore targets any the process of replication when the therapy is applied. This thereby importance of administering the correct dose in order to ensure opt with minimal side effects.

www.news-medical.net By Yolanda Smith, B.Pharm. Reviewed by Cuffari, M.Sc.

Dose (rem)	Effects
5-20	Possible late effects; possible chromosomal damage
20-100	Temporary reduction in white blood cells

100-200	Mild radiation sickness within a few hours: vomiting, diarrhea, fatigue; reduction in resistance to infection
200-300	Serious radiation sickness effects as in 100-200 rem and hemorrhage; exposure is a Lethal Dose to 10-35% of the population after 30 days (LD 10-35/30)
300-400	Serious radiation sickness; also marrow and intestine destruction; LD 50-70/30
400-1000	Acute illness, early death; LD 60-95/30
1000-5000	Acute illness, early death in days; LD 100/10.

Radiation Effects on Humans Atomic Home Science Effects of Nuclear Weapons Radiation Effects on Humans atomicarchive.com

How much radiation is a roentgen? One roentgen of X-rays may deposit anywhere from 0.01 to 0.04 Gy (1.0 to 4.0 rad) in bone depending on the beam energy. As the science of radiation dosimetry developed, it was realised that the ionising effect, and hence tissue damage, was linked to the energy absorbed, not just radiation exposure. - Google Knowledge Panel

Long Term Effects on Humans

Long after the acute effects of radiation have subsided, radiation damage continues to produce a wide range of physical problems. These effects- including leukemia, cancer, and many others- appear two, three, even ten years later.

Blood Disorders

According to Japanese data, there was an increase in anemia among persons exposed to the bomb. In some cases, the decrease in white and red blood cells lasted for up to ten years after the bombing.

Cataracts

There was an increase in cataract rate of the survivors at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, who were partly shielded and suffered partial hair loss.

Malignant Tumors

All ionizing radiation is carcinogenic, but some tumor types are more readily generated than others. A prevalent type is leukemia. The cancer incidence among survivors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki is significantly larger than that of the general population, and a significant correlation between exposure level and degree of incidence has been reported for thyroid cancer, breast cancer, lung cancer, and cancer of the salivary gland. Often a decade or more passes before radiation-caused malignancies appear.

Keloids

Beginning in early 1946, scar tissue covering apparently healed burns began to swell and grow abnormally. Mounds of raised and twisted flesh, called keloids, were found in 50 to 60 percent of those burned by direct exposure to the heat rays within 1.2 miles of the hypocenter. Keloids are believed to be related to the effects of radiation.

Fallout Particles

Many fallout particles are especially hazardous biologically. Some of the principal radioactive elements are as follows:

Strontium 90 is very long-lived with a half-life of 28 years. It is chemically similar to calcium, causing it to accumulate in growing bones. This radiation can cause tumors, leukemia, and other blood abnormalities.

Iodine 131 has a half-life of 8.1 days. Ingestion of it concentrates in the thyroid gland. The radiation can destroy all or part of the thyroid. Taking potassium iodide can reduce the effects.

The amount of tritium released varies by bomb design. It has a half-life of 12.3 years and can be easily ingested, since it can replace a hydrogen in water. The beta radiation can cause lung cancer.

Cesium 137 has a half-life of 30 years. It does not present as large a biological threat as Strontium 90. It behaves similar to > potassium, and will distribute fairly uniformly thoughout the body. This can contribute to gonadal irradiation and genetic damage.

>
> When a plutonium weapon is exploded, not all of the plutonium is fissioned. Plutonium 239 has a half-life of 24,400 years. Ingestion of as little as 1 microgram of plutonium, a barely visible speck, is a serious health hazard causing the formation of bone and lung tumors.

[image]

On July 8, 1962, the EMP from the high altitude (250 miles above Johnston Island) “Starfish Prime” test (1.4 Mt) turned off 300 streetlights in Oahu, Hawaii (740 miles away).

[image]

Psychological Operations in Guerrilla Warfare (Operaciones sicológicas en guerra de guerrillas) was a manual written by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) for the Nicaraguan Contras, who were involved in a civil war with the Nicaraguan government. It was revealed by the Associated Press on October 15, 1984. The ninety-page book of instructions focused mainly on how “Armed Propaganda Teams” could build political support in Nicaragua for the Contra cause through deceit, intimidation, and violence.[1] The manual also discussed assassinations.[2] The International Court of Justice case Nicaragua v. United States found that the publication of this manual had “encouraged acts … contrary to general principles of humanitarian law.”[3] However, the CIA claimed that the purpose of the manual was to “moderate” the extreme violence already being used by the Contras.[4]

SandBagging, Organized Stalking, Evidence Plants, Subersion, DEW, and other attacks insdie the USA

E. Jean Carroll retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Elizabeth Jean Carroll (born December 12, 1943) is an American journalist, author, and advice columnist. Her "Ask E. Jean" column appeared in Elle magazine from 1993 through 2019, becoming one of the longest-running advice columns in American publishing.

The first female contributing editor for Playboy, Carroll was noted for her gonzo-style first person narrative as a journalist; The New York Times wrote that she was "feminism's answer to Hunter S. Thompson."

In her 2019 book, What Do We Need Men For?: A Modest Proposal, Carroll accused Les Moonves and Donald Trump of sexually assaulting her in the mid-1990s. Both Moonves and Trump denied the allegations.

Her husband John Johnson (born June 20, 1938) is an American television anchorman, senior correspondent, documentary filmmaker and artist. He was a reporter on New York City television news for many years.

Johnson joined ABC News in 1968, ultimately becoming the first African American documentary producer, director and writer at a broadcast network. He won distinction for his documentaries Welfare Game and Strangers in Their Own Land: The Puerto Ricans. He was one of the first black filmmakers in the prestigious Directors Guild of America. Johnson then became a network correspondent and covered such stories as the Attica Prison riot that led to the deaths of 33 prisoners and 10 corrections officers.

The late Charles Thomas retrieved from https://aarclibrary.org/courtesy-of-jfkfacts-the-man-who-asked-too-many-jfk-questions/v and copied or modified to here

Courtesy of JFKFacts: The Man Who Asked Too Many JFK Questions Charles and Cynthia Thomas Charles and Cynthia Thomas with one of their children (Credit: Cynthia Thomas)

Courtesy of JFKFacts: The Man Who Asked Too Many JFK Questions

by Jeff Morley|27 March, 2019

The late Charles Thomas belonged to an exclusive, unhappy and forgotten club: U.S. government officials whose efforts to honestly investigate the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in 1963 cost them their jobs and reputations.

Last week the Washington Post ran an obituary of Cynthia Thomas, the widow of Charles Thomas. It was an unusual tribute. The Washington Post, now acknowledges that there are good and solid reasons for perfectly sane people to reject the U.S. government's implausible and widely disbelieved official theory that a "lone gunman" killed JFK for no discernible reason.

This is a welcome and overdue development, as the facts of Thomas's tragic story attest.

Charles Thomas, doomed diplomat

Thomas, a Foreign Service officer, was stationed in Mexico from 1964 to 1967. In the course of his consular duties, Thomas gathered first-hand information from credible sources about the visit of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald to Mexico City six weeks before JFK's assassination. Thomas assumed that the CIA and FBI would be interested in his new evidence. He assumed wrong.

In fact, Thomas was punished for asking questions about JFK's assassination. Despite glowing job recommendations, he was inexplicably dismissed from the Foreign Service in 1969. "It was nonsensical," Cynthia Thomas told a reporter, "Charles was the best sort of American diplomat."

Two years later, Charles Thomas put a gun to his right temple in the second-floor bathroom of the couple's home in northwest Washington, and pulled the trigger.

'Sandbagged'

Other than its violent end, Thomas' story resembles that of John Whitten, a senior CIA official, who died in 2000. Whitten too paid a price for asking JFK questions.

In 1963 Whitten served as chief of the Mexico desk in the clandestine service. He came up through the agency's Berlin base where he pioneered the use of the polygraph in counterespionage investigations. He investigated the famous case of Otto John, the West German intelligence chief who defected to East Germany in the 1950s.

The day after JFK was killed, deputy CIA director Richard Helms put Whitten in charge of collating all reports on Oswald. Arrested for killing Kennedy, Oswald denied responsibility and told reporters he was "a patsy." Oswald was then killed in police custody.

The more Whitten learned about Oswald's Cuban contacts, the more he wanted to investigate. With a clerical staff of 30, he launched a counterespionage investigation of Oswald, a leftist who had lived in the Soviet Union.

John Whitten: His Oswald investigation was also killed

Within a month, Whitten was, in his own words, "sandbagged" by CIA counterintelligence chief James Angleton.

"Angleton started to criticize my report terribly without pointing out any inaccuracies," Whitten told Senate investigators in closed-door testimony. "It was so full of wrong things, we could not possibly send it to the Bureau, and I just sat there and I did not say a word. This was a typical Angleton performance. I had invited him to comment on the report, and he had withheld all of his comments until he got to the meeting. "

A legendary and controversial figure in the annals of the CIA, Angleton is best-known for the "mole hunt," his ceaseless unsuccessful effort to find a Soviet spy inside the CIA in the late 1960s. As I recounted in my 2017 biography of Angleton, The Ghost, Angleton and his molehunters closely monitored Oswald's travels, foreign contacts and political activities from November 1959 to November 1963.

At a bitter meeting on Christmas Eve 1963, Whitten was relieved of his duties. "Helms wanted someone to conduct the investigation who was in bed with the FBI," Whitten. "I was not, and Angleton was."

The questions Whitten wanted to pursue about Oswald and the Cubans were never asked, much less answered, by the Warren Commission, which concluded predictably that Oswald acted alone, and that no one in the government was to blame.

When Whitten, an outstanding undercover officer, received a poor job evaluation in 1965, he quit the CIA and moved to Europe to join the Vienna Men's Choir.

Snatched. Thomas and Whitten's story also resembles that of Win Scott, the veteran chief of the agency's Mexico station in the 1960s.

As told in my 2008 biography, Our Man in Mexico, Scott and his deputy Ann Goodpasture, launched their own private investigation of Oswald at the same time as Thomas. Like Thomas, Scott came to reject the official theory of a "lone gunman." He wrote as much in an unpublished memoir in 1970.

Our Man in Mexico Biography of the silenced station chief.

Angleton suppressed Win Scott's JFK dissent too. When Scott died suddenly in April 1971, Angleton flew to Mexico City and seized Scott's unpublished manuscript. It would be 20 years before portions of Scott's memoir surfaced with its damaging account of how the CIA had fed a lie to the Warren Commission about Oswald.

CIA officials then disparaged Scott, who had received the agency's Distinguished Intelligence Medal in 1969. One CIA official said Scott had "gone to seed."

Unwelcome Questions For Thomas's obituary, the Post turned to an outside writer, former New York Times reporter Philip Shenon. The author of two well-reported books about the Warren Commission and 9/11 Commission, Shenon reported Thomas's story for The Guardianlast spring.

In the Post, Shenon wrote:

> Declassified government files released in the 1990s suggested to her and her family - and to some historians and researchers who have studied the case - that her husband's career was ended to stop him from continuing to raise unwelcome questions inside the government about the 1963 assassination of President John F. Kennedy: specifically, about whether the assassin Lee Harvey Oswald had accomplices in Mexico,

Thomas's "unwelcome questions," Shenon contends, concerned a possible Cuban communist conspiracy to kill Kennedy.

The long-classified State Department and CIA documents show that her husband alarmed his superiors in the late 1960s by pressing for a new investigation that might have pointed to a conspiracy in Kennedy's death. It was a plot, he suspected, that had been hatched on Mexican soil and somehow involved officials of the communist government of Cuba.

The implication of the Post's obituary is that the U.S. government protected Fidel Castro from credible evidence of Cuban involvement in JFK's assassination-and continues to protect the Cuban government to this day.

As I explain in this piece for Salon, the "Castro did it" theory lacks plausibility.

Why would the CIA protect the impudent revolutionary leader who loved baiting the U.S. government as "Yanqui imperialists" and "war criminals?" The U.S. government had-and has-a policy of unremitting hostility toward the government of Cuba. The agency mounted scores, if not hundreds, of conspiracies to assassinate Castro. Declared U.S. policy long called for the overthrow of Castro's government.

If Thomas' evidence credibly pointed to Cuban involvement, why wouldn't U.S. officials have publicized it in order to discredit Castro, facilitate the overthrow of his government, and do justice for the slain president?

To protect themselves is the obvious answer. But what did the CIA have to hide

THE STATE DEPARTMENT: Undiplomatic Reforms
Monday, Nov. 15, 1971 retrieved from Time magazine and copied or modified to here

harles W. Thomas was a desperate man. A lawyer and a career diplomat, Thomas, 45, had been "selected out" of the Foreign Service. Reason: he had not been promoted from the Class 4 level to Class 3 within the mandatory eight years. He was dismissed with only one year's salary and $323 a month (money he had himself put into a retirement fund) to support a wife and two children. In nearly three dispiriting years Thomas endured nearly 2,000 job rejection letters; he was "too old" or "too qualified," and anyway, he had been fired by the State Department. Finally on an April afternoon in Washington, Charles Thomas took up a gun and shot himself to death.

There is a Kafkaesque cast to the Thomas tragedy. Try as he might, Thomas could not get his day in court to determine whether his selection-out was based on the fact that he had received poor performance ratings or that the State Department had somehow failed to consider his highly favorable ratings. In fact, it was the latter. Thomas had carved a distinguished career in posts such as Tangier, Port-au-Prince and Mexico City, where he became a specialist in Mexican radical politics. Indeed, he had high marks from his superiors and colleagues alike; the explicit blemish on his record was an observation by a Mexico City superior that Thomas did not exercise proper “control” over his secretary.

In contrast, a laudatory report from the Foreign Service Inspector, Ambassador Robert McClintock, was accidentally misfiled under the name of another Charles W. Thomas, then Consul General in Antwerp. The report was eventually logged into its proper place, two days after Thomas had been turned down by the promotion board. The board deemed it too much bother to reopen the case.

David Atlee Phillips retrieved from Spartucus Eductional and copied or modified to here

David Atlee Phillips was born in Fort Worth, Texas, on 31st October, 1922. He was educated at William and Mary College and Texas Christian University. During the Second World War he served as a nose gunner in the United States Air Force.

Phillips joined the Central Intelligence Agency in 1950. Over the next few years Phillips was involved in clandestine operations in Guatemala against President Jacobo Arbenz. The plot against Arbenz became part of Executive Action (a plan to remove unfriendly foreign leaders from power).

Tracy Barnes was placed in charge of what became known as Operation Success. Phillips was appointed to run the propaganda campaign against Arbenz’s government. According to Phillips he initially questioned the right of the CIA to interfere in Guatemala: In his autobiography Phillips claims he said to Barnes: “But Arbenz became President in a free election. What right do we have to help someone topple his government and throw him out of office?” However, Barnes convinced him that it was vital important that the Soviets did not establish a “beachhead in Central America”.

The CIA propaganda campaign included the distribution of 100,000 copies of a pamphlet entitled Chronology of Communism in Guatemala. They also produced three films on Guatemala for showing free in cinemas. Phillips, along with E.Howard Hunt, was responsible for running the CIA’s Voice of Liberation radio station. Faked photographs were distributed that claimed to show the mutilated bodies of opponents of Arbenz. William (Rip) Robertson was also involved in the campaign against Jacobo Arbenz.

…

Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 Aug 4 July 4 April 1 MKULTRA Birther and Kenya

On August 7, 1998, nearly simultaneous bombs blew up in front of the American embassies in *Nairobi, Kenya, and Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Two hundred and twenty-four people died in the blasts, including 12 Americans, and more than 4,500 people were wounded.

In the aftermath of the attacks, over 900 FBI agents alone - and many more FBI employees - traveled overseas to assist in the recovery of evidenceand the identification of victims at the bomb sites and to track down the perpetrators.

The November 13 2015 Paris attacks were a series of coordinated terrorist attacks[13][14] that took place on Friday 13 November 2015

Throughout 2015, France witnessed smaller attacks: the February stabbing of three soldiers guarding a Jewish community centre in Nice,[36] the June attempt to blow up a factory in Saint-Quentin Fallavier,[37] and the August shooting and stabbing attack on a passenger train.

On February 15, 1933, a deranged, unemployed brick layer named Giuseppe Zangara shouts “Too many people are starving!” and fires a gun at America’s president-elect, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He also served as Vice Speaker of the State Duma and the leader of parliamentary group Union of Right Forces. After a 2008 split in the Union of Right Forces, he co-founded Solidarnost December 13.

Roosevelt had just delivered a speech in Miami’s Bayfront Park from the back seat of his open touring car when Zangara opened fire with six rounds. Five people were hit. The president escaped injury but the mayor of Chicago, Anton Cermak, who was also in attendance, received a mortal stomach wound in the attack.

Several men tackled the assailant and might have beaten him to death if Roosevelt had not intervened, telling the crowd to leave justice to the authorities. Zangara later claimed I don’t hate Mr. Roosevelt personallyI hate all officials and anyone who is rich. He also told the FBI that chronic stomach pain led to his action: Since my stomach hurt I want to make even with the capitalists by kill the president. My stomach hurt long time [sic].

Zangara’s extreme action reflected the anger and frustration felt among many working Americans during the Great Depression. At the time of the shooting, Roosevelt was still only the president-elect and had yet to be sworn in history.com

Non uniformed combatants hiding in plain view.

These card tricks can bu used by Espionage agencies and actors who are concealing activities from the public but surround people material to events which have unfolded or will in the future.

Forcing decks

These decks are used to force a spectator to select a particular card, which the magician already knows in advance. Such a feat can be accomplished using a regular deck and sleight of hand but with the aid of a forcing deck the trick is made self-working. The simplest forcing Deck is called “one-way”. In a one-way deck all cards are identical (with the possible exception of one or two at the top and bottom of the deck). When using this deck, the magician must be careful to prevent the spectator from seeing the faces of the cards. The above-mentioned Svengali Deck is another sort of forcing deck, making it extremely easy to force the choice of one of the twenty-six short cards (which are all identical) in the deck.[9]

A variant of the one-way forcing deck is the Monte Cristo deck invented by Henry Hardin, where the cards appear to be different when fanned out. It is constructed by printing a deck of cards so their top half is as in a normal deck, while the bottom is all the same, originally the five of diamonds. Only one card is printed as normal, the same on top and bottom. The deck is arranged with the single normal card on the bottom. When the deck is fanned, only the tops of the cards can be seen so the identical lower halves are invisible. Only the single normal card on the end is fully visible. The magician can be sure that the spectator will always choose the five of diamonds, simply by rotating the deck so the other end of the cards is upward after a split.[10]

Rising card deck

With a rising card deck, the spectator chooses a card and puts it back in the deck of cards. Then, the chosen card magically rises, whether it is in the box, in the hands, on a surface, or even in a wine glass.

The construction of these decks varies. The simplest of these, often described in amateur magic books, involves cutting a hole in the back of the carton so that the performer can surreptitiously push up the top card with their finger. More complex arrangements include a pair of cards gimmicked with an elastic band onto which the target card can be pushed (between the gimmicked pair), or a deck with a fine black thread passed across the top onto which the target card can be pressed down. There are without a doubt more complex and clever arrangements in use.[11][12]

Invisible deck

The invisible deck is one of the best known card tricks. Joe Berg created the Invisible Deck in the 1930s, originally calling it the Ultra Mental Deck. Often mistakenly credited to Dai Vernon, Don Alan or Eddie Fields, the most-used presentation of an “invisible” deck of cards was invented by J.B. Bobo.

The trick’s title stems from the classic presentation of this effect, in which the magician hands the spectator an imaginary, or “invisible” deck. On being handed the deck, the spectator is asked to mime the acts of removing the cards from their case, shuffling them, spreading them face-up on the table, freely selecting a card, replacing it face-down among the other face-up cards, and returning the deck to its box.

At this point, either the spectator keeps the imaginary deck while the magician removes the real deck from his pocket, or the spectator hands the imaginary deck to the magician, which suddenly becomes real in the magician's hands.

This book referencing Manchurian Candidate quoting Wikipedia

During captivity, Shaw was programmed as a sleeper agent who blindly obeys orders to kill without any memory of his crimes. His battle heroism was a false memory implanted during the platoon's brainwashing. Agents trigger Shaw by suggesting he play solitaire; the Queen of Diamonds activates him.

After discovering the card's role in Shaw's conditioning, Marco uses a forced deck to deprogram him

Marylin Monroe, Albert Einstein the FOXp2 Dysgraphic Manhattan Project recomender, and Robert F. Kennedy

Actor Gianni Russo says Marilyn Monroe's death was orchestrated by Robert Kennedy to hide her involvement with John F.

Kennedy.

But was it really George H.W. Bush, Donald Barr, Dulles Brothers, and other CIA NSA FBI DARPA and was Marylin seeking assistance from Robert F. Kennedy?

[image]

> Gianni Russo, who played Carlo Rizzi in “The Godfather”, details Marilyn Monroe’s death in his upcoming book, “Hollywood Godfather: My Life in the Movies and the Mob”.
>
> The 75-year-old claims he had an on-and-off affair with the Hollywood legend, Monroe, beginning when he was 16 and she was 33.
>
> Russo has a photo of the two of them together at the CalNeva Lodge, a resort on the California-Nevada border, taken just three days before her death on August 5, 1962. He says the man behind the camera was Chicago crime boss, Sam Giancana.
>
> “It was taken three days before she was found dead in Los Angeles of what coroners deemed to be a drug overdose,” he said.
>
> ---
>
> Sign up to IrishCentral’s newsletter to stay up-to-date with everything Irish!Subscribe to IrishCentral

1. Albert Einstein, one of Jewishness’s greatest

Jews. Letter was factor starting the Manhattan Project, was a Dysgraphic, thought experiments of one factor variables, tying shoe problems fine motor control (me too I left this hint to Knottyh Boys hopping they would remember it if needded) poor school work but good science with Dyhsgraphic handrwriting.

2. Marylin Monroe descredited by being put in a pscyb ward she knew was totallly of place for what her normal place would be but was definded by that then murdered by the CIA, FBI, and Kennedy family it seems.

The FBI and Albert Eistien's Brain

Albert Einstein was Gangstalked and a secert FBI was kept on him as though he was an enemy. The FBI wanted his brain. I have said my will destroy my brain before the FBI or DARPA ever gets its hands on it and have said that for years.

> One Hundred Authors Against Einstein was published in 1931. … (FBI director J. Edgar Hoover went so far as to recommend that Einstein be kept out of America … Hear a discussion about the unique physical structure of Albert Einstein's brain.
>
> ---
>
> His FBI file totaled 1,800 pages. Einstein's brain was removed without permission during his autopsy and was sent to be tested for its perceived …

John F. Kennedy's Brazen Bull

John F. Kennedy was led to believe, and did believe partially, that regular armed conflict was growing too dangerous to the Earth and humanity and new ways must be found.

A policy was developed by strategic thinkers that short cuts must be created, short cuts which could undermine and reroute the lead-up into war and prevent war.

Irregular Ware ranging from assassinations, dirty wars, leverage, and special operations were to replace or preempt uniformed military combat.

He trusted those like the CIA and Sidney Gottlieb, the Dulles Brothers, and others, for a while, and then those very people burned JFK himself inside the Brazen bull JFK suspiciously built, the device in which the creators of devices die within.

What was to assist the United State quickly came to represent the United States and later even become the defining and controlling element of this Nation States existence.

Dirty wars, dirty people, deep state families, and corruption in lawless agencies.

I am a witness to the John F. Kennedy assassination and what unfolds is my story but it is also the story of the CIA and irregular warfare and how my family, law abiding and loyal, became a victim of dirty war techniques.

This material has not been easy to write. It meant learning terms of philosophy and war, and studying history, studying law, and study racial, ethnic, and religious rights, all trampled upon by ever more corrupt, desperate, and confused espionage policies spiraling into compounding error.

I call out to you now using linqa of Polis Sangua, of wetworks espionage takeing the place of Statemanship as fights for power, profit, and the escape of blame or culpability now is the charter of Palace Guards in a return to abitrary princes and governments.

Using illegal acts to defend the Nation is questionable. Using illegal acts to defend the acts of blundering leadership is not. It is wrongheaded government.

QJOHN F. KENNEDY AND U.S. NAVY SEALs - A New Commander in Town retrieved from Sharon Hamilton, https://authorsharonhamilton.com/ and copied or modified to here

… most people are surprised to learn that President John F. Kennedy formally recognized and created the U.S. Navy SEALs in 1962. While he didn't invent them, as is sometimes claimed, he was the first to sign into legislation the formal elite branch of the Navy that became the SEALs. Prior to that, SEALs had been known as UDT or "elite frogmen", since World War II. Learning from some of the heartbreak of earlier beach invasions, under water demolition (UDT) groups were trained to remove some of the land mines and obstacles to future invasion landings. These men were in fact the early SEALs.

In 1962 President Kennedy outlined in his now-famous speech to Congress that he desired to implement an elite fighting force that was well-trained and ready to respond to any "hot spot" or emergency that developed that threatened to destabilize our interests or those of our allies, or American citizens. Most people remember the speech as mentioning "putting a man on the moon," but he also talked about implementing the birth of the Navy SEALs. Kennedy was controversially interested in restructuring the military to make room for quick, unconventional forms of warfare, to augment and in some cases replace, the massive troop buildup and operations.

The Arms Control and Disarmament Act of 1961, 22 U.S.C. § 2551, was created to establish a governing body for the control and reduction of apocalyptic armaments with regards to protect a world from the burdens of armaments and the scourge of war. The Act provided an important aspect for the Kennedy Administration's foreign policy which was coherent with the United States national security policy.

The H.R. 9118 legislation was passed by the United States 87th Congressional session and signed by the 35th President of the United States John F. Kennedy on September 26, 1961.[1] [2] From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Degeneration and Degenerates, and the Disregulation of the State

In this book I assert and prove I am, my mother, father, and I are victims of viscous and outrageous Surveillance State violations of Human Rights and US Constitutional law, and in researching the true origins (not the State manufactured pretexts for it) I find I have been targeted for human rights abuse due to my father and mother's roles in history dating back to the Windsor Family and Vontrapps in Austria, then London, then the USA, and later my fathers Manhattan Project participation on the Atomic Bomb testing and bombing as a P-51 photographic B-29 escort pilot as well as Nevada above ground atomic blast exposure DNA testing subject.

The CIA, NSA, FBI, DARPA, and others have had long interest in certain family lines from an espionage standpoint of studying DNA, race, IQ, twins over courses of lives, and in covert activities have simply turned involuntary lab rats already victims into lab rats for harassment as study and for twins outcome life path manipulation of circumstances and opportunities.

I am among those families, those people which the Church

Committee in Congress investigated as victims and the victimhood including reproductive state practices abuses continues in my family line during the course of Human Rights violations but rouge agencies with long term wrongdoing which they will never admit to, the activities of MKULTRA and its continuing abusive horrors.

The origins and collective continue operation of MKULTRA is a collective guilt of a “Deep State” now turned into human trafficking in designer babies, murders, cover-ups, international acts of murder, and chaos of failed plans, successful coup de tats, sleeper agents, assassinations, and “animal husbandry” of grooming leaders in test tubes as much for CIA amusement and curiosity or profit rather than genuine state purpose.

The Laws in the USA may yield a different result than you expect

In the USA feelings are protected, as is most actions of a person or group within that belief such as the free exercise of religion so long as such acts do not unreasonably intrude on the rights of others.

Consider these elements individually under the laws of the USA.

1. My beliefs, my feelings on race, are protected. I (or perhaps someone’s beliefs taken theoretically here might) find, here, the sight of non whites repulsive, disgusting, as I find their culture and behavior disgusting, and if it were up to me white supremacist boots would crunch their skull into the pavement wherever these non whites were found.

2. What is NOT legal in the United States is non whites near me or even far away from me in locations I have > have never and may never go to victimizing themselves to the cameras of others and therefore manufacturing a claim “they will have my baby” because these non whites are “my pornography” or “providers” of “my pornography,” females perhaps near me but certainly victimized by the cameras of others, not mine.

Element 1 is legal, Element 2 is not. Elements 1 and 2 do not compete nor overlap but are polar instead, deviating from the center such that the repugnance of Element 2 is made greater in consideration of my lawfully held beliefs I define in Element 1.

Not only is this legitimately held as my belief is these matters fo conscience or mine which are protected from racial, religious, or ethnic violations by the Rome Statue.

These elements do not mutually annihilate or flow from each other either. Overtly stated, the providing a a white supremacist child porn against his will and sexual interests is abusive and meant to be a hostile act of a provocateur, an assailant.

Finally, the mechanism or the economics of the system are black market of the forged rights to DNA in adult entertainment as prurient racial use of black market economics and other manipulation to motive adult entertainment workers and create repugnant and exploitative systems.

This is merely those who find in their identity sphere recognizing a deficit condition and using hostile means to close the deficit by hostility towards another, towards others, me, and through victimizing me, victimizing my parents.

My “spiritual codes” my genetics origins and progeny future are not the property of others nor is it subject to involuntary transfer generally, involuntary transfer on a fraudulent basis, on a human rights basis, or any other involuntary basis.

Any claim I have ever consented to any of this is resultant from forged communication, forged identity, or misrepresentation, or those in combination., all of which have been used to found the operation's claims which lack any legitimacy.

Racial Walls and Pretexts that Manufacture Them

Apartheid South Africa

Between 1960 and 1983, 3.5 million black Africans were removed from their homes and forced into segregated neighbourhoods as a result of apartheid legislation, in some of the largest mass evictions in modern history.[17] Most of these targeted removals were intended to restrict the black population to ten designated "tribal homelands", also known as bantustans, four of which became nominally independent states.[15] The government announced that relocated persons would lose their South African citizenship as they were absorbed into the bantustans.[8]

The crime of apartheid is defined by the 2002 Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court as inhumane acts of a character similar to other crimes against humanity "committed in the context of an institutionalized regime of systematic oppression and domination by one racial group over any other racial group or groups and committed with the intention of maintaining that regime".

- Gender apartheid, economic and social discrimination because of gender

- Occupational apartheid, the concept that people can be deprived of meaningful work through segregation
- Religious apartheid, separation of people according to their religion
- Social apartheid, segregation on the basis of class or economic status

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Reproductive Aprtheid, Veiled threats continue in my life that if I am near a white female I will be subjected to violence while at the same time I am forced teamed to sexualozed encounters with non whites or other and via these abusive conditions it is asserted I must “pay up with my DNA’ for these non white living conditions.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from Veil and copied or modified to here

Veil

1. verb to obscure, or conceal with or as if with a veil “women in Afghanistan veil their faces”
2. verb make undecipherable or imperceptible by obscuring or concealing “a veiled threat”

In its most desperate hour, not its noblest, an Espionage scramble to claim the rights to my genome and that such a claim would be legitimate.

A Surveillance State Survivor thus far, with loss of health and lifespan to Covert COINTELPRO long term ambush of my life

Similarly pretextual and false arrest backed excuses are made to prevent my being in normal cities as the true motives to hold me under Reproductive Apartheid and held from the scrutiny of the rights holder, myself.

In its simplest terms those who want the goods want to be near me, claim the goods, and under threat of arrest keep me from any others

I have stated many times I, I, am not a victim of this, my mother and father are the victims

Many have called my views in race into question because I keep shouting (and saying in my Sunday best voice) “You dirty greasy things are so filthy I need to bleach the pours of my white skin just because I was ever near you, you disgusting turd non-white mud.”

Repugnance

Racial, Religious, Ethnic and Internationally motivated sexual abuse has regularly even repetitively (sensitizing me on these matters by continuing abrasion) been used to attack me not only for the effect on reproductivity and fertility but as an intentional infliction of emotional distress in the conduct of reproductivity abuse.

Repugnance via State Involuntary Medical Procedure

Conspiracy Against Rights OF Individuals under involuntary pretextually false civil commitment (using Due Process, Habeus, and other violations) in prelude to Reproductive and other abuses.

Religious Abuse by Ethnic Warfare

Much of the abuse of me has been in the form of those of other religions attacking me both legally and in public standing by attempting to sexually humiliate me before the public as a sexually abusive person (and thus a morally and also included intellectually flawed person) so their own religion may gain in standing before the public and claims to my reproductivity.

This abuse has been sourced from both racial and religious grounds, in an overlay of ethnically and racially connected groups operating in the illegal scheme.

Repugnance as defined in the Rome Statute accord

The numerical scale may be questioned as to applicability of the Rome statute in these religious, ethnic, and reproductive matters but the jurisdiction of the Rome Statute is not in question; a wide ranging operation is underway in numerous countries, most all of them signator nations and bound by the Rome Statue including nations in which the United State Military is conducting illegal acts within those national and international jurisdictions.

This book

NDAA And Military Operations in the USA against MKULTRA Victims

[image]

"Lia"Obama's Adopted Sister Died Suddenly Posted on August 7, 2010 by Bridgette

You haven't heard of Lia? Neither had we. The unknown, until now, adopted sister of Barack Hussein Obama died unexpectedly February 26, 2010. The USA media didn't cover the story of this woman nor was her name found until the last few days. A competent WTPOTUS sleuth, Leza, and other researchers uncovered an article about an adopted "kakak" (literally "older sibling", often translated as "brother") in Indonesia, named Lia or Lee.

Fake Evidence and Fake News in FUSION Centers run by Boeing Corp and DARPA

That fake data going into a rigged "intelligence unit" evidence "fusion" center for guesswork on what might be happening, I am wrongly targeted and subject to wrongful assets seizures and even predatory misrepresentation of me who wants my assets for their victims while denying to me those are my assets being used for victims, no true accounting only ambiguity in statements, nothing that upon being pinned down they won't repudiate that they had meant that.

I assert this secondary 555 IC is the shadow government of NOW Free Masonry funding genomic and cash out of integrated bankruptcy court, Nueces County Hospital, Nueces Bar Association, James Woolsey CIA offices, Catholic Charities, Virgin Islands groups, IRS offices, etc., in that building, secretly tied to Hillary Clinton, the Kennedy family, Colin and Alma Powell, and “brain berries” out of 7th Floor Archdiocese in the 555 building claiming my biological assets.

Its MKULTRA groups and operations and its ultra powerful vested interests are requesting media silence and getting media silence or even media cover fire as complicit media intimidates and bans others reporting on the operations of MKULTRA, at times called “Truther” theory.

556 is the new 555 in triggering Asset Seizures in the Fusion Center Intelligence Estimate Centers

Combinatorics

The improper linking of people to events or other people/.

Combinatorics retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

It is an undirected view that people were in the area of the X Vertex and the Y Vertex,. and maybe even a the same time rather than overlayed. Improper linking of people direct viewers to the wrong conclusions

Combinatorics is an area of mathematics primarily concerned with counting, both as a means and an end in obtaining results, and certain properties of finite structures. It is closely related to many other areas of mathematics and has many applications ranging from logic to statistical physics and from evolutionary biology to computer science.

Combinatorics is well known for the breadth of the problems it tackles. Combinatorial problems arise in many areas of pure mathematics, notably in algebra, probability theory, topology, and geometry,[1] as well as in its many application areas. Many combinatorial questions have historically been considered in isolation, giving an ad hoc solution to a problem arising in some mathematical context. In the later twentieth century, however, powerful and general theoretical methods were developed, making combinatorics into an independent branch of mathematics in its own right. One of the oldest and most accessible parts of combinatorics is graph theory, which by itself has numerous natural connections to other areas. Combinatorics is used frequently in computer science to obtain formulas and estimates in the analysis of algorithms.

In mathematics, graph theory is the study of graphs, which are mathematical structures used to model pairwise relations between objects. A graph in this context is made up of vertices (also called nodes or points) which are connected by edges (also called links or lines). A distinction is made between undirected graphs, where edges link two vertices symmetrically, and directed graphs, where edges link two vertices asymmetrically. Graphs are one of the principal objects of study in discrete mathematics.

I have shown what a Fake Trigger is, what I am using the Espionage Term for, Cutouts, which I call Fake Ties to things, Broken Links.

Links are created things not connected like pllanted evidence or evidence is broken to things that are connected like hidden evidence.

Here evidence is faked from my real world to tie me to fake matters, and those fake matters a pretext to attack my real assets and life under false pretenses.

Functionally this funds and rewards scum bags to plant evidence I have harmed them or their families or others allowing them to create a Protection Racket in which they ask for compensation from my trust fund and also money to protect their neighborhood from future damage.

1. Neutral Grounding of chip as normal, not charged

2. Trigger event, manufacture of child porn, illegal stocking of army boots and guns, etc.,

3. Output Order of Biological Assets seizure of “bankrupt” person with NO OTHER ASSETS.

4. ResetPaid up, victim compensated, no arrest, victim compensated via Disposition of criminal assets to victim children and protectros of children.

In the photo below some trigger event starts a liability. The trigger event is that some person other than me, wrongly tied to me, is using females as porn.

The generates a liability discharging some capacity, the funds of my trust fund, until that discharge is complete.

My world is 555m, me thier stalk team is 555t, them. I tall them Tx who transmit confessions to the trust fund of Ed being guilty, but I am not. I am Rx who is the recipeint of planted females as “porn” I do not want and even call the police one.

The trigger events is someone activates a camera by the shutter button. The fraud event is it seems I am tied to that act and that is by appearances only, and I believe this is the fruad in asset seizures allowed by the case before Judge Roll.

The press of the shutter button triggers a discharge from my trust fund. the two inserted of one fraud is superimposed on my existence with two sets of activity at the same location

551m + 555t tied to me in some false way= 556 of a syllgism

M= M me T=liability t=M makes me liabvle for M's acts tied to me.

There is more information about 555 timers and their circuits on the Electronics in Meccano website.

“The 8-pin 555 timer must be one of the most useful chips ever made and it is used in many projects. With just a few external components it can be used to build many circuits, not all of them involve timing! A popular version is the NE555 and this is suitable in most cases where a ‘555 timer’ is specified. The 556 is a dual version of the 555 housed in a 14-pin package, the two timers (A and B) share the same power supply pins. The circuit diagrams on this page show a 555, but they could all be adapted to use one half of a 556.

Low power versions of the 555 are made, such as the ICM7555, but these should only be used when specified (to increase battery life) because their maximum output current of about 20mA (with a 9V supply) is too low for many standard 555 circuits. The ICM7555 has the same pin arrangement as a standard 555.” *

The 555 timer, simplex trigger, operates on a trigger which in my case should be the acts of Rx, me. The 556 uses the second timer of a separate operation entirely and trips on the signal of Tx. That then is fed to the 555 output logic used against me in Asset Seizures i a duplicitous-pretext way.

	Asset Seizure orders agaisnt Rx System upon Trigger Events Tx
	555-1 USA	System outputs Order Asset Seizures Rx Assets outputted on 555-1
			Disposition Matrix of NDAA Asset

			Seizures of criminal's assets
Tx, Trigger in my identity, acts Trigger o 551-2 aka 556	551-2 Free Masons seeking pplitical and other capital for themselves		Free Masons victims and protectors of Free Masons victims funded

My theory is if the government can not do harm to a person for entirely arbitrary reasons (the gov has other religious, political, financial interests) the government "targets" people for harassment by defaming them with a Gangstalk of false evidence appearances, like children tots bending over in front of me in parks making me look like Aqualung (song) so I am disavowed by the communities I would otherwise be in because they THINK I was pursuing the exploitatively positioned tot, not vice versa. The role of the office mob is for stalkers to move into a persons location of employment and in a whisper campaign talk up the appearances that were created when a TI was walking around in public and paid actors put them in a scene out of the TIs control, but was written as a play in which the TI is a villain.

Families names like the Gotelieb, Barr, Bush, and hangers on to power still like Colin and ALma Powell have to use espionage illegality to "fire upon" with plausible deniability those loyal US Citizens and others who are evidence in their biology of poorly regulated Eugenics programs those families oversaw and benefited from, and the people and cooperation need and manufacture the excuses to act outside of any good quality three branches of government systems.

> "The Rogue Military are a group of ex-soldiers who abandoned their duties and became self-serving. They can be considered as ones of the most dangerous > enemies in the game. They are always aggressive towards Player." - https://deadstate.gamepedia.com/Rogue_Military

This set of chapters in this section allege a federal judge was killed so CIA FBI NSA DARPA DIA who already had used my family DNA in massive levels of twins study experiments leading to media and political stars, and now trying to supress the DNA and twins study pscychometric comparisons so the illegal science and the scientists and politicians behind the illegal science can escape the detection of their wrongdoing.

> Top US Federal Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda [of Trust Fund Seizures for Foreign Economies] - The European Union Times
>
> A Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that the top US Federal Judge for the State of Arizona was assassinated barely 72-hours after he made a critical [Feburary?] ruling against the Obama administrations plan to begin the confiscation of their citizen's private retirement and banking accounts in order to stave off their nations imminent economic collapse, and after having the US Marshals protecting him removed.
>
> According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a "preliminary ruling" in a case titled "United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al" [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama's power to seize American citizens money

> without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

MKULTRA families tied to Eugenics when Eugenics were OK have no where to run, no where to hide. As the most powerful elites in society they can abuse government offices and increasingly unconstitutional (Void for Vagueness) systems to target their MKULTRA victims and discredit them.

First off an illegal scheme called a Gangstalk will harass my life to a downward turn by evidence plants and other harassment, and during the course of that cops taller and thinner and with more hair seem to be interested in competing with me for any woman I am near as these cops speed away with her, the squad car lights on, champagne in the squad, waving goodbye to me.

It is a harassment of my family and reproductive life and I believe in a hostile way they are both claiming my biology in asset seizures tied so sex offense evidence plants and what they also get out of that is making me a second tier choice for women and I think their hoping I will not settle down with a woman in my own life and doing that as politician backed harassment, harassment stemming from secret DNA usgae and where my DNA might later be found.

In Mullhalland Falls (a movie) Analogy I will assert the US Military from Atomic Proving (testing of atomic devices and experiments) are hoping I will have no children in a short un-meaningfull life an such an outcome would get some people like the Dept of Defense off the hook.

Subversion and Conspiracy

> Targeted or Placed Individuals and their usage as

Espionage 1) Assets 2) Dupes 3) Mercenaries

A person in an organization or an organization in a vicinity who is Targeted for recruitment to work for the interests exterior to the organization they are in or placed in an organization to work for the interest exterior to the interest of the organization they are Placed in or recruited from, likely they will work for interest that placed them. Fox News fragged their own New Chief -From Ed Donegan

Reconnaissance

Studying the footprint, social networks, employee rolls, etc., to Target individuals who might be willing to act as an Asset

Recruit (asset)

A person recruited for the purpose of Espionage

Placed Individual or Co-operating Organization (asset)

A person placed into an organization working for an exterior or aligned interest. They may (re)place Assassinated Individuals or de-elected individuals and then operate with a Espionage motive for an Inside-Job motive or a Placed Individual may simply be added to some context such as a scene in public.

An inside job is a crime, usually larceny, robbery or embezzlement, which occurs when a person holding a position of trust abuses their status. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

In my case I think wars are fought against me such as race and pedophilia wars allowing Espionage based font organizations to conspire against my rights and during that hold public support.

Doppelgangers can serve a variety of purposes. They can frame innocent people as part of infiltration and murder based covert operations, be used to obtain FISA other warrants for the purpose of Espionage Under False Writ or Order, variously called False Legal Prescription for Abuse of Process.

Much like braking a tail light, a cop gets an excuse to surveil someone on prurient, political, or non-race neutral grounds because of the acts of the double, not the real individual.

Also the real individual is judged by the double, not himself, especially when and as if in FISA court proceedings where the targeted person is not there to dispel any association with the acts of the double.

Finally, Information Doubles create “information” coming from the double to others which is intended to be mistaken as information from or about the real person, thus the recipient of the information has been duped by Psychological Warfare.

Bad Information into a Commander, Bad Decision Out from a Commander

Hitting people's knee with a small rubber hammer in just the right spot to get them to kick the ball

Targeting Military Commanders with what the Dopple did) - The Reflexive Control Method

Military or bsuiness or media- commanders are prime targets of Reflexive Control. This method, as defined by Timothy Thomas is "a means of conveying to a partner or an opponent specially prepared information to incline him to voluntarily make the predetermined decision desired by the initiator of the Doppelganger action.

Incite, Inflame, Dupe, Incentive, Tempt Recruits Google Dictionary

"Hands Off" Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law uses police backed plants of evidence a person is a wrongdoer then encouraging public harassment including businesses, etc. "Posters alleged suspects to cause public harassment of alleged suspects"

incite

encourage or stir up (violent or unlawful behavior). "the offense of inciting racial hatred"

inflame

1. provoke or intensify (strong feelings, especially anger) in someone. "high fines further inflamed public feelings" .

2. cause inflammation in (a part of the body) “the finger joints were inflamed with rheumatoid arthritis”

dupe

verb dupe deceive; trick. . “the newspaper was duped into publishing an untrue story” noun a victim of deception”knowing accomplices or unknowing dupes”

incentivize provide (someone) with an incentive for doing something. “this is likely to incentivize management to find savings”

tempt

entice or attempt to entice (someone) to do or acquire something that they find attractive but know to be wrong or not beneficial. “there’ll always be someone tempted by the rich pickings of poaching”

My genome is a high value disruption target for the ruling elite of US Government and society for it is proof of their guilt and illegal programs.

This book guesses that there is a Deep State in DARPA, the CIA or CIA contractors like Blackwater, the FBI DOJ, and even CENTCOM, and the NSA in which secretive programs are studying brain genes and have been doing so since 1920s Vienna Austria and in that history underground Free Mason railroads and espionage agencies have been inseparable in roles of history and even in the major figures in history who wore many hats in their civil service.

They now have been caught “with their pants down” (except those arguing for transparency) as DNA Forensics are revealing family connections and genome history around the world which some of these Illuminati have been secretly tampering with, using the “goods” of unknown hidden identities like famous leaders illegitimate children for their own Illuminati use and around the world for Illuminant groomed as sleeper agents including the Obama family line.

This research, this book, came out of my search for the bizarre and illegal interest the USA has in my genome, my tracing it to MKULTRA and online material tracing it into “truther” theory.

My genome appears to be going onto the black market to help the economy of underprivileged communities near me and it seem internationally too through genome seizures under the NDAA.

The NDAA

> NDAA
>
> The National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) is the name for each of a series of United States federal laws specifying the annual budget and expenditures of the U.S. Department of Defense. The first NDAA was passed in 1961. * Wikipedia
>
> Fusion Center aka Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit
>
> Fusion Centers are designed to promote information sharing at the federal level between agencies such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, the U.S. Department of Justice, and state, local, and tribal law enforcement. Wikipedia

Asset Seizures and Kill List

Seizure and forfeiture of conveyances, gross proceeds, and property traceable to such … Amended: National Defense Authorization Act *.

Disposition Matrix

When Criminal Activies result in Asset Seizures crippling the Criminal Enterprise seized assets are disposed of by award to victims of criminal activity

NDAA Secret Military Acts directly out of the White House

Every year, Congress passes the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), which makes appropriations for the defense budget. This is mandated under Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution, which delegates powers to Congress, here stating: “The Congress shall have Power … To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years.” However, like much of the legislation that comes out of Washington, each years bill is stuffed with other provisions.

The NDAA began receiving wide attention in late 2011 when, on December 31, President Obama signed the NDAA for Fiscal Year 2012. Under Title X, Subtitle D of this law is the controversial section 1021, which essentially legalizes martial law in the United States. Reading “Affirmation of authority of the Armed Forces of the United States to detain covered persons pursuant to the Authorization of Use of Military Force,” this provision allows the United States military to act as a police force, and arrest or use force against any person (including American citizens) suspected of terrorism. Further, they may hold these persons without trial indefinitely.

The NDAA for 2013, which President Obama signed this month, again includes these provisions despite pressure from Senator Rand Paul (R-Ky.), citing Section 1021 as a gross, unconstitutional overreach of federal power. Proponents of this legislation characterize such interpretations of the law as hyperbolic and "paranoid," stating that Section 1021 will only be used under the pretext of "Counter-terrorism." Save the fact that this provision all but wipes out nearly our entire Bill of Rights in one fell swoop and that the persons detaining you serve as judge, jury, and executioner in determining who qualifies as a "terrorist."

Senator Diane Feinstein (D-Calif.) and Senator Mike Lee (R-Utah) sponsored an amendment to the 2013 NDAA which is intended to limit Section 1021's powers to indefinitely detain American citizens. However, many civil liberties groups, including the ACLU, have publicly stated that the amendment is counterproductive. Senior Legislative Counsel at the ACLU, Chris Anders, states that the Feinstein-Lee Amendment can be misconstrued to imply that the Constitution grants authority for indefinite detention.

"Moreover, we are very concerned that the Feinstein amendment implicitly authorizes domestic military detention. By seeking to protect only United States citizens and legal permanent residents, the amendment could be read to imply that indefinite military detention of any other persons apprehended within the United States was authorized in 2001 and was lawful," the ACLU wrote, referring to the Authorization for Use of Military Force, passed the week after the 9/11 attacks in pursuit of a "war on terror." "In addition, the clause 'unless an Act of Congress expressly authorizes such detention' could be read to imply that there are no constitutional obstacles to Congress enacting a statute that would authorize the domestic military detention of any person in the United States."

Late in the evening on Monday, Aug. 13, about six hours after President Donald Trump publicly signed the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for fiscal 2019 into law, the White House quietly released a signing statement identifying "constitutional concerns" with more than 50 of the new NDAA's provisions. Among them are several measures specifically intended to address concerns with Trump's foreign policy, including by imposing limits on troop withdrawals from South Korea, Trump's engagements with Russia, and U.S. support for the Saudi-led campaign in Yemen. Trump's statement indicates that these constitutional concerns prevent his administration from implementing these provisions as written. Instead, it states, he intends to interpret and apply them in a manner consistent with his constitutional authorities.

https://www.lawfareblog.com/president-obamas-ndaa-signing-statement-guantanamo

https://www.lawfareblog.com/what-make-trumps-ndaa-signing-statement

This system is being used to frame me as a criminal and create transfers to non white communities, and other religions and I believe it is backward justification of what Sidney Gottlieb and others did during MKULTRA and now both hiding the long ago MKULTRA acts and also trying to claim the rights, after the fact, are part of false claims to my genome and hiding the actuality of my genome and its qualities.

Perversion and Diversion rather than My Version

A "Gangstalk" of government harassment facilitated by use of hacks ih the legal system has mis-characterized me with rigged findings, diverting from the truth, perverting the truth, creating the lie I am retarded, developmentally, socially, sexually, and intellectually, when in fact my version is I am merely being harassed from normal opportunities in life and misdiagnosed by hacks or on planted evidence or circumstantial evidence.

I have always known I have been subjected to Government backed harassment and misdiagnosis but until recently I did not know the goverment's motives.

It traces to an MKULTRA Deep State mostly out of the State Department and NASA DARPA programs.

This book

Hitmen Evidence Clustering Around Judge Roll, Scalia, and Thomas Crane Wales

Thomas Crane Wales was born in Boston, Massachusetts. He was a graduate of Milton Academy, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy.

Wales graduated from Harvard University and the Maurice A. Deane School of Law, where he graduated with distinction in 1979 and served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Hofstra Law Review.

Thomas Wales was born in Boston, Massachusetts. He was a graduate of Milton Academy (a preparatory school) in Boston, an unofficial feeder for Harvard University, where he roomed with Joseph Patrick Kennedy II, the son of Robert F. Kennedy.

Experiments in DNA in DARPA Brain programs, secret tiwns, secret studies, secret grooming of long term grooming projects.

And how this fits my Mullholand Falls movie analogy that they are covering up radiation testing and clone usages of eggs in various families, “bird eggs” Audon society Malcom X and GLORIAN DONEGAN

The “Gadget” was the implosion plutonium device detonated in the Trinity Test in July 1945. Manhattan Project scientists had to overcome difficult scientific and engineering challenges to design and build the Gadget.

Alma Powell the Audiologist Speech Therapist from Boston that I suspect in the MC Donald family murders along with her hushand Colin Powell may have been the solicitor of hit , the woman described as sounding nice.

Alma Vivian Powell (née Johnson; born October 27, 1937) is an American audiologist and the widow of military and political figure Colin Powell,[1] whom she married on August 25, 1962.

FBI Seeking Information

Letter May Be Linked to 2001 Killer

04/17/06

An anonymous letter sent to FBI officials purportedly from a gunman who shot United States Attorney Thomas C. Wales in his Seattle home in 2001 is prompting a renewed call for the public's assistance. A $1 million reward is being offered in the case.

The Anonymous Letter

https://archives.fbi.gov/archives/news/stories/2006/april/wales_letter041706 *

The Anonymous Letter

Re: Thomas C Wales

OK, so I was broke and between jobs I got an anonymous call offering $xxxx to shoot the guy, so I drove to Seattle to do the job. I did not even know his name. Just got laid off from a job. Nice talking lady, I didn't know her name, she called me, talked to me by name, and asked if I needed some money. I agreed to pursue the matter, hell, I was going bankrupt.

Go to Seattle, heck I lived there once, no big deal. Hang out in this guy's backyard, she even gave me the address. Stop off at a place, pick up our gun, and drop it off at a specified location when you are done. THEN, you will be directed to where your money is. The wife was out of town, I had no witnesses here, I was curious about who knew me so well. I used cash to pay for all my expenses to avoid an audit trail. No cell phone. I was directed to a place to pick up the gun, they wanted me to use, and an address. The gun was there.

I drove to the address, and then parked some distance away, north of downtown. I kind of camped out in the backyard of this house, and waited for the guy to settle in at his computer. Once he was there, I took careful aim. I shot two or possibly more times, and watched him collapse. I absurdly waited a few minutes and then left. I was sure he was dead. Retracing my steps, I dropped off the gun, found my money, and returned to > Vegas. I feel bad about it, but I needed the money, and there were no witnesses. I really don't know who fronted the money, but the $xxxx was there, and I sure needed it.

>
> (A portion of the letter has been omitted to ensure investigative integrity.)

In February 2018, an FBI official reported the investigation had found "evidence strongly suggesting" Wales was murdered by a contract killer and, for the first time, indicated that his death was likely a conspiracy involving a small group of people. The United States Department of Justice, meanwhile, announced that then-Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein would arrive in Seattle on Wednesday, February 21, 2018, to brief media on the progress of the 16-year-old investigation.

It has been suggested by the media that U.S Attorney John McKay was dismissed by the George W. Bush administration in part due to his request that resource allocation for the Wales investigation remain high[according to whom?]. In June 2007, the FBI cut the staff assigned to the case down to two.

McKay (US Attorney for Seatle and long time resident) was one of eight U.S. attorneys fired by the Bush administration in 2006 which were, after the fact, publicly described as being for performance-related issues related to "policy, priorities and management."

He now teaches law at a Jesuit Seatle university

Late December 2004: White House Counsel Alberto Gonzales and Justice Department official Kyle Sampson discuss replacing some or all of the country's 93 U.S. attorneys.

> Inquiry into Fired U.S. Attorneys

NPR *

> As a young man, Sampson served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints among Hmong refugees who had emigrated from Laos to Minnesota.[5] After graduating from Brigham Young University in 1993, Sampson earned a J.D. degree with honors from The University of Chicago Law School in 1996, serving as Articles Editor on the law review.[6] He clerked for Judge Karen J. Williams of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and then joined the Salt Lake City law firm of Parr Waddoups Brown Gee & Loveless.

Jan. 9, 2005: Sampson e-mails Deputy White House Counsel David Leitch to suggest dismissing 15 percent to 20 percent of all U.S. attorneys, including those who are not “loyal Bushies.” Sampson writes, “If Karl [Rove, the president’s political adviser] thinks there would be political will to do it, then so do I.”

Harriet Ellan Miers agrees who is a one time Southern Methodist student is an American lawyer who served as White House Counsel to President George W. Bush from 2005 to 2007. A member of the Republican Party since 1988, she previously served as White House Staff Secretary from 2001 to 2003 and White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Policy from 2003 until 2005. Wikipedia Born: August 10, 1945 (age 76 years), Dallas, TX

Jan. 9, 2006: Sampson e-mails Miers to suggest replacing “a limited number of U.S. Attorneys.”

March 9, 2006: President Bush signs the USA PATRIOT Act reauthorization into law. One provision allows the attorney general to appoint replacement U.S. attorneys indefinitely without Senate confirmation.

May 11, 2006: Kyle Sampson e-mails White House official William Kelley: “Please call me at your convenience to discuss … the real problem we have right now with [San Diego U.S. Attorney] Carol Lam that leads me to conclude that we should have someone ready to be nominated on NOvember 18, the day after her 4-year term expires.”

Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center, Memorial Campus was a hospital that was located at 333 N. Prairie Ave, Inglewood, California retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Attorneys on Lam’s staff, including Assistant United States Attorneys Jason Forge, Phillip Halpern and Valerie Chu, secured indictments against Central Intelligence Agency official Kyle “Dusty” Foggo and contractor Brent R. Wilkes. Wilkes figured in the Cunningham scandal.

Lam was an expert in prosecuting healthcare fraud, having authored a 954-page textbook on the subject.[10] As U.S. Attorney, Lam took an interest in the case of San Diego’s Alvarado Hospital Medical Center, which was owned by Tenet Healthcare Corporation, the nation’s second-largest hospital chain.

Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center, Memorial Campus was a hospital that was located at 333 N. Prairie Ave, Inglewood, California, USA. The hospital was operated by Centinela Freeman HealthSystem, and was one of the three campuses of the Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center.

The hospital was founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in 1954 as Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital,[1][2] named after Daniel Freeman, founder of the city of Inglewood. Carondelet later purchased a hospital in Marina del Rey and named it Daniel Freeman Marina Hospital.[3] The two Daniel Freeman hospitals were acquired in 2001 by Tenet Healthcare.[4] The name was changed in 2004, when the hospital was transferred to the Centinela Freeman HealthSystem.[5]

> David Leitch biography
>
> wallmine *
>
> David G. Leitch is Global General Counsel of the BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION. He has served as general counsel of Ford Motor Company since April 2005 to December 2015, where his department has captured several industry awards. His experience includes private practice as well as public service. He served as deputy White House counsel for President George W. Bush; chief counsel for the Federal Aviation Administration; deputy assistant attorney general in the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Legal Counsel; and law clerk to the late U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist.

> https://crosscut.com/
>
> They’re messing with all 12 McKays and all their friends *
>
> If Rove had wanted to damage the GOP in Seattle, he could not have found a better target than John McKay. John McKay’s family is legendary in Seattle. If you grew up in Seattle, especially their neighborhood on > Capitol Hill, attended Seattle Prep, went to church at St. Joe's, practiced law, or became active in politics, charities, Catholic events, or community service - you traveled with the McKays.

Mulholland Falls Gen. Timms (John Malkovich), kingpin of U.S. atomic testing, who saw the girl on the last weekend of her life. And Timms, in turn, is connected to the unbending Col. Fitzgerald (Treat Williams) will kill the woman and other witnesses to the goings on at the facility).

Euginces studies and experiments during the Kennedy admin and even starting in 1958 with DARPA are a part of this story.

Bird Eggs, Malcom X, and use of test fertilizations and human subects were part of Malcom X, the Windors, my famiy as out of wedlock CIA test DNA (in my family's case in wedlock but was also used without our permission, eggs elsewhere, many murders tied to cleaning up detectable CIA expeirments with Windsors and their visit to Seattle with the Kennedy's

Euginces studies and experiments during the Kennedy admin and even starting in 1958 with DARPA are a part of this story.

Alan Gottlieb MD Resume - SlideSharehttps://www.slideshare.net › AlanGottliebMDMPH › ala … Feb 19, 2015 - Alan R. Gottlieb MD MPH 45 Sanders Ranch Road • Moraga, CA 94556

> Right-wing Bellevue entrepreneur Alan Gottlieb of Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms told the Seattle Weekly he suspected Wales was killed by one of his own, perhaps voluntarily, to elevate him to martyr status for the gun-control cause. Radical right-wing Web sites snickered over his death. One called him "yet another arrogant, gun-banning Jew, out in the open, unafraid.”[Wales was not Jewish.]

52 Lambeth Sq Moraga CA 94556 Jim Glorian Tom Ed $32k

MOST WANTED

THOMAS CRANE WALES

Made Victim

Seattle, Washington

October 11, 2001

Twitter Facebook Email

Download Poster

- English
- Information on Violence Flyer
- $1 Million Reward Ad

An Unsolved Killing What does the firing of a U.S. Attorney have to do with a murder case? retrieved from The New Yorker and copied or modified to here

Tom Wales was not supposed to be home on the night of October 11, 2001. Wales, an Assistant United States Attorney in Seattle, had planned to have dinner and spend the evening with his girlfriend, Marlis DeJongh, a court reporter who lived downtown. But that afternoon Wales called DeJongh and said that he had projects he needed to work on at home. In the evening, after leaving his office, near the federal courthouse, he returned to his Craftsman-style, wood-frame house in a quiet neighborhood known as Queen Anne.

Tom Wales an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Seattle who became a guncontrol activist was killed in his home in 2001.

Tom Wales, an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Seattle who became a gun-control activist, was killed in his home in 2001.ILLUSTRATION BY ALEX WILLIAMSON, PHOTO COURTESY WALES FOUNDATION

Wales was forty-nine years old and had been a federal prosecutor for eighteen years. When he worked late, which was often, he would tell his family and friends, "I'm here at my post, serving my sovereign." The phrase was partly a joke, a bit of feigned grandiosity to justify a tendency toward excessive meticulousness

Incomplete evidence making circumstantial evidence seizures cases

Wikipedia quoted here from link

While eugenic principles have been practiced as early as ancient Greece, the contemporary history of eugenics began in the early 20th century, when a popular eugenics movement emerged in the United Kingdom,[6] and then spread to many countries, including the United States, Canada,[7] and most European countries. In this period, people from across the political spectrum espoused eugenic ideas. Consequently, many countries adopted eugenic policies, intended to improve the quality of their populations' genetic stock. Such programs included both positive measures, such as encouraging individuals deemed particularly "fit" to reproduce, and negative measures, such as marriage prohibitions and forced sterilization of people deemed unfit for reproduction. Those deemed "unfit to reproduce" often included people with mental or physical disabilities, people who scored in the low ranges on different IQ tests, criminals and "deviants," and members of disfavored minority groups.

The eugenics movement became associated with Nazi Germany and the Holocaust when the defense of many of the defendants at the Nuremberg trials of 1945 to 1946 attempted to justify their human-rights abuses by claiming there was little difference between the Nazi eugenics programs and the U.S. eugenics programs.[8] In the decades following World War II, with more emphasis on human rights, many countries began to abandon eugenics policies, although some Western countries (the United States, Canada, and Sweden among them) continued to carry out forced sterilizations.

Since the 1980s and 1990s, with new assisted reproductive technology procedures available, such as gestational surrogacy (available since 1985), pre-implantation genetic diagnosis (available since 1989), and cytoplasmic transfer (first performed in 1996), concern has grown about the possible revival of a more potent form of eugenics after decades of promoting human rights.

A criticism of eugenics policies is that, regardless of whether negative or positive policies are used, they are susceptible to abuse because the genetic selection criteria are determined by whichever group has political power at the time.[9] Furthermore, many criticize negative eugenics in particular as a violation of basic human rights, seen since 1968's Proclamation of Tehran[10] as including the right to reproduce. Another criticism is that eugenics policies eventually lead to a loss of genetic diversity, thereby resulting in inbreeding depression due to a loss of genetic variation.[11] Yet another criticism of contemporary eugenics policies is that they propose to permanently and artificially disrupt millions of years of evolution, and that attempting to create genetic lines "clean" of "disorders" can have far-reaching ancillary downstream effects in the genetic ecology, including negative effects on immunity and on species resilience.[12]

Context, If Obama and even Glorian DNA and Mitochondria get seized, as if a Nest Egg trust fund, Obama relatives would be from everywhere, not somewhere

Mark Edward Kelly (born February 21, 1964) is an American politician, former astronaut, engineer, and U.S. Navy captain.

Born with him and in the Scott Kelly retired from NASA in 2016.[12] Kelly's identical twin brother, Mark Kelly, is also a retired astronaut.

In the development of family database testing is it possible they were tested for familial connections to each other, to Barack Obama family of origin, to a Glorian Donegan person of February 20 November 18 Dec 13 360 Spiritual DNA Genomic code?

Could NASA Langley Life Sciences move bits of DNA code around the world in further racial and IQ work and increase the DNA deployment already partially achieved in secret DNA family lines testing in secret programs and surrogates, etc.,

Could these tie to the meaning of intelligence, life, the search for it, and understanding it?

> Top US Federal Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda [of Trust Fund Seizures for Foreign Economies] - The European Union Times
>
> A Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that the top US Federal Judge for the State of Arizona was assassinated barely 72-hours after he made a critical [Feburary?] ruling against the Obama administrations plan to begin the confiscation of their citizen's private retirement and banking accounts in order to stave off their nations imminent economic collapse, and after having the US Marshals protecting him removed.

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a “preliminary ruling” in a case titled “United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al” [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama’s power to seize American citizens money …

> without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

Proximity Fallicies

> Post Hoc Ergo Propter Hoc
>
> Temporal proximity fallacy After and therefore resultant of
>
> Topi Proximal Ergo Unum
>
> Spatial proximity

Fallacy Things are nex to each other and are therefore connected to each other and a single event

Original Articles Languages of Place and Discourses of Power: Constructing New Senses of Place Patricia A. Stokowski Pages 368-382 | Published online: 13 Dec 2017 retrieved from The Interwebes and copied or modified to here

Abstract The concept of “sense of place” typically is used to refer to an individual’s ability to develop feelings of attachment to particular settings based on combinations of use, attentiveness, and emotion. Despite the assumed positive values of a sense of place, critics point out that places are more than simply geographic sites-they are also fluid, changeable, dynamic contexts of social interaction and memory, and they “contain” overt and covert social practices that embed in place-making behaviors notions of ideology, power, control, conflict, dominance, and distribution of social and physical resources. This paper traces emerging scholarship about sense of place as a social construction, and offers examples from leisure, outdoor recreation, and tourism development. Place and sense of place are seen as socially constructed, always in the process of being created, always provisional and uncertain, and always capable of being discursively manipulated towards desired (individual or collective) ends. A research program about leisure and the politics of place awaits development, but should focus on language and discourse, and should begin with the question: how are leisure places socially constructed with political consequences?

Interesting to note about the assassination of Judge Roll is that it is being blamed on a “lone gunman” said to be mentally unstable (aren’t they all) said directed at a US Congresswoman named Gabrielle Giffords, who survived this mass killing, and that killed at least 5 other innocent people, including a 9-year-old girl named Christina Taylor Green “curiously” born on September 11, 2001 (9/11) [A response to 9/11?].

The Greens had Cape Cod ties

Christina-Taylor Green (who had mad baseball skills) is still surprising her parents Karina Bland The Republic | azcentral.com *

The Greens went to Cape Cod every summer, while John, a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers, worked. Christina-Taylor and her brother, Dallas, attended baseball camps.

It’s been nearly eight years since Christina-Taylor Green died in front of a grocery store > outside Tucson, the only child among six people killed by a gunman trying to assassinate then-Rep. Gabrielle Giffords.

>
> She is still surprising her parents. Hall of Fame award-winning baseball writer Peter Gammons had met Christina.
>
> Gammons was to be inducted into the Cape Cod Baseball League's Hall of Fame. An award would be named after him, the Peter Gammons Award for Excellence and Distinction. He wanted to nominate Christina-Taylor as the first recipient.

Equally interesting to note about the assassin, a 22-year-old man named Jared Loughner, is that he is being described by the propaganda media organs in the US as an "anti-government" type individual who prior to this mass killing is said to have left "crazed rantings" on the Internet, but whose "handler", described as a white male between 40-50 years old with dark hair, is still being sought after.

Interesting to note about the assassination of Judge Roll is that it is being blamed on a "lone gunman" said to be mentally unstable (aren't they all) said directed at a US Congresswoman named Gabrielle Giffords, who survived this mass killing, and that killed at least 5 other innocent people, including a 9-year-old girl named Christina

> Taylor Green “curiously” born on September 11, 2001 (9/11).
>
> Equally interesting to note about the assassin, a 22-year-old man named Jared Loughner, is that he is being described by the propaganda media organs in the US as an “anti-government” type individual who prior to this mass killing is said to have left “crazed rantings” on the Internet, but whose “handler”, described as a white male between 40-50 years old with dark hair, is still being sought after.

Bizzare and even Earth Shaking larges scale rigged proceedings surrounding my using both Targeted Individuals [in my proximity] (recruited use by Epionage) or Placed [into my proximity] Individuals to rigg proceedings as if sweeping ice in front of a stone to guide it

Vocabulary.com retrieved from rig and copied or modified to here > rig

>
> 1. equip with sails or masts
> 2. the act of swindling by some fraudulent scheme

3. truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together

When you rig something, you connect parts in a way that's so crazy it just might work. You could rig your jeans by using a paper clip to replace a button that pops.

Rig can also describe deceiving people to achieve a certain outcome. Voting multiple times, purposely miscounting the number of votes a person received, even throwing out certain people's votes: these are all ways to rig an election. Outraged people say, "The election was fixed!" This doesn't mean it was repaired; it means it was rigged - fraud played a role in the outcome.

Interest how "fixed" means "stuck on" like a Fixed Delusion or a Compulsive Act, a belief or action fixed in destiny by a sapient or controlling, engineering, even socially or legally enginerring force.

One year after JFK dead, Sidney Gottlieb MKULTRA space research work continues

[image] Claudia Christian facebook fanpage

Neil Alden Armstrong was an American astronaut and aeronautical engineer, and the first person to walk on the Moon. He was also a naval aviator, test pilot, and university professor.

That's "Gnorts, Mr Alien"

Neil Armstrong: Probable 4 Assed Monkey Person

Born Aug 5

And btw Thomas Neil Donegan was named after him.

Feb 20 Nov 18 Dec 13 Aug 4 July 4 April 1

Alan Bartlett Shepard Jr. (November 18, 1923 - July 21, 1998) was an American astronaut, naval aviator, test pilot, and businessman. In 1961, he became the second man and the first American to travel into space, and in 1971, he walked on the Moon.

A graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Shepard saw action with the surface navy during World War II. He became a naval aviator in 1946, and a test pilot in 1950. He was selected as one of the original NASA Mercury Seven astronauts in 1959, and in May 1961 he made the first crewed Project Mercury flight, Mercury-Redstone 3, in a spacecraft he named Freedom 7. His craft entered space, but was not capable of achieving orbit.

Babylon 5 - Death Walker Na'Toth attacks an alien woman that has just arrived on the station, claiming that she is the Dilgar war criminal Jha'dur - known as Deathwalker. Talia is hired by Kosh to oversee some rather strange negotiations.

The Mimbari (most likely British and THree Crowns 3 Rings ELves) surrendered to Earth (USA) on some faketout the USA did not know about. The Mimbar are resisted by Homeworld movent West Virigina types who don't like aliens.

The Mimbar admit to hiding their secret and embarrasing relationship with Jha'dur but also realized her biology is usefull and they will use it in NWO Serums.

“Spiral”

https://buffy.fandom.com/ *

“Spiral” is the twentieth episode of the fifth season of Buffy the Vampire Slayer and the ninety-eighth episode in the series. Written by Steven S. DeKnight and directed by James A. Contner, it originally broadcast on May 8, 2001 on The WB network.

Worried about their future plans, Buffy is comforted by Dawn until the Knights attack. A sword through the roof nearly kills Buffy, but Spike stops it with his bare hands. While Buffy battles the Knights from the top of the RV, one knight impales Giles with a flying spear, causing the RV to crash onto its side.

The Scoobies rush to Four Aces, an abandoned gas station, where Buffy fends off the attackers until Willow performs a force field spell. Meanwhile, at Sunnydale Memorial, all those left crazy by Glory repeatedly mutter: “It’s time.”

Glory has a descendant entity Ben who does not know the Evil history of Gloria. Just to be safe Ben who expects a normal life must be destroyed prophylacticly to stop Glorian. Or does that make more sense as Glorian and NeB or Glorian and Ned?

Mark Kelly

American engineer

Mark Edward Kelly is an American politician, engineer, former astronaut, and U.S. Navy captain. He also is an author, political activist, as well as aerospace executive and consultant. Kelly is the husband of former U.S. Representative Gabby Giffords. A naval aviator, he flew combat missions during the Gulf War. Wikipedia

Born: February 21, 1964 (age 55 years), City of Orange, NJ

Space missions: STS-134, STS-121, STS-124, STS-108

Scott Kelly

American engineer

Scott Joseph Kelly is an American engineer, retired astronaut, and U.S. Navy captain. A veteran of four space flights, Kelly commanded the International Space Station on Expeditions 26, 45, and 46. Kelly's first spaceflight was as pilot of Space Shuttle Discovery during STS-103 in December 1999. Wikipedia

Born: February 21, 1964 (age 55 years), City of Orange, NJ

Space missions: STS-118, STS-103, Expedition 44, Expedition 46,

NASA History Nov. 17, 2015

Former NASA Langley Mathematician to be Awarded Presidential Medal of Freedom. Newport News resident Katherine G. Johnson,Born: August 26, 1918, White Sulphur Springs, WV Died: February 24, 2020, Newport News, VA a retired [former] NASA Langley mathematician whose computations influenced space exploration efforts from Mercury through the shuttle program, will be honored with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, President Barack Obama announced this week.

Amelia Victoria Babis married Mark Kelly in 1989.

See also https://www.technologyreview.com/s/610339/dna-tests-for-iq-are-coming-but-it-might-not-be-smart-to-take-one/ IQ study of genes and IQ does use twins.

Can Twin Brothers, Maternal Brothers, full Brothers, unrelated people be found in databases, family trees?

Immunology Transfers are Family Database Transfers

Immunology polymorphs to regional histories of diseases and climates family lines around the world adapted to.

https://www.the-scientist.com/research-round-up/could-the-black-death-protect-against-hiv-54468 CCR-5 is disabled in people with the full mutation, and so HIV is unable to gain access to the macrophages. If an individual inherits the mutant gene from both parents, they are essentially immune to HIV infection. People with one mutant and one normal gene can be infected, but tend to survive longer than infected people with two normal CCR-5 genes. It seems as though people without the mutation, called CCR5-Δ32, were killed by the Black Death, so that those with the mutation survived to reproduce and increase its prevalence today.

Familial databases begun in Arizona. Why isn't it 24AndMe? Is one RFLP detected amino acid sequence tied to the Windsors now classified?

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/DNA_paternity_testing

In the 1960s, highly accurate genetic paternity testing became a possibility when HLA typing was developed, which compares the genetic fingerprints on white blood cells between the child and alleged parent.] HLA tests could be done with 80% accuracy, but could not distinguish between close relatives. Genetic parental testing technology advanced further with the isolation of the first restriction enzyme in 1970. Highly accurate DNA parental testing became available in the 1980s with the development of RFLP. In the 1990s, PCR, developed in 1983, became the standard method for DNA parental testing. A simpler, faster, and more accurate method of testing than RFLP, it has an exclusion rate of 99.99% or higher.

Human leukocyte antigen

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Human_leukocyte_antigen

HLA genes are highly polymorphic, which means that they have many different alleles, allowing them to fine-tune the adaptive immune system. The proteins encoded by certain genes are also known as antigens, as a result of their historic discovery as factors in organ transplants. Different classes have different functions

…

HLAs corresponding to MHC class II (DP, DM, DO, DQ, and DR) present antigens from outside of the cell to T-lymphocytes. These particular antigens stimulate the multiplication of T-helper cells (also called CD4 positive T cells), which in turn stimulate antibody-producing B-cells to produce antibodies to that specific antigen. Self-antigens are suppressed by regulatory T cells.

MKULTRA TNG is Formulated Amongst The Most Expert Familial DNA Detectives

The likely 2/18/1961 IVF of Barack Obama from my father or mother's DNA

A year and a few days after IVF

Feb ≈ 1	+ 9	+ 3

1961
Glorian and James Paul Donegan
Have IVF of me into my mother Glorian. Also ties to seeming web report of. Obama also an IVF on Feb 20 1961
Note online impersonators speak of Glorian and Genenetch, an online Bernie friend saying so in Wishlist

months

9 months pass and I am born on 11/18/1961 and Obama is likely also

Months

Feb 23 1962 A year after IVF of Obama IVF to build future African leaders, all looks good

In my twenties or so I am being harassed by some kind of odd police. In Concord CA I even call the Concord police on some form of special ops which seem to be monitoring my home illegally. I am also told there is an operation underway according to neighbors which is protecting a mob witness next in a house adjoining my house. Nothing seems racist at this point but I was put on drunk tank pscyh hold and WAS on drugs 1997/8 At AOL Netscape, a job my brother referred me to, him also working at AOL, I see the first use of a true impersonator of me, Toni, who has the exact folio I have and followed me into the company. There is also another Ed Donegan on the payroll of AOL. I was fired shortly after Y2k eve for not working it. A female Phd in her 30s turned cold to me though we had been doing bike rides together. This time range ties to the possible IVF of the obama children. If so the I am to the

Obama children as my father was to Obama

Since then and even now. Racial conspiracy against my sexual reproductive rights continues among threats to me and socially stygmatizing frame jobs to scare white women away from me

In 2006 my web site and email contacts to The world based Human Genome Program convinces the Illuminati, Masons, Shriners, etc., world genetic engineerig will be needed. This is supportd by Archive.org, emails, many, I sent the the world geneticists, world race riot events of the time, and Mountain Prophecies

2008vSomething genetic happens with Obama while I am under arrest by all black PHS lead by Rod Rosenstein, Mueller, and Tom Donegan. Lots of related events

2011 Begngazi occurs under Obama, and before missles being lost by CIA IQ genes can not be found, after Bengahzi IQ genes can be found in Africa. Eggs must be broken in the U.S. though, and I think my celebicy and death genetically erases my fathe andd me and seizes the economic and bedroom value of Donegan DNA

2016 UNTIL TODAY Non whites tell me a child like me will never find the little white hole, a curious kid like me. Blacks from US Marines go on black on white crime spree doing drugs, etc., RETARDATION FIRMS NOT NEEDED BY ME MANAGE MY DNA NOT ME

Birther Theory. My father was an 1950s above ground nuclear testing participant in Nevada to test affects of radiation by the DOE an NIH/PHS

Nov 18 on Manchurian Candidate of 1962

> This edition of Muhammad Speaks, dated April 1962, has a front page caption that reads:
>
> “More than 12,000 people on February 23 gathered in Chicago’s International Amphitheater to hear Messenger Elijah Muhammad speak on The Future Of The American So-called Negroes.”
>
> Inside the newspaper, on page 18, Ann and baby Barack are placed just below, to the left of a photo of Malcolm X, with the caption “The Young Listened”.

Hearing about finding a twin or half brother from real NASA Rocketry

astronaughts

Finding genetic relatives 23 And Me Customer Care

The first step towards finding your genetic relatives is searching our database for individuals with whom you share DNA. This is not a trivial task since we all share many small DNA segments with each other. However, on average you share longer stretches of DNA with your relatives than with unrelated individuals.

Our simulations have concluded that we can confidently detect related individuals if they have at least one continuous region of matching SNPs (Single Nucleotide Polymorphisms) that is longer than our minimum threshold of 7cM (centiMorgans) long and at least 700 SNPs.

Using that criteria, we estimate the likelihood of detecting a genetic relationship with a 3rd cousin to be approximately 90%, The table below shows the average likelihood of detecting cousins of different degrees:

1st Cousin or closer	~100%
2nd Cousin	99%
3rd Cousin	~90%
4th Cousin	~45%
5th Cousin	~15%
6th Cousin and beyond	under 5%

Family Relationship	Probability of detecting

Barackk Obama, and his children's, most closest relatives may be found in …. Africa where he himself is allegedly from, per his Race speech while I was in FMC Butner.

-

Genealogical atDNA Databases

CAPITOL HILL Obama lived in Seattle his First Year https://blog.seattlepi.com/capitolhill/2016/09/16/obama-lived-in-seattle-his-first-year/

Published February 10, 2016 Behind Obama's $400 million budget request to relocate entire Alaska villages, https://www.adn.com/rural-alaska/article/behind-obamas-400-million-budget-request-relocate-entire-alaska-villages/2016/02/10/

KAL 007 Flight to Alaska with Larry McDonald, the John Bircher, who Flew Too Much 1983

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Korean_Air_Lines_Flight_007_alternative_theories

Crab theory - No bodies OR LUGGAGE to be analyzed In his book The Mystery of Korean Boeing 747, Soviet correspondent Andrey Illesh proposes that the bodies were eaten by giant crabs.[citation needed] The crab theory has been persistent and been echoed by the Soviet interceptor pilot Gennady Osipovich, who fired the missile that shot down the plane.

Larry McDonald was born in Atlanta, Georgia, on April 1, 1935 to Harold McDonald, Sr. and Callie Grace Patton, who was a cousin of U.S. Army General George S. Patton. Following the tradition of his father and grandfather, Larry became a urologist, graduating from Emory University School of Medicine. Upon graduation from Emory University, Larry McDonald joined the U.S. Navy, serving in active duty for four years as a Navy physician and flight surgeon. After completing his active duty tour, he continued in the Naval Reserve, advancing to the rank of Captain.

Estimating the Sizes of the Genealogical atDNA Databases

The past few months have brought some exciting news from two of the main autosomal DNA (atDNA) companies: AncestryDNA exceeded 3 million testers in January 2017, and 23andMe broke 2 million in April. (Note: I earn a small commission if you purchase through the links in this post. The cost is the same for you.

Click here for more information.) The larger the database, the more likely we are to find DNA relatives with information that might enhance our family trees, so this information is an important consideration in deciding where to spend our testing dollars.

However, Family Tree DNA (FTDNA) does not publicize how large their atDNA database is, and the newest player in the market, MyHeritage, hasn't released figures either. Another wrinkle is that not everyone at 23andMe participates in DNA Relatives, the matching tool there. Thus, there is a difference between the total size of a database and what I'll call the effective size, that is, the number of people available for cousin matching.

MKULTRA tied the Obama DNA to the Donegan DNA. Now, as techniques have improved including DNA modification techniques like CRISPR, the final answer emerges ..

Several strategies must be employed at once, if read-in judges will permit it.

1. Donegan DNA will have to move to Africa and create a family tree in Africa for Obama. This will also boost IQ in Afica now called Autism Spectrum disorder, perhaps also some other medical benefits.

2. My eggs will need to be broken in the U.S., If I have children five generations later they will tie to Obama's children five generations later.

3. IQ issues in the U.S. will have to be avoided since retardation and the timeline dispute of when European DNA will be setlled in a few years in newly emerging research in newly found African DNA.

4. As a fall-back, researches will later find Ed Donegan tends to sign away his DNA to blackmail, and he once signed his DNA to the Obama family when he worked at AOL. In fact Ed Donegan was quite famous for this. (like now, impersonators of me signed away my DNA at AOL Netscape)

Judge Roll seems to have been a possible “real target” of a shooting, shooting connected to The Saulk religious institute, in an asset seizure case in my mother’s trust fund amount, over a ruling detrimental to Obama’s likely DNA agenda for foreign nations relief, on a date tied to a Pizza Gate conspiracy motivated by witness to it independently finding it and even reporting it to police.

United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et … https://dockets.justia.com/docket/arizona/azdce/4:2010cv00703/568697 Nov 30, 2010 - Other case filed on November 30, 2010 in the Arizona District Court.

Tied to Birther IVF issues PAST ANI DNA Database vicinity	Tied to Ongoing Secret undisclosed ARC of NOVA Trust Fund Strangenes	Looks forward to Genes In Africa for Medicine (and Obama's DNA in Africa
Seems independently reported as Obama policy related assassination through Kremlin report

So in Nov 30 2010 the case is filed, within a 72 hour period of a preliminary ruling he is dead on Feb 8 2011.

Nov 18 Feb 20

+/- 12 days

+/- 11 days Stanley Ann Dunham (November 29, 1942 to November 7, 1995)

Edward P. Donegan, me, my take on this, a ruling disallowed a legal theory or some other matter affecting the genetic privacy rights of the President, possibly asked for by the Secret Service or others.

Notice by $323k retirmenet case nature, case CIA Cryptomes, and Kremlin report the Judge Roll case seems to tie to IQ genes in Africa.

The location of the case and year of the case in Arizona is also tied to family genetics and databases, from genes locations around the world emerging then at U of Arizona

Also note WETWORKS and per-knowledge presence of assassination theory of Justice Scalia, also which would likely tie to IQ genes in Africa.

Feb 19 2009 The Kenya Birth Certificate

COAST PROVINCE GENERAL HOSPITAL

Mombasa. British Protectorate of Kenya.

CERTIFICATE OF BIRTH

Certificate No. 32018

Child bearing the name BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA II / Sex M was born to

Obama and CIA - Cryptome

cryptome.org/0001/obama-cia.htm

21 February 2009. Daniel Brandt (namebase.org) sends: December 21, 2009 Obama and CIA I applaud your posting of Obama's Trilateral connections, and you ...

21 February 2009

Daniel Brandt (namebase.org) sends:

December 21, 2009
Obama and CIA

I applaud your posting of Obama's Trilateral connections, and you may also post this email if you wis Here are some links concerning Obama's background that may be of interest. I think there is legitimate concern over the possibility that Obama's career may have been secretly groomed by elitists in the U.S. I think this could have been done as a safety-valve that might be used as a hedge against possible economic collapse, and the possible resurgence of anti-elitist sentiment. It's called "co-option," and yes, I believe that the ruling class plans ahead for contingencies so that they can preserve their money and influence.

1. Obama's father studied in the USA on American money, and Obama's mother worked for USAID and then for the Ford Foundation.

http://indo-nesia.blogspot.com/2008/10/obamas-mother-inonesia-and-cia.html

2. The Ford Foundation was thick with elements of U.S. intelligence, particularly in Indonesia before and after the 1965 coup.

http://www.cia-on-campus.org/internat/indo.html
(There is a huge amount of literature on the Ford Foundation and its intelligence connections, beginning with the Marshall Plan after WW2 and continuing through McGeorge Bundy, who was president of the Foundation from 1966-1979. Bundy was LBJ's national security advisor and his brother was a CIA official.)

3. Obama's mother got a PhD in anthropology in 1992 from the University of Hawaii. There is a long history of collaboration between anthropologists and the CIA.

http://www.cia-on-campus.org/social/price.html 4. After graduating from Columbia in 1983, Obama got a job at Business International.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Business_International_Corporation

5. Business International has CIA connections.

http://www.namebase.org/nyt77-4.pdf (2nd column, 11th paragraph)

Further, religious groups in Corpus Christi participated in this, including trying to break my mother's will, and framing me for being a pervert at Golds Gym, and these religious groups have foreign missions including Orphanages.

Finally when I tried to sue these religious groups Andy Ellington / Joyce Ellington seemed to interfere with the suit, hinting IQ Research Epstein Pizza Gate tied group ARC of Northern Virginia should handle the matter again, and again, tying this all back to my mothers trust, IQ work, and Africa, and even the Obamas.

Finally, this ties to Justice Scalia, WETWORKS and IQ by religious groups.

RealHarmRealFoul.com

http://www.realharmrealfoul.com:80/Bell.asp JUN JUL AUGbr /> Previous capture 09 Next capturebr /> 2005 2006 2007br / > 1 capturebr /> 9 Jul 2006br /

> About this capturebr /> IQ and The Bell Curvebr />

The statistical device used to represent the distribution clutter of events varying from a center point randomly is referred to as a Bell Curve. How far an item is from the median, or the middle, is referred to in units of Standard Deviation. Also called a normal distribution curve (because this is the form random variation forms in occurrence,) the Bell Curve takes it name from the similarity of the shape of the curve to a bell. In the mid-90's Richard Herrnstien and Charles Murray published a book exploring life in America and intelligence and race, and produced the following curve.

missing graphic Obtained from Wikipedia http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Race_and_intelligence

In addition to US statistics posted here, worldwide IQ studies have been done as well. IQs vary by country. Note that typical African values for average IQ vary from US African Americans. In theory, differences in living conditions have already been accounted for; however, people of African descent in the US typically average about 7-20% racial mixture with European genetic base.

What the truth is.

The highest measuring ethnic identity are European Jews (.Ashkenazim.) Thus, the furthest extremes are occupied by Africans and Jews. It would seem like they don't have very much in common, right? Wrong. If there is one thing the Big Middle resents, it's the extremes. Both ends of the extremes are often viewed as a financial threat. The Jews are going to take everyone's money, and the Blacks are going to cost everyone their money.

Race and distribution of IQ after values corrected for nutrition, etc.,

IQ Distribution Of U.S. Blacks And Whites

One of the statistical tampering mechanisms in IQ studies is to suggest that poverty in general is causal of low IQs (presumably through starvation) and thus IQs can not be studied among low income populations segments. The difficulty with this is in the causality analysis. While starvation can case low IQ, inheritable low IQ can can also cause poverty. By eliminating poverty segments of populations from the IQ studies, upper IQs are "cherry picked" because they are all that remain in the analyzed populations. 40 years of attempts to eradicate low IQ in black populations through programs such as Head Start, which provided nutrition and developmental resources to populations in poverty, did not succeed in eliminating "environmentally caused" low IQs, suggesting it was more likely the low IQs causing the poverty than poverty causing low IQs. Nevertheless, the simple suggestion that environment has to be "accounted for" in statistics by "correcting" the IQ tests results is constantly used to continually upward adjust IQ statistics for minority populations.

Despite these disagreements on causality models, there are still discernable differences in inheritable IQ between whites, blacks, and Asians at all income levels, the difference between whites and blacks being about 1.1 standard deviations, (15 or so IQ points,) and between whites and Asians of about 3 IQ points at all points in the IQ distributions. Thus, at least at high income levels and IQ points, there is general agreement that cognitive abilities are heritable even when their are no other possible environmental explanations.

Q Testing
bout this link: Leading intelligence experts, realizing the Bell Curve, a book about race and intelligence, raised the issue of the validity of IQ testing in the general public, eleased this joint statement in the Wall Street Journal supporting the validity of IQ concepts and testing.

Behavioral Genetics bout this link: Human Genome Project.
Behaviors are often breed true"
Behaviors have ethnic genetic components

Evolutionary Psychology bout this link: University of California, Santa Barbara Nations and Intelligence

Nations and Their Average IQ's bout this link: A Millennium Science Graphic

Nations and Their Average IQs

Worldwide IQ
bout this link: Uses the best data available, discusses methods used.

Worldwid e IQ and Gross Domestic Product bout this link: Populations with distinct IQ have distinct outcomes. Counties with low average IQs tend to be underachieving. GDP and governmental, scientific, societal, and conomic success seems to be correlated with ethnic IQs

Q and Nations More research bout these links: Unlike the WikipeidA links, these have permanent content, which means that every time I post such a link, a bunch of revisionists editors cant go edit it and ater it down or change it, or add false contradictory information to it, as happens with the WikipediA links I use within a day of my using such a link.

Worldwide IQ and Gross Domestic Product
bout this link: UCLA peer reviewed science on GDP and IQ.
Molecular Biology Institute, Boyer Hall, University of California,

Q and the wealth of nations

ADFA - Laundering Drug Money by the staff of the Ozark Gazette

The Iran-Contra Special Prosecutor Knew … - Sep 10, 1991 Bryant said the package shows “credible evidence” that government operatives secretly shipped guns from the Mena Airport to the Nicaraguan Contras and that the planes carried drugs on their return trip

The Crimes of Mena: Clinton Did Nothing - Jan 30, 1992 nothing to investigate it, that is. Includes letters sent by the Arkansas Committee in 1991-2 to Clinton, the Arkansas State Police, and former Polk County Prosecutors, and their replies. Nobody co-operated

Akansas Airport Called “Hub” of CIA Drugs and Guns Pipeline - May 1992 Arkansas Committee

Terry Reed / John Cummings interview - Apr 27, 1994 how Barry Seal was assassinated when he became a liability to Clinton; how Terry Reed got his story out as insurance against getting bumped off; Seth Ward and Webb Hubbell; fatcats like Bob Nash of ADFA; Roger Clinton being Dan Lasater's Driver; Finis Shellnut retrieving money dropped from Barry Seal's planes over the "Triple S Ranch" west of Little Rock; Bill Clinton receiving money funnelled through ADFA to his friends; some dirt on the Bush family; more on Barry Seal and Mena, where the local sheriff, Al Hadaway, smelled a rat and passed on information about them to the FBI, which was in on the operation and did nothing; how the Mena operation was moved to Guadalajara in Mexico; DEA agent Enrique Camarena and his pilot being tortured to death

Larry Nichols Interview: 1 - May 5, 1994 former marketing director of the Arkansas Development and Finance Authority (ADFA), and former associate of Bill Clinton, talking about: Russell Welch, poisoned with anthrax as he investigated Mena; ADFA giving money to Clinton's pals instead of the intended recipients; Barry Seal smuggling drugs into Mena in CIA planes; Dan Lasater laundering the proceeds through ADFA; money given to Don Tyson; money laundering through BCCI and Dan Rostenkowski; Clinton firing the federal prosecutor on Rostenkowski's case; Gary Parks, son of the murdered Jerry, fearing the same fate; arranging an interview for Ambrose Evans-Pritchard with an informant who was killed before they could meet; journalists being attacked or run out of Arkansas for investigating Mena and ADFA; Jerry Parks's dossier; the paramedic who put Vince Foster's body on a stretcher and didn't have to wash his hands because there was no blood

Far more where this came from - http://www.arkancide.com/

Cali Caretl retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In the absence of a hardline policy from the DEA on cocaine, the trade flourished. The group developed and organized itself into multiple “cells” that appeared to operate independently yet reported to a celeno (“manager”).[3] The independent clandestine cell system is what set the Cali Cartel apart from the Medellín Cartel. The Cali Cartel operated as a tight group of independent criminal organizations, as opposed to the Medellíns’ centralised structure under leader Pablo Escobar.

The Cali Cartel eventually became “The biggest, most powerful crime syndicate we’ve ever known”, according to then DEA chief Thomas Constantine.[3][11]

Juan Carlos Saavedra represented the Cali KGB Cartel in Spain.[12]

Activities

Trafficking

The Cali Cartel would become known for its innovations in trafficking and production, by moving its refining operations out of Colombia to Peru and Bolivia, as well as for pioneering new trafficking routes through Panama. The Cartel also diversified into opium and was reported to have brought in a Japanese chemist to help its refining operation.[10][13] The Venezuelan General Ramon Guillen Davila, who ran the Venezuelan National Guard unit that was to interdict cocaine shipments and was the CIA’s most trusted narcotics asset in Venezuela and worked with Mark McFarlin and Jim Campbell, was charged by United States authorities with smuggling 22 tons of Cali Cartel cocaine from 1987 to 1991 known as Operation North (Spanish: Operación Norte).[14][15]

[16][17]

According to reports and testimony of Thomas Constantine to the United States Congress, “Cali would be the dominant group in trafficking South American heroin due to their access to the opium growing areas of Colombia.” Debate over the cartel’s participation in heroin trafficking remains. It is believed the cartel’s leaders were not involved in heroin trading, but that close associates to them, such as Ivan Urdinola-Grajales, were,[3] and that they cooperated with heroin distribution centers.[8]

At the height of the Cali Cartel’s reign, they were cited as having control over 90% of the world’s cocaine market and for being directly responsible for the growth of the cocaine market in Europe.[3] By the mid-1990s, the trafficking empire of the Cali Cartel was a multibillion-dollar enterprise.[4][5] In 2002, the Cali KGB had an estimated $30 billion in profits.[18]

Finances

Cali Cartel money laundering chart

In order to launder the incoming money of the trafficking operations, the Cali cartel heavily invested its funds into legitimate business ventures as well as front companies to mask the money. In 1996, it was believed the Cartel was grossing $7 billion in annual revenue from the US alone.[4][19][20] With the influx of cash comes the need to launder the funds. One of the first instances of the Cali Cartel’s laundering operations came when Gilberto Rodriguez Orejuela was able to secure the position of Chairman of the Board of Banco de Trabajadores. The bank was believed to have been used to launder funds for the Cali cartel, as well as Pablo Escobar’s Medellín Cartel. Cartel members were permitted, through their affiliation with Gilberto, to overdraft accounts and take out loans without repayment.[3][8][19] Allegedly, Semion Mogilevich instructed Natasha Kagalovsky to wire transfer Cali cartel funds from Bank of New York accounts though Brazilian banks to offshore shell companies.[21]

Capitalizing on this basis, Gilberto was able to found the First InterAmericas Bank operating out of Panama.[8] In an interview with Time, Gilberto admitted to money being laundered through the bank; however, he attributed the process to only legal actions. The laundering, which Gilberto states was “in accordance with Panamanian law”, is what led to the US authorities’ pursuing him. Gilberto later started, in 1979, the Grupo Radial Colombiano, a network of over 30 radio stations and a pharmaceutical chain named Drogas la Rebaja, which at its height amassed over 400 stores in 28 cities, employing 4,200. The pharmaceutical chain’s value was estimated at $216 million.[3][19][22] As a consequence of the Cali Cartel’s ownership of the chain, from January 1988 to May 4, 1990, it was targeted for 85 bombings by Pablo Escobar and the Medellín Cartel, leaving a total of 27 people dead.[23]

Russian state connections

According to Felipe Turover Chudínov, who was a senior intelligence officer with the foreign-intelligence directorate of the KGB, Russian prime minister Viktor Chernomyrdin secretly decreed in the early 1990s that Russia would become an international hub through which narcotics are trafficked including cocaine and heroin from South America and heroin from Central Asia and Southeast Asia.[24][25] Yuri Skuratov supported Turover’s statements and began numerous investigations into corruption with high ranking Russian government officials.[26] Alexander Litvinenko provided a detailed narcotics trafficking diagram showing relationships between Russian government officials and Russian mafia and implicating Vladimir Putin and numerous others in obschak including narcotics trafficking money.[27][28][29] Following Operation Troika which targeted the Tambov Gang, Spanish Prosecutor José Grinda concurred and added that to avoid prosecution numerous indited persons became Deputies in the Russian Duma, especially with Vladimir Zhirinovsky's Liberal Democratic Party and gained parliamentary immunity from prosecution.[30]

St. Petersburg Immobilien und Beteiligungs AG or SPAG is a real estate company registered in Germany under Vladimir Putin's control in 1992 and suspected by German police of facilitating Saint Petersburg mobsters, Colombian drug lords, and transcontinental money laundering.[31][32] Kumarin-Barsukov, of the Tambov Russian mafia was a partner in Znamenskaya, a subsidiary of SPAG.[33][34] Vladimir Smirnov was the general director of Znamenskaya and Kumarin-Barsukov was his deputy.[34] Through his 200 shares or 20% control, Vladimir Smirnov was Putin's voting proxy in SPAG.[35][36] Jalol Khaidarov (Russian: Джалол Хайдаров) stated that the final destination of the funds was to the "Operator Trade Center" in Liechtenstein but also said that the Bank of New York was a participant.[35] In the early 2000s, the company's co-founder Rudolf Ritter was arrested in Liechtenstein for laundering cocaine cash for the Cali cartel.[33][37] Robert Walner was the chief prosecutor in Liechtenstein's capital Vaduz.[33]

Former Ukrainian presidential bodyguard Nikolai Melnichenko bugged the following conversation between Ukrainian President Leonid Kuchma and his security chief Leonid Derkach about SPAG:[33][38]

> Leonid Derkach: Leonid Danilovich. We've got some interesting material here from the Germans. One of them has been arrested.

> Leonid Kuchma (reading aloud): Ritter, Rudolf Ritter.
> Leonid Derkach: Yes, and about that affair, the drug smuggling. Here are the documents. They gave them all out.
> Here's Vova Putin, too.
> Leonid Kuchma: There's something about Putin there?
> Leonid Derkach: The Russians have already been buying everything up. Here are all the documents. We're the only ones that still have them now. I think that [FSB chief] Nikolai Patrushev is coming from the 15th to the 17th. This will give him something to work with. This is what we'll keep. They want to shove the whole affair under the carpet.

Later in the conversation Derkach states that "they've bought up all these documents throughout Europe and only the rest are in our hands".[38]

Using Israel as its base, Russian mafia moved heroin and Colombian cocaine, sometimes through Venezuela, through Israel, where money laundering would occur of the narcotics profits, to Saint Petersburg while the Russian Kurgan mafia (Russian: Курганская организованная преступная группировка) provided security.[39][40][41][42][43]

According to Alexander Litvinenko, Vladimir Putin, while Putin was Deputy Mayor for Economic Affairs of St Petersburg in the early 1990s, organized an Afghanistan origin heroin supplying ring using ethnic Uzbek criminals and corrupt KGB and later FSB officers including the Moscow-based KGB Colonel Evgeny G. Khokholkov, the Oleg Ivanov created Izmaylovskaya Russian mafia and led by Anton Malevsky including mafia leaders Gafur Rakhimov, Vyacheslav Ivanov (“Yaponchik” (Япончик) or Little Japonese), who governed Uzbek networks in America, and Alimzhan Tokhtakhunov (Russian: Алик Тахтахунов) (“Taiwanchik” (Тайванчик) or Little Taiwan), who governed Uzbek networks in Europe, and Salim Abdulaev. These networks also supplied Europe and America with cocaine from the Cali KGB cartel.

This book

Judge Roll assassination and exporting DNA extorted into the Middle East

Oddly when I go to Google Street View of 52 Lambeth Square $323k house turned into a trust fund inherited it is being remodeled in the bedrrom of Tom and den and the year is 2011.

At my mother's request her body was donated to science whjch resulted in her body being donated to the US Public Health Service, the Uniformed Non Combatant military medicine branch of the US Departpment of Defense.

My father flew for both MKULTRA Manhattan Project atomic bombing runs and the P-51 Boeing Bomber combos in Germany later TWA and knew all of the Howard Hughes, Hughes

Aircraft, and industry stories.

She was led to belive all of her life there was somehting wrong with her in some way which also led my ” being tested” as a child. The FOXP2 gene carries a long list of symptoms.

The Manhattan Project is MKULTRA fighters and bombers and bombs and rockets and radar at Santa Sousuna Field Lab serving Area 51 and Groom Lake. Later these advnaced defense reserarch projects become DARPA. Earlier they are the defense of London from German bombers and rockets, then attacks on Germany such as Dresden, then into Japan by air and by sea, later ICBMs.

Is it good for the USA, using GLorian Genome around the world, or is it good for the USA? Why not ask JFK?

Goerge Ball: “It’s about foreign economies, regime changes, assasinations, and getting our moles in. Like in Cuba using the Dulles Brothers plan. And Hawaii.” JFK: “No, lets keep this to testing and not get too much in into international OECD. I am losing faith in this regime change thing.” George Ball: “We can get good DNA and created sleeper agents. Maybe for business like Business International Corporation, BBRDW, things like that with CIA moles.”

- JFK
- Thorkill Kristensen, IQ, Brain, Developing Economies
- George Ball, State Dept, brain and foreign economies

Monday, February 20, 1961

February 20, 1961

JFK met with the Secretary General of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation (OEEC) Thorkil Kristensen at around 11

am in the Oval Office.

JFK and Thorkil Kristensen (center) with unidentified man – February 20, 1961

The USA White House version of DNA, Brain and IQ and Leaders who Develop Economies, Goerge Ball, State Dept, regime change

[image]

This book, a thing of value and skill in researching and writing, was written at an apartment in the north corner of 1001 N. Water St. Corpush Christi Texas.

My computers were robbed and destroyed as I wrote my book (two computers, both notebooks) and WiFi was never installed.

I knew CPUs and found a Windows 10 installed I5 processor unit from Yesteryear and it is fast. Not the most fast, but on a $200 computer I can render an epub to PDF fast, or encode video, or , or write incredible CSS using only HTML CSS free to the world as tool sets.

It is probably true I get a lot of coaching and good adice in my life. Not as much as I would like, but that is tool I like to use too and be that to others too as I learn from experience.

All of this alleged taught to me by others, as if to deny this ability in me.

“Babby sitters” (unwanted forced teaming with me in what I am doing, them claiming they aid me) surround me.

> http://www.prophecies.org/DOCS/Book%2012/Chapter30.htm Linda Newkirk “The Beautiful Crystalline New DNA”

Google knowledge panel retrieved from Fluid and crystallized intelligence and copied or modified to here

The concepts of fluid intelligence and crystallized intelligence were introduced in 1963 by the psychologist Raymond Cattell. According to Cattell’s psychometrically-based theory, general intelligence is subdivided into gf and gc. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

- Fluid intelligence (gf) refers to basic processes of reasoning and other mental activities that depend only minimally on prior learning (such as formal and informal education) and acculturation. Horn notes that it is formless, and can “flow into” a wide variety of cognitive activities [7] Tasks measuring fluid reasoning require the ability to solve abstract reasoning problems. Examples of tasks that measure fluid intelligence include figure classifications, figural analyses, number and letter series, matrices, and paired associates.[6]

- Crystallized intelligence (gc) refers to learned procedures and knowledge. It reflects the effects of experience and acculturation. Horn notes that crystallized ability is a “precipitate out of experience,” resulting from the prior application of fluid ability that has been combined with the intelligence of culture.”[7] Examples of tasks that measure crystallized intelligence are vocabulary, general information, abstract word analogies, and mechanics of language.[6]

Intelligence and Creativity in Problem Solving: The Importance of Test Features in Cognition Research retrieved from Frontiers in Psychology and copied or modified to here

Abstract

Let’s just come out and aay it. An attribute of inteligence which has functional importance to cognition may be the creatice proccess of thinking outside the box, the normal knowledge donmain, to create, to innovate, new problem solutions.

This paper discusses the importance of three features of psychometric tests for cognition research:

- Definitoin of Constructs,
- problem space a problem presented,
- and knowledge domain of existing knowledge and tools for available for the problem solution.

Definition of constructs, e.g., intelligence or creativity, forms the theoretical basis for test construction. Problem space, being well or ill-defined, is determined by the cognitive abilities considered to belong to the constructs, e.g., convergent thinking to intelligence, divergent thinking to creativity.

Knowledge domain and the possibilities it offers cognition are reflected in test results. We argue that (a) comparing results of tests with different problem spaces is more informative when cognition operates in both tests on an identical knowledge domain, and (b) intertwining of abilities related to both constructs can only be expected in tests developed to instigate such a process. Test features should guarantee that abilities can contribute to self-generated and goal-directed processes bringing forth solutions that are both new and applicable. We propose and discuss a test example that was developed to address these issues.

Keywords: creative cognition, cognitive neuroscience, creative reasoning, problem space, knowledge domain

---

Articles from Frontiers in Psychology are provided here courtesy of Frontiers Media SA

My ability to with no money, no transportation, theft, harassment and distraction in the slum I moved into turned it into something which seemed could be real glitzy place. Non working grease covered florescent lights were replaced with rechargeable battery puck lights, movable to outdoors as well since not wired. replaced the old AC outlets to USB abd built that out, crafted ©25 dollar press boad shelves into mechanically re-inforced upscale furniture which were architecturally as important as mechanically.

It is this kind of intelligence and creativity, of straw into gold, that is what creative thinkers who add value to situations do, and that kind of cognitive trait is needed for foreing econmies of Communism is to be stopped from feeding the hungry peple with Huga Chavez paid for meals.

That is what this February 20 Nov 18 Dec 14 Aug 4 DNA is wanted for.

World economies

Nations and Their Average IQs

Worldwide IQ
About this link. Uses the best data available, discusses me

Worldwid e IQ and Gross Domestic Product
About this link: Populations with distinct IQ have distinct ou economic success seems to be correlated with ethnic IQs.

IQ and Nations More research
About these links: Unlike the WikipeidA links, these have p water it down or change it, or add false contradictory inform

Worldwide IQ and Gross Domestic Product
About this link: UCLA peer reviewed science on GDP and I Molecular Biology Institute, Boyer Hall, University of Califor

IQ and the wealth of nations

https://www.eutimes.net

Top US Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda

Creating Leadership, as was explained to Seal Team Six from GLorian DNA

If a program which is an urgent need and can not survive judicial scrutiny on the justification offered, a solution must be found to keep the program going.

Oct. 1st 9:30 am. 5362
Oct 1, 1963

ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

SEP 2 6 1963

The Brain, IQ, Foreign Economies
Foreign Leaders. Sleeper Agents
Regime Change. New Developmental Aid

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. McGEORGE BUNDY
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Meeting Between the Secretary General of the CSCE, Thorkil Kristensen, and the President on October 2 at 9:30 a. m.

Attached is a briefing memorandum prepared for the President's use at his meeting with Mr. Kristensen

A Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that the top US Federal Judge for the State of Arizona was assassinated barely 72-hours after he made a critical ruling against the Obama administrations plan to begin the confiscation of their citizen's private retirement and banking accounts in order to stave off their nations imminent economic collapse, and after having the US Marshals protecting him removed.

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a "preliminary ruling" in a case titled "United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al" [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama's power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

The case being ruled on by Judge Roll, this report continues, was about bulk cash smuggling into or out of the United States that the Obama administration claimed was their right to seize under what are called Presidential Executive Orders, instead of using existing laws. The Obama administration used as support for their claim before Judge Roll, the SVR says, the seizing of all American citizens' gold, in 1933, by President Franklin D. Roosevelt's signing of Executive Order 6102, which was ruled at the time to be constitutional.

Should the Obama administration win their argument to seize their citizen's money by Executive Order without having to abide by the law was made more chilling this past week when reports emerged from the US stating that President Obama and his regime allies were, indeed, preparing to rule America by decree since their loss this past November of their control over the US House of Representatives, and in the words of the Washington Posts columnist Charles Krauthammer: "For an Obama bureaucrat … the will of the Congress is a mere speed bump".

Since taking office in early 2009, Obama has completely overturned the once free United States through his use of Executive Orders that asserts his power to put anyone he wants in prison without charges or trial forever and his right to assassinate any American citizen he deems a threat.

The most chilling of these powers Obama has asserted for himself, however, are contained in Executive Order 13528 he signed nearly a year ago (January 10, 2010) creating a Council of Governors he has hand-picked to rule over the United States in place of its elected representatives when their next "disaster" strikes and orders them to begin "synchronization and integration of State and Federal military activities in the United States; and other matters of mutual interest pertaining to National Guard, homeland defense, and civil support activities".

Going from the chilling to the outright scary, about whatever "disaster" the American regime is preparing their people for, is Obama's Homeland Security Department, through their Ready.Gov organization, beginning to air this past week a public service television commercial titled "World Upside Down" that shows a typical family sitting in their home suddenly losing all of its gravity and warning all who watch it to begin preparing.

Note: In our previous reports US Descends Into Total Police State As 2012 'Solar Chaos' Fears Grow, Pole Shift Blamed For Russian Air Disaster, Closure Of US Airport and Poisonous Space Clouds Slamming Into Earth Cause Mass Bird And Fish Deaths we had detailed some of fears the US government are most worried about, but which they still will not be truthful to their citizens about.

[image]

Mark Edward Kelly (born February 21, 1964) is an American politician, engineer, former astronaut, and U.S. Navy captain. He also is an author, political activist, as well as aerospace executive and consultant. Kelly is the husband of former U.S. Representative Gabby Giffords.

Interesting to note about the assassination of Judge Roll is that it is being blamed on a “lone gunman” said to be mentally unstable (aren’t they all) said directed at a US Congresswoman named Gabrielle Giffords, who survived this mass killing, and that killed at least 5 other innocent people, including a 9-year-old girl named Christina Taylor Green “curiously” born on September 11, 2001 (9/11).

Equally interesting to note about the assassin, a 22-year-old man named Jared Loughner, is that he is being described by the propaganda media organs in the US as an “anti-government” type individual who prior to this mass killing is said to have left “crazed rantings” on the Internet, but whose “handler”, described as a white male between 40-50 years old with dark hair, is still being sought after.

The circumstances surrounding Judge Roll’s assassination by Loughner, also, mirror those of Farouk Abdulmutallab (aka The Underwear Bomber) who “used cash to buy a one-way ticket to the United States at the last minute while carrying no luggage and being on a terrorist watch list. Incredibly, his father had communicated to the US Embassy in Nigeria in November that Abdulmutallab had been radicalized and may be planning a terrorist attack.

At least one witness-passenger Kurt Haskell-claimed that a well-dressed Indian man had escorted Abdulmutallab to the ticket counter and told a ticket agent that Abdulmutallab didn’t have a passport but needed to get on the plane.”

To if this Loughner is able to join the long list of CIA/ US Military “mind controlled” assassins there appears to be no doubt as his actions, past, present and future, shows his fitting the "profile" of these maniacs as detailed in the massive lawsuit currently wending its way through the US Federal Court system [United States District Court Northern District Of California, San Francisco Division Case: CV-09-0037] filed against the US government by hundreds of veterans, and as we can read as reported by the Raw Story news service:

"It's well known that the CIA began testing substances like LSD on soldiers beginning in the 1950s but less is known about allegations that the agency implanted electrodes in subjects. A 2009 lawsuit claimed that the CIA intended to design and test septal electrodes that would enable them to control human behavior. The lawsuit said that because the government never disclosed the risks, the subjects were not able to give informed consent."

To if the American people will ever be told the truth about Loughner and his assassination of Judge Roll there seems little doubt as the Obama regime is fighting with everything it has to keep the information on these "mind controlled" assassins secret, and as we can read as reported by the Courthouse News service:

"The Central Intelligence Agency in January (2011) will argue for dismissal of Vietnam veterans' claims that the CIA must provide them with information about the health effects of chemicals used on them during Cold War-era human experiments. The CIA also claims it is not obligated to provide the veterans with medical care for side effects of the drugs. It's the CIA's third attempt to get the case dismissed.

"In a 2009 federal lawsuit, Vietnam Veterans of America claimed that the Army and CIA had used at least 7,800 soldiers as guinea pigs in "Project Paperclip." They were given at least 250 and as many as 400 types of drugs, among them sarin, one of the most deadly drugs known to man, amphetamines, barbiturates, mustard gas, phosgene gas and LSD.

Among the project's goals were to control human behavior, develop drugs that would cause confusion, promote weakness or temporarily cause loss of hearing or vision, create a drug to induce hypnosis and identify drugs that could enhance a person's ability to withstand torture.

The veterans say that some of the soldiers died, and others suffered grand mal seizures, epileptic seizures and paranoia. The veterans say the CIA promised in the 1970s to compensate those who were made guinea pigs, but the 2009 complaint states that the government "never made a sincere effort to locate the survivors."

In its 32-page motion to dismiss the group's third amended complaint, the CIA claims it has no legal obligation under the Administrative Procedures Act to provide the veterans with notice of the drugs' health effects and that the veterans' notice claim "rests solely on state common-law duty."

The CIA claims that the law on which the veterans base their claim for health care compensation stems from the Department of Defense and Army regulations, "which do not purport to have a binding affect on the CIA." And it claims that the Defense Department "never intended nor committed to providing medical care for service member participants in the test programs."

Based upon the CIA's assertion that the US Defense Department "never intended nor committed to providing medical care for service member participants in the test programs" clearly shows their knowing of the existence of these "mind control" assassins, like Loughner, leading one to wonder how many more of them are out there, and even worse, when they will strike next.

One can only hope that there is some “power” in America today able to stop the madness currently taking over that once great nation before all is truly lost, we hope it is much sooner than later for all of the worlds sake.

Source

This book

Charles “Pete” Conrad Jr. (June 2, 1930 - July 8, 1999)

Charles "Pete" Conrad Jr. was an American NASA astron

I will suggest a House M.D. episode called The Right Stuff tells by metaphor a story of a Captain Cooper entering the Space Program who has an unkown ailment and I suggest that if FOXP2 though the condition is reversed. Extreme sure footedness is dizziness for instance, humor under pressure is psychosis under pressure, a white male is a black female.

When I was fired from Wells Fargo and found I had a form of ADHD in drug treatment following the events I researched the law and how people with ADHD lives unfold and how they compensate.

Certainly people “self medicating” was some shelter I was seeking to explain my unconcsious drive towards amphetamines but I discovered other areas of law.

It is common for people with disabilities such as depression, bipolar, ADHD, or other problems to not seek accomodations which might be availabel because of the political liability of seeming cognitively week or hoblled and the office politics which might emerge such as being discounted when offering an opionion in a meeting that has nothing to do with or does not result from being despressed. The presence of disability simply creates Ad Hominen attack on the person who offered the now undermined opinion.

Dr Cooper;s character may wish to pre-screen herself before approaching the miltary and do so through friends at will connected Princton University. THis pre screen she seeks for herself can give her insight as to what her condition is, how she should live with it, whether it needs reporting, and if she should choose to report it.

Rockefeller Tavistok type researchers may have stepped in to help and know of the genes history thought it was still somewhate unknown in details.

The first of Barrack Obama children will turn one years old, Malia Obama.

At AOL Netscape and other locations it is getting weird as dopples of me are all around including in payroll, etc.,

Conrad, a former Navy captain, flew in space four times: twice during the Gemini program in the mid-1960s, as commander of Apollo 12 in November 1969, and as commander of NASA's Skylab space station in 1973.

This book speculates there is a Wetdivision of Psychiatric research and illegal human experimentation and illegal destruction of life concealing that research and there are also agencies tied to this as well as population centers and DARPA NASA part of that research in Atomic Bomb coordinating countries using Sleeper Agents and Twins studies in parallels with long war efforts at taming world hostile governments.

Princeton University retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Princeton University is a private Ivy League research university in Princeton, New Jersey. Founded in 1746 in Elizabeth as the College of New Jersey, Princeton is the fourth-oldest institution of higher education in the United States and one of the nine colonial colleges chartered before the American Revolution. The institution moved to Newark in 1747, and then to the current site nine years later. It officially became a university in 1896 and was subsequently renamed Princeton University.

The university is governed by the Trustees of Princeton University and has an endowment of $37.7 billion, the largest endowment per student in the United States. Princeton provides undergraduate and graduate instruction in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, and engineering to approximately 8,500 students on its 600 acres (2.4 km2) main campus. It offers postgraduate degrees through the Princeton School of Public and International Affairs, the School of Engineering and Applied Science, the School of Architecture and the Bendheim Center for Finance. The Princeton University also manages the Department of Energy's

Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory (PPPL) is a United States Department of Energy national laboratory for plasma physics and nuclear fusion science. Its primary mission is research into and development of fusion as an energy source. It is known in particular for the development of the stellarator and tokamak designs, along with numerous fundamental advances in plasma physics and the exploration of many other plasma confinement concepts.

PPPL grew out of the top-secret Cold War project to control thermonuclear reactions, called Project Matterhorn. The focus of this program changed from H-bombs to fusion power in 1951, when Lyman Spitzer developed the stellarator concept and was granted funding from the Atomic Energy Commission to study the concept. This led to a series of machines in the 1950s and 60s. In 1961, after declassification, Project Matterhorn was renamed the Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory.

and is home to the NOAA's Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Laboratory. It is classified among

In 2015, the Carnegie Classification System reinstated the "Research I university" designations along with "Research II" and "Research III." The current system, introduced in 2018, includes the following three categories for:

> Research I university* is a category that the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education uses to indicate universities in the United States that engage in the highest levels of research activity.
>
> R1
>
> Doctoral Universities - Very high research activity
>
> R2

Doctoral Universities - High research activity

D/PU

Doctoral/Professional Universities

In the 2018 classification, institutions were classified as either R1 or R2 if they “conferred at least 20 research/scholarship doctorates in 2016-17 and reported at least $5 million in total research expenditures.”

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

There are 131 institutions that are classified as “R1: Doctoral Universities - Very high research activity” in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education as of the 2019 update.

These universities have a very high level of both research activity and per capita in such research activity, using aggregate data to determine both measurements. In other words, these institutions provide a lot of resources for research and have a lot of people conducting research at their respective institution. These two classifications can be seen as the aggregate supply and aggregate demand of research, respectively.

and has one of the largest university libraries in the world.

Princeton uses a residential college system and is known for its upperclassmen eating clubs. The university has over 500 student organizations. Princeton students embrace a wide variety of traditions from both the past and present.

Skull and Bones (Order 322) Founded at Yale

[image]

The Order of Skull and Bones is a secret society founded at Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut in 1832. Skull and Bones founder William Huntington Russell was inspired by an occult society he'd visited in Germany. His co-founder was Alphonso Taft, future Secretary of War under President Grant and father of president William Howard Taft … who would also be a member of Skull and Bones. The prominent list of Bonesman includes several presidents and modern-day power brokers.

[image]

Each year, 15 seniors at Yale are tapped to join Skull and Bones. Their names are published in Yale Rumpus, though what happens behind the closed doors of The Tomb, the windowless meeting space where Bonesmen gather twice a week, is under wraps: Members take an oath of secrecy. Graduate members are referred to as "patriarchs," while those undergoing initiation are called "knights." Outsiders of the group are “barbarians.” Famous Skull and Bones members include Presidents William Howard Taft, George H.W. Bush and his son, George W. Bush; founder of Time magazine Henry Luce; former secretary of state and presidential hopeful John Kerry; Fortune 500 elites and members of the CIA. The controversial 1986 exposé America’s Secret Establishment by Anthony Sutton claimed that Skull and Bones was out to create a “new world order” run by Bonesmen, prompting myriad conspiracy theories.

History.com Free Masons and Knights Templar Jessica Pearce Rotondi UPDATED:DEC 12, 2019ORIGINAL:DEC 11, 2019 *

Connected?

Malia Ann Obama Born: July 4, 1998 Chicago, IL Education: Sidwell Friends School (2009-2016), University of Chicago Laboratory Schools (2008), Harvard University

Sasha Obama Born: June 10, 2001 Chicago, IL Full name: Natasha Obama Education: Sidwell Friends School (2009-2019), University of Michigan, University of Chicago Laboratory Schools

Connected ?

[image]

at Camp Borden and Deseronto in Canada.[6] During the final year of the war, Forrestal spent much of his time in Washington, at the Office of Naval Operations while completing his flight training and reached the rank of lieutenant. After the war, Forrestal resumed his career in finance and made his fortune on Wall Street. He became a partner in 1923, was appointed vice president in 1926, and by 1937 was president of the company. He also acted as a publicist for the Democratic Party committee in Dutchess County, New York, helping politicians from the area win elections at both the local and state level. One of the individuals aided by his work was a neighbor, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Forrestal came from a very strict middle class Irish Catholic family. He was a successful financier on Wall Street before becoming Undersecretary of the Navy in 1940, shortly before the United States entered the Second World War. He became Secretary of the Navy in May 1944 upon the death of his superior, Frank Knox. President Franklin D. Roosevelt requested that Forrestal take the lead in building up the Navy. In 1947, after the end of the war, President Harry S. Truman appointed him the first Secretary of the newly created Department of Defense. Forrestal was intensely hostile to the Soviet Union, fearing Communist expansion in Europe and the Middle East. Along with Secretary of State George C. Marshall, he strongly opposed the United States' support for the establishment of the State of Israel, fearing that this would alienate Arab nations which were needed as allies, and whose petroleum reserves were vital for both military and civilian industrial expansion.

Forrestal was a supporter of naval battle groups centered on aircraft carriers. He tried to weaken the proposed Department of Defense for the Navy's benefit, but was hard pressed to run it from 1947 to 1949 after Truman named him Secretary of Defense. The two men were often at odds, and Truman forced Forrestal's resignation.

Thereafter, Forrestal's mental health rapidly deteriorated, declining to the point in which he underwent medical care for depression. While a patient at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Forrestal died from fatal injuries sustained after falling out a sixteenth floor window.

In 1954, the world's first supercarrier was named USS Forrestal in his honor, as is the James V. Forrestal Building, which houses the headquarters of the United States Department of Energy. He is the namesake of the Forrestal Lecture Series at the United States Naval Academy and of the James Forrestal Campus of his alma mater Princeton University.

Forrestal entered Dartmouth College in 1911, but transferred to Princeton University in his sophomore year, where he served as an editor for The Daily Princetonian. His senior class voted him “Most Likely to Succeed”, but he left just prior to completing work on a degree. Forrestal was a member of University Cottage Club while he was a student at Princeton.[4] Forrestal married the former Josephine Stovall (née Ogden), a Vogue writer, in 1926. She eventually developed a dependence on alcohol and suffered various mental health issues

Forrestal went to work as a bond salesman for William A. Read and Company (later renamed Dillon, Read & Co.) in 1916. When the USA entered the First World War, he enlisted in the Navy and ultimately became a Naval Aviator, training with the

The Royal Flying Corps Canada (RFC Canada) was a training organization of the British Royal Flying Corps located in Canada during the First World War. It began operating in 1917.

U.S. Brigadier-General George O. Squier (US Army Signal Corps) and the US Aircraft Production Board. Squier had overall responsibility for the US Army’s air service, which was short of flight instructors. The RFC released five experienced American pilots to the US Army, where they became squadron commanders. The US Air Board acquiesced in the British opening a recruiting office in New York City, ostensibly to recruit British citizens, but it also solicited US citizens, of whom about 300 were successfully signed up. The RFC would also train many US Army flight personnel: 400 pilots; 2,000 ground-crew members; and 20 equipment officers. These Americans would then collect aircraft and equipment from the UK, before coming under RFC control in France. Ten American squadrons would train in Canada during the summer of 1917, while RFC squadrons were allowed to train during the winter in Fort Worth, Texas.

When the Royal Flying Corps was changed to the Royal Air Force in April 1918, the unit became known as Royal Air Force Canada..

During the last two years of the war 3,135 pilots and 137 observers trained in Canada and Texas for both the RFC and the new Royal Air Force (RAF). Of these trainees, 2,624 went to Europe for operational duty. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Forrestal was a compulsive workaholic and skilled administrator. He was described as pugnacious, introspective, shy, philosophic, solitary, and emotionally insecure.[3][7][8] He took no part in national politics, though he usually voted for Democrats, but did not support New Deal liberalism

As Secretary, Forrestal introduced a policy of racial integration in the Navy. Forrestal traveled to combat zones to see naval forces in action. He was in the South Pacific in 1942, present at the Battle of Kwajalein in 1944, and (as Secretary) witnessed the Battle of Iwo Jima in 1945. After five days of pitched battle, a detachment of Marines was sent to hoist the American flag on the 545-foot summit of Mount Suribachi on Iwo Jima. This was the first time in the war that the U.S. flag had flown on Japanese soil. Forrestal, who had just landed on the beach, claimed the historic flag as a souvenir. When Forrestal witnessed the sight of the Stars and Stripes atop Mount Suribachi, he turned to Major General Holland Smith and said, “the raising of that flag on Suribachi means a Marine Corps for the next 500 years.”[16] A second, larger flag was run up in its place, and this second flag-raising was the moment captured by Associated Press photographer Joe Rosenthal in his famous photograph.

[image]

“Let me dial that area code 480” Or is it 08 4? Princeton Plainsborough Hospital.

Robert Lawrence Leonard (born February 28, 1969),[1] known by his stage name Robert Sean Leonard, is an American actor. He is best known for playing Dr. James Wilson in the television series House (2004-2012) and Neil Perry in the film Dead Poets Society.

Alma mater Fordham University, Columbia University, close with Hugh Laurie.

“Rodin your fired!”

Darwinism? EPD III? Donald Barr at the White House?

The Right Stuff Air date: October 2, 2007 is a fourth season episode of House which first aired on October 2, 2007. House runs a reality show style contest to choose a new diagnostic team. While giving his new applicants an exercise, a prospective astronaut approaches him to treat her “under the table” to keep NASA from finding out anything is wrong with her.

The black female pilot with a secret illness Dr Cooper as Princeton’s Peter Conrad.

When Cuddy finds out about the arrangement, she demands that House properly chart every single procedure. When the patient refuses to consent to any test that would make NASA suspicious, House has to get even more creative than usual. However, he’s distracted by what appear to be familiar faces around the hospital.

REM MD

Dr. Remy “Thirteen” Hadley, M.D., is a fictional character on the Fox medical drama House, portrayed by Olivia Wilde. She is part of the new diagnostic team assembled by Dr. Gregory House after the disbanding of his previous team in the third-season finale. The character’s nickname derives from the episode “The Right Stuff”

Anne Louise Dudek (born March 22, 1975)[1] is an American actress. She is known for portraying Tiffany Wilson in the 2004 film White Chicks, Danielle Brookson in the USA Network television series Covert Affairs, Dr. Amber Volakis on the Fox series House, Lura Grant on the HBO series Big Love, and Francine Hanson on the AMC series Mad Men. She has also starred in the British television series The Book Group. House the Right Stuff

ALLEN DULLES (1893-1969) retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

ALLEN DULLES (1893-1969)

Allen Welsh Dulles (April 7, 1893 - January 29, 1969) was the first civilian Director (1953-1961) of the Central Intelligence Agency and a member of the Warren Commission. Dulles was the younger brother of John Foster Dulles, Eisenhower's Secretary of State, and the grandson of John W. Foster, another U.S. Secretary of State. His uncle Robert Lansing also was a U.S. Secretary of State.

Dulles was active in the Office of Strategic Services in Berne, Switzerland during World War II. He worked on intelligence regarding German plans and activities. Dulles's career was jump-started by the information provided by Fritz Kolbe, a German diplomat and a foe of the Nazis. Kolbe supplied secret documents regarding active German spies and plans regarding the Messerschmitt Me 262 jet fighter.

In 1948 Presidential election, Allen Dulles was Dewey's chief advisor. The Dulles brothers and James Forrestal helped form the Office of Policy Coordination.

In 1953 Dulles became the first civilian director of the Central Intelligence Agency, which had been formed in 1947 as part of the National Security Act; earlier directors had been military officers. The Agency's covert operations were an important part of the Eisenhower administration's new Cold War national security policy known as the "New Look".

Under Dulles's direction, the CIA established MK-Ultra, a top secret mind control research project which was managed by Sidney Gottlieb.

At Dulles' request, President Eisenhower demanded that Senator McCarthy discontinue issuing subpoenas against the CIA. In March, McCarthy had initiated a series of investigations into potential communist subversion of the Agency. Although none of the investigations revealed any wrongdoing, the hearings were still potentially damaging, not only to the CIA's reputation, but to the security of sensitive information as well. During the time, Dulles was personally overseeing Operation Mockingbird, a program which influenced American media companies.

Dulles went on to be successful with the CIA's first attempts at removing foreign leaders by covert means. Notably, the elected Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh of Iran was deposed in 1953 (via Operation Ajax), and President Arbenz of Guatemala was removed in 1954.

During the Kennedy Administration, Dulles faced increasing criticism. The failed Bay of Pigs Invasion and several failed assassination plots utilizing CIA-recruited operatives from the Mafia and anti-Castro Cubans directly against Fidel Castro undermined the CIA's credibility, and pro-American but unpopular regimes in Iran and Guatemala were widely regarded as brutal and corrupt.

Dulles was fired from the CIA by Kennedy in 1961 over Operation Northwoods, a proposed covert CIA operation aimed at gaining popular support for a war against Cuba by framing Cuba for staging real or simulated attacks on American citizens.

Dulles published the book The Craft of Intelligence (ISBN 1592282970) in 1963.

On November 29, 1963 President Lyndon Johnson appointed Dulles as one of seven commissioners of the Warren Commission to investigate the assassination of the U.S. President John F. Kennedy.

Despite his knowledge of the several assassination plots by the CIA against Castro, he is not documented to have mentioned these plots to any investigating authorities during the Warren Commission.

In 1969 Dulles died of influenza, complicated by pneumonia, at the age of 75. He was buried in Greenmount Cemetery in Baltimore, Maryland.

"Princetonians in the Ultra Service" (from the Colonial Club) in the 5-27-1975 issue (pp. 10-13) of the Princeton Alumni Weekly states many of not most Bletchely Park codebreakers were from the Princeton Colonial Club in what was termed the "Ultra Service" of British Intelligence.

Ultra: I Was There. Copyright © 2008 by Karl Gores Whitmarsh Published in the United States by Lulu Publishing, Inc. Visit us at www.Lulu.com

About the author Landis Gores (1919-1991) was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Graduating cum laude at the age of 15 from Walnut Hills High School, he attended Princeton University, where he majored in English Literature, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and graduated summa cum laude in 1939. From Princeton Mr. Gores went on to the Harvard Graduate School of Design, graduating in 1942, and receiving the A.I.A. Gold Medal that same year. At Harvard, Mr. Gores became friendly with professor Marcel Breuer (formerly professor at the Bauhaus) and Philip Johnson, future fellow members of a group of modern architects that would later be known as the Harvard Five

My second overriding debt is to my onetime senior overseer and arbiter in the line of duty, Ralph Bennett, President of Magdalen College, Cambridge. Apprised early that the very day after release of the first body of Ultra field signal typescripts Ralph had commenced to put together a precise chronicle of the Ultra aspects of the Allies' Western Front campaign of 1944-1945, I presumed as my own far less authoritative in-house memories took shape to appeal to him for verification of my inevitable subjectivity and fallibility as well as for help in securing copies of those actual signals which because of my specific connection I desired to confirm in entire detail. My list of desiderata arrived however only after Ralph, with reading galleys of his Ultra in the West finished, had no further occasion for visits to the P.R.O. at Kew where the originals lay;

To my several surviving Princeton colleagues I am grateful for contributions of personal histories while I was compiling a brief and rudimentary resume of Princetonians in the Ultra Service for the Princeton Alumni Weekly in 1975, together with subsequent recollections and observations as our correspondences have continued: Adolph Rosengarten, Edmund Kellogg, Yorke Allen, Langdon Van Norden and William T.B. Carnahan. To Ernest Bell III I declare a debt for encouragement in my first phases of compilation and for some useful early copies of signals brought back from the P.R.O. as well as other materials valuable as corroborative evidence. And finally, small notes of gratitude to my daughter Valerie over these years offering me the fruits of her vocation as a librarian to scout out and scour out a wide range of obscure records and documentations in search of precision of detail or accuracy of allusion, and to old family friend Laurence Buckley interested enough from his days as a Mosquito-flying Pathfinder pilot in the R.A.F. to proofread my entire final typescript.

Charles P. “Pete” Conrad retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Charles P. “Pete” Conrad Captain, United States Navy retrieved from lhttp://www.arlingtoncemetery.net/ and copied or modified to here

Conrad, a Huntington Beach resident whose lifelong aerospace career started with NASA in 1962, died at 5:07 p.m. at Ojai Valley Hospital, five hours after crashing his 1996 Harley-Davidson, said James Baroni, a Ventura County deputy county coroner. Conrad was 69.

Doctors who operated on Conrad to find the source of internal bleeding were unable to revive him, Baroni said. “Initially it did not appear that he had many injuries,” Baroni said. “But after he was there [at the hospital] for a while, he started having more difficulty breathing and his blood pressure was dropping.”

Conrad’s wife, Nancy Conrad, was riding on another motorcycle when the crash occurred, Baroni said. The couple and several friends, also on motorcycles, had been headed north to Monterey. The group planned to stop at Ojai for lunch, Baroni said.

It was not uncommon for Conrad to be riding. In fact, he was a thrill-seeker. In an interview with The Times several years ago, Conrad said he enjoyed “Fast bikes, fast cars and anything that moves.”

The crash occurred on a slight grade on California 150 about three miles east of Ojai in an unincorporated area of Ventura County. Conrad's riding buddies, some of whom were bringing up the rear and came upon him seconds after the crash, said it appeared Conrad was traveling under the posted 55 mph speed limit when he took the turn, Baroni said. Conrad, who was wearing a helmet and full riding gear, apparently took the turn wide, lost control and flew off the bike onto the pavement, authorities said. An autopsy is scheduled in Ventura today and funeral arrangements are pending, Baroni said.

Conrad died on July 8, 1999, from internal injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident. While traveling with his wife and friends from his Huntington Beach home to Monterey, California, his motorcycle crashed on a turn. Conrad later died in a hospital in Ojai.[30] He was wearing a helmet at the time and was operating within the speed limit.[4] He was buried with full honors at Arlington National Cemetery,[31] with many Apollo-era astronauts in attendance.

[image]

Two Distinguished Flying Crosses[1
Two Navy Distinguished Service Medals
Two NASA Distinguished Service Medals
Two NASA Exceptional Service Medals
The Congressional Space Medal of Honor (1978)[1]
The Collier Trophy

The Harmon Trophy
Navy Astronaut Wings
Gagarin Gold Space Medal (Russian)

Timeline

- 1990s. Wierd firings of me escalate was what I now know ar and Office Mobs of attention grabbing out of place highly hos forms around me. At first I relapse into meth then upon a vov
I take that out of the equation but will at various times permi drinking. Totls appear around pools near me as over 18 disap
Palo Alto area

- 1996 to 1998 The Obama children are being conceived and

- 1999 Charles Pete Conrad dies in a traffic accident on the or birthday of a Michelle Obama daughter. One of the daughers infection, bacteria can do that and bacteria can transport gen

- 1999 - 2001 I am being attacked inside and outside the work wildly inflammatory racial provocations leading me read and sociology and its theories. An Office mob of a Canadian milita a Mossad loving motorcycle racer, and other figures form in r team as Cutouts begin, like at AOL before, others are tied to r name on payroll, same reports being turned in to status repor management change. same clothing or folios, etc.,

- 2001 I am fired from wells fargo for surfing porn with Wells

notebook

- 2001 9/11 strikes and the Project Monarch files at the Penta been damaged or a target.

- 2006 -2009 After a period of debated race theory as a white am arrested for seeking FOIA documents and harassing by ph officers. During that time my mother is diagnosed with possib cancer., Tom and Mark with each other and to me confuse fa relaying to me as I am in a federal prison. After dangerous su mother has a relapse by bleeding out at night from the suture pool of blood with no one to help her.

- 2009 In custody I will assert I was radiologically attacked.

- By 2011 my neighbors are being moved in after I have move apartment in Clarendon without neighbors, I am arrested for some of them for suggesting acts towards my like her “Thea S “Would you like some candy?” and “I like to beat up my husb those comments women in high heals visit the surrounding ap seem to co-incide with the suggestive comments to me.

- Upon release from 4 years of being trapped inside institution including US DOD VA hospital I move (evicted from my old a Texas as a homeless person. During this time in Texas Conspi Rights continues an I can not get to trial nor a lawyer

- 2013 Boston Bombing occurs and a fire occurs at the JFK lib time.

- 2015 Baptist, Salvation Army, and other ministries will stalk as I develop a theory that progressive christian groups were b running twins studies and Mendel like twins studies for racial generally and also studying a language defect in humans and will tie this theory to cover up of the Obama family line bein created, studied, and promoted by the CIA and DARPA. This t

Kennedy Curse and long term scientific research in League of descended masonic defense contractors

- 2019 An apartment I rent a unit in will be called (by others) seemingly a brown princess and I am treated like a Schizophr

- Tom Donegan will die of Esophagus cancer.

…

The Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas, has a grove of trees that have been planted to honor the memory of the astronauts who have died. After Conrad's death, NASA planted a tree in his honor. During the dedication ceremony, his Apollo 12 crewmate Alan Bean, used his speech to lighten the somber occasion by injecting a little levity, pretending to "channel" Conrad's instructions from the hereafter. Bean said, Conrad wanted NASA to light his tree every Christmas season with colored lights instead of the white used for everyone else, in keeping with his motto "when you can't be good, be colorful". NASA has honored this "request", and every Christmas since then, all of the trees in the grove have been lit with white lights, except Conrad's tree, which has been lit with red lights.

Charles "Pete" Conrad Jr. (June 2, 1930 - July 8, 1999) was an American NASA astronaut, aeronautical engineer, naval officer and aviator, and test pilot, and commanded the Apollo 12 space mission, on which he became the third person to walk on the Moon. Conrad was selected in NASA's second astronaut class in 1962.

Conrad was considered a bright, intelligent boy, but he continually struggled with his schoolwork. He suffered from dyslexia*, a condition little understood at the time. Conrad attended the Haverford School, a private academy in Haverford, Pennsylvania, that previous generations of Conrads had attended. Even after his family's financial downturn, his uncle Egerton supported his continued schooling at Haverford. However, Pete's dyslexia continued to frustrate his academic efforts. After he failed most of his 11th grade exams, Haverford expelled him from school.

Conrad's mother refused to believe that her son was unintelligent, and she set about finding him a suitable school. She found Darrow School in New Lebanon, New York. There, Conrad learned how to apply a systems approach to learning, and thus found a way to work around his dyslexia. Despite having to repeat the 11th grade, Conrad so excelled at Darrow that after his graduation in 1949, he not only was admitted to Princeton University, but he was also awarded a full Navy ROTC scholarship.[3]: 64-67 While at Darrow, although he was only 5′6″ and weighed 135 pounds, Conrad started as the center on his football team and became the team captain. "He was a very tough boy, and we won our share of games," said the school's assistant headmaster.

Pete Conrad was born on June 2, 1930, in Philadelphia,[2] the third child and the first son of Charles Conrad Sr. (1892-1969) and Frances De Rappelage Conrad (née Vinson; 1899-1981), a well-to-do real estate and banking family.[3]: 17, 74

The Great Depression wiped out the Conrad family's fortune, just as it had those of so many others. In 1942, the family lost their manor home in Philadelphia, and then moved into a small carriage house, paid for by Frances's brother, Egerton Vinson. Eventually, Charles Sr., broken down by financial failures, left his family.[3]

Conrad was considered a bright, intelligent boy, but he continually struggled with his schoolwork. He suffered from dyslexia, a condition little understood at the time. Conrad attended the Haverford School, a private academy in Haverford, Pennsylvania, that previous generations of Conrads had attended. Even after his family's financial downturn, his uncle Egerton supported his continued schooling at Haverford. However, Pete's dyslexia continued to frustrate his academic efforts. After he failed most of his 11th grade exams, Haverford expelled him from school.

Conrad's mother refused to believe that her son was unintelligent, and she set about finding him a suitable school. She found Darrow School in New Lebanon, New York. There, Conrad learned how to apply a systems approach to learning, and thus found a way to work around his dyslexia. Despite having to repeat the 11th grade, Conrad so excelled at Darrow that after his graduation in 1949, he not only was admitted to Princeton University, but he was also awarded a full Navy ROTC scholarship.[3]: 64-67 While at Darrow, although he was only 5′6″ and weighed 135 pounds, Conrad started as the center on his football team and became the team captain. "He was a very tough boy, and we won our share of games," said the school's assistant headmaster.

Starting when he was 15 years old, Conrad worked during the summertime at the Paoli Airfield near Paoli, Pennsylvania, bartering lawn mowing, sweeping, and other odd jobs for airplane flights and occasional instructional time. He learned more about the mechanics and workings of aircraft and aircraft engines, and then he graduated to minor maintenance work. When he was 16, he drove almost 100 miles (160 km) to help a flight instructor whose airplane had been forced to make an emergency landing. Conrad repaired the plane single-handedly. Thereafter, the instructor gave Conrad the flight lessons that he needed to earn his pilot's certificate even before he graduated from high school.

Conrad continued flying while he was in college, not only keeping his pilot's certificate, but also earning an instrument flight rating. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in aeronautical engineering from Princeton in 1953, after completing a 200-page-long senior thesis titled "The Design of a Turbo-Jet Military Advanced Trainer" with Richard V. Warden, Richard W. Vannata, and Calvin H. Perrine.[5] He was commissioned an Ensign in the U.S. Navy as a Naval ROTC graduate.

Aviation career in the U.S. Navy

Following his commission in 1953, Conrad was sent to Naval Air Station Pensacola, Florida, for flight training. He was also trained at the Naval Air Station Corpus Christi, Texas. He was designated a Naval Aviator in September 1954[6] and became a fighter pilot. He excelled in Navy flight school, and he served for several years as an aircraft carrier-based fighter pilot in the Navy. Conrad also served as a flight instructor in Navy flight schools along the Gulf of Mexico.

Next, Conrad applied for and he was accepted by the United States Naval Test Pilot School at Naval Air Station Patuxent River, Patuxent, Maryland. His classmates were future fellow astronauts Wally Schirra and Jim Lovell. He graduated in 1958, as part of Class 20, and was assigned as a Project Test Pilot.[3]: 83, 146 Conrad became a captain in the U.S. Navy on December 11, 1969.

During this period, Conrad was invited to take part in the selection process for the first group of astronauts for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) (the "Mercury Seven"). Conrad, like his fellow candidates, underwent several days of what they considered to be invasive, demeaning, and unnecessary medical and psychological testing at the Lovelace Clinic in New Mexico. Unlike his fellow candidates, Conrad rebelled against the regimen. During a Rorschach inkblot test, he told the psychiatrist that one blot card revealed a sexual encounter complete with lurid detail. When shown a blank card, he turned it around, pushed it back and replied, “It’s upside down”.

Then when he was asked to deliver a stool sample to the onsite lab, he placed it in a gift box and tied a red ribbon around it. Eventually, he decided that he had had enough. After dropping his full enema bag on the desk of the clinic’s commanding officer, he walked out.[3]: 113-119 His initial application to NASA was denied with the notation not suitable for long-duration flight.

After his NASA episode, Conrad returned to the Navy as a fighter pilot, serving in the Pacific Fleet’s second operational F-4 Phantom II squadron, VF-96, on board USS Ranger.[1] Thereafter, when NASA announced its search for a second group of astronauts, Mercury veteran Alan Shepard, who knew Conrad from their time as naval aviators and test pilots, approached Conrad and persuaded him to reapply.[10] This time, Conrad found the medical tests less invasive, and in June 1962 he was selected to join NASA.

He logged more than 6,500 hours of flying time, with more than 5,000 hours in jet aircraft.

NASA career Project Gemini

Conrad joined NASA as part of the second group of astronauts, known as the New Nine, on September 17, 1962.[12] Regarded as one of the best pilots in the group, he was among the first of his group to be assigned a Gemini mission. As pilot of Gemini 5 he, along with his commander Gordon Cooper, set a new space endurance record of eight days. The duration of the Gemini 5 flight was actually 7 days 22 hours and 55 minutes, surpassing the then-current Russian record of five days. Eight days was the time required for the first crewed lunar landing missions. Conrad facetiously referred to the Gemini 5 capsule as a flying garbage can.

Conrad tested many spacecraft systems essential to the Apollo program. He was also one of the smallest of the astronauts, 5 feet 6½ inches (1.69 meters) tall,[14] so he found the confinement of the Gemini capsule less onerous than his Commander Gordon Cooper did. He was then named Commander of the Gemini 8 backup crew, and later Commander of Gemini 11 with pilot Richard Gordon. Gemini 11 docked with an Agena target vehicle immediately after achieving orbit. Such a maneuver was an engineering and flight test similar to what the Apollo Command Module (CM) and Lunar Module (LM) would later be required to do. Also, the Gemini 11 flight holds the distinction of being the highest-apogee earth orbit ever, reaching an apogee of 1,369 kilometres (851 mi).

Apollo program

Pete Conrad's quote while descending the LEM ladder Conrad was assigned in December 1966 to command the backup crew for the first Earth orbital test flight of the complete Apollo spacecraft, including the Lunar Module (LM) into low Earth orbit. Delays in the LM's development pushed this mission to December 1968 as Apollo 8. But when one more delay occurred in readying the first LM for crewed flight, NASA approved and scheduled a lunar orbit mission without the LM as Apollo 8, pushing Conrad's backup mission to Apollo 9 in March 1969. Director of Flight Crew Operations Deke Slayton's practice was to assign a backup crew as the prime crew on the third following mission. If the swap of 8 and 9 had not occurred, Conrad might have commanded Apollo 11, the first mission to land on the Moon.

On November 14, 1969, Apollo 12 was launched with Conrad as Commander, Dick Gordon as Command Module Pilot, and Alan Bean as Lunar Module Pilot. The launch was the most harrowing of the Apollo program, as a series of lightning strikes just after liftoff temporarily knocked out power and guidance in the Command Module. Five days later, after stepping down from the ladder of the Lunar Module, Conrad joked about his own small stature by remarking:

> Whoopee! Man, that may have been a small one for Neil, but that's a long one for me.

He later revealed that he said this in order to win a bet he had made with the Italian journalist Oriana Fallaci for $500 to prove that NASA did not script astronaut comments (Fallaci was convinced that Armstrong's "One small step for man" speech had been written for him and were not his own words).[18] (In actuality the two speeches did not represent the same event; Conrad's "long one" referred to the jump from the ladder to the LM footpad, whereas Armstrong's "small step" referred to the small step from the footpad and on to the Moon's surface. Conrad's words for the latter were "Oooh, is that soft and queasy.")

One of the photos that he took during the mission with his own image visible on the helmet visor of Al Bean was later listed on Popular Science's photo gallery of the best astronaut selfies.

Skylab

Paul J. Weitz, (left) Charles Conrad Jr. (middle); and Joseph P. Kerwin (right); America's first space station crew would spend 28 days in space Conrad's last mission was as Commander of Skylab 2, the first crew to board the Skylab space station. The station had been damaged on its uncrewed launch, when its micrometeoroid shield tore away, taking one of two main solar panels with it and jamming the other one so that it could not deploy. Conrad and his crew repaired the damage on two spacewalks. Conrad managed to pull free the stuck solar panel by sheer brute force, an action of which he was particularly proud. The astronauts also erected a "parasol" solar shield to protect the station from intense solar heating, a function which the lost micrometeoroid shield was supposed to perform. Without the shield, Skylab and its contents would have become unusable. [20] President Jimmy Carter honored Conrad for this in 1978 by awarding him the Congressional Space Medal of Honor.

During his training for Skylab 2, Conrad had to bail out from NASA T-38 N957NA on May 10, 1972. He was returning to Houston from a visit to ILC Industries in Delaware. On approach to Ellington AFB he was advised that the weather had deteriorated below minimums so he diverted to Hobby. During the night, instrument flight rules (IFR) descent, he suffered a generator failure at 800 feet and broke off the approach. He elected to divert to an airfield with better weather. Unfortunately he ran out of fuel as he reached Bergstrom AFB and was forced to eject at 3,700 feet. He landed about 100 yards from the base operations building and his airplane impacted in an open field about two miles away.

Post-NASA career

Conrad undergoes dental exam by Skylab 2 Science Pilot, Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin, M.D. Conrad retired from NASA and the Navy in 1973, and went to work for American Television and Communications Company. He started as the vice president of operations and chief operating officer. Conrad was in charge of the operation of existing systems and the national development of new cable television systems.

In 1976, he accepted a position with McDonnell Douglas as a vice president and consultant. In 1978, he became vice president of marketing and was responsible for the commercial and military sales of Douglas Aircraft Company. After an engine fell off a McDonnell Douglas DC-10, causing it to crash with the loss of all passengers and crew in 1979, Conrad spearheaded McDonnell Douglas's ultimately unsuccessful efforts to allay the fears of the public and policymakers, and save the plane's reputation. In 1980, he was promoted to senior vice president of marketing. From 1982 to 1984, Conrad served as the senior vice president of marketing and product support. He was appointed staff vice president of international business development in 1984. During the 1990s he consulted for the Delta Clipper experimental single-stage-to-orbit launch vehicle. He became vice president of project development in 1993.

On February 14, 1996, Conrad was part of the crew on a record-breaking around-the-world flight in a Learjet owned by cable TV pioneer, Bill Daniels. The flight lasted 49 hours, 26 minutes and 8 seconds.[22] Today the jet is on permanent static display at Denver International Airport's Terminal C.

A month before he died, Conrad appeared on ABC News Nightline and said, "I think the Space Shuttle is worth one billion dollars a launch. I think that it is worth two billion dollars for what it does. I think the Shuttle is worth it for the work it does." In the last interview he gave before his death, Conrad sat down for PBS's Nova series and discussed where he felt the future direction of space travel should go. He considered returning to the Moon "a waste of taxpayer money", but recommended missions to Mars and asteroids.

In 2006, NASA posthumously awarded him the Ambassador of Exploration Award for his work for the agency and science.

Personal life "When you can't be good, be colorful." - Conrad's personal motto.[4]

While at Princeton, Conrad met Jane DuBose, a student at Bryn Mawr, whose family owned a 1,600-acre (650 ha) ranch near Uvalde, Texas. Her father, Winn DuBose, was the first person to call Conrad "Pete" rather than "Peter", the name he had used since birth. Upon his graduation from Princeton and acceptance of his navy commission, Conrad and Jane were married on June 16, 1953. They had four sons: Peter, born in 1954; Thomas, born in 1957; Andrew, born in 1959; and the youngest, Christopher, born in 1960.

Given the demands of his career in the navy and NASA, Pete and Jane spent a great deal of time apart, and Pete saw less of his boys growing up than he would have liked. Even after he retired from NASA and the Navy, he kept himself busy. In 1988, Pete and Jane divorced.[1] Both Pete and Jane remarried.

In 1989, Conrad's youngest son, Christopher, was stricken with a malignant lymphoma. He died in April 1990, at the age of 29.[3]: 230-1

Conrad met Nancy Crane, a Denver divorcee, through mutual friends. Conrad and Crane married in 1990.

Conrad was a Cub Scout.[28] His recreational interests included golf, water skiing and auto racing, such as

Formula Vee.[29]

Pete Conrad retrieved from Museum of Flight and copied or modified to here

Posted Thu, April 30, 2020 By Layne Benofsky

His first name was Charles, but everyone called him Pete.

Apollo 12 astronaut, Charles “Pete”Conrad was selected as part of NASA’s second class of astronauts, known as the “Next Nine.” An accomplished naval aviator with a degree in aeronautical engineering from Princeton, Conrad was known for his colorful personality and sense of humor.

A veteran of four space missions, Conrad’s astronaut career spanned the Gemini, Apollo and Skylab programs. He set space endurance and altitude records during his flights on Gemini V and XI. He also led the second Moon landing as commander of Apollo 12. On his final mission, he served as commander of Skylab 2, America’s first space station. But Conrad’s many achievements did not come easily. He had to overcome many obstacles on his road to the stars, including a significant learning disability.

A Challenging Childhood

As a young man growing up in Philadelphia, Pete Conrad struggled in school. Though he excelled at mechanical tasks,Pete had “dyslexia,” a learning disorder which made reading and writing difficult.When he was sixteen, Conrad was expelled from the very traditional Haverford School in Pennsylvania, where he was perceived as a poor student. He transferred to the more hands-on Darrow Boarding School. There, he made an amazing turnaround. By the time he graduated from Darrow in 1949 on a Navy scholarship to Princeton, Pete made the honor roll, was elected class president, and despite being the smallest guy on the squad, became captain of the football team.

From Jets to Rockets

Like most of the United States' first astronauts, Pete Conrad began his career as a military aviator. He earned his naval aviator wings on September 24, 1954. He flew F9F-8 Cougars with squadron VF-43. He went on to attend the Navy Test Pilot School at Patuxent River, Maryland in 1958 and became a project pilot and flight instructor.

Conrad received an invitation to apply for the Mercury program in 1958. He and 31 other military test pilots went through a series of medical tests to selec tthe United States' first astronauts. Pete grew frustrated with what he considered to be the overly intrusive nature of the testing, and was not shy about voicing his disapproval. This led the flight surgeons to deem his attitude "not fit for long duration space flight," rejecting him from the Mercury program.

Little did those doctors know that Pete would try again in 1962, and be selected for NASA's second class of astronauts. He went on to set a space endurance record during his first Gemini mission, and again aboard the Skylab space station.He is perhaps best known as the commander of Apollo 12, the second mission to land on the Moon, and the first to make a precision landing.

Apollo 12

Though Pete's Apollo mission didn't bring a rover, later ones did, and the Museum has an engineering mock-up, built by Boeing in 1971. Find out more about it with our Senior Curator Matthew Burchette in our latest video.

Notable Deaths in July 1990

[image]

John F. Kennedy Jr November 25, 1960 - July 16, 1999).

ohn Fitzgerald Kennedy Jr. (November 25, 1960 - July 16, 1999), often referred to as John-John or JFK Jr., was an American lawyer, journalist, and magazine publisher. He was a son of the 35th U.S. President John F. Kennedy and First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy, and a younger brother of Caroline Kennedy. Three days after his father was assassinated, he rendered a salute at the funeral on his third birthday.

From his childhood years at the White House, Kennedy was the subject of much media scrutiny, and later became a popular social figure in Manhattan. Trained as a lawyer, he worked as a New York City assistant district attorney for almost four years. In 1995, he launched George magazine, using his political and celebrity status to publicize it. He died in a plane crash in 1999 at the age of 38.

[image]

Carolyn Bessette-Kennedy

Carolyn Jeanne Bessette-Kennedy (January 7, 1966 - July 16, 1999) was a publicist for Calvin Klein and the wife of John F. Kennedy Jr. After her marriage, Bessette-Kennedy's relationship with her husband and her fashion sense became the subjects of media scrutiny, drawing comparisons to her mother-in-law Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis. The couple and Bessette-Kennedy's older sister, Lauren, died in a plane crash off the coast of Martha's Vineyard in July 1999.

Bessette attended Juniper Hill Elementary School. At Juniper Hill, Bessette's mother was a substitute teacher.

Raised in a Roman Catholic household, Bessette later attended St. Mary's High School.[2] At St. Mary's, Bessette was voted by her classmates the "Ultimate Beautiful Person".[5] During her high school experience, Bessette was described as being part of the "in crowd" and having attended "all the right parties".[6] She had initially started high school at Greenwich High School, but her parents transferred her to St. Mary's because they felt she was not taking her studies seriously.

After graduating from high school in 1984, Bessette attended Boston University's School of Education,[6] graduating in 1988 with a degree in elementary education.[7] While there, she dated John Cullen, star of the school's ice hockey team, who would later play professional hockey in the NHL.

[image]

Sylvia Sidney August 8, 1910 - July 1, 1999

Sidney died on July 1, 1999, from esophageal cancer at the Lenox Hill Hospital in Manhattan. She underwent chemotherapy, which proved unsuccessful, and died a month before her 89th birthday.[14] Her remains were cremated.[1]

Sidney was born Sophia Kosow in the Bronx, New York, the daughter of Rebecca (née Saperstein), a Romanian Jew, and Victor Kosow, a Russian-Jewish immigrant who worked as a clothing salesman.[2][3] Her parents divorced by 1915, and she was adopted by her stepfather Sigmund Sidney, a dentist. Her mother became a dressmaker and renamed herself Beatrice Sidney.[4] Now using the surname Sidney, Sylvia became an actress at the age of 15 as a way of overcoming shyness. As a student of the Theater Guild's School for Acting, she was praised by theater critics for her performances. In 1926, she made her first film appearance as an extra in D.W. Griffith's The Sorrows of Satan.

On television, she appeared in the pilot episode of WKRP in Cincinnati as the imperious owner of the radio station, and she appeared in a memorable episode of Thirtysomething as Melissa's tough grandmother, who wanted to leave her granddaughter the family dress business, though Melissa wanted a career as a photographer. Sidney also appeared at the beginning of each episode as the crotchety travel clerk on the short-lived late-1990s revival of Fantasy Island. She also was featured on Starsky & Hutch, The Love Boat, Magnum, P.I., and Trapper John, M.D..

[image]

Guy Mitchell February 22, 1927 - July 1, 1999

Guy Mitchell (born Albert George Cernik; February 22, 1927 - July 1, 1999) was an American pop singer and actor, successful in his homeland, the UK, and Australia. He sold 44 million records, including six million-selling singles.

In the fall of 1957, Mitchell starred in ABC's The Guy Mitchell Show. He appeared as George Romack on the 1961 NBC western detective series Whispering Smith.[1]

[image]

Roman Tmetuchl

Roman Tmetuchl (February 11, 1926 - July 1, 1999) was a Palauan political leader and businessman.[3] He grew up in Japanese-controlled Palau and joined the Kempeitai, the Japanese secret police, during World War II. After the war, he became the leader of Palau's Liberal Party. He worked in the Congress of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands from 1964 to 1978 and advocated for Palau gaining a separate status from the rest of Micronesia. He became governor of Airai and engaged in three unsuccessful Palauan presidential campaigns. As a businessman, Tmetuchl led several construction projects for his business holdings and for the Palauan community, including the Palau International Airport (which was later renamed in his honor) and a Seventh-Day Adventist clinic.

Yaakov Weinberg

Shmuel Yaakov Weinberg, known as Yaakov Weinberg (also Jacob S. Weinberg) (1923 - July 1, 1999) was an Orthodox Jewish rabbi, Talmudist, and rosh yeshiva (dean) of Ner Israel Rabbinical College in Baltimore, Maryland,[1] one of the major American non-Hasidic yeshivas. Rabbi Weinberg also served as a leading rabbinical advisor and board member of a number of important Haredi and Orthodox institutions such as Torah Umesorah, Agudath Israel of America and the Association for Jewish Outreach Programs.

Weinberg was a scion of the Slonimer Hasidic dynasty. He was the great-great-grandson of Rabbi Avraham of Slonim, author of Yesod HaAvodah and founder of the dynasty, and the grandson of Rabbi Noah Weinberg of Slonim and Tiberias, whom the first Slonimer Rebbe had sent to Palestine to establish a Torah community in the late 19th century.

He was involved with a variety of communities, including the Iranian Jewish community for which Ner Yisroel developed a rabbinic training program.[8]

[image]

iam Whitelaw, 1st Viscount Whitelaw

William Stephen Ian Whitelaw, 1st Viscount Whitelaw, KT, CH, MC, PC, DL (28 June 1918 - 1 July 1999) Lord Commissioner of the Treasury In office 6 March 1961 - 16 July 1962, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Labour In office 16 July 1962 - 16 October 1964 Monarch Elizabeth II, and often known as Willie Whitelaw, was a British Conservative politician who served in a wide number of Cabinet positions, most notably as home secretary from 1979 to 1983 and as de facto Deputy Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1979 to 1988.[1][2][3] He was Deputy Leader of the Conservative Party from 1975 to 1991.

Secretary of State for Northern Ireland In office 24 March 1972 - 2 December 1973 Monarch Elizabeth II Prime Minister Edward HeathPreceded by Office created Succeeded by Francis Pym Leader of the House of Commons Lord President of the Council In office 20 June 1970 - 7 April 1972 Monarch Elizabeth II Prime Minister Edward Heath Preceded by Fred Peart Succeeded by Robert Carr Chief Whip of the Conservative Party 16 October 1964 - 20 June 1970 Leader Sir Alec Douglas-Home Edward Heath Preceded by Martin Redmayne Succeeded by Francis Pym Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Labour In office 16 July 1962 - 16 October 1964 Monarch Elizabeth II Prime Minister Harold Macmillan Alec Douglas-Home Preceded by Alan Green Succeeded by Office abolished

After the Conservative Party won an unexpected victory at the 1970 general election, Whitelaw was appointed as Leader of the House of Commons and Lord President of the Council by Prime Minister Edward Heath. After the suspension of the Stormont Parliament resulted in the imposition of direct rule, Whitelaw served as Secretary of State for Northern Ireland from 1972 to 1973. He also served under Heath as Secretary of State for Employment from 1973 to 1974 and as Chairman of the Conservative Party from 1974 to 1975.

Whitelaw served Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher throughout her leadership of the Conservative Party as deputy party leader. He served as de facto Deputy Prime Minister between 1979 and 1988 and as Home Secretary from 1979 to 1983. He stepped down as a Member of Parliament at the 1983 general election, and was appointed as a Member of the House of Lords. He served as Leader of the House of Lords and Lord President of the Council from 1983 to 1988. He was a captain of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club

Benjamin Nathaniel Smith

Benjamin Nathaniel Smith (March 22, 1978 - July

4, 1999) was an American spree killer and member of the neo-Nazi World Church of the Creator. During the weekend of July 4, 1999, Smith targeted members of racial and ethnic minorities in random drive-by shootings in Illinois and Indiana, after which he committed suicide

[image]

Reg Bishop

Bishop was made an Officer of the Order of Australia in January 1984.[4] He was survived by a daughter and son, but his wife of more than sixty years, Connie predeceased him in 1997.

Reginald Bishop AO (4 February 1913 - 3 July 1999) was an Australian politician who served as a Senator for South Australia from 1962 to 1981. He was a member of the Australian Labor Party (ALP), and held office in the Whitlam Government as Minister for Repatriation (1972-1974) and Postmaster-General (1974-1975).

Bishop was born in Adelaide and left school at fifteen and became a clerk in the South Australian Railways at the Islington Railway Workshops. He was an official of the Australian Railways Union from 1937 until 1956 and Secretary of the South Australian Trades and Labour Council from 1956 until 1962. He enlisted in the Royal Australian Air Force during World War II and served from February 1943 until January 1946 in Darwin and Borneo.[1][2]

Bishop was an Australian Labor Party Senator for South Australia from the 1961 elections until his retirement in June 1981. After the election of the Whitlam government at the 1972 elections, he was Minister for Repatriation and Minister assisting the Minister for Defence. From June 1974, he was the second last Postmaster-General and oversaw the creation of Telecom and Australia Post as statutory authorities, replacing the former Postmaster-General's Department. He also implemented the introduction of FM radio and the abolition of television and radio licence fees.[2][3]

[image]

Mark Sandman

Mark Sandman was born into a Jewish American family in Newton, Massachusetts. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts, then worked a variety of blue-collar jobs, including construction, taxi driving, and commercial fishing Mark Sandman (September 24, 1952 - July 3, 1999) was an American singer, songwriter, musical instrument inventor, multi-instrumentalist and comic writer. Sandman possessed a distinctive, deep bass-baritone voice and a mysterious demeanour. He was an indie rock icon and longtime fixture in the Boston/Cambridge music scene, best known as the lead singer and slide bass player of the band Morphine. Sandman was also a member of the blues-rock band Treat Her Right and founder of Hi-n-Dry, a recording studio and independent record label.

On July 3, 1999, he suffered a heart attack during a concert in Italy and died instantly.

His instruments were extensively altered and sometimes built by hand. In Morphine, he usually played a two-string slide bass guitar tuned to a fifth, and sometimes a unitar (named after the one-stringed instrument in American blues tradition), and three-string slide bass with one bass and two unison strings tuned an octave higher (usually to A). He sometimes paired bass strings with one or two guitar strings, creating the “basitar” “tri-tar” and “guitbass.” The guitbass and basitar were later used by the band The Presidents of The United States of America, with whom Sandman was close friends.

The Presidents of the United States of America (occasionally referred to as PUSA, PotUSA, The Presidents of the USA or simply The Presidents) was an American grunge power trio band formed in Seattle, Washington, in 1993.

Mark Sandman was born into a Jewish American family in Newton, Massachusetts. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts, then worked a variety of blue-collar jobs, including construction, taxi driving, and commercial fishing. Sandman once noted he would often earn considerable overtime pay, which allowed him to take leave of work and travel outside of New England to places such as rural Colorado-the setting for a number of Treat Her Right and Morphine songs penned by Sandman, including “Thursday,” “The Jury,” and “I Think She Likes Me.”

Two tragic events affected Sandman’s life and would later influence his music: he was robbed and stabbed in the chest during a robbery in his cab,[2] and his two brothers died.[3] These events would later be recounted in the Treat Her Right song “No Reason.” His mother, Guitelle Sandman, later self-published Four Minus Three: A Mother’s Story, a book about the loss of her three sons.

Few details are publicly known about Sandman’s personal life. Fans have often speculated that many of Sandman’s songs were autobiographical, which to this day remains unconfirmed. Although Sandman served as an unofficial spokesman for Morphine, he avoided answering questions about his personal life or his professional experiences outside of the music business.[4] Sandman was reported to have been particularly secretive about his age, becoming angry with any reporter who expressed an interest in revealing it publicly, perhaps because he was 10 to 20 years older than most of his indie-rock contemporaries.

[image]

Mungo Ballardie MacCallum 11 December 1913 - 12 July 1999

MacCallum was born in Point Piper, Sydney on 11 December 1913. His father was Mungo Lorenz MacCallum, a Rhodes Scholar and the son of Mungo William MacCallum, Chancellor of the University of Sydney. He attended the Sydney Grammar School and studied Arts at the University of Sydney.

CareerMacCallum started working for the ABC in 1952, and, after a stint at the BBC, helped produce the first night of television in Australia in 1956.[3] His books included two novels, Voyage of Love, and Son of Mars, and an autobiography, Plankton's Luck.[4] Later, in the 1960s, he wrote for a journal named Nation.[5] He had a son with Diana Wentworth, Mungo Wentworth MacCallum.

MacCallum died in Sydney on 12 July 1999.

Louise Caselotti August 23, 1910 - July 13, 1999

Caselotti was born in Bridgeport, Connecticut, [citation needed] the daughter of voice teacher Guido Caselotti, with whom she studied after the family moved to Los Angeles, California.

Caselotti debuted with the San Carlo Opera Company in Los Angeles in 1927 in that city's Philharmonic Auditorium. She was particularly noted for having sung the title role in Carmen more than four hundred times, and she also appeared notably as the gypsy Azucena in Il Trovatore.

She performed in Italian motion pictures in the early 1930s.[2] In the United States she sang on radio and even experimental television broadcasts in the 1930s for CBS. She dubbed the voices of several leading Hollywood actresses in the late 1930s and early 1940s. Later she married attorney Richard "Eddie" Bagarozy and lived in a Riverside Drive apartment in Manhattan. Bagarozy wanted to start his own opera company, but ultimately found the enterprise beyond his abilities. Nevertheless, he planted the seeds for what ultimately became the Lyric Opera of Chicago.

Caselotti and Bagarozy managed the career of a promising Greek-American soprano, Maria Callas, and introduced her to the Metropolitan Opera's general director Edward Johnson. Caselotti was Callas' vocal coach during 1946 and 1947.

She died July 13, 1999, in Malibu, California, at the age of 88.

Caselotti's younger sister, Adriana, was the voice of Snow White in Walt Disney's 1937 Technicolor animated feature.

[image]

Donald D. Engen

Donald D. Engen (May 28, 1924 - July 13,[1] 1999) was a United States Navy vice admiral, former Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and former Director of the National Air and Space Museum.

United States Service branch United States Navy Years of service 1942-1978 Rank US-O9 insignia.svg Vice admiral Commands held VF-21 Carrier Air Group 11 USS Mount Katmai USS America Carrier Division Four Deputy US Atlantic Command Battles/wars World War II Korean War Awards Navy Cross Legion of Merit Distinguished Flying Cross Relations Hunter Ellis (grandson)

World War II Engen entered Naval Aviation Cadet Program on 9 June 1942, he soloed in August and in September 1942 was sent to naval preflight school.[3]: 18 In October 1942, Engen was assigned to Naval Air Station Los Alamitos for primary training and then in February 1943 was sent to Naval Air Station Corpus Christi for further training. He then attended advanced training at Naval Air Station Kingsville, graduating as a Naval Aviator on 9 June 1943.[3]: 19-20 Engen was assigned to Bombing Squadron 3 (VB-3) at Naval Air Station Daytona Beach for operational training in dive-bombing.[3]: 20 In August 1943, Engen carrier-qualified by making 8 landings on USS Sable and he then joined Bombing Squadron 19 (VB-19), flying the Curtiss SB2C Helldiver; nicknamed “the Big-Tailed Beast” by Navy personnel at NAS Los Alamitos.[3]: 20

In January 1944, Carrier Air Group 19 (CAG-19) embarked on the USS Lexington for transit to Hawaii, offloading at Ford Island.[3]: 20 From January-June 1944, VB-19 underwent further training at bases in Hawaii before deploying with the rest of CAG-19 aboard the USS Intrepid to the southwest Pacific arriving at Enewetak Atoll, where they transferred to the USS Lexington.[3]: 21 On 14

July 1944, Lexington left Enewetak to support the invasion of Guam and Engen later sank a Japanese freighter.[3]: 21 In October 1944, VB-19 fought in the Battle of Leyte Gulf; Engen participated in the sinking of the Japanese aircraft carrier Zuikaku and was one of 32 VB-19 pilots to be awarded the Navy Cross for their role in the battle.[3]: 23 [5] On 5 November 1944, Engen and the rest of VB-19 participated in the sinking of the Japanese cruiser Nachi in Manila Bay.[3]: 24 On 23 November, CAG-19 was replaced by Carrier Air Group 20 and it embarked for transport to Hawaii and then on to San Diego.[3]: 24 In early 1945, Engen was assigned to the newly formed VBF-19 at Naval Air Station North Island and was undergoing further training in Hawaii when the Japan surrendered.[3]: 25 In addition to the Navy Cross, Engen was awarded the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross for his service in the Pacific.

Late 1950s Engen attended the General Line School, U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California from January to December 1951.[3]: 28 From December 1952 to December 1953 he attended the Empire Test Pilots' School in England as an exchange officer and then served as a test pilot with Air Development Squadron Three (VX-3) from January 1954 to June 1955.[3]: 29 From July 1955 to July 1957 Engen was executive officer of VF-121.[3]: 29 From August 1957 to September 1959 he was assigned to the Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River.[3]: 29 In October 1959 he was appointed commander of VF-21.

1960s-1970s In January 1962 Engen was appointed commander of Carrier Air Group 11 and from early 1963 he served as operations officer on the USS Coral Sea.[3]: 30 In April 1964, he received his first command as captain of the USS Mount Katmai. He would command the ship until 31

August 1965 when he left to attend the Naval War College, in preparation for taking command of USS America.[3]: 30 On 21 July 1966, Engen became Captain of USS America. During this command the USS Liberty incident took place and America launched aircraft to engage the attackers before being ordered to recall the aircraft.[3]: 30-32 In July 1967, Engen passed command of America in Valletta and he returned to the US.[3]:

The USS Liberty incident was an attack on a United States Navy technical research ship, USS Liberty, by Israeli Air Force jet fighter aircraft and Israeli Navy motor torpedo boats, on 8 June 1967, during the Six-Day War.[2] The combined air and sea attack killed 34 crew members (naval officers, seamen, two marines, and one civilian NSA employee), wounded 171 crew members, and severely damaged the ship.[3] At the time, the ship was in international waters north of the Sinai Peninsula, about 25.5 nmi (29.3 mi; 47.2 km) northwest from the Egyptian city of Arish.

Israel apologized for the attack, saying that the USS Liberty had been attacked in error after being mistaken for an Egyptian ship.[5] Both the Israeli and U.S. governments conducted inquiries and issued reports that concluded the attack was a mistake due to Israeli confusion about the ship's identity.[6] Others, including survivors of the attack, have rejected these conclusions and maintain that the attack was deliberate.

In September 1967 he received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration from the George Washington University.[3]: 32-3 In September 1968 he was assigned to the Chief of Naval Operations and headed the Aviation Plans Branch until February 1970. He then headed the Strategic Plans Branch until June 1971, a service for which he was awarded the Legion of Merit.[3]: 33 In July 1971 he was appointed commander of Carrier Division Four and was awarded a Gold Star to the Legion of Merit for his service during this period.[3]: 33 In June 1973, he was appointed Deputy Commander in Chief United States Naval Forces Europe, his final command was as Deputy Commander in Chief US Atlantic Command.[3]: 33

Engen retired in 1978 with the rank of Vice-admiral.

[image]

Carolyn Bessette-Kennedy January 7, 1966 - July 16, 1999

Horst-Gregorio Canellas 6 June 1921 - 23 July 1999

Horst-Gregorio Canellas (6 June 1921 - 23 July 1999)[1] was a German entrepreneur and football official. Canellas is best known for his role in breaking the 1971 Bundesliga scandal. He was also a hostage on the hijacked German Lufthansa Flight 181 in 1977.

Canellas, son of a Spanish father and a German mother, was born in Plauen, Saxony, in 1921. After the end of World War II he spent some time in Spain and then moved to Hesse and adopted German citizenship. He became the managing director of a fruit importer in Frankfurt.

In 1964 Canellas became chairman of Kickers Offenbach, a club then playing in the second division Regionalliga Süd. Offenbach won promotion to the Bundesliga in 1968 and 1970 but suffered immediate relegation on both occasions.

[image]

Stanley Tretick July 21, 1921 - July 23, 1999

> [Tretick's] photographs of [the Kennedy's] published in Look from 1961 to 1964, helped define the American family of the early sixties and lent Kennedy an endearing credibility that greatly contributed to his popularity. A 1962 Look cover of Kennedy driving his nieces and nephews in a golf cart, taken at the family compound in Hyannis Port, is akin to the patriotic, illustrative paintings of Norman Rockwell that still graced the covers of the Saturday Evening Post. Tretick's uncanny understanding of the symbolic value of such imagery allowed him to focus on small humanistic moments within the power and politics of Washington. - Philip Brookman of the Corcoran Gallery of Art,

Aaron Stanley Tretick (July 21, 1921 - July 23, 1999) was an American photojournalist who worked for UPI, Look, and People magazines. He covered every president from Harry S. Truman through George H. W. Bush. Tretick also did stills for many films, including All the President's Men and The Candidate. He is best known today for the photographs he took of John F. Kennedy's 1960 campaign and presidency. In the final issue of Look, in 1971, Tretick was called "President Kennedy's photographic Boswell."

[image]

Mary Kerridge

Mary Kerridge (3 April 1914 - 22 July 1999)[1] was an English actress and theatre director, who (with her husband, John Counsell) ran the Theatre Royal, Windsor and its in-house repertory company from the 1930s to the 1980s. Her daughter is the actress Elizabeth Counsell.

Mary Kerridge died in Windsor on 22 July 1999 and was buried at St George's Chapel, Windsor. Fittingly, the chapel is also the resting place of Elizabeth Woodville, the Queen Elizabeth in Richard III that Kerridge famously played.

Born in Islington to Ernest Kerridge and Antoinette Fick, she attended Highbury Hill School from 1924 to 1928. Her family later moved to Esher, Surrey and she attended Wimbledon High School from January 1929 to July 1932, having taken her London University Higher Certificate in English, French, Modern History and German in June 1932. At University College London, she studied for the (one year) Intermediate Arts BA. She worked as a secretary, model and receptionist before making her name as an actress.[2] In the middle of 1939 she married John Counsell, the managing director of the Theatre Royal, Windsor.[3] She gave birth to twin daughters in 1942, one of them the actress Elizabeth Counsell.[4]

[image]

Frank Minis Johnson

Frank Minis Johnson Jr. (October 30, 1918 - July 23, 1999) was a United States District Judge and United States Circuit Judge serving 1955 to 1999 on the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He made landmark civil rights rulings that helped end segregation and disenfranchisement of African Americans in the South. In the words of journalist and historian Bill Moyers, Judge Johnson “altered forever the face of the South.”

Notable district court case and incidents In 1956, Johnson ruled in favor of Rosa Parks, striking down the “blacks in the back of the bus” law of the city of Montgomery Alabama, as unconstitutional.

In orders issued in 1961 and 1962, he ordered the desegregation of bus depots (such as the Montgomery Greyhound station) and the Montgomery Regional Airport in Alabama’s Middle judicial district. In 1961 he ordered the Ku Klux Klan and Montgomery police to stop the beating and harassment of Freedom Riders attempting to integrate interstate bus travel.

In March 1965, Judge Johnson ruled that activists had the right to undertake the Selma to Montgomery march as a means to petition the government, overturning Governor George Wallace’s prohibition of the march as contrary to public safety. Thousands of sympathizers traveled to Selma to join the march, which had 25,000 participants by its last leg into Montgomery on March 25, 1965. It was considered integral to gaining passage by Congress of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Judge Johnson received death threats and ostracism for his role in advancing civil rights, and was protected by federal marshals for nearly two decades. A burning cross was placed on his lawn in 1956 following the Rosa Parks decision, and his mother’s house was bombed in 1967, although she > was not hurt.

>
> FBI director nomination In 1977 President Carter and Attorney General Griffin Bell asked Johnson to become FBI Director when Director Clarence M. Kelley stepped down. But, the day after Carter nominated him, Johnson was found to have an aneurysm, or abnormal swelling, of his abdominal aorta. His nomination had to be withdrawn and William H. Webster was nominated in his place.
>
> Johnson died at his home in Montgomery of pneumonia after being briefly hospitalized for a fall at his home the week prior.[7]

Many more, more than time here permits.

This book

Silenced Journalists and Witnesses and in the next chapter the Cover up which Paid Stalkers enact a falsity which contradicts the truth these dead people and I would have told

Domingo Benevides, a dark, slim auto mechanic, was a witness to the murder of Officer Tippit who testified that he "really got a good view" of the slayer. He was not asked to see the police lineup in which Oswald appeared. Although he later said the killer resembled newspaper pictures of Oswald, he described the man differently: "I remember the back of his head seemed like his hairline sort of went square instead of tapered off …it kind of went down and squared off and made his head look flat in back." Domingo reports that he has been repeatedly threatened by police, and advised not to talk about what he saw.

In mid-February 1964 his brother Eddy, who resembled him, was fatally shot in the back of the head in a beer joint on Second Avenue in Dallas. Police said it was a pistol shot, wrote up a cursory report and marked the case "unsolved."

Domingo's father-in-law, J.W. Jackson, was so unimpressed with the police investigation of Eddy's death that he launched a little inquiry of his own. Two weeks later Jackson was shot at in his home. The assailant secreted himself in the carport, fired once into the house, and when Jackson ran outside, fired one more time, just missing his head. As the gunman clambered into an automobile in a nearby driveway, Jackson saw a police car coming down the block. The officer made no attempt to follow the gunman's speeding car; instead, he stopped at Jackson's home and spent a long time inquiring what had happened. Later a police lieutenant advised Jackson, "You'd better lay off of this business. Don't go around asking question; that's our job." Jackson and Domingo are both convinced that Eddy's murder was a case of mistaken identity and that Domingo, the

Tippit witness, was the intended victim. https://spartacus-educational.com/JFKbenavides.htm

Friday Jan 22nd 2010 retrieved from The Sin Bin and copied or modified to here

[image]

He was also known for his vocal criticism of the lack of congressional oversight of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and co-authored the Hughes-Ryan Amendment, passed in 1974, which requires the president of the United States to report covert CIA activity to Congress.

In 1978, Ryan traveled to Guyana to investigate claims that people were being held against their will at the Peoples Temple Jonestown settlement. He was shot and killed at an airstrip on November 18, as he and his party were attempting to leave. Shortly after the airstrip shootings, 909 members of the Jonestown settlement died in a mass murder-suicide by drinking cyanide-laced Flavor Aid. Ryan was the second sitting member of the U.S. House of Representatives to be assassinated in office, after James M. Hinds in 1868.

Leo Joseph Ryan Jr. (May 5, 1925 - November 18, 1978) In office January 3, 1973 - November 18, 1978

After the 1965 Watts riots, Ryan took a job as a substitute school teacher to investigate and document conditions in the Los Angeles area. In 1970, he launched an investigation into California prisons. While presiding as chairman of the Assembly committee that oversaw prison reform, he used a pseudonym to enter Folsom

State Prison as an inmate. During his time in Congress, Ryan traveled to Newfoundland to investigate the practice of seal hunting. He was also known for his vocal criticism of the lack of congressional oversight of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and co-authored the Hughes-Ryan Amendment, passed in 1974, which requires the president of the United States to report covert CIA activity to Congress.

In 1978, Ryan traveled to Guyana to investigate claims that people were being held against their will at the Peoples Temple Jonestown settlement. He was shot and killed at an airstrip on November 18, as he and his party were attempting to leave. Shortly after the airstrip shootings, 909 members of the Jonestown settlement died in a mass murder-suicide by drinking cyanide-laced Flavor Aid. Ryan was the second sitting member of the U.S. House of Representatives to be assassinated in office, after James M. Hinds in 1868.

Forty-four American colleges or universities, 15 research foundations or chemical or pharmaceutical companies and the like including Sandoz (currently Novartis) and Eli Lilly & (Bush family) Co., 12 hospitals or clinics (in addition to those associated with universities), and 3 prisons are known to have participated in MKULTRA

Eli Lilly is among the largest pharmaceutical company in the world based on 2021 revenue of more than $28.31 billion. The comapany's first drug was a cancer fighting drug and was introduced in 1961. The compqny was one of the major elements of MKULTRA though Richard Helms ordered the CIA to destroy all files.

More than one journalist has uncovered corrupt connections between the Bush Family, psychiatry, and Eli Lilly & Company, the giant pharmaceutical corporation. While previous Lillygates have been more colorful, Lilly's soaking state Medicaid programs with Zyprexa-its blockbuster, antipsychotic drug-may pack the greatest financial wallop. Worldwide in 2003, Zyprexa grossed $4.28 billion, accounting for slightly more than one-third of Lilly's total sales. In the United States in 2003, Zyprexa grossed $2.63 billion, 70 percent of that attributable to government agencies, mostly Medicaid.

Historically, the exposure of any single Lilly machination-though sometimes disrupting it-has not weakened the Bush-psychiatry-Lilly relationship. In the last decade, some of the more widely reported Eli Lilly intrigues include:

- Influencing the Homeland Security Act to protect itself from lawsuits

- Accessing confidential patient records for a Prozac sample mailingS

- Rigging the Wesbecker Prozac-violence trial

A sample of those who have been on the Eli Lilly payroll includes:

- Former President George Herbert Walker Bush (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors)

- Former CEO of Enron, Ken Lay (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors)

- George W. Bush's former director of Management and Budget, Mitch Daniels (a former Eli Lilly vice president)

- George W. Bush's Homeland Security Advisory Council member, Sidney Taurel (current CEO of Eli Lilly

- The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (a recipient of Eli Lilly funding)

Former President George Herbert Walker Bush (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors) Former CEO of Enron, Ken Lay (one-time member of the Eli Lilly board of directors) George W. Bush's former director of Management and Budget, Mitch Daniels (a former Eli Lilly vice president)

George W. Bush's Homeland Security Advisory Council member, Sidney Taurel (current CEO of Eli Lilly) The National Alliance for the Mentally

Ill (a recipient of Eli Lilly funding)

In 2002, British and Japanese regulatory agencies warned that Zyprexa may be linked to diabetes, but even after the FDA issued a similar warning in 2003, Lilly's Zyprexa train was not derailed, as Zyprexa posted a 16 percent gain over 2002. The growth of Zyprexa has become especially vital to Lilly because Prozac-Lilly's best-known product, which once annually grossed over $2 billion-having lost its patent protection, continues its rapid decline, down to $645.1 million in 2003.

In 1973, CIA Director Richard Helms ordered all MK-ULTRA files destroyed. Pursuant to this order, most CIA documents regarding the project were destroyed, making a full investigation of MK-ULTRA impossible. Possible Link with Peoples Temple Suicide: Jonestown, the Guyana location of the Jim Jones cult and Peoples Temple mass suicide, was thought to be a test site for MKULTRA medical and mind control experiments after the official end of the program. Congressman Leo Ryan, a known critic of the CIA, was assassinated November 18 after he personally visited Jonestown to investigate various reported irregularities.

Guyana achieved independence from the United Kingdom on 26 May 1966 and became a republic on 23 February 1970, remaining a member of the Commonwealth. The United States State Department and the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), along with the British government, played a strong role in influencing political control in Guyana during this time.

Hydrangea by any other name.

Rose Cheramie retrieved from Spartacus and copied or modified to here

[image]

Spartacus Educational Famous Crimes The Assassination of JFK Rose Cheramie ▼ Primary Sources ▼ Rose Cheramie *

Rose Cheramie (Cherami): was found unconsciousness by the side of the road at Eunice, Louisiana, on 20th November, 1963 days before Barrack OBama Jr turned 2 years old. Lieutenant Francis Frugé of the Louisiana State Police took her to the state hospital. On the journey Cheramie said that she had been thrown out of a car by two gangsters who worked for Jack Ruby. She claimed that the men were involved in a plot to kill John F. Kennedy. Cheramie added that Kennedy would be killed in Dallas within a few days. Later she told the same story to doctors and nurses who treated her. As she appeared to be under the influence of drugs her story was ignored.

Following the assassination, Cheramie was interviewed by the police. She claimed that Lee Harvey Oswald had visited Ruby's night club. In fact, she believed the two men were having a homosexual relationship. Upon arrival in Houston she repeated this claim to Captain Morgan but refused to talk to federal authorities saying she's didn't want to get involved in this mess. According to Lt. Fruge, the information Rose Cherami supplied about the narcotics ring was "true and good information."

Rose Cheramie was found dead on 4th September, 1965. At first it appeared she had been involved in a road accident. Later it was argued that she had been shot in the head before being run over by by a car in order to disguise the original wound. However, the Louisiana State Police Memo reported: “Cheramie died of injuries received from an automobile accident on a strip of highway near Big Sandy, Texas, in the early morning of September 4, 1965. The driver stated Cheramie had been lying in the roadway and although he attempted to avoid hitting her, he ran over the top of her skull, causing fatal injuries. An investigation into the accident and the possibility of a relationship between the victim and the driver produced no evidence of foul play. The case was closed.”

[image]

Dorothy Mae Kilgallen (July 3, 1913 - November 8, 1965)

She interview Jack Ruby. This Catholic reporter states “The whole story has not been told!”

The 52 year old is dead along with her claims of the story of the century. JFK MURDER GOVERNMENT MURDERED DOROTHY KILLGALLEN

College drop becomes cub reporter, crime reporter, holllywood reporter, back stage gossib to world coronations.

Spiro, Eisman, and McDonald

The shooting death of Dennis Eisman April 5, 1991 (an attorney for Michael Riconosciuto, who was a material witness in the House Investigation 102-857): DENNIS EISMAN - An attorney with information on INSLAW. Eisman was found shot to death on April 5, 1991 According to the same TC Technical Consultant article, “In April, a Philadelphia attorney named Dennis Eisman was found dead, killed by a single bullet in his chest. According to a former federal official who worked with Eisman, the attorney was found dead in the parking lot where he had been due to meet with a woman who had crucial evidence to share substantiating Riconosciuto's claims [regarding Inslaw]." He and his former law partner, Bernard L. Segal, had represented Green Beret Army surgeon Jeffrey McDonald who was accused in 1970 of brutally murdering his pregnant wife and two young daughters at Fort Bragg, N.C. Mr. Eisman and Mr. Segal represented McDonald during Army hearings that resulted in the dismissal of military charges, Mr. Segal said. lpMcDonald was convicted in U.S. District Court of the murders in 1980 and is serving three life prison terms.

Ian Stuart Spiro (14 December 1946 - 8 November 1992) was a commodities broker who either murdered his wife and children, then killed himself in 1992 or was himself murdered along with his family. Police stated that he was a "low-level conduit by United States government intelligence agencies and the United Kingdom's MI-6" from 1981 to 1986, and the case stirred a conspiracy theory that the family was murdered by assassins or terrorists because of Spiro's history as an intelligence operative.

Sightings 8 thru 12. IAN SPIRO AND FAMILY - Spiro had supporting documentation for grand jury proceedings on the INSLAW case. His wife and 3 children were found murdered on November 1, 1992 in their home. They all died of gunshot wounds to the head. Ian's body was found several days later in a parked car in the Borego Desert. Cause of death? The ingestion of cyanide. Declared a murder/suicide.

David Kelly (weapons expert) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

The official reports of the visit concluded that Soviets were running a covert and illegal BW programme. Kelly also took part in reciprocal visits to the United States Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Diseases at Fort Detrick, Maryland, and visits to Porton Down by Russian and American inspectors. Despite their findings, Kelly concluded that the tripartite inspection programme had failed. It was, he said, “too ambitious; its disarmament objective deflected by issues of reciprocity and access to sites outside the territories of the three parties”. He went on to add that “Russia’s refusal to provide a complete account of its past and current BW activity and the inability of the American-British teams to gain access to Soviet/Russian military industrial facilities were significant contributory factors”.

David Christopher Kelly was born in Llwynypia, Glamorgan, South Wales, on 14 May 1944. His parents were Thomas John Kelly and Margaret, née Williams; Thomas was a schoolteacher who was serving in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve as a signals officer during the Second World War. Thomas and Margaret divorced in 1951 and she took her young son and moved in with her parents in Pontypridd. From the age of eleven he attended the local grammar school. He was a keen sportsman and musician at school, and represented Wales in the youth cross-country running team; he played double bass in the National Youth Orchestra of Wales and played the saxophone to a high standard]

In 1963 Kelly was admitted to the University of Leeds to study chemistry, botany and biophysics. His mother died two years later from an overdose of prescription barbiturates. Although the coroner’s inquest gave an open verdict, Kelly believed she had killed herself. As a result of the death, Kelly suffered from insomnia and was prescribed sleeping pills; he was also given an extra year to complete his degree. Kelly graduated in 1967 with a BSc in bacteriology; he then obtained an MSc in virology from the University of Birmingham.Between his first and second degrees, on 15 July 1967, he married Janice, née Vawdrey, who was studying at Bingley Teacher Training College.

Kelly joined the Insect Pathology Unit at the University of Oxford in 1968, while a student of Linacre College. In 1971 he received his doctorate in microbiology for his thesis “The Replication of Some Iridescent Viruses in Cell Cultures”. In the early 1970s he undertook postdoctoral research at the University of Warwick, before moving back to Oxford in the mid-1970s to work at the Institute of Virology, where he rose to the position of Chief Scientific Officer. Much of his work was in the field of insect viruses.

Kelly said of Gilligan’s evidence that “The description of that meeting in small part matches my interaction with him especially my personal evaluation of Iraq’s capability but the overall character is quite different”.[95][96] In closing, he reiterated that “With hindsight I of course deeply regret talking to Andrew Gilligan even though I am convinced that I am not his primary source of information.”

Tony Blair, the British Prime Minister, who chaired the meeting that agreed to confirm Kelly’s name to journalists if they guessed his identity. Kelly was interviewed twice by his employers-on 3 and 7 July; they concluded that he may have been Gilligan’s source, but that Gilligan may have exaggerated what Kelly said.

As far as it is known, Kelly walked a mile (1.6 km) from his house to Harrowdown Hill. It appears he ingested up to 29 tablets of co-proxamol, an analgesic drug, then cut his left wrist, severing his ulnar artery, with a pruning knife he had owned since his youth. It was subsequently established that neither the knife nor the blister packs showed Kelly’s fingerprints on their surfaces.

January and February 2006

Hastings: Andi sent me this email shortly after our IM exchange ended:

Andi: That's why I can't see every day; the level of such extreme torture and gross indifference to human life.

And that's why I worry about you and wonder if you ar are holding up because it is and you are such an empathetic sponge.

You absorb it all, and I know it weighs heavy on your mind and heart even if you don't admit it.

Its hard to be a witness to human suffering and even harded ro realize there is no clear plan, or even hope, to put an end to it.

Twain once said trying to establish peace is nearly impossible because you have to be able to tame the human race first, and history seems to show that canot be done.

And particularly, in this war alone, it seems that can not be done.

Hastings: My twenty-sixth birthday comes, January 28. Andi and I talk late into the night about how we'll celebrate it when we see each other in VIenna in March.

[image]

Wood died off of the coast of Santa Catalina Island on November 29, 1981, at age 43, during a holiday break from the production of her would-be comeback film Brainstorm with Christopher Walken. The events surrounding her death have been the subject of conflicting witness statements, prompting the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, under the instruction of the coroner's office, to list her cause of death as "drowning and other undetermined factors" in 2012.

Brainstorm is a 1983 American science fiction film directed by Douglas Trumbull, and starring Christopher Walken, Natalie Wood (in her final film role), Louise Fletcher and Cliff Robertson.

It follows a research team's efforts to perfect a system that directly records and replays the sensory experiences and emotional feelings of a subject, and the efforts by the company's management to exploit the device for military ends. After a researcher records her own death from a heart attack, her colleagues join forces to retrieve the information and play it back.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Sam Giancana retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

> Within days of Monroe's death, he writes, Frank Sinatra's attorney Mickey Rudin, who also worked with Monroe, told him that the actress had been killed. It was a rumor also circulating among Mob Boss Sam Giancana's men, some of whom claimed involvement. According to the book, Sinatra had several sources who told him the same story: "She'd been murdered with a Nembutal suppository and Robert Kennedy or the Mob was > involved.”

Samuel Mooney Giancana[1] (/dʒiɑːnˈkɑːnə/; born Gilormo Giangana;[nb 1] Italian: [dʒiˈlɔrmo dʒaŋˈɡaːna]; May 24, 1908[nb 2] - June 19, 1975) was an American mobster who was boss of the Chicago Outfit from 1957 to 1966.

Giancana was born in Chicago to Italian immigrant parents. He joined the 42 Gang as a teenager, developing a reputation in organized crime which gained him the notice of Chicago Outfit leaders. During the late 1930s, Giancana joined the Chicago Outfit. From the 1940s through the 1950s, he controlled the illegal gambling, illegal liquor distribution, and political rackets in Louisiana. In the early 1940s, Giancana was involved in Chicago’s African-American lottery payout system for the Outfit. In 1957, Giancana became the boss of the Chicago Outfit.

According to some sources, Giancana and the Mafia were involved in John F. Kennedy’s victory in the 1960 presidential election. During the 1960s, he was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Conspiracy theorists consider Giancana along with Mafia leaders Santo Trafficante Jr. and Carlos Marcello associated with the assassination of Kennedy. In 1965, Giancana was convicted of contempt of court, serving one year in prison. After his release from prison, Giancana fled to Cuernavaca, Mexico. In 1974, he was deported to the United States, returning to Chicago. Giancana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee.

After Giancana’s return to the United States, police detailed officers to guard his house in Oak Park, Illinois, but on the night of June 19, 1975, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee,[37] which was investigating CIA and Cosa Nostra collusion,[38] a gunman entered the home through the basement and shot Giancana in the head and neck seven times with a .22 caliber pistol. At around 11 p.m., Joseph DiPersio, Giancana's caretaker, found his body on the floor of the basement kitchen where he was said to be frying sausage and peppers.[39][40] A week before his death, Giancana had gall bladder surgery in Houston.[39] Giancana was interred next to his wife, Angeline, in a family mausoleum at Mount Carmel Cemetery, in Hillside, Illinois.

Congressmand and Navy FLight Surgeon Larry McDonald retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

> Navy Flight Surgeon

> Member of US Congress

> US Citizen

> Founder John Birch Society Political Organization and The New American Magazine

Conceivably NASA DARPA may have had the technical capability to interfere with GPS or similar electronic navigation leading the plane into Russian airspace. All 269 passengers and crew aboard were killed

> In 1991, after the collapse of the Soviet Union, Russian newspaper Izvestia published a series of interviews with Soviet military personnel who had been involved in salvage operations to find and recover parts of the aircraft. After three days of searching using trawlers, side-scan sonar, and diving bells, Soviet searchers located the aircraft wreckage at a depth of 174 metres (571 ft) near Moneron Island. Since no human remains or luggage were found on the surface in the impact area, the divers expected to find the remains of passengers who had been trapped in the submerged wreckage of the aircraft on the seabed. When they visited the site two weeks after the shootdown, they found that the wreckage was in small pieces, and found no bodies

Lawrence Patton McDonald April 1, 1935 - September 1, 1983) was an American politician and a member of the United States House of Representatives, representing Georgia's 7th congressional district as a Democrat from 1975 until he was killed while a passenger on board Korean Air Lines Flight 007 when it was shot down by Soviet interceptors traveling from New York City to Seoul South Korea via Anchorage Alaska Seattle Washington metropolitin region.

McDonald was active in numerous civic organizations and maintained one of the most conservative voting records in Congress. He was known for his [Mcarthysim] opposition to communism. Remembered as a martyr by American conservatives, he was the chairman of the John Birch Society.

Wikiquotes

- [T]he drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a government, combining super-capitalism and Communism un tent, all under their control … Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I d convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generat planning, and incredibly evil in intent.

- He says, Sure we've been working it, sure we've been collab communism, yes we're working with global accommodation, working for world government. But the only thing I object to, kept it a secret.

- "We have four boxes with which to defend our freedom: the ballot box, the jury box, and the cartridge box" - Frequently a McDonald, was popularized by Frederick Douglass in 1867. C

Flight Surgeons are physicians (MDs or DOs) who serve as the primary care physicians for a variety of military aviation personnel on special duty status - e.g., pilots, Flight Officers, navigators/Combat Systems Officers, astronauts, missile combat crews, air traffic controllers, UAV operators and other aircrew members, both officer and enlisted. In the United States Department of Defense, the Army, Navy, and Air Force all train and utilize flight surgeons. In addition to serving as primary care for military members on special duty status and their families, the U.S. Department of Defense uses flight surgeons for a variety of other tasks.

Larry McDonald was born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia, in the eastern part of the city that is in DeKalb County. General George S. Patton was a distant relation. As a child, he attended several private and parochial schools before attending a non-denominational high school. He spent two years at high school before graduating in 1951. He studied at Davidson College from 1951-53, studying history. An institution of higher learning of The Presbyterian Church (USA), Davidson College was founded in 1837 by The Concord Presbytery after purchasing 469 acres (1.90 km2) of land from William Lee Davidson II He entered the Emory University School of Medicine at the age of 17, graduating in 1957. He interned at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta. He trained as a urologist at the University of Michigan Hospital under Reed M. Nesbit. Following completion in 1966 he returned to Atlanta and entered practice with his father

Reed Miller Nesbit (October 8, 1898 - August 1, 1979) was an American urologist, surgeon, and professor. He was Head of the Urology Section of the Department of Surgery at the University of Michigan Medical School in Ann Arbor, Michigan, from 1930-1967.[1] Nesbit was a pioneer of transurethral resection of the prostate. He devised the 'Nesbit operation' for treating Peyronie's disease,[2] and he made prominent contributions to pediatric urology, most notably the Cabot-Nesbit style orchiopexy.

From 1959 to 1961, he served as a flight surgeon in the United States Navy stationed at the Keflavík naval base in Iceland. McDonald married an Icelandic national, Anna Tryggvadottir, with whom he would eventually have three children: Tryggvi Paul, Callie Grace, and Mary Elizabeth.[2] In Iceland, McDonald asserted to his commanding officer that the U.S. Embassy in Reykjavik was doing things advantageous to communists, but was told he did not understand the big picture.

After his tour of service he practiced medicine at the McDonald Urology Clinic in Atlanta. He took an increasing interest in politics, reading books on political history and foreign policy.[2] He joined the John Birch Society-a conservative, anti-communist organization - in 1966 or 1967.[6] His passionate preoccupation with politics led to a divorce from his first wife.[2] McDonald made one unsuccessful run for Congress in 1972 before being elected in 1974. In 1975, he married Kathryn Jackson, whom he met while giving a speech in California.[2] McDonald served as a member on the Georgia State Medical Education Board and as chairman from 1969 to 1974.

While most political prognosticators in the mainstream press presume that Obama is the presumptive Democratic nominee for president, they still wonder aloud if Hillary Clinton (or some other entity) has something up their sleeve.

The bombshell may involve the murder of Donald Young, a 47-year-old choir master at former Rev. Jeremiah Wright's Trinity United Church of Christ-the same congregation that Obama has attended for the past 20 years. Two other young black men that attended the same church-Larry Bland and Nate Spencer-were also murdered execution style with bullets to the backs of their heads-all within 40 days of each other, beginning in November 2007. All three were openly homosexual.

What links this story to Barack Obama is that, according to an acquaintance of Obama, Larry Sinclair, Obama is a closet bisexual with whom he had sexual and drug-related encounters in November 1999.

Further, Sinclair claims that Obama was friendly with at least two of these deceased parishioners, and that choir director Donald had contacted him shortly before being murdered from multiple gunshot wounds on December 23, 2007.

Texas State District Judge Tom Greenwell

Nueces County Texas

Born August 6, 1956 Huntington, West Virginia Died July 15, 2013 (aged 57) Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas

Greenwell was found in his chambers dead from a self-inflicted gunshot to the head. A handwritten will was found near the body. According to Nueces County Sheriff Jim Kaelin, the judge faced financial ruin. He had exhausted spending caps on five credit cards and owed the repayment of loans. Kaelin said that Greenwell earned at least $140,000 annually but did not apparently live extravagantly. Investigators are looking into possible blackmail or extortion attempts against the judge.

A memorial service was to be held on July 25, 2013 at the First United Methodist Church in Corpus Christi.

Kurt Donald Cobain retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Kurt Donald Cobain (February 20, 1967 - c. April 5, 1994) was an American singer, songwriter, and musician. He was the frontman of the rock band Nirvana, serving as the band's guitarist, lead vocalist, and primary songwriter. Through his angst-fueled songwriting and anti-establishment persona, Cobain's compositions widened the thematic conventions of mainstream rock music. He was often heralded as a spokesman of Generation X and is considered to be one of the most influential musicians in the history of alternative rock.

Cobain formed the band Nirvana with Krist Novoselic and Aaron Burckhard in 1987 and established it as part of the Seattle music scene which later became known as grunge. After signing with major label DGC Records, Nirvana found global success with “Smells Like Teen Spirit” from their critically acclaimed second album Nevermind (1991). Although Cobain was hailed as the voice of his generation following Nirvana’s sudden success, he resented this, believing his message and artistic vision had been misinterpreted by the public. In addition to “Smells Like Teen Spirit”, Cobain wrote many other notable songs for Nirvana, including “Come as You Are”, “Lithium”, “In Bloom”, “Something in the Way”, “Heart-Shaped Box”, “All Apologies”, “About a Girl”, “Aneurysm” and “You Know You’re Right”.

uring the last years of his life, Cobain struggled with heroin addiction and chronic health problems such as depression. He also struggled with the personal and professional pressures of fame, and had a tumultuous relationship with his wife, fellow musician Courtney Love.[2] In March 1994, Cobain overdosed on a combination of champagne and Rohypnol, and subsequently entered an intervention and underwent a detox program. On April 8, 1994, Cobain was found dead at his home in Seattle at the age of 27; police concluded he had died on April 5 from a self-inflicted shotgun wound to the head.

July 10th Lisa Riley, Doctor of Osteopathy, found in her home with a gunshot wound to her head.

Matt Simmons Died: 8 August, 2010, an investment banker and whistle blower in the British Petroleum oil spill. Died suddenly at home of a heart attack at the age of 67. An autopsy by the state medical examiner’s office concludes that Simmons died from accidental drowning “with heart disease as a contributing factor.” Speculation of murder: Assassinations by induced heart attack and cancer; Did The CIA Assassinate Matt Simmons For Blowing The Whistle On The BP Gulf Oil Spill Coverup?

Deaths of US officers during corrupt elements of USA fighting dirty war of #NWO businesses who use foreign and private resources to kill US officials.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

17N

Revolutionary Organization 17 November

also known as 17N or the 17 November Group, was a Greek far-left urban guerrilla organization formed in 1975 and led by Alexandros Giotopoulos. 17N conducted an extensive urban guerrilla campaign against the Greek state, banks, and businesses, as well as American, Turkish, and British targets.[2][3][4][5] The organization committed 103 known armed robberies, assassinations, and bombing attacks, during which 23 people were killed.[6] 17N was designated a terrorist group by Greece, Turkey, the United Kingdom and the United States

Alexandros Giotopoulos was an opponent[4] of the Greek military junta of 1967-1974. He is the son of Dimitris Giotopoulos, once a secretary of Leon Trotsky, also known as Witte, who was a leader of the Greek Trotskyist party of archeiomarxists.

> Giotopoulos appealed his conviction, and described himself as the victim of “an Anglo-American conspiracy” [npte not a Franco Cahtolic conspiracy]. At the start of his appeal, in 2005, he received support from left-wing organisations and personalities in France, where he was born,[2] including Alain Krivine and Pierre Vidal-Naquet. However, on May 3, 2007, his conviction and those of his 17N accomplices were sustained by the court of appeals.[3]
>
> The Greek junta or Regime of the Colonels[a] was a far-right military junta that ruled Greece from 1967 to 1974. On 21 April 1967, a group of colonels overthrew the caretaker government a month before scheduled elections which Georgios Papandreou’s Centre Union was favoured to win. The dictatorship was characterised by right-wing cultural policies, restrictions on civil liberties, and the imprisonment, torture, and exile of political opponents. An attempt to renew its support in a 1973 referendum on the monarchy and gradual democratisation was ended by another coup by hardliner Dimitrios Ioannidis.

[image]

Richard Skeffington Welch was a career Central Intelligence Agency officer. He was the Chief of Station (COS) in Athens, Greece, when he was assassinated by the Revolutionary Organization 17 November (17N). His assassination led to the passage of the Intelligence Identities Protection Act, making it a crime to expose or identify officers working in covert roles who had not officially been acknowledged as such by the U.S. government.

[image]

US Navy Captain and victim of terrorist assassination.

Captain George Tsantes was murdered on November 15, 1983 in Greece by a local group of terrorists. They began in 1975 avenging the Greek government's 1973 crackdown on a university protest that killed 30 students and injured about 800 because their military used tanks to crush the protest. The group was able to avoid capture for 27 years during which they murdered, injured, and robbed several people. They were known for being pro-communist and their hatred for anything they thought unfit for Greece including the US military's presence in their country. Their victims were Greek, American, Turkish, and British. They planned and carried out an assassination of CAPT Tsantes as he was driven to work. Both Tsantes and his Greek driver were killed. This terrorist group has also killed Greek citizens and he was murdered in the very country where his parents were born and raised before moving to the United States.

He graduated from the US Naval Academy and after sea duty assignment as Engineer Officer on destroyer U.S.S. McNair (DD-679), he received training in nuclear power, then served as engineering officer aboard nuclear-powered surface vessels, including duty as chief engineer on aircraft carrier USS Enterprise (CVN-65). He had also served a previous tour in Athens. Other sea duty had included command of the destroyer USS William M. Wood (DD-715) and the destroyer tender U.S.S. Piedmont (AD-17). He had earned a master's degree in physics, and was a member of the Naval Academy Alumni Association. Shore assignments were in Washington, D.C. where he served on the Staff of the Chief of Naval Operations, three years in the Navy Atomic Energy Office, and two years on the Staff of the Director, Research, Development, Test and Evaluations as the Head, Nuclear Branch."

At the center of this Progressive Christianity, Southern Baptists, the Anglican Church, and others, have worked with the Aristocracy and Allies of WWII to plant "peace bringers" in countries around the world - Sleeper Agents including Barrack Obama, and now that is both being hidden, and these organizations at the same time are acting out with paid actors, Street Theater, that much of what was done in 1926, 1961-1963, and the 1990s, 2006-2007, and 2011 was really authorized by certain families or family lines, or authorized by DNA managers of those family lines, thus permission is really held to the genome.

journalist who have been missed

Not frequently listed as missed - “Hershell Friday - Attorney and Clinton fund raiser died March 1, 1994 when his plane exploded.” *

Jen Moore

Dept of Defense, FBI, manufactured Child Porn, blame Edward Paul Donegan in blackmail ring

The person stealing my phone, clothes, identity, or in a break in will make me “look bad” as someone who became indebted to a victimized female.

Because the same person will assault me as if I omitted the act the public perception is the black was the hero not the villain, and a black friendly trust fund will reward the black or victim for the harm it will appear I caused to the female.

I describe myself as the politicized alleged perpetrator used as a cover story for blacks and others who are assaulting others in my identity as “false flags.”

Agent Provocateur (Under-cover ~~Confidential Informant~~ espionage agent)	Targeted Individual Possessor
Dis-possessor. Dispossess:

deprive (someone) of land, property, or other possessions

Can I get the following, the listeners, for my story to get out and for my life to develop?

I am Edward Donegan dangerous drug addicted violent felons manufacture Child Porn in my vicinity, DARPA Backed

The appear to have created the appearance of a fake ring that appears to include Tom Dunham and Edward Donegan who are giving into the blackmail or being detected by Dominatrices.

These Government recruited manufactures of child porn DO abuse children but are paid to do it. These criminals recruited from Sex Offender registries get caught by US Marshalls (who also tell me they are assigned to fight White Supremacy) and when caught these criminals hired by DARPA pay for their crimes with the DNA of Edward Paul Donegan, then they are bought cars for solving the crime.

Washington D.C. in a skid row homeless thermal shelter,shunned and ostracized, after roadblacked by KOMPROMAT from Austin.

Holder Machen Jr. Rosenstein and MKULTRA Secrets of Massachusetts

Marshalls, the Secrets of Massachusetts, and Subversion Gangstalk of witnesses to CIA DARPA crimninality

Ronald C. Machen, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, and Rod J. Rosenstein, his counterpart in Maryland - to take over direction of existing investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation

In a program widely viewed as suspicious and unconstitutional the Obama Administration through Eric Holder appointed Machen Jr. and Rosensteind (of Maryaland Public Health Service and CIA) to keep the nations most secret sexrets secret

I believe this is where subverting Targeted Individuals come from.

By Charlie Savage June 8 2012 WASHINGTON - Attorney General Eric H. Holder Jr. on Friday assigned two United States attorneys to lead separate criminal investigations into recent disclosures to the news media of national security secrets, saying they were authorized to “follow all appropriate investigative leads within the executive and legislative branches of government.”

But Mr. Holder instead assigned two prosecutors - Ronald C. Machen, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, and Rod J. Rosenstein, his counterpart in Maryland - to take over direction of existing investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, elevating the stature of the cases but not giving them any special powers.

Earlier Friday, President Obama declared that the White House had not been behind the recent leaks and vowed to prosecute the people responsible for disclosing classified information if they could be identified. NYT

The geneology of Barrack Obama, both real and imagined, from around the world in world wide Sleeper Cells operations

[image]

> “Early in the week leading up to her death, Stacey ran away from home - on December 7, [Annukai Testing year] 2006. She was reported missing by her parents on December 13.”
>
> https://7news.com.au/original-fyi/crime-story-investigator/australias-grisliest-murders-stacey-mitchell-and-the-faux-friends-who-killed-her-c-469462

> Will Stacey Mitchell donate an egg to gays at a cloning conference, or say no? Will she talk, or ever have a child of her own, thus risking detection of the clone of herself?

Hume's suicide [Date of death: February 22, 1998 seemed to be one of those random stories that drops out of nowhere. No one will ever know whether his rash decisions and reckless mind-set in the early morning hours of Feb. 22 reflected instability or just plain drunkenness. At 2:20 a.m., Ritacco spotted Hume driving his '92 green BMW south on the Clara Barton Parkway from Bethesda to D.C., exceeding 75 mph in a 45 mph zone, according to Sgt. Joseph Cox, public information officer for the U.S. Park Police, which has jurisdiction over the parkway. Ritacco pursued Hume and signaled to him to pull over. Hume instead accelerated, attempting to flee.

Tim Russert (debate moderated dead before debate), Kashogi (marriage and personal Eugenics babies trafficking,) Breitbart video shows Michelle Obama as a man,

Micheal Hastings, myself (lethal conditions gang stalked,) Micheal Hastinsg wife and also Victoria Windsor working on geneology and Obama origins AS WELL AS MKULTRA plans for Middle East Peace and new humanity (emails between Hastings and fiance.)

Morphological icons

"A synonym is a word, morpheme, or phrase that means exactly or nearly the same as another word, morpheme, or phrase in the same language * . [encoding and decoding shared understanding]"

- Death threats verbally explicitly

- Showing of knives, daggers, including bloody, using names like Letheria, other spook names, death threats as car skidding acts together or in separate with as reinforced synonymous of the morpheme.

- Physical attacks or psychological attacks proving hostile presence in of hostile undisclosed actors with hyperintimate (beyond stranger) personal knowledge of stalked

Morphemes Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Morphological icons are images, patterns or symbols that relate to a specific morpheme.[9] For children with dyslexia, it has been shown to be an effective way of building up a word. The word ‘inviting’ as an example is made up of two commonly used morphemes, ‘in-‘ and ‘-ing’. A morphological icon for ‘in-‘ could be an arrow going into a cup, and ‘-ing’ could be an arrow going forward to symbolise that something is in action (as in being, running, fishing).

The concept of combining visual aid icons with morpheme teaching methods was pioneered from the mid 1980s by Neville Brown[10]. He founded the Maple Hayes school for dyslexia in 1981, where he later improved the method alongside his son, Daryl Brown. The school’s curriculum uses morphological icons as a learning aid.[11]

Dead Men Don’t Talk retrieved from Dead Men Don’t Talk and copied or modified to here

Conspiracy con*spir*a*cy (noun), plural -cies

Middle English conspiracies, from Latin conspirare. First appeared 14th Century

1. the act of conspiring together

2. A. an agreement among conspirators

   B. a group of conspirators synonym(s) see PLOT [also Cartel]

THE FOLLOWING SIX PERSONS HAD INFORMATION ON THE IVES/HENRY CASE:

- Keith Coney Died when his motorcycle slammed into the back of a truck July, 1988.
- Keith McMaskle Died, stabbed 113 times, Nov, 1988
- Gregory Collins Died from a gunshot wound January 1989.

- Jeff Rhodes He was shot, mutilated and found burned in a trash dump in April 1989.

- James Milan Found decapitated. Coroner ruled death due to natural causes.

- Jordan Kettleson Was found shot to death in the front seat of his pickup truck in June 1990.

- Richard Winters Was a suspect in the Ives / Henry deaths. Was killed in a set-up robbery July 1989

©salvationarmy Journalist; necromancer; spiritualist; pretend Christian; The Review of Reviews editor and publisher; “Government by Journalism” concept creator; William Booth’s (Salvation Army) ghost writer-promoter for In Darkest England and the Way Out“ social gospel campaign pic.twitter.com/c6OpZwrOPK

*Red Kettle*History. In 1891, Salvation Army Captain Joseph McFee was distraught because so many poor individuals in San Francisco were going hungry.

Sightings 84. JIM WILHITE - Vice Chairman, Arkla, Inc. died: 12/21/92 - Died in a one-person skiing accident. - Wilhite had extensive ties with Clinton and Mack McLarty, with whom he visited by telephone just hours before his death.

Background Wilhite, Jim O. was born on March 31, 1938 in Greenwood, Arkansas, United States. Son of Raymond I. and Margaret E. (Oliver) Wilhite.

Education Bachelor of Science, Oklahoma State University, 1960.

Career With Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (now Arkla, Inc.), Shreveport, Louisiana, since 1963, vice president in charge of employee and industrial relations, 1972-1973, executive vice president, from 1973. Now vice chairman Arkla Inc. Chairman, chief executive officer Entex, Houston.

Achievements Jim O. Wilhite has been listed as a noteworthy gas company executive by Marquis Who's Who.

Membership Board directors Central Young Men's Christian Association, Shreveport. Board directors Shreveport Norwella council Boy Scouts American, Sports Foundation, Shreveport. Campaign chairman United Way, 1978.

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE MEDIA

Citizens Addicted to Truth

NEW HISTORICAL FINDINGS ON THE HUMAN TRAFFICKING NETWORKS AT THE YMCA AND SALVATION ARMY aim4truth.org

Curious aggregation of activities around William Booth College, London (founder of the Salvation Army)?

William Booth College, Champion Park, London SE5 8BQ, United Kingdom

[image]

- William Booth College (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/William_Booth_Memorial_Training_College headquarters of The Salvation Army leadership and officer training which delivers education and training programmes for the United Kingdom)

- Ruskin Park (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ruskin_Park The park is named after John Ruskin (1819-1900), founder of various early experiments in communism called “the settlement movement” that were studied by Lord Alfred Milner, W.T. Stead and Lord Rothschild)

- Fetal Medicine Research Institute (https://www.kcl.ac.uk/visit/fetal-medicine-research-institute-1

- Maudsley Hospital (The Maudsley Hospital is a British psychiatric hospital in south London. The Maudsley is the largest mental health training institution in the UK. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Maudsley_Hospital)

MKULTRA From Vienna and Micheal Hastings

January and February 2006

Hastings: Andi sent me this email shortly after our IM exchage ended:

Andi: That’s why I can’t see every day; the level of such extreme torture and gross indifference to human life.

And that’s why I worry about you and wonder if you ar are holding up because it is and you are such an empathetic sponge.

You absorb it all, and I know it weighs heavy on your mind and heart even if you don’t admit it.

Its hard to be a witness to human suffering and even hardened ro realize there is no clear plan, or even hope, to put an end to it.

Twain once said trying to establish peace is nearly impossible because you have to be able to tame the human race first, and history seems to show that canot be done.

And particularly, in this war alone, it seems that can not be done.

Hastings: My twenty-sixth birthday comes, January 28. Andi and I talk late into the night about how we'll celebrate it when we see each other in VIenna in March.

Roger Allies out of Fox News November 18.

I believe my father and mother were targeted, my father harassed and gang stalked, and like Veronica Hoffman, drive into mental hospital for his outcry or self defense, after that, hit while in the hospital or harassed to suicide.

In my case they say I am a Nazi and that is the reason the plant child porn on me. In Veronica Hoffman's case they asked her to dress up as a Nazi for a lark. It think that was KOMPROMAT to incite others.

My father, Linda Newkirk, Veronica Hoffman, myself, all receive Junk PHone calls showing we are being stalked, watched in our homes, etc., as we move about, in my case if I get off, read a scientific book, etc., and this is anonymous Stalk psychological harassment by strangers.

My father spent years of his life tracing down hang up calls and sought phone company assistence believe it was in conjunction with threats to kill him, and once sought me as backup to him in the 1990s should something happen to him or an attempt be made. His computer also was making the Sheryl Attkison player piano acts with hime flabergasted watching it which matched the timing of unprovoked anonymous physical attacks on me in the Alringon Virginia area.

Commonalities with Others and My Story.

- I had first contacted [Veronica Hoffman after meeting her in person, all was well. Later she got approached behind the scenes by impersonators of me and dropped contact with me. Possibly after being approached by blacks who wanted to sniff out White Supremacism of CybreGoth. She had read my DOE HGP Inspector General Complaint and the DOE/NIH was likely familiar with her because of it.

> [in memorium] thinking it was funny being a Jewish girl with a Nazi armband dressed as Ilsa - She Wolf of the SS for Halloween (then a couple of years later seeing the fawning look in the eye of Don Edmonds, director of Ilsa (RIP) whom she befriended when I mentioned her to him).

> [Luke Is Back]I KNOW THIS GIRL … KNEW THIS GIRL. I WAS STANDING AT AN ATM A FEW WEEKS AGO. She looked real normal, cute, civilian like. She was standing behind me as I was with my friend on line at the Chase ATM, she started talking to me. I ended up catching up to her and talking to her on the street as she had just finished talking to the Lyndon Larouchees on Sunset / Vine.

- She was taking apart electronics as I was, fire alarms from the celings, etc., seeking why in a non-survieled room bizzare unwanted phone calls or phone reboots out of nowhere would occur, though at stragic “frame job” times such as when a suspicously acting person was loitering near me, making unwanted gestures towards me, or were otherwise out of place.

> Most of the time, this worked in her favor, but not always. I recall that she was a particularly dangerous person to allow near any kind of electronic equipment, especially any that you wished to continue functioning. She had two ways of breaking electric stuff: direct and indirect.
>
> “Indirect” worked just by simply standing close to something, say your TV hard disk recorder with 120 hours of programs stored on it. Oh, it seems to have crashed. Oh. Or, at Joseph’s place, the new Apple TV system he’d just installed. Funny, it was working OK yesterday. Or her Blackberry, which stopped working except on speakerphone almost as soon as she got it.
>
> If “indirect” didn’t work, there was always “direct”, which might mean pulling the batteries out of your new car’s fancy built-in carphone while it was switched on, thus immediately destroying the charging circuitry and voiding your warranty. Or pulling your external hard drive’s Firewire

Veronica Hoffman dates are Divinci Encoded and also Tom Dunham also got the same treatment. A black harvey dent” and “Fuzzy Bunny” surrounded Veronica calling her “Bipolar” to be “no shit.”

> James Bovard is a revaaler about lethal FBI Psychiatric Shock Troops and Lethal Engagements of Compounds system
>
> Death of Vicky Weaver *

After the death of the U.S. marshal, the commander of the FBI's Hostage Rescue Team was called in, and ordered federal agents to shoot any armed adult outside the Weaver cabin, regardless of whether that person was doing anything to threaten or menace federal agents. (Thanks to the surveillance, federal officials knew that the Weavers always carried guns when outside their cabin.)

With the massive federal firepower surrounding the cabin - the automatic weapons, the sniper rifles, the night vision scopes - this was practically an order to assassinate the alleged wrongdoers. Four hundred government agents quickly swarmed in the mountains around the cabin. Most important, the federal agents at that time made no effort to contact Mr. Weaver to negotiate his surrender.

The next day, Aug. 22, Randy Weaver walked to the little shack where his son's body lay. As he was lifting the latch on the shack's door, he was shot from behind by FBI sniper Lon Horiuchi. As he struggled back to the cabin, his wife, Vicki, stood in the doorway, holding a 10-month-old baby in her arms and calling for her husband to hurry. The FBI sniper fired again and hit Vicki Weaver in the temple, killing her instantly. (Mr. Horiuchi testified in court that he could hit within a quarter inch of a target at a distance of 200 yards.)

Reuters reported on Aug. 25, three days after the shooting: "FBI Agent Gene Glenn said that the law enforcement officers were proceeding with extreme care, mindful that Weaver's wife Vicki and three remaining children … were also in the cabin. 'We are taking a very cautious approach,' he said in a statement to reporters." An internal FBI report completed shortly after the confrontation justified the killing of Mrs. Weaver by asserting that she had put herself in harm's way, the New York Times reported in 1993.

Though federal officials now claim that the killing of Vicki Weaver was an accident, the Washington Times's Jerry Seper reported in September 1993: "Court records show that while the woman's body lay in the cabin for eight days, the FBI used microphones to taunt the family. 'Good morning, Mrs. Weaver. We had pancakes for breakfast. What did you have?' asked the agents in at least one exchange."

> Mistress Persephone
>
> Posted: February 21, 2011 in Dominas, Touring Mistresses, Uncategorized
>
> Tags: Ball Busting, Gothic, Gothic Mistress, Gummi Fetish, Human Ashtray, Leg Show Magazine, London, Long Fingernails, Mistress Arianna, Mistress Persephoen, Morrigan Hel, Murder Mile Studio, NIpple Torture, NYC, Stockings, The World of Kink

More recently, Ibragim Todashev, friend of accused Boston bomber Tamerlan Tsarnev, was shot in the head six times by the FBI, who initially claimed Todashev was armed but later had to admit this was a lie.

Speculation has raged that Todashev was assassinated because he had knowledge about the Boston bombings which the feds didn't want to see the light of public scrutiny.

Interrogation Turned Deadly: New Questions In FBI

Shooting retrieved from WBUR News by David Boeri and copied or modified to here

[image]

Abdul-Baki Todashev holds a photo he claims is of his dead son, Ibragim, during a news conference in Moscow, Russia, on May 30, 2013. The father, who says agents killed his son "execution style," showed journalists 16 photographs of Ibragim in the morgue with what he said were six gunshot wounds to his torso and one to the [back of the head. (Alexander Zemlianichenko/AP)

Ibragim Todashev shot six times by the FBI. In the photo shown by his father a person has been shot directly into the brain as well as less visible torso shots

What made Todashev's shooting national news in May was what he reportedly told interrogators before he was shot. In a court filing in Boston in October, federal prosecutors stated that Todashev had implicated Tsarnaev in previous crimes - specifically the gruesome, unsolved murders of three men in Waltham nearly two years before the marathon bombing. If what Todashev was saying was true, that made him a witness to the slayings - apparently the only witness.

On the day of the shooting the FBI made a terse statement that Todashev initiated a "violent confrontation." But the FBI has not yet issued a report on whether the use of deadly force was justified. And though FBI Director James Comey told reporters on Jan. 9 that he was "eager" to see the report released, the bureau has shown no sense of urgency to release any details of what happened, despite widely conflicting news accounts of the shooting, based on anonymous federal sources, and accusations by Todashev's family that he was murdered. Citing its ongoing investigation, the FBI even ordered the Florida state medical examiner to seal the autopsy report, which was ready for release in July.

Ronald Harmon Brown August 1, 1941 Washington, D.C., U.S. Died April 3, 1996, their Commerce Secretary who reportedly told Bill he would take him down with him if he was indicted for corruption. Ron Brown, under fire for his role as a fixer or enabler of deals for dollars involving businessmen who wanted easier access to Chinese markets and cheap labor, was found dead in a plane crash in Croatia. But the plane crash apparently wasn't good enough for someone who didn't wish Brown well; Ron Brown's body was found with a bullet hole in his head. Many surmised he was on the verge of telling investigators a good deal of the truth about his administration's dealings with the Chinese because he didn't want to be the fall guy for the scandal.

Kathleen Janoski was the chief of the forensic photography team detailed to photograph the bodies of the deceased when they arrived back in Dover, Delaware. When ready, Janoski mounted a stepladder and began to photograph Brown's body starting at the head. She had scarcely begun when she saw something that took her breath away. "Look at the hole in Brown's head," she exclaimed. "It looks like a bullet hole." Going public with that that observation would cost Janoski and three military pathologists their careers. Brown's family was never informed of the hole. By order of the White House, there was no autopsy. Janoski fared better than Niko Jerkuic, the man responsible for the airport's aviation systems. Three days after the crash, a day he just happened to be off work, he was found with a bullet hole through his chest.

Dzhokhar Anzorovich Tsarnaev is a Kyrgyz-American man of Chechen descent who was convicted of terrorism in planting pressure cooker bombs at the Boston Marathon on April 15, 2013, along with his brother Tamerlan Tsarnaev. The bombings killed three people and injured approximately 280 others.

The FBI's Special Agent Christopher Lorek and Special Agent Stephen Shaw, who arrested Dzhokhar, were mysteriously killed on May 17, 2013. In a case of strange timing, during what is presented as a freak accident, the two FBI agents where killed during a training mission when they were reported to have fallen out of their helicopter off the Atlantic coast of Virginia. Officially, bad weather was reported to be the cause of their deaths.*

Sightings #80 SUZANNE COLEMAN

> Reportedly had an affair with Billy when he was attorney general. Died of "suicide" with gunshot wound to the back of her head. No autopsy allowed. Was 7 months pregnant at time of her death and had told friends it was Bill Clinton's child.

Suzanne Coleman Had affair with Clinton, when he was attorney general of Arkansas. Died: February 15, 1977 Died of "suicide" with gunshot wound to the back of her head. No autopsy allowed. Was 7 months pregnant at time of her death. She had told friends it was Bill Clinton's child. (See Danny Williams). She was 26 at the time of her death.

Sightings # 77. COL. JAMES SABOW - Died 199

> Supposedly about to blow the whistle on drug running activity taking place on the US Navy base where he was stationed, Col. James Sabow was found > by his wife in the backyard of their home with his head blown off with a shotgun. The Navy ruled it a suicide. In all, more than 40 deaths by individuals concerned with drug traffic on military bases have been declared as suicides despite evidence that MURDER was involved. I think we've all heard the DRUGS AND GOVERNMENT rumors recently. Hey, this is more than a specious rumor, friends. It is a 50 year old American tradition. Footnote and LIVE LINK to clickable URL proving CIA has been dealing drugs for 50 years at end..

> Homicide (Positioned then certain death overkill) The Colonel received a blow to the back of his head, which rendered a fatal injury. While the he was lying on the ground, the assailant inserted the victim's 12 gauge double barreled shotgun into his mouth and fired the left barrel. This part of the scenario is reenacted in Figure 2B.

When James Met Glorian crashing into a crop field with a plane on fire Sumter Bishopville

Shaw Air Force Base is a United States Air Force base located approximately 8.4 miles west-northwest of downtown Sumter, South Carolina. It is one of the largest military bases operated by the United States, and is under the jurisdiction of the United States Air Force Air Combat Command.

Shaw Field was activated on 30 August 1941 and placed under the jurisdiction of the Army Air Corps Southeast Air Corps Training Center. The mission of the new airfield was a basic (Phase II) flying school to instruct air cadets in flying, and the Air Corps Basic Flying School was activated at the field on 26 June to operate the school. The airfield consisted of three 4,500-foot (1,400 m) runways and several auxiliary airfields.

On 1 April 1945 jurisdiction of Shaw Field was transferred to First Air Force. The 139th Army Air Force Base Unit, I Fighter Command became the host unit. and pilots were sent to Shaw for fighter transition training in Republic P-47 Thunderbolt single-engined fighters.

Postwar era

Shaw Army Airfield was designated a permanent Army Air Forces installation after the war, being transferred to Continental Air Forces on 16 April 1945. After a period of reorganization, jurisdiction was transferred to Air Defense Command on 1 March 1946. From July 1946 until May 1947 Shaw was the home of the 414th and 415th Night Fighter Squadrons.

The squadrons flew the P-61 Black Widow in Europe with Ninth Air Force during World War II, and were reassigned back to the United States after the end of hostilities. The 414th was transferred to Caribbean Air Force at Rio Hato AB, Panama in March 1947 to perform an air defense mission of the Panama Canal. The 415th was reassigned to Alaska Air Command at Adak Island, Alaska in May 1947 also to perform an air defense mission, over the Aleutian Islands and the territorial waters of western Alaska.

United States Air Force 20th Fighter Group

James Paul Donegan P-51 Pilot

Glorian Gainey Bishopville resident with biological brother Harold and the Dew family adoptiong the Gaineys after Festus Gainey dies in NORTH Carolina with the Von Trapps in 1936 or so, and King Edward VIII abdicates that year.

[image]

161st Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron Lockheed RF-80A-5-LO Shooting Star, 45-8310, Shaw AFB, 1950 Jurisdiction of Shaw was again transferred to Tactical Air Command on 23 March 1946. The 20th Fighter Group was reassigned to Shaw on 20 October 1946 from Biggs Army Airfield, Texas which was transferred to Strategic Air Command. The 20th FG came under Ninth Air Force.

After the establishment of the United States Air Force as a separate military branch in September 1947, Shaw Army Airfield was renamed Shaw Air Force Base, on 13 January 1948 and the 20th Fighter-Bomber Wing was activated on 15 August 1947 with the implementation of the Hobson Plan.

The 20th Fighter Group was first equipped with North American P-51D, then exchanged its P-51's in February 1948 for F-84B Thunderjets, the first TAC group to receive operational F-84s. The group was composed of the 55th, 77th and 79th Fighter Squadrons. The F-84s began arriving in February 1948 and ran through May when the full complement was received. Nine were lost in accidents before the remainder were returned to Republic Aircraft in May 1949 in exchange for F-84D models. Control over the wing changed hands on 1 February 1949 with its assignment to Fourteenth Air Force.

People.com

Leon Lott is a traitor.

Sheriff Lott wins SC Sheriff of the Year for a second time retrieved from By WIS News 10 Staff Updated: May. 20, 2021 at 9:32 AM CDT and copied or modified to here

In 2018, Sheriff Lott was the first sheriff to launch the PEACE Officer identity program, a new framework for community policing, in collaboration with the not-for-profit Police2Peace. This first-of-its -kind innovation enhanced public trust, police legitimacy, deputy safety, and the willingness of the public to assist in the agency's crime-fighting efforts.

In addition to Lott serving as Sheriff of one of the largest counties in the state, he also commands the South Carolina State Guard, which is a national model for emergency preparedness and disaster response. In this role, Brigadier General Lott commands approximately 1,000 guardsmen, including retired and former U.S. Army Special Forces operators, Army Rangers, U.S. Marine infantrymen, engineers, medical professionals, attorneys, and law enforcement officers, among others.

Paris Island Marine Trainign Center area and two murders

HEADLINES Murdaugh Murders: Unanswered Questions About Multiple Suspicious Deaths Connected To Family

Feb. 24, 2019: Mallory Beach, 19, goes missing after a boat crash near Parris Island. A 911 call is placed from the scene of the crash at Archer's Creek.

Paul and Maggie Murdaugh were found shot to death at their Colleton County property on June 7.

According to SLED investigators, at 10:07 p.m. Alex Murdaugh, Margaret's husband and Paul's father, called 911 and said that he had returned to the family property on Moselle Road in Islandton to find the bodies of his wife and son who were shot outside of the home on the property.

Murdaugh murders update: Husband who found wife, son dead outside home offers reward in case

Alex and Buster Murdaugh announced a reward of $100,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who killed Paul and Maggie

Earlier this week SLED confirmed the 2015 death of a 19-year-old in Hampton County was now being investigated by the agency based on information gathered after the deaths of Paul and Maggie.

The coroner's report said Stephen Smith was most likely hit in the head by the mirror of a passing semi-truck in July 2015. Police said he was walking on a two-lane road after running out of gas.

Smith's mother, Sandy Smith, told The Augusta Chronicle in 2015 that there were no broken glass or plastic shards from a mirror on the road where her son's body was found.

> A man on his way to work spotted Stephen Smith's body on Sandy Run Road in the early morning hours of July 8, 2015. Smith had a head wound consistent with being shot, the coroner explained in a report.
>
> After his autopsy, however, Smith's death was ruled a hit-and-run. The forensic pathologist who conducted the autopsy hypothesized he could have been struck in the head by the mirror on a large truck.
>
> S.C. Highway Patrol officers investigating the case doubted that conjecture.
>
> "There's just no physical evidence. We got evidence on the body but no physical evidence," SCHP Cpl. M. E. Duncan explained to Smith's twin sister in a July 17,

> 2015 interview. “Like I said, I will say ‘hit-and-run’. … I don’t even want to call it that. It’s more a ‘death investigation.’ [It] could be a homicide, could be a voluntary, involuntary [manslaughter].”

WHO KILLED COL. JAMES SABOW? retrieved from Orange County Weekly and copied or modified to here

Orange County Long Beach Manhattan Beach next to each other

US county in California

Orange County is a region in Southern California. It's known for Anaheim's Disneyland Resort, a huge complex of rides, restaurants and shops. Nearby, in Buena Park, is Knott's Berry Farm, a large theme park. Cities with surf beaches include Huntington Beach, with its surfing museum. Newport Beach's boat-filled harbor sits opposite Balboa Peninsula. Laguna Beach has tide pools and oceanfront Crystal Cove State Park. — Google

NICK SCHOU | POSTED ONFEBRUARY 17, 2000

“Jimmy’s dead! Jimmy’s dead!” she remembers screaming hysterically before she collapsed in shock on the floor of the Underwoods’ living room.

According to Sally, Jean then blurted, “Joe, this has gone too far.”

As Sally remembers it, Underwood said nothing. He calmly walked over to the Sabows' back yard, returning a few moments later. "Well," he said finally, "we've got to call General Adams."

According to the Orange County coroner's report, Sabow perished from a self-inflicted shotgun blast to the mouth. That finding was included in a U.S. Navy Criminal Investigations Service (NCIS) crime-scene investigation that took place at El Toro. Two successive 1991 Navy Judge Advocate General Manual (JAGMAN) investigations also reached the conclusion that Sabow committed suicide. Five years later, the Marine Corps' Office of the Inspector General (OIG) conducted a separate investigation that the Sabow family had requested. It, too, found that Sabow killed himself.

At first, it seemed obvious Sabow had committed suicide. He had every reason to think his military days were over, and his family readily acknowledges that Sabow felt abandoned by the Marine Corps, which he had served loyally for three decades and had grown to love. On the other hand, his wife says Sabow spent the weekend before he died typing up his rsum. And according to both Sally and retired Marine Corps Colonel Bill Callahan, Sabow's best friend, he planned to become a pilot for America West Airlines, where Callahan already worked.

Dr. John David Sabow, Sabow's brother and a South Dakota neurologist, had both the medical background and the tenacity to mount his own investigation. His increasingly pointed questions about his brother's death led to a March 9, 1991, meeting with El Toro's commanding officer and Sabow's boss, General Adams.

Dr. John David Sabow, Sabow's brother and a South Dakota neurologist, had both the medical background and the tenacity to mount his own investigation. His increasingly pointed questions about his brother's death led to a March 9, 1991, meeting with El Toro's commanding officer and Sabow's boss, General Adams. During that meeting, the Sabows have alleged, the military used scare tactics to prevent them from going to the press with their doubts about the suicide, referring to the late colonel as "a felon and a crook."

This meeting-and that phrase-eventually produced a lawsuit filed by the Sabow family in an Orange County federal court in 1996. Three weeks ago, the suit was thrown out of court by U.S. District Judge Alicemarie Stotler. According to the lawsuit, Sabow was murdered because he threatened to expose an illegal covert operation at El Toro involving Sabow's fellow officers, CIA-sponsored airlifts to Central and South America, black cargo planes landing in the middle of the night and drugs.

SARAH KERSHAW

New York Times , Sharing Their Demons on the Web
By SARAH KERSHAW NOV. 12, 2008*

For people who say they are the target of mind control or gang stalking, there may be enough evidence in the scientific literature to fan their beliefs. Many sites point to MK-ULTRA, the code name for a covert C.I.A. mind-control and chemical interrogation program begun in the 1950s.

Recently the sites have linked to an article published in September in Time magazine, "The Army's Totally Serious Mind-Control Project," which described a $4 million contract given to the Army to develop "thought helmets" that would allow troops to communicate through brain waves on the battlefield.

NY Times Reporter Found Dead After Exposing MKUltra*

February 24, 2016 A former New York Times reporter has been found murdered in the Dominican Republic following her exposure of MKUltra.

Sarah Kershaw was found asphyxiated [brain dead] due to strangulation on Monday at her apartment in Sosua.

Project MKUltra, often referred to as the CIA's mind control program, was the code name given to an illegal program of experiments on human subjects, designed and undertaken by the the CIA. Ms Kershaw published an article with the New York Times exploring this subject in 2008 with her article Sharing their Demons on the Web,

> The Waco Siege: 6 Little-Known Facts
>
> https://www.history.com/news/waco-siege-what-happened-little-known-facts UPDATED: FEB 20, 2020 ORIGINAL APR 13, 2018
>
> Sometime during the fire, Koresh, then 33, died of a gunshot wound to the head.
>
> It remains unknown whether he killed himself or was shot by someone else. But that's not the only unanswered question when it comes to the infamous siege. Here are some other debates around and other little-known facts about the Waco siege and Koresh:

Regarding the Waco incident, Wilcher alleged that:

- Koresh and six others in his cult were CIA deep-cover operatives who had refused an order to activate against an unknown target.
- The initial engagement plan was designed to result in the deaths of US officers to justify a large-scale retaliation.
- Nerve gas, not tear gas, was used in the final assault.
- A CIA hit squad was dropped onto the roof by helicopter and killed Koresh and dozens of others with pistol shots to the head at close range.
- The CIA set the fire at the compound using timed white phosphorus incendiaries.

Roger Eugene Ailes married his third wife Elizabeth Tilson (born 1960) on February 14, 1998

In a 2013 book excerpt from Roger Ailes: Off Camera, Ailes spoke about facing death, saying, “Because of my hemophilia, I’ve been prepared to face death all of my life. When it comes, I’ll be fine, calm. I’ll miss life, though. Especially my family.”[61]

On May 10, 2017, Ailes fell and hit his head at his Palm Beach, Florida home. He died on May 18, three days after his 77th birthday.[62][63][64] T

Ailes and his wife Elizabeth, through their charity, ACI Senior Development Corp., promised $500,000 toward the completion of a senior center in Cold Spring, Putnam County, New York. Local opposition to Ailes's participation in the project arose after publication of the sexual harassment accusations against him and in response to a Journal News report about previously undisclosed conditions attached to the proposed gift. Under those conditions, ACI would act as general contractor for the project with no obligation to conduct competitive bidding before awarding construction management and other subcontracts.

Further, ACI was excused from any obligation to pay prevailing wages to workers on the project, workers and subcontractors would have no recourse against ACI in case of payment disputes and ACI would deliver its work without warranty.[57][58] There was extensive public objection to Ailes's participation. At an August 2, 2016, public hearing, the Putnam County Legislature suspended adoption of the proposed charitable donation agreement with ACI.[59] The next day Ailes withdrew the gift.[60]

Paul Wilcher

Paul Wilcher was the lawyer to whistle blowers Rodney Stich and Gunter Karl Russbacher. Wilcher died in disputed circumstances a month after writing a letter to then-new US Attorney General Janet Reno alleging that the CIA was killing people to cover up mind control experiments, and that the Waco incident was one of these events. [1] [2] [3]

All of these and other connect to a PsyOps alleged ring of me in activities I am not tied to but appear to exist.

In feb 20 1961 My father and mother were Manchurian Candidate to Obama. In 1998 my DNA was authorized by an impersonator at AOL to the Obama family setup by my brother using an impersonator of me.

In 2006 it was decided to move Donegan DNA throughout the world.

In 2007 an Impersonators/Forged Agreement ERox PexX scheme emerged for forgeries of my DNA authorization around the world.

In 2009 Obama became president and Benghazi missiles were launched by the CIA giving Obama GenoFamily in Africa. The CIA DIA did this under Patreus and others who studied RHRF.com.

Obama moved Flynn out of DIA and into private work which included Manafort and later Trump. A Jamacian immigre was moved into the DIA.

As Flynn went on under CIA DOD contracting schemes including Patreus schemes Trump agreed to, Comey found out Flynn/Trumpo had illegal works underway, that which what Rosenstein had setup as NIH policy that NIH police helped with.

The Ellingtons are in on it as is Genetech, as is CENTCOM, and it involves racial rape via forged agreements and racial harassment of me, and hiding my DNA, breaking my eggs in the USA.

It also involved DNA asset seizure from me by the Whitehorse, Judge Roll, and US redistributing, Scalia. This is all very illegal black budge black racial Chicago alcohol prohibition gang activity and Trump rose to power on it including illegally using intellectual as well biiological property of mine.

KidneyGate	Trump/USA	RU Black Market	Saudie Crowm Prince

		Criminals
Legality	Comey Jen Moore	Vladimir	Kashogi

Family and career*

Ralph Blasey Jr. Vice President of Agency that is in charge of security for Comey, Brennan, McCabe, Rice & Lynch NO COINCIDENCES

https://www.reddit.com/ *

PAST POSITION(s) - Her father Ralph G. Blasey Jr. - a proven CIA operative who, from June-1962 to January-1974, was the Vice President of National Savings and Trust of Washington, D.C. - a CIA black budget bank best known for being 100 paces from the White House, and whom, in 1998, was taken over by SunTrust Bank - whose majority share owner is the CIA-linked investment fund BlackRock. (NOTE - Blackrock Secret contracted worth $100s Billions.)

The main CIA operative involved in this war, and whom Ralph G. Blasey Jr. reported to, was Nicholas Deak (LINK) - a longtime OSS and CIA operative, both during and after World War II, who ran the CIA'smain BLACK BUDGET OPERATIONS under the direct command of the feared CIA Counterintelligence Chief James Jesus Angleton.

> As CIA & FBI Directors come and go after 4+ decades, Mr Blasey stayed at the very top of CIA/FBI officials, and was transitioned into each new CIA/FBI Administration. If there is any Unelected, Stable, Reliable “Deep State” criminal agenda going on today, Mr Blasey Jr is a Major link Lifelong connection between each New Administration to carry out and plan any longterm “Criminal Coup” of our nation. Understand how someone 40+ years in the CIA from controlling Black Ops Secret Bank Budgets, to now Providing Personal Public Security to each of the “Deep State” criminals (Brennan, Comey, McCabe, Mueller, Rice, Lynch, etc) who have been fired, removed, and now facing criminal charges. The one link to them all are one Ralph G Blasey Jr - and the REAL TOP TIER DEEP STATE

Dr. Blasey Ford is the daughter of Ralph G. Blasey, Jr.[35] After Ralph Blasey quit as a bank vice-presdent, he founded an office maintenance and cleaning service. Both the bank and maintenance business are said to be CIA fronts. Blasey Jr. is also said to have ties to the CIA’s Stanford University MKUltra project of the 1950s.[36]

> https://relationshipscience.com/ *

> Ralph G. Blasey, Jr. is Vice President-Business Development at Red Coats, … The company was founded on November 18, 1996 and is headquartered in Houston

Christine Blasey Ford has worked as a recruiter for the CIA's internship program at Stanford University.[37] [38] Additionally, Blasey Ford has done research on mind control techniques to induce self hypnosis and "artificial memories."[39] The technique has been used to defeat polygraph examinations.[40]

Blasey Ford's brother, Ralph Blasey, practices law in Washington DC with the firm of BakerHostetler.[41] BakerHostetler is the firm hired by Natalia Veselnitskaya to engage in illegal lobbying on behalf of Russia oligarchs in the Spring of 2016. BakerHoestetler in turn hired Glenn Simpson and FusionGPS for illegal lobbying for repeal of the Magnitsky Act. Veselnitskaya met with Donald Trump Jr., Jared Kushner, and Paul Manafort using opposition research on Clinton Foundation donors that FusionGPS dug up on behalf of their client - BakerHostetler, Natalia Veselnitskaya, and the Russian Katsyv family.

PAST POSITION(s)* * - Her father Ralph G. Blasey Jr.- a proven CIA operative who, from June-1962 to January-1974, was the Vice President of National Savings and Trust of Washington, D.C.- a CIA black budget bank best known for being 100 paces from the White House, and whom, in 1998, was taken over by SunTrust Bank-whose majority share owner is the CIA-linked investment fund BlackRock. (NOTE - Blackrock Secret contracted worth $100s Billions.)

The main CIA operative involved in this war, and whom Ralph G. Blasey Jr. reported to, was Nicholas Deak (Nicolas Louis Deák (8 October 1905, Transylvania, Hungary-18 November 1985) ,-a longtime OSS and CIA operative, both during and after World War II, who ran the CIA'smain BLACK BUDGET OPERATIONS under the direct command of the feared CIA

Counterintelligence Chief James Jesus Angleton.

To how the CIA prevented the total breakdown of the Western banking system in 1982, was by their illegally laundering hundreds-of-millions of dollars of Colombian drug cartel cash into it to keep it afloatin an operation overseen by the CIA's "James Bond of Money" Nickolas Deak-but when the President Ronald Reagan administration found out what the CIA had done, and started investigating it, saw Deak, on 19 November 1985, being assassinated in his New York City office by a homeless woman named Lois Lang. (It was alleged that one Ralph G Blasey Jr was assigned this Deep State Wetworks, since he knew and worked with Mr Deak, and was his Senior).

I've NEVER taken a daily pharmaceutical drug. And I haven't taken any pharmaceuticals in 10 years (and ten years ago it was one pill, one day). Nothing over the counter, nothing by prescription. In other words, I'm not on anything that could kill me unexpectedly or suddenly. I've never done illegal drugs either. Not even once.

There's no way anyone could get into my house, no robbers, no angry exes (which I don't have btw), no fanatical people - my house is like Fort Knox …unless it was someone super professional. It just wouldn't be possible for anyone without highly special equipment and tactics (I.e. remotely taking down my high-level security system, which they have done before, unfortunately). But my place is also highly secure in a hard-wired kinda way. So even if the power was out, most people could still never get in.

If something were to happen to me, it's foul play and you know exactly who and why - given my work and mission in this life. I'm also NOT accident prone. And I got the highest health rating possible when I went through a battery of medical tests a couple of years ago for my life insurance policy.

If something were to happen to me, I have arranged for a close group of my friends to start a GoFundMe to hire a team of private investigators to figure out all the details (I have the team and have passed the info on to them). Oh, and money for a PR firm to make it national news. There would be a press release sent to every journalist in this country (and more). It would not be swept under the rug, and it would be their worst nightmare.

There have been many on this mission or a similar one that have been killed and it's time this bullshit stopped. The darkness cannot win. I will never stop speaking out for those who no longer can. Even if from the other side, where I image I would be FAR MORE powerful.

I have a team of angels surrounding me every step of this journey, but prayers of protection and love are ALWAYS appreciated

---

Jennifer Jaynes retrieved from www.dark2light.net/
and copied or modified to here

[image]

Jennifer Jaynes was born on October 30th, 1972, at Minot Air Force Base in North Dakota. She was a #1 USA Today best selling author, writing a total of 7 books. Her most recent being “Malice”, which was considered as the best “pro anti-vaxxer” novel.

She held many jobs before starting a career as a novelist.

Jennifer was found deceased in her home on November 25th 2019, at the age of 47. It was ruled a suicide, but there are unconfirmed reports that she had shot herself in the head twice.

Brian T. Jaynes Film producer, ex-husband, Born: November 24, 1964 (age 56 years), Houston, TX

Obituary of Jennifer Jaynes

Her former husband, Brian T. Jaynes, was portrayed as a movie producer. However he went by an alias, Michael Raven, to produce porn films. There is a phone Interview with Brian Jaynes, that was done by Erin Elizabeth on Youtube. Many doubt his sincerity, and parts of his story are very different than what has been officially released.

Her death was announced by her boyfriend, Burke Bryant, in a solemn Facebook post following the tragedy.

They had been dating awhile following her divorce. Burke has been the President of the Fort Worth Humanitarian Aid and Rescue Project (HARP) since 2008.

> Humanitarian Aid & Rescue Project Humanitarian Aid & Rescue 209 W 2nd St Ste 321, Fort Worth,TX 76102 USA www.harprescue.org
>
> Nonprofit Overview fromn https://greatnonprofits.org/org/humanitarian-aid-rescue-project
>
> Causes: Disaster Aid, Disaster Preparedness & Relief Services
>
> Mission: Humanitarian Aid and Rescue Project (HARP) specializes in first 72-hour global emergency response.
>
> We provide immediate support in areas experiencing disaster, war, and conflict.
>
> e are made up of highly-skilled military veterans, first responders, law enforcement, and civilian personnel specializing in Search & Rescue (SAR), Medical and Swift Water Rescue.
>
> ARP is a registered 501(c)3 non-profit NGO.
>
> Results: Operations: 14 Lives Saved: 1145 / SAR, Medical, Swift Boat Rescues Volunteers: 32

Cryptograph ©cryptograph “Randall is like family. I’m so grateful that Chris’s last photoshoot was captured by not only an amazing photographer but a true friend. ©PhoenixHouseCa continues to do such crucial work especially during these times.” - ©vickycornell | ©consequence

Chris Cornell’s final portraits to be auctioned as NFTs The last portraits of Chris Cornell’s life, shot by photographer Randall Slavin, are set to be minted and sold as a pair of NFTs later this week. consequence.net 9:38 PM · Aug 4, 2021

Like Hatia response and Chris Cornell suicide? STEM Cells and traumatic brain or spinal injury?

---

https://heavy.com/ Jennifer Jaynes Dies: 5 Fast Facts You Need to Know

Jaynes was previously married to movie producer Brian T. Jaynes. The couple has two children together. According to his IMDb page, Brian Jaynes is the Houston-born producer of movies such as “Biohazard: Patient Zero” from 2012 and “Humans vs Zombies” from 2011. Brian Jaynes also goes by the moniker Michael Raven for his porno movie directing career. In 2008, Brian Jaynes was inducted into the Adult Video News Hall of Fame. Brian Jaynes was briefly married to porn stars, Sydnee Steele and Julia Ann.

The couple was married in November 2009. Jennifer Jaynes was credited as the producer on the movies, “Humans vs Zombies” and “Boggy Creek.” In addition, Jaynes is also credited as the writer of “Boggy Creek.”

Language of Espionage retrieved from Spy Museum / and copied or modified to here

> Raven
>
> A male agent employed to seduce people for intelligence purposes
>
> Swallow
>
> A female agent employed to seduce people for intelligence purposes

Sightings #32

https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

32. CALVIN WALRAVEN - 24 years old, Walraven was a key witness in Jocelyn Elder's son's drug case. Ten days after Elder's son was convicted of trafficking in cocaine, Walraven was found dead in his apartment with a gunshot blast to the head. Tim Hover, a Little Rock police spokesman says "no foul play is suspected."

[image] [image]

The second autopsies [which discounted the original autopsy report extremely stoned brothers stumbled into the trains path] were performed by Georgia medical examiner Dr. Joseph Burton. Dr. Burton found that Don and Kevin had minimal marijuana in their systems; the equivalent of one joint between the two of them, not twenty. He also opined that Don had been stabbed in the back and Kevin suffered a crushing blow to his skull that had not come from the train. In his professional opinion, one of the boys was already dead and one unconscious at the time their bodies were struck by the train.

A grand jury ruled that the deaths of Don and Kevin were probable homicides.

Dan Harmon, a prosecutor of the case later arrested for dealing drugs,[10] is one person implicated in the murder.[citation needed] Keith McCaskle, also implicated in the murder,[citation needed] was stabbed to death by an unknown attacker[11] on November 10, 1988.[12]

Kevin and Don happened by, were grabbed by Kirk Lane and Jay Campbell, Pulaski County narcotics officers,interrogated, and subsequently killed * .

Reagan Bush leaving office 1988. George H.W. Bush does win as next president 1988-1992. (swown 1989 to 1993)

> Obituary Calvin R. Walraven of North Little Rock, AR, 1940 - 2017
>
> Calvin R. Walraven died on February 19, 2017. He was born on February 29,1940 to the late Chester and Theola Walraven in Fenton, Michigan.He was retired from the U.S. Air Force after serving 20 years. He was of the Methodist faith. He was President of Parents without Partners prior to marrying Jan, and was a member of the Vietnam Veterans Motorcycle Club, also a member of the Bass Fishing Club of Central Arkansas. He loved his family and serving his country very much.
>
> In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by one son, Calvin Walraven and two grandsons, Colby Brockinton and Denis Newman.
>
> In lieu of flowers please donate to Grand Prairie CASA,

119 West Front Street, Lonoke, Arkansas 72086 or Global Missions of the United Methodist Church. This can be through 1st United Methodist Church, 6701 JFK, NLR, Ark. 72116

General Board of Global Ministries

United methodist church in Atlanta, Georgia

458 Ponce De Leon Ave NE, Atlanta, GA 30308

(800) 862-4246

Global Ministries https://www.resourceumc.org/en/agencies/global-ministries

From everywhere to everywhere, the General Board of Global Ministries connects the church in mission. It sends and supports over 300 short- and long-term missionaries, including young adults; collaborates and engages with volunteers; participates in evangelizing and church planting through mission initiatives; addresses diseases of poverty and global health; and responds to natural and civil disasters. Global Ministries also provides ways and guidance for United Methodists engage in mission in their communities through their local churches and support life-changing projects for which they have a passion.

Dr Joycelen Elders retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

Military Service Branches

United States Army, USPHS Commissioned Corps (Non Combatant Service)

Elders has received a National Institutes of Health career development award, also serving as assistant professor in pediatrics at the University of Arkansas Medical Center from 1967. She was promoted to associate professor in 1971 and professor in 1976. Her research interests focused on endocrinology, and she received board certification as a pediatric endocrinologist in 1978, becoming the first person in the state of Arkansas to do so.[3] Elders received a D.Sc.

degree from Bates College in 2002

Elders was born Minnie Lee Jones in Schaal, Arkansas,[2] to a poor, farm sharecropping family, and was the eldest of eight children, and valedictorian of her school class.[3] The family also spent two years near a wartime shipyard in Richmond, California before returning to Schaal. In college, she changed her name to Minnie Joycelyn Lee. In 1952, she received her B.S. degree in Biology from Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Arkansas, where she also pledged Delta Sigma Theta. She married briefly to Cornelius Reynolds, a Federal employee, and later to Oliver Elders, a basketball coach. After working as a nurse's aide in a Veterans Administration hospital in Milwaukee for a period, she joined the United States Army in May 1953 and became a 2nd Lieutenant. During her 3 years in the Army, she was trained as a physical therapist. She then attended the University of Arkansas Medical School, where she obtained her M.D. degree in 1960. After completing an internship at the University of Minnesota Hospital and a residency in pediatrics at the University of Arkansas Medical Center, Elders earned an M.S. in Biochemistry in 1967.

Views on drug legalization

Elders drew fire, as well as censure from the Clinton administration, when she suggested that legalizing drugs might help reduce crime and that the idea should be studied. On December 15, 1993, around one week after making these comments, charges were filed against her son Kevin for selling cocaine in an incident involving undercover officers four months prior. Elders believes the incident was a frame-up and the timing of the charges was designed to embarrass her and the president.[11] Kevin Elders was convicted, and he was sentenced to 10 years in prison, of which he served four months.[12][13] He appealed his conviction to the Arkansas Supreme Court, and that court reaffirmed the conviction. The court held that Mr. Elders failed to show that he was entrapped into making the narcotics sale.[14] There was no further appeal.

> LA Times Elders' Son Sentenced to 10 Years on Drug Charge *
>
> Kevin Elders was arrested Dec. 19, 1993, five months after the drug sale, on a warrant issued a week after his mother suggested at a National Press Club luncheon that the government study legalization of drugs as a possible means of reducing the nation's crime rate.

About December 13, 1993 Day of the Week: Monday

Phillip Marshall, author of, The Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror" is a Revealer

Calaveras County Coroner Kevin Raggio said he determined Philip Marshall and his two children were all killed by a gunshot wound to the head, after performing an autopsy Tuesday morning.

via Autopsy results released in double murder suicide By Joel Metzger Feb 5, 2013 Updated Feb 12, 2013 Comments

Death of him and his family in Calaveras County California

> Former airline pilot and conspiracy theorist 'shot dead his two teenage children and his dog before turning the gun on himself'
>
> By RACHEL QUIGLEY Calaveras County California
>
> While he was writing it, Marshall believed that his life was in danger because of the allegations involved.
>
> According to Santa Barbara View, during the editing and pre-marketing process of Marshall's book, he expressed some degree of paranoia because the nonfiction work accused the George W. Bush administration of being in cahoots with the Saudi intelligence community in training the hijackers who died in the planes used in the attacks.

[image]

Accuses of the Bush family of Saudi connected US Intelligence community deep state plot including mass murder and cover ups

> Claim: George H.W. Bush once said: "If the people were to ever find out what we have done, we would be chased down the streets and lynched."
>
> Rating: *Fals*e via Snopes.com

Aerospace

is a term used to collectively refer to the atmosphere and outer space. Aerospace activity is very diverse, with a multitude of commercial, industrial and military applications. Aerospace engineering consists of aeronautics and astronautics. Aerospace organizations research, design, manufacture, operate, or maintain aircraft and spacecraft.

Nuclear triad

A nuclear triad is a three-pronged military force structure that consists of land-launched nuclear missiles, nuclear-missile-armed submarines, and strategic aircraft with nuclear bombs and missiles.

1. Land launched missiles rocket funnels JFK observed with Wernher von Braun days before is death

2. sea launched missles as JFK watched days before his death

3. Nuclear bomber capable aircraft

The Big Bamboozle : 9/11 and the War on Terror by Philip Marshall (2012, Trade Paperback) retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Product Information

From the perspective of a Boeing 767 captain and former “special activities” contract pilot, Philip Marshall straps the reader into the cockpits of hijacked commercial airliners to tell the story of the most sophisticated terrorist attack in history.

Based on a comprehensive ten-year study into the murders of his fellow pilots on 9/11, he explains how hijackers, novice pilots at the controls of massive guided missiles, were able to beat United States Air Force fighters to iconic targets with advanced maneuvering, daring speeds and a kamikaze finish.

But, as Marshall explains, the tactical plan was so precise that it rules out car-bombers and shoe-bombers known as al Qaeda, KSM and Osama bin Laden.

So then, who was it? That’s what you are about learn. Backed by official NTSB, FAA and black box recordings, Marshall finds the most capable and most documented group of conspirators buried deep within a Congressional Inquiry’s report and retraces their work in gripping detail. Fasten your seatbelt- the sad truth is that all of the solid evidence points to a dark collaboration between members of the Bush Administration and a covert group of Saudi government officials.

This is a game changer that will finally set the record straight on the most horrific crime in US history. This book is a compilation of official reports that disputes the Bush Administration, the Bush Intelligence Community and the American media’s account of the 9/11 attack. United States Senator Bob Graham’s Congressional Joint Inquiry in 2002 revealed that Saudi Arabian Intelligence agents met the 9/11 hijackers in the Los Angeles in January of 2000, harbored them and led them to 18 months of flight training in Florida and Arizona. Marshall follows reports from FBI field agents that warned George W. Bush’s Administration that a “cadre of individuals of investigative interest were engaged in flight training" in the Arizona desert in the spring of 2001.

Marshall identifies three top federal investigators who complained that Dick Cheney obstructed justice by refusing access to suspects who supposedly confessed to the greatest crime in U.S. history. None of the federal investigators were ever allowed to verify the confession of Khalid Sheik Mohammed who had been water boarded over 180 times at Guantanamo detention facility. The book disputes the video and media confession of Osama bin Laden and points out that none of the accusations by the Bush Administration could be proved.

Marshall asserts that the Saudi government was the true executioners of the 9/11 attack and framed their enemies while CIA special operations set up an elaborate decoy named Osama bin Laden to divert attention away from the Saudi operation

. He follows the hijackers to flight training airports and finds that Saudi agents led the hijackers to the Arizona desert where Boeing 757 and Boeing 767 airliners were parked at a secluded CIA operated airport. The operators of the CIA airport were traced to suspicious insider stock trades on two airlines, United Airlines and American Airlines, the only two airlines used in the 9/11 attack.

Marshall breaks down the tactical flight plan that was used by the hijackers and chronicles the actions of Condoleezza Rice, Donald Rumsfeld, Saudi Arabian Prince Bandar bin Sultan, Dick Cheney and George W. Bsuh to learn that their account of the attack was severely flawed. Three top investigators wrote that Dick Cheney had obstructed the investigation and redacted the involvement of the Saudi government agents who were employed in California by the Saudi Civil Aviation authority. The Congressional Inquiry reported that the Saudi agents had “seemingly unlimited funding from Saudi Arabia” and had traced the hijacker financial support to Prince Bandar through a Riggs Bank account.

Finally Marshall chronicles the media trial that allowed Bush and Cheney to derail American Justice by trying the 9/11 case with media propaganda and away from the American federal court sys

The Saudi connection to the Bush family creating of Barrack Obama Jr. as part of the 1961 Middle East North Africa Moles and Sleeper agent plot of Dulles, Donald Barry, William Barr, and other 33rd masons including Vatican.

Quote retrieved from Mickey BellChelsea Clinton and copied or modified to here

CLINTON BODY BAGS..

Just a quick refresher course lest we forget what has happened to many “friends” of the Clintons.

1. James McDougal - Clintons convicted Whitewater partner died of an apparent heart attack, while in solitary confinement. He was a key witness in Ken Starr’s investigation.

2. Mary Mahoney - A former White House intern was murdered July 1997 at a Starbucks Coffee Shop in Georgetown .. The murder happened just after she was to go public with her story of sexual harassment in the White House. The store was not robbed. One local radio stationed reported that all three were shot in the head but that one body was riddled with bullets.

3. Vince Foster - Former White House councilor, and colleague of Hillary Clinton at Little Rock's Rose Law firm. Died of a gunshot wound to the head, ruled a suicide.

4. Ron Brown - Secretary of Commerce and former DNC Chairman. Reported to have died by impact in a plane crash. A pathologist close to the investigation reported that there was a hole in the top of Brown's skull resembling a gunshot wound. At the time of his death Brown was being investigated, and spoke publicly of his willingness to cut a deal with prosecutors. The rest of the people on the plane also died. A few days later the air Traffic controller committed suicide.

5. C. Victor Raiser, II - Raiser, a major player in the Clinton fund raising organization died in a private plane crash in July 1992.

6. Paul Tulley - Democratic National Committee Political Director found dead in a hotel room in Little Rock , September 1992. Described by Clinton as a "dear friend and trusted advisor".

7. Ed Willey - Clinton fundraiser, found dead November 1993 deep in the woods in VA of a gunshot wound to the head. Ruled a suicide. Ed Willey died on the same day his wife Kathleen Willey claimed Bill Clinton groped her in the oval office in the White House. Ed Willey was involved in several Clinton fund raising events.

8. Jerry Parks - Head of Clinton's gubernatorial security team in Little Rock .. Gunned down in his car at a deserted intersection outside Little Rock Park's son said his father was building a dossier on Clinton He allegedly threatened to reveal this information. After he died the files were mysteriously removed from his house.

9. James Bunch - Died from a gunshot suicide. It was reported that he had a "Black Book" of people which contained names of influential people who visited prostitutes in Texas and Arkansas

10. James Wilson - Was found dead in May 1993 from an apparent hanging suicide. He was reported to have ties to Whitewater..

11. Kathy Ferguson - Ex-wife of Arkansas Trooper Danny Ferguson, was found dead in May 1994, in her living room with a gunshot to her head. It was ruled a suicide even though there were several packed suitcases, as if she were going somewhere. Danny Ferguson was a co-defendant along with Bill Clinton in the Paula Jones lawsuit Kathy Ferguson was a possible corroborating witness for Paula Jones.

12. Bill Shelton - Arkansas State Trooper and fiancee of Kathy Ferguson. Critical of the suicide ruling of his fiancee, he was found dead in June, 1994 of a gunshot wound also ruled a suicide at the grave site of his fiancee.

13. Gandy Baugh - Attorney for Clinton's friend Dan Lassater, died by jumping out a window of a tall building January, 1994. His client was a convicted drug distributor.

14. Florence Martin - Accountant & sub-contractor for the CIA, was related to the Barry Seal, Mena, Arkansas, airport drug smuggling case. He died of three gunshot wounds.

15. Suzanne Coleman - Reportedly had an affair with Clinton when he was Arkansas Attorney General. Died of a gunshot wound to the back of the head, ruled a suicide. Was pregnant at the time of her death.

Jeff Joe Black: Found dead on a hiking trail from "blunt force trauma to the head": Chicago activist who claimed that Emmanuel was put into place in Chicago to oversee a coming false flag event

> UPDATE: Democratic Rep. Stephanie Tubbs Jones of Cleveland, a super delegate and one of Hillary Clinton's most prominent black supporters, was found in her car unconscious Tuesday night, Aug. 19. Today, she is considered brain dead and may be taken off life support this afternoon. *

Jul 30, 2008

OANOKE - An aide to U.S. Sen. Jim Webb, D-Va., was found shot dead beside a Botetourt County road yesterday morning. A gun was found beneath his body.

Hutchins had a single gunshot wound to the head.

Amschel Mayor James Rothschild (18 April 1955 - 8 July 1996) was the executive chairman of Rothschild Asset Management of the Rothschild banking family of England.

He was found hanged and it is reported a non foul play suicide in part despondent over the death of his mother, a figure in British Counter Intelligence operations.

[image]

Amschel Mayor James Rothschild was found hanged Hôtel Le Bristol, a five star hotel located in Paris, France at 112 rue du Faubourg Saint Honoré, in the heart of the fashion, design, and art district. Hôtel Le Bristol opened in 1925 and is famous for its historic architecture and luxurious interior. The hotel is part of the Oetker Collection, Masterpiece Hotels which is owned the Oetkers family and was founded by Rudolf August Oetker.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

> Obituary: Teresa, Lady Rothschild
>
> Teresa Georgina Mayor, wartime intelligence officer: born London 10 September 1915; married 1946 Victor, third Baron Rothschild (died 1990; one son, two daughters, and one son deceased); died London 29 May 1996.
>
> An 80th birthday for others might have been the occasion for a large party. Instead she spent hers last year quietly in Suffolk with two of her children and was horrified by having to blow out candles on a cake. She was teased then into some rare confessions of autobiography, about her childhood and Bedales, about the Bloomsberries of her youth and working for

Jonathan Cape before the war; about entering Paris (as a member of the counter- intelligence group, she was one of the first women to do so) with the Allied forces after the liberation.

Victor Rothschild records in one of his books the step-by-step dismantling of a bomb masquerading as a crate of onions. Tess herself was appointed MBE for throwing a bomb off a bridge. But she didn't tell that story.

In 1987, Rothschild joined the family banking firm, N M Rothschild & Sons. By 1990 he was made chief executive of one of the Rothschild's weaker assets, Rothschild Asset Management. In 1993, he became Chairman of the firm, helping to steer it onto a more stable path.[citation needed]

One of his favourite pastimes was farming. Rothschild had inherited an arable farm, Rushbrooke, near Bury St. Edmunds where he spent many hours at work. He was also a keen racer of cars, and was known as one of the best amateur racers in the country. His passion started when he acquired a scrambler motorcycle, at age thirteen. In later life, he got into motor racing, and was the winner of the Peter Collins Memorial Trophy Race at Silverstone in 1996. Among his car collection was an AC Cobra Daytona sports car, a 1957 Maserati 250F Formula I, and a 1958 BRM P25 Formula I. He was known as one of the best classic car racers of his generation.[3]

Rothschild was also an amateur pilot, and kept a Stampe at his home in Suffolk.[3]

Rothschild was a trustee of Yad Hanadiv, the Rothschild foundation which has supported many projects in Israel, including the building of the Supreme Court and Knesset in Jerusalem.

Peter R. de Vries retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Peter Rudolf de Vries (14 November 1956 - 15 July 2021) was a Dutch investigative journalist and crime reporter. His television program Peter R. de Vries, (Crime Reporter; 1995 – 2012) covered high-profile cases and set a Dutch television viewing record.[1] In 2005, he founded his own political party which was disbanded soon after.[2] On July 6th 2021, he was shot in the head after leaving the television studio of RTL Boulevard in Amsterdam where he had appeared as a guest. He was taken to a hospital in critical condition, where he died nine days later.[3][4][5][6][7][8]

Assassination of John F. Kennedy

> Nucky Nelson 5.58K subscribers Peter R de Vries onderzoekt de moord op John F Kennedy Betere beeldkwaliteit : https://youtu.be/hZrM0x_dr30
>
> Peter R de Vries onderzoekt de moord op JFK 34,859 viewsMar 31, 2019

[image]

Crime reporter Peter R. de Vries shot in Amsterdam, hospitalized in critical condition

Police officers investigate the area where Dutch crime reporter Peter R. de Vries was shot and seriously injured in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, on July 6, 2021. (Reuters/Eva Plevier)

Comittee to Protect Journlaists CPJ.ORG

*

Why We Protect Journalists

The Committee to Protect Journalists is an independent, nonprofit organization that promotes press freedom worldwide. We defend the right of journalists to report the news safely and without fear of reprisal.

Who We Are

CPJ is made up of about 40 experts around the world, with headquarters in New York City. When press freedom violations occur, CPJ mobilizes a network of correspondents who report and take action on behalf of those targeted.

CPJ reports on violations in repressive countries, conflict zones, and established democracies alike. A board of prominent journalists from around the world helps guide CPJ's activities.

[image]

Kennedy investigation

Kennedy moments before his assassination. Main article: John F. Kennedy assassination conspiracy theories

In the first half of 2006, De Vries and Wim Dankbaar produced a two and a half hour special about the 1963 assassination of U.S. president John F. Kennedy. In what has been De Vries' longest show to date, he spent two weeks in Texas speaking with former CIA and FBI agents and the ex-girlfriend of Lee Harvey Oswald. One of the interview subjects, James Files, said he was the gunman responsible for taking Kennedy's life. Files contradicted the findings of the Warren Commission and claimed that the CIA and the mafi were involved in the assassination.

[16]

Steven Silks

[image]

Steven J. Silks was the Deputy Chief of Police for the New York Police Department. Born July 10th, 1956, he committed suicide on June 5th, 2019, at the age of 62. Here is the full Steven Silks Obituary. He was suppose to retire the month following his death, on July 9th, 2019.

He knew the contents of the Anthony Weiner laptop, and allegedly handed it over to the FBI. There is a file labeled "Life Insurance", which allegedly contains blackmail of the elite raping and killing children.

He was one of several, at least 5, to commit suicide in the NYPD recently.

A lot of information regarding his family and friends, his life, and his death, was compiled by Holly Matkin at DefenseMaven.io.

112 Precinct

Steven had a gunshot wound to the head, and was found in his unmarked car on Burns Street in his district of New York, near the 112th precinct.

A security guard from a local tennis club found Steven unresponsive in his car. He was rushed to Elmhurst Hospital but was pronounced dead shorty after.

The related suicides have a pattern of gunshot wounds to the head, and they all happened within weeks of each other.

Abedin was born on July 28, 1976,[8] in Kalamazoo, Michigan, to Syed Zainul Abedin (1928-1993) and Saleha Mahmood Abedin.[4][9] Abedin is of Indian descent, and has a sister and a brother.

At the age of two, Abedin moved with her family to Jeddah (Saudi Arabia), where she was raised and lived until returning to the United States for college.[4][9] Abedin traveled frequently during her childhood and teenage years, and attended a British girls' school.[9]

Both of her parents were educators. Her father, born in New Delhi (India) on April 2, 1928,[10] was an Islamic and Middle Eastern scholar of Indian descent, who received his PhD from the University of Pennsylvania, and then in 1978 founded the Institute of Muslim Minority Affairs, an organization devoted to the study of Muslim communities in non-Muslim societies around the world.

In 1979, he founded the Journal of Muslim Minority Affairs,[11] which his wife took over after his death; Huma was listed as an associate editor from 1996 to 2008. Her mother, also born in colonial India (now Pakistan after the 1947 British Partition), also received her PhD from the University of Pennsylvania, and is currently an associate professor of sociology and dean at Dar Al-Hekma College in Jeddah.[4][12]

[image]

The mysterious death of Chicago activist, Jeff Joe Black, who claimed that Emmanuel was put into place in Chicago to oversee a coming false flag event. Black, at the last-minute, cancelled an appearance on my show and subsequently went into hiding and was eventually murdered while in hiding.

In my mind, Black's murder strongly validates the aforementioned assertions. Black had toldjeff-joe-black me that we were going to witness Chicago becoming the site of a massive false flag operation which would be the catalyst for martial law. Black asserted that Chicago would experience a massive wave of house to house gun confiscations. It was Black's contention that this was a lead up to the implementation of full-scale martial law and possible war.

Jeff Joe Black: Found dead on a hiking trail from blunt force trauma to the head" Chicago activist who claimed that Emmanuel was put into place in Chicago to oversee a coming false flag event.

Rahm Emanuel … A Mossad Agent!!! in Barack Obama, Mossad, United States "Assafir" 11/10/2008

U.S. intelligence sources uncovered few days ago excitant news concerning the man the U.S. president elect, Barak Obama, appointed as his White House Chief of Staff, Rahm Emanuel, which confirmed his connection with the Mossad, and his embroilment in the White House Monica Lewinsky affair during the Democratic President Clinton Administration. Lewinsky had a secret affair that could have ended with his resignation.

As per the W.M.R. American electronic site, Emanuel has an active file at the Department of Counter Espionage of the FBI; which could form a “security problem” for the President Elect, if the FBI insisted on going ahead with the routine investigation about the history of Emanuel, as a candidate for the outstanding post of the White House Chief of Staff.

The question marks raised about his relation with the Israeli intelligence service, The Mossad, during former Democratic president Bill Clinton’s administration, which was so serious and large that obliged Clinton to dismiss Emanuel from his post in 1998. The WMR site quoted intelligence sources saying that an FBI agent who discovered Emanuel connection with the Israeli intelligence , was the assistant of the manager of the former investigation office, John O’Neill, and another agent whose name was not uncovered, who is still employed by the investigation office. O’Neill and his colleague discovered that Emanuel was deeply involved with the assignment of Monica Lewinsky in the President Clinton’s staff.

O’Neill was killed in the 9/11, W.T.C. bombardment, while employed by Croll and CO. after his dismissal from FBI with another agent whose name was not uncovered as a result of the loss that was related with his job. And in last April the CIA branch manager in Houston, Ronald Tony Canby, a close friend of O’Neill was assassinated by the state’s police, while investigating the Mossad’s activities in the region.

Andy Warhol

Warhol’s Iconic Marilyn Monroe Portrait Sells for $195 Million at Christie’s

The record-high sale for an American artwork at auction signals a strong start to New York's major spring auctions - WSJ *

[image] .

Jed Johnson (1948-1996), an American interior designer and film director.

Jed Johnson (December 30, 1948 - July 17, 1996) was an American interior designer and film director. Initially hired by Andy Warhol to sweep floors at The Factory, he subsequently moved in with Warhol, and was his lover for twelve years. As a passenger in the first class cabin, he was killed when TWA Flight 800 came down shortly after takeoff in 1996. https://youtu.be/51dcsYw0B6Y TWA 800 cover up no justice

By Kelly CrowFollow May. 9, 2022 8:52 pm ET

An iconic Andy Warhol silk-screen portrait of movie star Marilyn Monroe sold for $195 million USD at Christie's Auctions & Private Sales on Monday, establishing a new record for any American artwork at auction.

The sale kicked off New York's major spring auctions and underscored the global strength of the high-end art market at a time of volatility in broader financial markets. Collectors often regard fine art as an investment hedge because art values don't necessarily move in tandem with securities.

Warhol's 3-foot square silk-screen from 1964, called "Shot Sage Blue Marilyn," depicts a promotional photo from the actress's 1953 film, "Niagara." The artist transformed the actress into a pop-art icon by giving her a bubblegum-pink face, ruby lips and blue eye shadow set against a sage-blue background.

American artist

Born: August 6, 1928, Pittsburgh, PA Died: February 22, 1987, New York Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY

Almost every sentence in his hand is full of bizarre spelling errors. Clearly, he was dyslexic, though undiagnosed (I assume dyslexia diagnoses were rare at the time). Some of his errors: “vedio” for “video,” “polorrod” and “poliaroid” for “Polaroid,” “tailand” for “Thailand,” “scrpit” for “script,” “pastic” for “plastic,” “herion” for “heroin,” and “Leory” for “Leroy.” Biographers have suggested that sympathetic female classmates in college helped him compose his papers. But these friendly collaborative efforts weren’t enough to see him through the required course in “Thought and Expression” at Carnegie Tech, and he failed his first year. (From Andy Warhol, 2001)

Sydenham’s chorea For the mysterious historical phenomenon also known as “St. Vitus’ dance”, see Dancing mania.

It is a neuropsychiatric disorder, so besides the motor problems there is classically emotional lability (mood swings, or inappropriate mood), anxiety, attention deficit. These can precede the motor symptoms. Also trouble tying shoes. Consider Borderline ADHD

There are many #FOXP2 gene attributes in the movie Pearl Harbor. Like Andy Warhol spellings, RAFE (a charcter) mispells “rudder” and also causes confusion head on about left versus right nearly causing air disaster, sold lawyerly later as an air stunt in Homage to the Commanding Officer.

[image]

Also Deborah Ann Harry by Andy Wahrhol as Blondie Von Trip [A Von Trapp singer factory made clone in the soup?] born

Angela Trimble; July 1, 1945)

> She was adopted by a couple in New Jersey. Her father was a salesman; her sister runs an American Italian restaurant. But her birth mother was a concert pianist. “It’s genetic,” she says. “I was always going to be an artist, in one field or another, come hell or high water.”
>
> There’s something about Harry - Garudian UK

[image]

> A print of this was on Tom Donegan’s Clarendon Virginia house wall
>
> Jean Shrimpton rose to prominence through her work with photographer David Bailey. They met in 1960 at a photo shoot that Shrimpton, who was then an unknown model,[14] was working on with photographer Brian Duffy for a Kellogg’s corn flakes advertisement.[15] Duffy told Bailey she was too posh for him, but Bailey was undeterred. -From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia
>
> St Bernard’s Catholic Grammar School Jean Shrimpton attended (formerly St Bernard’s Convent School) is an academically selective Roman Catholic grammar school on Langley Road, Slough, Langley, Berkshire. It was previously designated as a Humanities College. Aldin House was bought (and renamed St Bernard’s) by the Bernardine nuns in 1897.[2] Since then, various additions have been made to the building. Beginning with a school for 12 French students, the educational work of the Bernardines has evolved enormously. In 1904, day girls were first admitted to the school, leading to the development of a girls’ grammar school.

[2]

In 1906, a nearby house was bought and opened as St Joseph's day school "for children of all denominations".[2] In 1945, St Joseph's formally merged with St Bernards, becoming the preparatory school. In the 1970s and 1980s, the prep school moved to a new site[5] where it continues today as an independent fee paying school for about 200 pupils, although it shares a badge with the state supported grammar school. Until August 2006, the school was also the home to nuns of the Bernardine order, who gave up their home for the school, and a few gave up their time to teach. At the time of the foundation, the convent was right in the countryside, with nothing but fields separating it from Windsor Castle. -From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

The Manhattan Project began in late 1942, and along with it a secrecy project of unprecedented scope. The Kellogg Company was given more responsibility for gaseous diffusion research, as well as more funding and resources. Kellogg became the Kellex Corporation; 'X' stood for secret. Jun 4, 2014

www.atomicheritage.org › history › corporate-partners ▾

Corporate Partners | Atomic Heritage Foundation

Kellog Corporation was a major participant as well and is bolded here as a company and become the X part of the project.

> Diptych
>
> > A diptych is any object with two flat plates which form a pair, often attached by hinge. For example, the standard notebook and school exercise book of the ancient world was a diptych consisting of a pair of such plates that contained a recessed space filled with wax. - Wikipedia
>
> [image]

Some of his best known works include the silkscreen paintings Campbell's Soup Cans (1962) and Marilyn Diptych (1962), the experimental films Empire (1964) and Chelsea Girls (1966), and the multimedia events known as the Exploding Plastic Inevitable (1966-67).

In the late 1960s he managed and produced the experimental rock band The Velvet Underground and founded Interview magazine. He authored numerous books, including The Philosophy of Andy Warhol and Popism: The Warhol Sixties. He lived openly as a gay man before the gay liberation movement. In June 1968, he was almost killed by radical feminist Valerie Solanas who shot him inside his studio.[5]

After gallbladder surgery, Warhol died of cardiac arrhythmia in February 22, 1987 at the age of 58.

[image]

Empire is a 1964 American black-and-white silent art film by Andy Warhol. When projected according to Warhol's specifications, it consists of eight hours and five minutes of slow motion footage of an unchanging view of the Empire State Building. The film does not have conventional narrative or characters, and largely reduces the experience of cinema to the passing of time.[1]

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Is Jean Rosemary Shrimpton (born 7 November 1942) [4] is an English model and actress. She was an icon of Swinging London and is considered to be one of the world's first supermodel also a "factory girl", turned out in mass production as flavours of a single primordial soup? Edith Minturn Sedgwick Post (BORN April 20, 1943 - DIED November 16, 1971)

I think they have it wrong. #Empire #1962 ISN"T 8:05 minutes long. It is 8:04, August 4 - Edward Paul Donegan

"Pop Icon Andy Warhol Dies After Routine Surgery" ran the headline in The Houston Chronicle. Time magazine questioned how "the country's most famous pop artist dies in a prestigious big-city hospital after a rather routine gallbladder operation."

By Blake Gopnik MYT Feb. 21, 2017

DuPont Empire

Empire State Building retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The Empire State Building was financed primarily by Raskob and Pierre du Pont, while James Farley's General Builders Supply Corporation supplied the building materials.

From the outset the building was in debt, losing $1 million per year by 1935. Real estate developer Seymour Durst recalled that the building was so underused in 1936 that there was no elevator service above the 45th floor, as the building above the 41st floor was empty except for the NBC offices and the Raskob/Du Pont offices on the 81st floor.

The site was previously owned by John Jacob Astor of the prominent Astor family, who had owned the site since the mid-1820s. In 1893, John Jacob Astor Sr.'s grandson William Waldorf Astor opened the Waldorf Hotel on the site; four years later, his cousin, John Jacob Astor IV, opened the 16-story Astoria Hotel on an adjacent site. The two portions of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel had 1,300 bedrooms, making it the largest hotel in the world at the time. After the death of its founding proprietor, George Boldt, in early 1918, the hotel lease was purchased by Thomas Coleman du Pont. By the 1920s, the old Waldorf-Astoria was becoming dated and the elegant social life of New York had moved much farther north than 34th Street. The Astor family decided to build a replacement hotel further uptown,[30] and sold the hotel to Bethlehem Engineering Corporation in 1928 for $14-16 million. The hotel closed shortly thereafter, on May 3, 1929.

Bethlehem Engineering Corporation originally intended to build a 25-story office building on the Waldorf-Astoria site. The company's president, Floyd De L.

Brown, paid $100,000 of the $1 million down payment required to start construction on the building, with the promise that the difference would be paid later.[30] Brown borrowed $900,000 from a bank, but then defaulted on the loan.[40][41] After Brown was unable to secure additional funding,[38] the land was resold to Empire State Inc., a group of wealthy investors that included Louis G. Kaufman, Ellis P. Earle, John J. Raskob, Coleman du Pont, and Pierre S. du Pont.

The name came from the state nickname for New York. Alfred E. Smith, a former Governor of New York and U.S. presidential candidate whose 1928 campaign had been managed by Raskob,[44] was appointed head of the company. The group also purchased nearby land so they would have the 2 acres (1 ha) needed for the base, with the combined plot measuring 425 feet (130 m) wide by 200 feet (61 m) long.

The Empire State Inc. consortium was announced to the public in August 1929.

Sonny Bono was born in Detroit to Santo Bono (born in Montelepre, Palermo, Italy) and Zena “Jean” Bono (née DiMercurio).[2] His mother called him “Sono” as a term of endearment, which evolved over time into “Sonny”.

Sonny was the youngest of three siblings; he had two sisters, Fran and Betty.[2] The family moved to Inglewood, California, when he was seven, and his parents divorced soon afterward.

Bono decided early in life to become part of the music business, and began writing songs as a teenager.[5] “Koko Joe”, a song he wrote at age 16, was recorded by Don and Dewey in 1958, and later covered by several other artists including The Righteous Brothers.[6] Bono attended Inglewood High School, but did not graduate, opting to drop out so he could begin to pursue a career as a songwriter and performer.

Bono was married four times. He married his first wife, Donna Rankin, on November 3, 1954. Their daughter Christine ("Christy") was born on June 24, [not July 4] 1958. They divorced in 1962.

Ted Gunderson did not believe that Sonny Bono died in a skiing accident. Instead, Gunderson alleged that top officials linked to an international drug and weapons ring feared the singer-turned-politician was about to expose their crimes - so they had Sonny murdered on the ski slopes and staged the result as an accident.

Bono worked at a variety of jobs while trying to break into the music business, including waiter, truck driver, construction laborer, and butcher's helper.

Sunny Bono born February 16, stated that he was a Roman Catholic on all official documents, campaign materials and websites. He did also attend Scientology while asserting he was a Roman Catholic.

His wife Mary also took Scientology courses.[25][26]

However, after his death, Mary Bono stated that “Sonny did try to break away [from the Church of Scientology] at one point, and they made it very difficult for him.” The Church of Scientology said there was no estrangement from Bono. *

FBI agent claims Sonny Bono was murdered retrieved from NME and copied or modified to here

A former FBI agent has claimed that 1960s pop star Sonny Bono was assassinated.

New accusations emerge over Cher’s husband’s death

Ted Gunderson said that Cher‘s former husband was targeted in a politically-motivated assassination in January 1998.

However, Bono‘s autopsy concluded that he died of injuries sustained after crashing into a tree while skiing at the Heavenly Ski Resort in Nevada.

“It’s nonsense for anyone to now try to suggest that Bono died after crashing into a tree,” Gunderson told America‘s Globe.

“There’s zero evidence in this autopsy report to show such an accident happened. Instead, there’s powerful proof he was assassinated.

“This was an evil plot that was carried out to almost perfection by ruthless assassins.”

Gunderson said hitmen hired by top US officials moved in on him because Bono - a member of the US House Of Representatives - was believed to be about to expose an international drug and weapons ring.

His claims are reportedly backed by several top forensic experts.

Tabloid says ‘thugs’ killed Sonny Bono retrieved from Bradley Foster in the Daily Tahoe Tribune and copied or modified to here

High ranking official Sgt. Tim Minister, a detective for the Douglas County Sheriff’s Office, sat at his desk and laughed.

He had seen a headline in the Jan. 11 edition of The Globe, a weekly tabloid, claiming that Sonny Bono was murdered, when he died at Heavenly Ski Resort two years ago.

“I saw it, but I refused to buy it,” Minister said. “I was the first one there, so I know what really happened.”

Bono, an entertainer and a U.S. Congressman, died Jan. 5, 1998 of massive head injuries after skiing into a tree.

The Globe, however, claimed it received secret government files that suggest Bono was actually murdered by “two menacing thugs” employed by the Russian mafia.

“People shouldn’t believe anything they read in the Globe,” she added derisively.

Minister also scoffed at the Globe’s suggestion.

“It was very obvious that he lost control due to the excessive speed he was traveling and struck a tree,” he said. “That is what killed him.”

The Globe article said Bono was being chased when he hit the tree, and that he had become a target because of his efforts in the war on drugs.

"He was co-sponsor of the Methamphetamine Elimination Act of 1997 and bravely stood up to pushers like the ruthless Russian mob. Gangsters put a contract out on Sonny's life after they were unable to blackmail him into taking pressure off their growing empire," the story, written by Tom Kuncl, said.

The Globe ignored several requests for comment on the story.

Sonny continued to work with Cher through the early and mid-1970s, starring in a popular television variety show, The Sonny and Cher Comedy Hour, which ran on CBS from 1971 to 1974. From 1976 to 1977, the duo, since divorced, returned to perform together on The Sonny and Cher Show. Their last appearance together was on Late Night with David Letterman on November 13, 1987, on which they sang "I Got You Babe".

[image]

Salvatore Phillip "Sonny" Bono (/ˈboʊnoʊ/; February 16, 1935 - January 5, 1998) was an American singer-songwriter, producer, actor, and politician who came to fame in partnership with his second wife Cher as the popular singing duo Sonny & Cher. He was mayor of Palm Springs, California, from 1988 to 1992, and the Republican congressman for California's 44th district, elected during the Republican Revolution and serving from 1995 until his death in 1998.

Bono co-wrote "She Said Yeah",[citation needed] covered by The Rolling Stones on their 1965 LP December's Children

He became interested in Scientology and took Scientology courses partly because of the influence of Mimi Rogers, but stated that he was a Roman Catholic on all official documents, campaign materials and websites.[24] His wife Mary also took Scientology courses.[25][26] However, after his death, Mary Bono stated that “Sonny did try to break away [from the Church of Scientology] at one point, and they made it very difficult for him.” The Church of Scientology said there was no estrangement from Bono.[27]

Sonny Bono, the former singer and TV performer who was killed in a skiing accident Monday, revealed that he died of massive head injuries. Douglas County, Nevada, Sheriff Ron Pierini said at a news conference Tuesday that Bono’s death “was caused by massive head injuries due to blunt force trauma” from hitting a tree.

Corpus Christi Police Chief loyd Simpson suffers head injuries after death

Based on the forensic evidence coupled with evidence discovered during the autopsy, investigators concluded this impact resulted in a fatal neck injury to Chief Simpson.”

Investigators initially believed Simpson’s helmet became dislodged when he laid his motorcycle down in an evasive manor on the highway, and his head hitting the pavement killed him, according to the release. A witness later told police a bystander removed his helmet in an attempt to perform first aid before first responders arrived, the release states. The Nueces County Medical Examiner determined the head injury was suffered after Simpson’s death, according to the release.

Police do not believe speed or weather conditions were a factor in the crash. The boy told police he “lost focus and may have fallen asleep for approximately one to two seconds,” the release states.

CCPD chief dies on 361

Police: Simpson crashed motorcycle after pickup truck crossed centerline

May 07, 2015

Dan Parker
News editor

Clockwise from above: Corpus Christi Police Chief Floyd Simpson's motorcycle lies on State Hwy. 361; Port Aransas police Sgt. Clan Kelley and Cpl. Kelly Hansen study the accident scene; and law enforcement officials from the Texas Department of Safety and Port Aransas Police Department conduct the accident investigation.

Port Aransas police are continuing their investigation into a traffic accident that killed Corpus Christi Police Chief Floyd Simps on Sunday, May 3, on State Hwy. 361.

US Senator Timothy Peter Johnson (South Dakota politician) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Johnson was treated for prostate cancer in 2004 and further tests showed that he was clear of the disease.

On December 13, 2006, while in Washington, DC, during the broadcast of a live radio interview with WNAX radio, Johnson suffered bleeding in the brain caused by a cerebral arteriovenous malformation, a congenital defect that causes enlarged and tangled blood vessels. In critical condition, he underwent surgery at George Washington University Hospital to drain the blood and stop further bleeding.[32]

Johnson then underwent a lengthy regimen of physical, occupational, and speech therapy to regain strength and mobility and restore his severely affected speech.[33] In his 2007 State of the Union Address, President George W. Bush sent Johnson his best wishes.

Johnson was the only seated member of Congress to have a son or daughter serving in the active duty military when the Senate voted to approve the use of force in Iraq. Johnson's oldest son, Brooks, served in the Army's 101st Airborne Division, which would surely be mobilized to fight in Iraq.

Sightings #84. JIM WILHITE - Vice Chairman, Arkla, Inc. died: 12/21/92 - Died in a one-person skiing accident. - Wilhite had extensive ties with Clinton and Mack McLarty, with whom he visited by telephone just hours before his death.

> Robert Horan ©Robby12692 Jim Wilhite Vice President of Arkla, a gas company involved in the Hillary Clinton gas scandal. Which was a plan to overcharge citizens a total of $65 million.
>
> On December 12, 1992, he was killed in a skiing accident in the mountains. McLarty was the last person he spoke to.

Florence “Flo” Martin, 82, of Amarillo, passed away on Friday, November 13, 2020.

Funeral Service will be 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, November 18, 2020 at St. Paul United Methodist Church, 4317 West I-40, Amarillo, Texas. Burial will follow in Llano Cemetery. Arrangements are by Schooler Funeral Home, 4100 S. Georgia St, Amarillo, Texas 79110.

To view Florence’s full obituary, please visit www.schoolerfuneralhome.com

CIA Accountant? Do they euthanize themselves during pallaitive care for group commemoration?

Five Navy aviators Clinton bodyguards/escorts (names not determined) died: 3/26/93 - all died in a crash of an E-2C Hawkeye in Italy. The crash occurred shortly after the plane was “waved off” from a landing attempt on the Carrier Roosevelt, due to a “foul deck”.

All five men had been Clinton’s escorts during Clinton’s visit to the Roosevelt 2 weeks prior. Three other men, who had flown Clinton to the Roosevelt for that visit also died later in a helicopter crash.

Florence Martin - Accountant and subcontractor for the CIA, was related to the Barry Seal Mena Airport drug smuggling case. He died of three gunshot wounds.

23. DUANE GARRETT - Radio Host and Al Gore fund raiser. Died: 7/26/95 - A lawyer and a talk show host for KGO-AM in San Francisco, Duane was the campaign finance chairman for Diane Feinstein's run for the senate, and was a friend and fundraiser for Al Gore. According to Garrett's lawyer; Garrett was under investigation for defrauding investors in Garrett's failed sports memorabilia venture. There was talk of a deal to evade prosecution. On July 26th, Garrett canceled an afternoon meeting with his lawyer because he had to meet some people at the S.F airport. Three hours later he was found floating in the bay under the Golden Gate Bridge.

"I think he really made his name in 1982, when he became finance chairman for Bradley's campaign for governor. He also ran Boxer's first campaign in 1982, and Phil Burton's last campaign."

June 20, 2013 ashington, D.C.

U.S. Senators Tim Johnson and John Thune announced today that legislation to facilitate construction of a visitor center at the Minuteman Missile National Historic Site was unanimously approved by the Senate. Johnson and Thune's legislation would transfer approximately 29 acres of National Forest Service land to the National Park Service to construct a visitor facility and provide parking. The legislation now heads to the House of Representatives for consideration.

https://www.thune.senate.gov/

[image] [image]

The Minuteman Missile National Historic Site is an American national historic site established in 1999 near Wall, South Dakota to illustrate the history and significance of the Cold War, the arms race, and intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) development. The site preserves the last intact Minuteman II ICBM system in the United States, in a disarmed and demilitarized status. Guided tours are available of the underground Launch Control Center, and a missile silo can be observed from above. 450 of the newer Minuteman III missiles are still on active duty at Malmstrom AFB, Montana, Minot AFB, North Dakota, and F. E. Warren AFB ,a United States Air Force base located approximately 3 miles west of Cheyenne/ Aurora.

https://www.nps.gov/mimi/planyourvisit/visiting-launch-facility-missile-silo-delta-09.htm The Delta-09 Missile Silo

From 1963 until the early 1990s, the missile silo at Delta-09 contained a fully operational Minuteman Missile, bearing a 1.2 megaton nuclear warhead. The Delta-09 missile silo was one of 150 spread across western South Dakota. In total there were 1,000 Minuteman missiles deployed from the 1960's into the early 1990's. Visitors can now tour the site daily.

This National Historic Site consists of three facilities: a visitor center and two significant Cold War-era sites, a launch control center and a missile silo/launch facility, formerly operated by the 66th Strategic Missile Squadron of the 44th Strategic Missile Wing, headquartered at Ellsworth Air Force Base in Box Elder, near Rapid City. The facilities represent the only remaining intact components of a nuclear missile field that once consisted of 150 Minuteman II missiles, 15 launch-control centers, and covered over 13,500 square miles (34,964.8 km2) of southwestern South Dakota.[4]

Wounded Knee South Dakota Feb 21 1973 Massacre 150 Indian Villagers Dead at 10 year aniversy of Minute Man II silos

---

Every presidency can be seen as a series of words. Which is why we decided to read through hundreds of thousands of the words of Barack Obama-who was a writer, in practice and disposition, long before he was the 44th president of the United States. What does he think of his job? Yes we can, Obama said when he ran. But not overnight, he was quick to add after he won. Change is hard. Just look at these 101 things he's said since 2006, from his glossy sense of what his presence in the Oval Office could mean to what turned out to be a much more constrained, less soaring reality. Here is the arc of Obama.

Blame it on Dexter. David started his career as an Amway salesman, then joined his father-in-law's insurance company, Northwestern Mutual Life. At one time, David also served as chairman of West Side Christian School, where Sandra coached girls volleyball.

It's not clear exactly when trouble started brewing for the Duysts, but on Nov. 19, 1998, a severely wounded, bleeding Sandra crawled to a neighbor's house for help, explaining that her horse Dexter had kicked her in the head while she was trying to feed him.

She would survive her injuries, but suffered from mood swings and depression afterward, according to people who knew her well.

Her personal physician, James Veldkamp, would later testify that she improved after he prescribed Paxil for her.

In 1999, she and one of her horses placed in the Top 5 at the All-American Quarter Horse Congress in Columbus, Ohio.

But on March 29, 2000, David Duyst called 911 and said his wife had committed suicide in her bedroom and was dead.

Kent County Detective Sgt. Chet Bush made the following comment

“I had a lot of problems with someone Kent County Detective Sgt. Chet Bush made the following comment,

“I had a lot of problems with someone shooting themselves in the head twice. “We were suspicious at that point. We wanted more evidence, and it takes time to do that.”shooting themselves in the head twice.

“We were suspicious at that point. We wanted more evidence, and it takes time to do that.”

alex Jones : Prison Planet | December 18 2004

https://forensicfilesnow.com/index.php/2019/06/21/sandra-duyst-death-of-a-horsewoman/

[image]

> Cabal
>
> A cabal is a group of people who are united in some close design, usually to promote their private views or interests in an ideology, a state, or another community, often by intrigue and usually unbeknownst to those who are outside their group. Wikipedia
>
> Consider Octopus tentacles, alliances, cartels, mafia groups, gangs, etc., Octopuses have 9 brains because, in addition to the central brain, each of 8 arms has a mini-brain that allows it to act independently. Octopuses have blue blood because they have adapted to cold, low oxygen water by using hemocyanin, a copper rich protein

Profile: Robert Booth Nichols

http://www.historycommons.org/ *

Around August 3, 1991: Journalist Investigating Inslaw Affair Talks to Former Justice Department Prosecutor

Daniel Casolaro, a journalist investigating the Inslaw affair and matters he believes to be related, calls Richard Stavin, a former Department of Justice Organized Crime Strike Force prosecutor, to discuss his research into the matter. In a sworn statement to the House Judiciary Committee, Stavin will later say: "He spoke to me about Inslaw. He spoke to me about a group he called the Octopus. I believe he mentioned Robert Nichols [an important source for Casolaro's research], and possibly also John Phillip Nichols, in this conversation, and was extremely interested, intrigued, and frustrated in his inability to get a grasp on what he called the Octopus. He had indicated that he had met with-again I believe it was Robert Nichols on several occasions, that Robert Nichols was extremely talkative to a point, but when Mr. Casolaro would ask specific questions, he [Nichols] would become somewhat evasive."

[US CONGRESS, 9/10/1992]

Entity Tags: Daniel Casolaro, Robert Booth Nichols, Richard Stavin Timeline Tags: Inslaw and PROMIS

Joseph Daniel Casolaro was an American freelance writer who came to public attention in 1991 when he was found dead in a bathtub in room 517 of the Sheraton Hotel in Martinsburg, West Virginia, his wrists slashed 10 - 12 times. The medical examiner ruled the death a suicide." From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Danny Casolaro had confided to pals that he had the real stuff on PROMIS, the CIA's OCTUPUS, MENA and how Clinton had worked for Bush and Reagan and Casey, the NSC and all those people hiding under the White House." https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

> Sitcoms Online Message Boards - Forums > Unsolved Mysteries > Military Man at Danny Casolaro's Funeral
>
> RobinW *
>
> At Casolaro's funeral, an African-American man in a military uniform showed up, put a medal on Casolaro's casket and saluted before walking away. After the funeral, Danny's family and friends discussed this and realized that none of them had the slightest idea who this guy was. What's even stranger is that Casolaro never actually served in the military, so the gesture of placing a medal on his casket doesn't make much sense.
>
> I guess the obvious answer to this mystery is that the military man was a confidential informant on the "Octopus" story that Casolaro was working on, and that this gesture was his way of paying respect to Danny dying in the line of duty while trying to do the right thing. His actions resemble that of a man who's bothered by his conscience.

> However, if this guy was secretly working with Casolaro trying to uncover the conspiracy, he's taking a huge risk by coming to the funeral in front of all those people

Colin Powell?

William Pellham Barr destroyed the files on all of this.

Gary Webb

December 13, 2004 1400 PDT (FTW) - Gary Webb, 49, the Pulitzer Prize winning reporter from the San Jose Mercury News made America hold its breath in 1996 when he showed us proof of direct CIA involvement in drug trafficking. For a few months many of us had hope.

He reportedly died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head two days ago. His body was discovered at 8:20 AM Saturday as movers reportedly found a note on the door of his residence asking them not to enter but to call for paramedics.

Webb's August 1996 series Dark Alliance for the San Jose Mercury News pulled deep covers away from US covert operations and American denial about connections between the CIA and drugs. Gary left a bigger historical footprint than anyone who has ever touched the subject including among others, Peter Dale Scott, Alfred McCoy, Jonathan Kwitny and me.

> This Is the Real Story Behind Kill The Messenger

[image]

https://time.com/ BY ELIANA DOCKTERMAN OCTOBER 10, 2014 12:00 PM EDT *

In a scene from the new movie Kill the Messenger, investigative reporter Gary Webb (played by Jeremy Renner) says that he doesn't believe in conspiracy theories. He does, however, believe in real conspiracies: "If I believe it, there's nothing 'theory' about it." The true story on which the movie is based, however, makes it clear that it's not always obvious what's a theory and what's the truth.

1966 Palomares B-52 crash retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The 1966 Palomares B-52 crash, also called the Palomares incident, occurred on 17 January 1966, when a B-52G bomber of the United States Air Force's Strategic Air Command collided with a KC-135 tanker during mid-air refueling at 31,000 feet (9,450 m) over the Mediterranean Sea, off the coast of Spain. The KC-135 was destroyed when its fuel load ignited, killing all four crew members. The B-52G broke apart, killing three of the seven crew members aboard.

At the time of the accident, the B-52G was carrying four B28FI Mod 2 Y1 thermonuclear (hydrogen) bombs, all of which fell to the surface. Three were found on land near the small fishing village of Palomares in the municipality of Cuevas del Almanzora, Almería, Spain. The non-nuclear explosives in two of the weapons detonated upon impact with the ground, resulting in the contamination of a 0.77-square-mile (2 km2) area with radioactive plutonium. The fourth, which fell into the Mediterranean Sea, was recovered intact after a search lasting two and a half months.

Murder of Cheri Jo Bate retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The murder of Cheri Jo Bates is an unsolved murder that occurred in Riverside, California, on October 30, 1966. Bates, an 18-year-old college freshman, was stabbed and slashed to death on the grounds of Riverside City College. Police determined the assailant had disabled the ignition coil wire and distributor of Bates's Volkswagen Beetle[4] as a method to lure her from her car as she studied in the college library. The murder itself remains one of Riverside's most infamous cold cases and has been described by some locals as a murder which "stripped Riverside of its innocence".

Bates's murder became highly publicized due to both the graphic nature of her death and the fact she is considered by some investigators to have been the first murder victim of the Zodiac Killer, although this theory has never been definitively confirmed.

"He [the Zodiac Killer] is obsessed and pathologically preoccupied with intense hatred against female figures- all the more so if he sees the young woman as attractive. Because of his own unconscious feelings of inadequacy, he is not likely to act out his feelings sexually, but in fantasy, as a rule. The fantasy can take on aggressive aspects … I would like to emphasize that there is a real possibility that he can become homicidal again."

- Evaluation of the mindset of the murderer of Cheri Jo Bates, written by the Chief Psychologist of Patton State Hospital. July 1967.

Bates was found sprawled face down on a gravel path between two unoccupied houses on Terracina Drive, close to the library parking lot where she had parked her Beetle the previous evening. She was still dressed in a long-sleeve pale yellow print blouse and faded red capri pants and her woven straw bag-containing both her identification and 56 cents-lay alongside her body. Her clothing was undisturbed but was saturated in blood. She had been repeatedly stabbed in the chest and left shoulder, and suffered several deep slash wounds to her face and neck.

Ten feet from Bates's body, investigators discovered a cheap, paint-spattered Timex brand wristwatch with a seven-inch circumference along with a footprint of a shoe produced by Leavenworth prisoners sold solely in military outlets. The shoe size was between eight and ten inches.[2] Although only 5 ft 3 in (1.60 m) in height, Bates had been an athletic woman. Both an examination of the crime scene and Bates's subsequent autopsy revealed ample evidence of a ferocious physical struggle between Bates and her murderer; she having evidently scratched her assailant's arms, face and head and torn off his wristwatch.

An autopsy revealed Bates had been repeatedly kicked in the head in addition to having received two stab wounds to her chest inflicted by a knife estimated to be one-and-a-half-inches wide and three-and-a-half-inches in length. Her left cheek, upper lip, hands and arms had also been cut, with three slash wounds to her throat having severed her jugular vein and larynx and almost decapitating her. Bates had evidently lain upon the ground when she had received the knife wounds to her left shoulder blade and neck. Furthermore, she had not been subjected to any form of sexual assault or robbery within this attack. Numerous fragments of skin and brown hair were also > recovered from beneath the fingernails of her right hand; this evidence having evidently been collected beneath her nails as she clawed at her assailant in a desperate effort to defend herself. The ground surrounding her body was described in her official autopsy report as “looking like a freshly plowed field.

… the preschool site, acquired by Virginia McMartin in 1966, had been a horse stable and was inhabited by all sorts of farm animals. The presence of bones, he said, “should surprise no one. My understanding is all sorts of animals were buried there, as well as trash and other debris. There were outhouses all over that property.” LA Times *

ollowing the family tradition, Bush attended Yale University, graduating in 1948. His membership in the Skull and Bones secret society there later became an issue that his critics used as evidence of elitism. Rejecting a position in his father’s firm, he moved with his young family to Texas and became a salesman of oil field supplies. He cofounded the Bush-Overbey Oil Development Company (1951), the Zapata Petroleum Corporation (1953), and the Zapata Off-Shore Company (1954).

In 1959 he became active in the Republican Party in Houston. After losing a campaign for the U.S. Senate to Democrat Ralph Yarborough in 1964, Bush was elected in 1966 to a safely Republican seat in the U.S. House of Representatives. He gave up the seat in 1970 to run again for the Senate. He was defeated again, this time by Democrat Lloyd Bentsen, Jr. Shortly after his defeat, Bush was appointed by Pres. Richard M. Nixon to serve as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations (UN; 1971-72)

Isrealite (Black Hebrew, British, Islreal United in Christ (People of Color Tribes of Christ) British Israelism (also called Anglo-Israelism) is the pseudoarchaeological belief that the people of the British Isles are “genetically, racially, and linguistically the direct descendants” of the Ten Lost Tribes of ancient Israel [and their lost to history line of Kings]. With roots in the 16th century, British Israelism was inspired by several 19th century English writings such as John Wilson's 1840 Our Israelitish Origin. Numerous British Israelite organisations were set up throughout the British Empire as well as in the United States from the 1870s onwards; a number of these organisations are independently active as of the early 21st century. In America, the idea gave rise to the Christian Identity movement.

Later in 1974, Pres. Gerald R. Ford, who had nominated Nelson Rockefeller as his vice president, named a disappointed Bush chief of the U.S. Liaison Office in Beijing-which was then the senior U.S. representative in China, because relations between the two countries did not permit the exchange of ambassadors. He served in this capacity until he was asked to head the Central Intelligence Agency in 1976. As CIA director, Bush took steps to ensure that the agency's activities did not exceed congressional authorization. When Jimmy Carter took office in 1977, Bush resigned and returned to Texas, where in 1979 he announced his candidacy for president. *

The central tenets of British Israelism have been refuted by evidence from modern archaeological, ethnological, genetic, and linguistic research.

John Wilson (8 June1799, Kilmarnock district, Scotland - 22 January 1870, Brighton, England) was one of the ideological architects of the British Israelite movement, along with Edward Wheler Bird and Edward Hine.

[image]

The signed letter r h could Red Hat Salvation Army

To break the 340 cypher movie like like Knight in the set of squares. solved by several experts here on YouTube

Compared to other chess pieces, the knight's movement is unique: it may move two squares vertically and one square horizontally, or two squares horizontally and one square vertically (with both forming the shape of an L)

[image]

[image]

Eliza Tibbets (born Eliza Maria Lovell; 1823-1898) was among early American settlers and founders of Riverside, California; she was an activist in Washington, D.C., for progressive social causes, including freedmen's rights and universal suffrage before going to the West Coast. A spiritualist, she led seances in Riverside. She became known for successfully growing the first two hybrid Washington navel orange trees in California.

Compared to other chess pieces, the knight's movement is unique: it may move two squares vertically and one square horizontally, or two squares horizontally and one square vertically (with both forming the shape of an L)

A Knightly Encryption. Bishop and Knight Checkmate (also called the Bishop Knight Endgame) can bring down an opposing king using the pieces of Bishops and Knights. This differs from Bishop Bishop and other engames in the the Knight plays a key role on the capture of the opposing King. KBE.

A KBE (Knight of the Order of the British Empire) is a decoration symbolising the second highest rank in The Most Excellent Order of the British Empire. This medal is awarded to service personnel in recognition of outstanding public service.

Order of the British Empire · Knight/Dame Grand Cross (GBE) · Knight/Dame Commander (KBE/DBE) · Commander (CBE) · Officer (OBE) · Member (MBE).

On December 18th 2021, the Zodiac Speaking podcast will be releasing an interview with Jo Anne Goettsche, former roommate of Donna Lass at 4122 Balboa Street in San Francisco. It is approximately 55 minutes running time.

Interviewed by Mike Morford, she talks frankly about her recollections of Donna Lass and the relevant time period before and after September 6th 1970, having traveled to South Lake Tahoe the day of her disappearance to spend a couple of days sightseeing with Donna. Unfortunately, that meeting never transpired, and Donna Lass was never seen again. We will also discuss a private investigator's report, provided to the family of Donna Lass by the investigator they hired. The season finishing podcast should be an interesting listen of about 90-120 minutes. So don't forget to tune in on December 18th from classes and spend the day partying instead. Eighteen-year-old Robert Domingos and his seventeen-year-old girlfriend Linda Edwards where just two of the many participating students.

Santa Barbara June 4Zodiac Killing Robert Domingos and his seventeen-year-old girlfriend Linda Edwards June 4th, 1963 was Senior Ditch Day at Lompoc High School. It was a day which traditionally saw those in the senior year take a day off

Instead of attending one of the gatherings arranged, Robert Domingos and Linda Edwards decided they would rather spend the day together in a more intimate setting. Originally they had planned to head to the beach with another young couple, however, when that couple had to cancel those plans Robert and Linda went on alone.

The young lovers drove down to Gaviota Beach near Santa Barbara in Robert's 1957 Pontiac. He parked the car near some bushes just off Highway 101 and then the couple hiked down the short trail leading to a secluded spot of the beach. Sadly, the two teenagers would never make it home.

he following morning both the teenagers were reported missing. During the search, a friend remembered that Robert and Linda had previously mentioned spending time together at Gaviota Beach. Upon arrival in the area, Robert Domingos dad George Domingos spotted his son's 1957 Pontiac parked along Highway 101. During a further search of the area, a Highway Patrolman named Paul Schultz came across a shack. On entering Schultz discovered the bodies of Robert Domingos and Linda Edwards.

Vallejo 1969 Twenty-two-year-old Darlene Ferrin was a wife, mother and a popular waitress at a Vallejo restaurant. On the night of July 4, she picked up friend Michael Mageau and stopped her Corvair in the parking lot of Blue Rock Springs Park. Michael later told police that another vehicle pulled into the lot around midnight and then left only to return minutes later. The driver got out of the car, shined a bright light and fired into the Corvair with a 9mm handgun.

OAN Sits Down With Former FBI Agent Over Death Of Clinton Investigator

Paul Stine

Targeted Atomic Veteran #Havanasyndromevictim https://twitter.com/EddoneganB https://Eliana Dockterman twitter.com/edockterman *

#GaryWebb murder is tied to my family murder of family, the Cartel (Dark Web, Cabal, Collusion among Nations and Private Business Firms) is using global NWO medicine in for profit rackets, to #CIA blunders, JFK murder, Manchurian Candidate https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TheMedicalState.epub

[image]

Born and raised in Tucson, Arizona, Gabrielle Dee Giffords graduated from Scripps College and Cornell University. After initially moving to New York City, where she worked in regional economic development for Price Waterhouse, Giffords returned to Arizona to work as the CEO of El Campo Tire Warehouses, a family business started by her grandfather. She served in the Arizona House of Representatives from 2001 until 2003 and the Arizona Senate from 2003 until 2005 when she was elected to the U.S. House. Giffords had just begun her third term in January 2011 when she was shot in the head in an assassination attempt and mass shooting just outside of Tucson during an event with constituents.

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

The East Africa Research Fund (EARF) retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

The East Africa Research Fund (EARF) was a regional funding mechanism designed to procure and manage a portfolio of research projects under the East Africa Research Hub (EARH) of the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO). Established in 2013 and managed by PricewaterhouseCoopers (PWC), the EARF covered Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Rwanda, Ethiopia, Somalia, Sudan, and South Sudan. Through competitive procurement and award of research, the Fund supported effective policies and programmes on key issues in the region. Priority regional research areas included: …

This book

DARPA, Project Pegasus, DARPA and the Brain, and the #WETWORKS hashtag

Me and Thomas “Neil [Armstrong] Donegan are part of #ManhattanProject victims, born into it, destroyed by it, pawns of it. AS is the USA as it planned #Statebacked moles for presidents

“Run play Pegassus-44”

Time Travel: DARPA Forward Looking. Plan. See the Future. Build the Future. Mars, d Venus, beyond. Pegasus

Pegasus Mythical creature Google knowledge panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Pegasus is a mythical winged divine horse, and one of the most recognized creatures in Greek mythology. Usually depicted as pure white, Pegasus is the offspring of the Olympian god Poseidon. He was foaled by the Gorgon Medusa upon her death, when the hero Perseus decapitated her. Wikipedia

Andrew D. Basiago, DARPA Future Battle retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Introduction

Tonight, in a major disclosure event, the US time travel cover-up ends, as one of America's early time-space explorers steps forward to reveal what he experienced and what he learned during the early years of time travel research and development by the United States government.

Our guest, Andrew D. Basiago, lawyer, writer, Mars researcher, and planetary whistle blower, brings his truth campaign to Coast-to-Coast AM, as he relates his childhood experiences in DARPA's Project Pegasus, and shares with us the true history of the US time-space program.

Stay tuned, as tonight, we go in search of the past and the future, and discuss Project Pegasus, the real Philadelphia Experiment!

Biography

Andrew D. Basiago is a lawyer in private practice

- in Washington State USA, a writer, and
- a 21st century visionary.

He holds five academic degrees, including a BA in History from Universisty of California Los Agneles and a Master of Philosophy from the University of Cambridge.

The University of Cambridge is a collegiate research university in Cambridge, United Kingdom. Founded in 1209 and granted a royal charter by King Henry III in 1231, Cambridge is the second-oldest university in the English-speaking world and the world's fourth-oldest surviving university. Wikipedia

Andy is an emerging figure in the Truth Movement, who is leading a campaign to lobby the United States government to disclose such controversial truths as the fact that Mars harbors life and that the United States has achieved "quantum access" to past and future events.

Project Pegasus Revealed DARPA Project Pegasus

According to Basiago, between [April] 1962 -'72 the U.S. government ran a clandestine operation called Project Pegasus. The program led to the successful development of a number of highly advanced technologies allowing for teleportation, physical time travel, and holographic time travel. He claims the program was run jointly by the CIA and DARPA, and was used to contact former presidents and create [Sleepers for foreign govs, Moles in the USA], teleport to Mars, and maintain a rapport with extraterrestrials [The Illuminati].

Beginning when he was just a child, Basiago was selected from a group of psychically gifted children to become a time traveling liaison who would go on to meet historical and future dignitaries, as well as various extraterrestrial entities.

Basiago says his father had previously worked for the Ralph M. Parsons Engineering Corporation, where he helped develop the technology.

When Basiago was brought to participate in his first "jump," he says his father had already been time traveling for years at the Curtiss-Wright corporation in New Jersey. It was here where he was first exposed to the portal he would later use to teleport through time and space.

The Obama-Mars Connection:

Unraveling the Soetoro-Obama Deception

slideshare.net/exouniversity/manchurian-candidate-barack-hussein-obama

etworking | News | Dropbox | tucc | Complain | WETWORKS | Porn | MKULTRA

slideshare | Search

Explore

Clip

The Obama-Mars Connection:

Unraveling the Soetoro-Obama Deception

STATUS REPORT

CIA - Donald Barr
William Barr

1971 - A key nexus point in the Soetoro/Obama deception occurs in 1971, wher "Barack Hussein Obama" is pre-identified via DARPA time travel as 44th U.S President, sworn in on Jan. 1, 2009. Stanley Ann Dunham is directed by CIA handlers to arrange paternity agreement with Barack Obama Sr. in Honolulu.

1980 – Barry Soetoro and Stanley Ann Dunham participate in secret CIA jump roc training program with Andrew D. Basiago and William Brett Stillings. Stanley Anr Dunham reveals Barry Soetoro's identity as a future U.S. president to Andy.

1982 – Under CIA instructions, Soetoro/Obama changes assumed name Barak Mounir Ubayd to Barack Hussein Obama in Skookumchuk, B.C. on Oct. 14, 1982. Soetoro/Obama meets Andrew D. Basiago in Los Angeles and introduces self as "Barack Hussein Obama", while friend identifies him as future U.S. president.

From *

Wikipedia excerpted which has been sourced from link

Of the claims that Freemasonry exerts control over politics, perhaps the best-known example is the New World Order theory, but there are others. These mainly involve aspects and agencies of the United States government, but actual events outside the US (such as the Propaganda Due scandal in Italy) are often used to lend credence to claims.

Another set of theories has to do with Freemasonry and Religion, particularly that Freemasonry deals with “the occult”.[8] These theories have their beginnings in the Taxil hoax.[9][10] In addition to these, there are various theories that focus on the embedding of symbols in otherwise ordinary items, such as street patterns, national seals, corporate logos, etc.

There are Masonic conspiracy theories dealing with every aspect of society. The majority of these theories are based on one or more of the following assumptions:

- That Freemasonry is its own religion, requires belief in a unique Masonic god, and that belief in this Masonic god is contrary to the teachings of various mainstream religions (although usually noted in terms of being specifically contrary to Christian belief)[11]

- That the 33rd degree of the Scottish Rite is more than an honorary degree, coupled with the belief that most Freemasons are unaware of hidden or secretive ruling bodies within their organization that govern them, conduct occult ritual, or control various positions of governmental power[12]

- That there is a centralized worldwide body that controls all Masonic Grand Lodges, and thus, all of Freemasonry worldwide acts in a unified manner.

Questions surrounded the timing and handling of the Scalia death.*.

From Brobible

Big, big, big day for those of you who believe the world is run by a cabal of elites, be it the Free Masons, Illuminati, or New World Order.

One of the most powerful men on the planet, Antonin Scalia, was at a meeting for a secret society when he unexpectedly passed away earlier this month.

The Washington Post has the scoop. The hunting trip Scalia went on was with the International Order of St. Hubertus, an Austrian secret society that began in the 1600s and was instrumental in the assassination of archduke Franz Ferdinand in June of 1914 (citation needed on that last fact).

> When Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia died 12 days ago at a West Texas ranch, he was among high-ranking members of an exclusive fraternity for hunters called the International Order of St. Hubertus, an Austrian society that dates back to the 1600s.
>
> After Scalia's death Feb. 13, the names of the 35 other guests at the remote resort, along with details about Scalia's connection to the hunters, have remained largely unknown. A review of public records shows that some of the men who were with Scalia at the ranch are connected through the International Order of St. Hubertus, whose members gathered at least once before at the same ranch for a celebratory weekend.

The group is an all-male society (of course), who wear green robes with a Latin inscription on them that reads "Honoring God by honoring His creatures."

Employing DuPont employees as assets to the CIA

Obituary for Mrs. Doris Gandy Dew

Bishopville, SC

A celebration of life for Mrs. Doris “Dot” Gandy Dew, 85, who died peacefully on Friday, June 23, 2017 will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 28, 2017 at Hephzibah Bible Church. Mrs. Dew, widow of Herbert O. Dew was born in Darlington Co., SC, to the late Clarence Festus and Lily Grace Gainey Gandy. Dot loved the South Carolina Gamecocks and the Atlanta Braves. She also loved to work in her flower garden and especially loved her family.

Drawing from my earlier book US V EPDII on Justice Scalia

Justice Scalia rejects defacto reliance on findings from geneticists or other scientists

> Bazelon also claims that Scalia “contradicted scientific consensus when he declared it ‘very likely’ that the death penalty deters murder.” But beyond her unscientific conflation of hard science and social science, she flatly misrepresents the National Research Council report that she cites for that supposed consensus. That report concludes that “research to date on the effect of capital punishment on homicide is not informative” on the deterrence question. In short, it denies the existence of any consensus. Scalia was modest about his own scientific knowledge and doubtful of the mastery that his judicial colleagues and other non-scientists claimed to have. That displayed a respect for science, not a hostility to, or skepticism of, it. Sincerely, Ed Whelan P.S. disclosure: I am a former law clerk to Justice Scalia.
>
> Read more at: http://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/443763/new-york-times-bazelon-scalia-smear Justice Scalia rejects “Known science” as being immune from legal scrutiny.

> I join the judgment of the Court, and all of its opinion except Part I-A and some portions of the rest of the opinion going into fine details of molecular biology.
>
> I am unable to affirm those details on my own knowledge or even my own belief. It suffices for me to affirm, having studied the opinions below and the expert briefs presented here, that the portion of DNA isolated from its natural state sought to be patented is identical to that portion of the DNA in its natural state; and that complementary DNA (cDNA) is a synthetic creation not normally present in nature.

Criticism of Justsice Scalia in the media is widespread as the Supreme Court Associate Justice publicly questions Affrirmative Action for African American applicants

---

Justice Scalia doubts the most routine of black applicants are well suited to Universityh of Texas at Austin

Justice Scalia references Mismatch Theory Amicus Brief in

Fisher affirmative action case

Scalia: “There are those who contend that it does not benefit African-Americans to get them into the University of Texas where they do not do well, as opposed to having them go to a less-advanced school, a less - a slower-track school where they do well. One of the briefs pointed out that most of the black scientists in this country don’t come from schools like the University of Texas. They come from lesser schools where they do not feel that they’re being pushed ahead in classes that are too fast for them.”

I’m just not impressed by the fact that the University of Texas may have fewer. Maybe it ought to have fewer.

Scalia has a long track record of distrust of science taken as fact by the Court or its justices.

MARK JOSEPH STERN
Mark Joseph Stern is a writer for Slate. He covers the law and LGBTQ issues.

But sometimes his caustic bluntness isn’t just about furthering his own originalist legal philosophy. Sometimes, he’s merely telling the truth. That was the case in Thursday’s opinion in Association for Molecular Pathology v. Myriad Genetics, Inc., better known as the DNA patenting case. The case involves some complex science with which the justices clearly struggled. During oral arguments, they tried, and failed, to draw lucid analogies to rainforest plants, baseball bats, and chocolate-chip cookies. (At one point, Justice Stephen Breyer asked a question involving the scientific record, only to concede that “I probably misread it.”)

Today, the court ruled unanimously that natural genes cannot be patented-a decision that will likely help breast and ovarian cancer patients as well as cancer researchers (and biotechnology firms). Behind that unanimity, however, lay a small crack: Scalia, as is his wont, concurred only in part, adding a brief but telling qualification to his vote.

"I join the judgment of the Court," he wrote, "except [the portions] going into fine details of molecular biology. I am unable to affirm those details on my own knowledge or even my own belief."

Scalia, in other words, doesn't really understand the scientific basis of the case. And-unlike, implicitly, some of the other justices-he's not going to pretend to.

To Scalia's credit, the science in Myriad is convoluted, especially for someone who hasn't taken biology in decades. Justice Clarence Thomas, who wrote the majority opinion, takes an admirable stab at elucidating it at the outset, explaining the basics of genes, chromosomes, and "the familiar 'double helix.' " He even expounds upon nucleotides for a time, penning what must be the most esoteric sentence in the court's modern history: "[T]he nucleotide cross-bars are chemically connected to a sugar-phosphate backbone." (One suspects Thomas was less than enthused to be assigned this case.)

In asking such a pointed question, Mr. Scalia was stepping into a long debate over what has been called the mismatch theory of college admissions.

The proponents of the "mismatch effect" say that large allowances based on a student's race are harmful to those who receive them, that they learn less than they would if they attended a college more closely matched to their level of academic preparation, receive lower grades, become academically discouraged and socially segregated. Critics say that the "mismatch" research is based on flawed assumptions that cannot be validated by other researchers, and that the evidence is more likely to show that all students, regardless of race, benefit from enrolling at the most challenging college that will accept them.

Oral arguments, the text below copied from Wikipedia

On October 10, 2012, the Supreme Court heard oral arguments in the case. Bert Rein represented the petitioner, Gregory G. Garre, a former Solicitor General, represented the respondent, the university,[21] and Solicitor General Donald Verrilli, Jr., presented the government's stance in support of the respondent.

During the beginning of the petitioner's argument, Justices Sotomayor and Ginsburg asked questions about whether the case was moot. Specifically, they were concerned with the university's arguments that Fisher would not have earned admission regardless of her race, that she had already graduated from college, and that she only named the $100 application fee as real damages. Scalia commented that the harm of racial discrimination alone created an active controversy under the Court's previous Equal Protection jurisprudence.

Justices Scalia, Alito, and Roberts asked many questions about the definition of a "critical mass", which Grutter named as the central measure of diversity. Scalia started calling it a "critical cloud" after the university's lawyer failed, upon multiple requests, to define the central measure of diversity.[23] Chief Justice Roberts asked whether an applicant who was one-quarter or one-eighth Latino would be permitted by the University to check the "Latino" box.[23] Garre responded that the applicant was entitled to self-identify as any race, subject to discipline under the university's honor code, and that the University did not ever question that determination.

Legal analysts concurred that the process of oral argument indicated that a majority of the justices disliked the university's position.24

My Brain Your Brain Our Brain

I had a huge dispute with this lasting and several FOIA arrests that brain size was increasing in oost South African life. Dr. Bruce Lahan noticed in the history of civilization the major advancements followed brain complexity and size genes, Sub Saharan Africa evolutionary path, and during that migration this genes overlays with civilization advances.

Mu understanding of The History of Western Civilization taught at Head Royce and a time line of history teach ing system matched his theories of those genes exactly.

I had cited Dr. Bruce Lahan University of Chicago, Max Plank Institute, University of Chicago, Howard Hughes Medical Isntitute (Seatle) Researcher.

Human evolution, University of Chicago researchers report, is still under way in what has become our most important organ: the brain.

In two related papers, published in the September 9, 2005, issue of Science, they show that two genes linked to brain size are rapidly evolving in humans.

- University of Chicago researchers find human brain still evolving September 7, 2004

- University of Chicago researchers find human brain still evolving September 8, 2005

University of Chicago Medicine: researchers find human brain still evolving *

"Our studies indicate that the trend that is the defining characteristic of human evolution-e - growth of brain size and complexity - is likely still going on," said lead researcher for both papers Bruce Lahn, Assistant Professor in Human Genetics and an investigator in the Howard Hughes Medical Institute.

"Meanwhile, our environment and the skills we need to survive in it are changing faster then we ever imagined. I would expect the human brain, which has done well by us so far, would continue to adapt to those changes." Evolution, Lahn said, does not occur at the species level. Rather, some individuals first acquire a specific genetic mutation, and, because that variant confers on those who bear it a greater likelihood of survival, it then spreads in the population.

These time windows are extraordinarily short in evolutionary terms, indicating that the new variants were subject to very intense selection pressure that drove up their frequencies in a very brief period of time - both well after the emergence of modern humans about 200,000 years ago. Each variant emerged around the same time as the advent of "cultural" behaviors. The microcephalin variant appears along with the emergence of such traits as art and music, religious practices and sophisticated tool-making techniques, which date back to about 50,000 years ago. The ASPM variant coincides with the oldest-known civilization, Mesopotamia, which dates back to 7000 BC.

The team also observed geographic differences. For haplogroup D of ASPM, they found that it occurs more frequently in Europeans and surrounding populations, including North Africans, Middle Easterners and South Asians, and at a lower incidence in East Asians, New World Indians and sub-Saharan Africans. For microcephalin, the researchers found that haplogroup D is more abundant in populations outside of sub-Saharan Africa.

> Science News article Date: June 18, 2020 Source: Max Planck , Gesellschaft
>
> Human brain size gene triggers bigger brain in monkey fetus Date: June 18, 2020 Source:Max-Planck-Gesellschaft
>
> Summary: A human-specific gene causes a larger neocortex in the common marmoset, a non-human primate.
>
> A human-specific gene causes a larger neocortex in the common marmoset, a non-human primate.
>
> The expansion of the human brain during evolution, specifically of the neocortex, is linked to our cognitive abilities such as reasoning and language. A certain gene called ARHGAP11B that is only found in humans triggers brain stem cells to form more stem cells, a prerequisite for a bigger brain.

Scientists Grow Bigger Monkey Brains Using Human Genes, Replicating Evolution This may have replicated the moment in history where humans and primates were set apart in evolution. *

It's our larger brains that set us apart from other primates. Back when we evolved from non-human primates, one specific gene came into play, which made our brains bigger while theirs stayed smaller.

Now a collaboration between researchers in Germany at the Max Planck Institute of Molecular Cell Biology and Genetics and in Japan at the Central Institute for Experimental Animals, has used that same gene to grow a monkey brain to be bigger for the first time.

Their study was published in Science on Thursday.

Going back to evolution

This study is not only incredible, it's also enlightening. It could replicate the moment in evolution where humans became separate from other primates. All due to one gene.

"We had certain hopes - what the gene, ideally, could do and should, if it had the function that we had postulated it should have," lead study author Wieland Huttner of the Max Planck Institute told Inverse.

Patriots ask did Free Masons tied to A Saudi and English Royal Family network kill Scalia JFK and or RFK?

John Podesta retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

From:elmendorf©teamsubjectmatter.com
To: john.podesta©gmail.com
Date: 2016-02-09 20:56
Subject: RE: Thanks

I am all in

Sounds like it will be a bad nite , we all need to buckle up and double down

From: John Podesta [mailto:john.podesta©gmail.com] Sent: Tuesday, February 09, 2016 4:36 PM To: Steve Elmendorf Subject: Thanks

Didn't think wet works meant pool parties at the Vineyard.

John David Podesta Jr. (born January 8, 1949) is an American political consultant who served as White House Chief of Staff to President Bill Clinton from 1998 to 2001 and Counselor to President Barack Obama from 2014 to 2015. Before that, he served in the Clinton Administration as White House Staff Secretary from 1993 to 1995 and White House Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations from 1997 to 1998.

He is the former president, and now Chair and Counselor, of the Center for American Progress (CAP), a think tank in Washington, D.C., as well as a Visiting Professor of Law at the Georgetown University Law Center and was chairman of Hillary Clinton's 2016 presidential campaign.

Additionally, he was a co-chairman of the Obama-Biden Transition Project.

Podesta spent most of his early years in Chicago, where he was born, growing up in the neighborhood of Jefferson Park on the city's Northwest Side.[5] His mother, Mary (née Kokoris), was Greek-American, and his father, John David Podesta Sr., was Italian-American. Tony Podesta, a lobbyist, is his brother.

WikiLeaks Shop Donate

Search

Return to search

View email View source

RE: Thanks

From:elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com
To: john.podesta@gmail.com
Date: 2016-02-09 20:56
Subject: RE: Thanks

I am all in

Sounds like it will be a bad nite , we all need to buckle up and double down
From: John Podesta [mailto:john.podesta@gmail.com]
Sent: Tuesday, February 09, 2016 4:36 PM
To: Steve Elmendorf <elmendorf@teamsubjectmatter.com>
Subject: Thanks

Didn't think wet works meant pool parties at the Vineyard.

Three days before Scalia's death Podesta receives an email from elmendorf©teamsubjectmatter.com describing “wet works” at a pool in a “Vineyard”: https://www.wikileaks.org/podesta-emails/emailid/6008 Scalia would die in his sleep three days later of of “natural causes” in his home , the Cibolo Creek Ranch Vineyard. On the 13th as the news began to break of Scalia’s death, John Podesta talks with a Chris Stone from George Soros’ Open Society Foundations about a replacement for Scalia: https://wikileaks.org/podesta-emails/emailid/48389

The death of Supreme Court Associate Justice Antonin Scalia on Saturday has further complicated Abigail Fisher v. University of Texas, which could decide the fate of affirmative action in college admissions. The Supreme Court will now come to a decision with only seven members, since Associate Justice Elena Kagan recused herself from the case, or delay the decision until Scalia’s replacement has been appointed.

Is it possible that Barack Obama and the history of presidents of the USA have something to hide, Family Jewels and how DNA of the elites run in presidential families and world health programs and designer babies?

The Philadelphia Experiment (film) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

[image]

The Philadelphia Experiment is a 1984 American science fiction film. It is directed by Stewart Raffill and stars Michael Paré, Bobby Di Cicco, and Nancy Allen and based on the urban legend of the Philadelphia Experiment. The film is set in 1943 where two sailors, David Herdeg (Paré) and Jim Parker (Di Cicco), are stationed on a ship used for an experiment to make it invisible to radar. However, the experiment goes horribly wrong and the ship completely disappears and Herdeg and Parker find themselves in the Nevada desert in the year 1984. They find out the program has been revived in 1984, unexpectedly interacting with the experiment in 1943 and putting the entire world in danger.

In 1943 United States Navy sailors, David Herdeg and Jim Parker, are assigned to the destroyer escort USS Eldridge during a project to make it invisible to radar. The ship is in Philadelphia Harbor, filled with equipment from a team led by James Longstreet. During the experiment, the equipment begins malfunctioning. Observers simply see the ship disappear but sailors on board experience a bizarre and disorienting phase shift. David and Jim try to shut down the generator to stop the experiment but receive severe electric shocks when they touch the equipment. The two men jump overboard to escape.

Instead of landing in Philadelphia Harbor during the daytime, David and Jim land during the night in a small desert town, which then disappears as well, leaving them in the dark open desert. They are startled by the appearance of bright light in the sky-it's a military helicopter with a spotlight looking for intruders. They escape into the desert and after walking for miles, they eventually find their way to a roadside diner the next day.

An energy discharge from Jim destroys two arcade games in the diner, and the angry diner owner grabs a revolver, demanding that Jim pay for the damages. David grabs the gun and the men run and carjack a car (a 1976 Ford Torino) in the parking lot. Since he is unfamiliar with the automatic transmission, David takes the driver, a woman named Allison, as a hostage and driver. They are shocked when she tells them that they are in the year 1984.

The police eventually catch them. Jim, who is suffering increasingly severe seizures, is hospitalized. David explains that he and Jim accidentally traveled through time, but no one believes the story. Jim eventually disappears from his hospital bed in a corona of energy. David and Allison then evade military police, who have arrived to take David into custody.

Jim was from nearby California, so David decides to try to find his family. He and Allison find the family listed in a phone book and drive to see them. Jim's wife Pamela, who is now a senior citizen, immediately recognizes David from 1943. She says that the Eldridge had reappeared minutes after disappearing and that a lot of the sailors on board had been horribly burned. Jim had also returned and had been chastised and hospitalized after telling the truth about temporarily visiting 1984. David asks about himself and finds that he never came back. David sees Jim outside a window riding a horse, but Jim, who had slowly come to terms with the bizarre events of 1943, refuses to speak with David. As David and Allison reluctantly leave, they see military police approaching and a high speed chase through Jim's ranch ensues. The two manage to elude them when the pursuing vehicle crashes and burns. From the burning wreck, David salvages documents mentioning Dr. Longstreet. Recognizing that Longstreet had been involved with the Philadelphia experiment in 1943, David decides to find him. As they spend time together, David and Allison fall in love.

In 1984, Dr. Longstreet has attempted to use the same technologies that were used in the original Philadelphia experiment to create a shield to protect from an ICBM attack. When the equipment was tested, the shielded town disappeared into “hyperspace”, just like USS Eldridge had. The scientists are unable to shut down the experiment, despite cutting the power. Worse, the experiment has left a vortex in 1984, which starts drawing matter into it. The vortex causes extremely unstable and severe weather, including tornadoes and monstrous bolts of lightning. Longstreet predicts that the vortex will continue to expand until the entire world is consumed. The scientists send a probe into the vortex and discover the Eldridge inside; the two experiments have linked together across time. They theorize that the generators on the Eldridge are providing the energy to keep the vortex open.

This book

Dr Bradstreet

Here's Why Authorities Searched The Offices Of Controversial Autism Doctor Bradstreet retrieved from Forbes Emily Willingham Former Contributor (Science) and copied or modified to here

According to a federal government warrant, the offices of controversial autism doctor Jeff Bradstreet were the target in June of a search related to an experimental drug for autism. The compound, globulin component macrophage-activating factor, known as GcMAF, is one that Bradstreet reportedly used in "over 2000 children" with autism. Bradstreet, according to authorities in Rutherford County, NC, committed suicide there on June 19, after the search warrant was executed in late June.

According to the copy of the warrant provided to me by the United States Attorney's Office of the Northern District of Georgia, the search warrant was executed at Bradstreet's Buford, GA, 'wellness center' because authorities were seeking information related to "evidence of a crime and contraband, fruits of crime, or items illegally possessed" associated with violations of interstate commerce statutes covering food, drug, or other products that are "adulterated or misbranded" and with "frauds and swindles" by "wire, radio, or television." Punishments for those convicted of these crimes can include fines and up to 20 years in prison.

The warrant specifically references GcMAF and any records related to sale, shipping, billing, and delivery of GcMAF. It also covers Bradstreet's financial records and Internet activities.

GcMAF is thought in some circles to modulate the immune system in ways that make it a treatment for everything from autism (which some believe is immune related) to cancer. Bradstreet was the focus of GcMAF and autism in online communities, with discussions centered around “doing the GcMAF through Bradstreet” in online forums. One forum references a link to Bradstreet’s blog as having “several posts” related to GcMAF, but a search of the site in its current iteration turns up no GcMAF-related hits (ETA: Those posts apparently were deleted, but you can read some of at these links here, here, here, here, and here). At least some users who discussed doing GcMAF treatments through Bradstreet appear to have been US based and discussed traveling to his offices for the shots. The shots appear to have cost about $50 each.

A Bradstreet family member has set up a GoFundMe campaign site “to find the answers to the many questions leading up to the death of Dr Bradstreet,” and I have reached out through the site to that family member for comment.

Emily Willingham ,Follow me on LinkedIn. Check out my website.

DR. Jeff Bradstreet retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

James Jeffrey “Jeff” Bradstreet (July 6, 1954 - June 19, 2015), was an American doctor, alternative medicine practitioner, and a former preacher[2] who ran the International Child Development Resource Center in Melbourne, Florida,[3] a medical practice in Buford, Georgia[4] and in Arizona, where he practiced homeopathy.[5][6] He also founded the Good News Doctor Foundation, which aimed to combine Christian beliefs with his medical practice.[7]

Bradstreet obtained a Florida medical license in 1984. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of South Florida in 1976, where he also went to medical school beginning three years later. His postgraduate research focused on aerospace medicine, and he received his training in this field from Wilford Hall Medical Center. He was an adjunct professor of child development and neuroscience at the Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine in Tempe, Arizona.[8]

Autism claims and treatments

Bradstreet published autism research, which he claimed indicated vaccines as a cause, in the Journal of American Physicians and Surgeons, which is not indexed by PubMed. This research claimed that autistic children had a higher body burden of mercury,[9] and that three autistic children had measles RNA in their cerebrospinal fluid.[10] The Institute of Medicine has rejected any relationship between vaccines and autism.[11]

Bradstreet treated Colten Benevento a child diagnosed with autism (one of the test cases in the autism omnibus trial) with chelation therapy on the premise of removing mercury from his body, in spite of the fact that hair, blood, and urine tests had failed to show he exhibited abnormal levels of mercury.[12] Over an eight-year period, Colten visited Bradstreet's office 160 times.[13] Stephen Barrett has stated, "It appears to me that Bradstreet decides which of his nonstandard theories to apply and records diagnoses that embody them," and describes Bradstreet's mercury provoked tests as "phony".[12] Peter Hotez characterized Bradstreet's proposal to treat autism with chelation therapy as "dangerous."[6]

In an interview with the Chicago Tribune, Bradstreet defended the use of intravenous immunoglobulin (IVIG) as an autism treatment, saying, "Every kid with autism should have a trial of IVIG if money was not an option and IVIG was abundant."[14] Bradstreet also published research regarding the use of hyperbaric oxygen therapy for autism,[15] some of which concluded it was ineffective,[16] as well as a paper arguing that autistic children have an increased vulnerability to oxidative stress.[17] Further treatments Bradstreet used on autistic children included the controversial protein GcMAF, with which he claimed to have treated 600 children.[18] In an article for an anti-vaccine magazine, Bradstreet endorsed stem cell therapy as an autism treatment.[19]

Personal life and death

Bradstreet was found dead from a gunshot wound to the chest in the Broad River in Rutherford County, North Carolina in June 2015, after his Buford, Georgia medical office was raided by the FDA in connection with an investigation into GcMAF treatments.[4][20][21] At the time of his death, he lived in Braselton and ran his medical practice in Buford.[4] While the police ruled Bradstreet's death a suicide, a conspiracy theory has spread holding that Bradstreet was murdered for his use of a "holistic" therapy.[22]

Bradstreet's son has been diagnosed with autism, which Bradstreet attributed to a vaccination his son received at age 15 months.[23]

This book

Bully Media Cartel Bandwidth stops theories of the OSS QEII Cartel thepeoplesvoice.tv/top-wef-official-dangerous-conspiracy-theorists-must-be-eliminated/

Top WEF Official: 'Dangerous Conspiracy Theorists Must Be Eliminated'

Fact checked

July 25, 2023 Sean Adl-Tabatabai News, US 16 Comments

A top World Economic Forum (WEF) official has called for so-called 'conspiracy theorists' to be banned from accessing the internet due to their 'dangerous' belief that a global cabal of elites control the world.

About 19,600 results (0.55 seconds)

Yuval Noah Harari / Date of birth

February 24, 1976

age 47 years

Yuval Noah Harari (Hebrew: יובל נח הרארי, [juˈval ˈnoax (h)aˈʁaʁi]; born 24 February 1976) is an Israeli historian and a professor in the Department of History at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Scholarly Community Encyclopedia
https://encyclopedia.pub › entry

Yuval Noah Harari | Encyclopedia MDPI

Yuval Noah Harari

Israeli historian

Yuval Noah Harari is an Israeli public intellectual, historian and professor in the Department of History at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He is the author of the popular science bestsellers Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind, Homo Deus: A Brief History of Tomorrow, and 21 Lessons for the 21st Century. Wikipedia

Born: 1976 (age 47 years), Kiryat Ata, Israel

Spouse: Itzik Yahav

Nationality: Israeli

Doctoral advisor: Steven Gunn

Education: Hebrew University (BA); Jesus College, Oxford (MA, DPhil)

The Press as Cabal have failed to out and even built a Defensive Legend, a Defensive Ethic, for Government Corruption.

Out the NWO is an EVIL, not the defense of the USA.

The Kaine Mutiny

Keifer played by Fred McMurray), a slick office and writer full of theories of psychoanalysis decides to lead a mutiny against Queeg, a mine ship commander layed by Bogart.

LT Steve Maryk an attorney will get Keifer acquitted for the mutiny. In fact some mental fragility had seized the ship commander thus materially undermining his command.

In fact fraglie elements who are corruptable in this Hispanic poor imigrant community wree weaponized and temped by gains offered to them for fraud.

I think they should be convicted for fraud. But if they are in a sort of similar vain with Maryk, I will blame the press corps for encouraging the insanity environment which fostered the events later adjudicated in the courts which should have been avoided by responsible conduct of those who surrounded the events and acted irresponsibly.

The Press Corps is who I specifically suggesting as the irresponsible actors.

The Caine Mutiny (film) retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

> At the height of a typhoon, Maryk urges the captain to reverse course into the wind and take on ballast, but Queeg refuses. Maryk, supported by Keith, relieves Queeg of command under Article 184. The Caine returns to San Francisco, where Maryk and Keith face a court-martial for mutiny. Wounded Naval Aviator, Lieutenant Barney Greenwald, an attorney before entering the Navy, becomes Maryk's defense counsel.
>
> At the court-martial, Keefer claims he never observed any mental illness in Queeg and was "flabbergasted" when he was relieved. Under Greenwald's relentless cross-examination, Queeg exhibits odd behavior on the stand, and Maryk is acquitted.

Following the acquittal, the officers of the Caine hold a party, where Keefer receives a frosty reception from Maryk. A drunken Greenwald arrives and berates all the officers for not appreciating Queeg's long service and failing to give him the support he asked for. He denounces Keefer as the real "author" of the mutiny and throws a glass of champagne in Keefer's face. The rest of the officers walk out, leaving Keefer alone in the room.

OSS and CIA in Media: Walt Disney, Ian Flemming, Clark Gable, John Wayne into Katherine Mulgrew, Kristen Stewart, most others Dyslexic Suicided Margaux Hemingway FEBRUARY 16, 1954 - JULY 1, 1996 in 1991 on the set of the film Double Obsession in Boulder. Further Reading

The CIA has long used Metaphorians behind the veil of fiction or fictionalized stories to tell the story of Maria Augusta Kutschera and falsely, and to disavow "Conspiracy Theories."

Equals is a movie about "Switched Ons" being suicided. It seems to match FOXP2 Synsrome as a negative, which does include ADHD. The society isolates FOXP2 in hopeless contexts of non access to normal life where people finaly decide with State encouragement to commit suicide.

This hostile context has surrounded me. Also manty things about me, Name, Information, Application of the information (CSS Rule Name, Styling data, spanning the style) as Semiotics with renaming and other elements are in the movie.

I live under a Surveillance Ambush destroying while -co-optiong my otherwise life outcomes which is effectively living in the DEN.'

Clark Gable, Julie Andrews, and many others were part of the Legend the CIA creating bolstering Maria Augusta Kutchera but denouncing Glorian Donegan and Ed Donegan with a slander campaign.

CIA OSS “Metaphors” or fictionalized versions of stories behind the theatrical mask of metaphors are what Dorothy Kilgallen was outing by Mafia hitman Ron Pataky killer her for. my book has hundreds of examples of those who made movies about the story line such as Brittany Murphy (Slamming FOXP2 as a serious rather than minimal brain dysfunction to Heath Ledger and a knight found in the masses to Jeanie the Soup Girl and Any Warhol all who died odd deaths as the back story disappears to the movies which are still in print unexplained. Further Reading

Maria Augusta Kutschera did sing Nazi songs. Glorian Donegan never did.

> Politifact /Poynter Institute
>
> PolitiFact is a nonpartisan fact-checking website to sort out the truth in American politics. PolitiFact was created by the Tampa Bay Times, a Florida newspaper, in 2007. In 2018, PolitiFact was acquired by the Poynter Institute, a nonprofit school for journalists.
>
> You can view The Poynter Institute’s most-recent public financial disclosure form 990 here.
>
> While PolitiFact relies on administrative support from the Poynter Institute, it is otherwise financially self-sustaining. It receives funding from online advertisements placed on the website. PolitiFact also receives compensation for selling its content to media publishers and companies. Organizations that contributed more than 5 percent of total PolitiFact revenues in the previous calendar year will be listed [On politifact website

- Facebook
- TikTok

PolitiFact also accepts grants, which are listed by calendar year below.

In 2017, PolitiFact launched a membership campaign called the Truth Squad to allow individual donations.

[image]

In March 2018 Craiglist was under investigation for allowing child and other trafficking result in personals from being removed from the site. Fetlife.com are continuing material support for the conduct and individual operators of long term forms of trafficking, elder abuse, though it is not present on tbe boards posts, child trafficking and manufacture of child porn and eldber abuse are supported by those who continue and describe those activities on Felt.com. in spite of clear evidence of those activities including commercialization of them.

Politifact's Craig Newmark retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Craig Alexander Newmark (born December 6, 1952) is an American internet entrepreneur and philanthropist best known as the founder of the classifieds website craigslist. Prior to founding craigslist, he worked as a computer programmer for companies such as IBM, Bank of America, and Charles Schwab. Newmark served as chief executive officer of craigslist from its founding until 2000. He founded Craig Newmark Philanthropies in 2015.

In 2005, Time magazine listed Craig Newmark as one of the 100 people shaping the world.

Newmark serves on the board of several non-profit organizations such as CUNY Graduate School of Journalism, Girls Who Code and Vets in Tech, among others. He also holds roles on the advisory boards of 18 other non-profits.

In 2011, Newmark launched craigconnects, a non-profit initiative to support the efforts of other non-profits and public service organizations working in the areas of global poverty, the Middle East, veterans affairs, and low-income neighborhoods.[22] In 2015, he founded Craig Newmark Philanthropies,[23] which acts as an umbrella for his other foundations,[21] such as his private charitable foundation, to which he contributed $50 million in 2016 to support military families, voter registration efforts, and women in technology.

In January 2017, TechCrunch reported that Newmark donated $500,000 to Wikipedia's attempt at "reducing harassment and vandalism on the site and improve the tools moderators use every day to keep the peace".

Between 2016 and 2020, Newmark donated $170 million to support journalism, combating harassment of journalists, cybersecurity, and election integrity. Donations he made include: $1 million each to ProPublica and the Poynter Institute in 2017,[15] $1 million to the Global Cyber Alliance, $150,000 to Women in CyberSecurity, $250,000 to PEN America, and $250,000 to the Girl Scouts for cybersecurity programs. In September 2018, he gave $20 million to fund the creation The Markup, a non-profit news organization.[25] In 2018, Newmark's donations totaled $143 million.[26] That year, Newmark donated $1 million to Mother Jones to help the magazine combat fake news.[27] In 2019, he donated $6 million to Consumer Reports to fund a Digital Lab focused on consumer privacy rights and digital security.[28] Newmark made a $20 million endowment to the CUNY Graduate School of Journalism, which was subsequently renamed the Craig Newmark Graduate School of Journalism.[15] According to The Chronicle of Philanthropy, Newmark's donations in 2020 included giving $1 million to the Anti-Defamation League, $388,000 to the American Press Institute, and $350,000 to the Feminist Majority Foundation and Ms. magazine.[21] Bloomberg News reported that Newmark donated $10 million to charities focused on hunger issues in 2020, as well.

Newmark gave $5 million to the Poynter Institute, which used the funds to establish the Craig Newmark Center for Ethics and Leadership. Newmark's previous donation of $1 million to the Poynter established the Craig Newmark Journalism Ethics Chair. He also gave $10 million to Columbia University to establish a center for journalism ethics and security, as well as a professorship.

The Chronicle of Philanthropy ranked Newmark 17th out of 50 in its 2020 ranking of individual donors, giving a total of $100 million.

AP versus US

Finally, the argument is made that to apply the Sherman Act to this association of publishers constitutes an abridgment of the freedom of the press guaranteed by the First Amendment.

> Perhaps it would be a sufficient answer to this contention to refer to the decisions of this Court in Associated Press v. Labor Board, supra, and Indiana Farmer's Guide Co. v. Prairie Farmer Co., 293 U. S. 268. It would be strange indeed however if the grave concern for freedom of the press which prompted adoption of the First Amendment should be read as a command that the government was without power to protect that freedom.
>
> The First Amendment, far from providing an argument against application of the Sherman Act, here provides powerful reasons to the contrary. That Amendment rests on the assumption that the widest possible dissemination of information from diverse and antagonistic sources is essential to the welfare of the public, that a free press is a condition of a free society. Surely a command that the government itself shall not impede the free flow of ideas does not afford nongovernmental combinations a refuge if they impose restraints upon that constitutionally guaranteed freedom. Freedom to publish means freedom for all, and not for some. Freedom to publish is guaranteed by the Constitution, but freedom to combine to keep others from publishing is not. Freedom of the press from governmental interference under the First Amendment does not sanction repression of that freedom by private interests. The First Amendment affords not the slightest support for the contention that a combination to restrain trade in news and views has any constitutional immunity.

The Press is important to the USA. It is also important to the private business MKULTRA Cabal. The Press takes bribes. It can be bought. It is for sale. It is owned by business interests who will not out the Cabal thus the Press is not an avenue of defense against the Cabal or its treason.

The Press is connected to treason. By being on bill in the stack of bills wound together to stay in place and order.

WASHINGTON, D.C. IS A CESSPOOL OF BRITISH PATENT CORRUPTION

Fig. 1-Leonard P. Stark. Nominated by Biden on Nov. 03, 2021 to move from the Delaware District Court to the Federal Circuit Court in Washington, D.C. The Federal Circuit was formed on Oct. 01, 1982 to handle all patent litigation appeal. The court was formed by agents of the Senior Executive Service (SES) (formed in 1978 by Jimmy Carter)-10,000 British Crown Agents that have infiltrated every agency of the Executive Branch.

And British Infiltration of Facebook and Twitter

Nicholas Peter Clegg, CBE (born 24 May 1936) is a former managing trustee and chairman of the Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation. He graduated from Trinity College, Cambridge in 1959.

Clegg is the son of Hugh Clegg, CBE, and his wife (married 1932) Kira von Engelhardt (1909-2005), a Russian émigré and daughter of Arthur von Engelhardt.

Clegg was educated at Bryanston School and Trinity College, Cambridge (BA, 1959). Before attending Cambridge, Clegg completed his national service in the Naval Intelligence Division, where he learned Russian.

He married a Dutchwoman, Eulalia Hermance van den Wall Bake in 1959. Their son, the Right Hon. Sir Nick Clegg, was formerly Deputy Prime Minister of the United Kingdom (2010-2015), Leader of the Liberal Democrats (2007-2015) and Member of Parliament (MP) for Sheffield Hallam from 2005 until 2017.

British knight Nicholas W.P. Clegg, former deputy prime minister, now governs Facebook globally as VP of global affairs.

British baron Richard B. Allan is grandson of the former propaganda chief of staff for the British war cabinet and now directs public policy in Europe for Facebook.

British knight Nigel G. Knowles, Esq. is Kamal Harris' newly-minted husband Douglas C. Emhoff's handler as chairman emeritus of DLA Piper Plc (London) and trustee of Prince's Trust International (London) and USA.

INTERLOCKED BRITISH-AMERICAN DEVILS

These interlocked, self-anointed British devils have one thing in common:

They are interlocked members of the British Pilgrims Society. The Pilgrims Society funded the Tavistock Institute and MKUltra and has used its best mind control techniques since 1902 to hide their identity and new world order agenda.

* [image]

https://aim4truth.org/2021/06/12/proof-columbia-university-helped-british-saboteurs-and-american-traitors-takeover-america-in-1902/

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | JUN. 11, 2021, UPDATED JUN. 12, 2021 | PDF | HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/KP4NCYCS

Columbia Law created globalist phantoms, specters and demons who have lumbered America's institutions with demonic laws since 1902

These demonic laws are so full of convoluted lawyer clap trap that demon-oppressed "lawmakers" now pass them without even reading them. This must stop. Now.

These demon-laws were specifically intended to destroy America's Judeo-Christian moral foundation, hasten a British takeover, and cull (murder) "deplorables," "useless eaters, "non-producers" from society-all of whom are loved by God and made in His image and likeness

The roots of the C.I.A. are the British Pilgrims Society's MI6 thru Columbia University Law

The official C.I.A. histories are all faked to conjure up American heroes out of demons and disguise its monopolist, warmongering, satanic, eugenicist British origins

Alleged C.I.A. founder William J. Donovan was a mere stooge for J.P. Morgan, Lord Rothschild and John D. Rockefeller who conspired with Columbia University to groom him (1903-07)

The Truth: C.I.A., NSA, FBI, DoD, DOS, SEC, Judiciary and multinational corporate intelligencers are American stooges controlled by the British Empire

CIA NWO Shadow Gov assassinations, the war against Home

Likely written to the NDAA passed in 1961 Mockingbird uses charactaer assasination via villification morality plays asserting an evil and later elsewher alleging others fit the characterization which peole now have a grasp of.

> Operation Mockingbird is an alleged large-scale [PsyOps Propoganda] program of the United States Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) that began in the early years of the Cold War and attempted to manipulate news media for propaganda purposes.

According to author Deborah Davis, Operation Mockingbird recruited leading American journalists into a propaganda network and influenced the operations of front groups. CIA support of front groups was exposed when a 1967 Ramparts magazine article reported that the National Student Association received funding from the CIA. In 1975, Church Committee Congressional investigations revealed Agency connections with journalists and civic groups. None of the reports, however, mentions by name an Operation Mockingbird coordinating or supporting these activities

The media will not out Epstein, the CIA DOJ or others and in fact the media protects them from criticism or "Conspiracy Theories."

First Monday in October (film) 1981

The film's title refers to the day that the Supreme Court commences i term, which continues until June or early July of the following year. -

Though I (Edward Paul Donegan) have not seen the film since its rele
I do recall the subplot of the Momemtum Engine.

The fictional device described in the film was a form of engine which continuous pressure energy rather than shock pulsing bangs and was m efficient than cylinder based internal combustion engines.

This was described in the grocery store as gliding rather than banging handle of shopping carts losing most energy in the bang to problems in acceleration to energy expended energy consumption rations.

During the course of trying to being the Momentum Engine to market enormouse cash power of the oil industry was able to frurstrate all atte incling supporting law suits required to bring the invention to market.

Subversion System supported by the powerful Cabal

The Gangstalk method is you start somewhere, you are roadblocked in some stealthy bureaucratic way such as apt lease turned down on credit score, a Doppler moves into your started identity/location fusion. With your hijacked identity the Information Doppelganger will emit the information Stalker Team wants the public to believe.. Finally in the Office Mob you will be treated vaguely like the Doppler to sell the Dopple acts are your acts in spectacles in front of the public.

Countering Foreign Propaganda and Disinformation Act retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Countering Foreign Propaganda and Disinformation Act is a bipartisan bill that was introduced by the United States Congress on 10 May 2016. The bill was initially called the Countering Information Warfare Act.

The bipartisan legislation was written in March 2016 by U.S. Senators Rob Portman (R, OH) and Chris Murphy (D, CT). It was additionally introduced in the United States House of Representatives in a bipartisan fashion; co-sponsors included Congressmen Adam Kinzinger (R, IL) and Ted Lieu (D, CA).

In both the House and Senate the bill was included in the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2017. It passed the House in this fashion in a conference report vote on 2 December 2016. The Senate then passed the measure in a conference report on December 8 by a tally of 92-7.

On 23 December 2016, President Obama signed the 2017 National Defense Authorization Act into law.[1]

The story and facts I assert are threaten to the Cabal are defeated by Deep State PsyOps which I am a victim of. The turth or importance of this story, the story in this book and of my family history, will not be recognized by the Cabal whose existence the story threatens.

I have asserted planted stories and bullying in the media and in the public are braggadocio chest pumping acting as if there is nothing to Conspiracy Theories.

Meanwhile, that is to say while the press is defending the CIA from accusations of illegal conduct, the press is supporting Disinformation about law abiding citizens undergoing Slander (politically motivated character assassination.)

The OSS is covering its tracks, long ago blown away by the USA and replaced with the CIA but the OSS Diaspora in now in other surviving agencies and the #MSM.

I assert these are Plaintiff (not Defense) Demurers as a Modus Operandi hoping to get away with cheap shots.

The NDAA Legalizes The Use Of Propaganda On The US Public retrieved from https://www.businessinsider.com/ and copied or modified to here

The newest version of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) includes an amendment that would legalize the use of propaganda on the American public, reports Michael Hastings of BuzzFeed.

The vote came two days after a federal judged ruled that an indefinite detention provision in the annual defense bill was unconstitutional.

This Lone Army Colonel Is Risking It All By Telling America The Lies About Afghanistan

Michael B Kelley Apr 24, 2012, 12:02 PM

https://www.businessinsider.com/lieutenant-colonel-davis-blows-the-lid-off-the-official-story-on-afghanistan-2012-4

Unlike government whisteblowers who have received hostile treatment from the Obama Administration - Peter Van Buren, Jesselyn Radack, John Kiriakou, Sibel Edmonds and Bradley Manning (to name a few) - a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army has written a damning indictment of America's highest military officers and the Afghan war without losing his job or rank.

Lt. Col. Daniel Davis published a candid 84-page report (via Rolling Stone) that is highly critical of the 2009 Afghan surge and the distortion of truth by senior ranking officials about the conditions on the ground in Afghanistan.

Lt. Col. Daniel Davis, who released a highly critical report regarding the distortion of truth by senior military officials in Iraq and Afghanistan, dedicated a section of his report to Information Operations (IO) and states that after Desert Storm the military wanted to transform IO "into a core military competency on a par with air, ground, maritime and special operations."

Davis quotes Brigadier General Ralph O. Baker - the Pentagon officer responsible for the Department of Defense's Joint Force Development (i.e. Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines) - who defines IO as activities undertaken to "shape the essential narrative of a conflict or situation and thus affect the attitudes and behaviors of the targeted audience" and equates descriptions of combat operations with standard marketing strategies:

Davis defines IO as "the integrated employment of electronic warfare (EW), computer network operations (CNO), psychological operations (PSYOP), military deception (MILDEC), and operations security (OPSEC), in concert with specified supporting and related capabilities, to influence, disrupt, corrupt or usurp adversarial human and automated decision making while protecting our own."

Information Operations (IO) are primarily used to target foreign audiences, but Davis cites numerous senior leaders who want to (in the words of Colonel Richard B. Leap) "protect a key friendly center of gravity, to wit US national will" by repealing the Smith-Mundt Act to allow the direct deployment of these tactics on the American public.

Obtuse (fron Oxford OED, Dictionary.com, elsewhere)

The adjective obtuse is good for describing someone slow on the uptake: "Don't be so obtuse: get with the program!" The adjective obtuse literally means "rounded" or "blunt,"

1. annoyingly insensitive or slow to understand. "he wondered if the doctor was being deliberately obtuse"

2. (of an angle) more than 90° and less than 180°.

Acute

having or showing a perceptive understanding or insight; shrewd. "an acute awareness of changing fashions”

narrow rather than wide open, specific in scope

Demure

reserved, modest, and shy

To demur is to show reluctance or to hesitate, like not quite getting in the car when someone opens the door, but demure isalways an adjective describing a modest, reserved, or shy person, and sounds like the mew of a tiny kitten.

(Defense uses Demurer) Although Charlie does owe the debt, Charlie believes the facts in the complaint [against Charlie] are not adequate to prove it, or grant relief to Fierce Loans. Also, he does not believe the complaint is worth his time to answer. He proceeds to file an objection to the complaint with the court in the form of a demurrer. In his demurrer, he states all the reasons he feels the judge should not allow the case to proceed. The judge grants the demurrer. In this example, Fierce Loans’ allegations were true, but they did not present enough facts to prove the debt was owed by Charlie. Therefore, the judge did not accept the case (or drink the water)! Study.com

Obtuse acts such as blocking or marking off windows in my vicinity (Obtuse meanings space) rather than acute narrow asserts of facts “Ed is a peeper thus Ed we are blocking your use of the window” [a narrow meaning]

In short, to Demurer is to fall back and accept there is no grounds to continue, the defense may assert that as to a plaintiff actions, or a plaintif may demure upon a defendent asserting the plaintif has no case.

Legal Definition - Demurrer is a written statement or plea in response to a legal complaint made against another person; it does not dispute the truth, only the evidence presented is not adequate enough to bring relief or a cause of action. When an official complaint is made against another person in a court of law, a demurrer is a great way to offset any further court proceedings. It alerts the judge the case is not worthy of continuance and therefore calls for dismissal of the lawsuit.

Plaintiff uses Demurer (after Obtuse acts of innuendo only are offered as double entendre) coming from Plaintiffs but upon defendent challenge (Ed Donegan) plaintiffs Demures innuedno rescinding any plaintiff allegation and fall back to nothing was meant to be asserted other than single entender

The modus operandi is to plant misleading information through innuendo or suggestiveness, but to avoid debate about truthfullness of the innuendo views.

Each Jen Moore video on this important matter under 1,000

"On Orders from the 33s all talk of Conspiracies is threat to the nation and shall be quelled!"

A Lie about race and the history of coping with racial strife has consolidated power to the point of intimidating open discussion.

A consolidation of an opion that is nether science based nor subjected to hypothesis testing, aka debate.

"Truth is treason in an empire of lies"
post by Kevin Kervick, Nov 18, 2013

https://patch.com/new-hampshire/nashua/truth-is-treason-in-an-empire-of-lies

> Truth is treason in an empire of lies

The title of this blog is a quote from former Congressman and presidential candidate, Ron Paul.

George Orwell said it similarly: "In a time of universal deceit - telling the truth is a revolutionary act."

> "One of the saddest lessons of history is this: If we've been bamboozled long enough, we tend to reject any evidence of the bamboozle. We're no longer interested in finding out the truth. The bamboozle has > captured us. It's simply too painful to acknowledge, even to ourselves, that we've been taken. Once you give a charlatan power over you, you almost never get it back." - Carl Sagan

Press Club San Francisco attempts to and does humiliate my mother

My mother in the 1970s and 80 was in various organiozations and activities and was a member of the National Press Club and we had some kind of family membership.

I loved reading from old books and historical works and they had these really nice green tinted desk reading lights that added a lot of ambience for reading their in-house books or those that you could bring yourself.

At one time Honey Binning and I stopped by there and I just showed her the environment while we were in San Francisco which we went to every now and then though I lived in Moraga and she lived in Oakland.

Once we walked through the place after Saint Patricks Day in San Francisco, I don't think drunk, then, more on our way INTO the city and getting started but we might have had something to drink at this point.

Later my mother began to get treated in a biaaze and humuliating way. She was very knowledgable and her dues were kept up but they began to sneer at her and suggest she was unable to pay her dues and also suggest she may not be the correct type of person for evcents, with a clear anti south carolina sneer.

I had always thoughty they were retaliationg against me and Honey but in retrospect they may also have been stalking her based on the types of treatment though disputes which emerged fit the cast of.

Carl Sagan was born in 1934 in Brooklyn, New York. Sagan had a childhood interest in astronomy that never disappeared and influenced him later in life. Finishing high school at the age of 16, Sagan headed to the University of Chicago, graduating in 1955 with a BA in physics and obtained his masters a year later and then went on to get a PhD in astronomy and astrophysics. After finishing at the University of Chicago, he moved to Berkeley, CA where he did research at the University of California, helping a team develop new technology for NASA.

[image]

Nor should it. In my reading of the history of Paganism those who wish to create a new understanding often "Demonize" the old beliefs, making them a thing of fright. What is Demonized today, and what do Free Masons or other religious affiliations fear as new form of Devil?

The Bamaboozle requires the belief in its Lie it requires disbelief of that which nullifies it. Thus to move forward in understanding, perhaps a stride of two steps, one step must be backwards to unlearn what contradicts advancement in theory.

This is the Epiphany this book, Illuminati Dawn, looks towards. We must unlearn that genes were equal around the globe, even those affecting brain development.

With most agreeing that is a strop backward in our understanding we can move forward with a new understating of Illuminati mistakes and Illuminati profiteering.

Who knows, and who searched the Skies and the Earth, the Wood and the Wind and the Fire?

click image for song on Youtube

https://www.azlyrics.com/lyrics/therion/thesirenofthewoods.html

Mellamu mesaru
La tapallah Annuaki
Kettu Puluthu qillatu

Erset la tari eimmu
Ina ramanisu melammu
Baru dinau

Allatu Nergal

Sar kissati

Nergal allatua
Allatu Adapa
Ina ramaniusue

[Translation from Akkadian language:]

When God's human being Shamash's slave, wise men, saw Nergal in himself This Earth-stomped land became God's

At a decent throne
Of life and death
Nergal comes glowing
Not stopping at Senior Gods
As he was fear's bride

In the land with no return
In it's glory
The look upon judgement
Gave birth to Nergal

he king of underground

Nergal was born
Adapa suffered
Of what was in himself

CIA intimidation of Conspiracy Theories like exposing Free Masons NWO, and for instance a CIA role in the murder of JFK or the CIA activity of Pizzagate or the realities of race and evolution tied to these activities and DARPA create a stunted public understanding of the the world and world history.

In this dumbed down, intellectually stunted cognitive environment we can not understand Red State types or the NWO murder of JFK or many others since JFK.

The Shadow Government Body Count The long list of people associated with Bill Clinton who have ended up dead retrieved from http://www.akdart.com/ and copied or modified to here

This list has floated around the internet for many years, and is sometimes discussed very late at night on AM radio stations, or perhaps on shortwave stations, but it is rarely mentioned in the mainstream news media. It gets (and the conspiracy the deaths are in furtherance of) get even less attention from law enforcement than the media gives the deaths.

And it seems to keep getting longer. If you would like to dig into this topic on your own, just use your favorite search engine and enter, for example, “Gandy Baugh” (with quotation marks) and you’ll be on your way to dozens - if not hundreds - of web sites with information about this list.

Because these cases are so numerous, and so many have connections to Arkansas, writers sometimes use the term “Sudden Arkansas Death Syndrome”, also known as Arkancide.

If you really want to narrow your search, try searching for Mary Caitrin Mahoney, Paul Tulley, Jerry Parks, James Bunch, Kathy Ferguson, Danny Casolaro, Charles Meissner, Calvin Walraven Self Made Self LLC North Little Rock, Arkansas, (died on February 19, 2017 gunshot to head) , Keith McKaskle (Don Henry and Kevin Ives) , James Milam, Alan Standorf, Jon Parnell Walker, Barbara Wise, and Jordan Kettleson.

ARMY SECRECY SURROUNDS STANDORF DEATH

KAREN YURCONIC, THE MORNING CALL

Questions about the death of Alan David Standorf, a Whitehall High School graduate whose corpse was found at a Washington, D.C., airport 10 days ago, may never be answered because of the highly classified nature of Standorf's Army job, his brother said yesterday.

Standorf, 34, was a civil employee of Vint Hill Farm, a military security installation near Manassas, Va., but he resigned from that job in December because his Army Reserves unit had been called for Persian Gulf War training at Fort Bragg, N.C., police said.

A brother, Mark Standorf of Bethlehem, said the last time family members saw Standorf alive was Dec. 28, when he was visiting relatives in the Lehigh Valley before heading back to the D.C. area. Mark Standorf said Alan visited friends in Virginia on New Year's Eve, and he saw his landlady the following day.

Dr. Stephen Sheehy of the Medical Examiner's Office in Northern Virginia confirmed information the family was given - that Standorf died of a blunt force blow to the back of the head around Jan. 4.

Standorf's body, with no visible wounds, was found the night of Jan. 28 under clothing and luggage on the back floor of his small car, Sheehy said.

Standorf's car had been on a short-term parking lot at Metropolitan Washington National Airport since Jan. 4, said David Hess, spokesman for the Metropolitan Washington Airport police.

ark Standorf said his mother, Jeanette, would worry when Alan might casually mention that he was thinking of getting out of military work to become a policeman. When Mrs. Standorf once commented that a policeman's job would be too dangerous, Alan replied, 'What I do now is dangerous,'" Mark Standorf recalled. "Apparently whatever he (Alan) was doing was for the war."

"Everything he did was classified," Mark Standorf said, adding that if family conversation turned to work, Alan would quickly remind them he couldn't talk about it.

Standorf's civilian job was to oversee security measures at Vint Hill, which was described by police source as a "listening post" that would monitor radio communications from around the world.

The Standorf family moved to Whitehall in 1968 when Standorf's father, Norman, accepted a job transfer. After graduating from Whitehall High School in 1974, Alan Standorf entered the Army.

> “Most of his years in the Army, he was stationed in Germany with military intelligence,” Mark Standorf said. His brother graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1986, when he got his commission in the reserves, Mark Standorf said.

[1] [2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [8] [9] [10] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [19] [20] [21] [22] [23] [24] [25] [26] [27] [28] [29] [30] [31] [32] [33] [34] [35] [36] [37] [38] [39] [40] [41] [42] [43] [44] [45] [46] [47] [48] [50] [51] [52] [53] [54] [55] [56] [57] [58] [59] [60] [61] [62] [63] [64] [65] [66] [67] [68] [69] [70] [71] [71a] [71b] [71c] [72] [73] [74] [75] [76] [77] [78] [79] [80] [81] [82] [83] [84] [85] [86] [87] [88] [89] [90] [91] [92] [93] [94] [95] [96] [97] [98] [100] [101] [102] [103] [104] [105] [106] [107] [108] [109] [110]

RECKLESS JOURNALISM

Only Responsible Journalism Can Seek Justice

https://idfiles.com/responsible-v-reckless-journalism/disinformation/

Please visit the web pages of these idfiles.com

- DISINFORMATION
- WITHHELD INFORMATION

- BIASED INFORMATION

People believe what they want to believe. Conversely, they don't believe what they don't want to believe. That's just human nature. Most people seem to have found the source of political news that they prefer, and they agree with the views they hear or read, and there would be no harm in that if the news media was always reliable, but it isn't. There is reckless journalism from the far left all the way through to the far right. We're not asking anyone to change their political views.

We're just asking folks to be responsible enough to accept that journalism can be reckless or even self-serving and can cause great harm. We have categorized the reckless journalism that relates to the topic of our website and we give specific examples. We hope that folks will realize the damage that has been caused to people's lives and the barriers that have been built in finding justice for Kevin and Don, because of the likes of Unsolved Mysteries, 60 Minutes, The Washington Post, The Arkansas Democrat (now Democrat-Gazette), the Benton Courier, and Max Brantley, editor of The Arkansas Times, all explained within the pages of "Reckless Journalism."

Who was he trying to protect - Reagan, Bush, Clinton?

https://idfiles.com/reckless-journalism/withheld-information/

The Crimes of Mena, by Sally Denton and Roger Morris was scheduled to appear in the Washington Post. After having cleared the legal department for all possible questions of inaccurate statements, the article was scheduled for publication

Just when the presses were set to roll, Washington Post Managing Editor Bob Kaiser (like George Bush, a member of the infamous “Skull & Bones Fraternity), killed the article without explanation. According to the sidebar which appeared with the Penthouse Magazine version of this story, Bob Kaiser refused to even meet with Sally Denton and Roger Morris, hiding in his office while his secretary made excuses.

Linda Newkirk claiming to be Illuminati run by the Bush family, at her bedside, describing the operation says George H.W. Bush and the bush family mostly invovled, even the alst George Bush president threating he would be killed if he did not comply, and Isreali Mossad had operation under way to kill program dissidents.

Chapter Ten

And because of your suffering, alone, My Little One, and because of your heartfelt prayers on behalf of all of humanity, these evil ones will not use hyperspace as they have and will not use this medium again to further enslave humanity. And, while their weapons of terror are many and vast, I have crippled them severely this day and “only” and I say “only” again because of the terrible abuses, which you have suffered at the hands of Satan and those in the U. S. Government, especially and including George W. Bush and Bill Clinton! But, the worst of the two for you have been George. W. Bush, and these things he did to you in spite of the fact that My warnings through you saved his life!

Today, My Child, marks a great defeat for the U.S. Government, for George W. Bush, for the CIA, for NSA and the FBI. For, all of their combined efforts, plus the efforts of Satan and many others in government failed to kill you or to make you bow down to them.

Cold Winter, Cold War By Robert G. Kaiser · 1974 Originally published: 1974 Subject: Cold War, Great Britain - Foreign relations - 1945-, United States - Foreign relations - 1945-1953, World politics - 1945-1955, World politics - 1945-1989 *

British Recruit?

Robert G. Kaiser began at The Washington Post as a summer intern while still a college student. He has served as a special correspondent in London (1964-67), a reporter on the city desk in Washington, D.C. (1967-69), foreign correspondent in Saigon (1969-70) and Moscow (1971-74). He returned to the national staff in Washington and worked as a reporter for seven years, covering labor, the U.S. Senate, the 1980 presidential campaign and the first Ronald Reagan administration.

Stunting and even intimidating public understanding of the NWO and its plans and its real reasons

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> stunt
>
> To stunt is to slow or hinder. Some people say that drinking coffee will stunt your growth when you're a teenager - they worry that you won't grow any taller.
>
> Poor nutrition can stunt your growth, and bad soil will do the same for a plant - a lack of moisture or nutrients will stunt the development of your lettuce or tomatoes. Another meaning of stunt is a dangerous trick, the kind performed in an action movie or by planes in an air show. The root of "check the growth" is the Old English stunt, "short witted or foolish," while the "trick" kind of stunt comes from nineteenth century American college slang.

1. • v. check the growth or development of “You will stunt your growth by building all these muscles”

   • n. a creature (especially a whale) that has been prevented from attaining full growth

4. • n, a difficult or unusual or dangerous feat; usually done to gain attention

   • v. perform a stunt or stunts

Confusion of Truth and Deceit and hiding in the Fog

Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

“It ain’t ignorance causes so much trouble; it’s folks knowing so much that ain’t so.” attributed to Josh Billings with variants[1]

Josh Billings was the pen name of 19th-century American humorist Henry Wheeler Shaw. He was a famous humor writer and lecturer in the United States during the latter half of the 19th century. He is often compared to Mark Twain. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia via Google Knowledge Panel

Born: April 21, 1818, Lanesborough, MA
Died: October 14, 1885, Monterey, CA

Ronald Reagan recycled it as: "Well, the trouble with our liberal friends is not that they're ignorant; it's just that they know so much that isn't so."

Our problem in the West of Europe is not that the press of the West is ignorant, it is that they are so well instructed by Robber Barrons who control government corruption.

Consider the bomber before radar, circa 1945 in growing use.

> 1935 The first practical radar system was produced in 1935 by the British physicist Sir Robert Watson-Watt, and by 1939 England had established a chain of radar stations along its south and east coasts to detect aggressors in the air or on the sea.
>
> World War II defense for Britain, built in the late 1930s just outside Dover, … It was part of the Chain Home network of early warning radar systems built by the.
>
> Swingate Chain Home Radar Station

COASTAL PATROL - Richard Taylor

August 1940 – Battle of Britain: Mk1 Spitfires of 610 Sqn from Biggin Hill patrol The White Cliffs near Dover.

Business Insider

In 1940, while the US still enjoyed relative peace, the Brits battled for the skies over England. *

In the movie Pearl Harbor the British Spitfire and North American Aviation P-51 (same thing, under liscense) fly over the White Cliffs of Dover, Dover Air Force Base, England defedning against German bombers attacking London and escorting British bombers to Gernamy.

In the case of the Bomber aircraft especially before RADAR the fighter/pursuit plane could fly within a circumference of bombers and intercept inbound hostile fighters before they reached the home team bomber.

In the movie Top Gun the question asked of the character of Tom Cruise is did he leave the defensive circumference of the wings of the Bomber he was guarding leave that bomber unattended and vulnerable for showboat kill somewhere else.

Here a Russian autonomous unmaned drone will fly on point in combination with a manned SU-57 fighter plane gaining data further out about targets than the SU-57 can reach, thus extending the weapons and combat function to a wider and more foreward or perhaps rearward radius.

Five Star Illuminati Nebula connects Judiciary Legislative Executive Religion Media

Not independent at all, web of Nebula connects the three branches of government, media, and religion into a connected mission and one role of he mission is shooting down "Conspiracy Theories" and other speculation about the Nebula.

Media War Rooms back he firing of James Comey, Sessions, etc.

The Ukraine and Drug Deals - Task Force Video and Stem Cells on the day or day before of her death

Corruption - Political ideology Google knowledge panel retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Corruption is a form of dishonesty or criminal offense undertaken by a person or organization entrusted with a position of authority, to acquire illicit benefit or abuse power for one's private gain. Wikipedia

Corruption is a form of dishonesty or criminal offense undertaken by a person or organization entrusted with a position of authority, to acquire illicit benefit or abuse power for one's private gain. Corruption may include many activities including bribery and embezzlement, though it may also involve practices that are legal in many countries.[1] Political corruption occurs when an office-holder or other governmental employee acts in an official capacity for personal gain. Corruption is most commonplace in kleptocracies, oligarchies, narco-states and mafia states.[2]

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Kleptocracy (from Greek "power, rule") is a government whose corrupt leaders (kleptocrats) use political power to appropriate the wealth of their nation, typically by embezzling or misappropriating government funds at the expense of the wider population.[1][2]

Oligarchy

is a form of power structure in which power rests with a small number of people. These people may be distinguished by nobility, wealth, education, corporate, religious, political, or military control. Such states are often controlled by families who pass their influence from one generation to the next, but inheritance is not a necessary condition of oligarchy.

Narco-state

Narco-state (also narco-capitalism or narco-economy[a]) is a political and economic term applied to countries where all legitimate institutions become penetrated by the power and wealth of the illegal drug trade.[2] The term was first used to describe Bolivia following the 1980 coup of Luis García Meza which was seen to be primarily financed with the help of narcotics traffickers.[3] Examples of some narco-states are described below. Other well-known examples are Mexico, Colombia, and Guinea-Bissau, where drug cartels produce, ship and sell drugs such as cocaine and marijuana.

Mafia state

In politics, a mafia state is a state system where the government is tied with organized crime to the degree when government officials, the police, and/or military became a part of the criminal enterprise.[1][2] According to US diplomats, the phrase "mafia state" was coined by Alexander Litvinenko[3]

"In navies and the maritime industry, damage control is the emergency control of situations that may cause the sinking of a watercraft.

"Examples are: rupture of a pipe or hull especially below the waterline and damage from grounding (running aground) or hard berthing against a wharf.

"Temporary fixing of bomb or explosive damage." *

My theory is a capsule of true delusion could be pierced and destroy by any of about 20 "right wing conspiracy theories." The #1a protects each component delusion with necessary cohesion and and efficiency. I need all 20 leaks sprung, or just one which does the rest

Is THE MEDIA A PERSON ACTING UNDER COLOR OF LAW FOR PURPOSES OF § 1983? retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

There has been very little consensus on whether or not members of the media can be deemed government actors for purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 1983. However, courts have deemed the media government actors when certain factors are present.

This section of the Comment takes a look at cases that have dealt with media liability under § 1983 in order to determine what those factors are.

There is a trend toward holding media liable for a civil rights violation when there is a close relationship between the media and the government agents during the action in question. This will require a factual determination in each case.

It is clear that the courts will look for some type of an agreement between the media and the government agency-be it oral or written-that provides the media with some special privilege to which other private parties are not entitled.

For example, in Berger v. Hanlon,16 the Ninth Circuit held that Cable News Network (CNN) agents were government actors for purposes of a civil rights claim. 17 The Ninth Circuit found that there was not only a verbal, but a written agreement between the government and the media to engage jointly in an enterprise that only the government could lawfully institute-the execution of a search warrant.1 S In Barrett v. Outlet Broadcasting Inc.,i s the children of a suicide victim > brought a § 1983 action against a city and members of its police department, alleging that police employees permitted a news crew to enter the victim's home, film the scene of a suicide and broadcast those pictures on television.

I will later find out during researching my book on the topic, the topic of my life and my family of biological origins, that all three of the four member family or origin, my mother, father, and myself, underwent PsyOps Gangstalk.

Further that this Gangstalk system is run by the Defense Intelligence Agency of MKULTRA and tied to CIA Killings and Black Budgets and Midnight Climax in adult entertainer surrogacies and Free Masonry covert circles.

Plausible deniability retrieved from From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia and copied or modified to here

> Plausible deniability is the ability of people, typically senior officials in a formal or informal chain of command, to deny knowledge of or responsibility for any damnable actions committed by others in an organizational hierarchy because of a lack or absence of evidence that can confirm their participation, even if they were personally involved in or at least willfully ignorant of the actions. If illegal or otherwise-disreputable and unpopular activities become public, high-ranking officials may deny any awareness of such acts to insulate themselves and shift the blame onto the agents who carried out the acts, as they are confident that their doubters will be unable to prove otherwise.
>
> The lack of evidence to the contrary ostensibly makes the denial plausible (credible), but sometimes, it makes the denial only unactionable (Obstruction of jusstice, lying to investigators).

> There are a number of specific causes of action, including: contract-based actions; statutory causes of action; torts such as assault, battery, invasion of privacy, fraud, slander, negligence, intentional infliction of emotional distress; and suits in equity such as unjust enrichment and quantum meruit.

The term typically implies forethought, such as intentionally setting up the conditions for the plausible avoidance of responsibility for one's future actions or knowledge.

In some organizations, legal doctrines such as command responsibility exist to hold major parties responsible for the actions of subordinates who are involved in heinous acts and nullify any legal protection that their denial of involvement would carry [part of the denial of State peeping acts is treating me or my property like a peeper WITHOUT calling me a peeper ever to my face..

In politics and espionage, deniability refers to the ability of a powerful player or intelligence agency to pass the buck and to avoid blowback by secretly arranging for an action to be taken on its behalf by a third party that is ostensibly unconnected with the major player. In political campaigns, plausible deniability enables candidates to stay clean and denounce third-party advertisements that use unethical approaches or potentially-libelous innuendo.

Although plausible deniability has existed throughout history, the term was coined by the CIA in the early 1960s to describe the withholding of information from senior officials to protect them from repercussions if illegal or unpopular activities became public knowledge.

Agaim quoting by Offramp

Predatory Gangstalking is also called “terror stalking”, “gangstalking”, “flash mobbing”, “cause stalking,” “hate stalking,” “multi-stalking, “happy slapping,” “workplace bullying, and “covert war.”

The reasons why it is employed?

You found the wrong forum on the internet and saw something you should not have seen; you worked for a company and found out some sensitive information; you got on the wrong side of someone who is a member of the vast satanic or luciferian cabal; etc.

What does this have to do with the field of the paranormal? On a macrocosmic level, preternatural beings are the driving force behind activities such as gang stalking. The destruction of a person feeds them. It also fits in with their overall agenda. People who are victims of gangstalking are people who pose a threat to the goals of the dark principalities.

In addition to being stalked by large groups of people, malevolent/demonic entities may be attacking you in the night, and disembodied voices may be harassing you at all hours. Though seemingly unrelated, all of these subjects tend to be connected.

The goal of Gang Stalking

> The expressed [including to me Edward Paul Donegan] goal of Gang Stalking is to silence a victim, drive a victim insane and possibly to the point of suicide, or destroy the victim's reputation and believability as the person will likely be viewed as mentally ill should they complain or report the abuse. Gang Stalking is also used to gather information on individuals as well as force individuals to move or leave an area.
>
> Motivations for the abuse
>
> Motivations for Gang Stalking vary. Revenge for a real or imagined offense (People in these organizations are quite petty, mirroring their preternatural handlers); false accusations of a "horrible crime" [or horrible mental disease] of which the victim has gotten away with (Used to discredit the victim and destroy his/her reputation); silencing a corporate "whistle-blower"; defecting from a cult; a perceived enemy of a group or organization; "knowing too much" are all examples of possible motivations.

Or to by repudiably (deniably) irritating and frustrating a person (Happy Slapping normal hapy states) create frustration which appears to the examiner to by psychosis.

> Happy slapping Happy slapping was a fad originating in the United Kingdom around 2005, in which one or more people out of boredom attack a victim for the purpose of recording the assault. Wikipedia

"The expressed goal of Gang Stalking is to silence a victim, drive a victim insane and possibly to the point of suicide, or destroy the victim's reputation and believability"

The subversion of my followers by their being drawn away from me, the subversion of my work and accomplishments in life, "everyone has the right to be believed except for lonely loser psychos with no followers (as told to me on Twitter during the 2015 election and Honor Flight DCA

Subversion (Gangstalk)

Top Tier,3 Level, White House
	Regular Police Operatives (passive)	← should be, is not →	Myself, my property attacked by street gangs Police pay assailants in front of me. Victim of State acts the State denies
Crony Deep State Shot Callers can and do get support for this operation and covering it up	Henchmen Law Enforcement Layer 2 Espionage Agent (Has support of others including Media who in Deniability of operation)	Violent Gang Member Confidential Informants Layer 2 Espionage Asset

Violent Street Gangs on drugs and armed (guns and drugs provided by police) operating as Neighborhood Watch (police controlled units) both peep in my identity and simultaneously threaten to kill me for having peeped

Me and my trust fund blamed for the acts of others

Passing the Buck [from WH Plumbers and Street Gangs to Edward Paul Donegan

Buck passing, or passing the buck (from street gantgs to me,) or sometimes (playing) the blame game, is the act of attributing to another person or group one's own responsibility. It is often used to refer to a strategy in power politics whereby a state tries to get another state to deter or fight an aggressor state while it remains on the sidelines.[1]

Passing the Buck from Street Gangs to me

Street gangs are encouraged to offend in my stolen identity (using pimps for underage female ass models) and it is offered to them they can confess in my identity to an adult Dominatrix in roleplay, all of whose acts Character Assassination the White Supremacist and deplete his assets

Tom Dunham and I spent most or part of our lives talking to deaf ears whatever peeping rings exist we are NOT in them despite appearances we are.

"I, who have been brought up in freedom, with the right of free speech, cannot in my old age change and learn slavery instead." - Cato the Younger retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Few men have been desperate enough to attack openly, and barefaced, the liberties of a free people. Such avowed conspirators can rarely succeed: The attempt would destroy itself.

Even when the enterprize is begun and visible, the end must be hid, or denied.

It is the business and policy of traitors, so to disguise their treason with plausible names, and so to recommend it with popular and bewitching colours, that they themselves shall be adored, while their work is detested, and yet carried on by those that detest it. - Cato

Further, my brother Thomas Neil Donegan, named after Neil Armstrong, may also have been recruited and developed as Targeted Individual, a "good person," inside the Donegan family who if he worked with covert interests could keep genetic rights and knowledge our genome secret and under his control so that it could be used for Social Justice in new DNA techniques for world good.

I have lost all my adult lifespan to horrific imprisonment conditions which exacerbate, inflame, and grind on, and continue in detention conditions the very sexual, physical, and psychiatric assaults (taunting by actions towards me, physical contact assaults, arguments insane in premise imposed on me, etc.,) which often had originally landed me in custody, myself in self defense against plain clothes State backed COINTELPRO assailants who denied any complicity and denied they were State planted Agent Provocateurs or Mercenaries from some type of COUNTER-IINTEL function being used on me.

DOD PsyOPs studies and suppress due oppportunities in my life and human rights as others beat me out to thps opportunities substituting themselves as infiltrators or replacements

1) Arrest by National Institute of Health Police

I am beld in prison or prison like conditions under study so adversaries can create themselves as accepted displacements of me, utilizing my own standing and worth as their own, co opted from me while denying my human rights.

I am illegally Criminally Harassed Under Color of Law from rightful outcomes to fallback into skid row non white prison conditions and studied by provocation and assault so others can replace me.

My belief system which I call the Radical Right has been under attack by the US Government.

I call it the Radical Right because it is right wing in that it sees limited role for government, I call it conservatism in social, religious, and economic matters, conserving the use of the power of State to their most limited applications.

The radical reference is in regard to the English and other radicals of the Colonial Revolutionary belief system which represented a break from well established thought of the day. This system I propose returns to Classical Greek Natural Law philosophy rather than Christian influenced Neoclassical-ism. The breaks with Neoclassical-ism are along several lines, one of them being rejection of religious fundamentalism, either Islamic or Christian, which is Revelation scriptures based, and instead move to an inductive learning growing society based in Modernity, progressing.

We do not have an established religion so I do not embrace The Ten Commandments as foundations in US law as the Religious Right do and while I recognize the West as a distinct hemisphere and interest in history in today's society I believe we, the U.S., ought to sail with the crew we have, cling to Natural Law Philosophy as a means of governance, and for all new borns and immigrants this philosophy ought to be taught as our system of government, and that if a person newly taught to this Western heritage it ought to seem natural to believe in it. Of course our way of life respects freedom of speech and opinion and views will and of course are allowed to vary.

This view of the world and philosophy does not represent the Progressive Left, though the progressive elements are similarly Liberalist, nor is it the view of the Religious Right.

This legitimate viewpoint of mine has been subject to harassment, infiltration, and in my own case kidnap, as the mental health system has been used outside of its lawful role.

I assert that a Criminal Harassment Under Color of Law as Subversion of the USA and my MKULTRA family genome is based in taking over charities, using charities as claimants against me thus manufacturing a popular and publicly accepted Conspiracy Against my Rights under color of Subversives in Power feigning loyalty to the Constitution.

Those holding disdain or opposing views have defined me as a harassment and false arrested me into the mental health system.

These strategic arrests for my lawful activities have accomplished three things for the government.

1. Prevented or forestalled any political activity of mine for the time I have been under arrest.

2. Defamed me as mentally incompetent.

3. Made me vulnerable to my political adversaries as I have subjected to provocations under hostile or psychiatric circumstances, forcing me into unwanted debate or interviews.

This has been a politically motivated conspiracy against my rights and a disruption of the legitimate Radical Right wing in politics.

I tried to file Freedom of Information Requests from the National Institute of Health and Department of Energy which would have likely supported my claims the junk science of the Human Genome Program was politicized junk science, conducted without scientific standards, and that the HGP junk science created unfair and destructive racial policies.

A blend of witness tampering and conflicts of interests placed me under arrest for "harassing and annoying phone calls" which were in support of my FOIA requests and FOIA appeals which were not returning the documents I requested.

The NIH used its health care power and the PHS DOD element of it (see Prosecution for the Defense) to place me and my views under PsyOps and covert actions scrutiny and disruption ever since.

See EPW (Enemy Prisoner of War) on this link, and note also this quote from The PSYWAR

> Psychological Operations (PSYOP) or Psychological Warfare (PSYWAR) is simply learning everything about your target enemy, their beliefs, likes, dislikes, strengths, weaknesses, and vulnerabilities. Once you know what motivates your target, you are ready to begin psychological operations. (from psyhist)

“Psychological Warfare (PSYWAR) is simply learning everything about your target enemy, their beliefs, likes, dislikes, strengths, weaknesses, and vulnerabilities. Once you know what motivates your target, you are ready to begin psychological operations [of becoming the alternate choice for the Compromised and Absent original.]”

While I was held in custody undergoing involuntary interviews with NIH psychologists and psychiatrists, things I represented and spoke of while explaining and justifying my views to the National Institute of Health were being co-opted into the Obama Biden presidential campaign.

Barely clinging to homeless and homeless shelter living conditions, under constant death threats of knife attacks from incited and paid skid row assailants, I have long thought a true CIA Blackwater hit was out on me, Disposition Matrix, in part, because the people who have been threatening to kill me say they are connected to Secret Service, CIA, FBI, or others.

Gangstalk of Evidence Plants and Agencies Believing fake evidence create new unjust recomposition, sketch, of the gang stalk victim’s life

Gangstalk System Targeting a Cape Cod Atomic Testing Veteran
The State (Enrique Prado, La Cosa Nostra, assets)	The innocent murdered victim in custody
DARPA CIA DEEP STATE	Their Espionage Recruits Targeted by Deep State for Recruitment	Gangstalk Victim, murdered, conspired against by CIA
Secret Police [-3]	→ [-2U] Mercenary	[+1] Ed Donegan

	at State Agency, Landlord, etc., acts on pretext created by Doppelgänger –	abused by State lives in Context of retaliation. The retaliation seems well founded, but little actual details to Ed
← Mercenary Corrupt Law Enforcement, Neighborhood Watch, SJW Services, Muscle Cars, Managed Assets, etc., [-2l]	← Mercenary Corrupt Law Enforcement?, Impersonator of Edwward Paul Donegan wrongs minority victim, etc. which is Pretext May be same as Doppelgänger and victimize own girlfriend, wife [-1] -1 and -2 often the same person

Evidence seizures, jobs, self funding police unit, hookers to catch fake ed with child porn, may incentivize -2l, Agency Goals, Agency Coveup may incentivize -2U

- Teen or tot harmed by the Doppelgänger
- Elder in the System harmed by the fake allegation, retaliation

These are so called “Tawana Brawley” fake allegations hoax claims against me created by the SJWs of minority protection services.

Human Trafficking is the result, the framed person is used to fertilize others as penalty.

The people who want to plead me guilty to raping Tawana Brawley I can not only get rid of they state they will kill me as social justice and also claim to manage my DNA for me.

Don't think that homeless shelters assaults are where the betrayal is most tangible. Many think they are truly fighting a white supremacist and they have been harmed by white supremacism or they think they are fighting a pedophile who has harmed children, and like Darth Vader, they can bypass debate in the Senate and just do the deed when no one is looking like the cops want them to do.

In fact my record, my real existence, the truth of me has no connections to white supremacy or teen or other such interests, if every I downloaded a teen in bikini or less porn image it was more just on random fluke or variation.

As for "white supremacy" I have spent 35 years at least being attacked by the needy, often blacks or gays, and trying to figure out why they were doing it both by researching my family history and Nazi ties and also studying how and why people, the needy, sought to benefit from the fights they were in with me, claiming a Social Justice higher moral ground and my calculating what they might need or want from me if I am blamed for the fight.

Evidence of such, the appearance I am either of those things is the result of a Gangstalk.

Gangstalks are the use of Mercenaries, those Targeted for espionage activities, which are political in nature. They plant a to near me and someone else takes a picture when I coincidentally seem to be answering some unexpected telemarketer call on my smart phone at the same time.

That mere appearance is used politically later behind my back to deny me housing, employment, even income, as I seem to be a fraudster harming people and my life needs to be disrupted.

Those ties to a survivable life, housing income, social fabric and social support, a family of my own and political, business, sexual, and artistic, housing my entire life is eroded away because of the Rumor Mongering the inculpating evidence plants created.

Much of the evidence up sold. Start with an incriminating photo in public out of my control then use it to get me tanked, behind my back with psychiatric evaluators, legal professionals, others, and get them to compound that manufactured evidence with their own findings based on the bad evidence used without me present, and from that unjust abuse of process detentions for me disrupting my during the detentions and making life with the civil detention records sheet impossible for future life.

In the little time I have had in dangerous conditions housing experiencing evidence plants, a turkey in the air dripping in the sweat of exhaustion, I have analyzed the events of my life and the gang stalk of me.

And I have followed the money. The black money of black markets and black market genetics for designer babies.

I didn't have access to others bank accounts but I did find the cars paid for by the black market genetics bearing the license plate "Beaker" along Twitter and other accounts I found hinting a white supremacist caught in some trap is having to pay up with his DNA for harm to females.

The press has watched and participated in the conspiracy this book outs.

I will die in flight, a turkey who can not out-fly superior aggressor criminal forces acting under State power.

The Social Security Administration is one such group. Tampering with Social Security Numbers and being involved in failed Due Process as covertly my Social Security is dropped on fraud allegations, fraud by others, alleged behind my back to me.

These acts of others including harm to children is used to deny me both housing and income for housing and will bring about my death in a homeless shelter as some mercenary takes the matters of me into his own hands.

I have seen this process used before on many others.

That is the path as I can best navigate a survivable life path. While in the homeless shelter it will be concluded I have no cognitive capabilities and nothing of any value I can manage so I will pickup an asset manage while I am in there, the usual fatal attraction asset manager who is interested in my gaining my family biological assets and doing so by harming me and pretending disinterest or pity upon me, or event feigning anger at me for alleged conduct at the same time as they fawn over my and say they want my baby.

In fact a secret interest in my genome and fake rights to that genome, through violence against me, is what this book is about.

Black money of human genome trafficking in illegal and felony controlled black markets.

This book also completes the research, my research, into these attacks as based on the Government and former government workers need to coverup the ongoing and disastrous scientific Bluderlanch started by Sidney Gottlieb and now in a growing sapient coverup disaster.

Wikipedia quoted here from link

An avalanche (also called a snowslide) is an event that > occurs when a cohesive slab of snow lying upon a weaker layer of snow fractures and slides down a steep slope. Avalanches are typically triggered in a starting zone from a mechanical failure in the snowpack (slab avalanche) when the forces of the snow exceed its strength but sometimes only with gradual widening (loose snow avalanche). After initiation, avalanches usually accelerate rapidly and grow in mass and volume as they entrain more snow. If the avalanche moves fast enough, some of the snow may mix with the air forming a powder snow avalanche, which is a type of gravity current.

I am not looking for a Win Win here. Too much has been lost. I am seeking a Lose Lose. I have no shame in looking to the enemies of the USA, enemies of the people of the USA, and enemies of the media of the USA.

I am one too. Intellectual, morally, spiritually, and tactically. This nightmare of hate crime against me as I lay in a medical emergency in the gladiator pit was too interesting for the Illuminati to ever stand down from.

The difficulty I have faced is not the legitimacy of my fight but that the stadium I fight in is composed of feeces and any ladder out of this arena can not support my weight.

If fact the USA is built out of lies and my existence a fact the substance of which the fecal spray of the USA must coverup if the feces is to appear the greater substance.

The facts have been on my side all of my life and they have always been covered over by the lies which form the spray onto me, powered by the fan.

I have been offered a fight with aggressors. All during my life I have weighed taking it.

Mostly I did not. Some day I might. But for those already at war with the United States I applaud them and reason they too are victims of a USA which has lost its mind and now is in a desperate coverup by creating disasters around the world including the USA, Australia, Ethiopia, and other locations.

I am proud and confident a Quoran is in my home, and I find it a force of justice in the world, a source of wisdom learned over centuries of a wise people in rational pursuit of fairness and truth.

One of the most fundamental and truly terrifying parts of my life is 30 year long struggle ever even to be identified as Edward Paul Donegan.

There is always the Doppelgänger or identity theft at every moment of my being alive for thirty years and even at places like the Department of Motor Vehicles, court clerks office, gym, or other locations like detention, always the video is down or being serviced by some security company and it seems there is no record of who was realty at the window or booking desk or applying for the drivers license or in which unit of an apartment or hotel.

I have considered myself a stateless citizen of the USA on that basis and if I cant be identified as Edward Paul Donegan ever than any protection of my assets as myself is impossible or protection of myself from the liabilities of impersonators is impossible.

It is in this most basic struggle, to be correctly identified, I have lost every battle of my life and I will die losing exactly that same struggle, likely misidentified, to history, and to family genealogy, the person who never was actually Edward Paul Donegan.

This book

A Light Hearted Musical With Only A Few Nazis Around

Daughter Eleonore von Trapp, who went by Lorli, was born on May 14, 1931, in Salzburg, Austria, on the border of Germany. After fleeing the country, her family settled in Vermont in the early 1940s and opened a ski lodge in Stowe.Oct 31, 2021 Perhaps Deleonore Von Trapp born during Under Secretary of the Navy FDR who relied on Joseph Kennedy Sr. a namesake.

Described as Light Hearted Musical Romp with just a few Nazis around The Sound of Music tells of Maria Von Trapp singing Nazi songs for a while but pulled towards England and the USA as the Nazi party they were asked to sing for turned ever more ominous.

I think there is a lot of light hearted propaganda out there by Walt Disney as was asked for before and after the war by the CIA, the movie Jet Pilot a fun rump about Col Shannon and the FBI taking an interest in he defector wife from the other camp of the conflict, and a few others including Star Wars.

Superclass and Relate and or referenced matierial in a careful perspective

Consider the Free Masons, the Business Plot, Columbia University, but do it with the careful thinking of David Rothkopf

Israel can have allies in the USA but that need not be dependent on a ruling class of global elite governance.

Mr. Rothkopf considers Soveriengty and the Superclass of international elites

> Westphalian sovereignty
>
> Google Knowlege Panel *
>
> Westphalian sovereignty, or state sovereignty, is a principle in international law that each state has exclusive sovereignty over its territory. Wikipedia

> Federal News Service is a Washington, D.C.-based company providing transcription services. FNS produces on-demand verbatim transcripts of newsworthy events in DC for its clients. FNS “is one of the chief sources of transcripts from presidential appearances and Capitol Hill events”. Wikipedia

“SUPERCLASS: THE GLOBAL POWER ELITE AND THE WORLD THEY ARE MAKING” retrieved from If You Want to Know Who Rules the World: The Ruling Elite - Finance, Wealth, Power (2008) and copied or modified to here

SPEAKERS: DAVID ROTHKOPF, VISITING SCHOLAR, CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT WELCOME AND MODERATOR: MARK MEDISH, VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDIES: RUSSIA, CHINA, AND EURASIA, CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 2008
Transcript by Federal News Service Washington, D.C.
[image] [image]

by David Rothkopf (Author) “Oil is the most mind altering substance known to man.”

… I was thinking back on the fact that I had probably given 50 or 60 speeches on the other book and whenever I gave a speech on “Running the World,” somebody would stand up in the audience and say, that’s the trouble with you Americans; you think you’re running the world. And I would look at them aghast because, apparently, my subtle irony was lost in the title. And this taught me an important lesson and so there’s no irony whatsoever in this title - (laughter) - although I try to weave some of it into the book. But - so that was part of the genesis. Part of it was the fact that when I was a student at Columbia University back when dinosaurs roamed the Earth, they had a core curriculum. And one of the things in the core curriculum was C. Wright Mills’ book “The Power Elite.” And “The Power Elite” looked at how power and the most powerful people interacted in the United States during the ’50s. In fact, it just came out of - 51 years ago now, just about half a century ago.

And it looked at how political leadership and business leadership and military leadership interacted at just the moment of American post-war ascendancy, at just the moment when we were starting to have concerns that would lead a couple of years later to Dwight Eisenhower identifying the threat associated with the military-industrial complex. And I thought, you know, it would be interesting to look to see whether such an elite has emerged for the global era, and that, in fact, it was my sense that one had, and that by looking at this group, looking at this superclass, if you will, we would be able to see how globalization might evolve because no group is more globalized. And no group is having a greater influence on the nature of globalization than the most empowered people on the Earth. And so that's what led me into this. Now, you know, I think, on some level, the publisher thought that, you know, we would have a good audience among the conspiracy theorists out there - and there are plenty of conspiracy theorists. And I don't want to turn them away from this book - (laughter) - but just between you and me, it's not really a book for conspiracy theorists.

You know, I mean, all of us have had our brushes with conspiracy theory. I grew up, Jewish boy in New Jersey, hearing about the world Jewish conspiracy, and I thought, great. (Laughter.) You know, where do I sign up? (Laughter.) There are not many Jews and, you know, conceivably I could have a significant role - (laughter) - nothing flashy, but, you know, Canada maybe or - (laughter) - world sorghum prices or something like that. (Laughter.) You know, when you examine conspiracy theories, including that one, they break down pretty quickly. I mean, if the Jews really were running the world, we certainly could have done a better job. (Laughter.) You know, broadly speaking or certainly with regard - I mean, the Holocaust, the Inquisition - (laughter) - the musical stylings of Barry Manilow - (laughter) - you know what I'm saying. I mean, there are things that we could have done better.

But, you know, if you look at Free Masons or you look at Skull and Bones, you know, you look at these various groups, they break down. You know, I mean, how can you have an academic secret society that George Bush is a member of? (Laughter.)

You know, it says something about the academic nature - (laughter) - in any event, of the secret society. But I think that if you go beyond these theories, there really is something to be learned. And so, what we decided to do was to come up with a benchmarking exercise, you know, a kind of a what's a definition of membership in this? And we're not looking at just the wealthy; we're looking at power. And so, the definition that we used was people who influence the lives of millions across borders on a regular basis. Now, we came up with six, 7,000 people that we could look at.

And we actually made a list and did a sort of demographic analysis of them and so forth. You might come up with 60,000. I don't want to debate about the size of the group. It's a tiny, tiny fraction of the people of the planet Earth, 6600; we came up with what happens to be one in a million. That means one member of this group for every million people that there are on the Earth. But when you get a group small enough like that, you can start seeing things about the group that are eye-opening that, you know, for instance, 94 percent of the group are men.

The single most underrepresented group in the global power structure, to this day, is women. If you look at legislatures around the world, the average participation of women in legislatures is 17 percent. It's worse here and in some other places. But in other forms of power, it's worse still than that. I think of the Fortune 500, there are 13 women right now who are CEOs. So that's one of the things that you might pick up from it. Right now, it's a very transatlantic group; 61 percent of it is from one side of the Atlantic or the other. But by far the most rapidly growing component of the group are people on the Asian side of the Pacific Ocean and that the center of gravity within the superclass is following the center of economic gravity on the planet.

So understanding how this group influences things will help us understand what the implications of a change like that might be. And, you know, there are other interesting things about the group, too, as you look at it: first of all, it's an older group. The average age, I think, is 58 years; primarily white guys, primarily people who are running businesses or financial organizations; used to be much - if you looked at elites in the past, they were much more from the public sector.

If you look at the most powerful people in the world today, it is increasingly part of the private sector. And we can go further and further. One of the interesting things about it is that we looked at where they were educated and, of the members of this group, something like a third, 30 percent, came from one of 20 universities in the world. Now, that's kind of striking when you consider that this is 6600 people from 180 countries around the world and most of, you know, a fairly substantial portion of them, a third roughly, have gone to just one of 20 schools. And I think if we made it one of 40 schools, we probably could have gotten it up to half.

So what does that say besides, you know, can I get my kid into that school? (Laughter.) You know, another thing that it says is that this is where networks start to be built. And one of the really defining characteristics of this group is the nature of the networks, that networking is the force multiplier in any kind of power structure because it gives you access, whether it's an access to do a deal, an access to get insight into what's going on inside a government. And I would go out and I'd talk to people; I talked to 150 people in doing this book. And time after time after time, when I talked to people sort of within the heart of this superclass, one of the first things they said is, small world.

And, you know, the small-world phenomenon came up over and over: I can get to anybody with a phone call; I can get to anybody with two phone calls. I can use that as insight that I can trade upon or insight - or connections that I can use from the point of view of influence and so forth. And so that is another thing that one can pick up from studying a group like this. Some dimensions of this are striking in that they really force us to step away from our preconceptions. All of us have been raised in sort of thinking in terms of, well, the Treaty of Westphalia. I know most of you right now, I can look at you and see that you're thinking of the Treaty of Westphalia. (Laughter.) It almost never leaves the forefront of my mind.

But the notion that there was this treaty 400 years ago and we started from then on thinking of the way the world is organized in terms of chunks of political entities known as nation-states. But the role of those nation-states in this particular era has been changed fairly dramatically. And this - I mean, people have been noting this for some time. Jessica Matthews wrote a paper over a decade ago called "Power Shift," which was a very important early acknowledgement of what was happening here. But that power shift has taken place in ways that are really, really interesting and I think haven't been taken into consideration by policymakers in a lot of respects.

On the one hand, the concentration of power in the hands of fewer and fewer people has grown and grown and grown. In the '50s, when C. Wright Mills wrote that book, the defense budget of the United States was larger than the annual sales of the largest companies in the United States added up together. Today, the defense budget is 50-percent smaller than the annual sales of Exxon and Wal-Mart, the two largest companies.

So the size of companies is much greater. In the ’60s, the average international corporation had 100 subsidiaries. Today, the average international corporations have 10,000 subsidiaries. If you take the biggest companies, a company like Exxon has annual sales that make it roughly the same size of an economic entity as, say, Sweden, which has a - the 19th largest GDP in the world. Now, I know the difference between sales and GDP; this is just a thumbnail sketch of relative power. But here you have a phenomenon where the top 250 companies in the world produce sales that are the equivalent of one-third of global GDP, where the top 2,000 companies in the world have 70 million employees. They probably have half a billion dependents associated with those employees. And if you add in their suppliers and distributors, it certainly gets you to a billion people. That’s 2,000 CEOs and boards making decisions directly impacting the lives of a billion people.

On a planet where, of the six billion people on the planet, four billion of them have fairly lousy jobs, fairly lousy earning potential, the bottom three billion living on less than $2 a day. So there are only a couple of billion people on the planet that are particularly well employed. And half of them work for those 2,000 largest companies. Well, you know, when you look at the concentration of power, then you say, well, who has influence within that group? Well, the most influential people are the people at the top of the pyramid. It’s different company by company, but how do they get paid? I mean, that’s one of the things that’s got in - they get paid by their stock price. Well, what influences their stock price? Well, estimates say that hedge funds alone, because they trade so much, represent 30 to 50 percent of trading in markets on a daily basis. And of 10,000 hedge funds, the top 300 control 85 percent of the assets. The top 100 control 60 percent of the assets.

So very, very few financial institutions play a very, very influential role in determining stock prices, which determine the fate of the CEOs and the people who are leading these companies. Power is concentrated in other ways within these organizations as well. If you take the five largest companies in the world, the CEOs and the boards of those companies, 70 people, are on the boards of another 150 companies including a third of the 500 largest companies in the world and almost 25 different universities. So that - the little network at the top of the five largest companies who have, you know, annual sales of about $1.5 trillion reaches out and touches an enormous portion of the other leading companies which touch an enormous portion of the rest of the world

…

In terms of the affiliations and allegiance within the superclass, it's like, you know, any small town of 6,000 people. There are people who like each other, there are people who hate each other, there are people who are rivals for each other, and that's why I don't put a lot of stock in the notion that, you know, you get your superclass decoder ring and you go and, you know, you speak the secret language of the superclass and you impose your will.

But when significant numbers of members of this group act in a certain way, they can have a lot of influence. The 50 largest financial institutions in the world have $48.5 trillion in assets. That gives them commonality of interest and an enormous amount of influence, and when they act together it has an effect on how we regulate, how we look at markets, what we say is tolerable and what we don't say is tolerable in those regards, and I think that's what it is.

I would look at the superclass if I wanted to sort of look for problem areas, and I would look for pockets of aligned interest that are leading in the direction of what

> Hilda calls misbehaving. You know, because most of the activity isn't aligned and it isn't misbehaving, but there are places where there can be pockets of aligned interest where there are, that we need mechanisms that don't currently exist. And we would do well to advance them, and in fact I think that's the great sort of policy and political challenge of our lifetime and the lifetime of our children, is filling the governance gap globally.

Consider the Collusion or Cartel or coordinated acts among friendly Boys Club (or Queen of Diamonds) WASPs world in which News Agencies of Influence are cultivated, funded, and do well in nine 9s out of most reporting but do have an Ace-In-The-Whole capability when it is needed and consider the Business Plot.

the Superclass power of the Prince and how should he protect his own self interest?

The premise of this book and it sounds like a middle ground opinion of Mr. Rothkopf and others is that such power exists among the elite class which often moved between media, means of production, politics, education, even science and research with ease is that so much control exists among the elites that should the collude in a Cartel a "Prince" capability exists to create oppressive order the the Sherrif or Rottningham.

In this question I find the answer as to why I was gangstalked. In this Elite Superclass of some individual actors like Donald Barr and William Barr and others their need to cover up a "command decision" to assasinate JFK and so secretive clone research now creates a dirty war on the law abiding because the Sherriff of Rottingham and to protect the realm from the truth of its secrets.

Digging ever deeper holes for themselves?

It is an Epistimic Drift of what is true and and what the Realm Rulders need to be true and a dirty war is the fixers capabilit to try and hide the truth for the self portection of the individuals who have held the secretive title of Prince and still weild that power.

BBRDW Bank of Hawaii/Chase Manhattan

Pope and

Vatican II

Litvenko
Dead

Univ. of Hawaii
Behavioral Sciences
MKULTRA

Knights Of Malta -
James Angleton
Donald Barr
George H.W. B
Richard Cheney
J Edgar Hoover

East-West Center University of Hawaii

US Marshalls
Sleeper Agents POTUS FBI
Ron Pataky

Suharto/The Crane Group

USAID/Peace Corps/Ford Foundation

Big Oil, Big Pharma ..

Eugenics and Sleepers

Big Money

Gym Thug Stalkers

Great Leap Forward and Communist GDP have caused famine
the poor resent

Westphalian sovereignty retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The principle of non-interference in other countries' domestic affairs was laid out in the mid-18th century by Swiss jurist Emer de Vattel.[10] States became the primary institutional agents in an interstate system of relations. The Peace of Westphalia is said to have ended attempts to impose supranational authority on European states. The "Westphalian" doctrine of states as independent agents was bolstered by the rise in 19th-century thoughts of nationalism, under which legitimate states were assumed to correspond to nations-groups of people united by language and culture.

[image]

Le droit des gens, 1775.

The cover page from The Law of Nations Vattel's masterpiece was largely influenced by a book titled Jus Gentium Methodo Scientifica Pertractum (The Law of Nations According to the Scientific Method) by Wolff. Vattel's work began, in fact, by translating Wolff's text from Latin, and adding his own thoughts. Vattel's work was also heavily influenced by Leibniz and Hugo Grotius. Focused largely on the rights and obligations of citizens and states, Vattel's work also had ramifications for Just War Theory as it outlined international diplomacy as we now know it.

Vattel elucidated the "Golden Rule of Sovereigns "One cannot complain when he is treated as he treats others.

Emer (Emmerich) de Vattel (French pronunciation: [vat-těl] 25 April 1714 - 28 December 1767[1]) was an international lawyer. He was born in Couvet in the Principality of Neuchâtel (now a canton part of Switzerland) in 1714 and died in 1767. He was largely influenced by Dutch jurist Hugo Grotius. He is most famous for his 1758 work The Law of Nations. This work was his claim to fame and won him enough prestige to be appointed as a councilor to the court of Frederick Augustus II of Saxony.

Proscribed rights, and do no harm to others or the property of others creates a utilitarian property rights motive for production

The harm principle says people should be free to act however they wish unless their actions cause harm to somebody else. The principle is a central tenet of the political philosophy known as liberalism and was first proposed by English philosopher John Stuart Mill.

The Elements of Law, Natural and Politic [1640] Oxford University Press, 2008 (Human Nature and de Corpore Politico, J.C.A. Gaskin, ed.)

This is Hobbes's first published philosophical work (1640), which was written in part in response to the conflicts between Charles I and Parliament. The book represents Hobbes's initial attempt to address political matters with the deductive methods of geometry, and proposes a definition of sovereignty that remains central to Hobbes's later political works. The Elements of Law has two parts: Human Nature and De Corpore Politico. This edition, edited by J. C. A. Gaskin, also includes chapters from Hobbes's later work De Corpore, his prose and verse autobiography, and parts of John Aubrey's Life of Hobbes.

In this Period of Natual Law Philosophy and the science of government

By the 17th century, the medieval teleological view came under intense criticism from some quarters. Thomas Hobbes instead founded a contractarian theory of legal positivism on what all men could agree upon: what they sought (happiness) was subject to contention, but a broad consensus could form around what they feared (violent death at the hands of another). The natural law was how a rational human being, seeking to survive and prosper, would act. Natural law, therefore, was discovered by considering humankind's natural rights, whereas previously it could be said that natural rights were discovered by considering the natural law. In Hobbes' opinion, the only way natural law could prevail was for men to submit to the commands of the sovereign. Because the ultimate source of law now comes from the sovereign, and the sovereign's decisions need not be grounded in morality, legal positivism is born. Jeremy Bentham's modifications on legal positivism further developed the theory.

As used by Thomas Hobbes in his treatises Leviathan and De Cive, natural law is "a precept, or general rule, found out by reason, by which a man is forbidden to do that which is destructive of his life, or takes away the means of preserving the same; and to omit that by which he thinks it may best be preserved."

This book

William Randolph Hearst

4/11/56 William Randolph Hearst Jr. who is then Editor in Chief of Hearst Newspapers and far right winger globalisms and Vice President Richard Nixon (both from Southern California) talk about the globe. William Randolph Hearst died in 1951 about the same time King George V died (Prince Albert) Now his daughter Princess Elizabeth has been crowned Queen Elizabeth II and since 1951 is closely allied with the USA for world planning in the post war era. Hears the Windsors are very close, thought the Hearsts are close to Jospeph Kennedy and the Kennedy Children it is Nixon the Hearst empire backs.

By this time ATSUGI and Bermuda (Islands) and the Dunes of Palm Springs and El Mirrador hotel (the overlook in Guatamala) have overthrown Guatemala in 1954 with Chauncy Holt, Jack Youngblood, and Col Prouty directing Pentagon surplus resources into the operation Richard Mahue will convert the surplus craft for updated arms on behalf of Howard Hughes.

The plot is secretive and complicated. Most of these people are Eugencists too who believe industrializing savage nations is philanthropy and while doing it they plant sleepers sharing mixed breading as the Windsors begin working through FOXP2 in their own line and studying the propagation of these genes in world connected covert plans to install "indirect rule" the system of a person selected in a country to rule that country on behalf of and subordinate to Great Britain.

[image]

William Randolph Hearst Jr. continuing the politics and political connections of his father meets with Vice President Nixon and they contemplate the globe as did one of the Rockefellers in the White Hosue Library.

[image]

Fig. I-Rothschild-protégé banker J.P. Morgan became a trustee of Columbia University while William J. Donovan (1903-1907) was being groomed by numerous founders of the British Pilgrims Society. By 1912, had purchased editorial control of all of America's major newspapers and in 1913 drove the formation of the Federal Reserve to be controlled by British banks aligned with the Pilgirms Society where Lord Rothchild was a co-founder with J.P. Morgan. UR: William J. 'Wild Bill" Donovan, J. Pierpont ("J.P.") Morgan, Franklin D. Roosevelt, all British Pilgrims Society founding members.

[image]

Fig: King Edward VII published a postcard entitled “King Edward & His Empire Builders.” Of the 16 living Brits identified, 11 were founding members of the Pilgrims Society on Jul. 16, 1902. Those 11 “Empire Builders” were ALL organizers of the First Imperial Press Conference, Jun. 05-28, 1909 (link follows). Curator, Independent Analyst. (ca. 1907). King Edward & His Empire Builders, Postcard, with correlation between Pilgrims Society 1902 and First Imperial Press Conference, 1909. National Portrait Gallery, UK. Between Jun. 05-29, 1909, the Pilgrims Society organized the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909. The keynote speaker was Lord Rosebery (Rothschild). Lord L. Walter Rothschild was there too.

By 1902, the British Pilgrims had evidently already singled out selected American “Robber barons” that they would recruit to their “Empire Building,” many of whom were in Britain for the delayed coronation of Edward VII following the deaths of Queen Victoria and Cecil John Rhodes-their empire building prime mover. We will discuss their names below.

The Business Plot by Prescott Bush had at the center major names like J.P. Morgan and William Randolph Hearst. The use of intermediaries was a new scheme to covertly control the USA by secretive interventions and subversion by powerful industrialists.

It is the daughter of William Randolph Hearst Jr. Patty Hearst who lives through this history, discusses the letters and family history with Brigid Berlin at Interviews Magazine under Andy Warhol and Jed Johnson. In his early career Berlin directed advertising for The Smart Set and McClure's magazines.[1] In 1919 he joined the Hearst Corporation, where he stayed until his retirement in 1973.[1] In 1941 William Randolph Hearst personally chose him as successor to his role.[1] In 1942 Berlin became president of the company and after Hearst's death in 1951 he became chief executive officer.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST
Red-hunter-in-chief, boss of the American Legion, who nurses the fascist plot many more millions available if necessary, is now on a campaign to get 4,000,000 members—a powerful band if properly financed by the country's leading financiers.

Among the heavy backers of the American Liberty League (the name of which was suppressed by the Dickstein Committee when Butler and French testified about it) are:

John W. Davis, Morgan's chief attorney.

Sewell L. Avery, of Chicago, a Crusader

J. P. MORGAN

JOHN W. DAVIS
Chief Morgan lawyer, shown to be tied up with fascist organizations

Edward A. Rumely, secretary of the Committee for the Nation, whose name never appeared on the Committee's letterheads. Readers of THE NEW MASSES series on the Nazi activities in the United States will recollect that Rumely is the mysterious gentleman who gave Viola Ilma letters of introduction to Nazi leaders in Germany and that the Committee by putting across inflation in the United States saved Germany millions of dollars since Image the Business Plot with William Randolph Hearst, J.P. Morgan, and John W. Davies.

> William Randolph Hearst April 29, 1863 - August 14, 1951
>
> Hearst entered the publishing business in 1887 with Mitchell Trubitt after being given control of The San Francisco Examiner by his wealthy father, Senator George Hearst.[

John William Davis

John William Davis (April 13, 1873 - March 24, 1955) was an American politician, diplomat and lawyer. He served under President Woodrow Wilson as the Solicitor General of the United States and the United States Ambassador to the United Kingdom. He was the Democratic nominee for president in 1924, losing to Republican incumbent Calvin Coolidge.

While serving as ambassador to Britain from 1918 to 1921, Davis was a dark horse candidate for the 1920 Democratic presidential nomination. After he left office, Davis helped establish the Council on Foreign Relations and advocated for the repeal of Prohibition.

Davis argued 140 cases before the U.S. Supreme Court. In addition to his legal work, Davis was also involved in the New York City Bar Association, serving as its president from 1931 to 1933. In 1933, he represented J.P. Morgan, Jr. and his companies during a Senate investigation into private banking and the causes of the Great Depression. During the last two decades of his career, Davis represented large corporations before the Supreme Court, challenging the constitutionality and application of New Deal legislation. He lost many of these cases but he scored a major victory in Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer (1952), in which the Supreme Court ruled against President Harry Truman's seizure of the nation's steel plants. Davis unsuccessfully defended the "separate but equal" doctrine in Briggs v. Elliott (1952), one of the companion cases to Brown v. Board of Education (1954), in which the Court ruled that segregated public schools were unconstitutional.

Davis was implicated by retired Marine Corps Major General Smedley Butler in the Business Plot, an alleged political conspiracy in 1933 to overthrow Roosevelt, in testimony before the McCormack-Dickstein Committee, whose deliberations began on November 20, 1934, and culminated in the Committee's report to the U.S. House of Representatives on February 15, 1935. Davis was not called to testify because "The committee will not take cognizance of names brought into the testimony which constitute mere hearsay."

John Pierpont Morgan (April 17, 1837 - March 31, 1913)

John Pierpont Morgan (April 17, 1837 - March 31, 1913)[1] was an American financier and investment banker who dominated corporate finance on Wall Street throughout the Gilded Age and Progressive Era. As the head of the banking firm that ultimately became known as J.P. Morgan and Co., he was a driving force behind the wave of industrial consolidations in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century. Over the course of his

The Nixon Ford Bush Rockefeller wing of the GOP and JFK and RFK were duking it out, with assassinations eliminating JFK and after JFK had fired the Nixon wing, but the Nixon Wing took power and began its purges of that history.

As Jen Moore said Catholics in Action was a name for CIA activities around the world.

https://catholicherald.co.uk/why-catholics-thrive-in-the-cia/

Matthew Kevin Gannon was flying home from a hectic temporary duty (TDY) assignment in the Middle East to spend Christmas with his family. He was on the final leg of his journey, a flight from London to NYC. The plane on which he was a passenger was Pan Am Flight 103.

CIA

Today's CIA Careers Legacy Newsroom Library

Matthew Kevin Gannon was flying home from a hectic temporary duty (TDY) assignment in the Middle East to spend Christmas with his family. He was on the final leg of his journey, a flight from London to NYC. The plane on which he was a passenger was Pan Am Flight 103.

In the evening hours of December 21, 1988, thirty minutes after taking off from Heathrow Airport, Pan American Flight 103 blew up over Lockerbie, Scotland, killing all 259 passengers and crewmembers on board, including Matt, and 11 people on the ground. After more than 11 years of determined investigation by many officials in many countries, two Libyans were tried for the crime in a Scottish court convened in the Netherlands. One was convicted. Matt was buried in Arlington National Cemetery, and his legacy is forever commemorated with a star on the CIA's memorial wall. This is his story.

https://www.cia.gov/legacy/honoring-heroes/heroes/matthew-kevin-gannon/

In the evening hours of December 21, 1988, thirty minutes after taking off from Heathrow Airport, Pan American Flight 103 blew up over Lockerbie, Scotland, killing all 259 passengers and crewmembers on board, including Matt, and 11 people on the ground. After more than 11 years of determined investigation by many officials in many countries, two Libyans were tried for the crime in a Scottish court convened in the Netherlands. One was convicted. Matt was buried in Arlington National Cemetery, and his legacy is forever commemorated with a star on the CIA's memorial wall. This is his story.

Just a few days before Christmas 1988, terrorists blew up Pan American Flight 103 as it passed over Lockerbie, not long after leaving Heathrow. One of the 259 murdered onboard was Matthew Gannon. The eighth child of devout Catholic parents, Gannon had joined the Central Intelligence Agency in 1977, becoming a skilled operations officer and linguist.

Nearly a year later, in October 1989, many victims' belongings still lay unclaimed in trailers in Lockerbie. When Gannon's brother arrived there, he identified his family member's personal items by spotting a missal in a bag with one of Matthew's favourite shirts.

Conspiracy theorists have probably already exploited Gannon's death. It's difficult to investigate anything about the CIA or the Vatican and not encounter narratives that resemble thriller novels.

But we shouldn't ignore the topic. The CIA is the best known of the 17 agencies that comprise the American intelligence community. It has earned itself nicknames like "Catholic Intelligence Agency" and "Catholics In Action". It's worth exploring why. https://catholicherald.co.uk/why-catholics-thrive-in-the-cia/

Under the media power of William Randolph Heart and with J. Edgar Hoover and Great Britian allegiances Western unity now called the NWO organzied by those like James Jesus Angleton and others at the CIA were a major part of MK-Ultra JFK was trying to take apart after defeating (US Senator) Kennedy defeatued (Vice President) Nixon in 1960. The remnenats of the Nixon MKULTRA Prolaterian Guard deep in the CIA killed JFK. Lt Commnader Nixon of the US Navy got started as a US representative near William Randolph Hearst Castle, actually in Orange County where he was discharged from the US Navy following WWII.

https://theintercept.com/2018/01/01/the-complex-legacy-of-cia-counterintelligence-chief-james-angleton/

In December 1974, CIA Director William Colby fired Angleton [As JFK had fired Dulles, Bissle Jr., and Charles Cabell] and after the New York Times revealed the then-unknown counterintelligence chief had overseen a massive program to spy on Americans involved in anti-war and black nationalist movements, a violation of the CIA's charter. Coming four months after the resignation of Richard Nixon, Angleton's fall was the denouement of the Watergate scandal, propelling Congress to probe the CIA for the first time. A Senate investigation, headed by Sen. Frank Church, exposed a series of other abuses: assassination conspiracies, unauthorized mail opening, collaboration with human rights abusers, infiltration of news organizations, and the MKULTRA mind-control experiments to develop drugs for use in espionage.

The exposure of Angleton's operations set off a political avalanche that engulfed the agency in 1975 and after. The post-Watergate Congress established the House and Senate intelligence committees to oversee covert operations. The passage of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act required the CIA to obtain warrants to spy on Americans. And for the first time since 1947, the agency's annual appropriation was slashed. Jefferson Morley January 1 2018, 9:15 a.m. https://theintercept.com/2018/01/01/the-complex-legacy-of-cia-counterintelligence-chief-james-angleton/

HONORABLE MEN My Life in the CIA by William Colby Promptly at eight President Ford showed up. He came from the White House residence along the enclosed porch, passed the Rose Garden and went directly into the Oval Office without seeing us. He was accompanied by two Secret Service men. After a few moments, one of then invited us in.

Ford was seated behind the huge, handsome Presidential desk, looking a bit grim and, as he was to fly to Florida to meet with Sadat later in the morning, he had a thick black briefing book on the Middle East situation in front of him. He set it aside as soon as Nlarsh and I walked in. I had seen the President regularly in the past year, but ours could not in any way be characterized as a personal relationship. Ford, while always cordial, dealt with me in a fairly formal manner. He did not stand up now; we didn't shake hands. I said "Good morning, Mr. President. Jack said you wanted to see me.”

"Yes," he replied, indicating that I should take a seat in the straight armchair in front of the desk. ' 'We are going to do some reorganizing of the national-security structure. He need not have said another word. From that sentence I realized immediately why I had been summoned: I was about to be fired as the Director of Central Intelligence. Ford did not put it quite so bluntly.

In the time honored political tradition with sticky things of this sort, he said he wanted me to take a new job, as Ambassador to NATO. He then sketched the reorganization-which is to say, the sweeping personnel changes-he had in mind. It was what later was to be dubbed the Halloween Massacre, and it in- eluded the sacking of Jim Schlesinger as Secretary of De- fense and Nelson Rockefeller's withdrawal as Ford's run- the straight armchair in front of the desk. "We are going to do some reorganizing of the national-security structure.'

'Yes," he replied, indicating that I should take a seat in the straight armchair in front of the desk. "We are going to do some reorganizing of the national-security structure.' He need not have said another word. From that sentence I realized immediately why I had been summoned: I was about to be fired as the Director of Central Intelligence. [And later found dead accornding to Ted Gunderson and Colby associate John Decamp murdered] HONORABLE MEN My Life in the CIA by William Colby

Master Builders Cardinal Spellman and my cousin Paul Baumann December 26, 2022

https://www.commonwealmagazine.org/francis-spellman-obrien-new-york-catholicism-sheen

I recently spent too many hours plowing through John Cooney's four-hundred-page 1984 biography, The American Pope: The Life and Times of Francis Cardinal Spellman. Spellman was archbishop of New York from 1939 to 1967. He was notorious for his autocratic style and the power he exerted both inside and outside the Church. He was also known for his political conservatism, rabid anticommunism, American jingoism, unstinting support for the war in Vietnam, love of pomp, and financial acumen. He seems to have been almost a caricature of what Protestants long feared about Catholic clerical authoritarianism.

During his nearly thirty years of near dictatorial rule in New York, the cardinal's residence became known as "The Powerhouse." He raised and spent hundreds of millions on new schools, churches, and hospitals. Mayors, governors, senators, and presidents paid homage. Spellman counted J. Edgar Hoover and Roy Cohn as friends and collaborators. He was an outspoken defender of Sen. Joseph McCarthy's red-baiting, and lent his support to Richard Nixon rather than John F. Kennedy in 1960. Although he was conventionally pious, he seems to have thought of himself more as the chief executive of a multimillion-dollar enterprise than as a spiritual leader. "Few people thought of him as a priest at all," according to the novelist and critic Wilfrid Sheed. Although Spellman apparently had a softer side in private, "he really was quite the bogeyman in public."

Spellman, a Massachusetts native and 1916 graduate of Rome's North American College, had little interest in theology, and resisted Vatican II's reforms. "I hire theologians," he once said, dismissively. He campaigned to ban movies, such as Roberto Rossellini's The Miracle, that he judged blasphemous or obscene. When an article in Commonweal criticized such censorship, Spellman got the author fired from his teaching job at the University of Notre Dame. "Error has no rights" was his firm belief. In 1949 he used seminarians to break a strike by the diocesan's cemetery workers, falsely claiming their union was infiltrated by Communists. His famous feud with Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, once the most popular priest in America thanks to his TV program Life is Worth Living, was, predictably, about money, not theology. When Spellman lost that battle, he had Sheen exiled from New York City to upstate Rochester.

The liturgist Aidan Kavanagh, OSB, a former teacher of mine, wrote that "when Cardinal Spellman got dressed up to celebrate pontifical High Mass, it was eerily like watching the Infant of Prague come to life, but an Infant with whom it was advisable not to trifle." Spellman's visibility and authority was the embodiment of what made the pre-Vatican II Church so compelling for many. "It was discipline," Kavanagh wrote. "American Catholicism was a bit corrupt, somewhat crazy, and not a little magnificent." - https://www.commonwealmagazine.org/francis-spellman-obrien-new-york-catholicism-sheen

Black and white photograph from the annual Alfred E. Smith Memorial Dinner featuring Francis Cardinal Spellman, then Vice President Richard Nixon and Charles Silver. Photographed in the West Foyer, 1956.

07 Dec 1967, Manhattan, New York City, New York State, USA --- Richard Nixon, family, and friends at the funeral for Cardinal Francis Joseph Spellman in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Francis Spellman - Wikipedia

When Senator John F. Kennedy ran for president in the 1960 presidential election, Spellman supported his opponent, Vice President Richard Nixon, a non-Catholic. This was because Kennedy opposed federal aid for parochial schools and the appointment of a U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See.

The Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation Dinner, commonly known as the Al Smith Dinner, is an annual white tie dinner in New York City to raise funds for Catholic charities supporting children of various needs in the Archdiocese of New York.[1] Held at New York City's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on the third Thursday of October, it is hosted by the Archbishop of New York. It is organized by the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation in honor of Al Smith, who grew up in poverty and later became the Governor of New York four times and the first Catholic nominated as the Democratic candidate for the 1928 United States presidential election.

Cardinal Francis Spellman founded and hosted the first dinner in 1945 after Smith's death the previous year. By 1960, the Al Smith dinner had become a "ritual of American politics", in the words of Theodore H. White. It is generally the last event at which the two U.S. presidential candidates share a stage before the election.[2] Apart from presidential candidates, keynote speakers have included Tony Blair,[3] Tom Brokaw, Bob Hope, Henry Kissinger, Clare Boothe Luce, and many other prominent civic, business, and church leaders.

Charles M. Silver is an American lawyer, currently the Roy W. and Eugenia C. McDonald Endowed Chair in Civil Procedure, and previously the W. James Kronzer Chair and Cecil D. Redford Professor at University of Texas School of Law. EDUCATION Yale Law School, JD (1987) University of Chicago, MA (Political Science) (1981) University of Florida BA (Political Science) (1979) Wikipedia

History Alfred E. Smith in 1928.

Since 1960, when John F. Kennedy (who would become the first Roman Catholic president) and Richard Nixon were speakers, it has been a stop for the two main presidential candidates during several U.S. election years.[5] In 1976, Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford spoke; in 1980, Carter and Ronald Reagan; in 1988, George H. W. Bush and Michael Dukakis; in 2000, Al Gore[6] and George W. Bush;[7] in 2008, Barack Obama and John McCain;[8] in 2012, Barack Obama[9] and Mitt Romney[10] in 2016, Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump;[11] and in 2020, Trump and Joe Biden.[12] Candidates have traditionally given humorous speeches[13] poking fun at themselves and their opponents, making the event similar to a roast. The 2018 dinner raised $3.9 million.

Since 1980, this custom has been affected by friction between the Democratic Party and the Catholic Church over abortion.

I think Hearst and FDR and Halsey in WWI post war years 1925 helped the London elites get the Windsor Kutscherea daughters into the USA and later Joseph Kennedy Sr and Nixon and others in MKULTRA will use these for the next generation of MK-ULTRA as agents of British Influece working secretly as "native" Indonesians, Kenyans, or other nationalities in internationally connected CIA backed early life plants.

Congressman Nixon in 1946 and the Marshall plan helped start this and V.P. Nixon was a part of as the head of the National Security Council. Hearst backed that, JFK did not, at least after the Bay of Pigs.

William Randolph Hearst's grandaughter and Richard E. Berlin's daughter Brigid Berlin have internal family access to the workings of Richard Nixon, the London elites including King Edward VIII, the plans of LBJ and J. Edgar Hoover. E. Howard Hunt's wife will die on UAL 553. Jed Johsnon will die on TWA 800. The two daughters Brigid and Patty will work under Warhol and Jed Johnson on Interview Magazine in the early 1970's and be close friends. Richard Berlin had been the President of Hearst Newspapers since 1942 and Hearst having chosen him as successor turn over his newspapers to Chairman of the Board Richard Berlin upoon death in 1951 as Princes Elizabeth was becoming QEII and the CIA and British inteligence were working together out of ATSUGI.

William R. Hearst, Jr. Oral History Interview - JFK#1, 03/25/1971

https://www.jfklibrary.org/asset-viewer/archives/jfkoh-wrh-01

The overlord of San Simieon Hearst Castle was closely connected to the British and Hearst's many London freinds (likely the Walker of Herbert Walker Bush family too) and in this be befreined Jospeh Kennedy Sr. Although Joseph Kennedy Sr. would arrange with FDR and Hearst an FDR presidency that was only upon FDR working so closely with the Great Britain in WWI. In later years Hearst would denounce FDR as a form of Communism even worse than communism and stay close to his friends like King Edward VIII, other British, Richard Nixon, J. Edgar Hoover (the Master Freemason at 26 years old) and other elites.

On TWA 800 the fuel gauge system (Fuel Quantity Information System) gave a "crazy" reading that was probably unexpected fuel level dropping. The CIA and FBI asserted the fuel gauge wires shorted, giving an incorrect reading and than the arc ignited the tank. My theory is the dealy before take-off allowed a leak to be created carborating dumped fuel into the air around the wing and one of the engines. This cloud of combustible gas was ignited by a counter-mearurs flare launched into the gas that were deployed by what appeared to be an Orian P-3 plan using flare counter-measures. Some thought it was a missle but it was a flare according to exptert observers.

OESTERLE : Your recollection of the Kennedy family goes back beyond John F. Kennedy.

Yes, indeed, our families were friends for what must be going back fifty years now--perhaps more. I remember Rose Kennedy (wife of Joseph Kennedy Sr.) telling me that she met Mom shortly after she was married [to Joseph Kennedy Sr. of Harvard and Boston politics] (at which time I think had at least two Of the five Of us boys) and they became friends right away and have remained so ever since.

For own part, I met Joe Sr. with father in California and then here back East too. They both had movie interests and had many friends in Also, they had a sort Of ration society going. Pop always regarded Joe as being very knowledgeable about money matters, and I know he consulted him frequently when our show got in trouble in the late 30' s.

OESTERLE: Wnen was your first contact with the younger generation?

Hearst : first contact with the younger generation wag with young Joe about the middle 30's. We met here in Hew York, and I asked him to stop off that summer when he said he and a friend planned to be traveling out in California. I think they were both either seniors at Harvard or just out. Anyway, they were both couple o? healthy, husky, handsome young fellows, and they visited us up at a place my grandmother originally had on the McCLoud River at the foot, of Mt Shasta. I remember it principally because the river there is really just melted snow and literally as cold as ice. Ever since my brothers and I could remember, we were warned to stay out of it, as it wac so cold you could get a numb feeling in your fingers just by sticking them in the water for a minute. This didn't seem to faze these two, because the next thing I knew, they had swum across it.

I guess the fact that they were swimming like blazes the whole time kept them a little warme than test finger I mentioned above. But the fact is that they did it only once and allowed as how it, was pretty darr cold all right.

Again cluing the war, Joe and I met frequently in London. I was a war correspondent and he was attached to the Coastal Command of the Royal Air Force. We knew the sane people and traveled with the same bunch over there--EngLishmen and their wives and girls.

That would be about Later on, Kick, his sister, came over. I believe she was attached to the Red Cross. She was very popular and lovely, and after the war married a titled Englishman and was killed in an airplane crash.

That, as I recall, was after Joe was killed. He had finished his tour with Coastal Command. There was a bit of wstery attached to his death at first, but I made a point of finding out how it happened. information was to the effect that he had volunteere to dive a big B-211 bomber into a VI or 2 site on the French or Dutch coast, and somehow or other got caught or tangled up and never managed to free himself of the plane and went right into the ground with It. It was certainly a job over and beyond the call of duty, although I don't think he got the Congressional Medal for it. I was unable to write about it because it was censored at the time. The fact was the whole "exercise" was very hush-hush.

OESTERLE : When did you first get to Imow JFK?

I didn't really get to know Jack or the rest of the family until after the war. I met them all about the same time, Jack and Bobby and Pat and Jean end Teddy were playing their favorite gene of touch football on the of the Kenned place at Palm Beach--I skipped one, I'm afraid, Eunice. She and my wife, Austine, had been friends in Washington, and I think I must have met her during the war in Washington. Anyway, to get baek to Jack, he, at that time, was, I think, in rather ill health. He was-- unlike the rest of the family--on the frail side, and first recollection of him was, I think, spending a good deal of time in bed at Palm Beach writing that great book of his, Profiles In Courage.

Incidentally, he had written something for us after he was discharged from the navy, I think, and returned from the Pacific. Tie was in London and wrote, of my father. I remember, too, that, he predicted that Winston Churchill would be thrown out, by the British voters and the Labor Party would come in. That the British would do this to their World War II hero sounded so improbable that, i believe he came in for a bit of criticism and sarcasm--but that's the way things turned out just, the same. I didn't meet jack during that period, as I was recalled in the spring of by my father, and before I could fully recoup from the effects of some blood poisoning T had acquired over there, President Roosevelt died, our troops were daily moving closer to Berlin, and the first thing I knew the show was over.

I remember seeing Jack again, covering the beginning of the United Nations in San Francisco later that year-- I don't remember when he was elected to Congress, but I remember that he and Dick Nixon were congressmen at the same time, both about the same age, and both friends of my wife and mine. It is not clear in mind whether Day came while the United Nations were in San Francisco, but I think it did, and I know that Jack and my wife, Austine, whom he had beaued around a little before we were married, and I knocked around San Francisco generally with some girl friend of Jack' s. He was very popular and very handsome and very high-spirited and very much sought after by the girls, I can tell you that.

OESTERLE: Did you support him when he ran for the presidency?

It was because o? knowing him in the role of a young man, unmarried, and full of beans that I guess I did not support, him when he ran for the presidency. I just didn't think he had enough experience in life to qualify for the job. On the other hand, Dick Nixon had been vice president for eight years and had just that experience. Besides, I felt that as the Democrats had been in before Ike for twenty years, the Republicans would do for another four years at least--so I editorially supported Dick.

Jack, the president, never once in any way mentioned it in a critical way. Our friendship went on just as closely as ever, I remember one time visiting him in the White House with Frank Conniff, who was a close friend of mine and a close friend of his. Ile had been a suitor for the hand of Pat Kennedy during the Korean War- and we sat chewing the fat for the better part of a half an hour.

I made the following faux pas as we were leaving: I said to this slim young friend of mine something to the effect that he was doing very well, that it was a mean job, that people would criticize him no matter what; he did and not to let that get, him down and, as parting words, used the expression, "Keep up the good work, kid. This was immediately followed by " goodbyes" and t' see you later" etc., ana when we got outside, Frank said, "That, beats everything. I'll bet that, is the first time a president has been told to ' 'keep up the good work, kid..

I said, of course, I didn't realize I had said it. But, on second thought, I guess I had--and Frank was positive of it. The point of it was Jack with his good manners and in the light of our relationship didn't bat an eye, or if he did get a laugh out of it, he was polite enough to wait until we got out of that big oval room of the president.

OESTERLE: Did your papers support him?

Our papers supported Jack in just, about everything he did, including the showdown over Cuba. I an sorry, and I guess he would be too if he were alive, that we did not devise a way of giving the abortive attempt of the Cuban Nationalists to overcome Castro, sufficient air and naval support to insure their getting a foothold on the island. i think that was all they wanted--expecting as they did the native population to rise against Castro.

Whether they would have done so is obviously hypothetical or academic or whatever you say when nobody can tell for sure. Unquestionably he did the right thing in facing up to and forcing Khrushchev to back down, and i think also that he did the right thing in helping the Cuban exiles in the first place. His mistake was not helping them enough. I know a lot of Latin Americans who say just that--that if we were to become involved at all, we should have seen it through.

https://www.jfklibrary.org/asset-viewer/archives/jfkoh-wrh-01

The Donegan Family Bio and Hunt Family Bio are the answers the NTSB Sought

This link to a Google Drive file share should work and download a zip file of this and the most complete collection of FBI, NTSB, FAA, witness, investigator, and Donegan family data ever amassed all of which is consisent with the conspiracy theory offered here by several people myself included. https://t.co/o4uwHMJQ7l

A story-line of history once well known and in major media has been silenced sine then. One place among many you might find it is in the Paul McCartney song Uncle Albert [of York King George VI] / Admiral Halsey about a secretive birth or births in the USA for the Windsor family. Edward of York and Albert of York story-line of getting pregnant Maria Kutchera to the USA temporarily after she leaves an Austrian convent pregnant (by her own story in her autobiography telling too.) Norma Jean, Glorian Donegan, and Joseph Kennedy Sr. were all part of that story as was Undersecretary of the Navy Franklin Delano Roosevelt. The Beatles had just broken up over John Lennon's and Yoko Ono' complaints with US/GB imperialism around the world.

1951 was a key time for the OSS CIA to go into action as they converted Grace Ranch from mob gambling into a CIA backed air base that would work on CIA overthrow projects around the world run by the CIA at Asia Tokyo Soviet Union Guatemala Indonesia station known by its acronym ATSUGI. China had fallen to Communism and Japan was thus threatened as was the entire Red pacific rim from the bottom of China to the top of Soviet Union and all pacific islands.

It is little difficult to figure it all out based on casual comments but San Simeon William Randolph Heart daughter Patty Hearst and New York Richard E. Berlin daughter Brigid Berlin of Hearst Publishing learned of MK-ULTRA imperialism Presumably Richard E. Berlin and his family as President of Hearst Newspapers would take time at the Hearst Castle if an extra room might be avaialable at that time. ANd who else might be there?

Patty Hears Brigid Berlin at Hearst Castle Posted on July 29, 2024 by Edward Donegan Brigid Emmett Berlin (September 6, 1939 - July 17, 2020) was an American artist and Warhol superstar . September 6, 1939 to December 1, 1952 (randomly chosen). 13 years old 2 mos.

So right around the time of the Korean War she is old enough to get a sense of what these figures are talking about. Nixon, Duke of Windsor, J. Edgar Hoover, etc., In addition to taking the calls and social affaris at Hearst Castle (still active but no new construction) or even more likely at the home of her father in New York where he also might entertain D.C. guests. She (Brigid Berlin) is a part of the mixers and also collecting letters between these figures and her parents, important cold war information.

In 1975, Brigid Berlin began work as a permanent employee for Andy Warhol's Interview magazine, a position that she held until well after Warhol's death. Berlin transcribed interviews as well as knitted under the desk. Patricia Hearst (a close friend of Berlin who began work at Interview in 1988) observed "On my first day at work, I noticed two small pugs who seemed to have the run of the castle. They belonged to a woman who sat behind the front desk every day from 9:00 to 5:00, but who never seemed to answer the phone. Instead, she compulsively knitted, ate bags of candy and tended lovingly to the dogs." [If I am following this right this is Patty Hearst describing the Hearst Castle with Brigid Berlin taking the phone calls as an employee of Hearst Communications.]

Interview Magazine Andy Warhol period - Bob Colacello was a film student at Columbia University in 1970 when he got a call from someone at Interview while he was having dinner at his parents' house in suburban Long Island. While Interview magazine now features fashion, artists, celebrities, and creative collaborators, in the beginning, it was merely a film critique spread. Colacello subsequently began writing film reviews and essays for Interview. After about six months, Colacello was promoted to editor of the magazine, at a salary of $50 a week. (He also received course credits, as he was still working on his master's degree at Columbia). Colacello brought in his friend and classmate Glenn O'Brien as an assistant. Colacello's first issue featured film 1940s-era stills of actress Rita Hayworth on the cover and on every page. The idea came from Warhol collaborator and filmmaker Paul Morrissey, who told Colacello, "Just put one on every page and it'll be funny."

Bob Colacello (born May 8, 1947) is an American writer. He began his career writing for The Village Voice before becoming editor-in-chief of pop artist Andy Warhol's Interview magazine from 1971 to 1983.[1] As part of Warhol's entourage, they collaborated on the books The Philosophy of Andy Warhol (1975) and Exposures (1979). Colacello has been a contributing editor for Vanity Fair since 1984 and has been a special correspondent since 1993.

life and career Robert Colaciello was born to John and Libby Colaciello in Bensonhurst, New York on May 8, 1947.[3] He and his two sisters, Barbara and Suzanne, were raised in Plainview, Long Island.[4] He graduated from the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University in 1969, and also has an MFA degree in film criticism from Columbia University Graduate School of the Arts.

Colacello began his writing career around 1969, when he began publishing film reviews in the Village Voice weekly.[6] As a graduate student in the Film department at Columbia University in New York, his first publications doubled as his class essays and homework assignments.

The Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service (SFS) is the school of international relations at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. It grants degrees at both undergraduate and graduate levels.

Patricia Campbell Hearst (born February 20, 1954) is a member of the Hearst family and granddaughter of American publishing magnate William Randolph Hearst. She first became known for the events following her 1974 kidnapping by the Symbionese Liberation Army. She was found and arrested 19 months after being abducted, by which time she was a fugitive wanted for serious crimes committed with members of the group. She was held in custody, and there was speculation before trial that her family's resources would enable her to avoid time in prison.

At her trial, the prosecution suggested that Hearst had joined the Symbionese Liberation Army of her own volition. However, she testified that she had been raped and threatened with death while held captive. In 1976, she was convicted for the crime of bank robbery and sentenced to 35 years in prison, later reduced to seven years. Her sentence was commuted by President Jimmy Carter, and she was later pardoned by President Bill Clinton.

At 23 in 1964 she joins up with Andy Warhol. After several years as a reluctant debutante and a failed marriage, Brigid Berlin met Andy Warhol in 1964 and quickly became a central member of his entourage. After moving to Hotel Chelsea, she took on the nickname Brigid Polk because of her habit of giving out ‘pokes’, injections of Vitamin B and amphetamines. These injections were readily available through the many ‘Doctor Feelgoods’ in New York and perfectly legal

In 1919 he joined the Hearst Corporation, where he stayed until his retirement in 1973. In 1941 William Randolph Hearst personally chose him as successor to his role.[1] In 1942 Berlin became president of the company and after Hearst’s death in 1951 he became chief executive officer.

By the late 1930s the Great Depression and Hearst’s profligacy had brought him to the brink of financial ruin. Debts totaled $126 million. He was compelled to cede financial control of the Hearst Corporation, newspapers and radio stations were sold, and much of his art collection was dispersed in a series of sales, often for considerably less than he had paid. Hearst railed against his losses, and the perceived incompetence of the sales agents, Parish-Watson & Co.: “they greatly cheapened them and us, (he) advertises like a bargain basement sale. I am heartbroken”.[85] Construction at Hearst Castle virtually ceased. After Pearl Harbor the castle was closed up and Hearst and Davies moved to Wyntoon which was perceived to be less vulnerable to enemy attack.

They returned in 1945 and construction on a limited scale recommenced, finally ending in 1947.

In early May of that year, with his health declining, Hearst and Davies left the castle for the last time. The pair settled in at 1007 North Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills. Hearst died in 1951, his death abruptly severing him from Davies, who was excluded from the funeral by Hearst’s family - “For thirty-two years I had him, and they leave me with his empty room”. In 1950 Julia Morgan closed her San Francisco office after a career of forty-two years. Ill health circumscribed her retirement and she died, a virtual recluse, in early 1957.

In 1958 the Hearst Corporation donated Hearst Castle, its gardens, and many of its contents, to the state of California.

No while the daughter of Berlin she did not take phone calls till working for Interview it looks like As a child she answered calls for her parents but not as an employee.

Richard E. Berlin retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

> In 1942 Berlin became president of the Hearst Newspapers and after Hearst's death in 1951 he became chief executive officer.

Berlin's daughter was Warhol superstar Brigid Berlin. He was also the godfather of writer A.J. Cronin's youngest son.

In his early career Berlin directed advertising for The Smart Set and McClure's magazines. In 1919 he joined the Hearst Corporation, where he stayed until his retirement in 1973. In 1941 William Randolph Hearst personally chose him as successor to his role. In 1942 Berlin became president of the company and after Hearst's death in 1951 he became chief executive officer.

William Randolph Hearst, Jr. claimed in 1991 that Berlin had suffered from Alzheimer's disease starting in the mid-1960s and that caused him to shut down several Hearst newspapers without just cause.

Deceased whistle-blower Jen Moore telling the secret identity of Glorian DOnegan

The Donegan family including the birth of Glorian Gainey in 1926 ties to a history tied to FDR, Joseph Kennedy SR. the Vatican and others including Allen Dulles. It will also explain the downing of UAL 553 and TWA 800 as part of the cover-ups.

In the years leading into WWII it was easy for Republican Party leaders like William Donovan and Democrat leaders like FDR and former foes USA and Great Britain to unite. In the Cold War and fight against labor unions, the war between Norther Ireland and the Republic of Ireland, and religious conflicts that alliance fell apart and the Republican Party with its control of the CIA won its CIA backed power struggle with independent nations leaning JFK and RFK. While Democrat Party presidents have emerged they have retained the globalists agenda that has not seen opposition since the death of RFK.

It is thought Nixon had much to do with the cover-up of the JFK assassination and that included the Watergate Break-in and the downing of UAL 553 and TWA fits into that story-line by re-evaluation of the crash details and a crash victim.

Sherman Skolnick who was confined to a wheelchair because of Polio will claim Franklin Delano Roosevelt (former Undersecretary of the Navy) had betrayed us all, all of the USA in the Special Relationship with Great Britain and that this led into Coca-Cola's Phillip Twombly and the CIA, and the downing of UAL 553. That same propaganda run by William Randolph Hearst and Walt Disney also helped propel FDR and FDR's loyal and capable assistant into high offices leading into WWII, and the Special Relationship key operatives were J. Edgar Hoover, Entrepid, and Wild Bill Donovan with Richard Nixon, the Bush family, and LBJ in close world planning tow.

X The Great Treason: High and Petite Treason in the USA
https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TheBigBamboozleII.epub

Written by the Right Hand: The Right Hand Operatives of the Cabal and the Dangerous Job They Undertook of Exposing its Secrets
https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/WrittenByTheRightHand.epub

Ted L. Gunderson: An Edited and Approving Biographical Anthology of his Life and Works
https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TedGundersonByEdDonegan.epub

Pillory: Tools and Fools of the USA
https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/What.epub

THE BIG BAMBOOZLE II: The continuation of forbidden stories
https://archive.org/download/genoracketeering_202001/TheBigBamboozleII.epub

Mercenary Media Inteligentsia Take Lab Notes and Profits on Street Fights COINTELPRO Experiments

> “Nobody helps nobody but himself.” - Okmyx
>
> “Sir, you are employing a double negative.” - Spock

I have an unusual background. Partly because assaults upon me which were unjust created an unjust record of disputes I have been in and unjust and debasing record of me, a record of me made by COINTELPRO harassment which has led to colorful disputes over State acts and theories of race and state, other than that, an normal San Francisco or LA or NYC “freak.

Part of the exploitation of me via abuse is that I have a genome history I did not fully know about or demand an accounting of.

Part of the exploitation is I had an education level others knew about but did not credit to me thus making it available for exploitative study and copy.

But assumptive study of me, and even fake claims against me as pretexts for assaults have been too fruitful to the involved parties for them to stand down and recognize Abuse of Process destruction of my Human Rights people remain oblivious to.

Memor Alpha Fadnom Quoted or excerpted from link

The USS Enterprise arrives at Sigma Iotia II. This remote planet had been visited by the Horizon in 2168, before the establishment of the non-interference directive.

Kirk, Spock and McCoy are concerned about what effects the Horizon's crew may have had on the Iotian culture which was just beginning industrialization at the time and have a knack for imitation.

The three beam down to find a culture resembling that of Chicago in the 1920s. They are immediately greeted by two men dressed as gangsters who threaten them with Tommy guns.

Media as Mercenaries. Media as Profiteers. Media as Participants in the Story. Media as Paid Recruits

In the television episode of Star Trek above the local place, the remote planet, has racketeering place. Nueces County Texas view themselves as the Star Trek Crew, using loot from me to go towards Ethics, but in fact the parallel is that the Federal Government and US Media should have outed fraudulent acts by the County shaking down my trust, but the Federal Government and Media are cogs in the machine which created rather than stopped Nueces County, and thus Nueces County is sharing the "project" of assault based study of me "old school" COINTELRPO style which people like Comey have tried to shift the FBI away from.

Home	Public	Long Con Set Not Actually My Home
Zone "A"	Zone "B" (stalking, Mercenaries, Evidence	Zone "C" Plants)

My PRIVATE HOME

Sabotaurs and evidence in my ho

Wanted, intended, sexually abusive

Other assaults

In-explicit though obvious non-verbal assaults, photobomb planted people, etc., who deny they are tresspassing against my use of public locations

My stolen clothes, NEXT to but not my apartment, etc.,

Stolen property and hijacked by hostile elements imitating us

Disrupted (unjust debasemen

Erupted (unjust enrichment from false flags) SJW beneficiaries act out against themselves and others, blaming me for the acts gaining politically and in assets

Victim

← Death threats and other threats including racially and/or religiously motivated

Intelligentsia

Wikipedia quoted here from link

In Russia, before the Bolshevik Revolution (1917), the term intelligentsiya described the status class of educated people whose cultural capital (schooling, education, enlightenment) allowed them to assume practical political leadership.[6]

Ivory Tower

Wikipedia quoted here from link

An ivory tower is a metaphorical place-or an atmosphere-where people are happily cut off from the rest of the world in favor of their own pursuits, usually mental and esoteric ones. From the 19th century, it has been used to designate an environment of intellectual pursuit disconnected from the practical concerns of everyday life.[1] Most contemporary uses of the term refer to academia or the college and university systems in many countries.[2][3]

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

2018 US Code Title 18 - Crimes and Criminal Procedure Part I - Crimes Chapter 13 - Civil Rights

Sec. 241 - Conspiracy against rights
Sec. 242 - Deprivation of rights under color of law
Sec. 243 - Exclusion of jurors on account of race or color
Sec. 244 - Discrimination against person wearing uniform of armed forces
Sec. 245 - Federally protected activities
Sec. 246 - Deprivation of relief benefits
Sec. 247 - Damage to religious property; obstruction of persons in the free exercise of religious beliefs
Sec. 248 - Freedom of access to clinic entrances
Sec. 249 - Hate crime acts

18 U.S.C. § 241 (2018)

If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured -

They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

§242. Deprivation of rights under color of law

Whoever, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subjects any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or to different punishments, pains, or penalties, on account of such person being an alien, or by reason of his color, or race, than are prescribed for the punishment of citizens, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and if bodily injury results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include the use, attempted use, or threatened use of a dangerous weapon, explosives, or fire, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

§243. Exclusion of jurors on account of race or color

No citizen possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States, or of any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and whoever, being an officer or other person charged with any duty in the selection or summoning of jurors, excludes or fails to summon any citizen for such cause, shall be fined not more than $5,000.

§244. Discrimination against person wearing uniform of armed forces

Whoever, being a proprietor, manager, or employee of a theater or other public place of entertainment or amusement in the District of Columbia, or in any Territory, or Possession of the United States, causes any person wearing the uniform of any of the armed forces of the United States to be discriminated against because of that uniform, shall be fined under this title.

§245. Federally protected activities

Nothing in this section shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of Congress to prevent any State, any possession or Commonwealth of the United States, or the District of Columbia, from exercising jurisdiction over any offense over which it would have jurisdiction in the absence of this section, nor shall anything in this section be construed as depriving State and local law enforcement authorities of responsibility for prosecuting acts that may be violations of this section and that are violations of State and local law. No prosecution of any offense described in this section shall be undertaken by the United States except upon the certification in writing of the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, the Associate Attorney General, or any Assistant Attorney General specially designated by the Attorney General that in his judgment a prosecution by the United States is in the public interest and necessary to secure substantial justice, which function of certification may not be delegated.

(cont.)

Sec. 246 - Deprivation of relief benefits

Whoever directly or indirectly deprives, attempts to deprive, or threatens to deprive any person of any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided for or made possible in whole or in part by any Act of Congress appropriating funds for work relief or relief purposes, on account of political affiliation, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin, shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

§249. Hate crime acts

[Ed Dnegan - the codes are long and complicated but in summary] “the offense includes kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill.”

It remains my belief that as a racial matter ny family genome was used by non whites and to conceal the detection of that a racially motivated Conspiracy of Rights originated in my racial biologyy has operated under false premises or veneer excuses. Because the excuses did not make sense to me I sought the real reason, Sidney Gotlieb in the 1960s.

The Improbable Rise of Matt Drudge, the Internet’s Favorite News Scoundrel The influential reporter is back in the spotlight thanks to a pivotal role in Impeachment:

American Crime Story. retrieved from Town & Country magazine and copied or modified to here

[image] [image]

The Town & Country magazine article contains images of Matt Drudge and Billy Eichner potraying him in the film American Crime StoryM.

BY ADRIENNE GAFFNEY SEP 21, 2021

In the 1990s, internet news existed mainly only in the form of newspaper websites. Then there was Drudge's site, which started first in 1995 as an email newsletter. "Drudge Report actually begins as a kind of gossip column on the internet. So he begins by creating all of these links," says Claire Bond Potter, a professor of history at the New School for Social research and the author of the 2020 book Political Junkies: From Talk Radio to Twitter, How Alternative Media Hooked Us on Politics and Broke Our Democracy. "But then, what he does is he sandwiches in his own material. It's a very simple, extremely ugly, overly chaotic design but the sweet spot that he hits is that other reporters who are on the internet will actually keep his page open all day and they'll pick up little bits of information that might actually lead to a story."

Drudge's gift shop clues, which included gossip about small screen hirings and firings, helped him establish credibility and an audience. Raised outside Washington, where his mother worked on the legal staff of Senator Ted Kennedy, he began gravitating away from Hollywood scoops and towards Beltway gossip with a conservative slant. New York Times writer at large Jim Rutenberg was a reporter at the New York Daily News when Drudge Report first appeared on his radar and he later covered him at the Times. It was clear to those in the media establishment that Drudge had a singular news instinct, though many were reluctant to acknowledge it. “When Drudge had the goods, he had the goods. He had this uncanny way of getting real stuff that we were all missing,” Rutenberg says. “There was a lot of ambivalence because he was this upstart, he wasn’t from our sort of journalistic training, per se. He hadn’t done the stations of the cross of journalism, but often he was kicking our ass.”

This book

What Can Publicity Do

AP v US

> [The First] Amendment rests on the assumption that diverse and antagonistic sources is essential to the welfare of the public, that a free press is a condition of a free society.

Consider he Synopsis of the Brandies article in comparison to Illuminati families such as DuPonts, Rockefellers use of Genome for the Krafts, Trumps, etc., and big politicians, etc.

Out PIzzagate as violent Narco State Illuminati usage of my genome in their causes for minority benefit both through charity and charity organizations using criminals to offer my genome under “blackmail” conditions to adult entertainers, the criminal network pretending to be me while peeping at women and then being punished (for real Ed Donegan’s genome rights) as penalty.

Rockefellers, Masons, and the Narco State of Ed Donegan DNA Rights

1913 What Publicity Can Do? Brandeis

https://louisville.edu/law/library/special-collections/the-louis-d.-brandeis-collection/other-peoples-money-chapter-v Brandeis School of Law is the home of Brandeis materials, Brandeis University though named in his honor *.

Illustration from Harper's Weekly December 20, 1913 by Walter J. Enright

Publicity is justly commended as a remedy for social and industrial diseases. Sunlight is said to be the best of disinfectants; electric light the most efficient policeman. And publicity has already played an important part in the struggle against the Money Trust. The Pujo Committee has, in the disclosure of the facts concerning financial concentration, made a most important contribution toward attainment of the New Freedom. The battlefield has been surveyed and charted. The hostile forces have been located, counted and appraised. That was a necessary first step - and a long one - towards relief. The provisions in the Committee's bill concerning the incorporation of stock exchanges and the statement to be made in connection with the listing of securities would doubtless have a beneficent effect. But there should be a further call upon publicity for service. That potent force must, in the impending struggle, be utilized in many ways as a continuous remedial measure.

Wealth

Combination and control of other people's money and of other people's businesses. These are the main factors in the development of the Money Trust. But the wealth of the investment banker is also a factor. And with the extraordinary growth of his wealth in recent years, the relative importance of wealth as a factor in financial concentration has grown steadily. It was wealth which enabled Mr. Morgan, in 1910, to pay $3,000,000 for $51,000 par value of the stock of the Equitable Life Insurance Society. His direct income from this investment was limited by law to less than one-eighth of one per cent. a year; but it gave legal control of $504,000,000 of assets. It was wealth which enabled the Morgan associates to buy, from the Equitable and the Mutual Life Insurance Company the stocks in the several banking institutions, which, merged in the Bankers' Trust Company and the Guaranty Trust Company, gave them control of $357,000,000 deposits. It was wealth which enabled Mr. Morgan to acquire his shares in the First National and National City banks, worth $21,000,000, through which he cemented the triple alliance with those institutions.

Now, how has this great wealth been accumulated? Some of it was natural accretion. Some of it is due to special opportunities for investment wisely availed of. Some of it is due to the vast extent of the bankers' operations. Then power breeds wealth as wealth breeds power. But a main cause of these large fortunes is the huge tolls taken by those who control the avenues to capital and to investors. There has been exacted as toll literally "all that the traffic will bear."

Excessive Bankers' Commissions

The Pujo Committee was unfortunately prevented by lack of time from presenting to the country the evidence covering the amounts taken by the investment bankers as promoters' fees, underwriting commissions and profits. Nothing could have demonstrated so clearly the power exercised by the bankers, as a schedule showing the aggregate of these taxes levied within recent years. It would be well worth while now to reopen the Money Trust investigation merely to collect these data. But earlier investigations have disclosed some illuminating, though sporadic facts.

The syndicate which promoted the Steel Trust, took, as compensation for a few weeks' work, securities yielding $62,500,000 in cash; and of this, J. P. Morgan & Co. received for their services, as Syndicate Managers, $12,500,000, besides their share, as syndicate subscribers, in the remaining $50,000,000. The Morgan syndicate took for promoting the Tube Trust $20,000,000 common stock out of a total issue of $80,000,000 stock (preferred and common). Nor were monster commissions limited to trust promotions. More recently, bankers' syndicates have, in many instances, received for floating preferred stocks of recapitalized industrial concerns, one-third of all common stock issued, besides a considerable sum in cash. And for the sale of preferred stock of well established manufacturing concerns, cash commissions (or profits) of from 7 1/2 to 10 per cent. of the cash raised are often exacted. On bonds of high-class industrial concerns, bankers' commissions (or profits) of from 5 to 10 points have been common.

Nor have these heavy charges been confined to industrial concerns. Even railroad securities, supposedly of high grade, have been subjected to like burdens. At a time when the New Haven's credit was still unimpaired, J. P. Morgan & Co. took the New York, Westchester & Boston Railway first mortgage bonds, guaranteed by the New Haven at 92 1/2; and they were marketed at 96 1/4. They took the Portland Terminal Company bonds, guaranteed by the Maine Central Railroad - a corporation of unquestionable credit - at about 88, and these were marketed at 92.

A large part of these underwriting commissions is taken by the great banking houses, not for their services in selling the bonds, nor in assuming risks, but for securing others to sell the bonds and incur risks. Thus when the Interboro Railway - a most prosperous corporation -financed its recent $170,000,000 bond issue, J. P. Morgan & Co. received a 3 per cent. commission, that is, $5,100,000, practically for arranging that others should underwrite and sell the bonds.

The aggregate commissions or profits so taken by leading banking houses can only be conjectured, as the full amount of their transactions has not been disclosed, and the rate of commission or profit varies very widely. But the Pujo Committee has supplied some interesting data bearing upon the subject: Counting the issues of securities of interstate corporations only, J. P. Morgan & Co. directly procured the public marketing alone or in conjunction with others during the years 1902-1912, of $1,950,000,000. What the average commission or profit taken by J. P. Morgan & Co. was we do not know; but we do know that every one per cent. on that sum yields $19,500,000. Yet even that huge aggregate of $1,950,000,000 includes only a part of the securities on which commissions or profits were paid. It does not include any issue of an intrastate corporation. It does not include any securities privately marketed. It does not include any government, state or municipal bonds.

It is to exactions such as these that the wealth of the investment banker is in large part due. And since this wealth is an important factor in the creation of the power exercised by the Money Trust, we must endeavor to put an end to this improper wealth getting, as well as to improper combination. The Money Trust is so powerful and so firmly entrenched, that each of the sources of its undue power must be effectually stopped, if we would attain the New Freedom.

How Shall Excessive Charges Be Stopped?

The Pujo Committee recommends, as a remedy for such excessive charges, that interstate corporations be prohibited from entering into any agreements creating a sole fiscal agent to dispose of their security issues; that the issue of the securities of interstate railroads be placed under the supervision of the Interstate Commerce Commission; and that their securities should be disposed of only upon public or private competitive bids, or under regulations to be prescribed by the Commission with full powers of investigation that will discover and punish combinations which prevent competition in bidding.

Some of the state public-service commissions now exercise such power; and it may possibly be wise to confer this power upon the interstate commission, although the recommendation of the Hadley Railroad Securities Commission are to the contrary. But the official regulation as proposed by the Pujo Committee would be confined to railroad corporations; and the new security issues of other corporations listed on the New York Stock Exchange have aggregated in the last five years $4,525,404,025, which is more than either the railroad or the municipal issues. Publicity offers, however, another and even more promising remedy: a method of regulating bankers' charges which would apply automatically to railroad, public-service and industrial corporations alike.

The question may be asked: Why have these excessive charges been submitted to? Corporations, which in the first instance bear the charges for capital, have, doubtless, submitted because of banker-control; exercised directly through interlocking directorates, or kindred relations, and indirectly through combinations among bankers to suppress competition. But why have the investors submitted, since ultimately all these charges are borne by the investors, except so far as corporations succeed in shifting the burden upon the community? The large army of small investors, constituting a substantial majority of all security buyers, are entirely free from banker control. Their submission is undoubtedly due, in part, to the fact that the bankers control the avenues to recognizedly safe investments almost as fully as they do the avenues to capital. But the investor's servility is due partly, also, to his ignorance of the facts. Is it not probable that, if each investor knew the extent to which the security he buys from the banker is diluted by excessive underwritings, commissions and profits, there would be a strike of capital against these unjust exactions?

?he Strike of Capital

A recent British experience supports this view. In a brief period last spring nine different issues, aggregating $135,840,000, were offered by syndicates on the London market, and on the average only about 10 per cent. of these loans was taken by the public. Money was “tight,” but the rates of interest offered were very liberal, and no one doubted that the investors were well supplied with funds.The London Daily Mail presented an explanation:

“The long series of rebuffs to new loans at the hands of investors reached a climax in the ill success of the great Rothschild issue. It will remain a topic of financial discussion for many days, and many in the city are expressing the opinion that it may have a revolutionary effect upon the present system of loan issuing and underwriting. The question being discussed is that the public have become loth to subscribe for stock which they believe the underwriters can afford, by reason of the commission they receive, to sell subsequently at a lower price than the issue price, and that the Stock Exchange has begun to realize the public’s attitude. The public sees in the underwriter not so much one who insures that the loan shall be subscribed in return for its commission as a middleman, who, as it were, has an opportunity of obtaining stock at a lower price than the public in order that he may pass it off at a profit subsequently. They prefer not to subscribe, but to await an opportunity of dividing that profit. They feel that if, when these issues were made, the stock were offered them at a more attractive price, there would be less need to pay the underwriters so high commissions. It is another practical protest, if indirect, against the existence of the middleman, which protest is one of the features of present-day finance.”

Publicity as a Remedy

Compel bankers when issuing securities to make public the commissions or profits they are receiving. Let every circular letter, prospectus or advertisement of a bond or stock show clearly what the banker received for his middleman-services, and what the bonds and stocks net the issuing corporation. That is knowledge to which both the existing security holder and the prospective purchaser is fairly entitled. If the bankers' compensation is reasonable, considering the skill and risk involved, there can be no objection to making it known. If it is not reasonable, the investor will "strike," as investors seem to have done recently in England.

Such disclosures of bankers' commissions or profits is demanded also for another reason: It will aid the investor in judging of the safety of the investment. In the marketing of securities there are two classes of risks: One is the risk whether the banker (or the corporation) will find ready purchasers for the bonds or stock at the issue price; the other whether the investor will get a good article. The maker of the security and the banker are interested chiefly in getting it sold at the issue price. The investor is interested chiefly in buying a good article. The small investor relies almost exclusively upon the banker for his knowledge and judgment as to the quality of the security; and it is this which makes his relation to the banker one of confidence.

But at present, the investment banker occupies a position inconsistent with that relation. The bankers' compensation should, of course, vary according to the riskheassumes. Where there is a large risk that the bonds or stock will not be promptly sold at the issue price, the underwriting commission (that is the insurance premium) should be correspondingly large. But the banker ought not to be paid more for getting investorsto assume a larger risk.

In practice the banker gets the higher commission for underwriting the weaker security, on the ground that his own risk is greater. And the weaker the security, the greater is the banker's incentive to induce his customers to relieve him. Now the law should not undertake (except incidentally in connection with railroads and public-service corporations) to fix bankers' profits. And it should not seek to prevent investors from making bad bargains.

But it is now recognized in the simplest merchandising, that there should be full disclosures. The archaic doctrine ofcaveat emptoris vanishing. The law has begun to require publicity in aid of fair dealing. The Federal Pure Food Law does not guarantee quality or prices; but it helps the buyer to judge of quality by requiring disclosure of ingredients. Among the most important facts to be learned for determining the real value of a security is the amount of water it contains. And any excessive amount paid to the banker for marketing a security is water. Require a full disclosure to the investor of the amount of commissions and profits paid; and not only will investors be put on their guard, but bankers' compensation will tend to adjust itself automatically to what is fair and reasonable. Excessive commissions - this form of unjustly acquired wealth - will in large part cease.

Real Disclosure

But the disclosure must be real. And it must be a disclosure to the investor. It will not suffice to require merely the filing of a statement of facts with the Commissioner of Corporations or with a score of other officials, federal and state. That would be almost as ineffective as if the Pure Food Law required a manufacturer merely to deposit with the Department a statement of ingredients, instead of requiring the label to tell the story. Nor would the filing of a full statement with the Stock Exchange, if incorporated, as provided by the Pujo Committee bill, be adequate.

To be effective, knowledge of the facts must be actually brought home to the investor, and this can best be done by requiring the facts to be stated in good, large type in every notice, circular, letter and advertisement inviting the investor to purchase. Compliance with this requirement should also be obligatory, and not something which the investor could waive. For the whole public is interested in putting an end to the bankers' exactions. England undertook, years ago, to protect its investors against the wiles of promoters, by requiring a somewhat similar disclosure; but the British act failed, in large measure of its purpose, partly because under it the statement of facts was filed only with a public official, and partly because the investor could waive the provision. And the British statute has now been changed in the latter respect.

Disclose Syndicate Particulars

The required publicity should also include a disclosure of all participants in an underwriting. It is a common incident of underwriting that no member of the syndicate shall sell at less than the syndicate price for a definite period, unless the syndicate is sooner dissolved. In other words, the bankers make by agreement, an artificial price. Often the agreement is probably illegal under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. This price maintenance is, however, not necessarily objectionable. It may be entirely consistent with the general welfare, if the facts are made known. But disclosure should include a list of those participating in the underwriting so that the public may not be misled. The investor should know whether his adviser is disinterested.

Not long ago a member of a leading banking house was undertaking to justify a commission taken by his firm for floating a now favorite preferred stock of a manufacturing concern. The bankers took for their services $250,000 in cash, besides one-third of the common stock, amounting to about $2,000,000. "Of course," he said, "that would have been too much if we could have kept it all for ourselves; but we couldn't. We had to divide up a large part. There were fifty-seven participants. Why, we had even to give $10,000 of stock to - (naming the president of a leading bank in the city where the business was located). He might some day have been asked what he thought of the stock. If he had shrugged his shoulders and said he didn't know, we might have lost many a customer for the stock. We had to give him $10,000 of the stock to teach him not to shrug his shoulders."

Think of the effectiveness with practical Americans of a statement like this:

A. B. & CO.

Investment Bankers

We have today secured substantial control of the successful machinery business heretofore conducted by - at -, Illinois, which has been incorporated under the name of the Excelsior Manufacturing Company with a capital of $10,000,000, of which $5,000,000 is Preferred and $5,000,000 Common.

As we have a large clientele of confiding customers, we were able to secure from the owners an agreement for marketing the Preferred stock - we to fix a price which shall net the owners in cash $95 a share.

We offer this excellent stock to you at $100.75 per share. Our own commission or profit will be only a little over $5.00 per share, or say, $250,000 cash, besides $1,500,000 of the Common stock, which we received as a bonus. This cash and stock commission we are to divide in various proportions with the following participants in the underwriting syndicate:

C. D. & Co., New York

E. F. & Co., Boston

L. M. & Co., Philadelphia

I. K. & Co., New York

O. P. & Co., Chicago,

Were such notices common, the investment bankers would “be worthy of their hire,” for only reasonable compensation would ordinarily be taken.

For marketing the preferred stock, as in the case of Excelsior Manufacturing Co. referred to above, investment bankers were doubtless essential, and as middlemen they performed a useful service. But they used their strong position to make an excessive charge. There are, however, many cases where the banker’s services can be altogether dispensed with; and where that is possible he should be eliminated, not only for economy’s sake, but to break up financial concentration.

Brandeis made his famous statement that > “sunlight is said to be the best of disinfectants” in a 1913 Harper’s Weekly article, entitled “What Publicity Can Do.”

But it was an image that had been in his mind for decades. Twenty years earlier, in a letter to his fiance,

> Brandeis had expressed an interest in writing a “a sort of companion piece” to his influential article on “The Right to Privacy,” but this time he would focus on “The Duty of Publicity.”
>
> He had been thinking, he wrote, “about the wickedness of people shielding wrongdoers & passing them off (or at least allowing them to pass themselves off) as honest men.” He then proposed a remedy:
>
> If the broad light of day could be let in upon men’s actions, it would purify them as the sun disinfects. - quoted from here

When those who have the opportunity to act covertly an with Press complicity (or Duplicity) checks and balances containing the power of government are lost.

CIA Technical Weapons did kill Jen Moore when I was documenting the fraud that the CIA would take a valid part of my identity.

I was at on place at one point in time (I call that Element “A”) and later as me (at Element B using identity theft) get caught be a Legitimate sex workers with something illegal (child porn, exploitation, etc.,)

The punishment at Element “B” is fake Edward Paul Donegan will sign fertilization and genetics rights in the the US Marshalls evidence locker when that is recommended by the adult entertainer.

Some will go to charity, most up the chain to the Illuminati families and the CIA history of this.

The CIA and DOD will kill any opposition to this with OSS CIA TSS Weapons Systems of biological murder weapons the Illuminati brag about and are used by the Donald Trump administration, the most corrupt CIA Epstein DOD since Al Capone, far more dangerous than Al Capone.

Once Element “B” has been completed an unreliable (tampered with) record then exists of me, the identity theft victim which is used behind my back to report ME as the fraudster to Social Security admin, etc., leaving me to die without even that guaranteed income, as the income directed to me then gets directed to a “non fraudulent” asset manage of me, who is embezzling my genome rights to their needs via pretending to me me, and they also prevent my normal life via the tampered with records presented to others.

Element “C” often involves some new deal to come along, bizarre excuse as to why the old deal is not in place any more; for instance, the computer can not find it, Extended Stay America Springfield Virginia, the new contract though easily lost during Element B, such as NEW contract which seems to admit my guilt since it replaced the old contract.

In other words, how it always works is I am there and did not do anything wrong but a Doppelgänger is there with some vague indica he is me (this all is Element “A”) then at Element “B” the Doppelgänger is confronted and assets seized. At Element “C” without explanation the computer can not find my membership but I can resign though at a higher price.

Or the service such as Social Security our Housing is lost and I live under a bridge and I have to seek out those very corrupt family services that are part of money launder my genetics rights to their “victims” of me.

(Allgood gym, Neuces County Services, Texas)

The Cowboys and Indians Ploy. At a Reservation this is Paleface, and two Red Dermatological Genetically Alleled people of equal or better worth to Palceface. One Red person says he’s is Paleface, victimizes other Red and debt is paid by Reservation Manager who is concerned for Social Justice.

Example ATT Direct TV co-operation with this technique, repair person could not finish job day of 8/3/2020, does not show next day, but new contract salesperson does showup.

At Element “B” most likely Stay and Play I was living in wealth and with the working satellite, and my claiming I was poor and in Corpus Christi Texas without ID is Social Security Fraud. This hides that my real money is being used and laundered elsewhere, likely Stay and Play though I was zerod out from there and my drivers licenses with that address rescinded by the CA DMV, likely then re-issued to the Doppelgänger of me.

The Fraud and the Wealth at Stay and Play (which my stolen idenity IS a part of) is used as evidence to undermine my extreme poverty in Corpus Christi because that fraud is attributed to me and cancels my resources in Corpus Christi that I AM THE FAKE and the Doppelgänger at Stay and Play is the real me with my actual worth.

In fact all these scam artists are CIA front corporations working for all the people with something to hide. Stay and Play, Texas Rangers DPS drivers license, California DMV, Neuces County Services, ARC of Northern Virginia, the Nueces County Texas District Attorney, all backing this corrupt CIA black budgets trust fund scam of seized assets.

And I still think this is behind the murder of Jen Moore, Judge Roll, Justice Scalia, and others, this CIA attempt to prevent Truthfall, the truth coming out and Skyfall upon the corrupt MKULTRA Governments.

To repeat one of the points of this book

When those who have the opportunity to act covertly, with

Press complicity (or Duplicity,) checks and balances containing the power of government are lost.

This is one of the premises of my book, that MSM complicity in this is the real problem with the USA and even Western Civilization.

Take on the real problems. Like James Watson was willing to do.

Or the press could take on the Three MS Word Documents on money laundering and CIA DOD Slush Funds (a.k.a CIA Black Budgets) I wrote at Stay and Play about William Ruiz, Golds Gym, and other locations.

Indians Chest Pumping

I have already mentioned the Cowboys and Indians Ploy

The Cowboys and Indians Ploy. At a Reservation this is Paleface, and two Red Dermatological Genetically Alleled people of equal or better worth to Palceface. One Red person says he's is Paleface, victimizes other Red and debt is paid by Reservation Manager who is concerned for Social Justice.

Part of selling to the rest of the reservation and larger USA or World that I rather than an Indian victimized Indians is that the Indian who REALLY DID victimize female will puff his chest out near me that he is the defender of the woman by bullying me with hot air built up, hot air not used bravely, not used to actually speak an allegation against me which I would verbally defend, so merely hot air empty of speech near me.

Follow the Money

I have challenged the Press to out this but the press defends the chest pumping Indians.

FILE TOOLS VIEW RuizRocket.docx (Protected View) - Word

PROTECTED VIEW Be careful—files from the Internet can contain viruses. Unless you need to edit, it's safer to stay in Protected View. Enable Editing

8/7/2018
To: Capitola Police
422 Capitola Ave,
Capitola, CA 95010

From: Ed Donegan
19025 Karen Dr
Salinas, CA 39307
EdInArlington@gmail.com

August 7 20198 as I was reporting a genomic racket using identity theft which I think is CIA and Christianity backed, tied to Obama and Birtherism MKULTRA

A pernicious Blackmail/Extortion ring has formed. The complexifying elements are that

- Identity Thieves are using impersonations of me to engage in despicable and politically defaming conduct. PICTURED A bike other than my bike, but of similar discription, in an otherwise empty parking lot, is spying on women of the gym. Golds Gym Corpus Christi.Rarely and non-exploitivly I do use a forward facing dash camera to tape scenic motorcycle rides on MY motorcycle, not the one

- Emezzelers have captured funds into bank accounts tied to them but falsy claimed are actually mine use Identity Theft and other Fraud tactics to hold, and money launder the funds due me but held by others. I have no verbal, financial, or any another account of the financial accounts but others use identity theft to create the cover story I am aware of the money and I am spending out of it. Chris Lloyd of Orinda California appears central to this illegal scheme.

SCREENS 1-2 OF 47 140%

Type here to search 7:27 PM 10/27/2018

Follow the Money to Corpus Christi Neuces, behavioral health, Salvation Army, Nueces Corpus Christi, auto sales, Golds Gym Corpus Christi, the new District Attorney in Corpus Christi, and Golds Gym and Omni

FILE TOOLS VIEW RuizRocket.docx (Protected View) - Word

PROTECTED VIEW Be careful—files from the Internet can contain viruses. Unless you need to edit, it's safer to stay in Protected View. Enable Editing

8/7/2018
To: Capitola Police
422 Capitola Ave,
Capitola, CA 95010

From: Ed Donegan
19025 Karen Dr
Salinas, CA 39307
EdInArlington@gmail.com

August 7 20198 as I was reporting a genomic racket using identity theft which I think is CIA and Christianity backed, tied to Obama and Birtherism MKULTRA

A pernicious Blackmail/Extortion ring has formed. The complexifying elements are that

- Identity Thieves are using impersonations of me to engage in despicable and politically defaming conduct. PICTURED A bike other than my bike, but of similar discription, in an otherwise empty parking lot, is spying on women of the gym. Golds Gym Corpus Christi.Rarely and non-exploitivly I do use a forward facing dash camera to tape scenic motorcycle rides on MY motorcycle, not the one

- Emezzelers have captured funds into bank accounts tied to them but falsy claimed are actually mine use Identity Theft and other Fraud tactics to hold, and money launder the funds due me but held by others. I have no verbal, financial, or any another account of the financial accounts but others use identity theft to create the cover story I am aware of the money and I am spending out of it. Chris Lloyd of Orinda California appears central to this illegal scheme.

SCREENS 1-2 OF 47 140%

Type here to search 7:27 PM 10/27/2018

Exactly the genome racketeering, blackmail scheme by family courts corruption, that Jen Moore and I are reporting to deaf ears.

I am a victim and so is Jen Moore and many others, the entire People of the United States are victims of this

Evidence Tampering into and from Abuse of Process

Evidence Tampering into and from Abuse of Process. Faked evidence goes into the real process and out comes an outcome abusive to the process and abusive to the person the evidence was faked about, but it looks legitimate on its face.

The evidence underneath the real thing is fake, so the real thing is also fake but looks real, effectively a tampered with court order since it used sort of illegally guiding the hand if the judge.

This can include Abuse of Psychiatry, a from of Abuse of [medical] Process.

This was the plot of Law and Order SVU Taken I repeatedly cite. An arrest warrant with faked facts led to the arrest, detention, and murder of a suspect. The Grifters faked an allegation and the defendant went through the Process and died in it, died in detention.

The legal process and the defendant were being abused though by fake allegations against the defendant put into the Process (system) and activating the systems detention, asset seizure, systems.

I have spent 45 year of my life fighting off COINTELPRO against me and my mother. I have lost every fight and been thrown in psych wards and that record now re-victimizes me as evidence against me.

Its all fraud by the Deep State I can not escape.

From End MKULTRA https://endmkultra.wordpress.com/about/

Under Mind Control. Targeted Individual. As I write this, overt targeting began: 2.5 yrs (that I noticed.)

I'm one of many in the Program. There might be some patterns that we can recognize if we compare stories!

MKUltra has been around for decades, it's perfected a lot of Mind Games. Innocent bystanders and loved ones may be briefly Mind-Controlled to make them seem like they are 'in on it.'

To New Targeted Individuals, found this advice given to be most helpful: Stay CALM. Don't fall for the Mind Games. It's actually BS!!! Don't let them provoke you. You're under Mind Control. Give others the benefit of the doubt. They might be under Mind Control too!

I know it's TOUGH going in the beginning, but it DOES gets better.

(MAN, they really throw the kitchen sink at you in those Early Days, don't they?)

Everyone's in a different situation, and the Program takes from all different ages & socio-economic classes, globally. I have been 'cyber tortured' in other countries, during international flights. Have you found this to be true yourself?

I haven't moved, have kept all my relationships and have mitigated the damage to my quality of life, thanks to the advice from Our Community.

And no ‘checking out early either!’ EMOTIONS PASS. They will always PASS!! Especially induced ones …Please REMEMBER this!!! ❤

Stay 💪

To read Advice for New Targeted Individuals, CLICK HERE.

For those Non-Targeted …

What is a Targeted Individual?

Innocent Men, Women and Children around the world put on an Illegal Terrorist Watchlist so that they can be trafficked into human experimentation.

President Bill Clinton publicly apologized to nonconsensual government experimentation victims under the MKUltra Program.

Unfortunately, MKUltra never ended.

Recently, The United Nations acknowledged that this Cybertorture Program is currently ongoing today …

Steven Pinker Defending Larry Summers

> Should we treat some ideas as dangerous? Let’s exclude outright lies, deceptive propaganda, incendiary conspiracy theories from malevolent crackpots, and technological recipes for wanton destruction. Consider only ideas about the truth of empirical claims or the effectiveness of policies that, if they turned out to be true, would require a significant rethinking of our moral sensibilities. And consider ideas that, if they turn out to be false, could lead to harm if people believed them to be true. In either case, we don't know whether they are true or false a priori, so only by examining and debating them can we find out. Finally, let's assume that we're not talking about burning people at the stake or cutting out their tongues but about discouraging their research and giving their ideas as little publicity as possible.

There is a good case for exploring all ideas relevant to our current concerns, no matter where they lead. The very act of engaging in rational discourse presupposes a commitment to evaluating ideas on their intellectual warrant alone. Otherwise how could one even make the case that dangerous ideas should be discouraged, in the face of someone else arguing (as Dan Gilbert does in this volume) that the idea of discouraging ideas is itself morally dangerous? Should proponents of keeping dangerous ideas private then be forced to keep that idea private, because their opponents deem it to be dangerous? If not, why should the proponents' judgment about dangerousness and nondangerousness be granted a privilege they deny to others? The idea that ideas should be discouraged a priori is inherently self-refuting. Indeed, it is the ultimate arrogance, as it assumes that one can be so certain about the goodness and truth of one's own ideas that one is entitled to discourage other people's opinions from even being examined.

Also, it's hard to imagine any aspect of public life where ignorance or delusion is better than an awareness of the truth, even an unpleasant one.

What can Bullying do?

This book

https://www.google.com/search?q=iron+filings+magnetic+field

Filed Reports from the Press #1a. No casual wind blows these filings around.

Very powerful forces control these filings

The entirety of the Kludge is that the press interests is tied to benefiting from the money laundering and support the operation which is based on an impersonator of me or misrepresentation of me to pay for modeling with my DNA.

The name is Pizzagate and in the scheme the impersonator of me gives into blackmail conducted by an adult entertainer when the aduult entertainer finds evidence of exploited minors held by the impersonator of me visiting the adult female model.

Wikipedia retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

apparatchik

An Apparatchik was a full-time, professional functionary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union or the Soviet government apparat (аппарат, apparatus), someone who held any position of bureaucratic or political responsibility, with the exception of the higher ranks of management called nomenklatura. James Billington describes an apparatchik as “a man not of grand plans, but of a hundred carefully executed details.”[1] The term is often considered derogatory, with negative connotations in terms of the quality, competence, and attitude of a person thus described.[2]

dezinformatsiya

Disinformation is false or misleading information that is spread deliberately to deceive. This is a subset of misinformation. The English word disinformation is a loan translation of the Russian dezinformatsiya, derived from the title of a KGB black propaganda department. Disinformation - Wikipedia

Borrowed from Russian дезинформация (dezinformacija). Doublet of disinformation. NounEdit. dezinformatsiya (uncountable). a pair of similar things, in particular either of two words of the same historical source, (OED) A doublet is a man’s snug-fitting jacket that is shaped and fitted to the man’s body From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Agent

A person unofficially employed by an intelligence service, often as a source of information.

Agent-of-Influence

A person who works within the government or media of a target country to influence national policy.

Agent-in-Place

A government employee who is influenced to cooperate with a foreign government instead of defecting; now working for two employers instead of one.

Asset

A clandestine source or method, usually an agent.

The Spike is a 1980 spy thriller novel by Arnaud de Borchgrave (died February 15, 2015) and Robert Moss (New York: Crown Publishers, 1980). Drawing on de Borchgrave's experience as a jet-setting Newsweek journalist and conservative Washington insider, it tells the story of a radical '60s journalist, Bob Hockney, who stumbles upon a Soviet plot for global supremacy by 1985. When he tries to expose the web of blackmail, sex and espionage, he's hamstrung by his editors' liberal media bias.

"The Pathetic Lives of Putin's American Dupes?" (Wikipedia authors except from book"

> [Ed Donegan interjecting here having read the book long ago, part of the complexity Hockney was having was the Soviets had influenced editorial control by helping advance US dupes in US media that Russia warms up to.]
>
> The authors' 1983 follow-up, Monimbo, envisioned Miami race rioters as the pawns of Nicaraguan and Cuban communists. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Larry King was born in Brooklyn, on November 19, 1933. He was one of two children of Jennie (Gitlitz) (1905-1990), a garment worker who was born in Minsk, Russian Empire, and Aaron Zeiger (1898-1942), a restaurant owner and defense-plant worker who was born in Pinsk, Russian Empire. His parents were Orthodox Jews who immigrated to the United States from Belarus in the 1930s.

The KGB's Bead on the Media (byline missing, WAPO

> The KGB's "dysinformatsya" department was elevated to a full directorate of the Soviet secret service in 1968. Since then, it has averaged more than 600 operations a year in the Western media - Western Europe, Japan, the United States and friendly Third World countries. Much of this work is done through proxy services, such as the Cuban DGI.
>
> Rosenfeld says that Moss and I should name names. Does he really want to trigger a witch hunt and revive McCarthyism in our country? Our purpose was to explain through the vehicle of a political spy novel a little-known but tremendously important aspect of Soviet intelligence inside the Western media.

Propaganda

The Press has committed to a false science of race and a poorly founded sociology and world view created on top of the lies about race.

(for instance they under report back on white crime, etc. for fear of crime statistics not matching the existing racial theories.)

One of the effects of this is the press model of the world, in order to be consistent, must steer clear of actual reality whichh is INCONSISTENT with the core press model of understanding.

Thus the press must self sensor and leave in the forbidden zone of knowledge those very dangerous ideas and actions to the few and the undisclosed to the public.

It is in this forbidden zone of truth, under the rock in that icky places, this disaster has formed.

Only by making mistakes, together, out in the open, can we accept we made mistakes, or rather do HAVE to admit we made mistakes, out in the open, understand them, accept them, and move on from them together.

Those who make mistakes in secret, especially “elites” may be left with too much to hide, too much to cover up, and through more secret acts and abuses of power.

Sophistry

Political Correctness demonizing the Truth and the Enemy and demands its banishment.

The Biology, the Science, which is correct, is that IQ and other genes did not become selected in Sub Saharan Africa which has been an geographically and evolutionary stable population for hundreds of thousands of years.

Sociology asserts that pointing out IQ is lower in Sub Suhra and genomic factors are heridatable is the predujice causing racial disparity rather than the science explaing racial disparity, and with that Sophistry, the truth is banaished and the "standard" social science model, the knee jerk reaction whenever race is discussed, is the sole and dominate racial theory which has consolidated power and demands active conscription to it, rooting out "Scientific Racism."

Apparatchika

There are permissible beliefs in the U.S. and Western media which flow from the ideology of the Human Genome Program. While they differ in comparison to each other they both meet the required beliefs in National Theories of Race created by enforced by the U.S. Government.

What channel a belief is on will be the various subordinate competing derivations of approved national beliefs with the varied planks, platforms, and ethics.

What I think are alternative and even correct scientific foundations have simply been declared impermissible.

Thus each fact as it emerge must be contested or spun in accepted ideologies in ways each ideology can accept, reject, or interpret the data.

intransigent Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> intransigent
>
> impervious to pleas, persuasion, requests, or reason

Intransigent means inflexible, stubborn, entrenched. Argue all you like with an intransigent three-year-old. He will never back down from the position that he wants the lollipop NOW

> "An error does not become a mistake until you refuse to correct it." John F, Kebbedy quoting Orlando Aloysius Battista, devoutly and openly Catholic chemist.

Power of Defamation, ESpionage, in Black Operations, also called defamation via KOMPROMAT

IO have noticed since first arriving in Corpus Christi in its skid row black female reports run plant "Legend" propaganda for instance while I was at St TImmons a black female stood in front of the building stating on camera a "High School Ring" had been found "in the soup."

The exact same thing happened at Salvation Army, a tall black female reporter, and something similar at Good Samaritans Baptist reccue mission.

An announcement was made the press were doing a story, if people wish to be in the shot they could go out the public area, but if they were hiding from being seen stay inside. I went out and asked the press if they had any questions or wished to interview me in a live shot. They did not

Ana Tamez, black Hispanic reporter working for USA Today and others seems to be part of staging buttocks flashing of my vicinity or near my apartment complex, and those near me or near my apartment getting off by hands to or hands in pants or dropped pants talking about how wonderful the view is, perhaps 300 times this odd activity near me I traced to a claim I am being modeled for and reproductivity rights is due from me to compensate the model or model provider, something I would not agree to but forgeries do agree to, a forgery of my identity agrees, or forged girths to misrepresent me agrees to it.

> USA Today Editorial Says Republicans Are Bigger Threat Than 9/11 Hijackers After Cheney Ouster True Pundit
>
> Rep. Liz Cheney's ouster proved Republicans are a bigger threat than the 9/11 hijackers who killed thousands of Americans, according to a USA Today editorial.
>
> The removal of Cheney from her leadership position suggests that the GOP has endorsed election fraud conspiracy theories, USA Today editor David Mastio wrote in a Thursday editorial. Endorsing such conspiracy theories, which allege that President Joe Biden didn't actually win the election, poses a bigger threat to the U.S. than 9/11 hijackers ever did, he said.

> Ramon Pineda Bi-lingual Linear and Digital Broadcast Executive with experience in multiple major DMA's.

Corpus Christi, Texas, United States500+ connections

Currently, VP-GM with EW Scripps in Corpus Christi. In the past, served as President/General Manager/ Revenue Officer and Regional Director at UNIVISION for multiple DMA's including NY, Chicago and Philadelphia. Increased revenue and developed business and newscasts through strong team building abilities achieved through developing, retaining and hiring talent. Highly skilled team leader focused on innovating, delegating and developing Multiplatform opportunities.

Developed strong leadership skills and a proven track record at Univision, Telemundo and Caballero Spanish Media/INTEREP. Fully bi-lingual broadcasting executive with experience in operating Television, Radio, Digital Media, Sales Representation Firms, Experiential Events, Government Affairs and Community Relations. Worked for major Broadcasting Corporations as well as Rep Firms.

Tied in any way to Dr. Ramon Antonio Pineda, MD, Internal Medicine, Ramone Pineda Clinic, 2418 Southmore Ave, Pasadena, TX 77502

The press uses the Legend as true and are creating the Legend.

This occurred when the Blue Angels were outside my apartment area on the see wall, Ana Tamez was there, a females buttocks were facing my apartment, and the next day, 4/30/2021 a Hispanic veteran from unit 1001 N. Water Street #36 directly below, (a veteran in Operation PTSD) below my 46 apartment stood in the hallway outside 46 groping himself looking to where she had been the previous day and talking about what a beautiful view it was. He also asked form me wifi hotsopot usage which I denied.

This uses the press to make a mockery of me to the Blue Angles, military flight public outreach which I am truing to contact (military OIG, Military News, military history) and the Espionage operation has tarted to defame me to.

https://www.facebook.com/USNavyBlueAngels and https://www.blueangels.navy.mil/

The two activities, could be compositied together although did not occur together.

> Sp Musuem Defnaions with additions or modifcations
>
> Bagman
>
> An agent who pays spies and bribes authorities
>
> Black Bag Job
>
> Secret entry into a home or office to steal or copy materials
>
> Black Operations
>
> Covert operations that are not attributable to the organization performing them
>
> Black Budget
>
> Source of funding for black operations which is not seen or scrutinized or accounted for, in the case of Stalk of Edward Donegan and black market genomics, shakedown of Gloriand Donegn trust fund with falsified claims

Black Propaganda

A disinformation that is deniable by (and not traceable to) its source

Placed Individual or Co-operating Organization (asset)

A person placed into an organization working for an exterior or aligned interest. They may (re)place Assassinated Individuals or de-elected individuals and then operate with a Espionage motive for an Inside-Job motive or a Placed Individual may simply be added to some context such as a scene in public.

Paced Ethic Placed Taboo

Vilification of Concepts, Ideas, Political Beliefs, or certain speech via grandstanding abd bully pulpit usage

Power of Taboo and Use of Intimidation or Silencing, Bans, Deplatforuming

Something considered taboo is naughty, something society considers a no-no. For example, it is taboo to ask people how much money they earn.

Taboo is one of those rare words in the English language that doesn’t have Greek or Latin or French roots, coming instead from the South Pacific Islands in the eighteenth century via the explorer Captain Cook. For many islanders some things were tabu, meaning not only could they not be done but they could not be talked about either for risk of offending the Gods. This latter meaning still applies today (minus the spiritual underpinning), when we say that certain subjects are “taboo,” meaning off-limits for discussion

Power of Defamation

The effect Media can have in bulllying

Defamation of Character Lawsuits: Proving Actual Harm retrieved from AllLaw.com and copied or modified to here

A successful lawsuit for defamation of character might require a showing of real damage caused by the statement. Updated By David Goguen, J.D.

Defamation of character occurs when someone makes a false and harmful statement about you. “Libel” is a defamatory statement made in writing or posted online, while “slander” is spoken defamation. With either type, the statement must be published in some way (which just means some third party must have heard or read it), it must be false, and it must result in harm, usually to the subject’s reputation. Those essential components of a defamation claim are fairly straightforward. But what kinds of harm can result from a defamatory statement, and can you recover compensation for those losses through a lawsuit?

Harm to Reputation

Perhaps the most common negative consequence of a defamatory statement is harm to your professional reputation. If you’re a local businessperson and someone makes a false statement about you to others, indicating that you did something dishonest, that might cause your customers to take their business elsewhere. In another example, perhaps an untrue statement in a company email caused your employer to doubt whether you should remain employed.

Financial Harm

Of course, financial consequences often go hand-in-hand with harm to reputation. If you lose existing business, or lose your job, or can prove that you lost business opportunities or the chance at a promotion, you can seek compensation ("damages") for those types of financial harm as long as you can prove them with some degree of accuracy. Learn more about calculating damages in a defamation case.

When Harm Might Be Presumed

Some kinds of false statements are automatically presumed to be defamatory. The 2006 Duke lacrosse scandal provides an example. In that case, a woman accused several college athletes of sexually assaulting her at a party. It turned out that her account was not trustworthy. A false statement accusing another person of committing a crime, or of engaging in sexual misconduct, is usually considered "per se defamatory," meaning that it will be presumed to constitute defamation if, in fact, it was:

- false, and
- maliciously or recklessly made.

Other kinds of false allegations may also be presumed to be defamatory. But it's important to bear in mind that expressions of opinion about you, even if negative, are not usually defamatory. Likewise, if someone recounts a true but less-than-flattering incident involving you, that doesn't amount to libel or slander. Embarrassment is not defamation.

"Pain and Suffering" in Defamation Cases >

In some situations, defamation can lead to mental and physical health problems including insomnia, depression, anxiety, and other negative effects. In some states, a defamation plaintiff might be able to recover compensation for these kinds of "pain and suffering" damages, depending on the nature of the defamatory statement, especially where economic harm is clear.

Methods of Proof

In many jurisdictions, if you can prove that someone made a false statement about you knowingly or recklessly, and published it to other parties, you have established a claim of defamation, and it will be presumed that you have suffered (at least nominal) harm. If, however, your jurisdiction does not follow that rule, or if you are a public figure or someone who is in the public eye, you might have to prove you were in fact harmed by the defamatory statement.

In order to establish that your reputation has suffered, in addition to your own testimony you may need to provide witnesses and documentary proof. To prove financial harm, you could testify about the impact of the defamation on your income and economic standing, but you may also need bank statements, bills, pay stubs, accounting statements, or tax returns to back up your claims.

To prove pain and suffering, you could testify about the effects the defamation has had on you. You might also provide witnesses (including a spouse, relatives, and/or close friends) to testify about their observations about you in connection with the incident. If you're making a claim for significant mental or physical harm, you may need a doctor or other health care provider to testify about your symptoms and medical treatment, including evidence that the issues you're currently experiencing were not pre-existing. You would also want to provide medical bills to show what the treatment cost you out of pocket. Learn more about evidence you'll need to bring a defamation lawsuit.

To understand the nuances of defamation law and how it applies to your situation, you may want to consult with an experienced personal injury lawyer. Learn more about how a lawyer handles a defamation case.

Mercenary Conflict Engagement (includig media) with Mercenaries operating on Deep State loyalties

Being surveiled. subverted, and ghosted by competing interests including interests I and my Libertarian encampmenet would be hostile to Others gain the following I can not enfore my rights from intrusions and assets from larceny.

Genetically, from formal education as well as hard work and type of work utilizing libraries, IT and the Internet and rationalism rather than religious or community therapy street people drum circles self help witnessing) I have a high level of achievement.

Those who have had lesser achievement have recognized the gain of assaulting me on topic and hope to learn during the engagement my beliefs, and trapping me among provocateur assailants in a walled of from my social educational level peers.

Competition in Competing Process
Similar but competing in the system		Results Claimed
Myself Rejecting that as the wrong approach and seeking distance	Results Stolen	Me Diminuzed and discredited

---

Competition in Similar Process
Similar but competing in the system		Results Claimed
Myself seeking community but rejected because of KOMPROMAT	Results Stolen	Me Diminuzed and discredited

Either way my property rights are not being defended but rather violated and that is being encouraged by the State.

Without that Standing and worth as a person, a potential husband, employee, activist, etc., I can not gain the foothold needed in life.

My absence from my peer groups community is replaced with the hostile mercenary assailants who have learned from conflicts with me, as they assume the studies aspects of me to further their lives in communities new to themselves.

Enforcement of my rights with my standing and worth hijacked and USA social, housing, and reproductive family, educational, and spiritual life has been denies by the State backed assailants attributing their flaws upon me as they move forward with they have studies as me their new worth designed to fit any toehod which would have matched the shape of my toes.

I have undergone State backed sexual, physical, and other assault so that during the conflicts others have benefited including under Color of Law, the conflict or evidence plants created State study opportunities of me via Abuse of Process and acts of true State violence without identification of State actors thus that the State avoids penalty or retribution for the State acts.

As I said in the Dire Warning chapter

https://isthmus.com/news/news/democratic-operative-scott-foval-says-sting-that-brought-him-down-was-a-fraud/

Throughout the videos, Foval discusses what he calls “conflict engagement,” saying “We have mentally ill people we pay to do shit” and describing “bird-dogging,” which he explains as planting people at events of his political opponents to get the attention of the media or to disrupt candidates. A couple days after the videos were released, Foval was “summarily dismissed from both” jobs, he says.

As I document the ENTIRE SCENE with these photos I am violently threatened by the entire Shill group who surrounded me.

Seeking my knowledge of Recovery and my capabilities representing recovery through assaults rather than cooperation

Hegel and the FOXP2 gene

My honest and hard working literate lifestyle and morality has been the mental health system motive to coopt and attack me because I was doing in my non employed life what they were not doing while at work.

I participated in non retarded activities such as reading groups, charity runs meetups, book clubs, philosophy meetups, etc. in Arlington Virginia with members of the community, often PHds and attorneys and others.

I was attack by black thugs at least 15 times and under constantly threat from gangtalk racketeering system around me I was several times arrested for rather than the stalkers.

I made (for HTML practice) a table on Hegal about polar opposites and “Live and Let Live” just simply trying to put encampments of disagreements asside in life, and finding common ground.

Rather than recognize it as good ideas in recovery, don’t be a pscyho in life, it was co-opted by “scholars” who were the experts and me who made the Alcoholics Anonymous like share of having good non psychotic relations with others, was turned into the Psycho who those scholars needed to study, perhaps because I carry the FOXP2 Borderline gene and of course that makes me a lab rat trapped by DARPA CIA experts as some sort of exotic psycho.

No, my hard work and non psychotic statement of My Principles was co-opted by those who wanted to credit themselves and discredit me. Since I was in the dental chair under gas, why not cop a feel and not tell me about it.

the Media backed the “scholars.”

In fact I had always planned on using social media to reconnect back into the Social Matrix as part of recovery since about 2003 and that Hegel meetup was that continuting plan. The person who was my counselor at the time, Penny Ashley was a far leftist who snapped the meetup time and location from me saying she had me. I was a racist, what was the Master and Slave thing I was doing now. I had to tell her this was a philosophy group, not New Nation News.

This was the same counselor I had to tell what a Dialectic was and also completely missed my having diabetes and was wrong about the diet plan, not accepting the one promoted by my Internal Medicine doctor and she did not understand my gym plan or routine either.

By studying me down to the Molecular level by assault and intrusion the Analog Molecule can be formed which will displace me. If the Analog Moleucule is not an exact shape of the copied molecule the original molecule might still bind somewhere.

Lethal State Backed Persecution by Defection of Those Who Would but Then Will Not Be Honest Roles in my Societal Life

Whether it be any State agency I go to, lawyer, doctor, Government agency, the press, or apartment rental, etc., I go to, its defection from me is recruited and achieved.

Mercenary interest found in those entities surrounding me with lethally deny the original good or service and do something hostile to me instead making survival in the USA nothing other than a subject of abuse existence for which neither the Government nor the Media have altered course.

Conflict Entanglement

Behavioral Health, DARPA backed Brain researchers have done hit jobs on me as they have themsleves or through Mercenaries conflict entangled with me.

Standing next to me and seeming to lead me (perhaps leading the Doppelgänger next to me) or pretending to coach me on what I am already doing has given Conflict Entanglers what literally is my claim to faim.

In fact they have the capability to show others using the own [lack of] credibility I am ignorant and with the public's assistance, the Media and its personalities, those can show a retard like me how to live, and in fact if what is hinted at to me matches my life then by the entanglement my intellectual standing, worth, and even property is credited to alleged teachers of me.

I am not bipolar. Hiding non cyclical Speech Spasmodia as "Bipolar pressured speech" hides the real presence of FOXP2 which has been a Behavioral Health mechanism to bring discredit to me and my own standing and statements about any topic or about any person INCLUDING my criticisms of Behavioral Health who entangles with me without right to do so.

DARPA Brain Program and Behavioral Health have the clout and even technology to do hit jobs on the reports they generate about me.

This includes inbound calls, SMS TXTs, or STOPS to my smartphone music such that I touch my phone for one purpose when it looks like I am using my phone for something else.

Similarly when I legitimately use my phone for stay starting Map My Run run tracking they stick a fake photo victim in front of my camera.

NEWSFLASH

The CIA and Marine Corps, Marshalls, and others are not racketeering the value of my genome into adult entertainers. The Press believes them.

BTW John Pilger also believes it possible Obama is the Manchurian Candidate, which is what he has reported on and would explain to keep my genes out of what would be immediate relatives white women, and into blacks instead, all tied to the Vatican and the CIA including in Texas.

Oh, the great war is at hand and few are the wiser! It is heartbreaking to see that so many are headed to slaughter and they are drunk with the consumption of the dark lusts of this deceptive world! They are fast asleep, yet their very necks are on the chopping blocks, and they hope against hope that this is not the case! But, alas it is so! At stake is now on this dark is every living soul of humanity!

This great war has everything to do with our Lord Jesus Christ, His soon return and reign on this Earth, versus the reign of Lucifer, Satan, the devil and his soon ending reign in this very dark world. But, my Dear Ones, as long as any love this world and what is in it, they will not see this war and will probably even scorn at the notion that it even exists! And, in so doing, they will not notice that they are neck-high in it until they are literally forced to make a choice for one side or the other! And, this is exactly what the “mark of the beast” is going to do for the sleeping and dumbed-down masses! They will be forced into choosing either the side of Satan, and thereby take his computer chip, or they will wake up, repent, and choose the side of righteousness, the side of our Saviour!

Blindness

The Press and the U.S. do not recognize the crime because they have blinded themselves to key elements of the story.

- The motive for the crime. Blacks ARE cognitively inferior to Whites and Asians for Modernity, especially true Sub Saharans.

- the opportunity for the crime, few press risk covering much of the high per capita crime levels of blacks for fear of being accused of unequal coverage of minorities. Thus a area of non camera coverage exists for people like the Obamas, Vince Stewart Jr., or others to operate under without enough scrutiny.

- Again, because people won't recognize issues like ASPM and the ATL, medical issues, the means of fixing these, also gets information black-holed.

Linda Newkirk is correct that in this world blindness to reality the Illuminati have been able to operate near publicly without being noticed or being ignored.

Julius Ochs Adler retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Z

Julius Ochs Adler (December 3, 1892 - October 3, 1955) was an American publisher, journalist, and highly decorated United States Army officer with the rank of major general. He distinguished himself during World War I as Major and battalion commander in the 306th Infantry Regiment and received Distinguished Service Cross, the second highest decorations of the United States military for valor in combat.

Member of Justice Lodge No. 753 of New York City.

Following the War, he returned to his civilian job as journalist for The New York Times, but retained his reserve commission. Adler was recalled for federal service in 1940 and reached the rank of Brigadier general. He later served as Assistant Division Commander, 6th Infantry Division during New Guinea campaign, but reverted to the inactive status in late 1944. However Adler remained active in the Army Organized Reserve and reached the rank of major general and commander of 77th Infantry Division.

Adler returned stateside in April 1919 and reverted to the inactive status on May 10, 1919. He retain his reserve commission in the 306th Infantry Regiment and returned to his job with The New York Times. He become treasurer and vice-president of The New York Times and following the death of his uncle, Adolph Ochs, in April 1935, he was appointed General Manager of The Times. Adler was promoted to lieutenant colonel in 1923 and to colonel in 1930 in the Army Reserve. He assumed command of 306th Infantry Regiment in the Army Reserves in December 1924 and held it until his reactivation in October 1940.

Meanwhile in April 1932, Adler was appointed civilian aide to the Secretary of War, Patrick J. Hurley in connection with Citizens' Military Training Camp for Second Corps Area under Major general Dennis E. Nolan. For his contribution as a Princeton graduate to journalism or related fields, Adler became the second recipient of the medal awarded annually by the Daily

Princetonian Alumni Association.

Adler participated in the pre-World War II defense program and in May 1940, he was appointed Head of the committee of representatives from New York, New Jersey and Delaware, which was responsible for the direction of the registration of 7,200 youths for the Citizens' Military Training Camps. Adler also urged Secretary of the Navy, Frank Knox, with the adoption of compulsory military training.

World War II Adler was reactivated at his own request in October 1940 and appointed commanding officer of the 113th Infantry Regiment, 44th Division, at Fort Dix, New Jersey. After several months with that regiment, he was promoted to the temporary rank of Brigadier general on July 15, 1941 and assumed duty as Assistant Division Commander, 6th Infantry Division under Major general Franklin C. Sibert.

He participated in the desert training in California and embarked with the division to Hawaii in July 1943 for defense of the islands. Adler participated in the coordination of the defense plans of Oahu and received Bronze Star Medal. The Sixth Division then conducted intensive jungle training until January 1944, when it received orders to reinforce allied units on Southwest Pacific. Adler participated in the New Guinea campaign until June 1944, when became ill and was shipped to the United States for treatment.

Unfortunately his illness was so serious, Adler was declared unfit for active duty and reverted to an inactive status on November 17, 1944. At least his service with 6th Infantry Division on New Guinea was recognized with Legion of Merit.

Postwar career- American newspaper editors speak with survivors at a hospital in the newly liberated

Buchenwald concentration camp, April 1945. Left to right: Norman Chandler, Los Angeles Times; William I. Nichols (leaning forward, center), This Week magazine; and Julius Ochs Adler, The New York Times. Adler returned to his job with The New York Times as General manager and also resumed his work as the president and publisher of The Chattanooga Times. Shortly following the surrender of Nazi Germany in May 1945, Adler and several other newspapers executive, visited Concentration camps in Germany at the invitation of General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Another tour of duty came in August and September 1945, when he was invited by Secretary of the Navy, James V. Forrestal to the Pacific Theater of Operations to obtain firsthand observation of the military operations. While in the Pacific, Japan surrendered and Adler filed dispatches to his newspaper aboard the U.S. Warships in Tokyo Bay.

Following the activation of 77th Infantry Division as the part of Army Organized Reserve, general Courtney Hodges, commanding general, First United States Army, appointed Adler as 77th Division commanding general. Adler commanded his division during the postwar training period at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey and received promotion to major general on January 24, 1948. He also served as the President of the Senior Army Reserve Commanders Association, 1949-1951 and a Reserve member of the Components Policy Board.

Adler was the president and publisher of The Chattanooga Times, and general manager of The New York Times until his death on October 3, 1955.[6] He was buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Brian Wiliams?

Brian Williams retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Williams became anchor of NBC Nightly News on December 2, 2004, replacing the retiring Tom Brokaw. His coverage of Hurricane Katrina was widely praised, particularly “for venting his anger and frustration over the government’s failure to act quickly to help the victims.” The network was awarded a Peabody, the committee concluding that “Williams, and the entire staff of NBC Nightly News exemplified the highest levels of journalistic excellence.” NBC Nightly News also earned the George Polk Award and the

Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

The Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award honors excellence in broadcast anddigital journalism in the public service and is considered one of the most prestigious awards in journalism. The awards were established in 1942 and administered until 1967 by Washington and Lee University’s O. W. Riegel, Curator and Head of the Department of Journalism and Communications.[1] Since 1968 they have been administered by the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism in New York City, and are considered by some to be the broadcast equivalent of the Pulitzer Prize, another program administered by Columbia University.

Dedicated to upholding the highest journalism standards, the duPont awards inform the public about the contributions news organizations and journalists make to their communities, support journalism education and innovation, and cultivate a collective spirit for the profession.

The duPont-Columbia Awards were established by Jessie Ball duPont in memory of her husband Alfred I. du Pont. It is the most well-respected journalism-only award for broadcast journalism; starting in 2009, it began accepting digital submissions. The duPont, along with the George Foster Peabody Awards, rank among the most prestigious awards programs in all electronic media.

The duPont-Columbia jury selects the winners from programs that air in the United States between July 1 and June 30 of each year. Award winners receive batons in gold and silver designed by the American architect Louis I. Kahn. The gold baton, when awarded, is given exclusively in honor of truly outstanding broadcast journalism.

for its Katrina coverage. Vanity Fair called Williams' work on Katrina "Murrow-worthy" and reported that during the hurricane, he became "a nation's anchor". The New York Times characterized Williams' reporting of the hurricane as "a defining moment"

This book

Road (Voice) Blocking at Voice Amplifiers via Stalkers Celebrity Hounding (mobbing)

Reaper will defame Sower to Community, Ask to be accepted instead

Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

Discriminating Community acts on secretly held KOMPROMAT Road Roadblocks Sower on flimsy excuse but good enough excuse

Google
Brittany Spears 2008
Feb
21 2008
Ed in FMC
Butner NC
People also ask
What did Britney Spears do in 2008?
When was Britney meltdown?
What happened Britney VMA 2007?
Feedback
https://www.rollingstone.com › feature › the-tragedy-of...
Tragedy of Britney Spears: Rolling Stone's 2008 Cover Story ...
Feb 21, 2008 – Under the terms of their prenup, Kevin Federline was due only $1 million of Britney's estimated $30 million fortune, and his sole route to future ...

This book

Media Liability robbed entirely from Coverwallet.com source html

Large international media operations like Felife.com operating from Turkey and Canada have promoted and facilitated the Criminal Syndicate including criminal trafficking across international borders and a policy banning any fetlife member for an act of accsuing another fetlife member of criminal activity.

https://www.coverwallet.com/general/media-liability

Media liability insurance is a specialized form of errors and omissions policy specifically designed for media clients who are at risk from liability claims brought by third parties. This type of policy is usually purchased by publishers, broadcasters, advertising agencies, authors, and other related firms that create and distribute media content through various platforms.

Typically written on a claim made basis, media liability insurance provides coverage against defamation, invasion of privacy, copyright infringement, plagiarism, intentional torts and related liabilities. Whether you are an online blogger, film producer, advertising company, news publisher, digital marketing company, or social media influencer, a media liability policy protects you from claim types that are unique to media professionals and for which you can be held financially responsible.

Who should buy Media Liability Insurance?

Media creators produce the shows we watch, the books we read, the music we love, the web content we read or stream, and more.

But behind the craftsmanship, media makers and entertainers often face liabilities that could lead to steep defense costs and the risk of a liability judgment. Things like libel, slander, intellectual property claims and similar issues are very common in the industry.

To protect the interest of publishers, broadcasters, producers, creators, and agencies, obtaining the right liability insurance is essential. This is where a media liability policy becomes extremely helpful, by providing coverage specifically designed for the unique needs of media producers. If your business deals with the following activities or have a direct relation with these industries, then having media liability insurance is highly recommended:

- Film and program producer
- Film, program, video and home entertainment distributor
- Publisher
- Author
- Radio, cable and television broadcaster
- Spokesperson
- Advertising agency
- Magazine, newspaper and book publisher

- Cable operator
- Marketing company
- Multimedia company
- Online content provider
- Brand manager
- Public speaker
- Public relation firm

If you aren't sure if media liability insurance will address your specific needs, check with your broker. It may be possible that another type of policy is the best fit or that your business needs multiple policies to provide more complete coverage.

What is covered by Media Liability Insurance?

Depending on coverage offered, not all media liability policies are created equal. Insurers' policies often vary while some businesses need a customized plan to suit their specific requirements. Media liability coverage includes the following but may not be limited to:

Defamation - often arising from false information, defamation is damaging another person, product, group, or business reputation. When false statements are verbalized, they are called slander. But when they are printed in words or images, it is then classified as libel.

Plagiarism - defined as the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's original work. Because ideas are often similar in some ways, plagiarism is a possible media liability claim that media creators can face. Even if there is no copyright, as long as it is proven that the content is made by someone else, you can be held legally responsible for using content without authorization or creating substantially similar content.

Copyright Infringement - if you reproduce, distribute, perform, or display a protected work without permission, you are violating the exclusive rights of the copyright holder. Just like plagiarism, copyright infringement is a common risk in the world of media and entertainment.

Invasion of Privacy - common for reporters, entertainment writers, and celebrity followers, invasion of privacy is the unjustifiable intrusion into the personal life of another without proper consent. It includes disclosing his or her private information, publicizing the person in a false light, or using his or her name for personal gain.

Other media liability claims that may be covered by your policy are emotional distress, negligent supervision, and personal disparagement. On the other hand, media liability insurance typically excludes the following circumstances:

- Breach of contract
- Patent infringements
- Claims made by regulatory authorities
- Normal business activities relating to employment

Further reading Errors & Omissions (E&O) Insurance coverwallet.com

This book

Paranoia resultant from Defamation of me and myself used as the Red Herring that distracts from identification or real peepers

I speak a lot about Subversion of me, demonization of me which makes me seem unpalatable for me to express my own ideas or be credited with them and this has been during Conversion, that others want my standing and worth instead and mostly it is not a lateral transfer but rather to an opposing system not capable of my worth hiding their lack of worth with my stolen worth thus also stealing the resultant overall standing and opportunities without the intervening event may not have been reached by them or their groups.

> Google Knowledge Panel *
>
> Defamation is the oral or written communication of a false statement about another that unjustly harms their reputation and usually constitutes a tort or crime. In several countries Wikipediaa

A red herring is something that misleads or distracts from a relevant or important question.[1] It may be either a logical allacy or a literary device that leads readers or audiences toward a false conclusion. A red herring may be used intentionally, as in mystery fiction or as part of rhetorical strategies (e.g., in politics), or may be used in argumentation inadvertently. From Wikipediaa, the free encyclopedia *

Paranoia is the weapon, used to cast paranoid reactions towards me I am the recipient of (such as ass flashing me as though I were falling for a trap of temptation for wrongdoing, a peeping tom following people) and others morally or protectively avoiding me as though I were the peeper operating in the area.

In the same way Paranoia is used to protect the assaults as the claims that it is I whose behavior initiated the odd circumstance visible to others, a snapshot of me in an incriminating circumstance occurring in a normal location in which I actually am engaged in normal acts.

Schizophrenia: Helping Someone Who Is ParanoidGoogle knowledge panel retrieved from lwww.verywellmind.com and copied or modified to here

- Don't argue. …
- Use simple directions, if needed. …
- Give the person enough personal space so that he or she does not feel trapped or surrounded.

…

- Call for help if you think anyone is in danger.
- Move the person away from the cause of the fear or from noise and activity, if possible. …
- Focus the person on what is real.

As women avoided me without explanation to me I joked if off a little "Is it the gym shirt I am wearing? Need a washing?" in a casual manner and made it a point not to actually chase women who chose to leave the area I was in merely respecting they can do whatever they wanted.

I did approach media and law enforcement and gym staff on this on many occasions yet the operation was creating at the community desire a paranoia regarding me and in that paranoia litigancy against me.

I have asserted all along that there is no intrusive right against any of my life, liberty, or property, or reproductive or association or housing interests, but if the actions and beliefs of who I call “Tx” or “Art” the artificial representation of Edward Paul Donegan, different than the real Edward Paul Donegan, paranoia can be generated and exploited towards me which seems the main goal of use of a Dopple of me to generate both fear, stigmatization, and phone claims against me both defamatory to me and which closes doors to normal life not to mention is sufficient character assassination to reduce me as a believable or desirable partner or leader in any matter at all.

Johns Hopkins Psychiatry Guide

- A delusion is a fixed, false, and idiosyncratic belief and is one of the trilogy of psychotic symptoms: hallucinations, delusions, and thought disorder.
    - “Fixed” refers to the strength of the patient’s belief. The patient is certain, and not persuaded by any arguments to the contrary.
    - “False” relates to the veracity of the patient’s belief.
    - “Idiosyncratic” means the belief is characteristic of the individual patient.

- Beliefs about which the truth cannot be known with reasonable certainty, such as cultural or religious beliefs should not be classified as delusions without careful consideration.

- Beliefs shared by a group of people, for example, a belief in UFOs, are not delusions.

As discussed below cognitive conditions are formed by phenomona and as such are captives to experience.

> Quotations on the Jefferson Memorial *
>
> "Well aware that the opinions and belief of men depend not on their own will, but follow involuntarily the evidence proposed to their minds; that Almighty God hath created the mind free, and manifested his supreme will that free it shall remain by making it altogether insusceptible of restraint; that all attempts to influence it by temporal punishments, or burthens, or by civil incapacitations, tend only to beget habits of hypocrisy and meanness, and are a departure from the plan of the holy author of our religion …" - "A Bill for Establishing Religious Freedom", Section I3

Thus only the evidence proposed to the Mind is its only comforatable and non abrasive guide.

DESCRIPTIVE PHENOMENOLOGICAL APPROACH

This approach to understanding delusions is a very influential one for psychiatrists. Jaspers' book General

Psychopathology marked a major step forwards in establishing psychopathology as a scientific discipline. Experiencing mental states by the patient and the understanding of this experience by the physician defined the central framework. However, in contrast to biological phenomena, mental events in Jaspers' view can never be accessed directly, but only via the expressions of the person who experiences them. Phenomenology is the study of subjective experience. It is one's empathic access or understanding of the patient's experience. One enters into the other person's experiences using the analogy of one's own experience. Jaspers distinguishes between static understanding which "grasps particular psychic qualities and states as individually experienced" and genetic understanding which "grasps the emergence of one psychic event from another". Phenomenology is static understanding. Phenomenology is one's recreation of the patient's experiences through "transferring into", "empathizing with" or literally "feeling into" or "living with" the patient's experiences. In this way one arrives at an "actualization, representation or bringing to mind" of the patient's experience. "Phenomenology actualizes or represents the patient's inner subjective experiences. We can only make a representation of them through an act of empathy or understanding" (Jaspers, 1963).

THE CONCEPT OF FORM AND CONTENT

Following the theory of knowledge of the philosopher Immanuel Kant, Jaspers accepts that all experience or knowledge entails both an incoming sensation and an organizing concept. The former is matter or content, the latter is form. The empiricists (Locke, Berkeley Hume) emphasized incoming sensation exclusively; the rationalists (Descartes and Leibniz) emphasized the organizing concept exclusively. Kant took a carefully considered middle course. All experience and knowledge entails the two stems of conceptual form and intuitive content. This will be crucial for Jaspers' concept of delusion. In Kant's words from his Critique of Pure Reason:

Wikipediaa retrieved from Propaganda and copied or modified to here

Propaganda is communication that is primarily used to influence an audience and further an agenda, which may not be objective and may be selectively presenting facts in order to encourage a particular synthesis or perception, or using loaded language in order to produce an emotional rather than a rational response to the information that is being presented.[1] Propaganda is often associated with material which is prepared by governments, but activist groups, companies, religious organizations, the media, and individuals also produce propaganda.

In fact the minds of those who saw deceitful snapshots of scenes, manufactured scenes, were victims of Propaganda and I then I also became a victim of their paranoia towards me.

If the underlying delusions are organic they may not yeild to corrective evidence made available to the mind.

If the errors of fact driving the mind to erroneous conclusions is not based in biology or nor in fixed brain disorder then rational analysis should be available as an intervention.

My point is the operational elements with responsibilities are letting falsified information generated by others create paranoia about me and not only permits the process but reinforce the process in protection of the manufactured Propaganda and its affects which include what I term religious violence and ethnic violence, created false and actionable claims against percieved villany of opposition, racial, ethnic, and religious opposition.

Females in particular minors who are used as Gambits as the pretend to be a victim of me

Wikipediaa retrieved from Victim playing and copied or modified to here

Victim Playing (also known as playing the victim, victim card, or self-victimization) is the fabrication or exaggeration of victimhood for a variety of reasons such as to justify abuse of others, to manipulate others, a coping strategy, attention seeking or diffusion of responsibility

Victim playing by abusers is either

For abuse

- Dehumanization of a person, diverting attention away from acts of abuse by claiming that the abuse was justified based on another person's bad behavior (such as racism) (typically [a property of the victim).
- Grooming for abusive power and control by soliciting sympathy from others in order to gain their assistance in supporting or enabling the abuse of a victim (known as proxy abuse).

For manipulation

> Manipulators often play the victim role ("woe is me") by portraying themselves as victims of circumstances or someone else's behavior in order to gain pity or sympathy or to evoke compassion and thereby get something from someone. Caring and conscientious people cannot stand to see anyone suffering, and the manipulator often finds it easy and rewarding to play on sympathy to get cooperation.[3]

Blame - As a propaganda technique.

Labeling theory accounts for blame by postulating that when intentional actors act out to continuously blame an individual for nonexistent psychological traits and for nonexistent variables.

or the blaming behaviors, the intention is to create a negative valuation of innocent humans to induce fear, by using fear mongering. For centuries, governments have used blaming in the form of demonization to influence public perceptions of various other governments, to induce feelings of nationalism in the public From Wikipediaa, the free encyclopedia *

Blame - as a legal technique

Fights are provoked by plating teens and peeping allegation on and around me, and racism is provoked by non whites doing it as getting back at whites. In the contexts of these provoked fights I am assigned to the losing side yet I am the victim, and also become subject to Deep Pockets litigation against me by supposed victims or FISA warrants etc that the real victimizer uses in co-opting my works in progress.

Rationalization (psychology)

From Wikipediaa, the free encyclopedia

In psychology and logic, rationalization or rationalization (also known as making excuses[according to whom?])[1] is a defense mechanism in which controversial behaviors or feelings are justified and explained in a seemingly rational or logical manner to avoid the true explanation, and are made consciously tolerable-or even admirable and superior-by plausible means.[2] It is also an informal fallacy of reasoning.[3]

Rationalization happens in two steps:

- A decision, action, judgment is made for a given reason, or no (known) reason at all.
- A rationalization is performed, constructing a seemingly good or logical reason, as an attempt to justify the act after the fact (for oneself or others).

Rationalization encourages irrational or unacceptable behavior, motives, or feelings and often involves ad hoc hypothesizing. This process ranges from fully conscious (e.g. to present an external defense against ridicule from others) to mostly unconscious (e.g. to create a block against internal feelings of guilt or shame). People rationalize for various reasons-sometimes when we think we know ourselves better than we do. Rationalization may differentiate the original deterministic explanation of the behavior or feeling in question.

[4][5]

It is important to put emphasis on the notion that rationalization is exclusively a defense mechanism; as such, it must be a denial of an idea. Many conclusions individuals come to do not fall under the definition of rationalization as the term is denoted above.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> Want
>
> The word want goes back to the 12th century and the Old Norse language, where vanta meant “to be deficient,” or “in want.” If someone keeps bugging you, you might lose patience and ask, “What do you want?” If you are seeking employment, check the “want ads” or look for signs saying “Help Wanted.” If you are a “wanted criminal,” you might have trouble getting hired.
>
> Wanton
>
> Wanton describes something excessive, uncontrolled and sometimes even cruel. The principal sees a food fight as a wanton act of vandalism done with wanton disregard for the rules, but the kids might just see it as fun.

Wikipediaa retrieved from Demonization and copied or modified to here

Demonization or Demonisation is the reinterpretation of polytheistic deities as evil, lying demons by other religions, generally by the monotheistic and henotheistic ones. The term has since been expanded to refer to any characterization of individuals, groups, or political bodies as evil. When Christians spread and conquered land, they demonized the gods and goddesses of the local people.

Religions, even those that are radically monotheistic, do not necessarily deny the existence of other gods or spiritual beings. On the contrary, they claim other gods are not worthy of worship and in actuality are demons who mislead followers from proper belief or practice. Christian missionaries often employed demonization tactics when converting pagans, although Judaism, Islam, and other religions have similar histories. Demonization is not limited to focusing on other religions but can also be directed inward to condemn various schools of thought or movements.

From a secular viewpoint, demonization can be used to denigrate an opposed individual or group, making adherents to one's own religion or viewpoint less inclined to do business with them (and possibly convert) and more inclined to fight against them. If foreigners are evil and corrupted by demonic influence, then any means of self-defense is easily portrayed as legitimate. The portrayal of almost all pagans in the Middle East as Baal worshippers in the Hebrew Bible is an example of this.[1][2] If pagans are corrupted by the demon "god" Baal, then clearly they must be fought or at least oppressed.[3] Especially in the earlier books of the Hebrew Bible, foreign deities are portrayed as existing and corrupting entities rather than being mere powerless idols. Some would argue this later transferred to Christianity after Constantine I's ascension in its suppression of Roman paganism.[4] Some of the most known of these demonizations are Lucifer, Beelzebub and Baphomet up to the extend that they became synonymous with the devil/satan of Abrahamic religions. Later, the language of demonization would be invoked with the rise in Antisemitism in Iberia, leading to the Expulsion of Jews from Spain including the Moriscos.[5]

Political conflicts, Demonization is sometimes used against what are arguably political opponents rather than religious ones. The Knights Templar were destroyed by accusations that they worshipped Baphomet from King Philip the Fair. Baphomet, often thought to be Beelzebub, may have been used because of the likeness of this horned deity with the Christian images of Satan.[10][11

This book

Optics and Paranoia

The #PsyOps system is to calculate what will affect a mob or population, then play to that. An Ayatollah might be framed by a packed from amazon.com (Jewish owned at least for a while) Pork at his doorstep just arrived. These f tactics can move him out of leadership.

Creating bread crumb tales in public which lead the population of duped people in the formation of opinion are how defamation and slander work, cumulative affect of compounding situations which look bad for a person and begin to add up and re-inforce each other, inciting opinion that the slander must be true, and asking the public for vigilantism against the defamed person, thus avoide #PsyOps from taking action against the defamed person, PSyOps has “hands off” the defamed person, and any vigilant attacking a defamed person will be secretly created by PsyOps but denied by PsyOps if caught in actions defaming or attacking the defamed person.

- the story of using larceny (manufacturing falsely predicated right to sue a person the public has become paranoid about) as a funding for mercenary who hate a white person, Ed Donegan, and wish to claim non white children are his idols.

Its paranoia manufactured vaguely, evading direct scrutiny , cliquishly, about a persecuted person, myself, under the manufactured paranoid theory then claims will be made against myself, and thus my assets are a funding of Subversives, criminals elevated into office promising the community will benefit from the scheme

The story of Subversion, gaining office on promises of illegal gains for the community if they comply with the corrupt officials requirements of frauds against targeted assets held by others myself, trust fund them vomited.

The entire story of this book is that MKULTRA is the real reason the Government wants permission to my genome and I am a law abiding person with neither moral nor legal liabilities.

To gain access to my genome a larceny front organizations system created phony fight against me as I have repelled aggressor racial and aggressor minor exploitation allegations which generate those questions in my life.

Wikipedia retrieved from Infiltration and establishing front groups and copied or modified to here

> In order for a group to be successful in subverting a government, the group itself and its ideas must be seen as an acceptable alternative to the status quo. However, groups that work toward subverting a government, in many cases, follow ideas and promote goals that on their surface would not receive the support of the population. Therefore, "to gain public credibility, attract new supporters, generate revenue, and acquire other resources, groups need to undertake political activities that are entirely separate, or appear separate, from the overtly violent activities of those groups.

Espionage Use of Placing Recidivist Offenders near me OR Planting Evidence of Others Crimes On or Near Me wrongly implicating both my character and my acts

This occurs in primed paranoia about me in an Identity Theft system known as Road Blocking.

I am prevented from my path as others take over my path, for instance I am thrown out of Corpus Christi Bay Area Landry suddenly but then a Dopple takes over the clothes I was washing and moves them, and with them, my identity to a Long Con set where the Dopple of me becomes included in wrongdoing and confesses to wrongdoing.

The Corpus Christi PD do know this is fraud and have hot flight left scenes where I have detected the dopple in action.

Another form of Road Blocking, or a longer time span versions, is that I left San Francisco after getting clean from drugs and moved to Arlington Virginia,

A Dopple took over my existence in San Francisco life including Wells Fargo and my birthday to have birthday parties at massage parlors.

This use of the dopple of me stepping into my identity creates the record I was involved in things I was not and that theory is continuously perpetuate by acts of fraud within that theory of me.

My attempts to defeat the Propaganda fails because it is the intractable tool of he goals of the Propaganda is who not in error but rather in conspiracy under the Propaganda legend.

Promises to the Community to access to my trust fund and Acts of the Community

Tapping the value of Edward Paul Donegan by the entity of Tx, the dopple of me

Ed	"Tx" the impersonator of Ed	Woman or person in Ed's forward path
Ed loss of repution and value	By impesonating Ed and creating a liability of Ed	Tx proceeds forward to women, others with the

	(Identity Theft) tap Ed's trust fund	Value of Ed, as more acceptable spenders of Eds value

Vocabulary.com retrieved from tap and copied or modified to here tap (the bleed off of Ed'; value for use with others by others, the Tapping Device that is Tx

To tap is to lightly hit something, the way you tap your friend on the shoulder to get her attention or tap your foot against the floor when you're listening to music.

Another kind of tap is a spigot that liquid or gas flows from, or the secret listening device a spy might use. As a verb, it can also mean "make use of," the way you tap into your sister's jar of change when you need an extra dollar or two.

1. pierce in order to draw a liquid from
2. the act of tapping a telephone or telegraph line to get information
3. a tool for cutting female (internal) screw threads

The parnoia of sex abuse is blaming the witch (me) for the witch poking.

Paranoia is not only generated by assailants planted abused tots near me paranoia is also made of speech irregularity and a writing defect dyslexia like.

Under this paranoia I have been attacked all my life by the profiteering assailants of me.

Espionage does not openly commit crimes. They destroy records of crimes (William Barr, Donald Barr, others) conceal crimes via camouflage of them including sham investigations or sham retaliation for crimes which never existed, psychosis that never existed, or other excuse making to act under the color of.

Simple criminals commit simple crimes. Those with more sophistication or more clout in excuse making commit complex crimes which cover their tracks even in real time via sham excuses for their acts.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

> camouflage
>
> To camouflage is to disguise, and a camouflage is that which disguises - like the leaf-colored and patterned uniforms worn by soldiers who want to blend in with their natural surroundings.
>
> Camouflage evolved from the French camoufler, which was slang for “to disguise.” Camoufler itself most likely comes from camouflet, meaning “puff of smoke” - a puff of smoke that makes it hard to see things. Camouflaged clothing certainly hides hunters from their prey, but the word can also be used in a more figurative sense, as in camouflaging criticism by veiling it as a backhanded compliment.

camouflage as a verb disguise by camouflaging; exploit the natural surroundings to disguise something camouflage as a noun

- an outward semblance that misrepresents the true nature of something
- the act of concealing the identity of something by modifying its appearance
- device or stratagem for concealment or deceit

A Disreality that does not exist but the column which does not add up is NEEDED by an Espionage interests

Exactly the appearances, rather than truth, I think are brought before Judge Roll's replacement, appearances only.

Subterfuge and Deceit Since a black ear was near and a white ear was near can we conclude this Asian man was born s a HeteroEar?

Interleaving (that does not add up)

Creating a Legend with Street Theater (Organized Stalk) of Camoflauged Narrative Added to Events

Subterfuge and Deceit Since a black ear was near and a white ear was near can we conclude this Asian man was born s a HeteroEar?

fog

fog

The person emerging from the fog does not look right

Interleaving (that does not add up)

A case made for assets siezurexs in rigged cases and case handling including those not acting on behalf agreeing on my behalf or forged commumications alleged to be from me, again, via impersonation by some mechansim or another.

camouflage as a noun - an outward semblance that misrepresents the true nature of something

Comofluaged double entenders often not even making sense under allegedly ambiguous meanings create a Legend, a story unfolding, suggestively but not definitively

fog

Cherell gets “Ess it sure is nice passi building in San Francisco we are g by”

Others in camofloauged acts have said this is the true story, including using a stand if for me as need by the covert operation manufacturing the legend.

In the Fog of Information Warfare People are wrongfully linked by suggestiveness

If the bread crumbs left are picked up and the foggy vauge hazy statements used it could fit together

I email Mistress VivianNYC about scene resources,	Someone who looks like her is in my vicnity in the Gym	She will follow IMPERSONATOR OF ME from the housing in NYC	in California	gym who will forge my agreement

Substantial evidence	Circumstantial	SUBSTANTIAL
Non Inculpultory	non inculpatory	INCULLPATORY, cut in by cops
Σ INCULPATORY	Σ INCULPATORY	Σ INCULPATORY

Cutting out my leaving the gym alone with someone leaving the gym with an impersonator. Forging my agreement

A red herring is something that misleads or distracts from a relevant or important question.[1] It may be either a logical fallacy or a literary device that leads readers or audiences toward a false conclusion. A red herring may be used intentionally, as in mystery fiction or as part of rhetorical strategies (e.g., in politics), or may be used in argumentation inadvertently. From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

An extra person at the scene, a dopple or similar clothes on someone else, can be the red herring in the area as that dopple of me vicitimizes a female near me dressed as me to follow that lead about me is a red heering breakaway from reality.

Reaper will defame Sower	Original Path now is now a breakaway Reaper [illegible] in Yoga P Reaper [illegible] near is Reaper [illegible] and create Marshall who framed Ed and is helping himself Disconnecting Community acts on se Reaper [illegible] be seized. Sower [illegible] Ed Donegan's assets held KOMPROMAT Road Roadblocks Sower on flimsy excuse but good enough excuse	Sower [illegible] in Sower's path they beleive Ed engaged [illegible] away with Sower [illegible] out vulnerable females as Crisis Actor Victi my other female Ed would have been near is the Reaper, a Crisis Actor pretending to now with the Reaper, probably undercover Reaper exposing the victim's and be t[illegible]nber with my as one connected to Ed Donegan's assets to Community, Ask to be accepted instead

Sower did not move forward,does not have his or her own work result

Road Blocking especially form position of power rather than peer competition

When Police or private allies help plant KOMPROMAT and/or create or enforce roadblock Conspiracy Against Rights

If chains of facts are pieced together from discontigous facts does a red herring alter the outcome, such as the acts of a Dopple mixing into another persons chain of events?

Yoga pants beauties (I am kidding not beauties) surround me and claim I am their [phone] pornography on the theory I took a picture of them. It was a dopple of me wearing England or 88 clothes who DID photo that beauty though.

Here Rx, me and Tx the photographer are in the same elevator we also will have nearby hotel rooms or similar hotel rooms. He will forge a confession by acting like me and dressing as me, and somehow some conservator ship of my assets will attribute his acts and his confession to me though it all unfolds in separate discontinuous locations, such as where he confesses and to whom. I not cases do I agree I engaged in such misconduct nor does anyone clearly make any statement to me of any conduct alleged to me.

23 and Me was not of much interest to my mother or I

She grew up on a farm, very poor, was adopted into another family, married an air force pilot, later a Jet Age TWA airline pilot, as was a loyal middle class citizen with only the basic worries and wants of a farmer family now in big city Urban Village now enjoying middle class life.

Those with bizarre interest in her, thinking she is either Windsor or Kustchera, probably Windsor, jump in front of me, say the are [my cell phone] pornography often as some call about some scam robbo call hits me.

A person behind or to the side of me shoots over my shoulder at “my pornography” and often that person is both royal obsessed and that grifter crew of at least two will take off to a long con set and agree Edward Donegan’s DNA pays for that photo snapped of “my pornography.”

If you accept their not my idea of Windsor DNA it as if yoga pants wearing London poor were flashing Buckingham Palace with exploitative poses and saying they are Windsor porn and the Windsors owe DNA.

These grifters also seem to want money and cars to help make sure this kind of thing will never happen again in the poor neighborhood.

The Sham as an Abuse of Process by placed Illuminati Puppets

Red White and Blue the Subversion of the USA begins with moles then Abuse of Process via shams conducted and overseen by the Illuminati Moles.

The puppets can be in Media, Law, Law Enforcement, Religion, elsewhere, who have the Espionage plan and abuse their offices.

MKULTRA cultivated much of this the but the Church Commission failed in part because William Pellham Barr destroyed the records and Rockeffeller was part of the hearings ABOUT Rockefeller.

If you cant win the contest win the referee as a Puppet then run the contest under the Puppet

1. Illuminati needs and Illuminati power

2. put puppent into position

3. Get puppet to create false flags, etc., using Illuminati techniques, Masonry armies

4. Referee street contests, street rough music into Illuminati as the victor of sreet fights

5. Under that premise with a finding against Targeted Citizen, Targeted Religion, continue Subersion of Citizen, Religiion, belief under color of law with laundered clean seeming allegations against targeted person or religion.

Illuminati [1]

USA as Sovereign and Safe

Once in place, they are the Referees. Then they can rig contests with impunity such as paying Masonry Gangstalkers to create street theater to gain FISA warrants, subvert people or religions, etc.

[2] Illuminati Puppet

Sham cases arriving at Puppet O

Abuse of Process [4]

Would-be non mole office holder

Puppets can be placed into position by elections, business change of ownership, bribes, grants, dupes, shame projects or allegiances, or nudging misjudgments

Sovereign USA citizens

OR people hired for Street Theat

Gangstalk and Subversion via Sham activities

Illuminati needs [3]	achieved initiated under sham and laundered into legitimacy but still sham overseen by corrupted Refereeing by the Puppet overseeing it [5]

Once Moles gain office they can Abuse Proccess, Abuse Power

This book

Rough TV, Roadblocking, and Conspiracy Against Rights

As Crisis Actors generate a crisis around a persons, my own or other Gangstalked peoples vicinity, the paid actors, Gangstalkers, will then claim the crisis they are generating with paid assets is tied to the person the activity surround.

As the Gangstalk (false flag team) then moves ahead of its victim (real flag) then (in an e-xparte way) the person is blocked from their destination as the destination location is closed to the person, the real flag, because the false flag crisis is alleged to the real flag.

By creating false flags the alleged dangers of the real flag being in area close doors of an area to the real flag, as the real flag is views as a threat to a vicinity and doors that should be open and even are required under the law to be open to a person then close to a person under a pretext.

Journalism can out the fake news, the crisis actors, but instead promote the Propaganda the Crisis Actors generate.

Thus the TV supports FBI, CIA, NSA Gangstalk and False Flag acts as participants in Voice of America support of covert activities.

This explains my non presence in any location other than Mark Gonzales area of Texas where Nueces communities sues my trust fund under false claims and the economic despair of the location has growth source.

It is bizarre person like myself is forced teamed to minority children and told I will be killed if I leave that area unless that area is suing me for being near these children.

Kal Penn retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Having made a commitment before his employment at the White House, Penn left his post as Obama's associate director of public engagement on June 1, 2010, to return to his acting career.[4] He returned to office on November 15, 2010, following completion of A Very Harold & Kumar 3D Christmas.

[image]

Penn was a co-chair of Obama's reelection campaign.[37] On September 3, 2012, he hosted coverage of the 2012 Democratic National Convention in Charlotte, North Carolina.[38] Penn's speech at the convention encouraged young people to register to vote and defended Obama's record.

On November 18, 2013, Obama appointed Penn to serve on the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities.[41] On February 28, 2014, Penn served as the Master of Ceremonies for the White House Student Film Festival.

Penn publicly supported Bernie Sanders for the 2016 Democratic nomination. He campaigned for Hillary Clinton after she became the nominee.

In August 2017, Penn and the other members of the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities resigned in response to President Donald Trump's remarks on the Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia.

During the 2020 Democratic presidential primaries,

Penn expressed interest in the messages of Pete Buttigieg, Bernie Sanders, and Elizabeth Warren.[45] He later expressed support for Joe Biden after he became the nominee.

Other ventures In 2008, Penn served as a visiting lecturer in Asian American Studies at the University of Pennsylvania.[16][46] His course was titled “Images of Asian Americans in the Media.”[

In addition to his role on the TV series House, he is best known from his role in Harold & Kumar, as Kumar Patel, a pothead who goes with Harold Lee (John Cho) to White Castle for a hamburger. Unlike his character, he does not smoke marijuana, saying it is not for him,[21] nor does he eat meat.

In 2014, Penn was working on a graduate certificate in international security from Stanford University.

Buddy Ebsen retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Buddy Ebsen (born Christian Ludolf Ebsen Jr., April 2, 1908 - July 6, 2003)

> aeiouy yuoiea
>
> yuoiea aeiouy

Buddy Ebsen (born Christian Ludolf Ebsen Jr., April 2, 1908 - July 6, 2003), also known as Frank “Buddy” Ebsen,[2] was an American actor, comedian, and dancer, whose career spanned seven decades. His most famous role was as Jed Clampett in the CBS television sitcom The Beverly Hillbillies (1962-1971);

A middle child with four sisters and a Republican (aka GOP), Buddy Ebsen was born as Christian Ludolf (Adolf?) Ebsen Jr., on April 2, 1908, in Belleville, Illinois. His father, Christian Ludolf Ebsen Sr., was a Danish choreographer, who once owned a dance studio and was also a physical fitness advocate, before operating a natatorium (fitness pool) for the local school district,[5] and his mother, Frances (née Wendt),[6] was a Baltic German (specifically, Latvian) painter.

Munchkinland the Land of Oz 1939

Princess looking Glinda the Good Witch of the North

She first appears in Baum's 1900 children's classic The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, and is the most powerful sorceress in the Land of Oz, ruler of the Quadling Country South of the Emerald City, and protector of Princess Ozma.

Wicked Witch of the East

The Wicked Witch was a middle aged, malevolent woman who conquered and tyrannized the Munchkin Country in Oz's eastern quadrant, forcing the native Munchkins to slave for her night and day.

Wicked Witch of the West

> The witch's most popular depiction was in the classic 1939 film based on Baum's novel, where she was portrayed by Margaret Hamilton. Hamilton's characterization introduced green skin and this has been continued in later literary and dramatic representations Ebsen was noted for his unusual, surreal dancing and singing style (for example, his contribution to the "Swingin' the Jinx Away" finale of Born to Dance). His abilities might have been a reason filmmaker Walt Disney chose Ebsen to be filmed dancing in front of a grid as an aid to animating Mickey Mouse's dancing in Disney's 1929 to 1939 Silly Symphonies animated short films.

Belleville (French: Belle ville, meaning "Beautiful city") is a city and the county seat of St. Clair County, Illinois,[4] coterminous with the now defunct Belleville Township.[5] It is also the seat of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Belleville and the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows. The population was 44,478 according to the Census Bureau's 2010 data,[6] making it the largest city in the state south of Springfield.

The Diocese of Belleville (Latin: Diœcesis Bellevillensis) is a Latin Church ecclesiastical territory or diocese of the Catholic Church in the southern Illinois region of the United States. It comprises the southern counties of the state of Illinois and the See city for the diocese is the City of Belleville. It is a suffragan see in the ecclesiastical province of the metropolitan Archdiocese of Chicago.

[image]

In 1940 Estonia and Latvia became Soviet republics. One of the main conditions posed by Hitler to Stalin in August 1939 was the prior transfer of all ethnic Germans living in Estonia and Latvia to areas under German military control.[10] These became known as the Nazi-Soviet population transfers. Stalin proceeded to set up Soviet military bases in Estonia and Latvia in late 1939.

In a speech to the Reichstag on October 6, 1939, which was broadcast live on radio, Hitler announced that German minorities should be resettled in the Reich (Back home to Reich, heim ins Reich). Resettlement was overseen by Himmler who created a new Reich Commisariat for the Strengthening of Germandom for this purpose.

Treaties were signed with Estonia and Latvia in 1939 and 1940 concerning the emigration of Baltic Germans and the liquidation of their educational, cultural, and religious institutions.

Lee Meriwether was born in Los Angeles, California, to Claudius Gregg Meriwether and Ethel Eve Mulligan. She has one brother, Don Brett Meriwether. She grew up in San Francisco after the family moved there from Phoenix, Arizona. She attended George Washington High School, where one of her classmates was Johnny Mathis. She later attended City College of San Francisco, where one of her classmates was fellow actor Bill Bixby.

After winning Miss San Francisco, Meriwether won Miss California 1954,[2] then was crowned Miss America in 1955 with her recital of a John Millington Synge monologue. She then appeared that Sunday on What's My Line?, hosted by John Charles Daly (who also emceed the pageant that year). Following her reign as Miss America, she joined the Today show.

An August 1, 1956, international news wirephoto of Meriwether and Joe DiMaggio announced their engagement. According to DiMaggio biographer Richard Ben Cramer, however, it was a rumor started by Walter Winchell. Walter Winchell (April 7, 1897 - February 20, 1972) was a syndicated American newspaper gossip columnist and radio news commentator.

DiMaggio was born Giuseppe Paolo DiMaggio on November 25, 1914, in Martinez, California,[3] the sixth of seven children born to Italian immigrants Giuseppe (1872-1949) and Rosalia (née Mercurio; 1878-1951 [4]) DiMaggio, from Isola delle Femmine, Sicily. Rosalia named him “Giuseppe” in the hopes that he would be the DiMaggios’ last child; “Paolo” was for Giuseppe’s favorite saint, Saint Paul.

Marylyn Monroes described Joe DiMaggio as under appreciated because peopple thought of him only as a basball player but she and those who knew him saw so much more.

DiMaggio enlisted in the United States Army Air Forces on February 17, 1943, rising to the rank of sergeant. He was stationed at Santa Ana, California, Hawaii, and Atlantic City, New Jersey, as a physical education instructor.[38] He was released on a medical discharge in September 1945, due to chronic stomach ulcers.

THIS DATE IN BASEBALL HISTORY: NOVEMBER 21, 1934- THE YANKEES PURCHASE THE GREAT DIMAGGIO *

DiMaggio of course is remembered for his 56 game hitting streak in 1941. A record which is unlikely to ever be broken. Hitting streaks -nothing new to Dimaggio- back in 1933 while with San Francisco in the Pacific Coast League he had a 61 game hitting streak. Also- after the 56 game streak ended in 1941- he started a new streak which lasted 16 games- so in a 73 game stretch he had hits in 72 of the 73 games.

John Yerkes Iselin

York via es

If I and ES are some kind of Vigenere Cipher inserted keys that may produce the clear text from the cypher text, the cypher text and the Vigenere Key embedded in the cypher.

A	E	I	O	U	Y	Y	U	O	I	E	A
E	I	O	U	Y	A
I	O	U	Y	A	E
O	U	Y	A	E	I
U	A	E	I	O	U
Y	A	E	I	O	U

Vigenere Cipher alphabetic or numeric code pages

Bay Windows of Pigs

Tattoo You is the 16th British and 18th American studio album by the English rock band the Rolling Stones, released on 24 August 1981 by Rolling Stones Records. A remastered 40th-anniversary edition of the album was released on 22 October 2021. It features nine previously unreleased tracks and a 1982 concert at Wembley Stadium. 8th Street is a street in the New York City borough of Manhattan that runs from Sixth Avenue to Third Avenue, and also from Avenue B to Avenue D; its addresses switch from West to East as it crosses Fifth Avenue. Between Third Avenue and Avenue A, it is named St. Mark's Place, after the nearby St. Mark's Church in-the-Bowery on 10th Street at Second Avenue. The building front used is St. Mark's Place is considered a main cultural street for the East Village. Vehicular traffic runs east along both one-way streets. St. Mark's Place features a wide variety of retailers. Venerable institutions lining St. Mark's Place include Gem Spa and the St. Mark's Hotel. Location Manhattan, New York City. ZIP Codes

10003, 10009, 1001 1From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Rollings Stones and Led Zepplin use this building.

The location used is in Manhattan New York appearing in both Led Zeplin's Pysical Graffiti and Rolling Stones waiting on a friend. Harlem seems left out from the people mover owning two births, the harlem person has no people mover. Divison of NYC

3233, 3235, | 3234

Jagger is Waiting On A Friend in this video scene

Keith Richards (born 18 December 1943), attended Wentworth Primary School with Mick Jagger and was his neighbour until 1954 when the Richards and Jagger families both moved. From 1955 to 1959, Richards attended Dartford Technical High School for Boys. Recruited by Dartford Tech's choirmaster, R. W. "Jake" Clare, he sang in a trio of boy sopranos at, among other occasions, Westminster Abbey for Queen Elizabeth II. In 1959, Richards was expelled from Dartford Tech for truancy and transferred to Sidcup Art College, where he met Dick Taylor. At Sidcup, he was diverted from his studies proper and devoted more time to playing guitar with other students in the boys' room. At this point, Richards had learned most of Chuck Berry's solos.

Richards met Jagger again by chance on a train platform when Jagger was heading for classes at the London School of Economics. The mail-order rhythm & blues albums from Chess Records by Chuck Berry and Muddy Waters that Jagger was carrying revealed a mutual interest and led to a renewal of their friendship.

[image]

Some interesting images can be found there, for sure - including shots of the band dressed in drag. Photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald, Marcel Duchamp and Pope Leo XIII are also featured, along with several American icons and a range of Hollywood ephemera.

Caesar cipher retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

In cryptography, a Caesar cipher, also known as

Caesar's cipher, the shift cipher, Caesar's code or Caesar shift, is one of the simplest and most widely known encryption techniques. It is a type of substitution cipher in which each letter in the plaintext is replaced by a letter some fixed number of positions down the alphabet. For example, with a left shift of 3, D would be replaced by A, E would become B, and so on. The method is named after Julius Caesar, who used it in his private correspondence.

The encryption step performed by a Caesar cipher is often incorporated as part of more complex schemes, such as the Vigenère cipher, and still has modern application in the ROT13 system. As with all single-alphabet substitution ciphers, the Caesar cipher is easily broken and in modern practice offers essentially no communications security.

Plain	A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z
Cipher	X Y Z A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W

The transformation can be represented by aligning two alphabets; the cipher alphabet is the plain alphabet rotated left or right by some number of positions. For instance, here is a Caesar cipher using a left rotation of three places, equivalent to a right shift of 23 (the shift parameter is used as the key)

Kiefer Sutherland retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Sutherland was born 21 December 1966, in St Mary's Hospital, Paddington, London, to Donald Sutherland and Shirley Douglas, both successful Canadian actors who had been living and working in England for some time.[6] He has a twin sister, Rachel, who works as a post-production film supervisor.[7] His maternal grandfather was Scottish-born Canadian politician and former Premier of Saskatchewan Tommy Douglas, who is widely credited for bringing universal health care to Canada.

Sutherland is named after American-born writer and director Warren Kiefer, who directed Donald Sutherland in his first feature film, Castle of the Living Dead.

J. J. Abrams retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Jeffrey Jacob Abrams (born June 27, 1966)[1] is an American film director, producer, screenwriter and composer. He is best known for his works in the genres of action, drama, and science fiction. Abrams wrote and produced such films as Regarding Henry (1991), Forever Young (1992), Armageddon (1998), Cloverfield (2008), Star Trek (2009), Star Wars: The Force Awakens (2015), and Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker (2019).

[image]

Carol Ann Abrams (née Kelvin; September 23, 1942 - June 3, 2012) was an American television and film producer, author and academic. Abrams and her husband, television producer Gerald W. Abrams, are the parents of film director and producer J. J. Abrams, and screenwriter Tracy Rosen.

She developed and executive produced The Ernest Green Story, a 1993 television film which aired on the Disney Channel. The film following the true story of Ernest Green, played in the film by actor Morris Chestnut, one of the Little Rock Nine during the 1957 forced integration of Little Rock Central High School. The film premiered at Little Rock Central High School with an introduction by Bill Clinton, who was the President-Elect of the United States at the time. It aired on the Disney Channel in January 1993 and won a Peabody Award. She produced two television movies for CBS, Second Honeymoon in 2001, and Two Against Time in 2002. She later began a writing career, authoring two books, Grandparents & Grandchildren and Teen Knitting Club.[1]

While Carol went on to produce other films, her attention then turned to writing. She co-authored two published books, Grandparents & Grandchildren and Teen Knitting Club. Carol was an accomplished knitter, pianist and painter and was a contributing artist for The Santa Barbara Art Museum. She spoke three languages.

Abrams died from cancer on June 3, 2012, aged 69, at her home in Los Angeles. She was survived by her husband, children, a sister and five grandchildren.

Abrams was born to Jewish parents and raised in New York City[1] and in Los Angeles. He is the son of television producer Gerald W. Abrams (born 1939) and executive producer Carol Ann Abrams (née Kelvin; 1942-2012).[3] His sister is screenwriter Tracy Rosen.[3] He attended Palisades High School. After graduating from high school, Abrams planned on going to art school rather than a traditional college, but eventually enrolled at Sarah Lawrence College, following his father's advice: "it's more important that you go off and learn what to make movies about than how to make movies."

Abrams has created numerous television series, including Felicity (co-creator, 1998-2002), Alias (creator, 2001-2006), Lost (co-creator, 2004-2010), and Fringe (co-creator, 2008-2013). He won two Emmy Awards for Lost - Outstanding Directing for a Drama Series and Outstanding Drama Series.

His directorial film work includes Mission: Impossible III (2006), Star Trek (2009), Super 8 (2011), and Star Trek Into Darkness (2013). He also directed, produced and co-wrote The Force Awakens, the seventh episode of the Star Wars saga and the first film of the sequel trilogy. The film is his highest-grossing, as well as the fourth-highest-grossing film of all time not adjusted for inflation. He returned to Star Wars by executive producing The Last Jedi (2017), and directing and co-writing The Rise of Skywalker (2019).[2]

Mission: Impossible III (2006)

Mission: Impossible III (stylized as M:i:III) is a 2006 American action spy film co-written and directed by J. J. Abrams (in his directorial debut), co-written by Alex Kurtzman and Roberto Orci, and co-produced by and starring Tom Cruise in the role of IMF agent Ethan Hunt. It is the third installment in the Mission: Impossible film series, following 2000's Mission: Impossible 2. In the film, Ethan Hunt has retired from field work for the Impossible Missions Force (IMF) and trains new recruits. However, he is sent back into action to track down the elusive arms dealer Owen Davian who looks for 'Rabbit's foot'.

Star Trek (film 2009)

Star Trek is a 2009 American science fiction action film directed by J. J. Abrams and written by Roberto Orci and Alex Kurtzman. It is the eleventh film in the Star Trek franchise, and is also a reboot that features the main characters of the original Star Trek television series portrayed by a new cast, as the first in the rebooted film series. The film follows James T. Kirk (Chris Pine) and Spock (Zachary Quinto) aboard the USS Enterprise as they combat Nero (Eric Bana), a Romulan from their future who threatens the United Federation of Planets. The story takes place in an alternate reality[3][4] because of time travel by both Nero and the original Spock (Leonard Nimoy). The alternate timeline was created in an attempt to free the film and the franchise from established continuity constraints while simultaneously preserving original story elements.

Super 8 (2011 film)

Super 8 is a 2011 American monster thriller film written and directed by J. J. Abrams and produced by Steven Spielberg. The film stars Joel Courtney, Elle Fanning, and Kyle Chandler and tells the story of a group of young teenagers who are filming their own Super 8 movie when a train derails, releasing a dangerous presence into their town. The film was shot in Weirton, West Virginia and surrounding areas, portraying the fictional town of Lillian, Ohio.

The film reveals that in 1958, the Air Force captured an alien when it crash-landed. They experimented on the alien, while withholding its space craft, composed of the strange white cubes, which allowed the craft to shape-shift. The alien had established a psychic connection with Woodward, convincing him to help it escape Earth, but Nelec sabotaged, discredited, and discharged Woodward. Nelec captures the kids but the alien kills Nelec and the airmen, allowing the kids to escape. Jack escapes and agrees with Louis to put their differences aside to save their kids.

The military attacks the alien but their hardware goes haywire in its presence, resulting in significant collateral damage. Joe and Cary find a massive tunnel system under the town. The missing townfolk, including Alice, are hanging unconscious from the ceiling of a cavern. Here, the alien is creating a device, constructed from the missing electronics, and attached to the base of the water tower. Using firecrackers as a distraction, Joe frees Alice and the others. The alien grabs Joe, who quietly speaks to it, saying “bad things happen” but that it “can still live”. The alien allows them to return to the surface.

Star Trek Into Darkness

Dr. Leonard McCoy and Marcus’s daughter, Dr. Carol Marcus, open a torpedo at Harrison’s urging, revealing the torpedoes contain cryonically-frozen humans. Harrison is taken to Enterprise’s brig, where he reveals his true identity as Khan Noonien Singh, a genetically engineered superhuman, awoken by Admiral Marcus from centuries of sleep and forced to develop advanced weapons. Khan reveals that Marcus sabotaged Enterprise's warp drive, intending for the Klingons to destroy the ship after it fired on Kronos, sparking war with the Klingon Empire. Khan also gives Kirk a set of coordinates, which Kirk asks Scott to investigate. Scott discovers the coordinates lead to a covert Starfleet facility.

Enterprise is intercepted by a much larger Starfleet warship, USS Vengeance, commanded by Admiral Marcus. Marcus demands that Kirk deliver Khan, but Enterprise flees to Earth to expose him. After Vengeance disables Enterprise near the Moon, Carol reveals her presence aboard Enterprise to stop the attack.

Star Wars: The Force Awakens

The Force Awakens premiered in Los Angeles on December 14, 2015, and was released in the United States on December 18.

Thirty years after the Galactic Civil War,[N 1] the First Order has risen from the fallen Galactic Empire and seeks to end the New Republic. The Resistance, backed by the Republic and led by General Leia Organa, opposes the First Order. Leia searches for her brother, Luke Skywalker, who has gone missing.

Star Wars: The Last Jedi

Luke appears and confronts the First Order, allowing the surviving Resistance to escape. Kylo orders the First Order's forces to fire on Luke, but they fail to harm him. He then engages Luke in a lightsaber duel; upon striking Luke, Kylo realizes that Luke is not physically present, but projecting his image through the Force. Rey helps the remaining Resistance escape on the Falcon. Exhausted, Luke dies peacefully on Ahch-To, becoming one with the Force. Rey and Leia sense his death, and Leia tells Rey that the Resistance can rise again.

Demimonde

Demi monde has been described as "an epic and intimate sci-fi fantasy drama." The story is set to be "centered around a world's battle against a monstrous, oppressive force {Demi is part and Monde french for World)

On February 1, 2018, HBO announced it had given a series order to Demimonde, a new television series written and created by J. J. Abrams. Other networks and streaming services interested in the series reportedly also included Apple. The series will be produced by Bad Robot Productions and Warner Bros. Television with executive producers including Abrams and Ben Stephenson.[1][2][3][4][5][6] On June 28, 2018, Bash Doran was announced as its executive producer and showrunner.[7] By July 24, 2019, Doran had exited the project.[8] She was replaced by Kira Snyder, Rand Ravich and Far Shariat.

In September 2017, it was announced by Lucasfilm's president, Kathleen Kennedy, that Abrams would be returning to direct and co-write Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker with Chris Terrio.[34] The film was released in December 2019; it received mixed reviews from critics and fans,[35][36] while audience reactions leaned more positively.

Kathleen Kennedy (born June 5, 1953)[1] is an American film producer and current president of Lucasfilm. In 1981, she co-founded the production company Amblin Entertainment with Steven Spielberg and Frank Marshall.

Her first film as a producer was E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial (1982). A decade later, again with Spielberg she produced the Jurassic Park franchise, the first two of which became two of the top ten highest-grossing films of the 1990s. In 1992, she co-founded The Kennedy/Marshall Company with her husband Frank Marshall. On October 30, 2012, she became the president of Lucasfilm after The Walt Disney Company acquired the company for over $4 billion.[2] She received the Irving G. Thalberg Award from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in 2018.

Kennedy has participated in the making of over 60 films that have earnt over $11 billion worldwide, including five of the fifty highest-grossing films in motion picture history.[5] She has received 8 Academy Award for Best Picture nominations,[6] the third greatest number of nominations for the award behind Spielberg and Scott Rudin. As a producer, she is third behind Kevin Feige and Spielberg in domestic box office receipts, with over $7.5 billion as of 2020.

Kennedy was born in Berkeley, California, to Dione Marie "Dede" (née Dousseau), a one-time theater actress, and Donald R. Kennedy, a judge and attorney.[8] She has two sisters. Her twin sister, Connie, formerly a location manager in British Columbia, Canada, is now the executive producer of the Virtual Production company Profile Studios.[9] Her other sister is Dana Middleton-Silberstein, a television host and anchor, and press secretary/communications director for former Governor Gary Locke (D-WA).

Kennedy graduated from Shasta High School in Redding, California, in 1971. She continued her education at San Diego State University where she majored in telecommunications and film. In her final year, Kennedy gained employment at a local San Diego TV station, KCST (now KNSD), taking on various roles including camera operator, video editor, floor director and finally as KCST news production coordinator.[10]

Gary Faye Locke (born January 21, 1950) is an American politician and diplomat serving as the interim president of Bellevue College, the largest of the institutions that make up the Washington Community and Technical Colleges system.[1] Locke previously served as the 10th United States ambassador to China (2011-2014) and as the 21st governor of Washington (1997-2005). He also served in the Obama administration as United States Secretary of Commerce (2009-2011).

Locke is the first governor in the continental United States of East Asian descent and the only Chinese American ever to have served as a governor of any state. He was also the first Chinese American to serve as the U.S. ambassador to China.

Gary Locke was born on January 21, 1950, in Seattle, and spent his early years living in the Yesler Terrace public housing project. A third-generation Chinese American with paternal ancestry from Jilong village,[3] Taishan, Guangdong, China, Locke is the second of five children of James Locke, who served as a staff sergeant in the U.S. Fifth Armored Division during World War II. James Locke's wife, Julie, is from Hong Kong,[4] which at that time was a British Crown Colony. His paternal grandfather left China in the 1890s and moved to the United States, where he worked as a houseboy in Olympia, Washington, in exchange for English lessons.[5] Locke did not learn to speak English until he was five years old and entered kindergarten.

Locke graduated with honors from Seattle's Franklin High School in 1968. He achieved Eagle Scout rank and received the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award from the Boy Scouts of America.[6][7] Through a combination of part-time jobs, financial aid, and scholarships, Locke attended Yale University, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in political science in 1972.[8] He received his Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law in 1975.

Locke was chosen to give his party's response to George W. Bush's 2003 State of the Union Address.[11] In a surprise move, Locke announced in July 2003 that he would not seek a third term,[12] saying, "Despite my deep love of our state, I want to devote more time to my family."[12] Susan Paynter, a columnist at the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, suggested that racist slurs, insults, and threats that Locke and his family received, especially after his rebuttal to Bush's State of the Union address, may have played a role in Locke's decision to leave office after two terms.[13] The governor's office received hundreds of threatening letters and emails; others threatened to kill his children.[13] His official portrait, painted by Michele Rushworth, was unveiled in the state capitol by Governor Christine Gregoire on January 4, 2006.

After leaving office, Locke joined the Seattle office of international law firm Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, in their China and governmental-relations practice groups. During the leadup to the 2008 Democratic presidential primary, Locke was Washington co-chairman of Hillary Clinton's campaign.

Is Luke Skywalker "Duke Skywalker" Skyhorse riding Duke of Windsor? formerly Edward Prince of Wales then King Edward VIII then Duke Edward grandfather od Ewdward Paul Donegan?

[image]

Born John Adam Belushi January 24, 1949 Chicago, Illinois, U.S. Died March 5, 1982 (aged 33) Los Angeles, California, U.S.

Television Correspondents Association Dinner - NARA - 30805929

James Belushi who has a brother dies at I go to Univesity of Oregone and pledge my older brother's fraternity Delt Sig, aka Animal House

In 1975, Belushi was recommended to SNL creator and showrunner Lorne Michaels by Chevy Chase and Michael O'Donoghue, who accepted Belushi as a new cast member of the show after an audition. He developed a series of characters on the show that reached high success, including his performances as Henry Kissinger and Ludwig van Beethoven. Belushi's Albanian ancestry lent itself to his "Olympia Restaurant" sketch (in which he sold nothing but "cheeseburgers, cheeps [potato chips] and Pepsi"). After his breakout film role as John Blutarsky in National Lampoon's Animal House (1978), Belushi appeared in films such as 1941, The Blues Brothers, and Neighbors. He also pursued interests in music, creating with Aykroyd, Lou Marini, Tom Malone, Steve Cropper, Donald "Duck" Dunn, Paul Shaffer, and The Blues Brothers, from which the film received its name.

In his personal life, Belushi struggled with heavy drug use that threatened his comedy career; he was dismissed and rehired at SNL on several occasions due to his behavior. In 1982, Belushi died from combined drug intoxication possibly caused by Cathy Smith,[3] who injected him with a mixture of heroin and cocaine known as a speedball at the Chateau Marmont hotel in West Hollywood, California. He was posthumously honored with a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 2004.

Smith was born in Hamilton, Ontario. She became notorious in the Belushi case, but her association with celebrities went back at least 20 years prior to her confession in the National Enquirer. Her earliest acquaintance was with Levon Helm, who later joined the Band, in 1963.[6] In his autobiography, Helm recalls that Smith first met him in Hamilton, Ontario.[7] Helm, with friend and bandmate Rick Danko, was in a band called the Hawks at the time (see Ronnie Hawkins). At one point, the musicians were in Toronto facing a drug bust.

Smith has been connected to the Band's famous song, "The Weight" (1968).[9] Smith says in Rock and Roll Toronto: From Alanis to Zeppelin (1997),[10] that Richard Manuel offered to marry her, but she refused.[9] Nevertheless, she continued to tour and party with Helm, Danko, and Manuel through the 1960s, and at one point became pregnant with a child known as "The Band baby," as its paternity was unclear.[11] She later had an affair with Gordon Lightfoot. After the affair ended, Smith returned to Helm and the circle whose members made up The Band house.fandom.com

This book

MKULTRA Concealer Or Reveler

Dean Rusk assistant to George Ball at the State Department, a Rockefeller Foundation chair, and protector of the MKUTLRA program and any leaking of it, by, say, for instance, JFK.

[image]

At the Sleep Rite Motel in Pritchardville GA, Nash becomes paranoid. He is convinced that his room is bugged, and that undercover operatives have laced his free ice with sodium penathol. The constant presence of Dean Rusk's baby pictures flashing on the television set does not assuage his fears.

"April, 1968. Central Intelligence Director Richard Helms and Secretary of State Dean Rusk warn President Johnson that Nash is getting too close to blowing the lid off of MKULTRA. Helms recommends termination. Nash flees his office in Washington D.C. and establishes several bases of operation in covert locations - a number of motel rooms in rural areas and an exquisitely designed apartment in Vienna with floor-to-ceiling windows and several expensive modern art paintings of questionable authorship.

“Nash agrees to meet with the unpredictable Sturdevant and learns of the so-called Sturdevant Effect, which is widely regarded as the main cause of the death of Frank Olson during MKULTRA LSD testing

“While in the U.S., Nash works through a list of contacts, coming across Andy Sturdevant, a secretary to Richard W. Held in the Los Angeles FBI office. Nash is initially reluctant; no one seems sure what side of the current COINTELPRO operation Sturdevant is on;

From The THE VIENNA PROCEDURE blog 2007 industry Military Location Minneapolis, Minnesota, United States

---

Bob Crane’s tied to Nash: funeral for Bob Crane was held on July 5, 1978, at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church in Westwood, Los Angeles. An estimated 200 family members and friends attended, including Patty Duke, John Astin, and Carroll O’Connor. Pallbearers included Hogan’s Heroes producer Edward Feldman, co-stars Larry Hovis and Robert Clary, and Crane’s son Robert. Crane was born in Waterbury, Connecticut, the youngest of two sons of Alfred Thomas Crane and Rose Mary Ksenich Crane - the original spelling of the family name was Crean.

> Pinned by Task Force: Whistleblowers Journey:Live in DC Task Force: Whistleblowers Journey:Live in DC
>
> I have gone to others [FBI, CIA, Homeland Securityh

Investigations, Congress, etc.,)]. Had a hit job[on me] as a response. I want to walk this out to show how it works. I would rather be in danger than victims I already am. I have others working different angles, we have video evidence and will release at some point. Going through the motions as a demonstration.

The New York Daily News highlights the fact that Hastings had received multiple death threats before his demise.

Following his role in bringing down Gen. Stanley A. McChrystal, Hastings was told by a McChrystal staffer, “We’ll hunt you down and kill you if we don’t like what you write.”

“Whenever I’d been reporting around groups of dudes whose job it was to kill people, one of them would usually mention that they were going to kill me,” said Hastings.

More recently, Ibragim Todashev, friend of accused Boston bomber Tamerlan Tsarnev, was shot in the head six times by the FBI, who initially claimed Todashev was armed but later had to admit this was a lie. Speculation has raged that Todashev was assassinated because he had knowledge about the Boston bombings which the feds didn’t want to see the light of public scrutiny.

Despite his actions, the murder of Christopher Dorner June 4, 1979 - February 12, 2013, who was burned to death by LAPD officers while hiding inside a cabin, shows that authorities will not hesitate to resort to such methods.

> It's virtually inevitable that the true cause of Michael Hastings death will never be known and that the mainstream media will demonize anyone who questions the official narrative as a conspiracy theorist. Meanwhile, journalists and others who pose a threat to the military-industrial complex will continue to die in bizarre "accidents" that stink of foul play.
>
> PatriotOrTraitor.com

Revealer - http://www.arkancide.com/

The military turns its guns, biological weapons, and moles towards the truth in the USA.

Strange deaths and heart attacks and "Boston Brakes" mob contract killings are everywhere.

CONCEALERS and in Conspiracy with Corrupt Allegiances and use of media power bullying and defamation

	Government →
Media →	(CIA FBI NSA Complicit Illicit Unitary I
Physical Locations Controlled and Property Ownership Sudden Changes→

The Establishment Power of MKULTRA

	Government

	(CIA FBI NSA Complicit Illicit Unitary I Media
Physical Locations Controlled and Property Ownership Sudden Changes

My Attempts to Criticize The Establishment

	Moral intimidat
MKUL
(CIA FBI NSA Complicit Illicit Unitary I
PsyOps Subversion and Ghosting of Whistle-blowers Murder of Whistle-blowers

Protesting the Illuminati Grand Design

The firing of James Comey and Jeff Sessions and right wing support for that was the turning battle as important as any civil war battle.

REVEALERS with story lines that corruption [might] exist in public and presenting the information they think supports a corruption assertion

The public and me	The Press

Expousing Theories of Corruption in Government

But instead this from Moguls

The Media Protects	The Public Suspects

Me3dia Intimidation of Career Officials and General Public

> The fact is, there is nothing to "respect" and everything to condemn about Barr's work as a key inner circle operative throughout George Herbert Walker Bush's rise to power, from CIA Director to Vice President to President. These aspects of Barr's resume remain whitewashed by mainstream coverage.
>
> Barr stonewalled and destroyed the Church Committee investigations into CIA abuses.
>
> - patriotortraitor.com

> American tycoon and philanthropist John D. Rockefeller wrote a "masonic creed" that started with the sentence: "We will keep their lives short and their minds weak while pretending to do the opposite."

It is possible to overcome a person's confusion about the truth. It may not be possible to overcome a person's interest in rationales other than what is truthful nor may it be possible to overcome a person being blackmailed, in fear of the truth, or a persons fear of retribution for espousing the truth.

Revealer	How	Concealer	How
Jen Moore	On YouTube, elsewhere chronicled MKULTRA, Vatican, OSS and CIA, Secret Histories of Nazi intermixing U Politics, CIA use of Blackmail Economy of fake ped victims and churches “earning” DNA through Top Secret Government backed blackmail operation ICE and news media should shutdown. “legitimacy” of DNA rights though that system, Ukraine, STEM Cells, Bidens, etc	Rod Rosenstein, Eric Holder, Barack Obama Ronald C. Machen Jr., the Super Secret keepers the keepers of Ultra Secrets, MKULTRA	Most likely #wetworks using illegal programs under Decision Matrix, a table of hits to be carried out against those revealing national security secrets
Andrew	Knew Micheal	William Barr	CIA

Breitbart (consider his likely friend Steve Bannon who was banned from Twitter)	Lavon Robinson appeared in Obama historical footage as a male but later is clearly Michelle Lavaugn Robinson Obama and may have known this created a non mitochondrial link to Barack Obama Jr daughters if Michelle Obama mito faked, possibly using that from my mother Glorian Donegan		Destruction of MKULTRA files, its history, its assassinations, racial engineering, involuntary test subjects, etc.,
Sandy Hume	Probably had same Hollywood ga friendly info on genetics and a new black market being built in it and its ties to the CIA and MKULTRA and what was needed or	Donald Washington and Derrick Driscoll	Target Killings and Decision Matrix. COINTELPRO "response center" to threats. Discredit of and neutralization of the enemy by by tactical group, the

	wanted from the program		Special Operations Group. (and I was hit by radiological attack in my midsection upon but before release from FMC Butner)
Edward Snowden	Recognzied NSA, CIA, Similar programs created high level capabilities in Social Control of Society, were anti-demcoratic, Unitay Executive with these powers created State power turn-key society	All intel agencies against him	At least with Assange planted female victim
Micheal Hastings	Also looked into, knew of MKUTLTRA and DARPA, ties to the manufacture o Obama by secret progran tied to Windsors, wit “““Victoria Windsor” and	Was working on Patreus, Jil Kelly Scott Kelly Paula Broadwell story, Medical School of Dr Scott Kelley: Residency, Columbia University NYC College of	He and his fiance died, both spoke of MKUTLRA, Vienna nad world peace by fixing the human race to be peacable and prosperous. Driven to ongoing CIA Secret MKULTRA mass scale	Physicians & Surgeons Medical School, cancer research	drink, car sabotaged?

Edward Paul Donegan	CIA victim, stalked, harassed, called incompetent, Doppelgangers create pretexts for actions against me which are Conspiracy Against My Rights	Tom Donegan	Mixed motive role fighting my ideology I articulated under assault of Radical Right, Bell Curve, Race Realism as one role, another using pretexts and some truth (prank phone calls) that I am a threat to women, thus in conjunction with Government interests pushing designer babies personnel eugenics by asset seizures from me which ALSO protect his political heroes in MKULTRA such as the Obamas, Clintons, others. Even anti hate Orin Hatch

		William Barr	Will he incentive Ghislaine Maxwell (she said to be born Dec 1961 to name names or keep silent on certain names and activities tied to MKULTRA? He changed out the SDNY US Attorney before the arrest.

Paula Broadwell is married to Dr. Scott Broadwell, an interventional radiologist who graduated from George Washington University School of Medicine in 1996.[4] They reside in Charlotte, North Carolina, and have two young sons.[33]

The couple met in 2000, when they were both active duty U.S. Army captains. Scott Broadwell was then a physician and commander of the Mannheim military clinic in Germany and Kranz was completing a military intelligence deployment. They were married in Heidelberg Castle, with Lt. Col. Ronald Leininger, a Protestant Army chaplain, officiating.[41

Broadwell graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1995 with a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering and political geography.[15][16] She earned a Master of Arts degree in international security from the University of Denver's Josef Korbel School of International Studies in 2006.[17][18] She earned a Master of Public Administration degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University in 2008.[19][20][21] Broadwell was a Research Associate in the Kennedy School's Center for Public Leadership Fellows, a term member at the Council on Foreign Relations, a Distinguished Young Leader in the French-America Foundation and American Council on Germany, and a national finalist in the White House Fellows[22] program.[23] She was elected as the Harvard student representative to the Academy of Achievement[24] in 2006. During this time, she also worked at The Fletcher School at Tufts University as the Deputy Director of the Jebsen Center on Counter-Terrorism.[25] In 2008, she entered the PhD program at the Department of War Studies at King's College London.[26] As of February 2014 Broadwell is listed as a "former student"[27] presumably without receiving a Ph.D. Her lead supervisor at KCL was Lawrence Freedman. He has been described as the "dean of British strategic studies"[2]

On November 14, 2012, Broadwell was stripped of her clearances to access classified information;[29] her promotion to lieutenant colonel was revoked and she was demoted back to major.[30] The Army classified her as ineligible for further promotion due to her being under investigation by the Army for the Petraeus affair scandal, until the investigation was fully resolved.[31]

An Affair To Remember: Gen. Petraeus And Me November 19, 2012 https://www.wbur.org/cognoscenti/2012/11/19/petraeus-steve-almond/

The Real Lesson of the Petraeus Scandal We delude ourselves about the way we use technology. BY CHRISTINE ROSEN NOV 19, 2012

> How Robert Maxwell rose from poverty - and corrupted his daughter Ghislaine
>
> By Mary Kay LingeFebruary 6, 2021 NY Post

[image]

… born Jan Ludvik Hoch in 1923 to a desperately poor Jewish family in a village now in Ukraine.

“I was never young. I never had that privilege,” Robert Maxwell said decades later. “I remember how cold I was, how hungry I was, and how much I loved my mother.”

Young Jan’s flair for languages gave the family hope that he might become a rabbi. But at age 16, he snipped off his sidelocks and left home as World War II loomed.

He made his way to England, where he adopted a new, vaguely Scottish name, blustered his way into the British Army, and saw action in France and Germany - leaving his family to be swept into the maw of the Holocaust. Only two sisters managed to survive.

Within 72 hours of her birth, Ghislaine Maxwell’s life was twisted by tragedy.

Baby Ghislaine was the ninth child born to Robert Maxwell, the self-made millionaire publisher, and his wife Betty. Though he had left his former name and identity far behind in a blighted corner of Czechoslovakia, Maxwell had been determined to sire a brood of nine children and recreate the family of his birth after Adolf Hitler’s forces slaughtered his siblings, both parents and a grandfather in the gas chambers of Auschwitz.

In his book, Preston traces Robert Maxwell’s tumultuous rise and mysterious 1991 death, while uncovering the forces that produced his manipulative, flirtatious youngest daughter.

> Instead, he set out to “become a gentleman and a squire,” as he put it. His fluency in Russian, English and French landed him assignments from Britain’s intelligence services and a job running a propaganda operation in postwar Berlin.
>
> There, Robert launched his publishing empire by buying up a huge catalog of German scientific research - with the help of an unprecedented investment from MI6, Britain’s foreign intelligence agency.
>
> “He effectively became our agent,” Desmond Bristow, a former British intelligence officer, tells Preston in the book. It was a role that Maxwell apparently played for years, using his publishing perch to seed disinformation to Soviet contacts and pick up data on new technology.

Silence of the Grave

[image]

Joseph Daniel Casolaro was an American freelance writer who came to public attention in 1991 when he was found dead in a bathtub in room 517 of the Sheraton Hotel in Martinsburg, West Virginia, his wrists slashed 10 - 12 times. The medical examiner ruled the death a suicide.” From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

Danny Casolaro had confided to pals that he had the real stuff on PROMIS, the CIA’s OCTUPUS, MENA and how Clinton had worked for Bush and Reagan and Casey, the NSC and all those people hiding under the White House.” https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

[image]

Sightings #13

CHRISTINE M. MIRZAYAN - Clinton Intern, died August 1st, l998. Her death went unnoticed by the world. She was beaten to death with a heavy object near Georgetown University. What makes us think BILL's thugs did it? In the pre-trial publicity surrounding Paula Jones lawsuit, Newsweek's Mike Isikoff dropped hints that a "former White House staffer" with the initial "M" was about to go public with her story of sexual harassment at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

Unsolved Mysteries Wiki Christine Mirzayan

Details: On August 1, 1998, twenty-eight-year-old D.C. biology intern Christine Mirzayan went to a barbecue at a fellow intern's home. She vanished while walking home. She was later found raped and murdered in a D.C. park.

Results: Solved. Authorities no longer believe that Christine's murder is related to those of Chandra and Joyce. Separate suspects have been identified in these cases.

DNA testing later linked Christine's to the "Potomac River Rapist" who raped several young women in the Washington, D.C. area during the 1990s. On November 14, 2019, sixty-year-old Giles Daniel Warrick was arrested and charged with Christine's murder and the rapes. Police used forensic genealogy techniques, similar to that used to catch the Original Night Stalker, which led them to him.

FBI Info

Christine Mirzayan was 29 years old, a National Academy of Sciences intern, and had a promising career ahead of her on the summer evening in 1998 when she was walking home from a cookout in Washington, D.C. Tragically, she never made it. Her killer-a serial rapist who had previously attacked eight other women-is still at large.

Today, the FBI and its law enforcement partners are reaching out to the public-and a reward of up to $25,000 is being offered by Washington's Metropolitan Police Department (MPD)-for assistance in apprehending the offender known as the Potomac River Rapist.

https://www.fbi.gov/news/stories/seeking-potomac-river-rapist/potomac-river-rapist-cold-case Potomac River Rapist Cold Case Help Us Catch a Murderer and Serial Rapist

---

#21 MONTGOMERY RAISER - Son of Victor. Both men died, 7-30-92, in a private plane crash in Alaska, en route to a fishing expedition.

> The Washington Post *
>
> D.C. Lawyer C.V. Raiser II and son die
>
> Aug 1, 1992 Mr. Raiser was a member of the board of directors of the National Symphony > Orchestra and a former chairman of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. Montgomery Raiser was born in Buffalo.

 # 25. ED WILLEY - Clinton fund raiser, found dead November 1993 deep in the woods in Virginia of a gunshot wound to the head

https://rense.com/political/clintonbodycount.htm

---

https://www.thenation.com/article/archive/starr-and-willey-untold-story/

On November 18, 1993, Ed Willey told [his wife] he had “illegally borrowed” more than $274,000 from two clients, Anthony Lanasa and his sister Josephine Abbott, and that he needed her to cosign a note promising to repay the money by November 30, according to a ten-page chronology of events preceding her husband’s death that she submitted to the court during a lawsuit over the unpaid debt. “‘If you don’t sign it, we are all down the tubes,’” Kathy says Ed told her. Willey says in the document that on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, “the family became embroiled in a huge fight” over the money and that the next day “Edward Willey packed a bag and left the house” to stay at the home of one of his clients.

On Monday, November 29, Kathy took the train to Washington and met with Clinton-the meeting where she says she told him she desperately needed a job and he made an unwelcome sexual advance. She returned to her home in a Richmond suburb that evening. Ed was not home, and the next morning his body was found in a rural wooded area; he apparently had shot himself.

"Another very suspicious 'Arkancide' - Jan 12, 1999 Charles Wilbourne Miller was shot on Nov 17th. Along with the Arkancided Vincent Foster he was involved in the White House's "Big Brother" data base and the Clipper chip project. Only in Arkansas does a suicide victim use two shots - not to mention two weapons - to kill himself. *

Another very suspicious 'Arkancide' (of Charles Wilbourne Miller,) retrieved from lWorld News Daily and copied or modified to here

An Arkansas medical examiner has once again concluded "suicide" in a case where common sense might determine otherwise. On Nov. 17, Charles Wilbourne Miller, 63, was found dead of a gunshot wound to the head in a shallow pit about 300 yards from his ranch house near Little Rock.

Police found a .410 gauge shotgun near Miller's body and a Ruger .357-caliber revolver submerged in water. Investigators concluded the Ruger was the weapon used by Miller to kill himself. Yet, two rounds in the handgun's cylinder had been spent.

Only in Arkansas does a suicide victim use two shots - not to mention two weapons - to kill himself.

Just last week, WorldNetDaily columnist Charles Smith revealed that a newly de-classified FBI document confirmed that Reno personally appointed Hubbell as the Justice Department's liaison to the computer chip project.

The document, a 1993 letter from FBI Director William Sessions to Reno, was obtained by Smith under the Freedom of Information Act. The FBI letter to Reno stated: “During the June 30, 1993, meeting with the National Security Council staff to discuss the status of the Presidential Decision and Review Directives concerning key-escrow encryption technology and telecommunications trends, which was attended by Associate Attorney General Webster Hubbell, the issue of a recommended solution to the law enforcement access problem, or the digital telephony issue, was discussed.”

The existence of the White House computer system and data base - known as WHODB, White House Office Data Base, and containing as many as 200,000 names - was revealed by Paul Rodriguez in the Washington Times.

NSA worked with Systematics, half-owned by billionaire Jackson Stephens, a major contributor to Bill Clinton’s political campaigns dating back to his Arkansas days and a close associate of Mochtar and James Riady, the Indonesian billionaires and suspected Chinese government agents.

Obama's "Dead Pool"

We the People of the United States Fighting the Culture War, One Skirmish at a Time https://wtpotus.wordpress.com/2012/04/28/crossing-obama-can-be-deadly/comment-page-2/

Deaths connected to the Obama White House By NACHUMLIST

Did Obama Assassinate Clinton delegates? Bill Gwatney and Stephanie Tubbs Jones? … … … … Hollywood Producer Bettina Viviano: Bill Clinton Directly Told Me Barack Obama Not Eligible - ….Caucus death threats (audio) … also reported by Jerome Corsi at WND: Hillary supporter's untold Obama horror stories Allegations of intimidation, manipulation, sudden death

[image]
[image]

William A. Gwatney was an American politician who served as the State Chair of the Democratic Party of Arkansas.[3] He had previously served as a State Senator for ten years and as the financial chair of Mike Beebe's campaign for Governor of Arkansas in 2006. Gwatney was selected as a superdelegate at the 2008 Democratic National Convention, but was assassinated before the convention.

Aug 4 to August 13 to August 20 going into November 208

Stephanie Tubbs Jones [1][2][3] was an American politician who served as the U.S. Representative for

Ohio's 11th congressional district from 1999 until her death in 2008

On December 19, 2006, Tubbs Jones was named Chairwoman of the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct for the 110th Congress.

Democrat Comgresswoman Tubbs Jones was Golden Life Member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

On August 19, 2008, while driving her car, Congresswoman Tubbs Jones suffered a cerebral hemorrhage due to a burst aneurysm in her brain. Police had noticed erratic driving and identified the unconscious Tubbs Jones after her vehicle left the roadway and came to a stop in a field.[17][18][19] She was taken to the intensive care unit of Huron Hospital, a satellite of the Cleveland Clinic, where she was put on life support. Due to hemorrhaging, she remained in unstable and critical condition.[20][21][22]

> According to a spokesperson with the Cleveland Heights Police Department, approximately 9:00 pm on Tuesday a Cleveland Heights Police Officer observed Tubbs Jones car traveling eastbound on Mayfield Road, weaving from side to side. At Lee Road the car turned left and the officer followed. The car slid off the road into a grassy area near the intersection of Lee Road and Monticello Boulevard. Eye on the Republic

Tubbs Jones died August 20 at 6:12 p.m. EDT of complications from the brain hemorrhage.[2][3]

Gang Stalker Masons LOL

To: Gang stalking and its preternatural connections.

> The expressed [including to me Edward Paul Donegan] goal of Gang Stalking is to silence a victim, drive a victim insane and possibly to the point of suicide, or destroy the victim's reputation (or following I am looking at you Mook) and believability as the person will likely be viewed as mentally ill should they complain or report the abuse. Gang Stalking is also used to gather information on individuals as well as force individuals to move or leave an area.

I reported the abuse at Bay Area Laundery COrpus Christi, Freedom Fitness Corpus Christi, and other places and locations as was ejected for causing disturbances.

> Motivations for Gang Stalking vary. Revenge for a real or imagined offense (People in these organizations are quite petty, mirroring their preternatural handlers); false accusations of a "horrible crime" [or horrible mental disease] of which the victim has gotten away > with (Used to discredit the victim and destroy his/her reputation); silencing a corporate "whistle-blower"; defecting from a cult; a perceived enemy of a group or organization; "knowing too much" are all examples of possible motivations.

Perhaps knowing too much about the Baptist Church, NASA MKULTRA, CIA MI5, DARPA, H-E-B history of this.

Twitter.com/eddonegan before ban and unabble to reset that account with those folllowers.

- Jan 8 Ed Donegan ©eddonegan ©cornelldeath ©Robby12692 ©QNNTexas Clinton Body Count Series: #10. Penthouse Pet Judi G * … The Goldwater US - Clinton Body Count Series: #10. Penthouse Pet Judi Gibbs Died in a Mysterious House fire thegoldwater.com 1 1 1 ·

- Jan 8 Ed Donegan ©eddonegan Judi Gibbs, Exposing the Secret Life of Adolf Hitler (And King George VIII London KE Family of FOXP2 Dysgraphic Borderlines) and Brittany Murphy, both knew the #MKULTRA History #ClintonBodyCount #ClintonNeighbor ©cornelldeath©Robby12692 ©Qanon©QNNTexas

- Jan 8Ed Donegan ©eddonegan FOXP2 Borderline Girl Interupted [Borderline Personality Disorder institutionalizations] author Kaysen of Cambridge, MA. A daughter of Annette (Neutra) and ECONOMIST Carl Kaysen, a professor at MIT and former advisor to JFK. #BrtiannyMurph #ClintonBodyCount #ThorkilKristensen #GeorgeBall #ClintonBodyCount ©Robby12692 ©cornelldeath

- Ed Donegan Retweeted ·Jan 7QNN Texas ©QNNTexas

The Clinton Body Count 7 Jan 2020 - 10:34:00 pm submitted by . The long list of people associated with Bill Clinton

Google knowledge panel quoted here

A lab report suggesting “Clueless” actress Brittany Murphy died from poisoning is “ridiculous” and “baseless,” an expert said Tuesday. The Los Angles County coroner ruled pneumonia killed Murphy, 32, in December 2009, and that her husband, Simon Monjack, 39, died from the same illness five months later. Nov 20, 2013 Died: December 20, 2009 Spouse: Simon Monjack Brittany Murphy poison report ‘ridiculous,’ expert says - CNN

The locations of Homo Cide

St. Loius Missuouri, Little Rock Arkansas. NASA and Middle East North Africa Airport (MENA,) Christian Motorcycle Association (Mike Foval Scott Foval Richard Creamer using Mental Health bird doggers,) Metro (Gay, Rainbow) Churches) New Agism.

Recalling from or intruducing other content from this book

Jack Patrick Dorsey

Twitter, by birthday, St Loius, MO and pattern of conduct seem tied to Masonry leftism.

Born: November 19, 1976 (age 43 years), St. Louis, MO

Height: 5′ 11″

Headdlines such as “Twitter bans 7,000 QAnon accounts, limits 150,000 others as part of broad crackdown” and “Twitter banned Steve Bannon’s podcast following beheading …” are common regarding Twitter’s ppolicies.

Note that San Francisco, MIDNIGHTCLMAX cia brothels MKULTRA brain research, and Folsom Prison Leo Ryan was investigating for MKULTRA are Norther California and San Francisco research institutions connected such as California State Universtity and University of California.

I have been threatened with death, stabbing, hanging, if I told my story of being born under the Manhattan Project, though only in the last few years have I tied that to Cape Cod and MKULTRA.

Jen Moore aka Task Force was threatened with death too if she exposed the baby factories, stem cell research (including neural cells and brain and spinal disease) and the CIA activities in China was something Jim Garrow was working on and reporting.

Not only did the US Military Public Health Service Commissioned Corps DARPA conduct my test birth with James and Glorian Donegan Atomic Blast Testing, Manhattan Beach, but my mothers February 20 November 18 Dec 13 (her birthday) biological term of me ended in her own 2011 death when her body was donated at her request to science, my brother choosing the Bethesda Maryland Public Health Service where btw Rod Rosenstein was the US Attorney.

The Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service quoted here which was sourced from link

, The Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health

Service, or USPHS Commissioned Corps, works on the front lines of public health. Our medical, health and engineering professionals fight disease, conduct research, and care for patients in underserved communities across the nation and throughout the world.

A theory in this book is her body, her DNA, is being seized and used through the world for further DARPA Brain Program MKULTRA work on IQ and this was part of the Judge Roll 2011 assassination (the year my mother died) and the Justice Scalia race and IQ case and #WETWORKS.

Did Sandy Hume hear something at the February 20 National Institute of Health meeting he was likely going to?

Sightings

Hume was a reporter for The Hill magazine, newspaper about Congress for Congress, and had broken a major story in 1997 regarding the friction between House Speaker Newt Gingrich and a faction led by Representative Paxon (who mysteriously announced his resignation just 24 hours after Hume's death).

Paxon was born in Akron, New York, near Buffalo. At the age of 15, Paxon volunteered for the first congressional campaign of former Buffalo Bills quarterback Jack Kemp. Kemp, decades later, was the Republican Vice Presidential nominee in 1996.

Paxon graduated from St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute high school in 1972, and then from Canisius College. He was elected to the Erie County Legislature in November 1977 at the age of 23, making him the youngest member ever when elected. In addition, he holds honorary doctorates from Daemen College, Roberts

Wesleyan College and Canisius College.

Hume's suicide [Date of death: February 22, 1998 seemed to be one of those random stories that drops out of nowhere .. unless you think of Leslie Anne Shedd

A few months later, in February 1998, Paxon launched an attempt to unseat Armey from his leadership position. Just days later, Sandy Hume killed himself with a gunshot to the head.

One person familiar with the possible history, and Griffeth Experiment Spanish Illuminati geno engineers was CIA officer Leslianne Sheddwho died on November 23 1996

Tied to Spanish and Spanish language, Central Europe and German Espionage history, University of Washington [State} Seatle, CIA Spy, and also tied to Ethiopia and DARAP and the Brain.

Nov 22, 2016 - Leslianne Shedd-a young, courageous, highly successful CIA operations officer serving in East Africa-was a passenger on an Ethiopian Airlines flight when it was hijacked and then crashed into the Indian Ocean on November 23, 1996, killing 125 people

To the day 33 years from JFK dead and Obama at 2 years old plus a few days if you use my timeline for that.

Or Malia Ann Obama born July 4, 1998 but less so Sasha Obama born 2001 with a brain infection perhaps from Bacteria or some sort of virus.

Hume's suicide seemed to be one of those random stories that drops out of nowhere. No one will ever know whether his rash decisions and reckless mind-set in the early morning hours of Feb. 22 reflected instability or just plain drunkenness. At 2:20 a.m., Ritacco spotted Hume driving his '92 green BMW south on the Clara Barton Parkway from Bethesda to D.C., exceeding 75 mph in a 45 mph zone, according to Sgt. Joseph Cox, public information officer for the U.S. Park Police, which has jurisdiction over the parkway. Ritacco pursued Hume and signaled to him to pull over. Hume instead accelerated, attempting to flee.*

SIGHTINGS Clinton's 'Circle Of Death' = Latest Statistics which was sourced from link

Sandy Hume, son of Brit already had a reputation for getting the story that nobody else wanted to look at. It is worth noting that his death came hard on the heels of reports that "a reporter" was about to break a story confirming the White House's use of investigators to dig up dirt on critics and investigators.

It has recently been confirmed that the man who performed the as-yet-unreleased autopsy is none other than Dr. James C. Beyer, who has a record of concealing homicides behind a ruling of suicide. Kenneth Starr's "suicidologist" Dr. Alan L. Berman has waded in again and, as he did in the Foster death, ruled it "100% certain that this is a suicide and can be nothing else".

Dr. Beyer served as an officer in the U.S. Army from February 1951 to November 1962, with overseas service in Korea in 1952 and 1953.

Paul Wilcher was the lawyer to whistleblowers Rodney Stich and Gunter Karl Russbacher. Wilcher died in disputed circumstances a month after writing a letter to then-new US Attorney General Janet Reno alleging that the CIA was killing people to cover up mind control experiments [MKULTRA], and that the Waco incident was one of these events.

PAUL WILCHER - Attorney investigating corruption at Mena Airport, also an earlier REAGAN SCANDAL, called "the OCTOBER SURPRISE," found dead on a toilet June 22, 1993 in his Washington DC apartment. At the time of his death, Paul was investigating connections between the "October Surprise" during the 1980 federal election campaign and drug and gun-running out of Mena, Arkansas

British psychiatry: from eugenics to assassination

By Anton Chaitkin, Executive Intelligence Review, V21 #40, [30 July 2002]

A behavior control research project was begun in the 1950s, coordinated by the British psychological warfare unit called the Tavistock Institute, with the Scottish Rite Masons, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other British, U.S., Canadian, and United Nations agencies.

The project became famous in the 1970s under a CIA code name, "MKUltra." Its notoriety for brainwashing by drugs, hypnosis, electroshock, and other tortures caused many books to be written about the project, and the U.S. Senate conducted hearings which exposed many of its abusive features.

President Gerald Ford appointed a commission headed by Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, to correct the CIA's misconduct.

Jen Moore is a Revealer of MKULTRA, OSS,

Vatican, CIA, Secret Identities

Former CIA Agent and Destroyer of MKULTRA Files William Barr is a Concealer of MKULTRA and the Secret Identities of CIA Racial Engineering

Click the Image to go that web site, image and content used in this book as Fair and Presumptive Permissions Usages Doctrine of Copyright Freedoms

William Barr is a Traitor likely using Targeted Killings and PsyOps to cover his and CIA culpability for MKULTRA

Quoting the Wikipedia Page on Him Below

William Pelham Barr (born May 23, 1950) is an American attorney and government official and the 77th and 85th United States Attorney General. Barr's second stint in the post began in February 2019 during the Donald Trump administration, as he previously served as the 77th Attorney General from 1991 to 1993 during the George H. W. Bush administration.

From 1973 to 1977, Barr was employed by the Central Intelligence Agency during his schooling years. He then served as a law clerk to judge Malcolm Richard Wilkey. In the 1980s, Barr worked for the law firm Shaw, Pittman, Potts & Trowbridge, sandwiching a year's work in the White House of the Ronald Reagan administration dealing with legal policies. Before becoming Attorney General in 1991, Barr held numerous other posts within the Department of Justice, including leading the Office of Legal Counsel (OLC) and serving as Deputy Attorney General. From 1994 to 2008, Barr did corporate legal work for GTE and its successor company Verizon Communications, which made him a multimillionaire. From 2009 to 2018, Barr served on the board of directors for Time Warner.

Barr is a longtime proponent of the unitary executive theory of nearly unfettered presidential authority over the executive branch of the U.S. government.[1][2][3] In 1989, Barr, as the head of the OLC, justified the U.S. invasion of Panama to arrest Manuel Noriega. As deputy attorney general, Barr authorized an FBI operation in 1991 which freed hostages at the Talladega federal prison. An influential advocate for tougher criminal justice policies, Barr as attorney general in 1992 authored the report The Case for More Incarceration, where he argued for an increase in the United States incarceration rate.[4] Under Barr's advice, President George H. W. Bush in 1992 pardoned six officials involved in the IranContra affair.

William Pelham Barr was born May 23, 1950, to a Manhattan family that prized scholarship, Catholicism and Republican conservatism. His father was a World War II intelligence officer who became an assistant dean at Columbia University, then headed the elite, private Dalton School before resigning in a dispute with trustees.*

Jen Moore aka Task Force was murdered by thugs in muscle cars for exposing MKULTRA and defedning CIA victims, myself being one of those victims

Santa Cruz Meetup notes on Jen Moore

Santa Cruz Capitola (William Ruiz) area place of the August 10th 2018 Captilola Togos Video

Jen Moore; Chilling story of 26 Year Old Victim Raped as a Child by Bill Clinton From: Bruce Sent on: Saturday, August 18, 2018 3:37 PM

Investigative journalist, Jen Moore's body was found in a District of Columbia hotel room on Monday, Aug. 13, after she died from a reported seizure. An autopsy had not been scheduled as of late Monday. Bormer FBI Agent Robyn Gritz, a friend of Moore's, made inquiries with homicide detectives Monday afternoon in Prince Georges County, Maryland. Preliminary reports from police said the death was not the result of suicide.

While friends and admirers mourn the loss of investigative journalist Jen Moore - who was found dead in a suburban D.C. hotel room Monday - a haunting final interview has surfaced where Moore details the Clinton case she was working on at the time of her suspicious death.

Moore, an advocate who investigated abused and trafficked children, had been in the process of investigating allegations by a 26-year-old man who - as a young boy - was sexually assaulted by Bill Clinton and pimped out at private sex parties attended by other D.C. elites.

Moore, who was often called "Task Force as a nickname," was interviewed about the Clinton case on July 13th by YouTube and radio journalist Farmer Jones. One month later, Moore's she was dead, her body found by employees at the Country Inn & Suites by Radisson, Washington, D.C. East - in Capitol Heights, Maryland. The investigation is ongoing. Autopsy results were not available on Wednesday.

During the Jones interview Moore expressed dismay and frustration that despite her sharing the details with Homeland Security agents in charge of child trafficking investigations a month before her death, and later with the FBI, no one had reached out to her to follow up about the details of the alleged victim. Or the alleged suspect.

Moore died of an apparent seizure. Police said the death was not the result of suicide.

> Snopes.com on the "Clinton Body Count": "We shouldn't have to tell anyone not to believe this claptrap, but we will anyway."

State Department diplomat with Chicago ties killed in Afghanistan Anne Smedinghoff, young U.S. diplomat killed in an attack in southern Afghanistan: Shades of Benghazi: State Department changes story on Afghanistan blast that killed diplomat ; Assassination Incorporated 1600 Penn Avenue: The Smedinghoff Murder- author claims that the White House and NSA directed an assassination of Smedinghoff.

Dec 11, 2014 Dominic Di-Natale, whose work with Fox News took him around the world, has died at the age of 43 subject matter retrieved from Spartacus Educational and copied or modified to here

Domingo Benavides was driving his pickup truck along Tenth Street in Oak Cliff on 22nd November, 1963, when he claimed he saw Lee Harvey Oswald kill J. D. Tippet. However, he was not asked by the Dallas Police Department to view a line-up because "he didn't think he was very good at identifying people".

Benavides later gave evidence to the Warren Commission, and the CBS: The Warren Report. In 1965, his brother Edward Benavides, who resembled Domingo, was shot in the back of the head in a club in Dallas.

Domingo Benavides was convinced that Eddy's murder was a case of mistaken identity and that he was the intended victim.

Assassination of John F. Kennedy Encyclopedia

By John Simkin (john©spartacus-educational.com) © September 1997 (updated January 2020). ▲ Main Article ▲

Primary and Secondary Sources

(1) Domingo Benavides, The Warren Report: Part 3, CBS Television (27th June, 1967) As I was driving down the street, I seen this police car, was sitting here, and the officer was getting out of the car, and apparently he'd been talking to the man that was standing by the car. The policeman got out of the car, and as he walked past the windshield of the car, where it's kind of lined up over the hood of the car, where this other man shot him. And, of course, he was reaching for his gun.

And so, I was standing there, you know, I mean sitting there in the truck, and not in no big hurry to get out because I was sitting there watching everything. This man turned from the car then, and took a couple of steps, and as he turned to walk away I believe he was unloading his gun, and he took the shells up in his hand, and as he took off, he threw them in the bushes more or less like nothing really, trying to get rid of them. I guess he didn't figure he'd get caught anyway, so he just threw them in the bushes.

(2) David Welsh, Ramparts (November, 1966)

Domingo Benevides, a dark, slim auto mechanic, was a witness to the murder of Officer Tippit who testified that he “really got a good view” of the slayer. He was not asked to see the police lineup in which Oswald appeared. Although he later said the killer resembled newspaper pictures of Oswald, he described the man differently: “I remember the back of his head seemed like his hairline sort of went square instead of tapered off …it kind of went down and squared off and made his head look flat in back.” Domingo reports that he has been repeatedly threatened by police, and advised not to talk about what he saw.

In mid-February 1964 his brother Eddy, who resembled him, was fatally shot in the back of the head in a beer joint on Second Avenue in Dallas. Police said it was a pistol shot, wrote up a cursory report and marked the case “unsolved.”

Domingo’s father-in-law, J.W. Jackson, was so unimpressed with the police investigation of Eddy’s death that he launched a little inquiry of his own. Two weeks later Jackson was shot at in his home. The assailant secreted himself in the carport, fired once into the house, and when Jackson ran outside, fired one more time, just missing his head. As the gunman clambered into an automobile in a nearby driveway, Jackson saw a police car coming down the block. The officer made no attempt to follow the gunman’s speeding car; instead, he stopped at Jackson’s home and spent a long time inquiring what had happened. Later a police lieutenant advised Jackson, “You’d better lay off of this business. Don’t go around asking question; that’s our job.” Jackson and Domingo are both convinced that Eddy’s murder was a case of mistaken identity and that Domingo, the Tippit witness, was the intended victim.

In September, 1997, Spartacus Educational founder and managing director John Simkin became the first educational publisher in Britain to establish a website that was willing to provide teachers and students with free educational materials.

According to a survey carried out by the Fischer Trust, Spartacus Educational is one of the top three websites used by history teachers and students in Britain (the other two are BBC History and the Public Record Office's Learning Curve). The Spartacus Educational website currently gets up to 7 million page impressions a month and 3 million unique visitors.

As well as running the Spartacus Educational website John Simkin has also produced material for the Electronic Telegraph, the European Virtual School and the Guardian's educational website, Learn. He was also a member of the European History E-Learning Project (E-Help), a project to encourage and improve use of ICT and the internet in classrooms across the continent.

This book

J. Edgar Hoover was a Freemason plotter and 1926 Concealor aligned With British Secret Service

Kissinger (who James Donegan deeply hated as being a Traitor) was a key player

Henry Kissinger retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

He [as a Rockefeller Republican] acted as a consultant to government agencies, think tanks, and the presidential campaigns of Nelson Rockefeller and Nixon before being appointed as national security advisor and later secretary of state by President Nixon.

Henry Alfred Kissinger[a] (May 27, 1923 - November 29, 2023) was an American diplomat and political scientist who served as the United States secretary of state from 1973 to 1977 and national security advisor from 1969 to 1975, in the presidential administrations of Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford.[4]

Kissinger earned his Bachelor of Arts summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa in political science from Harvard College in 1950, where he lived in Adams House and studied under William Yandell Elliott. His senior undergraduate thesis, titled The Meaning of History: Reflections on Spengler, Toynbee and Kant, was over 400 pages long, and was the origin of the current limit on length (35,000 words). He earned his Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy at Harvard University in 1951 and 1954, respectively. In 1952, while still a graduate student at Harvard, he served as a consultant to the director of the Psychological Strategy Board,[37] and founded a magazine, Confluence. At that time, he sought to work as a spy for the FBI

The Psychological Strategy Board (PSB) was a committee of the United States executive formed to coordinate and plan for psychological operations. It was formed on April 4, 1951, during the Truman administration. The board was composed of the Under Secretary of State, the Deputy Secretary of Defense, and the Director of Central Intelligence, or their designated representatives. The board's first director was Gordon Gray, later National Security Advisor during the Eisenhower administration. The board was created in response to the growth of Office of Policy Coordination covert activities during the Korean War.

Under Eisenhower, the board became a purely coordinating body. The board's function was reviewed by the Jackson Committee, chaired by William Harding Jackson, set up to propose future United States Government information and psychological warfare programs. The committee concluded that the board had been established on the assumption that psychological strategy could be conducted separately from official policy and actions, an assumption the committee disagreed with. It was abolished September 3, 1953 by Executive Order 10483, with its responsibilities being transferred to the Operations Coordinating Board.

Kissinger remained at Harvard as a member of the faculty in the Department of Government where he served as the director of the Harvard International Seminar between 1951 and 1971. In 1955, he was a consultant to the National Security Council's Operations Coordinating Board. During 1955 and 1956, he was also study director in nuclear weapons and foreign policy at the Council on Foreign Relations.

From 1956 to 1958, Kissinger worked for the Rockefeller Brothers Fund as director of its Special Studies Project. He served as the director of the Harvard Defense Studies Program between 1958 and 1971. In 1958, he also co-founded the Center for International Affairs with Robert R. Bowie where he served as its associate director. Outside of academia, he served as a consultant to several government agencies and think tanks, including the Operations Research Office, the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, Department of State, and the RAND Corporation.

The Rockefeller Brothers Fund was established in 1940 by the five sons of John D. Rockefeller Jr. The five Rockefeller brothers served as the Fund's first five trustees. In 1951, the Fund grew substantially when it received a $58 million endowment from John D. Rockefeller Jr.

Keen to have a greater influence on U.S. foreign policy, Kissinger became foreign policy advisor to the presidential campaigns of Nelson Rockefeller, supporting his bids for the Republican nomination in 1960, 1964, and 1968.

Kissinger first met Richard Nixon at a party hosted by Clare Boothe Luce in 1967, saying that he found him more "thoughtful" than he expected.[49] During the Republican primaries in 1968, Kissinger again served as the foreign policy adviser to Rockefeller and in July 1968 called Nixon "the most dangerous of all the men running to have as president". Initially upset when Nixon won the Republican nomination, the ambitious Kissinger soon changed his mind about Nixon and contacted a Nixon campaign aide, Richard Allen, to state he was willing to do anything to help Nixon win. After Nixon became president in January 1969, Kissinger was appointed as National Security Advisor. By this time, he was arguably "one of the most important theorists about foreign policy ever to be produced by the United States", according to his official biographer Niall Ferguson.

Kissinger studied accounting at the City College of New York, excelling academically as a part-time student while continuing to work. His studies were interrupted in early 1943, when he was drafted into the U.S. Army.

As a refugee from Nazi Germany he lived in the US and became part of the U.S. Army. Kissinger underwent basic training at Camp Croft in Spartanburg, South Carolina. On June 19, 1943, while stationed in South Carolina, he became a naturalized U.S. citizen. The army sent him to study engineering at Lafayette College in Pennsylvania under the Army Specialized Training Program, but the program was canceled and Kissinger was reassigned to the 84th Infantry Division. There, he made the acquaintance of Fritz Kraemer, a fellow immigrant from Germany who noted Kissinger's fluency in German and his intellect and arranged for him to be assigned to the division's military intelligence.

During the American advance into Germany, Kissinger, though only a private, was put in charge of the administration of the city of Krefeld because of a lack of German speakers on the division's intelligence staff. Within eight days he had established a civilian administration.[25] Kissinger was then reassigned to the Counter Intelligence Corps (CIC), where he became a CIC Special Agent holding the enlisted rank of sergeant. He was given charge of a team in Hanover assigned to tracking down Gestapo officers and other saboteurs, for which he was awarded the Bronze Star.

In June 1945, Kissinger was made commandant of the Bensheim metro CIC detachment, Bergstraße district of Hesse, with responsibility for denazification of the district. Although he possessed absolute authority and powers of arrest, Kissinger took care to avoid abuses against the local population by his command.

In 1946, Kissinger was reassigned to teach at the European Command Intelligence School at Camp King and, as a civilian employee following his separation from the army, continued to serve in this role.

Camp King is a site on the outskirts of Oberursel, Taunus (in Germany), with a long history. It began as a school for agriculture under the auspices of the University of Frankfurt. During World War II, the lower fields became an interrogation center for the German Air Force. After World War II, the United States Army also used it as an interrogation center and intelligence post. The United States CIA used the site to test drugs including LSD on prisoners as part of Project BLUEBIRD, the predecessor to MKUltra. In 1968, it became the command and control center for the United States Army Movements Control Agency - Europe (USAMCAEUR). Today it has been rebuilt as a German housing area.

Robert Maheu And Guy Banister Were Concealers

Maheu was involved in the Indonesia plot staring in earnest in 1958. I think JKF and RFK wer shot over this, tied to Peter Lawford and Birther theory, Obama for Indonesia by the CIA.

The independence minded Sukarno was an Indonesian statesman, orator, revolutionary, and nationalist who was the first president of Indonesia, serving from 1945 to 1967. Sukarno was the leader of the Indonesian struggle for independence from the Dutch colonialists. Wikipedia

Suharto the dicator and love of the CIA was placed into power by the CIA starting with CIA oerations in 1958. This is tied to Obama Jr history and the CIA plans for him in Indonesia.

Indonesia 1958: Nixon, the CIA, and the Secret War By L. Fletcher Prouty is the article on that subject Prouty wrote and was in Prouty's opinion part of the CIA effort to control the world and even assassinate JFK to keep the plans in operation after V.P. Nixon lost the presidential election to JFK in 1960.

> Spy Culuture Podcast
>
> Returning to Maheu, the following year the CIA launched Project HARPSTAR, again targeting Sukarno. They sought to exploit his ‘weakness for Caucasian women’ and got Maheu to source a suitable female. He came up with Florence Horn, a ‘well to do widow’, 35, who was considered ‘highly intelligent and extremely attractive’. Not sure where he found her because women like that are in fairly short supply. She teamed up with a female CIA officer, under cover as her secretary. The > idea was to get close to Sukarno, befriend him, maybe sleep with him, and try to ascertain his thinking and future plans.

>
> They needed to come up with a plausible cover story, and given Florence's close association with what Maheu called 'the movie colony', he suggested they take that path. They came up with the idea of saying she was part of a location scout of Far East locations for a proposed movie version of Journey to the Center of the Earth, and put money into accounts of the Indonesian branch of 20th Century Fox in Jakarta, to provide a funding source for the operation.
>
> In the event, Florence was unable to get close to Sukarno and gather intelligence on him, largely due to travel conflicts. But 20th Century Fox did produce a film version of Journey to the Center of the Earth, which came out in 1959.

…

Bother were FBI (Former) working for the CIA. Guy Bannister was running guns, grenades, etc., for Brigade 2506 Cuban overthrow run out of New Orleans while Robert Maheu had a similar org to the Guy Bannister front, a private security firm. Maheu came to work for Howard Hughes and Hughes Tool became Hughes Aviation trying to build the successor to the P-38 and P-40 reconnaissance planes. The motor and cam shaft bearings and tooled heavy engines made his company perfect for aviation and he pioneered Jet aircraft.

GSF Explorer, formerly USNS Hughes Glomar Explorer (T-AG-193), was a deep-sea drillship platform built for Project Azorian, the secret 1974 effort by the United States Central Intelligence Agency's Special Activities Division to recover the Soviet submarine K-129.[3][4] - Wikipedia

The operation became public in February 1975 when the Los Angeles Times published a story about "Project Jennifer". Other news organizations, including The New York Times, added details. The CIA declined to either confirm or deny the reports, a tactic that became known as the Glomar response and subsequently used to confront all manner of journalistic and public inquiry, including Freedom of Information Act requests. [10] The actual name, Project Azorian, became public only in 2010.

He (Howard Hughes) used the recon planes to film his own movie about those planes in Jet Pilot 1957.

Robert Maheu: The CIA's Fixer In Hollywood retrieved from https://www.spyculture.com/clandestime-252-robert-maheu-the-cias-fixer-in-hollywood/ and copied or modified to here

ClandesTime 252 - Robert Maheu: The CIA's Fixer In Hollywood

The Mafia. Hollywood starlets. Foreign leaders. Fake sex tapes. Illegal surveillance. Watergate. The CIA. And Howard Hughes. Robert Maheu's life had it all. In this episode we take a look at the life and times of a CIA contract agent who touches on many important 20th century events, and provided the inspiration for one of the world's most well known TV shows.

Your browser does not support the audio element.

I have wanted to do an episode on Robert Maheu for some time, because his life hooks into several topics that we've examined a lot on this podcast. The CIA-Hollywood relationship, the Bay of Pigs and anti-Castro black operations, Watergate, even Howard Hughes. He worked for both the FBI and CIA and his antics even became the inspiration for the original TV series of Mission: Impossible.

Bob was born on October 30th 1917 in Maine, to parents of French Canadian descent, hence the surname Maheu. He studied at the Jesuit College of the Holy Cross before moving on to Georgetown to study law. At this point, in 1941, he was hired by the FBI to work in counter-intelligence, hunting Nazis and so on. He left the FBI in 1947 and founded a company called Dairy Dream Products, presumably selling ice cream. This resulted in bankruptcy in 1952, and so he re-entered government work with the Small Business Administration. In 1954 he was forced to resign from the SBA due to political reasons, which a CIA biography of Maheu says were 'determined to be the result of backing the wrong political party in the election.'

He responded to this setback by setting up his own private detective firm, Robert A Maheu and Associates, in Washington DC. His first steady client was the CIA, whose documents refer to the firm by the acronym RAMA. They used Maheu and others as a cut-outs - contract agents used to make contact with people and carry out missions that the CIA proper cannot be caught talking to or doing. They were stupid enough to write a lot of this down, but many of those documents only became available in recent years via CREST and the JFK disclosures.

In 1955 he was hired by Howard Hughes, and worked for him until 1970, but apparently never met him face to face. They communicated via memo and telephone calls, but Maheu rose to become a close confidante and head of Hughes' Nevada operations. This covers the period when Hughes was hiding out in a hotel in Vegas, calling up the local TV station he owned and telling them to replay his favourite bits of Ice Station Zebra, as we covered in a previous episode. It was also while Hughes was financing CIA operations such as the Glomar Expedition.

In 1970, Hughes fired Maheu, apparently due to the power struggle within the Hughes empire involving the Mormon Mafia. This resulted in a legal battle and, according to Hughes, a campaign of harassment and intimidation run by Maheu against possibly the world's richest man. This eventually drove Hughes to leave Las Vegas, though the fake autobiography that came out that year probably also had something to do with it. The defamation lawsuit Bob brought against Howard was also the reason for the CIA removing Maheu's security clearances and ending their relationship with him.

In the summer of 1975 Maheu testified before the Church Committee that he was involved in a CIA plot using Las Vegas and Florida mobsters to try to assassinate Fidel Castro. This led to a lot of internal discussion within the CIA, who were concerned that the Committee's report on assassinations named many people who were still alive, including Maheu, Santo Trafficante and Johnny Roselli.

One CIA document says that, while some of Maheu's testimony had leaked to the press, he was still entitled to protection from official confirmation of these stories - i.e. from being named in the report. It goes on, 'The Syndicate members through whom Maheu worked pose a somewhat different problem, but the same central issue remains. We cannot divine how publicity would impact on their future. Giancana is dead, presumably as a result of unrelated events, but how publicity would affect Trafficante is debatable.'

This document was attached to a memo sent to President Ford in October 1975, which was shared around with the likes of Henry Kissinger and Dick Cheney for their input. They unanimously approved trying to block publication of the Committee's report, especially the section on plots aimed at assassinating foreign leaders. There were several efforts to block the report but it did come out, and it did name Maheu and some of the mobsters he had conspired with on behalf of the Agency.

The report explains, 'Maheu was an ex-FBI agent who had entered into a career as a private investigator in 1954. A former FBI associate of Maheu's was employed in the CIA's Office of Security and had arranged for the CIA to use Maheu in several sensitive covert operations in which "he didn't want to have an Agency person or a government person get caught".'

A footnote details, 'During 1954-1955 Maheu cooperated with the CIA in attempting to undermine a contract with the Saudi Arabian government that would have given one person virtually complete control over shipping of oil from Saudi Arabia. Although he was employed by a competitor of the person who held the contract Maheu worked closely with the CIA. Maheu testified that after consulting with the Agency he arranged for a listening device to be placed in the room of the contract holder and that he provided the impetus for the termination of the contract by publicizing its terms in a Rome newspaper which he said he had purchased with CIA funds.'

I'm sure you're getting a picture of this guy - Robert Maheu had a lot of guts, and a fair amount of brains, and almost no moral conscience. No wonder he made friends with the CIA. One more story from the Church Committee report before we delve into some of this in more detail - they note how in October 1960, during the negotiations with 'Sam Gold' - Sam Giancana - he asked Maheu to bug a hotel room to find out whether Sam's girlfriend was schtupping some other schmuck. The girlfriend was Phyllis McGuire, while the schmuck was Dan Rowan - these names are redacted in most copies of the memos, but not all. Maheu got in a guy from a Florida investigations firm, Arthur Balletti, to do the actual bugging.

But Balletti screwed up, leaving the wiretap equipment lying around in the apartment while he was bugging the phone, and he was discovered by a maid who called the sheriff's department. They arrived, arrested Balletti, took him in for questioning, whereupon he called Maheu in Miami, in front of the sheriffs. Balletti's bail was paid by Johnny Roselli, but the DOJ wanted to prosecute both Balletti and Maheu for illegal wiretapping.

The Church Committee's report says it 'received conflicting evidence on whether the Agency was consulted' about the bugging, with Maheu himself saying he initially asked if the CIA could handle it, but other Agency officials denying they knew anything. According to the Agency's internal biography of Maheu, it was at their request that Robert Kennedy's Justice Department dropped the case against Maheu and Balletti, but likewise it's unclear how much they knew about it ahead of time.

It doesn't end there though - Maheu testified that the reason for the surveillance was to find out if Sam's girlfriend was cheating on him, but according to Roselli Bob had told him two different reasons: 1) to check on the girlfriend's possible infidelity and 2) to find out if Sam had told her about the assassination plot, and she was telling others. The Church Committee gave serious weight to this second reason for the tap, because this is what Maheu told the FBI when they questioned him about it while preparing the DOJ's case back in 1961. The Committee's report notes how the CIA leaned on the DOJ, saying the prosecution might reveal sensitive information about the Bay of Pigs operation, and that following a briefing by the CIA to the Attorney General (Kennedy), the case was dropped.

Before we move on I want to draw a quick parallel between this event and two others around the same time - the death of Marilyn Monroe and the disappearance of her diary of secrets, which apparently included information about the Bay of Pigs, and the death of Mary Pinchot Meyer, Cord Meyer's wife.

In the Marilyn Monroe case there's the infamous memo that suggests the CIA were tapping her phone and knew all about the diary of secrets, including apparent revelations from JFK concerning UFOs. Whether this memo is authentic or not is a matter of some debate - the CIA themselves did an analysis and concluded it was a forgery, but I have my doubts about their motives. In the case of Mary Pinchot Meyer, she died in mysterious circumstances and none other than James Jesus Angleton turned up at her home shortly afterwards, broke in, and stole her diary. And then we have this mysterious wiretap in Las Vegas, purportedly to check on whether Sam Giancana's girlfriend was fucking around but which more likely was to check on whether she was blabbing about the Castro assassination plot. Though she survived, whereas the other two ladies did not.

Robert Maheu vs Howard Hughes

According to Maheu's autobiography, which mostly covers his relationship with Howard Hughes and only touches on his CIA activities, is quite vainglorious. He credits himself with using Hughes' vast wealth to buy up large tracks of Las Vegas real estate, and very much paints himself as the victim in their fight in the early 70s.

His relationship with Hughes began when a lawyer from a DC firm called and asked about connections between an individual named Stuart Cramer and the CIA. Apparently, the lawyer had a client to whom Cramer had been boasting of being a CIA operative, and the client wanted to know whether this was true. Maheu was known in DC as a CIA contact, and he called up his friend Jim O'Connell at the CIA's Office of Security, who'd originally got him the job working for the Agency. Jim called back later that day confirming they had some sort of connection to Cramer, but no, he did not work for them.

It turned out that the client was Howard Hughes, who was pursuing Cramer's ex-wife and wanted him out of the picture so he could get a free run at the lady. A few months later, the lawyer called back, identified Hughes as the client, and hired Maheu to spy on Ava Gardner, who had recently split up with Frank Sinatra. The way Maheu tells it, Hughes had a range of women he was wooing, but his particular form of wooing was more about control than romance, and he kept some of them under round-the-clock surveillance.

The job went bad, because the guy Maheu hired to spy on Ava fucked it up. Sinatra turned up, and the pair went out on a boat on Lake Tahoe but instead of just keeping an eye out and waiting for their return, the guy rented his own boat and followed them. Frank spotted him, went apeshit, called the local police, the whole thing hit the newspapers - including Hughes' involvement.

Nonetheless, Hughes called back again early in 1955, wanting to hire Maheu to deal with a little blackmail problem he was having in Hollywood. Years later, Bob asked Howard why he did this, given the Lake Tahoe fiasco, and Hughes revealed that he knew all about Maheu's background in the CIA and FBI, as well as his success in early missions for other clients.

So Bob flew out to Los Angeles and met Bill Gay, the head of the Mormon Mafia who would later take over the Hughes empire. The assignment was a local minister, who had found out that one of his 'young female parishioners' had an affair with Howard and was now blackmailing him, threatening to go to the press. Maheu was tasked with shutting the guy up, even if that meant paying him, but he didn't want to pay the minister, Bob felt he'd just keep coming back for more. So instead he dug into the blackmailer and found he had a criminal record - a charge, not convicted, of molesting young boys. When he met the preacher, Maheu turned the tables on him and threatened to expose him to the LA Times. Naturally, the minister opted to keep his mouth shut.

Maheu had to complete one more counter-blackmail assignment before he got to speak to Hughes personally. A guy in New York was threatening to expose Howard regarding one of the starlets he kept under lock and key in an apartment in Hollywood. Maheu rented a room, bugged it and invited the guy round to discuss matters. He paid the blackmailer, then revealed he'd recorded the whole conversation and would take the tape to the DA. The blackmailer pleaded to make a deal, and agreed to give the money back in exchange for the tape. They did this, then Maheu revealed another tape, this time of their entire conversation up until that point. He told the blackmailer that if he ever spoke about what he knew, this tape would be sent to the prosecutor's office. The guy agreed to keep schtum, and ran out.

Shortly afterwards, Maheu called up Bill Gay to tell him what had happened, and dictated a lengthy report on how it had gone down. He was told to wait in the hotel where he'd rented the room while Hughes got a chance to read the report. Half an hour passed, and then Hughes called back in person, wanting to hear all the details about the altercation between Maheu and the blackmailer. In total, Maheu told him the story three times, leaving nothing out, and each time Hughes got as excited as when hearing it the first time. Yes, it's pretty clear that Howard Hughes was not neurotypical.

In 1956 Hughes hired Maheu again, this time for a much higher-stakes job - ensure Nixon remained Eisenhower's Vice President. Hughes didn't think much of Nixon but saw him as easy to influence, so he wanted to keep him in place in the White House. So Bob began a campaign of dirty tricks inside the Republican party, and against Nixon's main rival Harold Stassen, succeeding in keeping Nixon as Eisenhower's running mate in the '56 election.

It wasn't long after this that Hughes - who was already becoming reclusive - hired Maheu to be his alter-ego, the public face of Hughes, doing his bidding. He agreed, and spent the next 13 years or so handling various elements of Howard's business and personal affairs, from the lawsuit with TWA to dealing with the US government over the flying boat known as the Spruce Goose.

Indeed, it was Maheu who facilitated Hughes' move from Boston to Las Vegas, the purchase of the Desert Inn, where Howard lived for several years, and the acquiring of gaming licenses so Hughes could take over the Strip. Normally, the authorities would insist on meeting the applicant face to face, but Hughes was hiding out on the top floor of the hotel, seen only by bodyguards and a handful of close aides.

Johnny Roselli was involved in these deals, and was paid a commission on every purchase Hughes made in Vegas, but to get the licenses Maheu turned to a more legitimate source - the governor of Nevada, who persuaded the gaming commission that Maheu was a surrogate for Hughes and bingo, the licenses were awarded.

However, as the Hughes empire in Vegas expanded, his mental state deteriorated, resulting in fractures in his relationship with Bob. In 1968 Hughes became obsessed with nuclear bomb tests in Nevada, worrying about the fallout. As the biggest private defense contractor in the country he couldn't overtly appear anti-nuke or anti-government, so Maheu arranged for a scientific advisor on his payroll to work with Ban the Bomb and other groups. Howard even instructed him to meet with Lyndon Johnson, by that point the outgoing president, and to offer him a million dollar bribe if he banned such weapons testing before leaving office. Maheu did meet with Johnson, but did not offer him the bribe. A year or so later, once Nixon had taken office, Hughes again told Maheu to offer a million dollar bribe to try to get the nuclear testing stopped. Again, Maheu did not make the offer.

The downfall of Hughes, and how it affected his relationship with Maheu, plays out not unlike it does in American Tabloid. Howard's health deteriorated, there was a power struggle in his organisation with everyone vying for a piece of the action, then Hughes disappeared. He apparently signed a proxy allowing the lawyer in the TWA case to take control of his Nevada operations, and Maheu was fired.

Robert sued for wrongful termination and lost, but then Hughes gave a telephone interview to a small group of journalists in which he accused Maheu of stealing from him, so Bob sued for slander, eventually winning a substantial settlement. Hughes refused to appear at the trial, or even give a deposition, and was never seen in public again.

Robert Maheu and the CIA

Maheu's firm provided various services to the CIA, ranging from investigations to covert operations, as well as providing cover for CIA operatives, pretending they were working for his firm. Before we get into the Bay of Pigs and the Castro assassination plot, let's run through what else is known about Robert Maheu's work for the Agency.

Early in 1954 he was recruited by the CIA and paid $500 per month (this was later doubled, with entertainment, travel and other expenses added in on top). This was on the condition he move his firm to its own office, having previously shared office space with one Carmine Bellino, another ex-FBI agent who'd been involved with illegal wiretapping. Bellino was the personal gumshoe of Joe Kennedy, and was starting to do the same job for his sons. The CIA didn't want Maheu to have any association with the Kennedys or their PI with a history of dodgy behaviour.

Maheu was initially used for surveillance and surreptitious entries, including a break in at the apartment of a student in Washington DC. In the summer of 1954 Maheu was hired by 'British shipping interests' to spy on oil magnate Aristotle Onassis. He was negotiating a contract which would give him control of around 90% of the exports of oil from Saudi Arabia. Maheu and one of his associates prepared a paper outlining the potential damage to the US economy from the Onassis deal, which he presented to the National Security Council. He also briefed people at the State Department, including John Foster Dulles, as well as J Edgar Hoover and Vice President Richard Nixon. In August he also told the CIA about his mission, and the State Department, CIA and Nixon in the White House all approved and leant their support. Maheu was ordered to carry out surveillance and a campaign of dirty tricks to try to scupper the oil deal.

While the bug itself proved relatively useless, Maheu obtained details of the Saudi export contract via other means and published them in an Italian newspaper to try to generate opposition to the deal. Ultimately the agreement fell apart, there were lawsuits in which the 'British shipping interests', actually Greek shipping magnate Stavros Niarchos, revealed the CIA's involvement. The CIA's Maheu biography notes extensive files from the Agency's office of general counsel on this matter.

This project - known by the cryptonym LPHIDDEN - and Project TWIXT, another unknown operation, set up Maheu's long-running association with the Agency. But in 1956 he was accused of violating the Mann Act - the law against transporting young people across state lines for sexual purposes. Maheu had apparently done this to facilitate the provision of female company for a visiting foreign leader, supposedly with both CIA and State Department approval.

Maheu contacted the Agency to tell them the accusations were baseless, and that he would have his lawyer 'see that appropriate [redacted] officials would retract the charges'. Sure enough, the charges were dropped.

The following year, the CIA received information about President Sukarno of Indonesia apparently meeting a charming woman on a visit to Moscow and beginning an affair with her. The Agency conceived of an op named Happy Days, and asked Bob to rent a movie studio in California. He was to find an actor who looked like Sukarno and produce a film 'simulating an intimate relationship' - i.e. a fake sex tape of a foreign president.

According to the CIA's account, their Technical Division put together a backdrop to make it look like the tape was filmed in Moscow, and provided a suitable male employee and his fiance to star in the movie. After an extensive makeup course, Maheu himself applied the disguises to the two actors and then filmed then doing the deed. The idea was to either distribute the tape itself, or at least images from it on pamphlets, in Indonesia and try to undermine and embarrass Sukarno, or even imply he was in the love pocket of a Soviet temptress.

According to Maheu's version, he acquired the actors through a friend in the LA County Sheriff's department, who provided him with a blonde, female informant. For Sukarno, he used a guy who had been working for him in Tuscon. Likewise, Maheu's somewhat elaborate (and possibly untrue) account has the CIA telling him to use Bing and Larry Crosby to help make the film, because the Agency liked their politics and had already done security checks on them.

In both versions, Maheu completed the sex tape and sent it back to CIA headquarters, but the CIA say the project was never completed, the tape or images from it were never used. Maheu claims some still images were used, which helped undermine the Indonesian president, but provides no evidence for this. Exactly why the two accounts differ so much is not clear, but this wasn't the end of meddling with Sukarno.

Just as an aside, consider how the supposed Moscow hotel room prostitutes pissing on Trump video that probably doesn't exist and may have been deep faked in any case captured people's imaginations and drew headlines. And consider just how similar - almost identical - it was to this 1950s CIA operation.

Returning to Maheu, the following year the CIA launched Project HARPSTAR, again targeting Sukarno. They sought to exploit his 'weakness for Caucasian women' and got Maheu to source a suitable female. He came up with Florence Horn, a 'well to do widow', 35, who was considered 'highly intelligent and extremely attractive'. Not sure where he found her because women like that are in fairly short supply. She teamed up with a female CIA officer, under cover as her secretary. The idea was to get close to Sukarno, befriend him, maybe sleep with him, and try to ascertain his thinking and future plans.

They needed to come up with a plausible cover story, and given Florence's close association with what Maheu called 'the movie colony', he suggested they take that path. They came up with the idea of saying she was part of a location scout of Far East locations for a proposed movie version of Journey to the Center of the Earth, and put money into accounts of the Indonesian branch of 20th Century Fox in Jakarta, to provide a funding source for the operation.

In the event, Florence was unable to get close to Sukarno and gather intelligence on him, largely due to travel conflicts. But 20th Century Fox did produce a film version of Journey to the Center of the Earth, which came out in 1959.

The same year, Maheu was involved in yet another CIA operation, known as Project Norfolk. King Hussein of Jordan was on a visit to the United States and Maheu was tasked with procuring a bit of skirt. As a CIA memo records, 'The foreign official was especially desirous of female companionship during his Los Angeles visit and it was requested that appropriate arrangements be made through a controlled source of the [CIA's] Office [of Security] in order to assure a satisfied visit.'

Maheu turned to a 'prominent Los Angeles attorney' in order to arrange a party for the King where he could meet a nice young lady for the purposes of getting his royal end away. The lady he chose for the purpose was B-movie starlet Susan Cabot, perhaps best known for starring in The Wasp Woman. The name of the individual who arranged the party is redacted, but it is known that Hussein and Susan met at a party hosted by California oil baron Edwin Pauley. Whether or not it was Pauley who Maheu reached out to, whoever it was had previously been granted some kind of clearance by a division of the CIA.

There began an affair between Hussein and Cabot, which included spending a month together later that year in a mansion in Long Island rented for them by the CIA. Their correspondence was opened and read by the Agency and they were 'otherwise surveilled', though whether this involved any further state-sponsored sextapes is not known.

Hussein was impressed - also in 1959, he was considering hiring Maheu for Public Relations purposes, necessitating CIA approval, but the Agency felt they'd already carried out enough security checks on Bob and signed off on the idea. However, Susan's time of it did not turn out so rosy. Not unlike Marilyn Monroe and Mary Pinchot Meyer, her life ended in a grisly death. Cabot had one son - likely the product of her relationship with the King - and as she got older she became suicidally depressed (a common experience for performers of many kinds). One day she attacked her son, and he killed her in self-defence, later being prosecuted and jailed for involuntary manslaughter.

Then came the Cuba situation and the Mafia, which we'll pick up on in the next section. By 1966 things were starting to get a little frayed. Maheu was called to testify before a committee being run by Senator Edward Long, looking into illegal surveillance. This led to quite a lot of back and forth with the Senator, who knew that Maheu had been used as part of the Niarchos-Onassis situation, and had some kind of connection with Sam Giancana. The Senator basically agreed not to call Maheu before the committee if the CIA would confirm that they had used him for 'sensitive assignments'. Long said he wouldn't call any other witnesses that involved the CIA and wouldn't pursue specifics on the Maheu case.

An internal CIA assessment considered the pros and cons of accepting this deal, including the possibility that the Senator might use or leak their confirmation of Maheu's role. Likewise he could have his staffers dig into it, without using it in public committee hearings, or might tell other people on Capitol Hill and they might get onto the scent. Other cons of not accepting the deal were that Giancana would become involved, 'and we could not control Giancana' and 'our involvement in the Giancana situation would become known to other members of the Giancana family'. Were the CIA scared of the mob? They were also worried that Florence Horn, of Project HARPSTAR, 'could come into the picture' as a result of TV coverage of the Maheu affair.

So, in the end, they accepted the Senator's deal, Maheu never testified (at least until the Church Committee) and the whole thing continued to be covered up. However, the CIA put flags in Maheu's personnel file, saying that anything related to bugging or wiretapping had to be referred to higher-ups. Evidently, they were concerned about further exposure. But these flags were ignored, and in 1968 Maheu's son (who had also worked as a CIA employee), three executives at the Maheu company and one secretary were all granted security clearances. When the CIA discovered this towards the end of their working relationship with Maheu, several officers were reprimanded for overlooking the flags.

The CIA broke off their relationship with Maheu in 1971, because they didn't want to get caught up in the battle between Maheu and Howard Hughes. But the connection didn't end there - in 1976, following the death of Johnny Roselli (which we'll look at shortly), Maheu started writing a book about his experiences. One of the former CIA officers he contacted told the CIA about the book, and said he would try to obtain proof copies of the pages to ensure his own reputation, and the CIA's secrets, were protected. The CIA's response was to tell him that whatever he wished to do was a private matter, but also that of course they were interested in protecting sources and methods and other operational secrets. The book eventually came out in 1992.

Maheu, Castro and the Mob

Maheu expressed some degree of moral regret towards the end of his life about his work for the CIA, especially the operation to whack the Beard. But given his behaviour both before and after that, we can assume he didn't feel that way at the time.

According to a CIA memo summarising their contacts with Roselli, 'In August 1960, Mr. Richard M. Bissell approached Colonel Sheffield Edwards to determine if the Office of Security had assets that may assist in a sensitive mission requiring gangster-type action. The mission target was Fidel Castro.'

While the head of the Western Hemisphere Division, JC King, was made aware of the operation, only a tiny handful of people were brought into the loop. King was likely told because he'd wrote the notorious 'Castro must be eliminated' document a year earlier. As the Roselli memo says, none of 'the JMWAVE people' knew about it, i.e. the people operating the CIA station in South Florida working with the Cuban exiles, including Howard Hunt.

It goes on, 'Robert A. Maheu was contacted, briefed generally on the project, and requested to ascertain if he could develop an entrée into the gangster elements as the first step toward accomplishing the desired goal.

Mr. Maheu advised that he had met one Johnny Roselli on several occasions while visiting Las Vegas. He only knew him casually through clients, but was given to understand that he was a high-ranking member of the "syndicate" and controlled all of the ice-making machines on the Strip. Maheu reasoned that, if Roselli was in fact a member of the clan, he undoubtedly had connections leading into the Cuban gambling interests.

Maheu was asked to approach Roselli, who knew Maheu as a personal relations executive handling domestic and foreign accounts, and tell him that he had recently been retained by a client who represented several international business firms which were suffering heavy financial losses in Cuba as a result of Castro's action. They were convinced that Castro's removal was the answer to their problem and were willing to pay a price of $150,000 for its successful accomplishment. It was to be made clear to Roselli that the U. S. Government was not, and should not, become aware of this operation.'

Incidentally, before he got involved in trying to kill Castro, Johnny was a bodyguard for Harry Cohen, President of Columbia Pictures, and produced films for low budget movie outfit Monogram Studios. He got into the business via producer Bryan Foy - a man notorious for literally taking scripts for his existing movies and changing the names and locations then re-shooting them under a different title. Roselli worked for Foy at Eagle Lion Studios, and is credited on a bunch of early gangster flicks.

Roselli set up a meeting for Maheu with Sam Giancana and other mobsters in Miami, where they came up with the idea of slipping Fidel some poison pills, dropping them into his drink. This was attempted on three different occasions, one involving Castro's ex-girlfriend, but all failed.

When we turn to the CIA's internal history of the Bay of Pigs operation, we find an interesting twist - the missions were strictly compartmentalised. Not only did no one tell Roselli that he was working for the CIA - though he figured it out before long - no one told the CIA that Roselli was working for them.

That is to say, outside of Bissell, Allen Dulles, Bill Harvey, Sheff Edwards, Maheu and maybe one or two others, no one knew about the approach to the mafia. Volume 3 of the report says, 'the activities of Messrs. Bissell, Edwards, and Harvey, with Maheu and the Mafia remained strictly compartmented and isolated from the officially authorized Project JMARC - the Project which came to be known as the Bay of Pigs operation.' Indeed, no one told Jacob Esterline, the head of WH/4 (Western Hemisphere Division Branch 4), who was handling the Cuba thing.

But weren't we told that this sort of thing doesn't happen? Both in terms of rogue agents but more specifically in terms of operations overlapping without the people involved necessarily realising it? Why yes, yes we were. The CIA's own podcast constantly denies this kind of rogue agent off the books operation is even a thing, while Michelle Rigby Assad dismissed the idea of two CIA teams working different operations in the same place at the same time.

But here, with Maheu and the mob, we have an example of the people at the top of the CIA doing exactly that. And you can tell me things have changed since then, but if no one tells anyone else what they're doing, how do you deconflict multiple operations around the same target? If no one else knows, then they don't know that they need to do something about it. So nothing is done about it, and the two operations continue in parallel, one knowing nothing about the other. The new, improved CIA doesn't overcome this problem - if anything, the sheer size of the modern Agency has made it worse.

But what happened to Roselli? In June and September 1975, Johnny testified before the Church Committee on Operation Mongoose and the plot to kill Castro. A few days before his first appearance, an unknown assailant killed Sam Giancana at his home, which caused Roselli to move back to Miami, having lived in Las Vegas and Los Angeles for years.

In April 1976 Roselli was called back to the Committee to discuss an apparent conspiracy to kill JFK, but his testimony was fairly bland. Three months later they recalled him to ask more questions, but it was too late - he had disappeared. Days later, he was found in a 55-gallon drum floating in Dumfoundling Bay, near Miami. He had been strangled, shot and had his legs cut off.

Robert Maheu and Watergate

We should also talk about the connection between Robert Maheu and Watergate. And before we do that I will say that if you're going to set up a fast buck disaster tourism submarine business, don't put the suffix 'gate' in the name. It's a recipe for scandal.

In 1974 the CIA undertook several file reviews to find material related to Watergate. The hearings the previous year had led to impeachment hearings in the first months of '74, and the Agency kept getting embarrassed by testimony and media coverage. According to the review guidelines, the purpose was 'to the extent possible to ensure that Agency management is aware of all such material in our files and that there will be no future "surprises" in this regard.'

The list of individuals to use as a basis for the file search included those related to the Watergate break in and the cover-up, so the five burglars, Hunt, Liddy and White House figures like Colson, Erlichmann, Dean and so on. There is also a list of topics including the 1972 election, the Mexican money laundering that financed the Plumbers' operations, the break in at Ellsberg's psychiatrist's office. Then, there's Howard Hughes and Robert Maheu.

But what did they have to do with Watergate? While Maheu's activities for the Agency in many way prefigured what the White House attempted with the Plumbers, he wasn't involved in those operations. Part of this relates to Maheu's past running dirty tricks either to help Nixon during the 50s, or black ops authorised by Nixon when he was vice-president. Another element of this is that Hughes donated large sums to Nixon and his re-election campaign, and Maheu testified at the hearings that he gave $50,000 in cash in a briefcase to Nixon's vice-president Hubert Humphrey.

Then there's the $100,000 given to Nixon personally, not to his campaign. This was also delivered by Maheu, via Nixon's friend Bebe Rebozo. At this point - 1968 - Larry O'Brien worked for the Hughes organisation, having been hired by Maheu. A couple of years later and he was national chairman of the Democratic Party, and the theory is that the break-in was to try to find out if he knew about the dodgy money from Hughes to Nixon.

Then, there was the attempted break-in on the safe of Hank Greenspun, publisher of the Las Vegas Sun. Hank had a large collection of memos between Maheu and Hughes, presumably covering the dodgy money given to Nixon. Around the time the Plumbers were discussing breaking into his safe, someone tried - but failed. This attempted safe-cracking was among the topics included in the CIA's Watergate file review.

Then, there's the 'whole Bay of Pigs thing'.

Immediately following the arrest of the burglars, Nixon told Bob Haldeman to go and see Richard Helms, director of the CIA, and get the FBI to back off on the Watergate investigation. Nixon suggested that there was a danger that Howard Hunt might start shooting his mouth off, and unravel the 'whole Bay of Pigs thing'. Apparently, Helms became quite upset at this, and refused Nixon's order to pressure the FBI. So Nixon fired him.

The implication of this phrase is that it relates to the JFK assassination, that Nixon (who was aware of and had signed off on the CIA-Maheu-Mafia-Castro plot) believed this had somehow got turned around after the failure at the Bay of Pigs. Instead of assassinating Castro, the CIA and the mob assassinated Kennedy. Whether this is true or not, it does seem that Nixon believed it, and hence his message to Helms was a coded threat about exposure of their role in the murder of JFK.

Naturally, the CIA files do not make it clear exactly why they were concerned with Maheu-related exposures, but it has to be one or some combination of these reasons.

Maheu and Mission: Impossible

Where this story gets a bit weird is that Maheu's contract work as a covert, deniable operative for a shadowy organisation was canonised in a television show - while he was still working for the CIA.

To be clear, Robert Maheu never worked on Mission: Impossible but the similarities are quite obvious. We should also acknowledge that the series was a hodgepodge of ideas from other places, not just Robert A Maheu and Associates. The guitar-based theme song is taken from James Bond. The creators of an earlier show about a team of private detectives - 21 Beacon Street - sued the producers of Mission: Impossible for plagiarism. Even the idea of an audio taped instruction that self-destructs after playing once comes from the spy novels Saigon and Danger Key.

Nonetheless, the stakes in many Mission: Impossible episodes are far beyond those usually encountered by private detective firms. In the pilot the mission involves nuclear warheads on a Caribbean island ruled by a dictator. The IMF team have to break into a vault in the dictator's hotel, where the warheads are being kept. This is obviously inspired by the Cuban Missile Crisis, and to some extent the novel Topaz, written by a French CIA asset. By comparison, the opening episode of 21 Beacon Street is about protecting one witness from the Mob, and fooling them into thinking the witness is already dead.

So Mission: Impossible (the 60s TV show) is halfway between an episodic private detective show and a spy serial, much like Maheu's professional life was. There are even assassinations organised or provoked by the IMF team using proxies. They rarely, if ever, just assassinate people themselves but they're masters at tricking their enemies to kill each other, or manipulating third parties to actually do the murdering.

And all this appeared on the small screen before Maheu testified at the Church Committee. Evidently, the producers of Mission: Impossible knew a lot more than they let on. A major hint comes from the fact that two of the writers also wrote the screenplay for The CIA, a film project which the real CIA hated, and was never made. Why would two magicians turned screenwriters for a show that never, ever mentions the CIA write a script about the CIA?

Another major hint comes via the analysis of Bruce Little, who wrote a journal article back in 2004 titled Mission Impossible: The CIA and the Cult of Covert Action in the Middle East. In it, he tracks the comparisons between Mission: Impossible storylines and real CIA operations, particularly in the Middle East.

The article opens with a quote from season four, episode 11 titled The Brothers, which bears stunning similarity with the 1953 CIA coup in Iran that brought the Shah back to power:

> Good morning, Mr. Phelps. The man you're looking at is King Selim III of Qamadan, a good friend of the West. Unknown to the world, the king has been imprisoned somewhere for over six months by his younger brother, Prince Samandal. With the king in his power, Samandal now controls the huge oil royalties which are Qamadan's main source of revenue … Your mission, Jim, should you decide to accept it, is to rescue King Selim and restore him to his throne.

He goes on, 'One early episode, for example, saw the Impossible Mission Force free an Eastern European cleric, who resembled Hungary's anticommunist Cardinal Jozef Mindszenty, from a maximum security prison behind the Iron Curtain. Two seasons later, millions of Americans watched Phelps's team track down a bearded Che Guevara look-alike who, like the legendary Cuban guerrilla leader, died trying to export his revolution to other countries. "Mission: Impossible matter-of-factly offered the premise," Patrick White observed in his 1991 postmortem on the action-adventure series, “that the United States government sponsored a group of saboteurs” who, in the course of waging covert Cold War, “could-and did-lie, cheat, steal, falsify media, hold persons illegally, falsely incriminate, destroy the property of innocent people, plot (though never personally execute) assassinations, and break any civil and criminal code that stood in their way.”’

However, I can find no direct evidence that the CIA had anything to do with Mission: Impossible the TV show, either the 60s version or the reboot from 1988. Though the pilot episode of the reboot does feature an assassin named Scorpio who is killing IMF team members. Kinda like in the film Scorpio, which was the first ever to film at CIA headquarters.

So, it’s a little tricky to figure out exactly what happened here. Was the production of Mission: Impossible, a show about off the books operations carried out by contract agents working for a secretive organisation, itself an off the books operation carried out by contract agents working for a secretive organisation?

Yet another clue comes in the fact that it’s not clear who IMF are working for - the CIA are never mentioned as their employers, indeed it’s not even totally certain that their instructions come from a government agency, rather than another private organisation.

But in 1996, that all changed, when the first big Mission: Impossible movie came out. In it, it’s clear that the IMF are working as contract agents for the CIA, just like Maheu, and they get embroiled in some kind of internal beef which results in two IMF teams being sent to the same mission location, and several of Tom Cruise’s friends end up dead. I would hope by this point in the episode I don’t have to break down the constituent parts of this storyline and how it relates to everything we’ve already talked about, so I’ll trust you to figure that bit out.

But I do want to highlight how this is another normalisation of black ops - in the 60s and the 80s the CIA were still hiding, skulking around in the shadows. That they were employing these contract agents couldn't be openly stated on TV. Even a decade after Maheu's testimony, they were still publicly maintaining the fiction that all this never happened.

But by the 90s, with the Cold War over, they had to change their approach. They had to own black ops and make them look sexy, hence the explicit relationship between the CIA and IMF in the 1996 movie. But also the removal of dialogue about the Church Committee's discovery of massive, unrelenting CIA corruption.

Janet Reno and Eisenhower Result and Free Mason tied person

Here is how the headlines have run.

retrieved from JFK Library and copied or modified to here

https://clui.org/newsletter/spring-summer-2001/open-house-nevada-test-site

On the night and early hours of February 20-21, 1954, while on a 'vacation' to Palm Springs, California, President Dwight Eisenhower went missing and allegedly was taken to Edwards Air force base for a secret meeting.

When he showed up the next morning at a church service in Los Angeles, reporters were told that he had to have emergency dental treatment the previous evening and had visited a local dentist.

The dentist later appeared at a function that evening and presented as the 'dentist' who had treated Eisenhower. The missing night and morning has subsequently fueled rumors that Eisenhower was using the alleged dentist visit as a cover story for an extraordinary event.

The event is possibly the most significant that any American President could have conducted: an alleged 'First Contact' meeting with extraterrestrials at Edwards Air Force Los Angeles base (previously Muroc Airfield), and the beginning of a series of meetings with different extraterrestrial races that led to a ‘treaty’ that was eventually signed.

This astonishing First Contact event, if it occurred, will experience its 50th anniversary on February 20-21, 2004.

This paper explores the evidence that the First Contact meeting had occurred with extraterrestrials with a distinctive ‘Nordic’ appearance, the likelihood of an agreement having been spurned with this ‘Nordic race’, the start of a series of meetings that led to a treaty eventually being signed with a different extraterrestrial race dubbed the ‘Greys’, and the motivations of the different extraterrestrial races involved in these treaty discussions.

The paper will further examine why these events were kept secret for so long, the significance of the 50th anniversary of Eisenhower’s meeting with extraterrestrials, and whether an official disclosure announcement is likely in the near future.

"Aliens" is often how Scottish Rites and other Free Masons describe themselves in a small code speak alluding to the fact its inter-wed business and global businesses and historical civic and community structures are a layer over the Nation-States of Earth, a 33 mile overlook race of people who withhold from the public how interconnected the ties are among the global elites.

The War State by Micheal Swanson

Ed Donegan asserts (and others) that Free Masonry gained popularity on military bases in the 1950s Cold War and Eisenhower listened to the likes of Richard Nixon is V.P., Averell Harriman, the Rockefeller's, Donald Barr, the OSS and CIA and British Intelligence, the Vatican, James Jesus Angleton, J. Edgar Hoover, and likely many more to conclude as Communist were trying to gain control of Europe the captains of industry Free Masons were an important infrastructure to embrace and re-inforce as part of the Marshall Plan.

Jane Reno whose uncle was a judge in Austria Germany seems to have been a part of that if clues about her families birthdays (tell-tale dog whistles) are not misleading.

Her attack on WACO was said to be retaliation against Koresh himself a creation of MKULTRA for specific purposes Koresh would not act on thus he was silenced in a manufactured standoff with military grade attack weapons led by Janet Reno.

The attack on the WACO compound would lead Timothy McVeiw to bomb the Murrough building, Murrough as Free Masonry "Knight" here roving the USA.

In fact the attack on the World Trade Center and other targest appear world hostitlity towards the imperialist mechanisms of US foreign policy of global elites controlling to much of the world and its resources and people.

Eisenhower but not Nixon would regret the power the Military Industrial Complex and CIA gained.

Col Prouty Was A Revealor

Online Version https://newwilliamcooperpatrioticsovereignpress.com/col-prouty-was-a-revealor/

Prouty was sure Nixon was behind Indonesia and elsewhere and though Bush might have been part of Operation Zapata and the Barbara ship used in it.

Understand why Prouty was a Doubty in some ways. Sorry for the meme but if you look at what the CIA says it can explain one thing and I can explain the other; two reasons Prouty could as an assassinations expert look over the events of Dealey Plaza and recognize use of flethces from an umbrella etc., because he had been part of those teams the Pentagon Office of Special Operations (with General Edward Lansdale) as both later moved over the the newly created Defense Intelligence Agency the JKF and McNamara completed standing up, a global scale operation that replaced the formerly CIA operation of ATSUGI that was in function, location, and name limited to Asia, Tokyo, Soviet Union, Guatemala, and Indonesia working out of Okinawa and other locations and even Guatemala was a geographic stretch but E. Howard Hunt was moved from Latin American to ATSUGI around 1951 1952 and his son St. John Hunt would be born to Dorothy Hunt the former assistant to Averell Harriman the E. Howard Hunt met and married in CIA (Office of Policy Coordination and OSS) work.

The US Army Air Corp Col Prouty was part of a security detail arriving in Japan in 1949 and remained there growing in intelligence community stature already an adjunct form of officer who ferried high ranking brass aroudn the world for secret meetings and being a part of intel and security while doing so.

Prouty was professional military. Who he worked with is part of what he knew but also part of what he did NOT know. It went like this. Prouty and Lansdale worked togother Prouty of lesser rank but closer to Senator and President JFK and these Roman Catholics. Lansdale was a full general and tied into Charles Douglas Jackson who might not have been military at all but civilial CIA.

According to the CIA and it is quoted from in New William Cooper books Prouty was "a Pentagon official responsible for supplying the CIA military assets" or something like that language. Per Prout he would meet with Allan Dulles, meet with Charles Cabell of the USAf, etc., and get the military needs met of the CIA.

On the other side of General Cabell, Genral Lansdale, and others like Bissle JR., and Allen Dulles were the CIA recruits (Brigade 2506) and front companies like Zapata Oil, Twowbly Aircraft, Bermuda Dunes Airport, Ray Ryan, Ernie Dunlevie, and Murder Inc., such as Myers Lansky and Chauncey Marvin Holt and Charles Harrelson.

Prouty SUSPECTED George H.W. Bush had been involved but the CIA likely knew the Roman Catholic Connection of MacNamara, Prouty, and the Kennedy family were faily strong and left most of these out of the loop. Prouty could guess at some of the work on the other side of Lansdale and suspect Lansdale himself but the CIA (from all sources of history on this) were trying to keep the Kennedy admin out of the loop on overthrow activities and PRouty was also the Breifing Officer to JFK at times I think as I have been reading this.

The second problem I assert is that James Donegan had a son who failed childhood and developmental (school, social) progress and the Kennedy Prouty loyalty to the Donegan's who had been under the protective and assistive wing of the Kennedy family were betrayed by the CIA for its real family of Donegan's to promote instead other DNA recipients from Donegan atomic testing DNA samples that went on to become elites in the USA Barrack Obama Jr is one of them and the Bush Barr Mueller Burns Wray families were probably a part of that CIA activity that was torn apart in the USA as Republic of Ireland experienced troubles with Norther Ireland.

The Changing Language of New William Cooper series books and Col Prouty Series Books into Terror Cell

The United States has fallen to a terrorist cell that operates in cover budgets and covert activities with or without Congressional approval and without Constitutionality.

The Cell operates inside itself in proximity to me in that it places gambit females near me often in places that I have no control or visibility over though the presumption is that I do and am conjoined the the victims alleged to my conduct. Similarly inside that cell is professional models in out-calls, etc., sometimes having left Victoria Secrets stores, etv.,

Those inside the cell assert Cell actions are tied to me rather than near me but I and others have shown the cell operations by adding impersonations of me at key moments (confrontations of me) while I am outside the cell but close enough as in most matters I am aware of the cell. All the activities of the Cell are part of the cell. The Membership Brain of Intent is the Gambit, the Agency or Agents operationg the Cell, the forgeries and impersonators, the racketeering using the Cell as a tap into my trust fund assets and inciting other hostile acts as well.

Actors asserting through suggestive activities make it appeart I am tied to the false flags the cell is conducting. ANTIFA and several other groups at times may in the cell as Mexican Mafia and other Protection Racket groups are in their patrolds against (false flag) misconduct.

I and Prouty assert this is the Deep State for me Ted Gunderson is the lense I look through, his allegations, and I add more in as well such as Judge Roll, Justice Scalia, Navy Yard shooting, and much moore. Mark Lane had a similar global perspective on this.

This might be ONLY theory (that does match all the facts) if it not were for the Theory being bolstered by forenisc evidence and deathbed confessions fo terror cell members like the Meery Ferrel Foundation assert as does Spatacus Educational, etc.,

The Terror Cell can and do order and carry out black oppps iside the USA with foreign support easily and involves cartel racketeering, etc.,

Agents in Place

Jen Moore who I think I met in custody and have a bit of a mutual crush with descriobed the system fo Agents in Place that Jim Garrison calls the Proletaterain Gaurd, a term of Coups. The idea is that the Coup is protected by Agents of the Coup who are rercruited from the Government rannks or placed their or are Agents of Influece in commercial media who protec the coup.

Military Soldiers and CIA, Prouty, Bowen, and others out George H.W. Bush and Cheney and others as NWO Crime Family along with Rockefeller, E. Howard Hunt

Prouty repeatedly recounts seeing Lansdale photographed at JKF assassination.

Giamarco 1998

WASHINGTON - With the quick crack of gunshots in Dallas's Dealey Plaza that terminated the life and presidency of John Fitzgerald Kennedy continues to reverberate 33 years later. But the shock of the assassination is now overshadowed by dismay over the ruthless cover-up of what may be the greatest unsolved crime of the century.

Today the 1964 report of the Warren commission reads like a fairy tale. As the lone assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was ruled to have fired three bullets from a rusted Manlicher-Carcano rifle with a misaligned scope in just 5.6 seconds, one bullet missing the target leaving just two to cause eight wounds to Kennedy and Texas Governor John Connally.

When Prouty returned to the Pentagon where he had access to newspaper, special reports and hot wires from around the world, he was stuck again by the "packaged" Oswald story.

"I knew immediately the story was written before the shots were even fired … Oswald was a designated patsy whether he shot or not."

Prouty was shocked by security breaches along the Presidents motorcade route especially Dealey Plaza. "The Secret Service should have men all along the route," he says. "Especially in a hostile city like Dallas."

One of his routine duties had he been in Washington would be to arrange additional security in Texas.

"I checked back and I found out that someone had told 112th Intelligence Group at the Army Headquarters at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio to "stand down" that day over the protests of the unit commander Col. Reich. When I talked to a member of that army unit later, I was told that the commander had offered the services of his unit for protection for the entire trip through Texas, and he was point-blank and categorically refused and there were hot words between agencies. Even Secret Service men from Fort Worth were told that they would not he needed in Dallas."

That's not all. Those wide-open and empty windows over looking Dealey Plaza were another major security breach. So was slowing the Presidents car to 12 kilometers per hour. To take that unusual 90 degree curve at Huston and Elm street - a last minute addition to the motorcade route.

"An assassination like this doesn't happen with some kid shooting by himself", states Prouty. "I mean my God, he wouldn't have made it out of the building alive. It would have been over right there on the front steps of the building. But there were very few police anywhere." "The streets should have been filled with military. The military were all trained for this. If you see a man open an umbrella, just go stand beside him. And just about that time, the President's coming and he moves that umbrella, you knock him down. A man with a coat over his arm, or holding a rolled up newspaper, you stand beside him. You watch everything. We take guys down weeks ahead of time and study the area. You have snipers covering the area, and the moment a window goes up, you re on the radio. None of that was in place for Dallas."

It was in 1967 that Prouty discovered one of the most explosive proofs of CIA involvement, buried within a series of six photos snapped within minutes of the assassination. The infamous photos show three 'tramps' arrested behind the grassy knoll being marching through Dealey Plaza by two uniformed officers. The three men remain a mystery-no arrest records were made and no names were taken. For years it was speculated that two were CIA agents E. Howard Hunt and Frank Sturgis, who would later gain notoriety for their part in the Watergate break in.

"What caught my eye right away was the fact that some other person is in the first photo walking in the opposite direction." says Prouty, singling out one particular shot. "Here he is, during one of the most important events in our history, casually walking past two police with guns and the tramps, not even looking at what could've been the killers of the President. This is all within 30 minutes or less after the assassination. It's unbelievable. And note that these tramps have not been handcuffed either, and a civilian is allowed to walk within inches of them."

Then Prouty looked even more closely at the photo. "I was stunned to realize that this unconcerned bystander was none other than my long-time friend and associate Ed Lansdale."

"Right away, since he was there, I just knew that he must be concerned with the cover story. That was his gift …his specialty."

Gen. Edward G. Lansdale was a celebrated CIA man who masterminded various assassination plots for the CIA and was heavily involved in Vietnam. He was CIA, but worked under the cover of an air force colonel. He and Prouty had worked closely together for several years before his resignation ("a paper resignation to comply with his CIA 'cover' assignment") in October 1963. At the time of the assassination, Lansdale was supposed to be visiting his son in San Antonio, but a claim check found in his personal papers places him at a hotel used by the presidential entourage the night before the assassination.

“I personally have no doubt that the photo is of Lansdale,” affirms Prouty. “I knew him from 1952 in the Philippines to the time of his death. He was one of my neighbors.”

Prouty sent copies of the photos to a friend - another high-ranking Kennedy-era officer who also knew Lansdale.

Edward Paul Donegan contributes a few definitions Litivenko researched

The Secret Team of big money and wet division in business by the most powerful in society, often detente contractors or in the oil business ranges from Rockefeller, Joseph Kennedy Sr, the Bush family, E Howard Hunt, Howard Hughes, and many others.

This term of Secret Team of colluding mafia backed businesses for the good of the west is the killer of JFK and assailants on my own family a family wronged by thee vary mafia crime boss criminals.

Perhaps the most shocking book written this century about treason committed by the highest leaders within the US government. This disturbing and thought-provoking expose is written by Brigadier General Russell S Bowen who has courageously come forward with the truth about his association with the OSS (Office of Security Services) and his 'drug running' activities on behalf of the 'secret' government which involves the highest US ‘leaders’ and which few Americans know anything about. The most startling details are revealed regarding Bowen’s clandestine work including his work under the orders of George Bush.

Vocabulary.com retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Cartel of a Wet Division run State

The origin of the usage of ‘cartel’ for entrepreneurial co-operations was the German speaking region of Central Europe. Already in the 1870, ‘Cartell’ came up for railway companies who unified their technical standards, pooled their stocks of railroad cars and coordinated their time schedules.[3]

A cartel is a group of independent market participants who collude with each other in order to improve their profits and dominate the market from non Cartel actions state of existence.

Opec is a cartel and the USA has formed Wet Division system among Western oil interested to act as a competing cartel which can act on the OPEC cartel using illegal means which the cartel members England and the USA mainly will keep intact by keeping illegal Wet Division acts including bring down Seal Team SIx and sleeper agents in the USA secret and co-ordinated.

Cartels are usually associations in the same sphere of business, and thus an alliance of rivals. Most jurisdictions consider it anti-competitive behavior and have outlawed such practices.

This book asserts a Social Justice collective of favored and numerous minority classes such as gay, Hispanic, Black, or other such as Religious can gain rights to my DNA via cartel operating as organized crime in allegiance with each other against a DNA high value victim, me and the cartel splits along aversaril social jusice lines between People of Color and Affirmative Action cartel against an Establishment White male. Allegences in ethics support cohesion in the cartel for a group profit strategy

MKULTRA is a co-operation long term plan organized by the CIA and England for the Middle East North Africa, Ukranian, and other expansion, and profits of the plausibly deniable cartels will be protected by CIA acts including Wet Division silencing of those whou would expose the secret plans Cartel behavior includes price fixing, bid rigging, and reductions in output.

This book asserts to use my DNA on the black market funding criminals my DNA is used to bid for Dominatrixes or plea deals though the bid is rigged because the DNA is offered via a person tied to my identity, thus accapted as me, but tied to my identity in an unreliable way such as having furniture of clothing once mine which I no longer possess.

Honor Among Cartel Thieves

Cartels Encompass Competitors but constrain competition within the cartel by rules of the cartel

Today Democrat Party Members and Republic Party Members (DNC and GOP) will argue, frankly, piss on each others toes and angrily, but keep the CIA secret of the CIA cartel US and Western political leadership class participate in.

Cartel party theory

The concept of the cartel party was first proposed in 1992 as a means of drawing attention to the patterns of inter-party collusion or cooperation rather than competition; and as a way of emphasising the influence of the state on party development. In definitional terms, the cartel party is a type of party that emerges in advanced democratic polities and that is characterised by the interpenetration of party and state and by a pattern of inter-party collusion.

Bush Cheney, H E B Edward Butt, Clintons, Rockefellers, Rothschild's, Windsors, others know or are part of Cartel activity and may be profiteers from cartel activities which propell them in politics and Main Stream Media influence

Business owned by Cartel connected or Cartel friendly interests may allow cartel connected requests to be allowed by their businesses such as hit peices on people in the media, fake whiplish type claims on company property, etc.

Kleptocracy (from Greek “power, rule”) is a government whose corrupt leaders (kleptocrats) use political power to appropriate the wealth of their nation, typically by embezzling or misappropriating government funds at the expense of the wider population.[1][2]

Oligarchy

is a form of power structure in which power rests with a small number of people. These people may be distinguished by nobility, wealth, education, corporate, religious, political, or military control. Such states are often controlled by families who pass their influence from one generation to the next, but inheritance is not a necessary condition of oligarchy.

Narco-state

Narco-state (also narco-capitalism or narco-economy[a]) is a political and economic term applied to countries where all legitimate institutions become penetrated by the power and wealth of the illegal drug trade.[2] The term was first used to describe Bolivia following the 1980 coup of Luis García Meza which was seen to be primarily financed with the help of narcotics traffickers.[3] Examples of some narco-states are described below. Other well-known examples are Mexico, Colombia, and Guinea-Bissau, where drug cartels produce, ship and sell drugs such as cocaine and marijuana.

Mafia state

In politics, a mafia state is a state system where the government is tied with organized crime to the degree when government officials, the police, and/

or military became a part of the criminal enterprise.[1][2] According to US diplomats, the phrase "mafia state" was coined by Alexander Litvinenko[3] Aleksandr Valterovich Litvinenko 30 August 1962 or 4 December 1962 Voronezh, Russian SFSR, Soviet Union Died >23 November 2006 (aged 43 or 44)

In 1991, Litvinenko was promoted to the Central Staff of the Federal Counterintelligence Service, specialising in counter-terrorist activities and infiltration of organised crime.

Poisoning of Alexander Litvinenko

[image]

Late on November 22, Litvinenko's heart failed; the official time of death was 9:21 pm at University College Hospital in London.[29]

My research indicates the Mafia State he alleged the USA and perhaps Russia to be, is Cartel State, probbably the Cali Cartel operated by Geroge H.W. Bush, nd probably uses for profit cartel economics to kill through the cia rather than mere bar fights of a normal citizen which people get arrested for.

CIA Black Budget money tied to Epstein and many others and Middle East North Africa and Ukraine deals are a constant source of dirty money, dirty politicians, dirty deads, and often attempts at evading criminal liability by targted hits to suppress journalism and witnesses to the existing CIA assassinations

Sergei Magnitsky

Sergei Leonidovich Magnitsky (Russian: Серге́й

Леони́дович Магни́тский, IPA: [sʲɪrˈgʲej lʲɪɐ ˈnʲidəvʲɪtɕ mɐgˈnʲitskʲɪj]; 8 April 1972 - 16 November 2009) was a Ukrainian-born Russian tax advisor.[1] His arrest in 2008 and subsequent death after eleven months in police custody generated international media attention and triggered both official and unofficial inquiries into allegations of fraud, theft and human rights violations in Russia.

Magnitsky alleged there had been large-scale theft from the Russian state, sanctioned and carried out by Russian officials. He was arrested and eventually died in prison seven days before the expiration of the one-year term during which he could be legally held without trial.[5][6] In total, Magnitsky served 358 days in Moscow's Butyrka prison. He developed gall stones, pancreatitis, and a blocked gall bladder, and was denied medical care.

Human Traffickig in children, fertilizations, and the Magniski act, stolen plutonium and hits tied to US nuclear facilities. - Jamison Reed Firestone (born 1966) is an American attorney. Firestone graduated from Tulane University in 1988 and Tulane Law School in 1991.[1] In August 1991, shortly before the fall of the Soviet Union, he moved to Moscow, Russia and co-founded the law firm Firestone Duncan. He fled Russia in August 2009 following the arrest of his employee Sergei Magnitsky, who died in prison, after eleven months' incarceration without trial

Ted Gunderson will speak about Bowen being one of his Confidential Informant and also referer to Bowen as friend he corresponded with after the evidence plant.

AFTER 45-YEAR ODYSSEY, INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER BELIEVES HE KNOWS WHERE THE LEGENDARY TEAMSTERS BOSS IS BURIED Published: uly 8th, 2020 - By Dan E. Moldea

ROLLAND MCMASTER

On August 5, my first full day on the job with NBC News, I received an introduction to an associate of Rolland McMaster, a Teamsters official who had stood shoulder-to-shoulder with Hoffa since their earliest days in the union. However, in recent years, Hoffa and McMaster had a huge falling out over control of Teamsters Local 299 in Detroit, Hoffa's home local. Consequently, they became mortal enemies.

In fact, my new source alleged that McMaster had played a key role in the disposal of Hoffa's body six days earlier - but he could not prove it. NBC authorized me to pursue the McMaster lead but put me on a short leash, giving me a limited amount of time to get results.

With the help of my friends and sources in the rank-and-file reform movement within the Teamsters, I received introductions to several key players in the Hoffa drama. I quickly learned that since 1971, McMaster, an international organizer, had directed a 32-member Teamsters organizing unit that was traveling around the country, shaking down trucking companies in return for labor peace.

The Irishman retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

After the 1960 election of John F. Kennedy, Russell is thrilled while Hoffa is furious. Kennedy's brother, Robert Kennedy, who he appointed Attorney General, forms a "Get Hoffa" squad to bring down Hoffa, who is eventually arrested and convicted in 1964 for jury tampering. While Hoffa is in prison, his replacement as Teamsters president, Frank "Fitz" Fitzsimmons, misuses the union's pension fund and gives interest-free loans to the Mafia. Hoffa's relationship with Tony Pro, himself arrested for extortion, also deteriorates beyond repair when Hoffa refuses to do a favor for him. Hoffa has his sentence commuted by President Richard Nixon in 1971, although he is forbidden from partaking in any Teamsters activities until 1980

Despite his parole terms, Hoffa undertakes a plan to reclaim his power atop the Teamsters. Hoffa's growing disrespect for other Teamster leaders and his intention to separate the union from the Mafia begins to worry Russell. During a dinner in Sheeran's honor in October 1973, Russell tells Sheeran to confront Hoffa and warn him that the heads of the crime families are displeased with his behavior. Hoffa then informs Sheeran that he "knows things" that Russell and the dons of other families are unaware of and claims that what he knows makes him untouchable, for if anything ever happened to him, they would all end up in prison.

In 1975, while on their way to Bill's daughter's wedding, Russell tells Sheeran that the dons have become fed up with Hoffa and have sanctioned his murder. Reluctantly, Russell informs Sheeran that he has been chosen as the triggerman, knowing he might otherwise try to warn or save Hoffa. The two drive to a private airport where Sheeran boards a plane to Detroit. Hoffa, who had scheduled a meeting at a local restaurant with Tony Pro and Anthony Giacalone, is surprised to see Sheeran arrive late with Hoffa's unsuspecting foster son Chuckie O'Brien and loan shark Sally Bugs. They advise Hoffa that the meeting was moved to a house where Tony Pro and Russell are waiting for them, and drive him over. Entering the house, Hoffa finds it empty and realizes that he has been set up. He turns around to leave, at which point Sheeran shoots him dead at point-blank range before leaving the gun atop his body near the entrance. After Sheeran departs, two other mobsters wrap up the body and cremate it in secret.

JFK: The CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy Paperback - Illustrated, April 1, 2011 by L. Fletcher Prouty
Amazon.com

[image]

L. Fletcher Prouty retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Early Life and Education

Prouty attended the University of Massachusetts Amherst (then known as Massachusetts State College), and on September 20, 1936 he was elected President of his freshman class, "the Class of 1940," succeeding Daniel G. Lacey.[6][7][3] He later pursued his graduate studies in banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Graduate School of Banking.

Government service

World War II

Prouty was commissioned as a reserve 2nd lieutenant in the cavalry on June 9, 1941, and began his military career with the 4th Armored Division in Pine Camp, New York. He was promoted to 1st lieutenant on February 1, 1942. He transferred to the United States Army Air Forces on November 10, 1942, and earned his pilot wings that same month. He arrived in British West Africa in February 1943 as a pilot with Air Transport Command.[citation needed]

In the summer of 1943 he was the personal pilot of General Omar Bradley, General John C. H. Lee and General C. R. Smith (founder and president of American Airlines), among others. He flew the U.S. Geological Survey Team in Saudi Arabia, October 1943, to confirm oil discoveries in preparation for the Cairo Conference. He was assigned to special duties at the Cairo Conference and the Tehran Conference November-December 1943. He flew Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese delegation (T. V. Soong's delegates) to Tehran.[citation needed]

An important mission he was involved in was the evacuation of the British commandos made famous by the novel Guns of Navarone involved in the Battle of Leros from Leros to Palestine. He was promoted to captain on February 1, 1944. In 1945 he was transferred to the Southwest Pacific and flew in New Guinea, Leyte and was on Okinawa at the end of war. He landed near Tokyo at the time of the surrender with the first three planes carrying General Douglas MacArthur's bodyguard troops. He flew out with American POWs.[citation needed]

Post-war service

After the war, Prouty accepted an assignment from the U.S. Army in September 1945 to inaugurate the ROTC program at Yale University, where he also taught during each scholastic year from 1946 to 1948. This timeline intersects with the years that George Bush[disambiguation needed] and William F. Buckley, Jr. also spent at Yale. Prouty fondly recalled Buckley at that time in his role as editor of the Yale Daily News, and Prouty later told an interviewer in 1989 that he had written for Buckley on several occasions.

In 1950 he transferred to Colorado Springs to build Air Defense Command. From 1952 to 1954 he was assigned to Korean War duties in Japan, where he served as Military Manager for Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during the post-war U.S. occupation.

In 1955 he was assigned to the coordination of operations between the fledgling U.S. Air Force and the CIA.[1] As a result of a CIA commendation for this work he was awarded the Legion of Merit by the U.S. Air Force, promoted to colonel, and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense.[citation needed]

Following the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency and termination of the OSO by Secretary Robert McNamara, Prouty was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and charged with the creation a similar organization on a global scale.

From 1962 to 1963 he served as Chief of Special Operations with the Joint Staff. In an chance encounter with Edward Lansdale in the hallways of the Pentagon, a “month or two before” the assassination (as Prouty tells it), Lansdale informed Prouty he had arranged for him [Prouty] to accompany a group of VIPs to the South Pole from November 10 to 23, in the capacity of Military Escort officer.[9]

The ostensible purpose of the trip was the activation a nuclear power plant at the United States Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, to provide heat, light, and sea water desalination.[citation needed] Prouty later described his confusion at the unusual assignment, but he expected the job to be a “paid vacation” and accepted the task.

Prouty retired in 1964 as a colonel in the U.S. Air Force. As recognition of his long and distinguished career in the service of his country, he was awarded one of the first three Joint Service Commendation Medals by General Maxwell D. Taylor, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Colonel L. Fletcher Prouty, the former CIA operative known as “X,” offers a history-shaking perspective on the assassination of president John F. Kennedy. His theories were the basis for Oliver Stone’s controversial movie JFK.

Prouty believed that Kennedy’s death was a coup d’état, and he backs this belief up with his knowledge of the security arrangements at Dallas and other tidbits that only a CIA insider would know (for example, that every member of Kennedy’s cabinet was abroad at the time of Kennedy's assassination). His discussion of the elite power base he believes controlled the U.S. government will scare and enlighten anyone who wants to know who was really behind the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

This is must reading for anyone who believes that Lee Harvey Oswald did not act along and that a complicated plot led to the murder of President Kennedy.

With an Introduction by Oliver Stone, the director of the hit movie JFK and a Foreword by Jesse Ventura, author of the New York Times Bestseller, They Killed our President, here is an insider's view of JFK, the CIA, Vietnam and the plot that led to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The Secret Team: The CIA and Its Allies in Control of the United States and the World by by L. Fletcher Prouty Amazon.com Offers uncommonly penetrating insight. …A rare glimpse into Covert and Black Operations.- New York Times Bestselling author, Governor Jesse Ventura, from his Foreword.

The Secret Team, L. Fletcher Prouty's expose´ of the CIA's brutal methods of maintaining national security during the Cold War, was first published in the 1970s. However, virtually all copies of the book disappeared upon distribution, having been purchased en masse by shady "private buyers." Prouty's topics include:

- President Kennedy tried to control the CIA.
- The nature of clandestine operations.

The Dulles-Jackson-Correa Report in action Defense, containment, and anti-communism

- Khrushchev's Challenge: the U-2 dilemma
- From the Bay of Pigs to Dallas.
- And much more!

Prouty's allegations-such as how the U-2 Crisis of 1960 was fixed to sabotage Eisenhower-Khrushchev talk-cannot have pleased the CIA. The Secret Team appears once more with a new introduction by bestselling author, Governor Jesse Ventura.

> "Like it or not, we now live in a new age of 'One World.' This is the age of global companies, of global communications and transport, of global food supply and finance and … just around the corner … global accommodation of political systems. In this sense, there are no home markets, no isolated markets and no markets outside the global network. It is time to face the fact that true national sovereignty no longer exists. We live in a world of big business, big lawyers, big bankers, even bigger moneymen and big politicians. It is the world of The Secret Team." April 1, 201

General Russell Bowen

Ted Gunderson refers to Bowen as one of his Confidential

Informants who (like Jen Moore) described Free Masons as infiltrators into the USA positions inlcuidng Media, Academia, Business, and law and how the Fre Mason will act against those who reveal Free Mason infiltration into US Politics by evidence plants, etc.,

The Immaculate Deception: Bush Crime Family Exposed by Russell S. Bowen (Author) retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

Perhaps the most shocking book written this century about treason committed by the highest leaders within the US government. This disturbing and thought-provoking expose is written by Brigadier General Russell S Bowen who has courageously come forward with the truth about his association with the OSS (Office of Security Services) and his 'drug running' activities on behalf of the 'secret' government which involves the highest US 'leaders' and which few Americans know anything about. The most startling details are revealed regarding Bowen's clandestine work including his work under the orders of George Bush

General Russell Bowen

Retired Brig. General Russell Bowen is another fascinating person tied to Jerry's cocaine empire. During WW 2, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross and other medals for his time as a young fighter pilot. It was during this time he was brought into the OSS and when President Truman banned the intelligence organization, Bowen and others secretly maintained the organization, later to become the CIA

He helped establish several airlines in South America that were used as cover for the CIA and was an expert at extracting CIA operatives from dangerous situations when their cover had been exposed. He was heavily involved in CIA drug trafficking, especially in South America, and had many friends within both the Medellin and Cali cartels. Eventually, Bowen and others became disenchanted with the CIA involvement with drugs and wanted to stop the practice of bringing them into America

In the early 1980's, he wrote an anonymous letter to U.S. Customs, reporting the details of the smuggling operation, but nothing happened. But something did happen to him. In 1982, a CIA operative ordered him to fly a trip into Medellin, Colombia, taking a CIA undercover agent and to then bring back another agent. On the return trip, several hundred pounds of cocaine were placed on the plane. When he landed at a remote airport in Georgia, federal authorities were waiting. At his trial, he wasn't allowed to use his CIA status as a defense-much like Harold Rosenthal-and was sentenced to hard time.

How does this tie into Jerry LeQuire? Well, the CIA operative who ordered him to go to Colombia was the same man who had worked for Jerry for many years. And the airport where he was arrested was the same airport Jerry had bought a few years earlier.

Russell Allen Bowen: Marine commander during WWII, committed to family, country retrieved from link and copied or modified to here

Russell Allen Bowen, 96, a former Los Altos resident, died April 14. Born in New Britain, Conn., Aug. 9, 1912, Mr. Bowen grew up in Minneapolis and came of age during uncertain times.

“We are often inclined, in error, to be considered masters of our own destiny, but I am a product of the Great Depression,” Mr. Bowen said of himself.

Mr. Bowen worked his way through the University of Minnesota selling textbooks and encyclopedias in Alaska and Hawaii to earn a degree in petroleum engineering in 1935. Selected for the Navy’s elite first cadet flight program, he merited the coveted Naval Aviator Wings as Aviation Cadet No. 1 in 1935 and accepted a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. Assigned to the Naval Air Station in San Diego, he served as commanding officer of Marine Bombing Squadron III and flew the BG-2 dive-bomber. His four years included tours of duty on the USS Lexington and the USS Saratoga where he logged numerous day and night carrier landings.

In 1939, Mr. Bowen left active duty as a first lieutenant and became a co-pilot for the young TWA (Trans World Airlines). While stationed in Burbank, he began a successful aerial photography business, which he relinquished when he was assigned to Kansas City to complete his airline captain’s training in 1940. The commercial aviation boom was beginning.

“I was a happy rider on the bow-wave of an unprecedented expansion,” he said of those times.

Mr. Bowen met Vivien Gay Smith, Miss TWA 1941, a registered nurse and flight hostess, on a trip from Albuquerque to Los Angeles. It was love at first sight and they married shortly before Mr. Bowen was reactivated after the 1941 bombing of Pearl Harbor.

He saw combat duty overseas as the commanding officer of Marine Corps Squadron 252, stationed in Kwajalein and Guam. His squadron transported vital supplies and combat personnel throughout the Pacific Theater.

At the end of the war, he retired from active duty with the rank of lieutenant colonel, but remained in the Marine Corps Active Reserve, achieving the rank of Brigadier General in 1967.

He served as president of the Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association and continued to fly the current USMC aircraft, through the F-4 Phantom.

Mr. Bowen returned to TWA after the war and he and Gay moved to the Bay Area. In 1959, he became one of the first TWA captains to fly the company's new Boeing 707s, ushering in commercial aviation's jet age.

Throughout the next two decades, he flew commercially all over the world, and performed as a check pilot certifying pilots and supervising flight operations at the San Francisco airport.

My father James Paul Donegan may have encountered him as himslef being a Boeing 707 pilot and living and flying 707s and later the L1011s out of San Francisco International Airport.]

Mr. Bowen retired from TWA in 1972 with more than 24,000 mishap-free flight hours, or as he put it, "2.7 years in the air."

Mr. Bowen had a creative and entrepreneurial spirit that kept him busy between flights. His Oakhaven Chinchilla Ranch, located on an historical estate in the midst of one of the last apricot orchards in Los Altos, became the second largest producer of the fur in California.

He became a successful real estate broker and land developer in Santa Cruz County. He loved nature, fishing and the outdoors, and taught his children the importance of environmental stewardship. He was a member of the Presbyterian faith and supported the church in a variety of roles, including as deacon.

Mr. Bowen is survived by his wife of 67 years, Vivien Gay; daughters Linda, Merideth and Deborah; son Richard; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; his brother Frank Bowen; and sister Barbara Thompson.

A military service is scheduled 2 p.m. June 24 in Arlington Cemetery, Washington, D.C. In lieu of flowers, a contribution may be made to The Paradise Valley Estates Benevolence Fund or The Nature Conservancy.

Family of Secrets: The Bush Dynasty, America's Invisible Government, and the Hidden History of the Last Fifty Years Paperback - Illustrated, November 17, 2009 retrieved from Amazon.com and copied or modified to here

How did the deeply flawed George W. Bush ascend to the highest office in the nation, what forces abetted his rise, and-perhaps most important-have those forces really been vanquished by Obama's election? Award-winning investigative journalist Russ Baker gives us the answers in Family of Secrets, a compelling and startling new take on the Bush dynasty and the shadowy elite that has quietly steered the American republic for the past half century and more. Baker shows how this network of figures in intelligence, the military, oil, and finance enabled-and in turn benefited handsomely from-the Bushes' perch at the highest levels of government. As Baker reveals, this deeply entrenched elite remains in power regardless of who sits in the Oval Office.

Family of Secrets offers countless disclosures that challenge the conventional accounts of such central events as the JFK assassination and Watergate. It includes an inside account of George W.'s cynical religious conversion and the untold real background to the disastrous response to Hurricane Katrina. Baker's narrative is gripping, sobering, and deeply sourced. It will change the way we understand not just the Bush years, but a half century of postwar history-and the present.

"One of the most important books of the past ten years." - Gore Vidal

"A tour de force … Family of Secrets has made me rethink even those events I witnessed with my own eyes." - Dan Rather

"Shocking in its disclosures, elegantly crafted, and faultlessly measured in its judgments, Family of Secrets is nothing less than a first historic portrait in full of the Bush dynasty and the era it shaped. From revelation to revelation, insight to insight-from the Kennedy assassination to Watergate to the oil and financial intrigues that lie behind today's headlines-this is a sweeping drama of money and power, unseen forces, and the emblematic triumph of a lineage that sowed national tragedy. Russ Baker's Family of Secrets is sure to take its place as one of the most startling and influential works of American history and journalism." - Roger Morris, former senior staff member, National Security Council, and author of Richard Milhous Nixon: The Rise of an American Politician and Partners in Power: The Clintons and Their America

"Left-wing paranoia? Baker, a solid investigative journalist, works hard to back up his claims - a reader could choke on the complex, interwoven details in Family of Secrets. He's a man on a mission, desperate to stop the “methods of stealth and manipulation that … reflect a deeper ill: the American public’s increasingly tenuous hold upon the levers of its own democracy.” - San Diego Union-Tribune

“Prodigiously industrious investigative journalist Russ Baker …. connects the dots between the Bushes and Watergate.” - Lev Grossman, Time Magazine

---

About the Author

Russ Baker is an award winning investigative journalist. He has written for the New Yorker, Vanity Fair, the New York Times, the Nation, the Los Angeles Times, the Washington Post, the Village Voice, and Esquire, and has served as a contributing editor to the Columbia Journalism Review. He is the founder of WhoWhatWhy/the Real News Project, a nonpartisan, nonprofit news organization, operating at www.whowhatwhy.com.

Sham claims which provide cover to the Legend (covert deceptions) law enforcement has underway

Laundering

Trust Fund Cartel generating false pretexts againt me which are causes of actions pretexts

The damage to the enforcebility of me rights and defense of my liberty may be the real motive the long running cartel needs claims against me in a country predotroy towards my genome and predatory towards my normal life

Col Prouty wrote Guns of Dallas and Nixon and Indonesia, two truthful and previously unconnected articles on the CIA. Edward Paul Donegan and others now can connect it all. The Indonesia plan was similar to other plans (Cruz family in Cuba groomed as possible leaders) and Barrack Obama Jr for Indonesia.

L. Fletcher Prouty (1917-2001), a retired colonel of the U.S. Air Force, served as the chief of special operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff during the Kennedy years. He was directly in charge of the global system designed to provide military support for the clandestine activities of the CIA. He was the author of JFK: The CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy and The Secret Team: The CIA and Its Allies. - Amazon author profile

The Donegan piece of this is at the two year mark Barrack Obama Jr. was progressing better than his Roman Catholic half twin (sharing Glorian Donegan as the biological mother) and the CIA did not groom Tom Donegan or Ed Donegan as the plan did groom others including likely the Kelly brothers of NASA, the Nixon, Bush, and Burns and Rockefeller families.

“Flexible Response” (to Communist influence on nations of the world rather than uniformed combat) was CIA based assassinations and Psychological Warfare studying how to and then influencing popular opinions in foreign nations and included full overthrow operations lending hands to internal combatants of contested countries.

Col. Prouty spent 9 of his 23 year military career in the Pentagon (1955-1964) VP Nixon served from 1952 to 1960 and jFK inaugurated 1961 to 1963:

- 2 years with the Secretary of Defense,

- 2 years with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and

- 5 years with Headquarters, U.S. Air Force

In 1955 he was appointed the first “Focal Point” officer between the CIA and the Air Force for Clandestine Operations per National Security Council Directive 5412. He was Briefing Officer for the Secretary of Defense (1960-1961), and for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

At times he would be called to meet with Allen Dulles and John Foster Dulles at their home on highly classified business. He was assigned to attend MKULTRA meetings. In this capacity Col. Prouty would be at the nerve center of the Military-Industrial Complex at a time unequalled in American History. He has written on these subjects, about the JFK assassination, the Cold War period, and Vietnamese warfare, and the existence of a “Secret Team”. He backs up his his work with seldom seen or mentioned official documents - some never before released.

Col Prouty wrote Guns of Dallas and Nixon and Indonesia, two truthful and previously unconnected articles on the CIA that are included here.

L. Fletcher Prouty (1917-2001), a retired colonel of the U.S. Air Force, served as the chief of special operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff during the Kennedy years. He was directly in charge of the global system designed to provide military support for the clandestine activities of the CIA. He was the author of JFK: The CIA, Vietnam, and the Plot to Assassinate John F. Kennedy and The Secret Team: The CIA and Its Allies. -

Amazon author profile

"Flexible Response" (to Communist influence on nations of the world rather than uniformed combat) was CIA based assassinations and Psychological Warfare studying how to and then influencing popular opinions in foreign nations and included full overthrow operations lending hands to internal combatants of contested countries.

Col. Prouty spent 9 of his 23 year military career in the Pentagon (1955-1964) VP Nixon served from 1952 to 1960 and jFK inaugurated 1961 to 1963:

- 2 years with the Secretary of Defense,

- 2 years with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and

- 5 years with Headquarters, U.S. Air Force

In 1955 he was appointed the first “Focal Point” officer between the CIA and the Air Force for Clandestine Operations per National Security Council Directive 5412. He was Briefing Officer for the Secretary of Defense (1960-1961), and for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

At times he would be called to meet with Allen Dulles and John Foster Dulles at their home on highly classified business. He was assigned to attend MKULTRA meetings. In this capacity Col. Prouty would be at the nerve center of the Military-Industrial Complex at a time unequalled in American History. He has written on these subjects, about the JFK assassination, the Cold War period, and Vietnamese warfare, and the existence of a “Secret Team”. He backs up his his work with seldom seen or mentioned official documents - some never before released.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE - 6 JAN 1958

MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF OF STAFF, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Commendation of Lieutenant Colonel Leroy F. Prouty, 7730A

1. I am pleased to call to your attention the exceptionally fine assistance and cooperation extended to the several components of the Central Intelligence Agency by Lieutenant Colonel Leroy F. Prouty, Chief, Team B, Subsidiary Plans Division, Directorate of Plans, DCS/P&P [Directorate of Clandestine Services and Projects and Planning under Richard Bissle Jr.], Headquarters USAF.

2. Since his assignment as Chief of Team B, in August 1955, Colonel Prouty has been called upon frequently to assist this Agency in the support of sensitive activities of the greatest importance to the National Security. His effective assistance and numerous contributions to the solution of varied and difficult problems have been consistently successful and have marked him as an outstanding officer of unusual professional competence and potential.

3. Colonel Prouty's keen understanding of the many unique and complex problems which confront both the operational and support elements of this Agency and his personal interest and application to them have consistently produced efficient and outstanding results.

4. It is recommended that this letter of commendation be placed in Colonel Prouty's personnel folder.

C. P. CABELL

Lieutenant General, USAF

Deputy Director

Oversight of United States covert operations

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Executive oversight of United States covert operations has been carried out by a series of sub-committees of the National Security Council (NSC).

Birth of covert operations in the Cold War

At the beginning of the Cold War, it was not inevitable that covert operations would become the dominion of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). The National Security Act of 1947 did not explicitly authorize the CIA to conduct covert operations, although Section 102(d)(5) was sufficiently vague to permit abuse. At the very first meetings of the NSC in late 1947, the perceived necessity to “stem the flow of communism” in Western Europe-particularly Italy-by overt and covert “psychological warfare” forced the issue. The actual responsibility for these operations was a hot potato, and when it was decided that the State Department would be in charge, Secretary of State George Marshall sharply opposed it, fearing it would tarnish the international credibility of his department. The upshot was that responsibility for covert operations was passed on to the CIA; this was codified in a NSC policy paper called NSC 4-A,[4] approved in December 1947. NSC 4-A provided the authorization for the intervention of the CIA in the Italian elections of April 1948.[5]

Proposed NSC 4-A Panel

A draft of NSC 4-A envisioned the creation of a NSC-designated "panel" to approve operations. The executive secretary of the NSC, Sidney Souers, recommended that the panel be composed of representatives from the departments of State, Army, Navy and Air Force, as well an "observer" representative from the Joint Chiefs of Staff. This provision was dropped in the final version, which simply stated that the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) "is charged with ensuring that [covert] psychological operations are consistent with U.S. foreign policy and overt foreign information activities, and that appropriate agencies of the U.S. Government, …, are kept informed of such operations which will directly affect them."

From NSC 10/2 to NSC 5412 (June 1948-March 1955)

According to the Church Committee, throughout the period June 1948 to March 1955, "NSC directives provided for consultation with representatives of State and Defense". But "these representatives had no approval function. There was no formal procedure or committee to consider and approve projects.

NSC 10/2 Panel

The arrangement in NSC 4-A did not please the influential director of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff (S/P), George F. Kennan. Under his leadership, a S/P paper titled "The inauguration of organized political warfare" was circulated in the NSC in early May 1948, which said that "there are two major types of political warfare-one overt and the other covert. Both, from their basic nature, should be directed and coordinated by the Department of State." Yet Kennan wanted to have his cake and eat it too: the paper made it clear that the State Department should not be formally associated with the conduct of covert operations. Then the Joint Chiefs of Staff entered the fray by guarding its prerogatives, particularly in wartime, especially in theatres of war.[11] As a result of the controversy spurred by Kennan, NSC 4-A was replaced by NSC 10/2, approved by President Harry Truman on 18 June 1948, creating the Office of Policy Coordination (OPC). Kennan was still not satisfied and continued to press for State control, hoping that his choice for OPC director, Frank Wisner, would be loyal to the State Department-he was not.

NSC 10/2 was the first presidential document which specified a mechanism to approve and manage covert operations, and also the first in which the term "covert operations" was defined. NSC 10/2 charged the DCI with "Ensuring, through designated representatives of the Secretary of State and of the Secretary of Defense, that covert operations are planned and conducted in a manner consistent with US foreign and military policies and with overt activities." The representatives to this "10/2 Panel", also known as the "OPC Consultants", were Kennan for State (1948-1950) and Joseph McNarney for Defense (1948-1949). The panel, which met about once a week, was supplanted from January 1950 on by the regular attendance of a representative from the Joint Chiefs of Staff. According to Anne Karalekas, a Church Committee staffer, it did not constrain the OPC:

[The 10/2 Panel was] not an approval body, and there was no formal mechanism whereby individual projects had to be brought before [it] for discussion. Because it was assumed that covert action would be exceptional, strict provisions for specific project authorization were not considered necessary. With minimal supervision from State and Defense and with a shared agreement on the nature of the OPC mission, individuals in OPC could take the initiative in conceiving and implementing projects.[16]

In the first half of its existence, OPC was not really under CIA's control. In the words of Edward P. Lilly, DCI Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, "although authorized by NSC-10/2 to supervise OPC, had allowed OPC to go its own way." OPC was brought under CIA control in October 1950, when Walter Bedell Smith became DCI. OPC was merged on 1 August 1952 with the CIA branch responsible for espionage, the Office of Special Operations (OSO), to form the Directorate of Plans (DDP).

NSC 10/5 Panel

Truman swelled the bureaucracy on 4 April 1951 when he established the Psychological Strategy Board (PSB). DCI Smith, seeking more high-level policy guidance, wanted the PSB "to replace the 10/2 Panel as approval body"; this proposal was adopted by the NSC. NSC 10/5[20] tried to specify the purpose of the PSB. The 10/2 Panel, which continued to function, was replaced in February 1952 by an enlarged 10/5 Panel, which also included PSB staff.[22] According to an internal CIA review from 1967, the 10/5 Panel "functioned much as the 10/2 Panel had, but the resulting procedures proved cumbersome and potentially insecure."

According to John Prados, the CIA cut the PSB out of the loop, establishing instead an internal mechanism for approval of operations. In 1953, DCI Smith said that the PSB was “incompetent and its work irrelevant”.

“As the Truman administration ended”, writes the Office of the Historian,

CIA was near the peak of its independence and authority in the field of covert action. Although CIA continued to seek and receive advice on specific projects from the NSC, the PSB, and the departmental representatives originally delegated to advise OPC, no group or officer outside of the DCI and the President himself had authority to order, approve, manage, or curtail operations.[26]

Enter Eisenhower

The Eisenhower administration took office on 20 January 1953. When Eisenhower replaced the PSB with the Operations Coordinating Board (OCB) on 2 September 1953, he also did away with the 10/5 Panel, reverting to “a smaller group identical to the former 10/2 Panel, without OCB staff participation.” On 15 March 1954, Eisenhower approved NSC 5412, which required CIA to consult with OCB. Although Eisenhower would later congratulate the CIA with its success in deposing Guatemala’s democratically elected President, Jacobo Árbenz, he was privately irked by CIA’s unauthorized bombing of SS Springfjord. According to Prados, that incident “convinced Eisenhower of the need for more rigorous control over covert action”.

Planning Coordination Group (March 1955-December 1955)

The arrangement in NSC 5412 suffered the same problem as the 10/5 Panel;[23] OCB “included more officials than ought to be concerned with secret war.” So on 12 March 1955, Eisenhower approved NSC 5412/1, creating a more senior Planning Coordination Group (PCG) within OCB. Significantly, the directive explicitly charged PCG with approving covert operations. The PCG proved to be a failure; its chairman, Nelson Rockefeller, recommended the abolishment of PCG before year’s end. According to Prados, the problem was that CIA had not been forthcoming with details, latching on to a mention of “need-to-know” in NSC 5412/1. The next directive would solve this by creating a committee “so high-powered there could be no question” of its need to know.

Special Group/303 Committee (December 1955-February 1970)

NSC 5412/2 was approved by Eisenhower on 28 December 1955, a directive which remained in force for 15 years.Paragraph 7 specified the new oversight mechanism:

Except as the President otherwise directs, designated representatives of the Secretary of State and of the Secretary of Defense of the rank of Assistant Secretary or above, and a representative of the President designated for this purpose, shall hereafter be advised in advance of major covert programs initiated by CIA under this policy or as otherwise directed, and shall be the normal channel for giving policy approval for such programs as well as for securing coordination of support therefor among the Departments of State and Defense and the CIA.

The resulting body became known as the 5412 Committee or, from 1957, the Special Group. It was the first time a “designated representative” of the President was included in the process; Eisenhower used his National Security Advisors for this purpose. The DCI was an ex officio member. In 1957, Eisenhower made the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff a member as well. In practice the membership of the Special Group varied on an ad hoc basis.

In late 1956, the newly formed PBCFIA, which had turned a candid eye towards covert operations, took issue with the “very informal” procedures of the Special Group. Consequently, an annex to NSC 5412/2 was approved by Eisenhower on 26 March 1957, clarifying project approvals, and for the first time requiring the CIA to circulate “proposal papers” in advance of approval. The board continued to press for more prominence to the Special Group to keep the CIA from freewheeling. Eisenhower himself saw the proper functioning of the Special Group as crucial to fend off initiatives for meaningful congressional oversight of covert operations. On 26 December 1958 Eisenhower asked the Special Group to institute weekly meetings, with the result that “criteria for submission of projects to the Group were, in practice, considerably broadened.”

Kennedy administration

The Special Group fell by the wayside when new administration of John F. Kennedy took office on 20 January 1961; although it remained “in theory intact”, in practice it “took a backseat to meetings at which JFK personally presided”. After the failed Bay of Pigs Invasion, the Special Group returned to prominence, and new procedures were set out in July 1961. In the wake of the scandal, DDP Richard M. Bissell Jr. suggested the name and workings of the Special Group be made public to demonstrate to the American people that the CIA was under effective executive oversight; that did not happen.

A second Special Group (Augmented) existed from November 1961 to the Cuban Missile Crisis of October 1962. The only difference was that it was specifically dedicated to managing the Cuban Project which sought to overthrow Fidel Castro's regime, and was headed by Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy. After the Missile Crisis brought the world to the brink of destruction, management of the war against Castro was transferred to discussions in the EXCOMM and NSC proper, before being handed over to an "obscure NSC appendage" known as the Standing Group chaired by National Security Advisor McGeorge Bundy.

Johnson administration

The Special Group was renamed to the 303 Committee on 2 June 1964, in response to the publication of the book The Invisible Government by David Wise and Thomas B. Ross, which made the old name public. A NSC staffer had recommended the new name be "something utterly drab and innocuous" to deflect away attention. The number refers to the national security directive which effected the change, NSAM 303.Alternatively, the Encyclopedia of the Central Intelligence Agency by W. Thomas Smith Jr. claims the name derives from "a room number in the executive office complex in Washington D.C."

40 Committee

On 17 February 1970, President Richard Nixon approved NSDM 40, superseding and revoking NSC 5412/2, and replacing the 303 Committee with the 40 Committee. Among the few substantive changes introduced by Nixon was the inclusion of Attorney General John N. Mitchell and a requirement to review covert programs annually. Like earlier, public exposure was the motive for changing the name; National Security Adviser Henry Kissinger explained to Nixon that “In view of recent mention of the 303 Committee in the public media, the directive changes the committee name to coincide with the number assigned to the NSDM itself, which is 40.”

Nixon and Kissinger, who was charged with overseeing all covert operations on Nixon’s behalf, kept the 40 Committee out of the loop on almost all the major and sensitive decisions, and the 40 Committee stopped having meetings; in 1972 it only met once.

Operations Advisory Group

On February 18, 1976, 40 committee was replaced by the Operations Advisory Group, in accordance with Executive Order 11905 issued by Gerald Ford. The new group was composed of the President’s Assistant for National Security Affairs, the Secretaries of State and Defense, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Director of Central Intelligence.

NSC Special Coordination Committee

The following year, on May 13, 1977, President Jimmy Carter issued Executive Order 11985 which updated the previous order, and renamed the Operations Advisory Group to the NSC Special Coordination Committee (SCC).

National Security Planning Group

Under the Reagan administration, the Special Coordination Committee was replaced by the National Security Planning Group (NSPG) which included the Vice-President, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of State, the Assistant for National Security Affairs, and the Director of the CIA. One level below the NSPG was the Policy Coordination Group (PCG), first known as the Crisis Pre-Planning Group (CPPG); one source describes the PCG as the actual successor to the Special Coordination Committee.

Special Intelligence Office

In 2002-2003, during the Bush Administration, Under Secretary of Defense for Policy Douglas Feith created a special-purpose group encompassing and focusing on all military and intelligence efforts involving Iraq, Afghanistan, and other Near East countries, as well as all activities falling under the rubric of the Global War on Terror. This group has been said to have been responsible for stovepiping selective raw intelligence data, bypassing analysis processes as well as bypassing customary cooperation and coordination with NSA, Mossad, and other intelligence entities in order to shape decisions as to the war with Iraq. Its functions were morphed in the Office of Special Plans, which was subsequently investigated for manipulations of intelligence, unlawful activities, and espionage.

Fletcher Prouty offers a rare glimpse of the “Power Elite” as described by Buckminster Fuller, or “The High Cabal” as Winston Churchill refered to them; and how they really operate. Those who have not been in a position to witness events such as these from the inside would not understand how invisible but ultimately effective they and their power structures are.

In 1955 under VP Richard Nixon and the National Security Council USAF officer Prouty was appointed the first “Focal Point” officer between the CIA and the Air Force for Clandestine Operations per National Security Council Directive 5412. He was Briefing Officer for the Secretary of Defense (1960-1961), and for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

This was important administratively because by that time Frank Wisner, the CIA Deputy Director of Plans, had set up his forward headquarters in Singapore and at the direction of the 5412 Committee of the National Security Council, headed by Nixon, Wisner occupied that faraway headquarters himself. (It should be noted that in 1958 Allen Dulles was the head of the CIA, his brother John Foster Dulles was the Secretary of State, Eisenhower was President, and Nixon, as Vice President, chaired the clandestine affairs committee, then known as the “Special Group 5412/2.” In other words nothing was done in Indonesia that was not directed by Nixon. If an action had not been directed by the NSC, then it was done unlawfully by the CIA.)

In 1958 Allen Dulles would have brought such a major operation to the attention of the Special Group and he would operate with its approval. This was an essential step in national policy because it then empowered the Department of Defense to provide the necessary support requested by the CIA. Much of this fell within the area of my responsibility at Air Force Headquarters, and I was kept informed on a regular basis of approved action and of Nixon’s keen interest in this project.

What is not generally known about the complex Indonesian struggle is the role that was played by the then Vice President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, and the bitter aftermath that involved the sudden ouster of Allen Dulles’ protege, Frank Wisner, who at that time was the head of the clandestine arm of the CIA. After Watergate, when Anthony Lukas wrote in his book Nightmare, about the growing mistrust between Nixon and the Director of Central Intelligence, Richard Helms, he could have added that since the 1958 Indonesian rebellion there were many in the CIA who made a career of hating Nixon because of what he had done to Frank Wisner, among others.

The Indonesian attache was wined and dined and encouraged to talk more. Reasons for the attache's return to Indonesia on official business were successfully arranged. He was accompanied by CIA agents traveling under the cover of "U.S. military" personnel. During this visit they spoke with rebel leaders. They learned enough about the potential strength of this opposition to encourage the CIA to set in motion its biggest operation up to that date.

In the Pentagon there are thousands of nondescript offices in which all sorts of tasks are done. One of these unobtrusive offices was an Air Force Plans Division office. One day in 1958 two men from the CIA entered that office. After being identified they were permitted entrance to an interior office that was the "Focal Point" office for all U.S. Air Force Support of the clandestine operations of the CIA. I Col Prouty had established that office in 1955 on orders from Gen. Thomas D. White, then Chief of Staff of the Air Force. This came about after several meetings with Allen W. Dulles, the Director of Central Intelligence, and others. When the CIA men entered that office in 1958, I was still in charge.

The agents outlined the Indonesian Plan, the Philippine support and training program, and told me about their own special operations staff that had been put together specifically for this vast project. Then they urgently requested light bombardment aircraft and long-range transport aircraft. We decided to take a number of twin engine B-26 aircraft out of mothball storage, put them through a retrofit line, and modify them so that they could be armed with a special 50-caliber machine gun package of eight guns, in the nose of the plane. This would give the B-26 more firepower than it ever had during the Korean War or World War II. The project was given top priority and covered in deep secrecy. Programs for pilot training and the recruitment of "mercenaries" were established.

Concurrent with our work the CIA was putting together a “wartime” operational staff. Lt. Gen. Earl Barnes, who had been a senior air commander during World War II under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, was brought in to run all clandestine air activities.

This was important administratively because by that time Frank Wisner, the CIA Deputy Director of Plans serving under fired by JFK Richard Bissle JR, had set up his forward headquarters in Singapore and at the direction of the 5412 Committee of the National Security Council, headed by Nixon, Wisner occupied that faraway headquarters himself. (It should be noted that in 1958 Allen Dulles (also fired by JFK) was the head of the CIA, his brother John Foster Dulles was the Secretary of State, Eisenhower was President, and Nixon, as Vice President, chaired the clandestine affairs committee, then known as the “Special Group 5412/2.” In other words nothing was done in Indonesia that was not directed by Nixon. If an action had not been directed by the NSC, then it was done unlawfully by the CIA.)

In 1958 Allen Dulles would have brought such a major operation to the attention of the Special Group and he would operate with its approval. This was an essential step in national policy because it then empowered the Department of Defense to provide the necessary support requested by the CIA. Much of this fell within the area of my responsibility at Air Force Headquarters, and I was kept informed on a regular basis of approved action and of Nixon’s keen interest in this project.

The rebellion flared sporadically from one end of Indonesia to the other.

While the CIA was supporting up to 100,000 rebels, the State Department professed innocence. The U.S. ambassador, Howard P. Jones, maintained that the United States had nothing to do with the rebellion and he protested the capture of the American oil properties. On the other hand, Sukarno had asked for more arms aid from the United States. He must have had strong suspicions about the source of rebel support. The vast number of guns, the bombers and heavy air transport aircraft dropping hundreds of tons of arms and equipment, as well as submarines supporting beach operations were just too sophisticated to be anything but major power ploys.

Thus, his appeal for U.S. arms aid had the ring of gamesmanship.

Playing along with the game, John Foster Dulles of Eisehower Nixon State Department issued a statement saying that the United States would not provide arms to either side.

Operation 40 from Spartacus Educational

On 11th December, 1959, Colonel Joseph Caldwell King, chief of CIA's Western Hemisphere Division, sent a confidential memorandum to Allen W. Dulles, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency. King argued that in Cuba there existed a "far-left dictatorship, which if allowed to remain will encourage similar actions against U.S. holdings in other Latin American countries."

As a result of this memorandum Dulles established Operation 40. It obtained this name because originally there were 40 agents involved in the operation. Later this was expanded to 70 agents. The group was presided over by Richard Nixon. Tracy Barnes became operating officer of what was also called the Cuban Task Force. The first meeting chaired by Barnes took place in his office on 18th January, 1960, and was attended by David Atlee Phillips, E. Howard Hunt, Jack Esterline, and Frank Bender.

According to Fabian Escalante, a senior officer of the Cuban Department of State Security (G-2), in 1960 Richard Nixon recruited an "important group of businessmen headed by George Bush (Snr.) and Jack Crichton, both Texas oilmen, to gather the necessary funds for the operation". (2) This suggests that Operation 40 agents were involved in freelance work.

It is known that at this time that George Bush and Jack Crichton were involved in covert right-wing activities. In 1990 Common Cause Magazinemagazine argued that: “The CIA put millionaire and agent George Bush in charge of recruiting exiled Cubans for the CIA’s invading army; Bush was working with another Texan oil magnate, Jack Crichton, who helped him in terms of the invasion.” (3) This story was linked to the release of “a memorandum in that context addressed to FBI chief J. Edward Hoover and signed November 1963, which reads: Mr. George Bush of the CIA” (4)

Reinaldo Taladrid and Lazaro Baredo claim that in 1959 George Bush was asked “to cooperate in funding the nascent anti-Castro groups that the CIA decided to create”. The man “assigned to him for his new mission” was Féliz Rodríguez.

Daniel Hopsicker also takes the view that Operation 40 involved private funding. In the book, Barry and the Boys: The CIA, the Mob and America’s Secret History, he claims that Richard Nixon had established Operation 40 as a result of pressure from American corporations which had suffered at the hands of Fidel Castro.

Webster Griffin Tarpley and Anton Chaitkin have argued that George Bush was very close to members of Operation 40 in the early 1960s. In September, 1963, Bush launched his Senate campaign. At that time, right-wing Republicans were calling on John F. Kennedy to take a more aggressive approach towards Castro. For example, in one speech Barry Goldwater said: “I advocate the recognition of a Cuban government in exile and would encourage this government every way to reclaim its country. This means financial and military assistance.” Bush took a more extreme position than Goldwater and called for a “new government-in-exile invasion of Cuba”. As Tarpley and Chaitkin point out, beneficiaries of this policy would have been “Theodore Shackley, who was by now the station chief of CIA Miami Station, Felix Rodriguez, Chi Chi Quintero, and the rest of the boys” from Operation 40.

Paul Kangas is another investigator who has claimed that George Bush was involved with members of Operation 40. In an article published in The Realist in 1990, Kangas claims: “Among other members of the CIA recruited by George Bush for (the attacks on Cuba) were Frank Sturgis, Howard Hunt, Bernard Baker and Rafael Quintero.” In an article published in Granma in January, 2006, the journalists Reinaldo Taladrid and Lazaro Baredo argued that “Another of Bush’s recruits for the Bay of Pigs invasion, Rafael Quintero, who was also part of this underworld of organizations and conspiracies against Cuba, stated: If I was to tell what I know about Dallas and the Bay of Pigs, it would be the greatest scandal that has ever rocked the nation.”

Fabian Escalante names William Pawley as being one of those who was lobbying for the CIA to assassinate Fidel Castro. (9) Escalante points out that Pawley had played a similar role in the CIA overthrow of Jacobo Arbenz Guzmán in Guatemala. Interestingly, the CIA assembled virtually the same team that was involved in the removal of Arbenz: Tracey Barnes, Richard Bissell, David Morales, David Atlee Phillips, E. Howard Hunt, Rip Robertson and Henry Hecksher. Added to this list was several agents who had been involved in undercover operations in Germany: Ted Shackley, Tom Clines and William Harvey.

According to Daniel Hopsicker, the following were also involved in Operation 40: Edwin Wilson, Barry Seal, William Seymour, Frank Sturgis and Gerry Hemming. (10) It has also been pointed out that Operation 40 was not only involved in trying to overthrow Fidel Castro. Sturgis has claimed: “this assassination group (Operation 40) would upon orders, naturally, assassinate either members of the military or the political parties of the foreign country that you were going to infiltrate, and if necessary some of your own members who were suspected of being foreign agents.”

At times he would be called to meet with Allen Dulles and John Foster Dulles at their home on highly classified business. He was assigned to attend MKULTRA meetings. In this capacity Col. Prouty would be at the nerve center of the Military-

Industrial Complex at a time unequalled in American History. He has written on these subjects, about the JFK assassination, the Cold War period, and Vietnamese warfare, and the existence of a “Secret Team”. He backs up his his work with seldom seen or mentioned official documents - some never before released.

Fletcher Prouty offers a rare glimpse of the “Power Elite” as described by Buckminster Fuller, or “The High Cabal” as Winston Churchill refered to them; and how they really operate. Those who have not been in a position to witness events such as these from the inside would not understand how invisible but ultimately effective they and their power structures are.

Fletcher wrote, lectured, spoke on Radio shows, and was on Television many times, often regarding political intrigue from Watergate to the JFK Assassination. Of course he worked with Oliver Stone, Jim Garrison, and Zachary Sklar on the film “JFK”

Fletcher Prouty was one of the most warm and amiable men you could ever meet. Almost endlessly, people from around the world came to visit and interview him. All you had to do was ask and he would give of his time. It will be his selfless and dogged effort to educate and inform that I feel he will be remembered for.

Whenever I was at his upstairs office at his home there was always a stack of letters that he would be replying to. Not a few, but a stack!

He wrote two books and close to 100 articles for various publications. I know he was very proud of everything thing he had written, but especially his two books, “The Secret Team”, and “JFK, Vietnam The CIA, And The Plot to Assassinate JFK”

Some CV information on Col Prouty

Col. L. Fletcher Prouty (USAF)

Born: Springfield, Mass., January 24, 1917. Attended public schools. President, High School Student Government. Member, undefeated Golf Team. Vocalist with Big Bands, sang in most large dance halls, hotels and colleges in Northeast. Graduate: Mass. State College 1941, A.B. degree and 2nd Lt. Commission, U.S. Cavalry.

June 1941

Began military career with 4th Armored Division, Pine Camp, NY. At Communications Officer School, Ft. Knox, KY, on December 7, 1941[Pearl Harbor]. Transferred to Air Force 1942. Earned Pilot's wings November, 1942. Arrived British West Africa [Ghana], February 1943 as pilot with Air Transport Command.

Assigned to V.I.P. flying, summer 1943. Personal pilot for Gen. Omar Bradley, Gen. J. C. H. Lee and Gen. C. R. Smith (Founder and President - American Airlines), among others. Landed U.S. Geological Survey Team in Saudi Arabia, Oct 1943, to confirm oil discoveries for Cairo Conference.

Assigned special duties at Cairo and Teheran Conferences, November-December 1943. Flew Chiang Kai Shek's Chinese delegation (T.V. Soong's delegates) to Teheran.

Chief Pilot (1,200 pilots), Cairo for Air Transport Command. Led special air mission into Soviet Union, and others into Turkey, 1944. Evacuated "Guns of Navaronne" British commandos from Turkey to Palestine. Assisted in capture of leader of German Gold smuggling ring (The actor, Bruce Cabot) in Turkey and Cairo. Led large flight of transport aircraft to Turkish-Syrian border to evacuate 750 American POW's and OSS-selected Ex-Nazi Intelligence experts from the Balkans, September 1944. The first "overt" Cold War mission.

1945

Transferred to SW Pacific, flew in New Guinea, Leyte and was on Okinawa at end of war. Landed near Tokyo at surrender with first three planes carrying Gen. MacArthur's bodyguard troops. Flew out with American POWs. Photographed Hiroshima, that date. (With James Paul Donegan, recon P-51 pilot in the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombing air wings?)

1946-49

Assigned by Army to Yale University to begin first USAF ROTC program. Taught "Aeronautics" and "Evolution of Warfare". Transferred to U.S. Air Force ROTC headquarters to write college text books. Wrote the college textbook on "Aeronautics" and another on "Rockets and Missiles".

1950-52

Transferred to Colorado Springs to establish Air Defense Command. There, Director, Personnel Planning for Command (77,000 men) and first to put personnel records on Computer. Attended Nuclear Weapons school, Sandia, N.M. Selected for Air Force Command and Staff College, Montgomery, Ala.

1952-54 Assigned to Korean War duties in Japan. Military Manager, Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during Occupation. Commander, Military Air Transport Service, Heavy Transport Squadron responsible for military and diplomatic flights from Toyko to Saudi Arabia and back, in addition to daily flights to Korea, Honolulu and Pacific Islands. Founder, Toyko Toastmasters Club. Attended, JCS operated Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, 1955

1955-1964

Assigned to Headquarters, U.S. Air Force and directed to create an Air Force world-wide system for "Military Support of the Clandestine Operations of the CIA", as required by a new National Security Council Directive, 5412 of March, 1954. Wrote this policy in conjunction with Air Force General Counsel and CIA's General Counsel. Set up a TOP SECRET world wide support force and communications system. Was sent around the world by the Director, Central Intelligence, Allen W. Dulles, to meet the CIA Station Chiefs, 1956. Directed Air Force participation in countless CIA operations during this period. As a result of a CIA Commendation for this work, awarded the Legion of Merit by the Air Force, promoted to Colonel and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense to carry out this same type of work for all military services. Assigned to the Office of Special Operations.

With the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency by Secretary McNamara and the abolishment of the OSO, was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to create a similar, world-wide office and was the Chief of Special Operations, with the Joint Staff all during 1962-1963.

Received orders to travel as the Military Escort officer for a group of VIPs who were being flown to the South Pole, Nov 10 - Nov 28, 1963, to activate a Nuclear Power plant for heat, light and sea water desalination at the U.S. Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica.

Retired as Colonel, U.S. Air Force, 1964 and was awarded one of the first three Joint Chiefs of Staff Commendation Medals by General Maxwell Taylor, Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff.

1964-1965

VP International Operations, General Aircraft Corporation … a company created by MIT and Harvard specialists that designed and built aircraft that were used by the CIA and Army Special Forces.

After the war, Prouty accepted an assignment from the U.S.

Army in September 1945 to inaugurate the ROTC program at Yale University, where he also taught during each scholastic year from 1946 to 1948. This timeline intersects with the years that George Bush and William F. Buckley, Jr. also spent at Yale. Prouty fondly recalled Buckley at that time in his role as editor of the Yale Daily News, and Prouty later told an interviewer in 1989 that he had written for Buckley on several occasions.

In 1950 he transferred to Colorado Springs to build Air Defense Command. From 1952 to 1954 he was assigned to Korean War duties in Japan, where he served as Military Manager for Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during the post-war U.S. occupation.

In 1955 he was assigned to the coordination of operations between the fledgling U.S. Air Force and the CIA.[1] As a result of a CIA commendation for this work he was awarded the Legion of Merit by the U.S. Air Force, promoted to colonel, and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense.[citation needed]

Following the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency and termination of the OSO by Secretary Robert McNamara, Prouty was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and charged with the creation a similar organization on a global scale.

From 1962 to 1963 he served as Chief of Special Operations with the Joint Staff. In an chance encounter with Edward Lansdale in the hallways of the Pentagon, a “month or two before” the assassination (as Prouty tells it), Lansdale informed Prouty he had arranged for him [Prouty] to accompany a group of VIPs to the South Pole from November 10 to 23, in the capacity of Military Escort officer.

The ostensible purpose of the trip was the activation of a nuclear power plant at the United States Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, to provide heat, light, and sea water desalination.[citation needed] Prouty later described his confusion at the unusual assignment, but he expected the job to be a “paid vacation” and accepted the task.

Prouty retired in 1964 as a colonel in the U.S. Air Force. As recognition of his long and distinguished career in the service of his country, he was awarded one of the first three Joint Service Commendation Medals by General Maxwell D. Taylor, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

Charles Pearre Cabell (October 11, 1903 - May 25, 1971) was a United States Air Force general and Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (1953-1962) and likely also knew James Paul Donegan my father more on James Paul Donegan and he kennedys and Prouty much later.

Charles P. Cabell was born in Dallas, Texas on October 11, 1903, the son of Ben E. (son of Confederate general William L. Cabell) and Sadie E. (Pearre) Cabell.[1][2] He attended Oak Cliff High School in Dallas, Texas, and graduated from West Point in 1925.[2][3] He was initially commissioned as an artillery lieutenant and served in the field artillery until 1931, when he went to flying school, and was transferred to the Air Corps.

In February 1942, Cabell was assigned as assistant executive for technical planning and coordination in the Office of the Chief of the Air Corps, and promoted to colonel. During the summer of 1943, he attended the first course of the Army and Navy Staff College. In late 1943, he was transferred to the Eighth Air Force and assumed command of the 45th Combat Bombardment Wing. In April 1944, he became director of plans for the U.S. Strategic Air Force in Europe, and later that year, having achieved the rank of brigadier general, became director of operations and intelligence for the Mediterranean Air Forces. During the war he served both at air force headquarters at the Pentagon and in the European Theater.

In May 1945, he was assigned to Air Force headquarters as chief of the Strategy and Policy Division. In December 1945, he was detailed to the United Nations Military Staff Committee, where he held roles as deputy and chief U.S. Air Force delegate to the committee. In August 1947, he was promoted major general and returned to Air Force headquarters, serving in planning and intelligence roles, and became director of Air Force Intelligence in May 1948. In 1949, Cabell set up Project Grudge to “make a study reviewing the UFO situation for AF HQ.” However, Grudge quickly became all but moribund, while simultaneously reporting that all UFO cases were being closely investigated. When Cabell learned of this, he ordered Grudge dissolved and ordered that the “open minded”[4] Project Blue Book be created.

He held this director of Air Force Intelligence post until 1951, before being made director of the staff for the Joint Chiefs of Staff from November 1951 to 1953. During this time, he was promoted to lieutenant general.[citation needed] In 1952, he was an enthusiastic promoter of the U-2 spy plane, along with Allen Welsh Dulles and John Foster Dulles.

CIA career

On April 23, 1953, while still an active air force officer, he was appointed Deputy Director of the CIA under Allen Dulles. In 1956, along with the CIA’s Richard Bissell, he flew to Bonn, to brief the West German Chancellor, Konrad Adenauer, on the ultra-secret U-2 spy plane. Cabell personally negotiated with Chancellor Adenauer for permission to station the U-2 in Wiesbaden and from there to fly over the Soviet Union illegally. It was the U-2 program that allowed CIA chief Allen Dulles to sabotage the peace summit between Khrushchev and Eisenhower.

Cabell was promoted to full general in 1958[6] and retired from active duty effective January 31, 1962.

Cabell was forced to resign as deputy director by President Kennedy on January 31, 1962, following the failure of the Bay of Pigs Invasion.[8] Cabell's brother, Earle Cabell, was Mayor of Dallas when Kennedy visited that city and was assassinated, on November 22, 1963.

JFK assassination

One hypothesis regarding the assassination of U.S. President John F. Kennedy implicates Cabell and several other CIA officials, including James Jesus Angleton and William King Harvey, as well as the "three tramps", and Cabell's brother Earle Cabell.

During Jim Garrison's 1973 bribery trial, tape recordings from March 1971 revealed that Garrison considered publicly implicating Cabell of conspiracy in the assassination after learning he was the brother of the Dallas mayor.[11] Theorizing that a plot to kill the President was masterminded out of New Orleans in conjunction with the CIA with cooperation from the Dallas police department and city government, Garrison tasked his chief investigator, Pershing Gervais, of looking into the possibility that Cabell had stayed in the city's Fontainebleau Motel at the time of the assassination.[11] The Washington Post reported that there was no evidence that Gervais ever followed through with the request and that there was no further mention of Cabell in Garrison's investigation.

Personal life

Cabell was married to Jacklyn DeHymel in 1934; they had two sons, Charles P. Cabell, Jr. and Benjamin Cabell IV, and one daughter, Catharine C. Bennett. He left an autobiography, A Man of Intelligence: Memoirs of War, Peace and the CIA, published in 1997. His oldest son Charles was also an Air Force officer and West Point graduate (Class of 1958), achieving the rank of brigadier general.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE - 6 JAN 1958

MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF OF STAFF, UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Commendation of Lieutenant Colonel Leroy F. Prouty, 7730A

1. I am pleased to call to your attention the exceptionally fine assistance and cooperation extended to the several components of the Central Intelligence Agency by Lieutenant Colonel Leroy F. Prouty, Chief, Team B, Subsidiary Plans Division, Directorate of Plans, DCS/P&P [Directorate of Clandestine Services and Projects and Planning under Richard Bissle Jr.], Headquarters USAF.

2. Since his assignment as Chief of Team B, in August 1955, Colonel Prouty has been called upon frequently to assist this Agency in the support of sensitive activities of the greatest importance to the National Security. His effective assistance and numerous contributions to the solution of varied and difficult problems have been consistently successful and have marked him as an outstanding officer of unusual professional competence and potential.

3. Colonel Prouty's keen understanding of the many unique and complex problems which confront both the operational and support elements of this Agency and his personal interest and application to them have consistently produced efficient and outstanding results.

4. It is recommended that this letter of commendation be placed in Colonel Prouty's personnel folder.

C. P. CABELL

Lieutenant General, USAF

Deputy Director

Oversight of United States covert operations

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Executive oversight of United States covert operations has been carried out by a series of sub-committees of the National Security Council (NSC).

Birth of covert operations in the Cold War

At the beginning of the Cold War, it was not inevitable that covert operations would become the dominion of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).[1] The National Security Act of 1947 did not explicitly authorize the CIA to conduct covert operations, although Section 102(d)(5) was sufficiently vague to permit abuse.[2][3] At the very first meetings of the NSC in late 1947, the perceived necessity to "stem the flow of communism" in Western Europe-particularly Italy-by overt and covert "psychological warfare" forced the issue.[1] The actual responsibility for these operations was a hot potato, and when it was decided that the State Department would be in charge, Secretary of State George Marshall sharply opposed it, fearing it would tarnish the international credibility of his department. The upshot was that responsibility for covert operations was passed on to the CIA; this was codified in a NSC policy paper called NSC 4-A,[4] approved in December 1947.[1] NSC 4-A provided the authorization for the intervention of the CIA in the Italian elections of April 1948.[5]

Proposed NSC 4-A Panel

A draft[6] of NSC 4-A envisioned the creation of a NSC-designated "panel" to approve operations. The executive secretary of the NSC, Sidney Souers, recommended that the panel be composed of representatives from the departments of State, Army, Navy and Air Force, as well an "observer" representative from the Joint Chiefs of Staff.[7] This provision was dropped in the final version, which simply stated that the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) "is charged with ensuring that [covert] psychological operations are consistent with U.S. foreign policy and overt foreign information activities, and that appropriate agencies of the U.S. Government, …, are kept informed of such operations which will directly affect them."

From NSC 10/2 to NSC 5412 (June 1948-March 1955)

According to the Church Committee, throughout the period June 1948 to March 1955, “NSC directives provided for consultation with representatives of State and Defense”. But “these representatives had no approval function. There was no formal procedure or committee to consider and approve projects.

NSC 10/2 Panel

The arrangement in NSC 4-A did not please the influential director of the State Department’s Policy Planning Staff (S/P), George F. Kennan.[9] Under his leadership, a S/P paper titled “The inauguration of organized political warfare”[10] was circulated in the NSC in early May 1948, which said that “there are two major types of political warfare-one overt and the other covert. Both, from their basic nature, should be directed and coordinated by the Department of State.” Yet Kennan wanted to have his cake and eat it too: the paper made it clear that the State Department should not be formally associated with the conduct of covert operations.[9] Then the Joint Chiefs of Staff entered the fray by guarding its prerogatives, particularly in wartime, especially in theatres of war.[11] As a result of the controversy spurred by Kennan, NSC 4-A was replaced by NSC 10/2,[12] approved by President Harry Truman on 18 June 1948, creating the Office of Policy Coordination (OPC). Kennan was still not satisfied and continued to press for State control, hoping that his choice for OPC director, Frank Wisner, would be loyal to the State Department-he was not.

NSC 10/2 was the first presidential document which specified a mechanism to approve and manage covert operations, and also the first in which the term “covert operations” was defined.[14] NSC 10/2 charged the DCI with “Ensuring, through designated representatives of the Secretary of State and of the Secretary of Defense, that covert operations are planned and conducted in a manner consistent with US foreign and military policies and with overt activities.”[12] The representatives to this “10/2 Panel”, also known as the “OPC Consultants”, [15] were Kennan for State (1948-1950) and Joseph McNarney for Defense (1948-1949).[16] The panel, which met about once a week, was supplanted from January 1950 on by the regular attendance of a representative from the Joint Chiefs of Staff.[17] According to Anne Karalekas, a Church Committee staffer, it did not constrain the OPC:

> [The 10/2 Panel was] not an approval body, and there was no formal mechanism whereby individual projects had to be brought before [it] for discussion. Because it was assumed that covert action would be exceptional, strict provisions for specific project authorization were not considered necessary. With minimal supervision from State and Defense and with a shared agreement on the nature of the OPC mission, individuals in OPC could take the initiative in conceiving and implementing projects.[16]

In the first half of its existence, OPC was not really under CIA’s control. In the words of Edward P. Lilly, DCI Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, “although authorized by NSC-10/2 to supervise OPC, had allowed OPC to go its own way.” OPC was brought under CIA control in October 1950, when Walter Bedell Smith became DCI.[18] OPC was merged on 1 August 1952 with the CIA branch responsible for espionage, the Office of Special Operations (OSO), to form the Directorate of Plans (DDP).

NSC 10/5 Panel

Truman swelled the bureaucracy on 4 April 1951 when he established the Psychological Strategy Board (PSB). DCI Smith, seeking more high-level policy guidance, wanted the PSB "to replace the 10/2 Panel as approval body";[19] this proposal was adopted by the NSC.[16] NSC 10/5[20] tried to specify the purpose of the PSB. The 10/2 Panel, which continued to function,[21] was replaced in February 1952 by an enlarged 10/5 Panel, which also included PSB staff.[22] According to an internal CIA review from 1967, the 10/5 Panel "functioned much as the 10/2 Panel had, but the resulting procedures proved cumbersome and potentially insecure."

According to John Prados, the CIA cut the PSB out of the loop, establishing instead an internal mechanism for approval of operations.[24] In 1953, DCI Smith said that the PSB was "incompetent and its work irrelevant".

"As the Truman administration ended", writes the Office of the Historian,

CIA was near the peak of its independence and authority in the field of covert action. Although CIA continued to seek and receive advice on specific projects from the NSC, the PSB, and the departmental representatives originally delegated to advise OPC, no group or officer outside of the DCI and the President himself had authority to order, approve, manage, or curtail operations.[26]

Enter Eisenhower

The Eisenhower administration took office on 20 January 1953. When Eisenhower replaced the PSB with the Operations Coordinating Board (OCB) on 2 September 1953, he also did away with the 10/5 Panel, reverting to “a smaller group identical to the former 10/2 Panel, without OCB staff participation.”[23] On 15 March 1954, Eisenhower approved NSC 5412,[27] which required CIA to consult with OCB.[23] Although Eisenhower would later congratulate the CIA with its success in deposing Guatemala’s democratically elected President, Jacobo Árbenz, he was privately irked by CIA’s unauthorized bombing of SS Springfjord. According to Prados, that incident “convinced Eisenhower of the need for more rigorous control over covert action”.[28]

Planning Coordination Group (March 1955-December 1955)

The arrangement in NSC 5412 suffered the same problem as the 10/5 Panel;[23] OCB “included more officials than ought to be concerned with secret war.”[29] So on 12 March 1955, Eisenhower approved NSC 5412/1,[30] creating a more senior Planning Coordination Group (PCG) within OCB. Significantly, the directive explicitly charged PCG with approving covert operations.[31] The PCG proved to be a failure; its chairman, Nelson Rockefeller, recommended the abolishment of PCG before year’s end.[32] According to Prados, the problem was that CIA had not been forthcoming with details, latching on to a mention of “need-to-know” in NSC 5412/1. The next directive would solve this by creating a committee “so high-powered there could be no question” of its need to know.[29]

Special Group/303 Committee (December 1955-February 1970)

NSC 5412/2[33] was approved by Eisenhower on 28

December 1955, a directive which remained in force for 15 years.[31] Paragraph 7 specified the new oversight mechanism:

> Except as the President otherwise directs, designated representatives of the Secretary of State and of the Secretary of Defense of the rank of Assistant Secretary or above, and a representative of the President designated for this purpose, shall hereafter be advised in advance of major covert programs initiated by CIA under this policy or as otherwise directed, and shall be the normal channel for giving policy approval for such programs as well as for securing coordination of support therefor among the Departments of State and Defense and the CIA.

The resulting body became known as the 5412 Committee or, from 1957, the Special Group.[34][note 1] It was the first time a "designated representative" of the President was included in the process;[31] Eisenhower used his National Security Advisors for this purpose.[35] The DCI was an ex officio member.[36] In 1957, Eisenhower made the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff a member as well.[37] In practice the membership of the Special Group varied on an ad hoc basis.

In late 1956, the newly formed PBCFIA, which had turned a candid eye towards covert operations, took issue with the "very informal" procedures of the Special Group.[39][40] Consequently, an annex[41] to NSC 5412/2 was approved by Eisenhower on 26 March 1957, clarifying project approvals, and for the first time requiring the CIA to circulate "proposal papers" in advance of approval.[40] The board continued to press for more prominence to the Special Group to keep the CIA from freewheeling. Eisenhower himself saw the proper functioning of the Special Group as crucial to fend off initiatives for meaningful congressional oversight of covert operations.[42] On 26 December

1958 Eisenhower asked the Special Group to institute weekly meetings,[37] with the result that "criteria for submission of projects to the Group were, in practice, considerably broadened."

Kennedy administration

The Special Group fell by the wayside when new administration of John F. Kennedy took office on 20 January 1961; although it remained "in theory intact", in practice it "took a backseat to meetings at which JFK personally presided".[44][note 2] After the failed Bay of Pigs Invasion, the Special Group returned to prominence,[43] and new procedures were set out in July 1961.[47] In the wake of the scandal, DDP Richard M. Bissell Jr. suggested the name and workings of the Special Group be made public to demonstrate to the American people that the CIA was under effective executive oversight; that did not happen.

A second Special Group (Augmented) existed from November 1961 to the Cuban Missile Crisis of October 1962.[26] The only difference was that it was specifically dedicated to managing the Cuban Project which sought to overthrow Fidel Castro's regime, and was headed by Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy.[49] After the Missile Crisis brought the world to the brink of destruction, management of the war against Castro was transferred to discussions in the EXCOMM and NSC proper, before being handed over to an "obscure NSC appendage" known as the Standing Group chaired by National Security Advisor McGeorge Bundy.[50]

Johnson administration

The Special Group was renamed to the 303 Committee on 2 June 1964, in response to the publication of the book The Invisible Government by David Wise and Thomas B. Ross, which made the old name public.[51] A NSC staffer had recommended the new name be "something utterly drab and innocuous" to deflect away attention.[52] The number refers to the national security directive which effected the change, NSAM 303.[52][53] Alternatively, the Encyclopedia of the Central Intelligence Agency by W. Thomas Smith Jr. claims the name derives from "a room number in the executive office complex in Washington D.C."[54]

40 Committee

On 17 February 1970, President Richard Nixon approved NSDM 40,[55] superseding and revoking NSC 5412/2, and replacing the 303 Committee with the 40 Committee. Among the few substantive changes introduced by Nixon was the inclusion of Attorney General John N. Mitchell and a requirement to review covert programs annually.[56] Like earlier, public exposure was the motive for changing the name; National Security Adviser Henry Kissinger explained to Nixon that "In view of recent mention of the 303 Committee in the public media, the directive changes the committee name to coincide with the number assigned to the NSDM itself, which is 40."[57]

Nixon and Kissinger, who was charged with overseeing all covert operations on Nixon's behalf,[58][54] kept the 40 Committee out of the loop on almost all the major and sensitive decisions, and the 40 Committee stopped having meetings; in 1972 it only met once.[56]

Operations Advisory Group

On February 18, 1976, 40 committee was replaced by the Operations Advisory Group, in accordance with Executive Order 11905 issued by Gerald Ford. The new group was composed of the President's Assistant for National Security Affairs, the Secretaries of State and Defense, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Director of Central Intelligence.

NSC Special Coordination Committee

The following year, on May 13, 1977, President Jimmy Carter issued Executive Order 11985 which updated the previous order, and renamed the Operations Advisory Group to the NSC Special Coordination Committee (SCC).

National Security Planning Group

Under the Reagan administration, the Special Coordination Committee was replaced by the National Security Planning Group (NSPG) which included the Vice-President, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of State, the Assistant for National Security Affairs, and the Director of the CIA.[61] One level below the NSPG was the Policy Coordination Group (PCG), first known as the Crisis Pre-Planning Group (CPPG); one source describes the PCG as the actual successor to the Special Coordination Committee.[62]

Special Intelligence Office

In 2002-2003, during the Bush Administration, Under Secretary of Defense for Policy Douglas Feith created a special-purpose group encompassing and focusing on all military and intelligence efforts involving Iraq,

> Afghanistan, and other Near East countries, as well as all activities falling under the rubric of the Global War on Terror. This group has been said to have been responsible for stovepiping selective raw intelligence data, bypassing analysis processes as well as bypassing customary cooperation and coordination with NSA, Mossad, and other intelligence entities in order to shape decisions as to the war with Iraq. Its functions were morphed in the Office of Special Plans, which was subsequently investigated for manipulations of intelligence, unlawful activities, and espionage.[63]
>
> Fletcher Prouty offers a rare glimpse of the "Power Elite" as described by Buckminster Fuller, or "The High Cabal" as Winston Churchill refered to them; and how they really operate. Those who have not been in a position to witness events such as these from the inside would not understand how invisible but ultimately effective they and their power structures are.

In 1955 under VP Richard Nixon and the National Security Council USAF officer Prouty was appointed the first "Focal Point" officer between the CIA and the Air Force for Clandestine Operations per National Security Council Directive 5412. He was Briefing Officer for the Secretary of Defense (1960-1961), and for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

This was important administratively because by that time Frank Wisner, the CIA Deputy Director of Plans, had set up his forward headquarters in Singapore and at the direction of the 5412 Committee of the National Security Council, headed by Nixon, Wisner occupied that faraway headquarters himself. (It should be noted that in 1958 Allen Dulles was the head of the CIA, his brother John Foster Dulles was the Secretary of State, Eisenhower was President, and Nixon, as Vice President, chaired the clandestine affairs committee, then known as the "Special Group 5412/2." In other words nothing was done in Indonesia that was not directed by Nixon. If an action had not been directed by the NSC, then it was done unlawfully by the CIA.)

In 1958 Allen Dulles would have brought such a major operation to the attention of the Special Group and he would operate with its approval. This was an essential step in national policy because it then empowered the Department of Defense to provide the necessary support requested by the CIA. Much of this fell within the area of my responsibility at Air Force Headquarters, and I was kept informed on a regular basis of approved action and of Nixon's keen interest in this project.

What is not generally known about the complex Indonesian struggle is the role that was played by the then Vice President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, and the bitter aftermath that involved the sudden ouster of Allen Dulles' protege, Frank Wisner, who at that time was the head of the clandestine arm of the CIA. After Watergate, when Anthony Lukas wrote in his book Nightmare, about the growing mistrust between Nixon and the Director of Central Intelligence, Richard Helms, he could have added that since the 1958 Indonesian rebellion there were many in the CIA who made a career of hating Nixon because of what he had done to Frank Wisner, among others.

The Indonesian campaign began rather casually as so many CIA ventures do. Few if any ever originate at the top.

During an unguarded conversation in Washington the Indonesian military attache mentioned earlier made it known to certain U.S. military acquaintances that there were many prominent and strong people in Indonesia who would be ready to rise against Sukarno if they were given a little support and encouragement from the United States. It happened that one of those U.S. military friends he talked to was not a military man at all, but a member of the CIA. The provocative words got back to Frank Wisner, then the Deputy Director of Plans. He was in charge of the CIA's clandestine activity and he authorized agents to follow up on that first conversation.

The Indonesian attache was wined and dined and encouraged to talk more. Reasons for the attache's return to Indonesia on official business were successfully arranged. He was accompanied by CIA agents traveling under the cover of "U.S. military" personnel. During this visit they spoke with rebel leaders. They learned enough about the potential strength of this opposition to encourage the CIA to set in motion its biggest operation up to that date.

Donald Barr and Thorkill Kristenson and Goerge Ball would be part of it grooming Barrack Obama Jr.

In the Pentagon there are thousands of nondescript offices in which all sorts of tasks are done. One of these unobtrusive offices was an Air Force Plans Division office. One day in 1958 two men from the CIA entered that office. After being identified they were permitted entrance to an interior office that was the "Focal Point" office for all U.S. Air Force Support of the clandestine operations of the CIA. I had established that office in 1955 on orders from Gen. Thomas D. White, then Chief of Staff of the Air Force. This came about after several meetings with Allen W. Dulles, the Director of Central Intelligence, and others. When the CIA men entered that office in 1958, I was still in charge.

The agents outlined the Indonesian Plan, the Philippine support and training program, and told me about their own special operations staff that had been put together specifically for this vast project. Then they urgently requested light bombardment aircraft and long-range transport aircraft. We decided to take a number of twin engine B-26 aircraft out of mothball storage, put them through a retrofit line, and modify them so that they could be armed with a special 50-caliber machine gun package of eight guns, in the nose of the plane. This would give the B-26 more firepower than it ever had during the Korean War or World War II. The project was given top priority and covered in deep secrecy. Programs for pilot training and the recruitment of "mercenaries" were established.

Concurrent with our work the CIA was putting together a “wartime” operational staff. Lt. Gen. Earl Barnes, who had been a senior air commander during World War II under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, was brought in to run all clandestine air activities.

At that time Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer was Commander in Chief of the Ryukyu Command on Okinawa. One day he received a call from General David M. Shoup, the U.S. Marine Commander on Okinawa, asking if the Army could spare 14,000 rifles for a Marine requirement. Surprised at the Marine request for such a large order of guns, Lemnitzer acquiesced nonetheless and ordered the transfer of these weapons on the condition that they would be quickly replaced.

High on the ridge line of central Okinawa overlooking the city of Naha there was a modest size “Army” installation that hustled with considerable activity. This was the main CIA operational base in the Far East. It was under the direction of Ted Shannon, one of the Agency’s most powerful agents. It was Shannon’s office that had actually requested 42,000 rifles from General Shoup and since the order was so large Shoup had been unable to supply them, and had therefore borrowed 14,000 from the Army.

On nearby Taiwan, the CIA had another large facility - a “Navy” base known as the Naval Auxiliary Communication Center (NACC). This “Comm Center” controlled a large and very active air base a few miles south of Taiwan’s capital, Taipei, and the huge Air America facilities near Taipei and the city of Tainan.

The B-26 bombers were ready to fly and a special ferrying arrangement was made with the Air Force to fly them across the Pacific to the Philippines and Menado.

Rebel Indonesians, trained and equipped in the Philippines, were returned to Sumatra. Some were air-dropped and others landed on the beach from submarines that the U.S. Navy was operating, in support of the CIA, in the oceans south of Indonesia near the Christmas Islands.

The war was on.

On Feb. 9, 1958, rebel Colonel Maluddin Simbolon issued an ultimatum in the name of a provincial government, the Central Sumatran Revolutionary Council, calling for the formation of a new central government. Sukarno refused and called upon his loyal army commander, General Abdul Haris Nasution, to destroy the rebel forces. By Feb. 21 loyal forces had been airlifted to Sumatra and had begun the attack. The rebel headquarters was in the southern coastal city of Padang. Rebel strongholds stretched all the way to Medan, near the northern end of the island and not far from Malaysia.

This was important administratively because by that time Frank Wisner, the CIA Deputy Director of Plans, had set up his forward headquarters in Singapore and at the direction of the 5412 Committee of the National Security Council, headed by Nixon, Wisner occupied that faraway headquarters himself. (It should be noted that in 1958 Allen Dulles was the head of the CIA, his brother John Foster Dulles was the Secretary of State, Eisenhower was President, and Nixon, as Vice President, chaired the clandestine affairs committee, then known as the "Special Group 5412/2." In other words nothing was done in Indonesia that was not directed by Nixon. If an action had not been directed by the NSC, then it was done unlawfully by the CIA.)

In 1958 Allen Dulles would have brought such a major operation to the attention of the Special Group and he would operate with its approval. This was an essential step in national policy because it then empowered the Department of Defense to provide the necessary support requested by the CIA. Much of this fell within the area of my responsibility at Air Force Headquarters, and I was kept informed on a regular basis of approved action and of Nixon's keen interest in this project.

The rebellion flared sporadically from one end of Indonesia to the other.

While the CIA was supporting up to 100,000 rebels, the State Department professed innocence. The U.S. ambassador, Howard P. Jones, maintained that the United States had nothing to do with the rebellion and he protested the capture of the American oil properties. On the other hand, Sukarno had asked for more arms aid from the United States. He must have had strong suspicions about the source of rebel support. The vast number of guns, the bombers and heavy air transport aircraft dropping hundreds of tons of arms and equipment, as well as submarines supporting beach operations were just too sophisticated to be anything but major power ploys.

Thus, his appeal for U.S. arms aid had the ring of gamesmanship.

Playing along with the game, John Foster Dulles issued a statement saying that the United States would not provide arms to either side.

Operation 40 from Spartacus Educational

On 11th December, 1959, Colonel Joseph Caldwell King, chief of CIA's Western Hemisphere Division, sent a confidential memorandum to Allen W. Dulles, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency. King argued that in Cuba there existed a "far-left dictatorship, which if allowed to remain will encourage similar actions against U.S. holdings in other Latin American countries."

As a result of this memorandum Dulles established Operation 40. It obtained this name because originally there were 40 agents involved in the operation. Later this was expanded to 70 agents. The group was presided over by Richard Nixon. Tracy Barnes became operating officer of what was also called the Cuban Task Force. The first meeting chaired by Barnes took place in his office on 18th January, 1960, and was attended by David Atlee Phillips, E. Howard Hunt, Jack Esterline, and Frank Bender.

According to Fabian Escalante, a senior officer of the Cuban Department of State Security (G-2), in 1960 Richard Nixon recruited an "important group of businessmen headed by George Bush (Snr.) and Jack Crichton, both Texas oilmen, to gather the necessary funds for the operation". (2) This suggests that Operation 40 agents were involved in freelance work.

It is known that at this time that George Bush and Jack Crichton were involved in covert right-wing activities. In 1990 Common Cause Magazinemagazine argued that: "The CIA put millionaire and agent George Bush in charge of recruiting exiled Cubans for the CIA's invading army; Bush was working with another Texan oil magnate, Jack Crichton, who helped him in terms of the invasion." (3) This story was linked to the release of "a memorandum in that context addressed to FBI chief J. Edward Hoover and signed November 1963, which reads: Mr. George Bush of the CIA" (4)

Reinaldo Taladrid and Lazaro Baredo claim that in 1959 George Bush was asked "to cooperate in funding the nascent anti-Castro groups that the CIA decided to create". The man "assigned to him for his new mission" was Féliz Rodríguez.

Daniel Hopsicker also takes the view that Operation 40 involved private funding. In the book, Barry and the Boys: The CIA, the Mob and America's Secret History, he claims that Richard Nixon had established Operation 40 as a result of pressure from American corporations which had suffered at the hands of Fidel Castro.

Webster Griffin Tarpley and Anton Chaitkin have argued that George Bush was very close to members of Operation 40 in the early 1960s. In September, 1963, Bush launched his Senate campaign. At that time, right-wing Republicans were calling on John F. Kennedy to take a more aggressive approach towards

Castro. For example, in one speech Barry Goldwater said: “I advocate the recognition of a Cuban government in exile and would encourage this government every way to reclaim its country. This means financial and military assistance.” Bush took a more extreme position than Goldwater and called for a “new government-in-exile invasion of Cuba”. As Tarpley and Chaitkin point out, beneficiaries of this policy would have been “Theodore Shackley, who was by now the station chief of CIA Miami Station, Felix Rodriguez, Chi Chi Quintero, and the rest of the boys” from Operation 40. (7)

Paul Kangas is another investigator who has claimed that George Bush was involved with members of Operation 40. In an article published in The Realist in 1990, Kangas claims: “Among other members of the CIA recruited by George Bush for (the attacks on Cuba) were Frank Sturgis, Howard Hunt, Bernard Baker and Rafael Quintero.” In an article published in Granma in January, 2006, the journalists Reinaldo Taladrid and Lazaro Baredo argued that “Another of Bush’s recruits for the Bay of Pigs invasion, Rafael Quintero, who was also part of this underworld of organizations and conspiracies against Cuba, stated: If I was to tell what I know about Dallas and the Bay of Pigs, it would be the greatest scandal that has ever rocked the nation.”

Fabian Escalante names William Pawley as being one of those who was lobbying for the CIA to assassinate Fidel Castro. (9) Escalante points out that Pawley had played a similar role in the CIA overthrow of Jacobo Arbenz Guzmán in Guatemala. Interestingly, the CIA assembled virtually the same team that was involved in the removal of Arbenz: Tracey Barnes, Richard Bissell, David Morales, David Atlee Phillips, E. Howard Hunt, Rip Robertson and Henry Hecksher. Added to this list was several agents who had been involved in undercover operations in Germany: Ted Shackley, Tom Clines and William Harvey.

According to Daniel Hopsicker, the following were also involved in Operation 40: Edwin Wilson, Barry Seal, William Seymour, Frank Sturgis and Gerry Hemming. (10) It has also been pointed out that Operation 40 was not only involved in trying to overthrow Fidel Castro. Sturgis has claimed: “this assassination group (Operation 40) would upon orders, naturally, assassinate either members of the military or the political parties of the foreign country that you were going to infiltrate, and if necessary some of your own members who were suspected of being foreign agents.”

At times he would be called to meet with Allen Dulles and John Foster Dulles at their home on highly classified business. He was assigned to attend MKULTRA meetings. In this capacity Col. Prouty would be at the nerve center of the Military-Industrial Complex at a time unequaled in American History. He has written on these subjects, about the JFK assassination, the Cold War period, and Vietnamese warfare, and the existence of a “Secret Team”. He backs up his his work with seldom seen or mentioned official documents - some never before released.

Fletcher Prouty offers a rare glimpse of the “Power Elite” as described by Buckminster Fuller, or “The High Cabal” as Winston Churchill refered to them; and how they really operate. Those who have not been in a position to witness events such as these from the inside would not understand how invisible but ultimately effective they and their power structures are.

Fletcher wrote, lectured, spoke on Radio shows, and was on Television many times, often regarding political intrigue from Watergate to the JFK Assassination. Of course he worked with Oliver Stone, Jim Garrison, and Zachary Sklar on the film “JFK”

Fletcher Prouty was one of the most warm and amiable men you could ever meet. Almost endlessly, people from around the world came to visit and interview him. All you had to do was ask and he would give of his time. It will be his selfless and dogged effort to educate and inform that I feel he will be remembered for.

Whenever I was at his upstairs office at his home there was always a stack of letters that he would be replying to. Not a few, but a stack!

He wrote two books and close to 100 articles for various publications. I know he was very proud of everything thing he had written, but especially his two books, “The Secret Team”, and “JFK, Vietnam The CIA, And The Plot to Assassinate JFK”

Some CV information on Col Prouty

Col. L. Fletcher Prouty (USAF)

Born: Springfield, Mass., January 24, 1917. Attended public schools. President, High School Student Government. Member, undefeated Golf Team. Vocalist with Big Bands, sang in most large dance halls, hotels and colleges in Northeast. Graduate: Mass. State College 1941, A.B. degree and 2nd Lt. Commission, U.S. Cavalry.

June 1941

Began military career with 4th Armored Division, Pine Camp, NY. At Communications Officer School, Ft. Knox, KY, on December 7, 1941[Pearl Harbor]. Transferred to Air Force 1942. Earned Pilot’s wings November, 1942. Arrived British West Africa [Ghana], February 1943 as pilot with Air Transport Command.

Assigned to V.I.P. flying, summer 1943. Personal pilot for Gen. Omar Bradley, Gen. J. C. H. Lee and Gen. C. R. Smith (Founder and President - American Airlines), among others. Landed U.S. Geological Survey Team in Saudi Arabia, Oct 1943, to confirm oil discoveries for Cairo Conference.

Assigned special duties at Cairo and Teheran Conferences, November-December 1943. Flew Chiang Kai Shek’s Chinese delegation (T.V. Soong’s delegates) to Teheran.

Chief Pilot (1,200 pilots), Cairo for Air Transport Command. Led special air mission into Soviet Union, and others into Turkey, 1944. Evacuated “Guns of Navaronne” British commandos from Turkey to Palestine. Assisted in capture of leader of German Gold smuggling ring (The actor, Bruce Cabot) in Turkey and Cairo. Led large flight of transport aircraft to Turkish-Syrian border to evacuate 750 American POW’s and OSS-selected Ex-Nazi Intelligence experts from the Balkans, September 1944. The first “overt” Cold War mission.

1945

Transferred to SW Pacific, flew in New Guinea, Leyte and was on Okinawa at end of war. Landed near Tokyo at surrender with first three planes carrying Gen. MacArthur’s bodyguard troops. Flew out with American POWs. Photographed Hiroshima, that date. (With James Paul Donegan, recon P-51 pilot in the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombing air wings?)

1946-49

Assigned by Army to Yale University to begin first USAF ROTC program. Taught “Aeronautics” and “Evolution of Warfare”. Transferred to U.S. Air Force ROTC headquarters to write college text books. Wrote the college textbook on “Aeronautics” and another on “Rockets and Missiles”.

1950-52

Transferred to Colorado Springs to establish Air Defense Command. There, Director, Personnel Planning for Command (77,000 men) and first to put personnel records on Computer. Attended Nuclear Weapons school, Sandia, N.M. Selected for Air Force Command and Staff College, Montgomery, Ala.

1952-54 Assigned to Korean War duties in Japan. Military

Manager, Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during Occupation. Commander, Military Air Transport Service, Heavy Transport Squadron responsible for military and diplomatic flights from Toyko to Saudi Arabia and back, in addition to daily flights to Korea, Honolulu and Pacific Islands. Founder, Toyko Toastmasters Club. Attended, JCS operated Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, 1955

1955-1964

Assigned to Headquarters, U.S. Air Force and directed to create an Air Force world-wide system for “Military Support of the Clandestine Operations of the CIA”, as required by a new National Security Council Directive, 5412 of March, 1954. Wrote this policy in conjunction with Air Force General Counsel and CIA’s General Counsel. Set up a TOP SECRET world wide support force and communications system. Was sent around the world by the Director, Central Intelligence, Allen W. Dulles, to meet the CIA Station Chiefs, 1956. Directed Air Force participation in countless CIA operations during this period. As a result of a CIA Commendation for this work, awarded the Legion of Merit by the Air Force, promoted to Colonel and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense to carry out this same type of work for all military services. Assigned to the Office of Special Operations.

With the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency by Secretary McNamara and the abolishment of the OSO, was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to create a similar, world-wide office and was the Chief of Special Operations, with the Joint Staff all during 1962-1963.

Received orders to travel as the Military Escort officer for a group of VIPs who were being flown to the South Pole, Nov 10 - Nov 28, 1963, to activate a Nuclear Power plant for heat, light and sea water desalination at the U.S. Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica.

Retired as Colonel, U.S. Air Force, 1964 and was awarded one of the first three Joint Chiefs of Staff Commendation Medals by General Maxwell Taylor, Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff.

1964-1965

VP International Operations, General Aircraft Corporation … a company created by MIT and Harvard specialists that designed and built aircraft that were used by the CIA and Army Special Forces.

After the war, Prouty accepted an assignment from the U.S. Army in September 1945 to inaugurate the ROTC program at Yale University, where he also taught during each scholastic year from 1946 to 1948. This timeline intersects with the years that George Bush and William F. Buckley, Jr. also spent at Yale. Prouty fondly recalled Buckley at that time in his role as editor of the Yale Daily News, and Prouty later told an interviewer in 1989 that he had written for Buckley on several occasions.

In 1950 he transferred to Colorado Springs to build Air Defense Command. From 1952 to 1954 he was assigned to Korean War duties in Japan, where he served as Military Manager for Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) during the post-war U.S. occupation.

In 1955 he was assigned to the coordination of operations between the fledgling U.S. Air Force and the CIA.[1] As a result of a CIA commendation for this work he was awarded the Legion of Merit by the U.S. Air Force, promoted to colonel, and assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense.[citation needed]

Following the creation of the Defense Intelligence Agency and termination of the OSO by Secretary Robert McNamara, Prouty was transferred to the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and charged with the creation a similar organization on a global scale.

From 1962 to 1963 he served as Chief of Special Operations with the Joint Staff. In an chance encounter with Edward Lansdale in the hallways of the Pentagon, a “month or two before” the assassination (as Prouty tells it), Lansdale informed Prouty he had arranged for him [Prouty] to accompany a group of VIPs to the South Pole from November 10 to 23, in the capacity of Military Escort officer.

The ostensible purpose of the trip was the activation of a nuclear power plant at the United States Navy Base at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, to provide heat, light, and sea water desalination.[citation needed] Prouty later described his confusion at the unusual assignment, but he expected the job to be a “paid vacation” and accepted the task.

Prouty retired in 1964 as a colonel in the U.S. Air Force. As recognition of his long and distinguished career in the service of his country, he was awarded one of the first three Joint Service Commendation Medals by General Maxwell D. Taylor, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

Charles Pearre Cabell (October 11, 1903 - May 25, 1971) was a United States Air Force general and Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (1953-1962) and likely also knew James Paul Donegan my father more on James Paul Donegan and he kennedys and Prouty much later.

Charles P. Cabell was born in Dallas, Texas on October 11, 1903, the son of Ben E. (son of Confederate general William L. Cabell) and Sadie E. (Pearre) Cabell.[1][2] He attended Oak Cliff High School in Dallas, Texas, and graduated from West Point in 1925.[2][3] He was initially commissioned as an artillery lieutenant and served in the field artillery until 1931, when he went to flying school, and was transferred to the Air Corps.

In February 1942, Cabell was assigned as assistant executive for technical planning and coordination in the Office of the Chief of the Air Corps, and promoted to colonel. During the summer of 1943, he attended the first course of the Army and Navy Staff College. In late 1943, he was transferred to the Eighth Air Force and assumed command of the 45th Combat Bombardment Wing. In April 1944, he became director of plans for the U.S. Strategic Air Force in Europe, and later that year, having achieved the rank of brigadier general, became director of operations and intelligence for the Mediterranean Air Forces. During the war he served both at air force headquarters at the Pentagon and in the European Theater.

In May 1945, he was assigned to Air Force headquarters as chief of the Strategy and Policy Division. In December 1945, he was detailed to the United Nations Military Staff Committee, where he held roles as deputy and chief U.S. Air Force delegate to the committee. In August 1947, he was promoted major general and returned to Air Force headquarters, serving in planning and intelligence roles, and became director of Air Force Intelligence in May 1948. In 1949, Cabell set up Project Grudge to "make a study reviewing the UFO situation for AF HQ." However, Grudge quickly became all but moribund, while simultaneously reporting that all UFO cases were being closely investigated. When Cabell learned of this, he ordered Grudge dissolved and ordered that the "open minded"[4] Project Blue Book be created.

He held this director of Air Force Intelligence post until 1951, before being made director of the staff for the Joint Chiefs of Staff from November 1951 to 1953. During this time, he was promoted to lieutenant general.[citation needed] In 1952, he was an enthusiastic promoter of the U-2 spy plane, along with Allen Welsh Dulles and John Foster Dulles.

CIA career

On April 23, 1953, while still an active air force officer, he was appointed Deputy Director of the CIA under Allen Dulles. In 1956, along with the CIA's Richard Bissell, he flew to Bonn, to brief the West German Chancellor, Konrad Adenauer, on the ultra-secret U-2 spy plane. Cabell personally negotiated with Chancellor Adenauer for permission to station the U-2 in Wiesbaden and from there to fly over the Soviet Union illegally. It was the U-2 program that allowed CIA chief Allen Dulles to sabotage the peace summit between Khrushchev and Eisenhower.

Cabell was promoted to full general in 1958[6] and retired from active duty effective January 31, 1962.

Cabell was forced to resign as deputy director by President Kennedy on January 31, 1962, following the failure of the Bay of Pigs Invasion.[8] Cabell's brother, Earle Cabell, was Mayor of Dallas when Kennedy visited that city and was assassinated, on November 22, 1963.

JFK assassination

One hypothesis regarding the assassination of U.S. President John F. Kennedy implicates Cabell and several other CIA officials, including James Jesus Angleton and William King Harvey, as well as the "three tramps", and Cabell's brother Earle Cabell.

During Jim Garrison's 1973 bribery trial, tape recordings from March 1971 revealed that Garrison considered publicly implicating Cabell of conspiracy in the assassination after learning he was the brother of the Dallas mayor.[11] Theorizing that a plot to kill the President was masterminded out of New Orleans in conjunction with the CIA with cooperation from the Dallas police department and city government, Garrison tasked his chief investigator, Pershing Gervais, of looking into the possibility that Cabell had stayed in the city's Fontainebleau Motel at the time of the assassination.[11] The Washington Post reported that there was no evidence that Gervais ever followed through with the request and that there was no further mention of Cabell in Garrison's investigation.

Personal life

Cabell was married to Jacklyn DeHymel in 1934; they had two sons, Charles P. Cabell, Jr. and Benjamin Cabell IV, and one daughter, Catharine C. Bennett. He left an autobiography, A Man of Intelligence: Memoirs of War, Peace and the CIA, published in 1997. His oldest son Charles was also an Air Force officer and West Point graduate (Class of 1958), achieving the rank of brigadier general.

The Great Treason X, Pillory, Ted Gunderson Bio, Written By The Right Hand, Majic 12 and the Secret Government

Wayne Madsen is a Revealer

Summery: the CIA Station Chief at Hawaii was working for Howard Hunt, the NSA, others, created Obama, and killed JFK.

Investigative Journalist: Obama Grandparents CIA Connections; Bogus Harvard Certificate

Grandma "Toot's" Hawaiian banking intrigue Via Helen Tansey | T-Room.us

By Wayne Madsen Wayne Madsen Report dot com

President Obama's grandmother, Madelyn Payne Dunham, the woman who actually raised the future President of the United States, served as the vice president and chief escrow account officer for the bank of Hawaii at an interesting time for the CIA's murky operations in the 50th state. Dunham retired from the Bank of Hawaii in 1986 but not before a massive financial network was exposed in 1983 as a result of the financial failure and Internal Revenue Service investigation of a major CIA proprietary headquartered in Honolulu, Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham and Wong (BBRDW), the Bishop being a member of one of Hawaii's landed gentry families and one that both Madelyn Dunham and her husband Stanley, as well as their daughter, Stanley Ann, had past interactions.

New York businessman Charles Reed Bishop married Bernice Pauahi Paki of the royal House of Kamehameha in 1850. Their descendants would play a major role in Hawaii to the present day. Charles Bishop, through the Bishop Trust, built a number of buildings at the elite Punahou School, where Obama attended. The Bishop Trust also funded the Bishop Museum for whom Obama's mother briefly worked as a Javanese history specialist.

For an agency that disavowed any connection to BBRDW, the CIA curiously maintains detailed files on the failed corporation that was involved, according to the editor's book, The Manufacturing of a President, in making pay-offs to Asian dictators who were allies of the United States. These payments were made via the escrow accounts overseen at the Bank of Hawaii by Obama's grandmother [who died and then burst into flames when alone with Barrack Obama on election night eve 2008.]

Among the CIA files is an obscure article on BBRDW written by John Kelly for the June-August 1984 issue of CounterSpy, a now-defunct magazine. BBRDW was an investment advisory firm on the surface but underneath its charade, it was a facilitator for various CIA clandestine operations.

Although the CIA vehemently denied that BBRDW belonged to them, One of the company's consultants and investors was John "Jack" Kindschi, the former CIA station chief in Hawaii who previously served in clandestine positions in Stockholm and Mexico City. More interesting, Kindschi's cover in Mexico City was the Robert Mullin Company, a public relations firm that employed one E. Howard Hunt, who would later emerge as one of conspirators in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Kindschi would most certainly have been known to Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and CIA veterans Stanley and Madelyn Dunham who arrived in Hawaii from Seattle just as Hawaii became a state in 1960. The CIA had cleverly provided Stanley cover as a "furniture salesman." In fact, Pratt Furniture of Honolulu, Dunham's alleged employer, never existed save for a filing in the business records held by the State of Hawaii.

When BBRDW founder Ron Rewald, CIA code name "WINTERDOG" and "R," attempted to commit suicide in a room at the Waikiki Sheraton in 1983, after BBRDW's financial collapse, the CIA's "plausible denial" machine went into full gear. CIA general counsel Robert Laprade stated in a sworn statement:

> "the CIA did not cause Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham & Wong to be created nor has the agency at any time owned, operated, controlled or invested in Bishop, Baldwin, Rewald, Dillingham, Wong."

End of the story?

Not quite.

While denying any CIA connection to BBRDW, Laprade asked that defense documents filed by Rewald in the government's fraud case against the firm be sealed. Not only did U.S. Judge Martin Spence seal all the defense documents but he ordered sealed all documents mentioning the CIA and all attorneys, parties, and their agents were placed under a court gag order. Not coincidentally, one of the federal prosecutors, John Peyton, previously worked for the CIA's general counsel's office.

Rewald's court affidavit stated that BBRDW was used by the CIA to "shelter monies of highly placed foreign diplomats and businessmen, who wished to 'export' cash to the United States, where it would be available to them in the event of emergency." The CIA's man in Cambodia, Marshal Lon Nol, availed himself of the accounts after he fled Cambodia to Hawaii after the takeover by the Khmer Rouge. Rewald bought a house form Lon Nol in Hawaii, an address that was later used for CIA cover companies.

The accounts held by BBRDW for foreign officials were held in "negotiable securities, wire transfers, or checks, many from the Chase Manhattan Bank." Chase Manhattan was owned by David Rockefeller.

The Kelly article refers to letters between Kindschi and CIA agent Charles T. Connor that confirmed that BBRDW was providing such financial shelter for foreign officials, not just those in Asia but around the world. One letter from Connor to Kindschi stated that BBRDW provided a scheme for Greek elites to circumvent stringent Greek foreign exchange controls by investing in BBRDW. A CIA intermediary in Greece is named in the letter: Dino Goulos. Dino did not help the CIA because of his love for the agency. The letter states: " … if Dino can find investment friends seeking safe haven in dollar denominated investments with BBRD&W, we would be able to pay him a 'finders fee' of up to 5 percent …"

In other cases, BBRDW used joint business ventures to cultivate contacts with organizations such as the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC). At the same time that Barack Obama was working for the CIA's premier corporate liaison and contact-development firm, Business International Corporation of New York, BBRDW had signed on as joint venture partners billionaire Philippines banker Enrique Zobel, Sultan of Brunei Hassanal Bolkiah, Crown Prince Saud Mohammed of the United Arab Emirates, and wealthy Indonesian businessmen Indri Gautama.

These four provided critical oil price intelligence to the CIA, particularly to major oil investor Bill Casey, the director.

BBRDW established the Hawaiian-Arabian Investment Company and U.S. & United Arab Emirates Investment Company with Saud Mohammed and Gautama and the Ayala-Hawaiian Corporation with Zobel. Zobel, who founded the Ayala Corporation in 1983, was a member of the influential and wealthy Ayala family of the Philippines. All were registered with the State of Hawaii and were as phony as Obama's grandfather's furniture company.

The Honolulu Star-Advertiser spiked a story by reporter Charles Memminger on Zobel's ties to the CIA operation. The reason was that Zobel was part of the oligarchical opposition opposed to President Ferdinand Marcos, an opposition that was being groomed by the CIA. The CIA did not want Zobel and his allies burned. Eventually, Marcos, like Lon Nol before him, would flee to Hawaii in 1986 after being ousted. With Marcos came his massive wealth, much of it deposited in Hawaiian banks, including Grandma Toot's Bank of Hawaii, as the result of wire transfers from the Philippines National Bank.

Before Zobel broke with Marcos, the Philippines businessman helped arrange for BBRDW to obtain information on the purchase of two Hawaii estates by Marcos in 1977 and 1980. The first was an estate at 2338 Maikiki Heights Drive in Honolulu and the second was the Helen Knudsen estate, across the street from the first purchased estate.

Rewald was also a sleuth for the CIA. Court exhibits included information on Rewald filing a report to Langley with Tokyo CIA station chief Eugene Welsch. Rewald obtained the blueprints for Japan Airlines' top secret High Speed Surface Transport (HSST). Rewald was said to have obtained the prints from a BBRDW's client's son who worked for the Japanese Ministry of Railroads. BBRDW also was involved with a covert CIA funding contrivance in Japan called T&B International Co., Ltd.

… … … … … … … … … … … … … … … …

Sources: T-Room.us. www.WayneMadsenReport.com

iew the complete Birther Report presentation at:

https://www.voltairenet.org/article189895.html

https://www.voltairenet.org/article189895.html

More NSC 5412 activity under Vice President Nixon, Prouty, The Dulles Brothers, Angleton, Rockefeller's, and others

CIA: Undermining and Nazifying Ukraine Since 1953

by Wayne Madsen

The recent declassification of over 3800 documents by the Central Intelligence Agency provides detailed proof that since 1953 the CIA operated two major programs intent on not only destabilizing Ukraine but Nazifying it with followers of the World War II Ukrainian Nazi leader Stepan Bandera.

The CIA programs spanned some four decades. Starting as a paramilitary operation that provided funding and equipment for such anti-Soviet Ukrainian resistance groups as the Ukrainian Supreme Liberation Council (UHVR); its affiliates, the Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists (OUN) and Ukrainian Insurgent Army (UPA), all Nazi Banderists. The CIA also provided support to a relatively anti-Bandera faction of the UHVR, the ZP-UHVR, a foreign-based virtual branch of the CIA and British MI-6 intelligence services. The early CIA operation to destabilize Ukraine, using exile Ukrainian agents in the West who were infiltrated into Soviet Ukraine, was codenamed Project AERODYNAMIC.

A formerly TOP SECRET CIA document dated July 13, 1953, provides a description of AERODYNAMIC: «The purpose of Project AERODYNAMIC is to provide for the exploitation and expansion of the anti-Soviet Ukrainian resistance for cold war and hot war purposes. Such groups as the Ukrainian Supreme Council of Liberation (UHVR) and its Ukrainian Insurgent Army (OUN), the Foreign Representation of the Ukrainian Supreme Council of Liberation (ZPUHVR) in Western Europe and the United States, and other organizations such as the OUN/B will be utilized». The CIA admitted in a 1970 formerly SECRET document that it had been in contact with the ZPUHVR since 1950.

The OUN-B was the Bandera faction of the OUN and its neo-Nazi sympathizers are today found embedded in the Ukrainian national government in Kiev and in regional and municipal governments throughout the country.

AERODYNAMIC placed field agents inside Soviet Ukraine who, in turn, established contact with Ukrainian Resistance Movement, particularly SB (intelligence service) agents of the OUN who were already operating inside Ukraine. The CIA arranged for airdrops of communications equipment and other supplies, presumably including arms and ammunition, to the «secret» CIA army in Ukraine. Most of the CIA's Ukrainian agents received training in West Germany from the US Army's Foreign Intelligence Political and Psychological (FI-PP) branch. Communications between the CIA agents in Ukraine and their Western handlers were conducted by two-way walkie-talkie (WT), shortwave via international postal channels, and clandestine airborne and overland couriers.

Agents airdropped into Ukraine carried a kit that contained, among other items, a pen gun with tear gas, an arctic sleeping bag, a camp axe, a trenching tool, a pocket knife, a chocolate wafer, a Minox camera and a 35 mm Leica camera, film, a Soviet toiletry kit, a Soviet cap and jacket, a .22 caliber pistol and bullets, and rubber «contraceptives» for 'waterproofing film'. Other agents were issued radio sets, hand generators, nickel-cadmium batteries, and homing beacons.

An affiliated project under AERODYNAMIC was codenamed CAPACHO.

CIA documents show that AERODYNAMIC continued in operation through the Richard Nixon administration into 1970.

The program took on more of a psychological warfare operation veneer than a real-life facsimile of a John Le Carré «behind the Iron Curtain» spy novel. The CIA set up a propaganda company in Manhattan that catered to printing and publishing anti-Soviet ZPUHVR literature that would be smuggled into Ukraine. The new battleground would not be swampy retreats near Odessa and cold deserted warehouses in Kiev but at the center of the world of publishing and the broadcast media.

The CIA front company was Prolog Research and Publishing Associates, Inc., which later became known simply as Prolog. The CIA codename for Prolog was AETENURE. The group published the Ukrainian language «Prolog» magazine. The CIA referred to Prolog as a «non-profit, tax exempt cover company for the ZP/UHVR's activities». The «legal entity» used by the CIA to fund Prolog remains classified information. However, the SECRET CIA document does state that the funds for Prolog were passed to the New York office «via Denver and Los Angeles and receipts are furnished Prolog showing fund origin to backstop questioning by New York fiscal authorities».

As for the Munich office of Prolog, the CIA document states that funding for it comes from an account separate from that of Prolog in New York from a cooperating bank, which also remains classified. In 1967, the CIA merged the activities of Prolog Munich and the Munich office of the Ukrainian exiled nationalist «Suchasnist» journal. The Munich office also supported the «Ukrainische Gesellschaft fur Auslandstudien». The CIA documents also indicate that US Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) agents may have interfered with AERODYNAMIC agents in New York. A 1967 CIA directive advised all ZPUHVR agents in the United States to either report their contacts with United Nations mission diplomats and UN employees from the USSR and the Ukrainian SSR to the FBI or their own CIA project case officer. CIA agents in charge of AERODYNAMIC in New York and Munich were codenamed AECASSOWARY agents. Apparently not all that taken with the brevity of MI-6's famed agent «007», one CIA agent in Munich was codenamed AECASSOWARY/6 and the senior agent in New York was AECASSOWARY/2.

AECASSOWARY agents took part in and ran other AERODYNAMIC teams that infiltrated the Vienna World Youth Conference in 1959. The Vienna infiltration operation, where contact with made with young Ukrainians, was codenamed LCOUTBOUND by the CIA.

In 1968, the CIA ordered Prolog Research and Publishing Associates, Inc. terminated and replaced by Prolog Research Corporation, «a profit-making, commercial enterprise ostensibly serving contracts for unspecified users as private individuals and institutions».

The shakeup of Prolog was reported by the CIA to have arisen from operation MHDOWEL. There is not much known about MHDOWEL other than it involved the blowing of the CIA cover of a non-profit foundation. The following is from a memo to file, dated January 31, 1969, from CIA assistant general counsel John Greany, «Concerns a meeting of Greaney, counsel Lawrence Houston and Rocca about a 'confrontation' with NY FBI office on January 17, 1969. They discussed two individuals whose names were redacted. One was said to be a staff agent of the CIA since 8/28/61 who had been assigned in 1964 to write a monograph, which had been funded by a grant from a foundation whose cover was blown in MHDOWEL (I suspect that is code for US Press). One of the individuals [name redacted] had been requested for use with Project DTPILLAR in November 1953 to Feb. 1955 and later in March 1964 for WUBRINY. When the Domestic Operations Division advised Security that this person would not be used in WUBRINY, Rocca commented that ‘there are some rather ominous allegations against members of the firm of [redacted],’ indicating one member of that firm was a ‘card-carrying member of the Communist Party.’ The memo went on to say that Rocca was investigating the use of the individual in Project DTPILLAR concerning whether that person had mentioned activities in Geneva in March 1966 in connection with Herbert Itkin». Raymond Rocca was the deputy chief of the CIA’s Counterintelligence Division. Itkin was an undercover agent for the FBI and CIA who allegedly infiltrated the Mafia and was given a new identity in California as «Herbert Atkin» in 1972.

In 1969, AERODYNAMIC began advancing the cause of the Crimean Tatars. In 1959, owing to Canada’s large Ukrainian population, Canada’s intelligence service began a program similar to AERODYNAMIC codenamed «REDSKIN».

As international air travel increased, so did the number of visitors to the West from Soviet Ukraine. These travelers were of primary interest to AERODYNAMIC. Travelers were asked by CIA agents to clandestinely carry Prolog materials, all censored by the Soviet government, back to Ukraine for distribution. Later, AERODYNAMIC agents began approaching Ukrainian visitors to eastern European countries, particularly Soviet Ukrainian visitors to Czechoslovakia during the «Prague Spring» of 1968. The Ukrainian CIA agents had the same request to carry back subversive literature to Ukraine.

AERODYNAMIC continued into the 1980s as operation QRDYNAMIC, which was assigned to the CIA’s Political and Psychological Staff’s Soviet East Europe Covert Action Program. Prolog saw its operations expanded from New York and Munich to London, Paris, and Tokyo. QRDYNAMIC began linking up with operations financed by hedge fund tycoon George Soros, particularly the Helsinki Watch Group's operatives in Kiev and Moscow. Distribution of underground material expanded from journals and pamphlets to audio cassette tapes, self-inking stamps with anti-Soviet messages, stickers, and T-shirts.

QRDYNAMIC expanded its operations into China, obviously from the Tokyo office, and Czechoslovakia, Poland, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Yugoslavia, Afghanistan, Soviet Central Asia, the Soviet Pacific Maritime region, and among Ukrainian-Canadians. QRDYNAMIC also paid journalist agents-of-influence for their articles. These journalists were located in Sweden, Switzerland, Australia, Israel, and Austria.

But at the outset of glasnost and perestroika in the mid-1980s, things began to look bleak for QRDYNAMIC. The high cost of rent in Manhattan had it looking for cheaper quarters in New Jersey.

Assistant Secretary of State for European/Eurasian Affairs Victoria Nuland, the baked goods-bearing «Maiden of Maidan,» told the US Congress that the United States spent $5 billion to wrest control of Ukraine from the Russian sphere since the collapse of the Soviet Union. With the recent disclosures from the CIA it appears that the price tag to the American tax payers of such foreign shenanigans was much higher.

CONTINUED IN THE REPLY BELOW Last edited by bsteadman; 09-14-2013, 08:32 PM.

This book

Doctor Orly Taitz is a Revealor of SSN Obama Fraud

If you love your country, please help me Doctor Orly Taitz Esq. fight this creeping tyranny and corruption. Donations no matter how small will help pay for airline and travel expenses. Mail donations to:

Defend Our Freedoms Foundation,
c/o Dr. Orly Taitz
29839 Santa Margarita Pkwy, Ste 100
Rancho Santa Margarita, CA 92688. Doctor Orly Taitz

…

Review of Politics, Economics, Constitution, Law and World Affairs by Attorney and Doctor Orly Taitz

If you love your country, please help me fight this creeping tyranny and corruption. Donations no matter how small will help pay for airline and travel expenses. Doctor Orly Taitz

When the people fear their government, there is tyranny. When the government fears the people, there is liberty. -- Thomas Jefferson

During times of universal deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act. -- George Orwell

> First they ignore you, then they ridicule you, then they fight you, then you win. -- Mahatma Gandhi
>
> …

The faked SSN matter is important

I Edward Paul Donegan assert in Los Angeles 1961 November 18 November 19 a possible reserved SSN 022-46-3234 was taken in between my brother and I of 32 and 35. This is likely comfirmanle with no effort by serious investigators of serious issues and while not fully despositive it adds support to MKULTRA Birther.

Inquiry into it will show deep metastasized corruption threatening all of the USA and world.

Wayne Madsen who showed the CIA created and groomed Barrack Obama Jr for use by the CIA in plan hatched long before Obama JR himself was and without naming directly Barrack Obama Jr who was born in 1961 Col Fletcher Prouty talks about V.P. Nixon under Eisenhower and Rockefeller (who lost a son in Indonesia in the Kennedy Administration) had plans for Indonesia the he (Prouty) V.P. Nixon, Dulles, USAF Charles Cabell, and others had underway in 1958 even before JFK ran for and than one the presidency, defeating is GOP opponent sitting V.P. Richard Nixon.

In The Manufacturing of a President by Wayne Madsen he says "This book covers Barack H. Obama, Jr's rapid rise in American politics and the role that the CIA played in propelling him into the White House.

Research is based on formerly classified CIA and State Department files, personal interviews, and international investigations.

"Obama's birth certificate has never been the issue. The real issue, which affects his eligibility to serve as President of the United States, is his past and likely current Indonesian citizenship. The reader will be taken through the labyrinth of covert CIA operations in Africa, Southeast Asia, South Asia, and other regions. The real history of President Obama, his family, and the CIA quickly emerges as the reader wades into the murky waters of America's covert foreign operations". Source: Publisher

The Story of Obama. All in The Company (Part I) by Wayne Madsen Investigative journalist Wayne Madsen has discovered CIA files that document the agency's connections to institutions and individuals figuring prominently in the lives of Barack Obama and his mother, father, grandmother, and stepfather. The first part of his report highlights the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-sponsored operations in Kenya to counter rising Soviet and Chinese influence among student circles and, beyond, to create conditions obstructing the emergence of independent African leaders. [The plan for Obama in Indonesia was known to have started per Col Prouty in 1958 under V.P. Nixon using the USAF that he Prouty was a part of in the CIA plan.

The Disqualifications for Office were in USA Born George H.W. Bush, LBJ and others in league with England for unconstitutional plans included assassinating JKF and RFK, Becoming Elected afterwards, and grooming successor Barrack Obama Jr and others and then naming the DOJ building the RFK building

Ed Donegan asserts that looking at the issue as a whole fabric, the real SSN hidden and no one but Ed Donegan suspects, and cover-up being worse than the original matter create the spreading malignancy

Among st the painstaking research and legal activities of Dr.

Taitz's work was producing this to the Courts. Interestingly Paul Edward Irey of the USAF typographer 1950s may have as stated have personal knowledge of the faking of Barrack Obama identity back in the lead-up to 1961 working for Dulles, Bissle Jr., and other for forgeries.

The graphics are omitted from this text that was selected into this quotation but are very compelling when seen and are online at https://www.orlytaitzesq.com/?attachment_id=423084/

AFFIDAVIT STATE OF FLORTDA COUNTY oF PALM BEACH) Sworn Statement of Paul Edward Irey

I, Paul Edward Irey, being duly sworn, depose and say under penalty of perjury:

1. I am over the age of 18 years old, am a resident of Florida located at Delray Beach and have been previously accepted by the courts as an expert witness and have testified as such expert to the information contained in this affidavit is based on my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could testify completely thereto.

2. I have 57 years experience in graphics. first in serving with the U.S. Air Force being trained as a clerk typist, two of those years with the National Security Agency for which I had a Top Secret security clearance during the years 1957 and 1958.

[very interesting his USAF 1957 and 1958 background. Friend of Prouty or James Paul Donegan or Richard Bissle Jr. 1958 V.P. Nixon Indonesia?]

3. Following that I was employed in Manhattan, New York on the art staff of the Hearst trade journal American Druggist. I was employed at various advertising agencies in Manhattan until 1968 when I started my own business in Ft. Lee, New Jersey named Bergen Graphics.

4, By the mid seventies I employed 60 people as graphic artists, typesetters, camera and darkroom workers doing pre-press services for major retail and printing firms in the New York city area such as Montgomery Ward Catalogs and weekly newspaper ads nationwide, Acme markets newspaper ads for the entire supermarket chain in the northeast, Hearst Blue Book Auto Repair manuals, Key Food Stores of New York and Long lsland, Diana stores, Great Eastern Stores, Finest Supermarkets, Hills Supermarkets, Grand Union Supermarkets, etc.

In addition to overall knowledge of typography,Photography, four-colorstripping and all facets of film preparation for offset'printing, I have 26 years experience in desktop publishing with Macintosh Computers since their inception and have used Adobe Photoshop and Adobe lllustrator on a daily basis since their inceptions in 1987 and 1989.

The first Exhibit "A" annexed herewith is a page from a recent issue of my latest graphic production was published by the the Washington Times weekly edition that contains much of the evidence that lwill explain in this affidavit.

I prepared and wrote this full page shown as Exhibit A myself and attest that the evidence contained therein is accurate and represents evidence of forgery of what on 27 April at the Press Conference presentation by White house Consel Bob Bauer, While Press Secretary Jay Carney and Barack Obama himself allege is Obama's long form birth certificate.

8. The actual document I used for examination of the Obama birth certificateis described in the following chain of evidence contained in Exhibit'8" ... page 1 & 2 & 3 anneexed herewith, and

9. That shown as Exhibit "8" page 1 and 2 is the proof of purchase of a 14" x 16" reproduction print from Associated Press through their division called "Replay Photos" that sells photographic items from their news service and that shown as Exhibit "8" page 3 is a copy of that page purchased as a true and accurate copy of what the ASSOCIATED Press acquired from the White House at the news conference on the morning of 27 April 2011.

10. Shown below is an enlarged section of the Obama long form birth certificate that was released online at whitehouse.gov on27 April 2011. No admission has been made as to who actually scanned and converted this to an Adobe Acrobat PDF file and posted it on the official White House website. It is not known if it was someone at the White House or someone at the Honolulu department of health that had previously provided two copies of Obama's birth certificate that were hand-carried from Hawaii to the White House.

The important feature to observe is that everything in black is outlined in white. This will be referred to as "The White Halo".

Given that this is the normal procedure, I see no reason for the white halo. I have seen many other birth certificates from Honolulu in the year and a half that I have spend examining this issue of forgery, and can attest that none of those other birth certificates from Hawaii had a white halo.

10. Shown below is an enlarged section of the Obama long form birth certificate that was released online at whitehouse.gov on27 April 2011. No admission has been made as to who actually scanned and converted this to an Adobe Acrobat PDF file and posted it on the official White House website. It is not known if it was someone at the White House or someone at the Honolulu department of health that had previously provided two copies of Obama's birth certificate that were hand-carried from Hawaii to the White House.

The important feature to observe is that everything in black is outlined in white. This will be referred to as "The White Halo".

The Honolulu dept. of health alleges that the procedure for making copies of birth certificates is to take the binder where the birth certificates are stored and open it up to the one they copy, place it face down on an ordinary copy machine and simply copy the document to green security paper instead of white paper.

Given that this is the normal procedure, I see no reason for the white halo. I have seen many other birth certificates from Honolulu in the year and a half that I have spend examining this issue of forgery, and can attest that none of those other birth certificates from Hawaii had a white halo.

11. Shown below is what we should have seen if the birth certificate original form was actually copied to the green security paper and we would see no white halo. Copiers do not print white, which is the only way white could be seen anywhere over this green security paper. I was able to purchase this special paper on the internet. The green color and hash marks are dye printed through to the other side. ln other words the paper is green on both sides and there is no white anywhere.

The Honolulu dept. of health alleges that the procedure for making copies of birth certificates is to take the binder where the birth certificates are stored and open it up to the one they copy, place it face down on an ordinary copy machine and simply copy the document to green security paper instead of white paper.

15. The first picture at the bottom left is a section of the original PDF file released on whitehouse.gov on 27 April 2012. lt represents the color appearance we have been looking at for 1 1/2 years. The middle picture at the bottom center is a section of the document sent to the attorneys for the Mississippi Democratic Party in Taitz et al v. Democratic Party of Mississippi No. 3:12-cv-00280-HWT-LRA (S.D. Miss.) See attachment "C", the letter from the registrar of births for the state of Hawaii, Alvin Onaka.

It is my understanding and belief that Attorney Tepper requested a confirmation from the director of the Honolulu Dept. of Health, Lorretta Fuddy, that the PDF file released on whitehouse.org on April 27 , 2011 came from their office and Loretta Fuddy passed it on to Alvin Onaka who replied to Tepper with letter "C". Tepper passed that on to Begley. Begley, who is a MS lawyer, filed it with the court, along with the altered PDF file that we must assume came from Onaka. The bottom right picture is my example to show the result of the specific settings needed to match the alterations seen in the center photograph. These settings are seen in the 3 boxes at the right that resulted in my own match of Onaka's effort to change the evidence. My conclusion is that the PDF file was altered to eliminate the white halo by actions taken at the Honolulu Dept. of Health so as to hide the error that proves manipulation by a computer process not available in 1961, and otherwise represents proof of forgery,if not altered.

That I, Paul Edward Irey, am willing to testify as an expert witness to the accuracy of every statement above in any venue permissible as the same is true to my own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters I believe it to be true. The grounds of my beliefs as to all matters not stated upon information and belief are as follows: 3rd parties, books and records, and personal knowledge.

Signed by Paul Edward Irey before Michael Gerlinck Notary Public Sate of Florida December 4, 2012

CIA Officer: The Killing of JFK in 1963 & the Secret Wars of the CIA Are Connected (1989) retrieved from YouTube and copied or modified to here

48,581 views Premiered Aug 6, 2022 John Stockwell's CIA experience in Vietnam: Secrets from the CIA's Last Days in Vietnam

John R. Stockwell (born 1937) is a former CIA officer who became a critic of United States government policies after serving seven tours of duty over thirteen years. Having managed American involvement in the Angolan Civil War as Chief of the Angola Task Force during its 1975 covert operations, he resigned and wrote In Search of Enemies.

John Stockwell (CIA officer) https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John_Stockwell_(CIA_officer) This article has multiple issues. Please help improve it or discuss these issues on the talk page. (Learn how and when to remove these template messages) This article includes a list of references, related reading or external links, but its sources remain unclear because it lacks inline citations. (December 2010) This biography of a living person relies too much on references to primary sources. (September 2017)

This plan to insert sleepers in Indonesia and other locations in plan with Saudi involvement was part of MKULTRA history and Donegan history.

Other works Guns and Dallas and also V.P. Nixon and the Nixon NSC and Indonesia by Prouty, Secret Team by Prouty, the Bush autobiography taken with works on the Bush Crime Family by Wayne Madsen and also by Phillip Marshall criticizing the mafia CIA FBI NSA DIA etc.,

The Guns of Dallas by Leroy Fletcher Prouty at https://ratical.org/ratville/JFK/GoD.html

Indonesia 1958: Nixon, the CIA, and the Secret War By L. Fletcher Prouty at https://ratical.org/ratville/JFK/Indo58.html

JFK (book) by Fletcher Prouty, The Secret Team (book) by Fletcher Prouty, and note the Donegan's and Prouty's and it seems Kennedy's before Edward Donegan was born were friends, Prouty and Edward Donegan as a youth skated together are families friends. George Bush the unauthorized biography at https://web.archive.org/web/20210407040952/https%3A%2F%2Fwww.bibliotecapleyades.net%2Fbush%2Fbushb.htm

The Story of Obama: All In The Company. Part I at https://www.voltairenet.org/article166741.html and Part II at https://www.voltairenet.org/article166759.html

The Story of Obama: All in The Company (Part I and II) by Wayne Madsen

Investigative journalist Wayne Madsen has discovered CIA files that document the agency's connections to institutions and individuals figuring prominently in the lives of Barack Obama and his mother, father, grandmother, and stepfather. The first part of his report highlights the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-sponsored operations in Kenya to counter rising Soviet and Chinese influence among student circles and, beyond, to create conditions obstructing the emergence of independent African leaders.

This confirms the article by Col Prouty on Indonesia and Vice President Nixon 1958.]

In Part I of this WMR special report, we revealed the connections between Barack Obama, Sr. and the CIA-affiliated Airlift Africa project to provide college degrees to and gain influence over a group of 280 eastern and southern African students from soon-to-be independent African nations to counter similar programs established by the Soviet Union and China. Barack Obama Sr. was the first African student to attend the University of Hawaii. Obama Sr. and Obama's mother Stanley Ann Dunham met in a Russian language class in 1959 and they married in 1961.

The African airlift program was administered by Kenyan nationalist leader Tom Mboya, a fellow Luo tribe mentor and friend of the senior Obama. According to CIA documents described in Part I, Mboya also served the CIA in ensuring that pro-Soviet and pro-Chinese African nationalists were stymied in their attempt to dominate pan-African nationalist political, student, and labor movements.

One of Mboya's chief opponents was Ghana's first president, Kwame Nkrumah, who was ousted in a CIA-inspired coup in 1966, one year before to Obama Sr's son, Barack Obama, Jr. and his mother joined Lolo Soetoro, an Indonesian who Obama's mother met at the University of Hawaii in 1965, when President Obama was four years old.

In 1967, Obama and his mother joined her husband in Jakarta. In 1965, Lolo Soetoro had been called back from Hawaii by General Suharto to serve as an officer in the Indonesian military to help launch a bloody CIA-backed genocide of Indonesian Communists and Indonesian Chinese throughout the expansive country. Suharto consolidated his power in 1966, the same year that Barack Obama, Sr.'s friend, Mboya, had helped to rally pro-U.S. pan-African support for the CIA's overthrow of Nkrumah in Ghana in 1966.

CIA links East-West Center, University of Hawaii, and CIA coup against Sukarno and Peace Corps and USAID are listed in the two part articles

Ann Dunham met Soetoro at the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii. The center had long been affiliated with CIA activities in the Asia-Pacific region. In 1965, the year that Dunham met and married Soetoro, the center saw a new chancellor take over. He was Howard P. Jones who served a record seven years, from 1958 to 1965, as U.S. ambassador to Indonesia. Jones was present in Jakarta as Suharto and his CIA-backed military officers planned the 1965 overthrow of Sukarno, who was seen, along with the Indonesian Communist Party (PKI), as allies of China.

When Jones was chancellor of the East-West Center, he wrote an article for the Washington Post, dated October 10, 1965, in which he defended Suharto's overthrow of Sukarno. Jones was "invited" by the Post to comment on the Suharto coup, described as a "counter-coup" against the Communists. Jones charged that Suharto was merely responding to an earlier attempted Communist-led coup against Sukarno launched by Lt. Col. Untung, "a relatively unknown battalion commander in the palace guard."

Jones's article, which mirrored CIA situation reports from the U.S. embassy in Jakarta, continued by stating that the alleged leftist coup on September 30 "came within an inch of succeeding through the assassination of six of the top military command. It might well have succeeded had not Defense Minister Nasution and a number of other senior generals also marked for assassination acted fast in a dramatic counter-coup." Of course, what Jones did not inform the Post's readers was that the Suharto "counter-coup" had been assisted with the strong help of the CIA.

Wayne Madsen

Investigative journalist, author and syndicated columnist. His columns have appeared in a wide number of newspapers and journals. Madsen is a regular contributor on Russia Today. He has written The Handbook of Personal Data Protection (London: Macmillan, 1992); Genocide and Covert Operations in Africa 1993-1999 (Edwin Mellen Press, 1999); Jaded Tasks: Big Oil, Black Ops & Brass Plates and Overthrow a Fascist Regime on $15 a Day and co-authored America's Nightmare: The Presidency of George Bush II (Dandelion, 2003).

Joan Mellen

Joan Mellen is the author of seventeen books, ranging from film criticism to fiction, sports, true crime, Latin American studies and biography. Her early work was about the cinema. This included The Battle of Algiers (1972), Women and Their Sexuality in the New Film (1974), Big Bad Wolves: Masculinity in the American Cinema (1975), The Waves at Genji's Door: Japan through Its Cinema (1976).

In 1981 Joan Mellen published her first novel, Natural Tendencies. She also also written the biography Kay Boyle: Author of Herself (1994) and a book about the relationship between the two writers, Lillian Hellman and Dashiell Hammett was entitled Hellman and Hammett (1996).

Joan Mellen, who is a professor of English and creative writing at Temple University in Philadelphia, has written for a variety of publications such as the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, Philadelphia Inquirer and the Baltimore Sun. She has also written two books about Japanese film for the British Film Institute, Seven Samurai (2002) and In the Realm of the Senses (2004)

A Farewell to Justice a biography of Jim Garrison was published in 2005. Modern Times appeared in 2007. Her book about George de Mohrenschildt, entitled, Our Man in Haiti, was published in 2012.

By John Simkin (john©spartacus-educational.com)

We know James Angleton went to grade school in England, acquired an English accent, and by adulthood was in elite and espionage circles he was born intom his father freinds of American OSS and CIA already who also were British leaning.

Angleton's boyhood was spent in Milan, Italy. He studied as a boarder at Malvern College in England before attending Yale University. As a Yale undergraduate, Angleton edited the Yale literary magazine Furioso with Reed Whittemore.

British Psychiatry: From Eugenics to Assassination by Anton Chaitkin and other works mostly tying all of this to Bush and Rockefeller and Rotschilds.

The question of sponsorship

But the authorship of this enterprise cannot reasonably be assigned to the CIA, per se. Even before we review other agencies' direct involvement, we must understand that the CIA chief during MK-Ultra, Allen Dulles, was thoroughly attached to British Empire geopolitical aims. Introduced to British spies by his uncle Robert Lansing, Woodrow Wilson's secretary of state, Dulles had had a strong personal identification since childhood with the British Secret Intelligence Service.

The Dulles family's upper class-status in America began when ancestor William Dulles arrived in South Carolina from India. With a fortune made in India by providing financial and security services for the British East India Company army, he bought a slave plantation which the family held through the American Civil War. The family's mental life was always that of the British Empire and its American colonial subordinates. Allen Dulles's main corporate activity was as a director of the J. Henry Schroder banking company in London, a prime instrument in Montagu Norman's nazification of Germany. As partners in the Sullivan and Cromwell firm, Allen Dulles and his brother John Foster Dulles represented the Rockefeller-Harriman- Warburg combination, I.G. Farben, and virtully every other Nazi corporate organization that danced on London's marionette strings.

My (Edward Paul Donegan's) assertion is that as CIA Subversion and Overthrow the George H.W. Bush team (that the Donegan family freind Prouty suspects according to the CIA citing operation Zapata and the Barbara boat at Bay of Pigs) and Cheney were involved in grooming Obama as an adopeted orphan. On the first REAL birthday of November 19 (on the birth certificate but born November 18) Cheney is approaced for the second or first time under some kind of ruse. He and his daughter and father part of USAID the CIA was using from generation to generation according to now declassified CIA files Wayne Madsen has.

[image] [image]

http://newwilliamcooperpatrioticsovereignpress.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/12/ChenneyDUI1962.jpg

http://newwilliamcooperpatrioticsovereignpress.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/12/Chenneys.jpg

The Great Treason X, Pillory, Ted Gunderson Bio, Written By The Right Hand, Majic 12 and the Secret Government

Jen Moore was reporting on the Evil of the CIA and their fronts they operate through and I blame the CIA for her death

Video 11 She Does have the secret files in her hands sealed secret files

And how this IS PART OF THE JFK ASSASSINATION the story of the Vatican Catholic Gladio and Dulles brothers and CIA and MKULTRA

Video 11 Secret envelope …secret identities okay this is video number 11 and underneath this envelope is three cases and you can zoom in they say US District Court District of Columbia Washington DC the top case is in a pills case closed type II

so as I go on on my youtube journey I'm going at some point to expose in some way what is under this yellow or manila envelope and under it are cases that involve the identities of some people who would rather not that that not be done I think it's important for the American people to know some of these facts so in the past week or so as I just started out this YouTube channel

I've been doing a series of interviews on another YouTube channel with farmer Jones and the interviews have to do with things such as mkultra the Vatican the Vatican's connection to the CIA how MKULTRA was started details about pre-world War one and what led into the Second World War and things like at the mk ultra program which many people have heard about talks a lot about

In 1902 the British did set out to study Borderline Personality Disorder. In an odd way the covertness of the activtiy helped British Imperialism not only by hiding the defect but in researchnig the defect those in “families” of Windsor descendents not known publically as such and with no defects in their familie made excellent Colonialism groomed leader choices.

> PROOF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HELPED BRITISH SABOTEURS AND AMERICAN TRAITORS TAKEOVER AMERICA IN 1902
>
> The roots of the C.I.A. are the British Pilgrims Society’s MI6 thru Columbia University Law
>
> The official C.I.A. histories are all faked to conjure up American heroes out of demons and disguise its monopolist, warmongering, satanic, eugenicist British origins
>
> Alleged C.I.A. founder William J. Donovan was a mere stooge for J.P. Morgan, Lord Rothschild and John D. Rockefeller who conspired with Columbia University to groom him (1903-07)
>
> The Truth: C.I.A., NSA, FBI, DoD, DOS, SEC, Judiciary and multinational corporate intelligencers are American stooges controlled by the British Empire
>
> Columbia University recruited and groomed William J. Donovan at the inception of the British Pilgrims Society in 1902 to organize American intelligence as a reflected lizard of British intelligence

> On Jul. 16, 1902, the British Empire's top "Empire Builders" formed The British Pilgrims Society at the Carlton Hotel, London. They were Privy Councilors, admirals, generals, spies, virologist (Sir Henry Wellcome), Guglielmo Marconi (wireless), bankers (Lord Rothschild), industrialists, lawyers, aristocrats, politicians, publishers and newspapermen.
>
> King Edwards' "Empire Builders" were a notorious mob of over-funded British pirates: bejewelled war lords, war criminals, murderers, royalists, warlocks, blackmailers, seditionists, aristocrats, terrorists, traitors, mercenaries, rapists, devil-worshipers, sodomoists, child molesters, luciferians, satanists, pedophiles, bi-sexuals, rapsts, liars, necromancers, homosexuals, propagandists, blasphemers, abusers, chauvanists, bullies, playboys, dandies, silver spooners, prevaricators, effete snobs ..

Well, you know, the article continues in loaded language "the usual stuff found in MSM Newsrooms."

The site is called aim4truth.org and its historical reseach is impecable but most usable whe joined with other works like Monarch Fighting and the British story of weepy Prince Albert of York a generation later, or the modern struggle to understand Borderline Personality Disorder today. Actually the decscription of the press sounds like it might have been quoted from my father James Paul Donegan.

> FIG. 4: KING EDWARD VII PUBLISHED A POSTCARD ENTITLED "KING EDWARD & HIS EMPIRE BUILDERS." OF THE 16 LIVING BRITS

> IDENTIFIED, 11 WERE FOUNDING MEMBERS OF THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY ON JUL. 16, 1902. THOSE 11 “EMPIRE BUILDERS” WERE ALL ORGANIZERS OF THE FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, JUN. 05-28, 1909 (LINK FOLLOWS). CURATOR, INDEPENDENT ANALYST. (CA. 1907). KING EDWARD & HIS EMPIRE BUILDERS, POSTCARD, WITH CORRELATION BETWEEN PILGRIMS SOCIETY 1902 AND FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, 1909. NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY, UK. BETWEEN JUN. 05-29, 1909, THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY ORGANIZED THE FIRST IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE, 1909. THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER WAS LORD ROSEBERY (ROTHSCHILD). LORD L. WALTER ROTHSCHILD WAS THERE TOO.
>
> By 1902, the British Pilgrims had evidently already singled out selected American “Robber barons” that they would recruit to their “Empire Building,” many of whom were in Britain for the delayed coronation of Edward VII following the deaths of Queen Victoria and Cecil John Rhodes-their empire building prime mover. We will discuss their names below.

The article and others like it on that site that are highly informative can be found here https://aim4truth.org/2021/06/12/proof-columbia-university-helped-british-saboteurs-and-american-traitors-takeover-america-in-1902/

Jen Moore continues

Sigmund Freud [of Austria] who was kind of the founder of MKULTRA or one of them he’s known as the father of psychology the father of psycho psycho analysis different titles like that but his history has been sanitized and even most psychologists or doctors psychology do not know a lot of this history and I do for a variety of reasons

> Sigmund Freud was an Austrian neurologist and the founder of psychoanalysis, a clinical method for evaluating and treating pathologies seen as originating from conflicts in the psyche, through dialogue between patient and psychoanalyst, and the distinctive theory of mind and human agency derived from it.
>
> Freud was born to Galician Jewish parents in the Moravian town of Freiberg, in the Austrian Empire. He qualified as a doctor of medicine in 1881 at the University of Vienna.[5][6] Upon completing his habilitation in 1885 he was appointed a docent in neuropathology and became an affiliated professor in 1902.[7] Freud lived and worked in Vienna having set up his clinical practice there in 1886. Following the German annexation of Austria in March 1938 Freud left Austria to escape Nazi persecution. He died in exile in the United Kingdom in 1939.
>
> - Wikipedia

I'll get into and even going further into people like dr. Carl Jung it's Ju and Ji Young in theory theory is very well known the realms of psychology and psychoanalysis many people don't know is that mr. young was our doctor young was also Karl or allan dulles secret agent agent 488 and Allen Dulles was the founder of the CIA he originally was an OSS which was our initial United States of America their intelligence service and then it moved into the CIA during and following World War two and Allen Dulles was the first director of that of the CIA his brother Lewis John Foster Dulles was also in there and Allen Dulles was a CIA agent at the time of JFK's assassination

so that is an interesting part that will come out as well so I've been doing a series of interviews with another YouTube channel farmer Jones who's been great on this history and what I know about MKULTRA and the Nazis and the development of the program in historical context to which it was built and why what were the kind of underlying motivations at that time and what was some of the really very disturbing parts that has been sanitized from our history in many ways and so I've been doing a series of interviews I did my fourth today I believe on this history and as I've stated before in my videos I was a someone who enforced the law at for a pretty long time in some very dark places and I also had my degree in psychology a clinical psychology so I was involved in that as well so I came into this knowledge by combining a lot of that work also a lot of research but then I had a very interesting transition that led me to connect all these dots and that was I met a person in 2009 who was 79 years old she was the child of Hitler's top commandant [Franz Kutchera, actually niece of him] and her father owned all the theaters in Munich and Berlin around Germany and back in those days the big screen movie theaters were very rare she was one of the kind of the elite German children on the Nazi side and so these theaters were used to help indoctrinate the German youth and the Hitler Youth and also the German soldiers during the war and she was literally at the feet of Hitler during a lot of this history from age you know early on but from age 8 through 17 when World War two really the bombs came raining in on Munich and she attempted to escape and was saved by American GI soldiers which is just a remarkable story of survival and she made it to the United States of America and became a very famous person in her own right (Sound of Music) and I'm not gonna name her at this point but for reasons that I can only guess would be a miracle from God that he would bless me with the chance to know this person and many of you may not believe and and all that and that's fine but it was my honor to truly meet her and hear her story and listen for about a year and a half from 2009 into 2010 as she turned 80 years of age and she passed away at that time but in that process of a year and a half I learned about trauma from of which most if not any that I could think of and I've experienced and what seen a lot of trauma could possibly imagine just horror upon horror and she told me the gritty details of what she saw from on the opposite side of the Holocaust victims and then what she saw was she was escaping through Germany into Switzerland as a 17 year old witnessing really the the gravity and depravity of what had occurred that she was not fully aware of her position in life and then the coming to terms with that I'm in the year and a half that we spent time together she also new called young as a friend or a associate I guess you could say at some point in her life and I can get into that at some other point but she shared this information with me in an attempt to relieve her soul with what she would describe it of the burden of pain and shame and guilt that she felt even though she was just a little child while all this was happening so we went through that process and I've shared some of that on the interviews with farmer Jones so my goal is to keep sharing these interviews because it's a rich history it's American history and it obviously it's not fold and complete because it's one part of it or many different parts from many different angles that for reasons it's hard for me to understand I came into contact with these various kind of extremes or these different worlds and was able to put some pieces together so for that reason I have wanted to share this stuff for a long time didn't know when the right reason was and also there's a lot of pressure to not talk about these things it's one of the reasons why I am in possession of these cases but I've also put them on disk drives and sent them to many other locations safe locations where they would be released anyway should someone try to remove this these cases from me I've already been sent out so that being said I hope through the series of interviews - you know maybe educate some or enlighten some share stories of survival stories of love stories of trauma stories about PTSD and what it really is complex PTSD stories of healing and hope also of deep sadness and tragedy I hope to be able to explain part of the reason that we are here in America now in this way with things like pedophilia child trafficking and these really horror things that are going on that have seemingly saturated or our country I hope to explain issues regarding blackmail and compromise and how it's done and the different levels the ways they do it and why many of our top maybe you know people in justice systems or law enforcement federal agents CIA politicians businessmen you name it are either blackmailed or our participants of this very dark world and I hope to you should just bring some enlightenment and education to that effect I don't have all the answers obviously I have you know just a part of it so I encourage everyone to comment ask questions give your expertise on this channel and hopefully we can tie more and more pieces together to attempt to stop this kind of American Nightmare on behalf of the children of our country and maybe the children you know involved in this kind of all over the world so at some point I will move the manila envelope down and reveal the identities that are behind this envelope which will explain a whole lot at some point so I hope to do that this is video number 11 I'm going to post in video number 12 the first interview and then subsequently after that so you can listen and comment and please give your feedback and we will take it from there all right good night

The Secret FIles Jen Moore holds as she points her camera as always at Glorian and Edwards 850 N. Randolph Home second floor

OSS to CIA, black budgets, Operation Paperclip, & Hidden Identities

okay it is Sunday night and I'm looking out at beautiful Washington DC and as you can tell I have a great view this evening it's a Sunday night tonight before the Monday morning testimony I believe before the Judiciary Committee on the OIG report so that's gonna be tomorrow morning and I will be there live it in person to see the fireworks if there are any I hope there are a little bit courage

mr. Jim Jordan and mr. good luck and mr. gates to it mr. Gowdy to all go full wards get these documents so I'm posting this video just because I'm going to attach the interview number three and four that I had done now regarding um you know start the first two interviews were kind of starting in World War one and moving into World War two OSS to the CIA different players that were involved dealt the Dulles brothers Hitler obviously Aleister Crowley in my six in my five how the OSS became the CIA the Vatican's involvement the indoctrination that occurred the different experiments that were done how MKULTRA was brought together under several different kind of philosophies or mythology's

I guess you could say some of it is really hard to listen to but it's the truth and it needs to be told because it's still happening so though as these interviews go long I move it into the United States and Canada in particular I mean it's a very lot of other places but United States in Canada really was infiltrated through black budgets by the CIA and went from OSS into CIA the Vatican was involved in that and MKULTRA 1950s Operation Paperclip in how these Nazi scientists including Hitler and Mengele and Himmler and all these kind of the worst characters of all were secretly moved in to Argentina and South America and then some of them were even brought up into the United States and they were given new identities [as sleepers just as they were in Latin American or groomed for Indonesia]

they were brought into universities hospital programs various secret sites black-budget sites where the experimentation continued on all kinds of things and all kinds of Americans especially small children and I'm going to lead into things like the Kinsey studies if anyone has looked into that Masters and Johnson how they're all tied together some of the places that are still in operation as of today that I am aware of but uh these two interviews specifically start to bring into the politics of the United States of America at least since World War two the different players involved a lot of these players that call them players or politicians or you know businessmen or senators or you know what whatever title they might have there's some of them that don't want their identities known their real identities are the real history zone and I'm not gonna name names at this point except you could do some deduction use your deduction skills and you know kind of think about whose identities might have been hidden recently even even years and years and decades ago but recently really and so these interviews start talking about that and how that came about and why

there's such a mystery and why there's so many sealed records and some of the information that I am in possession of to begin to peel back the layers of this onion so the American people can fully understand where we are today why we are here today and who these people really are because this country is our country the American people's country we are in charge of the government they don't get to hide from us so it's time for their exposure and I'm going to be part of that so you can listen to interviews three and four and it gets into some pretty gnarly details but there's truth there and I've got court cases and documents to back it up personal eyewitnesses you name it this is the story of a whistleblower our whistleblowers in general yes it is dangerous I accept that at the same time I refuse to be silent anymore and so I'm going to

In finding Glorian Donegan nee Glorian Gainey she found a Kutschera descendent and one of the last remaining.

It helper her peice the final parts of money laundering together as once the JFK assassination once and for all silenced the British secret society US Deep State manufacture of CIA MKULTRA sleeper agents those few elites who knew of the "celebrity" value of this genone and could black market human traffick it IF it seemed Law Enforcement could manufacture an excuse to treat is their own "marketable" property after blackmailing away the rights to the genome from its biolgical holder then the black market and its CIA history could be revealed and why is has long beebn used illegally by the CIA and FBI in MKULTRA okay I'm gonna do another quick video.

here I'm holding in my hand something that I have actually on my kind of my avatar I guess you could say holding a badge was my badge

it meant and means the world to me although I'm not currently in this position anymore

I did spend a lot of years doing this and the oath that I took to my state in my area in my country meant everything to me from the day that I rose my right hand and to the last day that I was able to work and so why I'm doing what I'm doing now is because there are many of us out there in this country that wear these badges whether it's federal state local city role different agencies that wear badges that we swore an oath to to our country in to the citizens to protect and serve them and most of us believe it or not really care and really stand by the things that we do and we make the decisions based on morals and ethics and an attempt to get justice for the people that were sworn to protect that's what my swearing-in was about that's what I lived and died by and I have since the day I could no longer work although many of us many of us are silenced

we are the whistleblowers so the quota the hidden whistleblowers that are silenced and targeted for speaking out about what we see going on or going wrong it's been taking a stand and so what I am my journey has been is to help other whistleblowers as well as myself to tell the true story and what's going on in our country to the American people to tell the true story about the people that wear these badges that have been squashed and silenced because we refused to turn a blind eye to some of the things that have gone on in our country in our states in our cities and things like that so I'm with a group of a lot of are connected to a group a lot of whistleblowers who are also targeted individuals and there are other people that are targeted for speaking out, soldiers and different government workers and victims

it's a it's a very very harsh and sad story of what what happens to us and maybe sometimes we can't even get into more details about that but for now I've been telling a series of interviews on a little bit about my history but what what I learned through that and what I learned also through training in clinical psychology and what I learned in various other ways and a series of interviews that I've done through with farmer Jones on his YouTube and so I posted two of those interviews I believe so far what I'm gonna do on this one is I'm gonna post all four that I've done so you can listen to them in succession

it really goes into all the way back to World War one it goes into MKULTRA goes into child trafficking it goes into the kind of philosophies behind it the reasons the motivations leads into Nazi Germany and the formation and the CIA how the MKULTRA programs and various mind-control programs and pedophilia and child trafficking and really these horrible ratlines and drug lines and things like that were brought into our country under the color of law

but in black budgets the different people that were involved (in trafficking black market bank accounts) different identities (Glorian Donegan) that were changed in the ways that I came into this knowledge witnessed some of this learned some of this through kind of extraordinary ways put some pieces together and have had a story to tell with a lot of other people and came to a point in my life where I could no longer be silent especially regarding the the children that I'm aware of in the and their stories and so that's why I'm on this mission

it's risky I have you know I've been assaulted and threatened many many times and but I'm determined to tell the truth and get the truth out there so that the American people have a chance to know this truth and hopefully help rescue some of these people and also give whistleblowers a chance to open up and come forward

I hope at some point that the President of the United States President Trump will ask for the whistleblowers to go forward and speak to him and tell him their stories and their stories of targeting and their stories of retaliation and their stories their lives being taken over and shut down in intimidation and fear and death threats and all the things that happen to those of us that stand up for the role law and Senate for the Constitution of the United States

there's more of us than there are other guys that you see now coming out on these reports that have violated all the rules of law they just rise to the top because we won't stand for it and we we open our mouths and speak against it and then they crush us in the and that's how it works and we're trying to undo that right now and all of the West lawyers are trying to come together but it's very hard and very scary but we're determined to to get as much tooth out as we can so I'm gonna post in this video the links to the interviews I've done so far and I'm continuing on this journey and I hope you guys will listen to the interviews realizing I don't have all the answers of course I have a parts of the story but I do have some pretty significant experiences and unique experiences that give me the very unique insights into a lot of this especially regarding the the MKULTRA programs and the experimentation on children and child trafficking ratlines drug ratlines and all those various aspects of what's going on in our country kind of under the cover of law and in deep inside the country that's been hidden from the American people so that's my plan and I'm going to post links in the comment section to all those interviews after after this so I will check in later and we will continue on English (auto-generated)

More markup and history

> okay I'm good I was going to touch the last few interviews to the last video
>
> I'm actually obviously in the same place overlooking the beautiful city of Washington DC

Jen Moore films the 2nd floor apartment at 850 N. Randolph Arlington Viriginia one apartment of Glorian Donegan on the 21st or 22nd floor she could see the Pentagon and plane crash from and when I Edward Donegan lived with her later on the second floor two bedroom corner apartment.

> as the lights go down in a great location but it's too hard to attach multiple interviews without themgetting kind of mixed up in order so the last video I did I I can't on the pinned tweet is interview number three and that goes into a little bit about my meeting this child of one of Hitler's top codons.
>
> she was a you know kind of German royalty she was a Nazi at 8 years old and her survival through the war and eventually get into the United States I didn't go into much detail on > part number three so in this interview it is a very extensive detail actually about my meeting her in 2009-2010 the secret she shared with me and the doctor documentation transcripts pictures proof identities and certain people and really help bridge the gap for me from what I knew in my various professions including law enforcement and psychology and what I learned working undercover [CIA and Secret Service] positions and through my research and obviously interested interesting and interesting.

>
> Excuse me in history and political science but she was that one of themajor probably the major gap-filler for me.
>
> She was a legitimate child of when I'm Nazis top guys and he set up a one ofhis first kind of command centers insideher father's theater her father owned all the theaters in Munich in Germany at the time which 1930s 3-8 was very rare and so those theaters were used to indoctrinate soldiers and children and various people and so the this person that I met was 70 91 I met her and she died at age 80 a year and a half but I did spend a year and a half with her going into the most traumatic human experiences that I've ever heard and I've heard many many horrible tragic trauma things and seeing them as well

Salzburg Austria Von Trapp home is only 1.5 hours from Munich Germany by train, and a Bayern ticket will get you there with no need to switch trains when you cross the Germany/Austria border. Once in Salzburg, use the local bus system to get around town. Walking around the Old Town

(AltStadt) is also one of the easiest (and best!)

Although Maria Kutschera married Barron Von Trapp of Austria and become the stepmother of his 7 childrenl she had three of her own biological children likely impregnated by Albert of York as they studied propagation of a speech and grammer gene tied to the Windsor family London King Edward VII gene as it should be called or London KE Family FOXP2 gene that led to the Kings Speecch disaster of 1925 when the Windsors and Austrian geneticists were on a freindly basis including the CIA and Frued and Jung.

> So that's what this linked to interview is about I hope you enjoy it and of course it goes even further into like I said identities and starting to reveal some of that so this is interviewed number four Maria Kutschera was orphaned as a very young child. She was raised by her uncle franz Kutschera a wealthy theater owner who btw hated the British. He would use the his friend Barron Von TRapp former navy submarine hero of the Austrian navy and widower of his wife Agatha Whitehead of the British torpedo company.

Maria was born on 26 January 1905 to Augusta (née Rainer) and Karl Kutschera.[8] She was delivered on a train heading from her parents' village in Tyrol to a hospital in Vienna, Austria.

Her mother died of pneumonia when she was two. Her father, grief-stricken, left Maria with his cousin (her foster mother) who had cared for Maria's half-brother after his mother died. Maria's father then traveled the world, although Maria would visit him upon occasion at his apartment in Vienna. When she was nine, her father died. Her foster mother's son-in-law, Uncle Franz, then became her guardian.

Maria was born on 26 January 1905 to Augusta (née Rainer) and Karl Kutschera.[8] She was delivered on a train heading from her parents' village in Tyrol to a hospital in Vienna, Austria.

Her mother died of pneumonia when she was two. Her father, grief-stricken, left Maria with his cousin (her foster mother) who had cared for Maria's half-brother after his mother died. Maria's father then traveled the world, although Maria would visit him upon occasion at his apartment in Vienna. When she was nine, her father died. Her foster mother's son-in-law, Uncle Franz, then became her guardian.

Maria was asked to teach one of the seven children (Maria Franziska) of widowed naval commander Georg von Trapp in 1926, while she was still a schoolteacher at the abbey.[7][11] His wife, Agathe Whitehead, had died in 1922 from scarlet fever.[12] Eventually, Maria began to look after the other children (Rupert, Agathe, Werner, Hedwig, Johanna and Martina), as well.

It appears three biological children were hidden under false identities in the USA and this was especially important as the 1936 Berlin Olympics increased world exposure to Nazism, Austria was siezed by Germany, and atrocities began with one major event being SS General Franz Kutschera having risen in rank for his propaganda role then assassinated by the Polish Secret Police.

Those biological children one of which was GLorian and her son Edward Paul Donegan myself carry this gene.

When Windsors wanted to groom candidates for sleeper agents it seems MKULTRA and the CIA used Glorian DNA and Prouty, Jen Moore, and others know of this as Donald Barr of the CIA set this up with other CIA operatives.

This plan to insert sleepers in Indonesia and other locations in plan with Saudi involvement was part of MKULTRA history and Donegan history.

Reporting on the FBI, CIA, Mueller, or others will always be the most dangerous job in the entire world, that danger reporters and criminologist face.

Thomas Paine claims SWAT-clad FBI agents stormed into Mike "Thomas Paine" Moore's home and terrorized his wife and young children at gunpoint after rousting them out of bed.

Paine Has Done His Best to Become a Huge Pain in the Ass for the FBI

While the mainstream media ignored a corrupt FBI & DOJ, Paine and cohorts hammered away and knocked the FBI off its trusted public mantle. Revered FBI leaders were fired. Others quit. FBI officials, targeted by True Pundit's hard-hitting reporting, are now targets of numerous federal investigations. A fitting irony after the > FBI - whom Paine worked for - came into his home with M4 rifles drawn on his young kids and wife. Twice. Then, the FBI went on a rampage to ruin his Fortune 100 career at Citi and even prevented him from attending his mother's funeral.

The charge had been copywright infringement as he had reutilized somewhere some NBA or other rights reserved sports broadcast. Micheal Moore was both a reporter AND a special operations investigator of moneylaundering in finacial institutions as an asset of the CIA and FBI where he and Jen Moore talked over breakfast of the classified files they had in front of them that showed Robetr Mueller, Brennand, and others tied to Epstein and many others (as Donald and William Barr were) and how this tied to the Bush family and Obamas too.

This they said even tied to the 9/11 strike and ties from this Cabal operating then and now inside the FBI DOJ and CIA.

Paine Says He Also Got the Goods on U.S. Special Counsel Robert Mueller and Former CIA Director John Brennan

Implicated [through the tracing of the accounts and black budgets] too here are U.S. Special Counsel Robert Mueller along with former CIA Director John Brennan, among many others. A Criminal conspiracy involving top players in the Deep State, entrenched in one of the greatest public betrayals imaginable.

They tried to silence Paine and ruin him to keep these alarming revelations secret but something went wrong. Paine rose from the ashes of his battered life and tattered financial career and then re-launched his award-winning journalism career. And this time - playing by his own rules - Paine blows the lid off of a massive cover-up that implicates the same D.C. elite who tried to take him down.

Mike "Thomas Paine" Moore's story is one of personal loss, struggle, payback and patriotism.

You may have heard the prophetic warning that “One Day You’re Going to Mess with the Wrong Guy.”

In ‘How We Dismantled the FBI in Our Pajamas,’ Paine proves he is THAT guy. And the FBI - or what’s left of it now - surely regrets the days it threatened Paine’s wife and children at gunpoint, miscalculations that ultimately rocked its foundations unlike any FBI scandal in American history.

The U.S. Has a Propaganda System That’s Used to Cover Up Evil Like Corrupt FBI Intimidation

What we have in the U.S. is a corporatocracy owned and controlled propaganda system used to control people’s thoughts and ideas and act as a coverup system to hide the evil elite activities like corrupt FBI intimidation and a host of other actions.

Probable wife or ex-wife of Mike Thomas Paine Moore and also to Mike Thomas Paine Moore

True Pundit founder Mike “Thomas Paine” Moore (not Micheal Moore) says that Citi loaned Epstein of the VI Brain Foundation more $100 million, allowing him to make thousands of wire transfers from the bank.

Bowers was previously the chief of Deutsche Bank’s Private Wealth Management division in New York City. At Citi, he was chief of The Citi Private Bank and also ran Citigroup’s Global Markets and Wealth Management businesses.

“The [irregular] loans to Epstein were personal and commercial,” True Pundit founder Mike “Thomas Paine” Moore said. “The Citi loans I can confirm were for more than $25 million. Some were secured, some were not.” Moore previously ran an anti-money laundering for Citigroup.

SWAT-clad FBI agents stormed into Mike “Thomas Paine” Moore’s home and terrorized his wife and young children at gunpoint after rousting them out of bed. Not once, but twice, pointing automatic weapons at the family. Historic, costly blunders for the FBI.

[Jen Moore offered to make coffee for the FBI Agents according to Micheal Moore]

In response Paine assembled his journalism crew of former feds, launched True Pundit and literally dismantled the FBI in less than two years with pens and laptops while working from home, often in pajamas.

While the mainstream media ignored a corrupt FBI, DOJ, Paine and cohorts hammered away and knocked the FBI off its trusted public mantle. Revered FBI leaders were fired. Others quit. FBI officials, targeted by True Pundit’s hard-hitting reporting, are now targets of numerous federal investigations. A fitting irony after the FBI - whom Paine worked for - came into his home with M4 rifles drawn on his young kids and wife. Twice. Then, the FBI went on a rampage to ruin his Fortune 100 career at Citi and even prevented him from attending his mother’s funeral.

hat did Paine know that terrified the Deep State and prompted FBI agents to stoop so low as to literally terrorize an 8-year-old and 12-year-old? And Paine’s wife? Paine tells it all here - revealing he was investigating Intel that the FBI, CIA and White House were covering up evidence that Osama bin Laden was living and running al Qaeda from Iran after 9/11. Paine reveals his True Identity: Loeb Award-winning and Pulitzer nominated newspaper reporter and Intel expert Mike Moore.

John Owen Brennan retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

John Owen Brennan (born September 22, 1955)[1][2] is a former American intelligence officer who served as the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) from March 2013 to January 2017. He served as chief counterterrorism advisor to U.S. President Barack Obama, with the title Deputy National Security Advisor for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism, and Assistant to the President.[1][3][4] Previously, he advised Obama on foreign policy and intelligence issues during the 2008 election campaign and presidential transition.

Brennan withdrew his name from consideration for Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) during the first Obama administration over concerns about his support for torture, after defending on TV the transferring of terror suspects to countries where they might be tortured while serving under President George W. Bush. Instead, Brennan was appointed Deputy National Security Advisor, a position which did not require Senate confirmation.

Brennan's 25 years with the CIA included work as a Near East and South Asia analyst, as station chief in Saudi Arabia, and as director of the National Counterterrorism Center. After leaving government service in 2005, Brennan became CEO of The Analysis Corporation, a security consulting business, and served as chairman of the Intelligence and National Security Alliance, an association of intelligence professionals.

Brennan served in the White House as Assistant to the President for Homeland Security between 2009 and 2013. Obama nominated Brennan as his next director of the CIA on January 7, 2013.[10][11] The ACLU called for the Senate not to proceed with the appointment until they confirmed that "all of his conduct was within the law" at the CIA and White House.

Brennan was approved by the Senate Intelligence Committee on March 5, 2013, to succeed David Petraeus as the Director of the CIA by a vote of 12 to 3.

John Owen Brennan (born September 22, 1955)[1][2] is a former American intelligence officer who served as the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) from March 2013 to January 2017. He served as chief counterterrorism advisor to U.S. President Barack Obama, with the title Deputy National Security Advisor for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism, and Assistant to the President.[1][3][4] Previously, he advised Obama on foreign policy and intelligence issues during the 2008 election campaign and presidential transition.

Brennan withdrew his name from consideration for Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) during the first Obama administration over concerns about his support for torture, after defending on TV the transferring of terror suspects to countries where they might be tortured while serving under President George W. Bush.[3][6] Instead, Brennan was appointed Deputy National Security Advisor, a position which did not require Senate confirmation.

Brennan's 25 years with the CIA included work as a Near East and South Asia analyst, as station chief in Saudi Arabia, and as director of the National Counterterrorism Center.[3][6][8] After leaving government service in 2005, Brennan became CEO of The Analysis Corporation, a security consulting business, and served as chairman of the Intelligence and National Security Alliance, an association of intelligence professionals.

Brennan served in the White House as Assistant to the President for Homeland Security between 2009 and 2013. Obama nominated Brennan as his next director of the CIA on January 7, 2013.[10][11] The ACLU called for the Senate not to proceed with the appointment until they confirmed that “all of his conduct was within the law” at the CIA and White House.[12] Brennan was approved by the Senate Intelligence Committee on March 5, 2013, to succeed David Petraeus as the Director of the CIA by a vote of 12 to 3.

Brennan serves as a senior national security and intelligence analyst for NBC News and MSNBC. His inaugural appearance was on Meet the Press with Chuck Todd on Sunday, February 4, 2018.

On August 15, 2018, President Donald Trump announced that he had revoked Brennan’s security clearance, although the White House reportedly did not follow through with the revocation process.

Brennan had harshly criticized Trump several times since his election and responded to the revocation by stating “My principles are worth far more than clearances. I will not relent.”

Brennan serves as a senior national security and intelligence analyst for NBC News and MSNBC. His inaugural appearance was on Meet the Press with Chuck Todd on Sunday, February 4, 2018.

Politico * How John Brennan and Mike Pompeo Left the U.S. Blind to Saudi Problems

Douglas London is a retired senior CIA Operations Officer and Adjunc
Professor at Georgetown University’s Center for Security Studies. Mr. L widely across the Middle East and South Asia over the course of 34 y Clandestine Service. His assignments included several in the field as and likewise at home as an Executive Manager. Follow him on Twitte ©douglaslondon5.

Saudi Arabia this spring sent shockwaves through the world when it embarked on an economically disastrous game of chicken with its petro-rival Russia. After walking away from an oil-production conference, the kingdom opened its spigots to drive down prices in protest of what it saw as a lack of Russian support, sending global markets plunging right as Covid-19 began shutting down economies. Not long before that, the Saudi government itself had undergone a dramatic purge led by Mohammad bin Salman, the young prince who appears to have rapidly consolidated power in the past three years, and who enjoys the favor of the Trump administration.

The country is now ruled by the enfeebled 84-year-old King Salman, whose reign is likely to be short and is already largely serving as cover for the actual governing by his son. So trustworthy intelligence on what's happening there- a country with which the U.S. has a multibillion-dollar military, diplomatic and business relationship-is more important than ever.

However, informed critics such as Riedel, as well as former operatives and others who have spoken out in the media, have been pointing out that the US intelligence community, and particularly its last three CIA directors, have taken a very politicized approach to Saudi intelligence gathering. Rather than asking difficult questions and then empowering collection efforts, intelligence leaders have been choosing their conclusions and then steering away from any inconvenient facts about them.

This trend appears to be continuing: According to recent media reports, Secretary of State (and former CIA director) Mike Pompeo pushed State Department officials to find an after-the-fact justification for an emergency declaration he issued last year, bypassing Congress and allowing an $8 billion arms sale to Saudi Arabia.

Riedel's comments, and the recently mounting critiques, point to a worrisome turn in America's approach to Saudi Arabia: Faced with a complex and perhaps dangerous diplomatic partner, successive White Houses have instead sought to look the other way concerning Saudi behavior, allowing themselves to be steered by intelligence chiefs with their own motives, and comfortably basking in feigned ignorance regarding the truth beneath the Kingdom's pervasive veil.

Passing of Jen Moore retrieved from Tracy Police Department on Fecebook and copied or modified to here

Tracy Police: It is with deep sadness we announce the death of retired officer Jenny Moore who passed away on August 13, 2018 in Millersville, Maryland. Jenny served the community of Tracy from 1993 until her retirement in 2004. Jenny held the rank of Corporal, served in the then named Street Crime Unit as a narcotics investigator and worked in the Tracy Unified School District as a DARE officer. As a Field Training Officer, Jenny taught new officers how to police in Tracy and gave them an appreciation of what it meant to grow up in a town and later serve the same community. She also was a member of our adventure racing team competing in several events on the west coast.

Jenny graduated from Tracy High School in 1986 and later completed a Master's Degree in Psychology, which she put to good use as a psychologist at a non-profit organization.

Her mother, Jane Moore of California, survives her; her Father Bob Moore of Texas; her sisters Robin and Kelli, and brother Bobby, all of California. She also had numerous nieces and nephews.

The "issue" is that Kutschera DNA tied to Franz Kutchera family members and Kutscherea Nazi ally Heinrich Himmler is in STOLEN DNA when eggs were stolen from Glorian Donegan, moved into Barrack Obama, the Bush family, the Rockefellers and others of secretive DNA tests.

I am writing a "Submitted for inclusion Addendum to Coroner's Inquest suggesting a Homocide finding" by laying out the story Jen Moore was working on that was Glorian Donegan at 850 N. Randolph Arlington Virginia and the clandestine agencies and secret history of the real story of the Von Trapps and what happened with rescue-es and underground railroads including those with FOXP2 Syndrome medical condition which placed them at odds with growing Nazi disdain for genetic conditions.

Revealing that today's most powerful figures may include these genes lines is the story the elites are killing journalists to protect.

In 1972 James Angleton's close alley in Free Masonry J. Edgar Hoover dies. The worked with Pope Pius XII in a plan following WWII to do Mendellian like research in race studies including grooming Barrack Obama Jr. in race and FOXP2 studies which went to British history and the Central European family later calling itself the Windsors and their history.

James Paul Donegan, Glorian Donegan, Ton Donegan, Ed Donegan,

- James Paul Donegan (father): Grew up poori in Boston Massacussttes. IN WWII and Korea fighter pilot for recon, few with and did targetign with bombers including nucelar bomb drops and Japan and atimc blast radiation testing SSFL Nevada and California

- Glorian Dnegan nee Glorian Gainey sister of Harold Gainey and adopted by the Dew family in South Carolina when Festus Gainey dies. IT seems Glorian and Harold were two of three Maria Augusta Kutschera children other than the 7 Von Trapp family steot children to her

- Tom Donegan older brother of Ed DOnegan but co-operating with CIA and not trusted by Glorian Donegan for the will which was the sale of the Moraga house money

- Edward Paul Donegan, me, who like my mother has FOXP2 symptoms showing and we both were gangstalked during our lives and often lived in two person households with each other.

Boston Massachusetts Cape Cod

Jim Donegan the son of Irish immigrants live on the wrong side of the tracks in Boston. His father worked in Ireland as an accounted but moved to Boston unable to work in that field and died a blue collar employee sweep floors at Hershey Chocolate plant. James Donegan told stories intensive abusive experiences his Irish Roman Catholic parents experienced in Boston while trying to raise him thus he pulled his own as an under-age painter until the US Army Air Corps began recruiting underage P-51 pilots and he took it as WWII reached Enlgand and the USA

Los Angeles County California and The Manhattan Project

In 1961 I was born in Danial Freedmaan Memorial St. Josephs Cahtolic Hospital in Manhattan Beech City of Los Angeles County. Part of Inglewood are of Los Angeles County Manhattan Beach this was the figher bomber development by Boeing, DuPont and Kellog X and others to develop and dropped the atomic bomb. Afterwards it was above ground atomic testing and blast exposure testing in Nevada, Hawaii, elsewhere my fathe still in the military was involved with int he 1950s. In 1961 I am born in Inglewolood Manhattan Beach home of the P-51, Manhattan Project site (from the code name when Columbia University New York overlooks Manhattan Ilsand and Enrico Fermis “That can be our password! Manhattan Project!!”

Boston again after a few year in California Manhattan Beach home

As my father flew for TWA in the 1960 including with the Chafin family of TWA bratts but then moving to Cape Code again, Marshfield, near the Kennedy compound and not the poor area of Boston.

1973 a move into Moraga California in a new house just build to our design at 52 Lambeth Sqaare

In Contra Costa County, the Eastern side of the Skyline Mountains hills Alameda County and my Oakland Hish School and frieds were on as well. (Honey Binning, Leanord Schaffer, etc.,)

RAYMOND JOHNSON BINNING obituary
retrieved from East Bay Times and copied or modified to here

RAYMOND JOHNSON BINNING Raymond Johnson Binning in Piedmont on Sept. 13, 2003 of cancer. Beloved husband of Ann Taylor Binning. Loving father of Les Binning (Emeline), Honey Reid (Roland), Dawn Gibbs (Jess), and Elizabeth Binning. Stepfather of Dave Rompel and John Rompel. Dear son of Alice and Dean Webster. Also survived by 10 grandchildren. A native of Wyoming Age 66 years. A member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Memorial Services will be held Monday, September 22nd at 11 a.m. in the small chapel at the Interstake Center adjacent to the Mormon Temple on Lincoln Avenue in Oakland. Contributions in his memory may be made to LDS Foundation/ Humanitarian Services, 15 South Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84150 (checks payable C.O.P.B. designating Humanitarian Services in memory of Ray Binning) or Boy Scouts of America, 1001 Davis St. San Leandro, CA 94577 OAK PARK HILLS CHAPEL 925-934-6500

Published by Oakland Tribune on Sep. 20,

2003.

I had met Honey Binning at Cal State Haward and we sometimes partied or kept company at her Piedmont home or my mother Moraga California home. She described her parents as Mormon and described Mormon requirements of faithfulness as highly socially conservative.

We also had visited a mother's or father's original home with relatives still at it in somewhere in Central California. During that time together she also talked about her parents holding strong religous beliefs and serious lectures her younger sister had revieved about becoming pregnant out of wedlock during that week or so or weekend long trip together we took.

Jim and Glorian will diverse in 1980 as I graduate Head Royce High School in Oakland just barely. I briefly attend University of Oregon but flunk out and return to Moragan to consider my options will working in fast food, drinking heavily, etc. in 1980 my brother Tom has gone to George Washing University and will graduate from there, my father moved out into a Condo in Walnut Creek, a Contra Costa County to the east of Moraga, though of similar demographics to the East Bay Contra Costa area, Moraga was gerrymandered as part of Alameda Cunty. and all locations were very close

In the house living alone Glorian my mother and I talked about the use of the house in the will. It will be stored in a bank account, segretated from other funds so no mixing. Glorian will live on the interest plust other income from the divorce. On her death I will get a car, much needed.

567 Natoma St, San Francisco, CA, 94103 (San Francisco County)

After drinking too much I went to AA. From there I tried career counseling, led to VOC REHAB tech school and gainful employment in high tech and I move to Sanf Francisco near my plat of work in San Francisco at Wells Fargo. At an earlier stop I worked for Netscape AOL after Tom Donegan invited me to but that seemed some kind of setup with a Dopple of me there.

777 Middlefield Rd, Apt 131, Mountain View, CA, 94043 (Santa Clara County)

The earlier location I worked at High Tech including AOL. During my time in the Silicon Valey area 9/11 hit and also during thsi time I got my networks security certification, one of them, Cisco PIX box later at Wells Fargo

26th and Wisconsin in San Francisco California, room mate situation as I look for new work

I rented a room from a guy but based on some dirty tricks I was experiencing I felt lke my father during his divorce and started thinking Men's Rights or White Rights and grew active.

850 Randolph St, Apt 221, Arlington, VA, 22203 (Arlington County)

I used drugs again, was fired from Wells Fargo San Francisco California, ditched any friendship after a former friend ahd to eveict me (Jason) but at the same time I WAS being stalked, but the landlords were helping. I contributed to the problem but was not the problem, rather, a victim of it. GangTSalking

It is this apartment she suffers Congestive Heart Failure and we live together again talking about her will, and getting lawyers. Spliting the Moraga house sale proceeds between Tom and Ed are easy. A decades long seach for an Executor is the hard part of the will and David Donegan and others are approached but Tom will ultimately be the Executor.

3822 7th St N Unit 14, Arlington, VA

While my mother is still alive I move bearby to this address and walk back and forth to her house at 850 N. Randolph veyr close and where I used to live with her. Folloing her death I remain at 3822 7th street but am evicted from it after confronting a neigber over some wierd human trafficking ring Thea Smith and Tom Donegan created. Escorts were going to other units but comments were made to made “She is on the way” etc., but it really is going on behind my back and hidden from me. It is only made to appear I know about any actualy details or activities, I don’t

3253 Staples St, Apt 2, Corpus Christi, TX, 78411 (Nueces County) Texas

Following eviction from confronting Virignia neighbors and my brother about the will and what was happening I fly to and arrive in Texas where more will shenanigans tied that Moraga house and > its and GLorian's history unfold but attemppts are made to silence the truth and Jen Moore is murdered.

850 North Randolph, the mruder of Jen Moore, and how this affected the will of the rights to the house in Moraga Califronia

MKULTRA used NAZI scientists in military science in space medicine (flight surgeons, surviving space flight) rocketry, neurology, Eugenics, brain science, etc., The Grand Masters are the umbrella over both sides of WWII. Now they kill to \cover their trails.

Traitors, Infiltratoers covering their trail with CIA FBI COINTELPRO hits

> "%70 of Homicides I investigate are committed by the partners or ex-partners of the victim." - Detective, Below The Belt movie.

Add in "familial entities" actors, trust funds, social services?

Jen Moore correctly observed abuse is being comitted through (not resolved by) Family Courts, the Family Courts a criminal syndicate front and abusive to those stuck in them like myself.

DARPA British Vienna FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder London KE Family	Law Abing citizes and truth of MKULTRA under attack
	European Scientists business, Political Figures	Moving them into the USA of Commonwealths with hidden identities increasingly whitewashed such as hiding ID of Franz Kutschera,, Himmler, and Mengle from Sound of Music, hiding of 3 children moved into the USA	US Constitution Offices	Wet Division illegal FBI and CIA Deep State operation to cover up real story of hidden identities of those moved into the USA OR Buenos Aires from Nazi Germany
European Grand	King Edward VII	European Royal and	Barrack Obama Jr	Jen Moore murdered

Masters	with Rotshcilds family in Austria and Kutschera family in Austria, children and other ties	Business and Medical familes, Dr Cameron, Kamloops, other secret research sites in Canada, Austraila, Elsewhere	Scwhartzer and others born under this now in power, including likely Robert Swan Mueeleer II and George W. Bush family, and many business like Golds and HEM NAZI ties	as she was disclusing hidden identies in the USA of MKULTRA use of Nazis
	Aristocray Military Science and Industrial Complex Duponts Kellogs Columbia OSR, CIA TSS Biology	Bush, Clintons, Obamas, Chenney, USAID, CIA, Dept of Defense, Vatican	Hit on JFK, RFK, Dorothy Killgallen	WASP Deep State has clipped of top of control of USA
Windsors and Commonwea	Vienna Eugenics and Brain Sciences WASP Big Big Big Business, regime change, private wealth private	USA Elites, BCCI, UBBC, Other Nazi ties of MKULTRA, Werhner Von Braun, Defense and Sciences of Nazi Germany	Hollywood Kabal free masons use metaphors	Kabal tied to England Will Bill Donavan Donald Barr Wiliam Barr Christopher Wray Mueller J. Edgar Hoover Comey run

This as Obama Thank You Card is hiding in buses at Stay and Play August 2016

security firms dirtyh deeds

the USA

US Grand Masters

DuPont Family and Grand Master Masons South Carolina - Sumpter Greensboro via Denton North Caroina

Rockefeller Sciences and Nuerology, ELI Lilly, George Bush, H.W. Bush, Neil Bush, GLorian Gainey and Harold Gainey Ed Donegan studies

Attempted hit on Edward Donegan

Infiltration of USA from MKULTRA Sciencits and Nazi Children Eugenics

850 North Randolph, the mruder of Jen Moore, and how this affected the will of the rights to the house in Moraga Califronia

MKULTRA used NAZI scientists in military science in space medicine (flight surgeons, surviving space flight) rocketry, neurology, Eugenics, brain science, etc., The Grand Masters are the umbrella over both sides of WWII. Now they kill to \cover their trails.

Traitors, Infiltratoers covering their trail with CIA FBI COINTELPRO hits

> "%70 of Homicides I investigate are committed by the partners or ex-partners of the victim." - Detective, Below The Belt movie.

Add in "familial entities" actors, trust funds, social services? Jen Moore correctly observed abuse is being comitted through (not resolved by) Family Courts, the Family Courts a criminal syndicate front and abusive to those stuck in them like myself.

DARPA British Vienna FOXP2 Minimal Brain Disorder London KE Family	Law Abing citizes and truth of MKULTRA under attack
	European Scientists business, Political Figures	Moving them into the USA o Commonwealths with hidden identities increasingly	US Constitution Offices	Wet Division illegal FBI and CIA Deep State operation to cover up real story

		whitewashed such as hiding ID of Franz Kutschera,, Himmler, and Mengle from Sound of Music, hiding of 3 children moved into the USA		of hidden identities of those moved into the USA OR Buenos Aires from Nazi Germany
European Grand Masters	King Edward VII with Rotshcilds family in Austria and Kutschera family in Austria, children and other ties	European Royal and Business and Medical familes, Dr Cameron, Kamloops, other secret research sites in Canada, Austraila, Elsewhere	Barrack Obama Jr Scwhartzer and others born under this now in power, including likely Robert Swan Mueeleer II and George W. Bush family, and many business like Golds and HEM NAZI ties	Jen Moore murdered as she was disclusing hidden identies in the USA of MKULTRA use of Nazis
	Aristocray Military Science and Industrial	Bush, Clintons, Obamas, Chenney,	Hit on JFK, RFK, Dorothy Killgallen	WASP Deep State has clipped of top of

This as Obama Thank You Card is hiding in buses at Stay and Play August 2016

	Complex Duponts Kellogs Columbia OSR, CIA TSS Biology	USAID, CIA, Dept of Defense, Vatican		control of USA
Windsors and Commonwea	Vienna Eugenics and Brain Sciences WASP Big Big Big Business, regime change, private wealth private security firms dirtyh deeds	USA Elites, BCCI, UBBC, Other Nazi ties of MKULTRA, Werhner Von Braun, Defense and Sciences of Nazi Germany	Hollywood Kabal free masons use metaphors	Kabal tied to England Will Bill Donavan Donald Barr Wiliam Barr Christopher Wray Mueller J. Edgar Hoover Comey run the USA
US Grand Masters	DuPont Family and Grand Master Masons South Carolina - Sumpter Greensboro via Denton North Caroina	Rockefeller Sciences and Nuerology, ELI Lilly, George Bush, H.W. Bush, Neil Bush, GLorian Gainey and Harold Gainey Ed Donegan studies		Attempted hit on Edward Donegan

Infiltration of USA from MKULTRA Sciencits and Nazi Children Eugenics

2009 to 2014 Housing of Donegan Family

My path from San Francissco to where i had worked in high tech at Wells Fargo until just after 9/11 was through Federal Medical Centers (FMC New York MCC Federal Prison and FMC BUtner Federal Medical Center after a 2007 dispute I had with the New York DOJ Field Office co-opting a grant I was seeking or seeking information on as to lawsuits in Social Justice and acts of anti European hate are or could be fueled by blaming “the system” and its “Man” on differences which may have to do with uneven evolved IQ.

I was arrested for contacting the National Institute of Health Freedom of Information Office (more formally the HHS Office) and held without trial as a lunatic and also I assert during this time frame I was radiolgically attacked.

On that assertion)like the assertion someone (the FBI in New York) had co-opted my grant) I was placed in a North Carolina mental hospital as delusional. During this time frame Ted GUnderson was asserting he was being poisened, Barrack Obama Jr was just being swarn in as I was released from the mental hospitable to Arlington Virginia and its mental health services as outpatient for a period of time.

Glorian Donegna had long ago moved to Arlington VA 850 North Randolph to be near Tom Donegan, long in the D.C. area living in Arlington Viriginia.

As I was released in 2009 and to 2014 the picture looked lie this.

> Glorian Donegan 850 N. Randolph ALrington VA permant address (unit number changed once) for perhaps 20 years, she died 2011 with that as her permanent residence. Place of Death: Emeritus with my apratemnt 7th Street in view of the windos and walkings distance to 850 N. Randolph.

Tom Donegan Clarendon Arlington Virginia

3200 19th St N, Arlington, VA much of his adult life working at AOL in Herndon VA after colledge BS in Marketing

Tom Donegan 6 Thistlemore Way, Provincetown, MA

He returns to Cape Cod, the Donegan relatives, and lives in Provinceton across Cape Cod Massaschussetes where he grew up. Before leaving for MA and Gay Marriage he helps with my mother while in Arlington VA then by phone and organization effrots from MA

Ed DOnegan 7th Street Arlington

Upon that 2009 release for me from the psych wards Tom arranges for an apartment on 7th Street Arlington Virgina very close to him and Mark at 19th Street and even closer, footsteps, to my mother in 850 North Randolph. I occupy the apartment for sevearl years, twice in scrapes with my neigbero over a fraud I alledged of trafficking. On the second time I am evicted and move to Texas to get rid of Arlington Mnetal Health which seesm to be working against me and my brother had influcence over

James and Sue Ann Donegan Lincoln California

With a long love of Lake Tahoe and the Sirrea NEvada Jim and Sue Ann Donegan his new wife live in the Sierras. He is distraught I am under arrest for > fighting with my neigbor Thea Smith and I break my arm slamming had prison cell structure worried about him, Jen Moore references the incident and my fight back, verbally, against some reall abuse I was taking.

Uopn the death of my mother GLorian at Emeritus care essentially acted as a hospice, and stay at Cherydale, Tom and I and Mark clear her old 850 North Randolph apartment. I am so tired I can not stand and he resents my observation of his work without sharing in it.

Jim will come out and visit as well at several points, and Jim, Tom, Ed, and Mark will tour National Air and Space Museum, WWII Memorial, all of D.C. on foot, and is the last ha-rah of any Donegans together.

Upon that final eviction from 7th Street all Donegans are gone from Arlington VA. Me evicted and flying to Texas homeless, Tom and Mark back to Massachusetts, and Jim back to Truckee where he will soon die, and me in Texas.

Jen Moore Posted August 21, 2018 on Patriot or Traitor

Robyn Lee Gritz Organizer Austin, TX

Secret Identities and the right of the US Public to know

I recently found evidence suggesting that the CIA has an interest in concealing it created Barack Obama to fight communism in Africa, and I am the Manchurian Son.

Former FBI Agent Speaks Out: 'I Was Not Protected retrieved from NPR, April 15, 2015 , Heard on All Things Considered by CARRIE JOHNSON EVIE STONE and copied or modified to here

For 15 years, Gritz says, she did her job well. Her bosses at the FBI gave her excellent or outstanding performance reviews, she says. But when a reporter made contact with her last year, she was selling cosmetics at Macy's.

"Watching everything that's going on in the world, how I had battled al-Qaida in Iraq, the Taliban … all my experience, all the time I had put in there, I'm selling lipstick and blush," she says.

A Decade After Blowing The Whistle On The FBI, Vindication

How did that happen? Gritz says the FBI drummed her out of a job. All because of allegations about fraud on her time card that she says just didn't happen. The FBI also blamed her for not attending a 7:15 a.m. meeting and sending an unprofessional email to an ex-boyfriend.

Now, she's got the ear of people like Senate Judiciary Chairman Charles Grassley. The Republican lawmaker from Iowa says he's concerned about what he heard from Gritz and a small but vocal band of female whistleblowers at the FBI

[image]

In RKO (Joseph Kennedy Sr) Howard Hughes aviation move much like Hellcats great aviation filming shows an F-86 intercepting a Russian pilot. The Russian pilot is a woman who agrees to land in the USA and an Espionage romance drama unfolds between John Wayne an Janet Leigh. Further Reading

Oh, the horticulture lectures in Manchuria.

It was Monday November 19 1962, under the sign of Scorpio (see zodiac on November 19, 1962). The US president was John F. Kennedy (Democrat), the UK Prime Minister was Harold Macmillan (Conservative), Pope John XXIII was leading the Catholic Church. Famous people born on this day include Jodie Foster

Famous people out of sight of the public on this day include Dick Cheney allegedly in the drunk tank.

[image]

The Office of Economic Opportunity was the agency responsible for administering most of the War on Poverty programs created as part of United States President Lyndon B. Johnson's Great Society legislative agenda.

Cheney was often criticized for the Bush Administration's policies regarding the campaign against terrorism, for his support of wiretapping by the National Security Agency (NSA) and for his endorsement of “enhanced interrogation techniques” which several critics have labeled as torture.

When Cheney became eligible for the draft, during the Vietnam War, he applied for and received five draft deferments. In 1989, The Washington Post writer George C. Wilson interviewed Cheney as the next Secretary of Defense; when asked about his deferments, Cheney reportedly said, “I had other priorities in the ’60s than military service.”

Cheney testified during his confirmation hearings in 1989 that he received deferments to finish a college career that lasted six years rather than four, owing to sub-par academic performance and the need to work to pay for his education. Upon graduation, Cheney was eligible for the draft, but at the time, the Selective Service System was not inducting married men.[22] On October 6, 1965, the draft was expanded to include married men without children; Cheney’s first daughter, Elizabeth, was born 9 months and two days later. Cheney’s fifth and final deferment granted him “3-A” status, a “hardship” deferment available to men with dependents. In January 1967, Cheney turned 26 and was no longer eligible for the draft.

https://takemeback.to/19-November-1962

The Special Relationship is an unofficial term that is often used to describe the political, diplomatic, cultural, economic, military and historic relations between the United Kingdom and the United States or its political leaders.

The term first came into popular usage after it was used in a 1946 speech by former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Both nations have been close allies during many conflicts in the 20th and the 21st centuries, including World War I, World War II, the Korean War, the Cold War, the Gulf War and the War on Terror.

Although both governments also have close relationships with many other nations, the level of cooperation between the UK and the US in trade and commerce, military planning, execution of military operations, nuclear weapons technology, and intelligence sharing has been described as “unparallelled” among major world powers.[1]

From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia

MORONS! Reagonomics is NOT Trickle Down!

I am looking at you Dick Cheney, George H.W. Bush, Jody Foster!

Dick CHeney retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Richard Bruce Cheney (/ˈtʃeɪni/ CHAYN-ee;[1] born January 30, 1941) is an American politician and businessman who served as the 46th vice president of the United States from 2001 to 2009 under George W. Bush. He has been cited as the most powerful vice president in American history.[2][3] He is also one of the most unpopular American politicians, holding an approval rating of just 13% upon leaving office.[4]

Cheney was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, the son of Marjorie Lorraine (née Dickey) and Richard Herbert Cheney. He is of predominantly English, as well as Welsh, Irish, and French Huguenot ancestry. His father was a soil conservation agent for the U.S. Department of Agriculture and his mother was a softball star in the 1930s;[11] Cheney was one of three children.

He attended Yale University, but by his own account had problems adjusting to the college, and dropped out.[15][16] Among the influential teachers from his days in New Haven was Professor H. Bradford Westerfield, whom Cheney repeatedly credited with having helped to shape his approach to foreign policy.[17] He later attended the University of Wyoming, where he earned both a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Arts in political science. He subsequently started, but did not finish, doctoral studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.[18]

In November 18 1962, at the age of 21, Cheney was convicted of driving while intoxicated (DWI). He was arrested for DWI again the following year.[19] Cheney said that the arrests made him “think about where I was and where I was headed. I was headed down a bad road if I continued on that course.”[20]

Eight months later, in July 1963, Cheney was arrested in Rock Springs, Wyoming Details of Cheney’s second Wyoming arrest, in July 1963, have also fallen victim to time and records destruction practices at the local Municipal Court. But a police arrest card (similar to the one that haunted Dubya) maintained by the Rock Springs Police Department shows that Cheney was fined $100 for his second DWI conviction. The card lists the charge against Cheney, who was then working as a groundman laying power lines, as “11-44,” the criminal code classification for drunken driving, according to Police Chief Neil Kourbelas.

Kennedy, Christopher Birthname Christopher George Kennedy born on 4 July 1963 Place Boston, Massachusetts

American businessman, politician, and Chair of Joseph P. Kennedy Enterprises, Inc. He is the fifth son and eighth child of Ethel and Robert Kennedy.

Liz Cheney Dick Cheney’s daughter will work at USAID and also enter politics.

[image]

on Amazon.com

About the Author

Aaron Klein is a New York Times bestselling author and veteran journalist. He is the Jerusalem bureau chief for WND and hosts the #1-rated local weekend radio show, Aaron Klein Investigative Radio. His previous books include Fool Me Twice, Impeachable Offenses, Red Army, The Manchurian President, The Late Great State of Israel, and Schmoozing with Terrorists.

The book uncovers a far-leftist, anti-American nexus that has been instrumental in not only helping build Obama’s political career but in securing his presidency. Klein details with shocking precision how this nexus continues to influence Obama and the White House and is involved in drafting policy aimed at reshaping our country. Highlights of The Manchurian President:

- Obama’s mysterious college years unearthed
- Shocking details of Obama’s relationship with Bill Ayers and other Weathermen terrorists
- Obama’s ties to Islam and black liberation theology Startling facts about Obama’s eligibility to serve as president
- Obama’s ties to slam and black liberation theology
- Startling facts about Obama’s eligibility to serve as president
- Obama’s membership in a socialist party probed
- Obama’s membership in a socialist party probed
- How Obama’s hope & change slogans stem from communist activism
- Radical socalists involved in drafting stimulus bill, ObamaCare
- Communists, socialists and other radicals on team Obama, including an expose on Obama’s top guns in the White House
- Never-before-revealed depth of Obama’s relationship with ACORN

Also from http://criticality.org/Barack-obama-manchuriancandidate/

Twin of Mark or Scott Kelly or others?

TATE Anthony Lee, 40, died unexpectedly September 18, 2001 at his home. He was born February 24, 1961 in Tifton, GA and moved to Jacksonville in 1993 following his U. S. Army service in Germany. He earned his Masters degree in Special Education from the University of North Florida and was working towards his doctorate. Anthony chose Special Education so that he could help those who needed it most …

Executive Producer Howard W. Koch Manchurian Candidate 1962

Credits include Television (director)Hawaiian Eye is an American detective television series that ran from October 1959 to *April 1963 on the ABC television network.

Among his numerous television productions, Howard W. Koch produced the Academy Awards show on eight occasions. Dedicated to the industry, he served as President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences from 1977 to 1979. In 1990 the Academy honored him with The Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award and in 1991 he received the Frank Capra Achievement Award from the Directors Guild of America.

Howard E. Koch December 12, 1901 - August 17, 1995)[1][2][3] was an American playwright and screenwriter who was blacklisted by the Hollywood film studio bosses in the 1950s. Not to be confused with Howard W. Koch says Wikidia

Not to be confused with Howard W. Koch April 11, 1916 - February 16, 2001)

George Axelrod (June 9, 1922 - June 21, 2003) was an American screenwriter, producer, playwright and film director, best known for his play The Seven Year Itch (1952), which was adapted into a film of the same name starring Marilyn Monroe. Axelrod was nominated for an Academy Award for his 1961 adaptation of Truman Capote's Breakfast at Tiffany's and also adapted Richard Condon's The Manchurian Candidate (1962).

Axelrod was one of the best paid screenwriters in Hollywood, and he was nominated for an Academy Award for his 1961 adaptation of Truman Capote's Breakfast at Tiffany's. He was highly regarded for his adaptation of Richard Condon's novel for director John Frankenheimer's Cold War thriller The Manchurian Candidate (1962) starring Laurence Harvey and Frank Sinatra. Axelrod, who co-produced, considered it his best screen adaptation. After the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in November 1963, the movie was taken out of circulation and wasn't re-released until 1988, when it became a box office hit https://beforeitsnews.com/v3/alternative/2011/1422378...

Mail | Social Networking | News | Google Calendar - M | Titles | SockPuppets

BEFORE IT'S NEWS

Feb 23
1962

THE YOUNG LISTENED

This edition of Muhammad Speaks, dated April 1962, has a front page caption that reads:

"More than 12,000 people on February 23 gathered in Chicago's International Amphitheater to hear Messenger Elijah Muhammad speak on The Future Of The American So-called Negroes."

Inside the newspaper on page 18, Ann and baby Barack are placed just below, to the left of a photo of Malcolm X with the caption "The Young Listened".

Recent advances in DNA family databases require my DNA be moved (under the pretense of medicine) into Africa.

PAINE: How We Dismantled the FBI In Our Pajamas Paperback -October 26, 2018 by Mike Moore (Author), Thomas Paine (Author)

SWAT-clad FBI agents stormed into Mike "Thomas Paine" Moore's home and terrorized his wife and young children at gunpoint after rousting them out of bed. Not once, but twice, pointing automatic weapons at the family. Historic, costly blunders for the FBI.

In response Paine assembled his journalism crew of former feds, launched True Pundit and literally dismantled the FBI in less than two years with pens and laptops while working from home, often in pajamas.

While the mainstream media ignored a corrupt FBI & DOJ, Paine and cohorts hammered away and knocked the FBI off its trusted public mantle. Revered FBI leaders were fired. Others quit. FBI officials, targeted by True Pundit's hard-hitting reporting, are now targets of numerous federal investigations. A fitting irony after the FBI - whom Paine worked for - came into his home with M4 rifles drawn on his young kids and wife. Twice. Then, the FBI went on a rampage to ruin his Fortune 100 career at Citi and even prevented him from attending his mother's funeral.

What did Paine know that terrified the Deep State and prompted FBI agents to stoop so low as to literally terrorize an 8-year-old and 12-year-old? And Paine's wife? Paine tells it all here - revealing he was investigating Intel that the FBI, CIA & White House were covering up evidence that Osama bin Laden was living and running al-Qaeda from Iran after 9/11. Paine reveals his True Identity: Loeb Award-winning & Pulitzer nominated newspaper reporter and Intel expert Mike Moore.

And his insider revelations about bin Laden - and the Bush and Obama White Houses - are not pretty as they blow the roof off one of the most sinister, gut-wrenching scandals in U.S. history, involving Democrats and Republicans.

Implicated too here are U.S. Special Counsel Robert Mueller along with former CIA Director John Brennan, among many others. A Criminal conspiracy involving top players in the Deep State, entrenched in one of the greatest public betrayals imaginable.

They tried to silence Paine and ruin him to keep these alarming revelations secret but something went wrong. Paine rose from the ashes of his battered life and tattered financial career and then re-launched his award-winning journalism career. And this time - playing by his own rules - Paine blows the lid off of a massive cover-up that implicates the same D.C. elite who tried to take him down.

Mike “Thomas Paine” Moore’s story is one of personal loss, struggle, payback and patriotism.

You may have heard the prophetic warning that “One Day You’re Going to Mess with the Wrong Guy.”

In ‘How We Dismantled the FBI in Our Pajamas,’ Paine proves he is THAT guy. And the FBI - or what’s left of it now - surely regrets the days it threatened Paine’s wife and children at gunpoint, miscalculations that ultimately rocked its foundations unlike any FBI scandal in American history.

This book

Cathy Meadows is a Revealor and has written my Autobiography of What I have lived through (and may mother and father and brother did not)

Most agree Stalkers try to create un-peaceful conditions that a normal person will react to and appear abnormal when he or she does. The public does not believe the outcry, that a victims is being stalked and poisoned. Once in a pscyh ward the victim is either on ice, discredited, neutralized, and without a typewriter, or killed by the institutional staff and their snitch network. I could provide 7K examples of this system if my mind were able to remember all. I call stalking "Herding."

A person will react to this, and the reaction that is a correct adaptation to the threat will be treated a a adaptation to a non-threat thus a delusional or psychotic allegation is made when a person targeted by harassment faces a civil commitment hearing about "The mental health compoent" a person confronted by police has exhibited.

As Meadows points out once facing strange circumstances the rational mind will both report it and try to find its origins. The Stalk is denied and the explanation is denied. What is left is an ordinary person asserting facts not believed about being stalked.

The stalked person is a Conspiracy Theorist trying to unravel conspiracies. Mine theory of the stalk and why leads to JKF Conspiracy Theories.

Hey Mom, I'm a Targeted Individual: For the Families and Friends of Targeted Individuals retrieved from https://www.amazon.com/Hey-Mom-Targeted-

Individual-Individuals-ebook/dp/B07BX97GW6/r and copied or modified to here

She is correct about Stalkers

What Targets Say That'll Blow Your Mind (And It's All True)

[Ed Donegan will swear on this as true and has experienced every item on the list

Some of the neighbors are in on it. [and were placed there to be],

I'm being watched 24/7 everywhere I go.,

They listen to all of my conversations.,

My phone and computer are hacked., [or attacked by water drops from balcony above my balconcy, break-ins, etc.,

They got into my facebook account.,

I'm being stalked by dozens of people every time I I go out.,

I'm being seriously slandered and maligned.,

My co-workers are being turned against me.,

They're trying to make me quit my job.,

'm being dogged by helicopters, small planes, or drones.,

I'm the victim of biological, or chemical, or remote weapons' attacks.,

They're making my hair fall out.,

They're causing me physical mobility problems.,

They're causing me dental problems.,

They're trying to turn my friends and family against me,

They're messing with my clothes and shoes (switching them out,making them larger or smaller, or doing small but noticeable vandalism, or infecting them.,

Their entering my room/home when I'm sleeping or out, regardless of locks or other preventative measures.,

Their entering my home when I'm in another part of the house.,

hey get on the roof and make noise or use weapons or changing and cutting wiring ,

They hang out in my attic or basement. sometimes.,

They're vandalizing my car (in front of me).,

hey're vandalizing my home.,

They're drugging me.,

They're poisoning my food. [with synergies sometimes in front of me.,

A note from Ed Donegan on this. I know I can't control what homeless person will kill me at any time nor what will be in my food I have watched being poisoned. I assume all food is poisoned but it does not matter. The realities is my repution has me isolated and the covert thugs have goverment backing. Much of this limmits to the reach of my voice have dependended on illegal harrasmment of my intelecutual property for the purpose of making sure future attacks on that property including my books will be attacks on un-noticed works rather than widely followed works in art and literature.

They're giving me diarrhea, stomach aches, headaches, infections, ear aches, scabies, etc.,

They're trying to give me cancer or some other disease.,

They've destroyed my car.,

They know what I'm looking at.,

They're infecting my domain with insects or vermin (rats, scabies, cockroaches, lice, other animals and parasites).,

They're using color harassment (20 small, blue of cars driving by at once, or in a row, for example).,

They're creating noise harassment and sleep deprivation. ,

They turn my cell phone or other electrical devices off and on at will., [including power to home from circuit breakeers eposed to the public, cutting TV wiring or altering it, cutting coinop laundry dial up lines to bank,]

They won't let me sleep. wall hammering window tapping, noise campaign,

They're killing/sickening my pets (Gluing them to things, having diarrhea on them, burning them, gluing them, etc.,).,

I'm under surveillance 24/7.,

They create discomfort, pain, or itchiness on my skin.,

They cause forgetfulness, or cloudy vision, or foggy hearing.,

Zersetzung Truth Revealors

I Edward Paul Donegan have been learning the lingo of Street Theater from various locations, most recently watching Ms. Congeniality. "Trained Monkey Acts" are mindless dupes acting out something they do not understand. Also called Flying Monkeys, these are best explained as delusionally psychotic dupes and were explained to me by a article in Real Clear Defense on Information Doppelgangers that I can not find again though related articles are there I have found.

The function of PsyOps (according to their own wording and definition) is to build Fixed Psychosis in the forms of Delusions into Dupes. These "commanders" who are being dissinformed are most vulnerable with their strong emotions are played to, etc., and tend not to self-govern rationally. "Even the 'good people' and stuck in delusional acts and told not to stand down from their or give into the attempts of others to persuade to the contrary. These Dupes make up the Cause Stalking abusers of a person smeared by PsyOps.

So how is this intended to work? I will blend a few memes together like the Caine Mutiny and a few others like D Day etc., IF you can with Disinformation created by a Dopple (one messenger of military information has his identity stolen and is replaced, giving false information, or a fake photograph shows a foreign military in a location it is not when in fact it is elsewhere) the Disinformation perhaps catering to a weakness in the foreign military commander will lead the foreign military commander into a mistake striking at an empty location or going into a trap the commander thought was safe.

Cause Stalking built on sham issues often added to as Legend over years incorporates Dupes full of themselves bleeding with their own ego and importance about how the will serve the cause of undermining the perceived threat of the person who is the subject to the smears. Preventing "rational analysis" in military terms the exploration of the links to things an what is actually true of the links of information are explored for validity, is the art of dissifromation and working to avoid any proper hearing of the facts thus the delusions remain fixed in the Flying Monkey acts mindset as they clamor about.

Understanding Rough Noise as the Symbols Clashing Sounf of Trained Monkeys

Rough Noise is meant to be out-of-place and unpleasant and abusive by lynch mobs they say are not designed to touch a person but in fact the Trained Monkey is in fact often looking to fight and has others with him. When such a fight breaks out the symbols clashers will deny wrong doing and have a cover story. They do bang on dumpsters with heavy machinery but say they are city workers trying to empty the dumpster or over rev their motors in vehicles in a stalking way denying being linked but being linked to watching you. They are not guiding or training they are looking for a fight in such a way as to be in the way of anything else a person is doing.

Understanding Zener Mode Signal Noise as Harassment and Trauma

Monkey Noise is designed to be as unpleasant as possible. We normally can tune out things we don't like unless the signal is so strong it can not be tuned out. That is how a Diode works stopping unwanted signal input though most diodes can do what is called fail open and that like a fuse. I just blows up in place like a fuse and a break in the circuit is present. Some Diodes fail-closed that is to say they do not burn out but allowed the circuit sides to remain connected to each other closed together still and the information flowing because the diode is overwhelmed or designed to resist flow in a particular direction only up to a certain point but not after that point has been reached. Overloading a person's selective perception by forcing ugliness into a person is distracting and even trauma inducing. A person begin traumatized does have (but may not be able to prove) the right to retaliate against sensory noise being directed by hostile people looking for a fight to looking to be unpleasant.

What is the matter it is the same distance

https://www.youtube.com/@TIDavidA and https://twitter.com/Spiritu42830069

A Targeted Peson is sabotoaged in what they do another is not. "Disrupt" "Roadblock" "Sabotauge" "Happy Slap" "Harrass" "Bright" "Conflict Engagement" make the road difficult, pitted, hard to travel, unavailable. Sure that construction was planned for years. Try a new way along the path. This has occurred to me in the gym, housing, elsewhere.

Zersetzung (Stasi Policing) is a psychological warfare tactic developed by the East German Stasi Secret Police (best on the planet) to nuetralize dissidents by disrupting every part of you're life and gaslighting you. Disrupt, Discredit, Destroy (DDD) to isolate, set up, and nuetralize. https://www.facebook.com/groups/165918446241837

There are several people named Dave I will quote from in this. But I will aslo add in my own facts. Much of what is happening in Austin Texas and it seems now tied by some weak evidence to a former city council now the US Representative who planned much of Austin growth. Weird components of it oddly mock or refernce my BDSM life in particular a failed relationship I had with the lovely Meridith. At the time we broke up I had paid for a 300 hundred dollar hood for her head as part of leather gear in scenes. We had broken up just before this was getting started and Mr S. Leathers gave a full refund for the custom work that included custom sizing and measurements for fitting.

In Austin Gold's Downtown a hispanic hipster was making odd comments to me, wearing Superman t-shirst, seemed to be impersonating me in other ways at I heard him at several locations around Austin he was gettin a custom hood for his partner.

I had quipped a few things here and there. Once in Baltimore Supermax Detention I had said to someone giant and good shape, a black who may have been FBI SIS or other undercover he should get a job a a gym making women's thights sweat. Someone took this to heed. I play things down in the gym other than grooving with the music but things I have done in the gym tied to diabetes like watching blood sugar control following intense workouts over days on advertisements for Orange gym. Orange Gym has "Kings it looks like Black Hebrew Isrealites and build on the themes of what I learned from some hate sites are miscenation, forced or voluntary inter-racial reproducity. Much of is predatorial an hate group and marshalls or deputies have women in Orange as slave uniforms is one of the sevarl weird things that seems part of pscych-sexual weird memes. Anotehr time this came up is after that breakup with Meridith I had one said rather rudely Roses are Red Violets are Blue my ex had an ass like a B-52. Some take on this and other off-handed quips appeared at Freedom Fitness in Corpus Christi.

I did use musi for a lot trying to teach Rush Limbaugh liberalism is not a disease and many groups talk about liberalism and music. I attacked For The Right Radio on these points as well. Suggesting I am a Nazi and this prison based Hebrew Kings using gyms as recuiting grounds seems part of the messaging and reality I have been seeing.

In one case while working on my book in 3rd Street Starybucks I happened to hear one of the Orange gym managers interview a blonde about working there. She said she had a custom playlist she used and they smeared not another play list yet most of them copied my DJ Delight Ohlalal sixties music long ago. I have seen veteratns groups in particular non-white ones really make lots fo inroads in the parks and rec and gym community as a culturalk movement I think building a new imaeg for themselves and Austin. Not everyone with a King tatoo is a hate group member but there are hate group members who do.

Dr Katherine Horton is a Revealor

She ran Stop007.org. The tactics (subversion by Dirty Tricks quietly conducted under-cover) are used now and before and those who identify then are called paranoid and schizophrenic. Often cover special operators even hope to be caught in the act of sabotaging someone like a Dissident so the Dissident lacking true proof can be called paranoid or schizophrenic (or some other allegation like intolerant or perceptually unbalanced about others) and then placed in mental wards. I for instance complained about underage females acting like victims near me to which those that planted them say "they sure do look sexy at that age don't they" in a mocking way or when Hispanic border gangs or African American ghetto gangs) attacked me issues of white nationalism were raised as my being a civil rights threat. On my beliefs this was done as government misconduct I was called paranoid and no undercover operations were underway.

Identifying out of place things can be risky without proof and that benefits a State backed Sabotuer.

The Secret Intelligence Service commonly called MI5 Home and MI6 Foreign

In the early 1900s, the British government was increasingly concerned about the threat to its Empire posed by Germany’s imperial ambitions. This led to scare stories of German spies and even the Director of Military Operations was convinced that Germany was targeting Britain. These rumours proved to be overblown, but the Prime Minister, Herbert Asquith, reacted to popular concern. He ordered the Committee of Imperial Defence to look into the matter and they established a Secret Service Bureau in July 1909.

We are SIS - the UK’s Secret Intelligence Service - also known as MI6. Our people work secretly around the world to make the UK safer and more prosperous. For over 100 years SIS has ensured the UK and our allies keep one step ahead of our adversaries. We are creative and determined - using cutting-edge technology and espionage.

At first the Foreign [MI6] and Home Sections [MI5] shared an office but Mansfield Cumming soon decided he needed his own base - and one that provided him with accommodation. He settled on Ashley Mansions in Vauxhall Bridge Road and early in 1910 set up a bogus address with the Post Office - Messrs Rasen, Falcon Limited, a firm of 'shippers and exporters'. This was the first example of what has since then become the classic 'import/export' espionage cover and anything sent to this address was forwarded to him at Ashley Mansions.

We have three core aims: stopping terrorism, disrupting the activity of hostile states, and giving the UK a cyber advantage.

We work closely with MI5, GCHQ, HM Armed Forces, law enforcement and a range of other international partners. Everything we do is tasked and authorised by senior government ministers and overseen by Parliament and independent judges. People who work for MI6 come from all walks of life, with different skills, interests and backgrounds.

MI6 is an organisation where integrity, courage and respect are central to what we do. We encourage and admire difference. Many MI6 staff are based overseas while others work from our headquarters in Vauxhall, London. Although our work is secret, everything we do is legal and is underpinned by the values that define the UK.

Mansfield Cumming died shortly before he was due to retire in 1923 and Rear-Admiral Hugh Sinclair was appointed the new Chief in September 1923. As a former Director of Naval Intelligence, he was notably different to Cumming, who had been a relatively junior officer. Importantly, as well as becoming Chief of SIS, Sinclair assumed responsibility for the Government Code & Cypher School (GC&CS) - the forerunner to GCHQ.

In 1911 the Section was on the move again - this time to 2 Whitehall Court, next to the War Office and close to the Admiralty and Foreign Office, providing more space for the growing service. During the First World War, the Service's role - and its workforce - grew, which led to expansion into other offices. Potential officers were interviewed and assessed at a location in Kingsway, while a 'very secret' Air Section was based in South Lambeth Road.

In its first 17 years, SIS had been based in four different buildings around London as various senior figures had tried to establish its role. In 1926 Sinclair moved the Service and GC&CS into Broadway Buildings, 54, Broadway, near to St James's Park Underground Station. On the outbreak of the Second World War, GC&CS established itself at Bletchley Park while SIS kept its headquarters at Broadway. It was the Service's home until 1964.

As the menace of Nazi Germany increased in the late 1930s, SIS began to prepare for the possibility of war. One move in 1938 was the establishment of Section D under Laurence Grand. Section D's aim was simple - 'to plan, prepare and when necessary carry out sabotage and other clandestine operations, as opposed to the gathering of intelligence.'

Grand laid plans for targeting Germany's electricity industry, phone communications, railways, food supplies and agriculture. He also wrote a report on how to defend Britain against sabotage - including the protection of power stations and communications.

We're #secretlyjustlikeyou.

The First Shock

One day, you suddenly realise that your life has been turned upside-down and you appear to live in a sci-fi thriller or a horror movie. Many strange things start happening to you:

Outdoors

> You are being stalked by people you don't know.

> Maybe even famous people start crossing your path or following you around.

> People in the street start cutting you up and driving dangerously around you.

> People in the street are repeating intimate sentences that you said to your friends and family in the privacy of your home.

Indoors

> Even the TV and the radio appear to be speaking to you.

> Your computing devices and electronic equipment in your home keep malfunctioning.

> Your car repair bills shoot through the roof or your car keeps breaking down.

> You experience repeated break-ins that do not look like normal burglaries and are ignored by the police.

Interactions

Your neighbours, colleagues or friends start behaving strangely around you.

You start being fired from jobs or lose business without any fault of your own.

Your rental contract is cancelled repeatedly or your tenants cause you a lot of problems.

You feel that people around you or even yourself change their personality and start acting out of character.

Your Body

You start hearing voices from people who are not present around you.

You experience hallucinations during the day-time or vivid dreams at night.

You start feeling odd pains and vibrating or crawling sensations under your skin

You have sensations inside your body that you have never felt before.

You can be paralysed with intense or crippling pain out of nowhere

You experience pain that is so intense that you have to throw up or are about to pass out.

Your fingers, toes or limbs start moving without your intention and even against your will.

Sexual arousal and even orgasms overtake you against your will without you thinking about sex or engaging in sexual activity.

Illness, Injury or Death

Your pets become ill or die unexpectedly.

Your start having a lot of accidents, trips and falls.

You or your family members start developing strange ailments that cannot be diagnosed.

Family, friends or colleagues die under unusual circumstances or in rare freak accidents.

If you are experiencing any of the above, and especially if several items from the list above apply, then you are very likely a victim of the Secret Services. In that case, you have been placed on a fraudulent terror-watchlist and have been blacklisted by their networks. Both are completely illegal and highly criminal.

As a result, you are suffering from their criminal business plans, including:

psychological warfare

social engineering

> human experimentation (incl. brain research)
>
> technology research and development (incl. neurotechnology)
>
> weapons testing
>
> Directed Energy Weapons assaults
>
> sex trafficking
>
> financial terrorism
>
> economic warfare
>
> State-organised genocide.

If you cannot believe that it is happening or have been told that your problems are due to schizophrenia or paranoid delusions then please read the FAQ:

…

I Edward Paul Donegan have spent my life studying language (including and nearly almost only computer language and artificial intelligence) and semantics. I first though in the early days of Marshfiled as a child probably not more than fiver years old as I walked near the driveway and front yard nearing the trees the difference between things that you knew and what could be added to that in a way of arranging what was known such that would might be known would become visible. Enriching data and induction I have learned to call it and then I called it intelligence.

Information, Information Theory and the location of and study of meaning is something I am aware of including planting meaning via a fake name someone has chosen, a song being played or a planted item that would lead to some inference and other pestering ways to go about some type of suggestiveness.

In law I have considered that type of inductive reasoning my machine learning a threat to privacy but a potential in security work.

During the years I formed a taxonomy for statements of information that is Name of the information, the Information, and the Application of the information to some subject. It is similar to Subject Predacot Object statements in most ways but can in the English language be a helpfull new use of the system.

Organized Stalks are based in disinformation and that is their purpose to form false predacates of actions that are illegal but based on predcates believed to be true seem to be correct actions. If the facts undereath the actions are true the action having validity is true. If the facts underlying the action are untrue the actions have no validity and that is called Abuse of Procces, the procces being the action taken on the incorrect information.

What I have noticed in many Gang Stalks is use of distortions of NIA. When I order a cheeseburger Cheeseburger is the name of what I order. Information about that is a cooked hambergur patty and two pieces of bread and the application of that is I am at a hamburger stand to eat dinner or lunch.

Asserting the Information is something else (that a cheeseburger is child porn or something else and the application is to a dopple of me mot me) is how the distortion to NIA works. A doddple of me is in the same place I am and it is he who wants child porn and will be caught with it and have to pay up or be arrested into a con job slush fund protection racket. Altered names of people are often part of stalking. Names are usually for any context random. Whey a person was named by their parents one thing or another has nothing to do with most of their lives. But when people adopt oddball names it is often some play on NIA and somebody's (harassed person) or a person looking at transcripts is having the mind played with by tricksters playing around with semantics.

Dr Horton has observed varioius things in common Stalk victims have experienced and so have I. I look forward to working with her list for a while in addition to my own.

Stop 007 - Fighting Secret Service Criminality https://stop007.org/

Like Kathy Meadows, Mark Rich, and others she has documented high ranking espionage sabotuer teams menacing people's lives.

Dr. Katherine Horton

Below is a summary of Dr. Horton's work and its sabotage by Secret Service networks. The links here are to pages with the respective evidence documents

[image]	Dr. Horton's
[image]	Dr. Horton's court case (documents)

Qualifications

High Energy Physics

Dr Katherine Horton in an Oxford-educated particle physicist and systems analyst with a Master of Physics (1st class) and doctorate in particle physics, both from the University of Oxford.

She worked as a high energy physicists on the particle collider at the German Electronsynchrotron DESY in Hamburg, Germany, and on the Large Hadron Collider at CERN in Geneva Switzerland. She taught nuclear physics and particle physics at Hertford College, University of Oxford, and conducted admissions interviews for undergraduate physics at St Hilda's College, Oxford.

Physics of Complex Human Systems

At Oxford, Dr. Horton worked as a research fellow at St John's College, a position that allowed her to expand her research from particle physics into medical physics and the physics of complex human systems. As part of the latter, she conducted systems analysis research of the English legal system, economies, the financial system, currencies, as well as white collar crime and organised crime.

Growing up in Communism with Secret Service Criminality

Dr. Horton's first experience of Secret Services and their boundless criminality was in Communist Romania, where she was born to Hungarian-German parents. Growing up as a young child, she experienced the non-stop terrorism of her family by the Romanian Secret Services Securitate, an organisation known for its brutality and uneducated idiocy. Dr. Horton's family were a prime target of the Secret Service thugs as they were highly educated and refused to take part in the snitching and informant criminality that was used by the mob networks of the Secret Services to take over the society in Romania.

British Secret Service Criminality

After fleeing Communist Romania with her parents, Dr. Horton grew up in Germany where she excelled at school, skipping year 9 on merit and coming top of her year in the German Abitur. Based on her school results and high aptitude for maths and physics, Dr. Horton was accepted for a place at the University of Oxford where she completed her undergraduate and doctorate before becoming a research fellow, as mentioned above.

It was during her first week as an undergraduate at Oxford, that Dr. Horton witnessed the very same tactics used on her that the Securitate had used on her family during Communist times. A group of older men began to stalk her to lectures in the morning and were waiting for her at various points on the way upon her return to the College. They repeatedly took photographs of her and made their stalking and harassment as overt as possible.

At the time, Dr. Horton ignored the spectacle as life in a foreign country and keeping up with studies at an elite university was overwhelming enough. The stalking and harassment by older men continued intermittently throughout her undergraduate degree, but it wasn't until a decade later that it exploded into a high-intensity terror campaign by British Secret Services.

In November 2011, as Dr. Horton was attending a High Court case in London as part of her systems analysis research into the English legal system, MI5 openly stalked her home from court and placed a thug to wait for her outside her home every morning to follow her to the train station. This overt Secret Service terror campaign, that began with MI5 in 2011 has not stopped to this day and has followed Dr. Horton abroad to all European countries through the terror networks of MI6. So at the time of writing, Dr. Horton has been stalked and harassed by MI5 and MI6 for almost two decades.

What began as overt surveillance became intrusive harassment, overt stalking, physical mutilation and sex trafficking by a group of British men mostly in their 50-70s after the end of the court case. Eventually, it morphed into open, rampant criminality by people connected to the Secret Services and the police. Dr. Horton suffered a Stasi-style break-in, sex stalking by those perverts in Oxford and wherever she went, regular street theatre and harassment by strangers. One of the barristers from the court case, Jonathan Sumption, began to stalk her as part of this criminal network and took prominent part in her abuse.

During this period he also became a judge of the UK Supreme Court and acquired the courtesy title of Lord Sumption. Due to the timing of his promotion, which saw him leap-frog the entire English judiciary by becoming a Supreme Court Judge without ever having served as a judge in England, and the sexual nature of the abuse that Dr. Horton suffered and continues to suffer, it appears likely that Lord Sumption's abuse of her is for the accumulation of a control file that a lot of establishment figures need to have to be promoted up in the cartel world of the ruling establishment.

The violations of the members of this criminal network grew ever more sadistic and brutal with time. They followed her across Europe, subverted her medical care and eventually escalated into systematic physical mutilation of her with Directed Energy Weapons. These assaults that started overtly in 2011 have not abated to this day.

Start-Up, Finance, Consulting

After leaving academia and returning to Germany, where she had grown up, Dr. Horton set out to launch a company. Her endeavour was sabotaged and destroyed by MI6 and German Intel BND with the methods of Zersetzung, which had been developed by the East German Stasi. The criminals from BND also began to openly assault Dr. Horton physically, including launching an attack from a helicopter on her as she was standing on her rooftop terrace in Munich-Solln and a similar attack on her in bed at night that was launched from a neighbour working for BND.

After having to abort the company due to the incessant Secret Service terror, Dr. Horton worked briefly for an asset management firm in Switzerland, a job she obtained by predicting the unprecedented money printing of the European Central Bank. Dr. Horton was forced to leave the job because she began to fear for her life when MI6 and BND increased their intimidation campaign using collaborating criminals from Swiss Intel NDB.

The subsequent attempt to launch a consultancy in Switzerland, was brutally squashed when Swiss Intel NDB began to machine-gun Dr. Horton with Directed Energy Weapons around the clock in January 2016.

[image]

More on Dr. Horton's qualifications

Investigating Secret Service Terror

With the explosion of the Secret Service terror campaigns into non-stop mutilation with Directed Energy Weapons, life became impossible for Dr. Horton as she found herself assaulted 24/7 in a torture program that had her death as its goal. The continuous assaults during the day exploded at night when she was lying defenceless in bed.

She made several reports to the local police in Unterengstringen (Zurich) and to the German Federal Police Agency, Bundeskriminalamt. However, it became clear that they were involved in the criminality as they refused to take action. So Dr. Horton was forced to take up the investigation herself full time.

After extensive online research and after flying to London to attend the High Court case of Philip Kerr v MI5 and speaking to the business man Philip Kerr and his partner after the hearing, Dr. Horton discovered that her case and that of Philip Kerr were almost identical.

Dr. Horton realised that during her time at the University of Oxford, she had become the victim of criminal operations by MI5, which used her in non-consensual human experimentation and covert sex trafficking. Upon this realisation, she took MI6 (called Secret Inteligence Service SIS these days), MI5 and GCHQ to court but was thwarted by the defendants who sabotaged her case in every possible way, including a death threat on the way to court in London that MI6 executed with an assassination attempt 3 days later in Switzerland. In the end, the court case was “terminated” and attempts were made to make it disappear off the record.

After this experience, Dr. Horton tried to withdraw but the attacks only escalated further until it became clear that they would not stop until the Secret Services would have succeeded in murdering Dr. Horton.

In an attempt to understand what was happening, Dr. Horton travelled to Manchester to attend the court case of Dr. Stephen Frost v MoD at the end of October 2016. There, Dr. Horton was brutally assaulted in the hotel room with Directed Energy Weapons. Upon reporting the assault to police the Greater Manchester Police lied to Dr. Horton and sent her back to her hotel room promising to send a police officer to the scene. There, MI5 waited until they expected her to have gone to bed and then staged criminal intimidation theatre by faking the call out of a "mental health ambulance" (no such thing existence in the UK) and pretended to try to section Dr. Horton.

After this experience, Dr. Horton went public on the Richie Allen Show about the Directed Energy Weapon assaults on her by the Secret Services. Through this publicity, she was put into contact with several other women, including Karen Melton-Stewart, who had worked almost 30 years for the NSA and had become a whistleblower about internal corruption. Through the exchange it became clear that the Secret Service criminality was identical between the US and Europe and there were indications that it was founded on a global genocide programs run by the Secret Services worldwide for "population control" and "sustainability".

In May 2017, through the work of the Joint Investigation Team, Dr. Horton discovered that she had been covertly implanted with military bio-technology and neurotechnology and used as a torture and mutilation slave for almost two decades.

Court Case against MI6, MI5 and GCHQ

In spring 2016, when the physical attacks with Directed Energy Weapons on her became insane, Dr. Horton fled to London and was desperately seeking an emergency injunction from the London High Court against British Intelligence. Her court case was violently sabotaged by British Secret Services who committed every imaginable criminal act to stop her litigation and disappear it off the record:

Dr Katherine Horton v SIS, MI5, GCHQ [2016] EWHC 2095 (QB)

- The court case was not listed on the day as it should have been.
- The High Court did not give the case a case number. (This is why the first two transcripts to do not appear with a case number).
- The transcripts of the hearing were falsified by British Intel to remove questions by the judge and Dr. Horton's answer.

- British Intel's barrister openly lied to the court.

- Dr. Horton received a death threat on the way to the first hearing and survived an assassination attempt 3 days later. The number 3 (and the number 7) is often used as cartel-signalling by Intel.

- At the 3rd hearing Judge Holgate terminated the case as "frivolous or vexatious" and used the pretext that it was not even a case to start with because, allegedly, it didn't contain a claim. The reason for the lack of claim was that none of Dr. Horton's court documents had the title "Particulars of Claim". This judgement went against the previous two High Court judges, Justice Spencer and Justice Edis, who did not have a problem recognising the content of the claim. It also went against the rule that when litigants are forced to represent themselves more attention has to be given to content than form by the judge. This rule was confirmed to Dr. Horton by an internationally known war crimes judge.

[image]

More on Dr. Horton's court case

Death Threat and MI6 Assassination Attempt

In retaliation just for daring to approach the High Court, Dr. Horton received a death threat from MI6 who were reading her email live and listening to all her phone conversations and knew that she was travelling to London to go to the High Court. An MI6 agent approached her in gas-lighting theatre on her way from Heathrow airport to her hotel after midnight, and after involving her in small talk said out of the blue "there is crime in every country, in some it is just well hidden"; he repeated that sentence and after a meaningful pause he asked "Did they kill Diana?", making a reference to Princess Diana and her death that pointed to MI6 as her killers. The implication was that if MI6 was willing to murder a Princess, they would just as easily murder Dr. Horton.

Straight after the first hearing of her court litigation, MI6 stalked Dr. Horton demonstratively all the way back to her hotel. There, the attackers waited until she came out of her shower wrapped in a towel before assaulting her with intense machine-gunning from Directed Energy Weapons into the back of her head so that she collapsed from pain. The emphasis on nudity and humiliation in Secret Service attacks is a recurring theme in the victim cases and appears to result from mental illness, sexual depravity and sadistic psychopathy that is rampant in Western Secret Services and the military. The attackers repeated the attack a second time when Dr. Horton's husband arrived back at the hotel as she stood up to tell him what had happened. She collapsed again in pain in front of her husband from the agonisingly painful machine-gunning.

Three days later, Dr. Horton and her husband survived an assassination attempt on the Swiss motorway as Dr. Horton, the driver of the car, was machine-gunned in the head as from a car in front as they were travelling at 100km/h through a tunnel. Had Dr. Horton lost consciousness during the attack as intended, she and her husband would have crashed in the tunnel and likely died in an accident reminiscent of the death of Princess Diana.

Satanic Symbolism & Continued Attacks

On the day of the attack, a life-size black plastic goat was placed by Ms. Nitschke a neighbour of Dr. Horton on a flat roof of a neighbouring property in a prominent place that could be seen from almost every room of Dr. Horton's home. Comparison with other victim cases identifies this as a Satanic symbol of death that the Secret Services like to harass their victims with. Subsequently, the mutilation of Dr. Horton with Directed Energy Weapons became even more psychopathic.

The Joint Investigation Team

As a result of having been let down by all law enforcement agencies in 3 countries and having come across so many victim reports that it became clear that there were larger genocide programs in action in Europe and the US, Dr. Horton linked up with 4 other high-profile women who were victim of these attacks and founded the Joint Investigation Team US-Europe looking into Directed Energy Weapons, military neuro/ biotechnology and systemic corruption.

The Joint Investigation Team (JIT) publishes a weekly public interest broadcast where they report about the ongoing investigation and the crimes committed by the Secret Services and the military, called the Techno Crime Fighters' Forum which is broadcast Thursday's at 11am-1pm ET / 4-6pm UK time / 5-7pm CET.

Dr. Horton also publishes a German video series with her JIT colleague Melanie Vritschan called Techno-Kriminalermittler

The Assaults & Mutilation

Sine 2011, Dr. Horton has been stalked and harassed continuously. Her private life has been under intrusive and overt surveillance and interference. All her communications (voice, phone, email etc.) have been intercepted and sometimes overtly acted upon by agents. Furthermore:

> Her home was broken into countless times.

>

Her computers were hacked.

Her website was sabotaged and her email was service taken offline.

Her private sex life was commented on by strangers in the street.

Two of her business endeavours was destroyed.

Her family and friends were attacked, some near-lethally.

Her medical care was infiltrated and sabotaged.

Her blood sample was stolen.

Her emergency medication was swapped for an unknown tablet.

There were repeated attempts to break up her marriage.

Her hip and knee were permanently damaged in physical attacks.

She was sexually denigrated and humiliated repeatedly.

She received several death threats.

She survived several assassination attempt.

Since January 2016, she is being mutilated with Directed Energy Weapons 24/7.

She is being tortured non-stop with the non-consensual body implants and neurotechnology that was illegally implanted in her.

She is being raped several times daily by remote-control with non-consensual chips that were illegally implanted in her genitals.

The Directed Energy Weapons assaults are incredibly brutal and occur continuously every minute of every hour of the day and night. The attacks ramp up at night when Dr. Horton is lying stationary and defenceless.

Havanah Syndrome, Radio gear, and who knows or can guess what else

Directed Energy Weapons

The microwave beams from Directed Energy Weapons with which Secret Services target their victims, which number in the hundreds of thousands, are invisible, penetrate walls and are so intense that it hurts. Imagine putting your hand in your microwave; then focus that into a beam and aim it at your face.

Most of the time, Dr. Horton is assaulted inside her home. However, she is also being attacked spectacularly in public. Dr. Horton is shot at painfully from tail-gating and swarming cars of members of the criminal networks. Dr. Horton is also assaulted at professional venues. (For example, when she attended a HR & consultancy fair, Personalmesse-Nord, in Hamburg in April, she was literally shot in the head twice! The second time, it was so intense that she lost control of her right eye-lid and it began to flutter with the muscles around her eyes contracting uncontrollably.

What on Earth are Directed Energy Weapons?

Microwave emitters, or more generally, electromagnetic weapons or Directed Energy Weapons are a new type of assault and murder weapon currently being manufactured in very large numbers (and very cheaply) by arms companies around the world, for example Diehl, Rheinmetall, Aaronia and Siemens (yes!). They are also known as directed energy weapons, scalar weapons, no-touch torture devices and, euphemistically, non-lethal weapons (ha!).

The nasty thing about them is that they penetrate the walls of a home. That is because microwaves pass through concrete, brick and wood effortlessly (like the beam from a laser-pointer passes through the glass walls of a conservatory). However, they get absorbed in the human body, where they cause pain and incredible damage. Microwaves damage cells, organs, cause tumours and cancer. And they can kill (think of a sausage in a microwave oven).

By this means, it is possible to assault a person inside his home from the outside (from even large distances!), cause cancer, organ damage, brain damage, a heart attack and death without leaving a visible trace of the assault. These weapons thus allow people to commit the perfect crime - on the cheap!

Investigative Research

As a result of the refusal by the police and the courts to assist, Dr. Horton was forced to investigate these rampant crimes herself. She came across the testimony of hundreds of victims online who were begging for help like her on YouTube, Facebook on Twitter. All of them were being mutilated like she was and had also been maliciously treated by the authorities. It was at that point that Dr. Horton realised that the police, judiciary and secret services are all knowingly complicit in a global Nazi extermination program that is using Directed Energy Weapons to place victims into invisible concentration camps and commit silent genocide.

Dr. Horton gradually realised that she, as well as her family and friends, were being used as target practice for modern military weapons and subjects of human experimentation with non-consensual body implants and neurotechnology. The crimes against her and her family and friends were committed with egregious impunity because all police services, Intelligence Agencies and courts were in Deep Capture by a global criminal network that owned the Secret Services and had infiltrated every area of public life.

Dr. Horton as well as her family members and those of her friends experienced brutal assaults and survived assassination attempts. Dr. Horton was permanently mutilated and repeated brutal premeditated assaults and had to begin fighting for her life.

Dr. Horton also discovered that she had been non-consensually implanted without her knowledge with microchips. The radio-frequency emissions from these illegal chip implants that form an interconnected system, called a Body Area Network in the scientific literature, were measured by experts in a professional Faraday cage at a Belgian university.

She also discovered that members of her family and friends had equally been implanted.

Dr. Horton has begged for help from the human rights charities, Swiss & UK & German police, Swiss criminal police, Swiss military police, the German Federal Crime Squad BKA, the Swiss & UK Attorney Generals, the UK Investigatory Powers Tribunal, the Heads of MI5 & BND and the German ambassador to Switzerland. All committed dereliction of duty by refusing to help. The police even took active steps to intimidate her.

Read more about Dr. Horton's case under the Death Camp Program and Dr. Horton's Evidence (The evidence presented online is a very small selection. There are Terabytes of videos of attacks, photos of injuries and perpetrators, proof of hacking and housebreaking and car sabotage, medical records, data records etc., all being compiled into her second court case right now.)

…

Sorcha Faal is a Revealor

Sorcha Fall is also a Cyphertext CIA-connected Sectarian. These leakers of CIA realted information from intelligence circles do so under created or real sect names, his is Sorcha Fall a protoRoman Catholocism tied to Ireland and other countries.

David Booth is is his real name and he is a contributor to European Times that itself has intel contacts around the world and leaks them in fairly non threatening form. (non illegal activities don't have identities blown or risked, etc., but illegal activities and conspiracy theories are named outright.)

Here are stories from his site or European Times and how I think they relate to covering up that Glorian Donegan nee Glorian Gainey of North Carolina was a secret identity used to manufacture many figures in politics but Barrack Obama Jr too, that one central to the assassination of JFK.

> Elite Obama Hit Squad Linked To Navy Yard Shooting
>
> The Main Intelligence Directorate (GRU) is reporting today that signal intelligence analysts (SIGNIT) monitoring CIA-NSA-FBI “encrypted electronic communication traffic” in the United States have linked the 16 September Washington Navy Yard Shooting with the Obama regimes 18 June assassination of award winning American journalist Michael Hastings, and the 25 June ambush on the Los Angles Police Department detectives investigating Hastings’s murder.
>
> what type of connection is this visible link made of? Gloriand Donegan and Birther

David Booth on the point a link is present: The Main Intelligence Directorate (GRU) is reporting today that signal intelligence analysts (SIGNIT) monitoring CIA-NSA-FBI “encrypted electronic communication traffic” in the United States have linked the 16 September Washington Navy Yard Shooting with the Obama regimes 18 June assassination of award winning American journalist Michael Hastings, and the 25 June ambush on the Los Angles Police Department detectives investigating Hastings’s murder.

Aaron Alexis, a lone gunman armed with a shotgun, fatally shot twelve people and injured three others in a mass shooting at the headquarters of the Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) inside the Washington Navy Yard in Southeast Washington, D.C. this past Monday, this report says.

The attack occurred around 8:20 a.m. EDT, this report continues, in Building 197 with the shooter Alexis being subsequently killed by US local and Federal police forces after what has been described as a “running gun battle.”

Michael Hastings, who at the time of his assassination was investigating CIA Director John Brennan, was not under direct GRU electronic surveillance, this report says, but GRU signal intelligence analysts monitoring “routine night flight observations” of a small fleet of ShadowHawks® unmanned drone aircraft at the US Marine Base Camp Pendleton in Southern California during the early morning hours of 18 June, observed that a single ShadowHawk® broke formation and “sped” towards the Los Angeles whereupon it fired upon Hastings vehicle nearing the intersection of Highland and Melrose avenues at around 04:15 PDT destroying it and killing Hastings. [See video of attack HERE]

The GRU further reported that signal analysts monitoring CIA-NSA-FBI “encrypted electronic communication traffic” in the Los Angeles area on 25 June observed a “rapid spike” of “noise” occurring between 0415-0445 Hrs (4:15-4:45AM PSDT) within a 12 block radius of the Hastings “kill zone” identified as North Highland Avenue and Melrose.

At 4:37 AM PDT, this report continues, these same signal analysts reported an “urgent rise” in Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) emergency radio traffic too.

A comparison of these two anomalous events, this report says, showed that the “common link” between them was the attempted assassination by ambush of two LAPD detectives investigating Hastings death while they were driving into their Wilshire Division police station parking lot on Venice Boulevard, and which was less than 3 km from the Hastings “kill zone.”

Critical to note, this GRU report says, was that after the Hastings assassination, and ambush of the LAPD detectives, signal intelligence analysts were able to “document” the “encrypted electronic signature” used by these believed to be CIA-NSA-FBI assassins should it be used at some future date.

Subsequent to Hastings assassination, this report further states, this same “encrypted electronic signature” was observed occurring two other times …on 7 August in the Newport, Rhode Island region, and on 16 September, in the area surrounding the Washington Navy Yard Shooting.

Curious to note, the GRU says, was that on 7 August, Alexis reported to the Newport Rhode Island Police that he was being threatened by unseen people and feared that “some sort of microwave machine” was penetrating his body, an incident that took place at the exact same time signals intelligence analysts noticed a “huge spike” of traffic having the exact same “encrypted electronic signature” previously noticed in Los Angles when Hastings was assassinated.

Even more curious, this report continues, was the 16 September observation of this exact same “encrypted electronic signature” that occurred shortly before 8:40 am EDT in the area of the Washington Navy Yard Shooting, and corresponding to when an elite tactical response team of the highly trained US Capitol Police, a force that guards the US Capitol complex, were told to leave the scene by a supervisor instead of aiding local officers in stopping the ongoing massacre.

The USA Today News Service in confirming about why one of the most elite tactical teams in Washington D.C. was ordered to leave the scene of an ongoing mass shooting also noted:

“A Capitol Police watch commander "wouldn't let them go in and stop people from being slaughtered," one officer told the Washington TV station, which is owned by Gannett, USA TODAY's parent company. "We were definitely the closest tactical team in the city," the unidentified officer told the newspaper. "It was at the scene very early on, within a couple of minutes. They were ordered to disengage and turn back. For what reason, we don't know."

With both the Hastings assassination and the Washington Navy Yard Shooting now being linked by the same identifiable “encrypted electronic signature,” this GRU report concludes, it cannot be ruled out that the Obama regime is now employing an “elite hit squad” against both its enemies and for an as yet undetermined domestic agenda.

And in what can only be described as farce meeting reality, the Obama regimes Department of Homeland Security (DHS), barely 48 hours after this mass shooting tragedy, issued a pre-solicitation order for over 4 million rounds per year of 12 gauge shotgun shells, which is the same type of ammunition used by Alexis in the shotgun he had carved the cryptic sayings “better off this way” and “my ELF weapon” prior to his taking 12 innocent lives.

September 19, 2013 © EU and US all rights reserved. Permission to use this report in its entirety is granted under the condition it is linked back to its original source at WhatDoesItMean.Com. Freebase content licensed under CC-BY and GFDL.

Ed Donegan on the connection of the storylines that links the events: Hastings was working on an Obama peice with Victoria Windsor and researching the origins of Barrack Obama Jr. and he had inside information from somewhere and was tracking it down. This tied to Glorian Donegan being the real mother of Barrack Obama Jr. When I Ed Donegan had done extendive research on Trust fund issues since the 2011 death of my m mother I had papers gatehred at m y table and began to call Elder Law Partners. All of us in a 10 mile radius of the Naval Shipyard, the shooting broke out almost as I was pickin up the phone. As with 9/11 and the Office of Naval Intelligence, the Admiral Halsey and Captain

Von Trapp story and Kings Daughters Hospital seem tied to this.

Top US Federal Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda

The European Union Times

Top US Federal Judge Assassinated After Threat To Obama Agenda http://www.eutimes.net/2011/01/top-us-federal-judge-assassinated-after-threat-to-obama-agenda/

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a “preliminary ruling” in a case titled “United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al” [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama’s power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

The case being ruled on by Judge Roll, this report continues, was about bulk cash smuggling into or out of the United States that the Obama administration claimed was their right to seize under what are called Presidential Executive Orders, instead of using existing laws. The Obama administration used as support for their claim before Judge Roll, the SVR says, the seizing of all American citizens’ gold, in 1933, by President Franklin D. Roosevelt’s signing of Executive Order 6102, which was ruled at the time to be constitutional.

According to this SVR report, Federal Judge John

McCarthy Roll was the Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Arizona who this past Friday issued what is called a “preliminary ruling” in a case titled “United States of America v. $333,520.00 in United States Currency et al” [Case Number: 4:2010cv00703 Filed: November 30, 2010] wherein he stated he was preparing to rule against Obama’s power to seize American citizens money without clear and convincing evidence of a crime being committed.

Should the Obama administration win their argument to seize their citizen’s money by Executive Order without having to abide by the law was made more chilling this past week when reports emerged from the US stating that President Obama and his regime allies were, indeed, preparing to rule America by decree since their loss this past November of their control over the US House of Representatives, and in the words of the Washington Posts columnist Charles Krauthammer: “For an Obama bureaucrat … the will of the Congress is a mere speed bump”.

Since taking office in early 2009, Obama has completely overturned the once free United States through his use of Executive Orders that asserts his power to put anyone he wants in prison without charges or trial forever and his right to assassinate any American citizen he deems a threat.

The most chilling of these powers Obama has asserted for himself, however, are contained in Executive Order 13528 he signed nearly a year ago (January 10, 2010) creating a Council of Governors he has hand-picked to rule over the United States in place of its elected representatives when their next “disaster” strikes and orders them to begin “synchronization and integration of State and Federal military activities in the United States; and > other matters of mutual interest pertaining to National Guard, homeland defense, and civil support activities".

In fact I have been involved in a twelve year long dispute over hijack of the trust fund by criminals to finance fraudulent allegations I have harmed minorities and foreigners and that allegations that I am retarded and hiring sex workers to visit me in apartments that seem like mine but are not, but an impersonator of me is in that apartment and the trust fund is paying for that sex worker.

Edward Paul Donegan Reveals Names of Family Jewels Program and Explains Materialality of family to history and powerful CIA assassins still in government

I have been the target of these MKULTRA programs for my entire lifesspan leading to constent fights I am forced into and placed in psychwards, arrested for the conflicts, etc.,

As Erik Karstrom notes tecniques of the FBI and CIA including placing obstacles and attackers in the way of a Targeted person such that the Targeted person must get in a fight to clear the attacker from his or life.

The Targeted person will lose because the attacker, the roadblocker while in the wrong and illegally attacking the Targeted person's activities the police will back the attacker of the Targeted person as if the attacker was in innocent the Targeted person is delusional convinced is a hostile.

Using Environmental Stress to induce conflict or self harm, no touch stress infliction - Espionage agencies discredit those who have information compromising to high levels of authority rouge units

Neuropsychological & Electronic No-Touch Torture Report by Dr. Robert Duncan (used on targeted citizens here in the U.S.) SERE training (Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape) MAR 30 2015

The Executive Summary: Neuropsychological and Electronic No-Touch Torture Report Based on "The Torture Memos" and the Senate Intelligence

Committee's Declassified "Torture Report"

Perspectives on Enhanced Interrogation Techniques Project Proposals for Google Summer of Code 2015 By Robert Duncan, A.B., S.M., M.B.A., Ph.D.

"The United States is number one in torture since they are currently the world's only superpower." 04/2015

Torture is a horrific topic and most minds will turn away from it because it can't be comprehended that humans can be motivated, or computer programs can be run to do this to other sentient beings. Just when we believed we were becoming more civilized as a culture, the technology for torture has advanced more than a hundred fold in recent decades.

This summary will get into 'the minds of the dishonorable monsters' of the psychology of torture. Those like Dick Cheney who helped authorize it under certain administrations and regimes of the U.S. government which have been proven to be criminal under U.S. law, treaties, and the International Criminal Court. There are many people involved in the conspiracy and cover-up including General Hayden.

The full report discloses the spectrum of techniques of interrogation and torture used by the U.S. and its allies. The United States government will officially deny the claims of this "no-touch torture report" but in time it will stand firm.

The technologies used are still classified as state secrets and will not be discussed in this summary. The torture methods have been leaked through thousands of American citizens who have survived the no-touch torture programs. The research and testimony has been accumulated since 2002 and merely used as examples but the names of the victims are withheld.

This report will not use skewed, misleading language such as “enhanced interrogation” to describe the torture techniques. Why torture? The CIA claims it works. The assumption is that it works to gain actionable intelligence. Torture is often used for revenge, punishment, interrogation, and behavior modification. In other terms torture is used to remove the continuity of thought to confuse the target to reveal information, erase brain patterns such as values and beliefs, or to break down the human spirit to make them submit and obey their handlers. The downside of torture is that the countries that do it lose “moral soft power” in world politics. Without due process, over 25% of those reported in the Senate Torture Report were declared innocent. Blowback is always a repercussion of torture. Torture often takes a long time to affect the target from months to years. Torture has shown to be unreliable except for getting false confessions and bad information but the U.S. and its allies are improving on their tactics and techniques.

The purpose of this report is to draw the parallels between physical torture techniques and no-touch torture methods used in secret by governments who possess the technologies that still go on today. This is a brief summary of offensive psychological and information warfare methods using traditional methods and modern cybernetic techniques while exploring hyper-game theory to walk the target to the desired path: leak intelligence, commit assassinations, or change beliefs.

Numerated Torture Methods for Interrogation and Behavior Modification (A comparison between physical and no-touch torture tactics)

1. Induction of Depressive/Manic states

The idea is to shake up the emotional states of the target because different information can be accessed at each state. Making the target feel despair and helplessness is the objective. This cycle of hope building and then breaking is done in many ways. The techniques between the physical methods and the no-touch technological methods are similar. Speech is very important during this process of emotional manipulation. Such examples are, “We have imprisoned you without due processes or hope of it. You are indefinitely detained.” Hope building examples include, “Sorry. We have mistaken you for someone else. You will be compensated for false imprisonment and torture.” The main difference between the cybernetic technology and physical is that emotional state clusters can be entrained into the target mind which speeds up the process. The communication is done differently but perceived as human speech. In the no-touch torture methods it is helpful if the target is labeled with mental illness that is being created for discrediting purposes so as not to draw human rights groups’ attention.

2. Memory Erasure

The military and CIA have been researching memory erasing drugs for half a century. The focus of this summary report is on interrogation. Memory erasure is an important technique during interrogation. It is used in combination with sleep deprivation. There are many drugs that have been developed for physical memory erasure. One such interrogation method requires acquiring information from the target while on these drugs and recording the subject. After a sleeping cycle, the interrogator claims that the target has confessed. Of course the target remembers nothing of their conversation. The interrogator will play samples of the subject's conversation back to them making the subject believe that the interrogator knows more than they do. Similar techniques are used in the wireless, no-touch torture and interrogation programs. The cybernetic methods of memory erasure have additional purposes. The memory erasure can be used on the cybernetic target to make the target believe people have broken in and moved their belongings. While physical black bag jobs do occur, it is a way to make the target more paranoid.

3. Electricity and Shocks

Pain and fear of death are common tactics during interrogation. Shocking by electricity is a traditional method of torture and exposed in the CIA's secret prisons. Shocking the testicles and nipples are the most common due to their sensitivity. Interestingly, the thousand of interviews of no-touch torture involves "stings" and "shocks" to various parts of their bodies over long durations.

4. Fear and Terror

There are many techniques to induce extreme fear in the target. In physical renditions dogs, power drills, guns, insects, mutilation, blow torches, water boarding, suffocation, mock burials, and mock executions are just a few the United States government have used. Remember that many targets of torture die from the physical effects. It is torture to death.

Let us compare the no-touch torture methods used to inflict the same terror and mental anguish. In several of these techniques the target needs to hear their handler's voice. This report does not describe the technologies used to broadcast voices to the target at a distance. While the subject can be broadcast mental images to their mind using hypnosis and other suggestions as well as visual entrainments, the more invasive controls of the brain manipulation technologies can be used to entrained the brain's autonomic nervous systems such as not breathing causing the target to not be able to sleep from fear of suffocation equivalent to water boarding. The neural linguistic programming can add fears such as heart attack, stroke, and cancer threats. Even motor cortex mapping can cause twitches in any part of the body. One example used a swift neck movement with a voice transmission, "We are trying to break your neck." Directed energy effects such as Active Denial System can make the target feel that they are on fire indefinitely without the target dying from burns. Maximum pain and torture weapons have been evolving. Every drug effect can be artificially induced into the target mind including those of poisons.

5. Imprisonment and Isolation

Isolation is commonly used as punishment in prisons. Many whistleblowers like Bradley Manning suffer this condition. In soft interrogation it is used to get the target to talk to their interrogator since humans have the need for companionship. In no-touch torture the target is driven from their friends and family using different techniques in order to isolate them so that the electronic mind control has more effect on their psyche. Like in Guantanamo, the target becomes isolated losing their job and medical care. Part of the method involves slander in their community. They end up on the most part in poverty and paranoid about doctors and other people from false correlations that are purposefully induced into their lives. Isolation is also a form of sensory deprivation which will be discussed later. Days and weeks lose their meaning.

6. Sexually Disturbing Tailored Pornography

The Summary of the Senate Torture Report disclosed the disgusting revelations that in the secret torture prisons the targets were forced to perform homosexual acts on each other against their will and religion in order not to be beaten or killed. This is a common break down tactic of belief systems and the human will. In no-touch torture the techniques are more psychologically specialized for each target. Most common examples include homosexual targets that are forced with voices that are derogatory to their lifestyle and similar mental images. Almost all targets are forced to view child pornography in their minds. And vice versa is true, that heterosexual targets are forced to view homosexual sexual acts like in the secret U.S. torture prisons.

7. Mutilation

